THE SOCIAL HOUR

Everyone is cordially invited to come to the Parish House after the 11 o'clock service for a friendly chat and some refreshments. We welcome especially any strangers who are worshipping with us this morning.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS LETTERS

which were mailed to the Parish on December 30 have brought a prompt response, and we wish to thank all our people who have already sent in their pledges. Boxes of contribution envelopes were mailed just after Christmas to all parishioners who had been using them regularly; these envelopes for 1951 should have reached you, and if you have not received them, would you be good enough to notify the Parish Office. Envelopes for the current year will be mailed to those who have requested them on the pledge cards.

If you have not sent in your pledge, won't you give the matter attention as soon as possible.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

It is easy to overlook notifying the church of your change of address, but it is really important that you do so as soon as possible after the change, for this is the only way the Parish records can be kept up to date. Your cooperation in this matter will be sincerely appreciated.

OUR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

"The world situation has brought vividly to our attention the fact that the Church must be stronger if we expect the Christian Gospel to have any real influence on events. If the Church is to be stronger, we must have stronger men for the Ministry, and they must receive more adequate training. Recent visits to our seminaries convinces me that we do not only have large numbers in our Divinity Schools at present, but that they are better men."

This is a message from Bishop Hart, who is keenly interested and in close touch with the work which is being done. Next Sunday, our preacher at the 11 o'clock service will be the Very Rev. Frank D. Gifford, Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School, and on that day we will all have an opportunity to share, through our special contributions, in the great work the School is doing.

We welcome as our preacher this morning, the Rev. Canon Ernest C. Earp, rector emeritus of The Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr. Canon Earp is well known to many of us, and we are most happy to have him with us this morning.

THE SOCIAL HOUR

Everyone is cordially invited to come to the Parish House after the 11 o'clock service today, for a friendly chat and some refreshments. This invitation is extended especially to our visitors, who are most welcome, for this will give us an opportunity to know you better.

LENT

Lent is almost here. It is a time of year when we strive to enter into a deeper understanding of the love and sacrifice of Jesus Christ, and so to "true" our lives that we may make that sacrifice of continuing and increasing value in the life of the world today.

The Lenten folder with its schedule of services will be in the vestibule next Sunday. Will you plan now to make this Lent the most useful and helpful we have had together.

LENTEN READING

In a case in the vestibule of the church, you will find a small library of books suggested for Lenten reading, and provided by the Men's Club. The books are available free of any charge, the only request being that the person borrowing a book write his or her name, address, and the date on a card provided. Please try to return your books within a reasonable period of time, so that others may share in this privilege. A full list of the books available will be published next Sunday.

THE LENTEN FOLDERS

In the vestibule of the church, you will find the Lenten Folders which will give you the full schedule of Lenten Services. We hope you will take some for yourself and your friends.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday evening, February 6, at the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock ($1.00) followed by a business meeting. We are pleased to announce that Miss Ruth Custis Kitchen, who has recently returned from the Convention at Cleveland, will speak for us. Her subject will be "The National Council of Churches of Christ." We extend a cordial invitation to all the ladies of the parish to meet with us on the 6th.

DOROTHY C. WARHURST,
Chairman of Programs

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD

On Thursday, February 8, at 2:30 p. m. the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold their regular monthly meeting. The speaker will be Mrs. Lyle Jenne, of the Indians' Hope Committee. The subject is a matter of real importance to all of us today, and Mrs. Jenne has a message worth hearing. Every woman in the parish is urged to attend this meeting; you will find a warm welcome awaiting you.

THE WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

comes on Friday, February 9, this year, and the services in 93 countries will center around the text from I John 4:18, "Perfect love casts out fear."

In central Philadelphia there will be an interdenominational service at the First Baptist Church, 17th and Sansom Streets, from 12 noon to 2 p. m. You are urged to attend, even if you can only stay a short time, entering and leaving during the singing of one of the hymns.

The evening service will be held from 8 to 9 p. m. in the Chapel of the Holy Communion Lutheran Church, entrance at 2111 Sansom Street.

It will be a privilege not to be missed to join with Christians throughout the world as they unite in one service of prayer and praise that transcends all boundaries of race and nation.

RUTH CUSTIS KITCHEN

THIS AFTERNOON

at our 4:30 Service, the preacher will be Donald Whitesel, who has been with us at Holy Trinity as student assistant for the past three years. Mr. Whitesel will shortly be ordained to the Diaconate. We hope you will give him your support and your prayers.

MEDITATION

"Overcoming Worry"

THE REV. T. GORDON OTT

THE CANTATA—Jesu, Thou My Wearied Spirit

Bach

Jesus, Thou my wearied spirit through Thy grief and bitter death, out of Satan's darkest cavern and the anguish of my soul, by Thy power and might hast saved, and the truth to me revealed, through Thine ever-welcome word; be Thou now, O Lord, my shield.

Duet (Soprano and Contralto)

We hasten with feeble, but diligent footsteps, O Jesus, O Master, for help unto Thee. Thou faithfully seekest the sick and the wicked. Ay, hear us, we pray, our voices we raise; for Thy favor we pray Thee. O grant unto us Thy presence refreshing!

Recitative (Soprano)

Ah, I am a child of evil; Ah, I wander far and near. The sinful burden, on my spirit weighing, will leave me not while mortal life shall last. My feeble will doth strive for evil. My spirit cries, "Ah, who will not redeem me?" But to conquer flesh and blood and to attain a life of virtue is more than I can e'er achieve. If to reveal my wrongs I venture, I cannot tell how oft I have offended. Hence take I now my sin's distress and pain, and all my woeful burdens, with which I now am sore tormented, and all to Thee, Lord Jesus, sighing, bring. In Thy grace forgive my sins, which have, Lord, enraged Thee.

Aria (Tenor)

Thy blood, which doth my guilt redeem, gladdens my spirit, cheers my heart, and sets me free. When calls the lord of hell to battle, then standeth Jesus at my side; so will I arise, triumphant, arise and victor be.

Recitative (Bass)

The wounds, nails, thorns, and grave, the blows which they there the Saviour gave, are now to Him a crown of glory, and give to me renewed strength and power. When on the fearful Judgment Day a curse is laid on the condemned, He maketh it a blessing nor grief nor pain will evermore oppress me, for then my Saviour knew; and since Thy heart for me with love doth glow, in faith and hope unbounded, I lay my heart before Thee. This my heart, with grief distracted, by Thy precious blood redeemed, which, by Thee, was shed for me, give I Thee, Lord Jesus Christ.

Aria (Bass)

O Lord, my conscience wilt Thou quiet, which now on me revenge doth crave; yes, Thy devotion will fulfill it, to me Thy word doth hope afford. If thou to Him are faithful, no dreadful foe can evermore from His protection wrest thee.

Chorale

Lord, I trust Thee; help my weakness. Let me not in grief despair. Thou canst with Thy strength sustain me; naught for sin and death I care. In Thy goodness here I rest me till at last with joy I greet Thee. Near my Saviour let me be, there to live eternally.

MEDITATION

"The Significance of Silence"

THE REV. T. GORDON OTT

THE CANTATA—"The Light of God"

All those who slept since the beginning of the world, lay in darkness, in the shadow of death. And suddenly, at the hour of midnight; a golden light, as of the sun, a purple, royal, radiance fell, upon those realms that radiance shun.

Then trembled all the gates of hell. There spoke a voice those thunders awed, "Lift up your gates that I pass through! The King of Glory, Christ the Lord, to enter in hath come to you!" Lift up, ye gates, lift up!

At the sound of the voice the patriarchs and the saints, and the prophets, and all those who, since the beginning of the world, slept in Hades, in the shadow of death, awoke:

They lift them up, the gates of brass, bolts, bars and chains, they break asunder! From hell the lowring shadows pass, light floods it with celestial wonder. Behold the Christ! Lord Jesus comes, in form of man, in triumph holy, in brightness of the light on high, compassionate, and great, and lowly! And those sitting in the darkness of transgression were free of their prisons. But the legions of the demons, and Satan, prince of Tartarus, were terrified and fled away.

The saints of God knelt down and cried: "Thou hast come, O Redeemer of the world! That death no more may man betide, let Thy cross in the midst of hell abide!" And the Lord Christ set His cross in the midst of Hades, which is the sign of victory, there to abide even to eternity! And He raised up our forefather Adam, saying: "Peace be unto thee, Adam, and unto all thy children, through the ages of ages, for I have come to lead you unto the glorious grace of Paradise, you, you, and all the generations of men, time without end."

Thou hast come, O King of life, delivering men and bringing them into Thy kingdom everlasting. Thy sweet blood, Thy dear blood, Thou hast shed that we might die no more, but triumph with Thee in Thy Resurrection. Praise, power, honor, glory! Because Thou hast come from on high to redeem us!

They lift them up, the gates of brass! death's bars and chains, they break asunder! From souls of men, the shadows pass, in life immortal's radiant wonder!

WEDNESDAY EVENING SERVICE

On the Wednesday evenings during Lent, we are having a service of Evensong at 8 p. m., as announced in the Lenten folders which have been distributed. At the service on Wednesday of this week, February 21, the speaker will be the Rev. J. Aubrey Cragg, Vicar of our Chapel of the Prince of Peace. We hope that many of our parishioners will be here to hear Mr. Cragg.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

will hold their annual Celebration of Holy Communion on Washington's Birthday, February 22, at St. Stephen's Church, Tenth Street above Chestnut Street, at 8 a. m. The Service will be followed by a breakfast in the restaurant of the Snellenburg Store, at Eleventh and Market Streets. The speaker at the breakfast will be Mr. S. Wyman Rolph, a member of the Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd, Germantown, and a member of the National Council of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Mr. Rolph will speak on the subject "The Christian Leader." The cost of the breakfast will be $1.00 per person.

NEXT SUNDAY MORNING

at the 11 o'clock service, our preacher will be the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. This is Bishop Hart's official Visitation in this Parish, and we hope that our people will make a special effort to be present.

CREED AND PRAYERS

THE CANTATA—"Stabat Mater" Rossini

1. Introduction—Chorus and Quartet

Lord most holy! Lord most mighty! Righteous ever are Thy judgments.
Hear and save us, for Thy mercies' sake.

2. Air—Tenor

Lord! vouchsafe Thy loving-kindness, hear me in my supplication, and consider my distress. Lo! my spirit fails within me, Oh! regard me with compassion, and forgive me all my sin! Let Thy promise be my refuge, Oh, be gracious and redeem me, save me from eternal death!

3. Duet—1st and 2nd Soprano

Power eternal! Judge and Father! Who shall blameless stand before Thee, or who Thy dreadful anger fly! Hear, and aid us strength to gather, to obey Thee, still adore Thee, in hope and faith to die!

4. Air—Bass

Through the darkness Thou wilt lead me, in my trouble Thou wilt heed me, and from danger set me free. Lord! Thy mercy shall restore me, and the day-spring shed before me, all salvation comes from Thee!

5. Recitative—Bass and Chorus

Thou hast tried our hearts towards Thee; but if Thou wilt not forsake us, our souls shall fear no ill. Lord! we pray Thee help Thy people; save, O save them; make them joyful, and bless Thine inheritance.

MEDITATION

REV. T. GORDON OTT, S.T.M.

6. Quartet

I have longed for Thy salvation, and my hope was in Thy goodness!
Blessed be Thy Name, O Lord, for ever! Now and henceforth, we beseech Thee, turn our hearts to Thy commandments, and incline them evermore to keep Thy law.

Give Thy servants understanding, so that they may shun temptation, and in all things follow Thee. Oh! vouchsafe us true repentance, teach us always to obey Thee, and to walk the way of peace. Let Thy light so shine before us, and Thy mercy be upon us, even as is our trust in Thee.

7. Cavatina—2nd Soprano

I will sing of Thy great mercy, for I was in deep affliction, and Thou didst deliver me. I will call unto the people, and the nations all shall hear me, and shall praise Thy holy Name!

8. Air—1st Soprano and Chorus

When Thou comest to the judgment, Lord, remember Thou Thy servants! None else can deliver us. Save, and bring us to Thy kingdom, there to worship with the faithful, and for ever dwell with Thee!

9. Quartet

Hear us, Lord! We bless the Name of our Redeemer! and His great and wondrous mercies now and ever glorify!

10. Finale

To Him be glory evermore. Amen.

THE BLESSING

RECESSIONAL HYMN 346—Fairest Lord Jesus

St. Elisabeth

Our preacher this morning is the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, D.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania. Today is the Bishop's annual visitation to the Parish, and we extend to him a very warm welcome to The Church of the Holy Trinity.

THE SOCIAL HOUR

Everyone is cordially invited to come to the Parish House after the 11 o'clock service, for a friendly chat and some refreshments. This invitation is extended especially to any visitors worshipping with us today; we would like to meet you and get to know you better.

THE EARLY MORNING MISSION

During the week of March 12—Monday through Friday—there will be a Morning Mission, as in the past several Lenten seasons. The Mission will be conducted by the Rev. Thorne Sparkman, D.D., of The Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Keep the dates in mind—March 12 through March 16. Provision will be made for breakfast in the Parish House in the interval between the Service of Holy Communion at 7 a. m. and the Devotional Service at 8 a. m. On the leaflet next Sunday you will find a detachable coupon for your convenience in making reservations for breakfast.

RED CROSS APPEAL

The drive for funds for the American Red Cross will officially start with the traditional Red Cross Sabbath, February 24, and Red Cross Sunday, February 25.

The success of this campaign is vital because of the enormous responsibilities placed on the Red Cross by the expanding needs of the military forces, the civil defense program and the rising demands for blood.

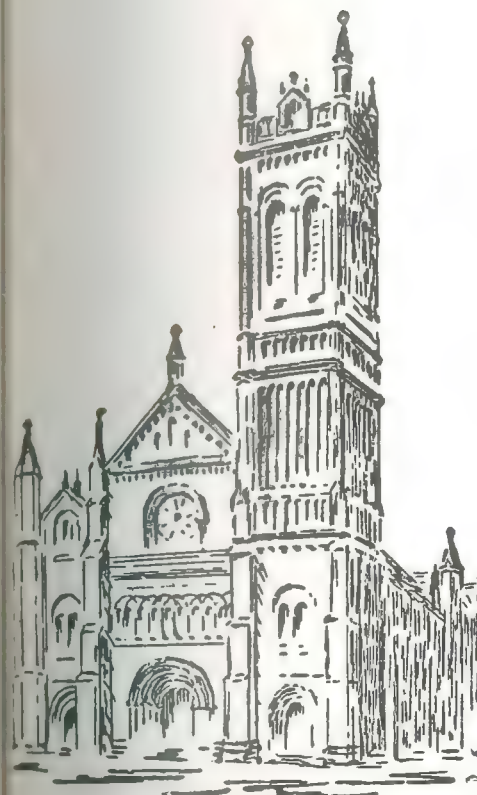

We hope our people will give warm personal support to this campaign.

CANTATA—"Bide With Us"

Bach

1. Chorus Bide with us, for eve is drawing onward, and the day is now declining.
2. Air Thou, whose praises never end, Son of God, vouchsafe to hear us; while before Thy throne we bend, let Thy favour still be near us. Grant, O grant us needful light, through the coming hours of night.
3. Chorale O bide with us, Thou Saviour dear, forsake us not when eve is near; Thy sacred word, clear guiding light; O grant it ne'er be quenched in night. In this our last and weakest hour, inspire us, Lord, with steadfast power, that undefiled Thy faith we keep, until in death secure we sleep.
4. Recitative Behold, around us, on every side, is darkness still increasing. And if we ask whence comes this darkness, hence it comes. 'Tis that, from the least to the greatest, scarce one in righteousness before his God is walking, and in the works the Saviour loves abounding; and thus instead of light there is but darkness.
5. Air Lord, to us Thyself be shewing, that no more we in ways of sin be going. May the light of Thy word on men be shining, all to trust in Thee inclining.
6. Chorale Lord Jesus Christ, Thy power display: Thou, Lord, whom other lords obey, Thy servants with Thy grace defend, that so their thanks may never end.

VESTRY ELECTION, APRIL 20, 1951

As announced recently, the Election of Vestry has been deferred from Easter Monday to April 20. This will be the first Election under the new Charter. A Nominating Committee has been appointed, consisting of

Charles Bancroft
Kathryn Breidenfeld
Ruth Custis Kitchen
Mrs. John P. Lutz

The congregation is urged to send nominations for the Vestry to the Nominating Committee, in care of the Parish House, before April 10. Please send in your suggestions as soon as possible.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday evening, April 3rd, in the Parish House. We will have as our guests the Afternoon and Evening Auxiliaries of Gloria Dei Church. Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock, and will be followed by a short business meeting.

We are pleased to announce that Mrs. Arthur Worthey, who has been with us before, will be our speaker. Miss Clara Szombat, our alto soloist, will favor us with several solos.

THE CANTATA—"Two Psalms"

Holst

PSALM 86—To my humble supplication, Lord, give ear and acceptance; save Thy servant, that hath none help nor hope but Thee alone. Send, O send relieving gladness to my soul opprest with sadness, which, from clog of earth set free, winged with zeal, flies up to Thee. Bow down thine ear O Lord, hear me; for I am poor and needy. Preserve my soul for I am holy; O thou my God, save Thy servant that trusteth in Thee. Be merciful unto me O Lord; for I cry unto Thee daily. Rejoice the soul of Thy servant, for unto Thee O Lord do I lift up my soul. For thou Lord are good and ready to forgive and plenteous in mercy unto them that call upon Thee; give ear O Lord unto my prayer and attend to the voice of my supplication.

I will praise Thee O Lord my God with all my heart and I will glorify Thy Name for evermore. To Thee, rich in mercies' treasure, and in goodness without measure, never failing help to those who on Thy sure help repose. Heavenly Tutor, of thy kindness, teach my dullness, guide my blindness, that my steps Thy paths may tread which to endless bliss do lead.

PSALM 148—Lord, who hast made us for thine own, hear as we sing before Thy throne. Alleluia. Accept Thy children's reverent praise for all Thy wondrous works and ways. Alleluia. Waves, rolling in on every shore, pause at His footfall and adore. Alleluia. Ye torrents rushing from the hills, bless Him whose hand your fountains fills. Earth, ever through the power divine, seedtime and harvest shall be thine. Sweet flowers that perfume all the air, thank Him that He hath made you fair. Burn, lamps of night, with constant flame, shine to the honour of His Name. Thou sun, whom all the lands obey, renew His praise from day to day. Alleluia.

amounted to more than $1,300. I wish to express my grateful appreciation to the congregation for making this excellent result possible.

T. GORDON OTT

THE SOCIAL HOUR

Everyone is invited to come to the Parish House after the 11 o'clock service this morning for a friendly chat and some refreshments. We hope that many of you will be able to come in and enjoy the pleasant fellowship. This invitation is especially for those who may be visiting Holy Trinity this morning; we are glad to have you worship with us, and we would be happy to meet you in the Parish House.

THE MEN'S DINNER

On Tuesday, April 10, at 6:15 p.m. the Men's Club of Holy Trinity will hold the regular dinner meeting. Cards have been mailed to the club members, but every man in the congregation is cordially invited to come. The dinner is an opportunity to get acquainted with other members of your church, and a very interesting program has been arranged for the evening. Miss Mary White, of Lower Merion Senior High School, will bring her fine pictures and give a talk on "A Trip Around Great Britain."

If you have not made reservations, be sure to call the parish office—Locust 7-1267—before noon Monday, April 9.

CONFIRMATION

There will be Confirmation instruction for anyone wishing to become a member of the Church, beginning on Sunday, April 22, at 2:30 p.m. We have several candidates who are expecting to attend the classes. If you know of anyone who is looking to Confirmation, or if you know of someone who is interested, will you be good enough to send the names, either to the parish office, or direct to Mr. Ott.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be held on Thursday afternoon, April 12, at 2:30. The speaker will be Mrs. Y. Y. Tsu, wife of Bishop Tsu, of Shanghai, China. Mrs. Tsu is a delightful speaker, and you will be well repaid if you attend the meeting. All the women of the congregation are cordially invited to come.

CANTATA—"Miriam's Song of Triumph"

Schubert

STRIKE your timbrels, Hebrew maidens,

Miriam bids upraise the lay;

Mighty is the Lord at all times,

Mightier hail we Him to-day.

Out of Egypt, as a shepherd

Guards his flock and shows the way,

Thou hast led Thy chosen people,

Fire by night and cloud by day.

Shepherd! Thou hast led us onward;

Strong Thine arm and keen Thine eye;

At Thy word the sea obedient

Parts and leaves a pathway dry.

At Thy blast the floods congealing,

Stand upright as crystal walls;

Thro' the sea's heart pass we dry-shod,

Trusting in Thy voice which calls.

As we pass the sky grows darker,

Voices shout, "We will pursue!"

Armour gleaming, trumpets clanging,

Pharaoh's host bursts on the view.

Lord of hosts, this hour we perish:

Help us, Lord, our Rock prove true,

Voices shout, still pressing onward, "We will pursue and overtake."
But hark! What sighings! wailings! moanings! cursings! Hark! the storm!
'Tis the Lord in all His fury. Headlong rush the pent-up waves. Pharaoh's chariots! horse and rider! mighty waters overwhelm them.

Fearfulness and dread upon them fall:

By darkness and horror are they smitten:

Drown'd the captains and drown'd the host.

Egypt's King! as lead sinks he down beneath

The mighty flood. Earth hath swallowed all.

God no more her tide restraining,

All her shores the sea regaining,

Ne'er restoreth king or slave—

Her sad waste at once both shroud and grave.

Strike your timbrels, Hebrew maidens,

Miriam bids upraise the lay;

Mighty is the Lord at all times,

Mightier hail we Him to-day.

There will be an election for twelve (12) Vestrymen on Friday, April 20, 1951, between the hours of 4 and 6 p. m., in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. Voting by written proxy is permitted.

Those qualified to vote are all lay confirmed members of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the age of at least 21 years, who shall have been worshippers in this Church as their usual place of public worship for at least three years, and who shall appear by the books of the Corporation to have been contributors of record during each of three successive years immediately preceding such election, or shall be members as shall appear by the Vestry books to have paid two successive years immediately preceding the time of such election for a pew or sitting in the said Church.

The Vestry has prepared from the Church records a list of those who are eligible to vote. Each member known to be entitled to vote is being notified by mail. Any regular worshipper in this Church who receives no such notice should notify the Vestry in writing prior to noon Wednesday, April 18, 1951 at 1904 Walnut Street, in order that his eligibility for voting may be determined.

THE HOUSE OF REST CARD PARTY

On Thursday of next week, April 26, the House of Rest will have a Card Party and Fashion Show at the Woman's Club of Germantown, 21 West Washington Lane. This is the Home's annual party, and it is always a gala affair. We hope that a number of our people will be able to attend. The charge, including tax, is $5.00 for tables, or $1.25 for single tickets, and tickets are available in our parish office. Your participation in this enterprise will not only give you a delightful afternoon, but will be so helpful to our Diocesan home.

The date—Thursday, April 26

The time—1:30 P.M.

The place—Woman's Club of Germantown, 21 West Washington Lane.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Confirmation classes begin next Sunday, April 22, at 2:30 p.m. Mr. Ott has several names, and would be glad to know of additional candidates. If you know of anyone who is interested in making a connection with the Church, please tell them about these classes, or give the names to Mr. Ott, and he will make every effort to contact them. Bringing people into the Church is the responsibility, not only of the Clergy, but of every member.

Kyrie

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Gloria

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

MEDITATION

REV. T. GORDON OTT, S.T.M.

Credo

I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God; begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God; begotten, not made; being of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man: and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried: and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures: and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father: and he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord, and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified; who spake by the Prophets: and I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church: I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins: and I look for the Resurrection of the dead: and the Life of the world to come. Amen.

Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Amen.

Benedictus

Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Agnus Dei

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, Grant us thy peace.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 289—O God, our help in ages past St. Anne

THE SOCIAL HOUR

Everyone is invited to come to the Parish House after the 11 o'clock service this morning for a friendly chat and some refreshments. We hope that many of you will be able to come in and enjoy this pleasant interlude.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

will be held on Sunday afternoons at 2:30, and we urge that any persons who are interested in learning more about the Church, or who are desirous of joining with the Church, attend these lectures. The classes will be conducted by Mr. Ott in the Parish House, commencing this afternoon.

FOR OUR FRIENDS IN ENGLAND

Those of us who contributed through "Packages for Britain," now disbanded, to specific families in England, have made valued friendships there. The appreciation of these food parcels has been deep and sincere.

CARE will continue this service for us, delivery guaranteed. At this time they have a very special $10.00 package containing a variety of scarce and rationed foods, and for $11.50 there is also an all-meat parcel.

The office of CARE is in Lit Brothers store, street floor, Market Street entrance, and arrangements for packages may be made there at the office; or by mail if that is more convenient. The office is listed in the telephone book and information may be secured by telephone.

1. Chorus

Praise our God in all His splendor, glorify Him in His honor, and extol His majesty. Seek most worthily to praise Him when ye with a mighty chorus sing a song to honor Him.

2. Recitative (Tenor)

Then did Jesus lift up His hands on high and blessed His disciples; and it befell, while He was blessing them, that He departed.

3. Recitative (Bass)

Ah! Jesus, is Thy parting then so near? Ah! is the hour so soon at hand when Thy farewell from us Thou takest? Consider, how the bitter tears from our pallid cheeks are ever flowing, how we for Thee are yearning, who then would be our Comforter. Ah! do not yet depart!

4. Aria (Contralto)

Ah, leave me not, my dearest Saviour, Ah, turn Thou not so soon from me! Thy parting which so soon approacheth, bringeth me greatest pain and suffering; I pray Thee leave me not, ah, turn Thou not so soon from me! Apart from Thee but pain remaineth, anguish sore and pain remaineth. Ah, leave me not, my dearest Saviour, ah, turn Thou not so soon from me.

5. Recitative (Tenor)

And behold, He rose from among them and ascended into heaven, and a cloud took Him away while yet they watched Him, and He sitteth at the right hand of God the Father.

6. Chorale

Now all things lie before Thy throne, Thou Lord of all creation, Thine angels serving Thee alone, and rend'ring adoration. Princes their homage to Thee pay, and kings their crowns before Thee lay; earth, water, fire and ocean must render The devotion.

MEDITATION

REV. T. GORDON OTT, S.T.M.

7. Recitative (Tenor)

And while they looked steadfastly up to heaven, behold, there stood beside them two men in white apparel, and said to them: "Ye men, ye Galileans, why stand ye gazing up into heaven. This same Jesus which now from you is taken up into heaven, returneth as yourselves did see Him go, on high to heaven.

8. Recitative (Contralto)

Dear Lord, return Thou soon to earth, remove from me all gloom and sadness, else every hour shall be to me accursed, an endless age each moment.

9. Recitative (Tenor)

Then the disciples worshipped Him, and they turned to Jerusalem from the mountain called the Mount of Olives, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, and therefrom a Sabbathday's journey lieth, and returned again unto Jerusalem with great rejoicing.

10. Arie (Soprano)

Lord, my vision still retaineth Thy last look, so full of love. Thy sweet spirit yet remaineth, so may we, while here below, in our hearts some foretaste know of the joy that never waneth, in Thy heavenly courts above.

11. Chorale

When will my Saviour call me? When shall I see Him surely? When comes the gladsome day? Within His arms to stay? O Day, when can we go, to give our Saviour greeting, our blest Redeemer meeting. Come, then, thy splendor show!

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art, who dost Thy seven-fold gifts impart. Thy blessed unction from above, is comfort, life, and fire of love. Enable with perpetual light, the dullness of our blinded sight; anoint and cheer our soiled face, with the abundance of Thy grace. Keep far our foes, give peace at home, where Thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son, and Thee of both to be but one,

CANTATA—"Our Glorious King"

Van Hulse

PART I The Transfiguration

Prelude: Based on a mediæval plain-song from the Ascension service.

Recitative: (Tenor): And after six days, Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain, apart. And was transfigured before them.

Chorus: And his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

Recitative: (Tenor): And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias, talking with him. Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus:

Arietta: (Baritone): "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles: one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias."

Recitative: (Tenor and Chorus): While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice out of the cloud which said:

Voice: (Bass): "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye Him."

Chorus: O Saviour, who for man hast trod the wine-press of the wrath of God, ascend, and claim again on high Thy glory, left for us to die. O Christ our Lord, in Thy dear care, the lowly members heavenward bear; be ours, for Thee to suffer pain, and with Thee evermore to reign.

PART II The Prophecy

Jesus: (Bass): These things have I said unto you, being yet present with you.

A little while, and ye shall not see me; and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

Chorus: What is this that he saith, A little while? We cannot all what he saith.

Jesus: (Bass): I go to prepare a place for you. I am come from the Father, and am come into the world; again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. These things have I spoken to you, that in me ye might have peace.

Chorus: Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates! Behold: the King of glory waits: the King of Kings is drawing near; the Saviour of the world is here.

HYMN 379—Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost

Capetown

MEDITATION

REV. T. GORDON OTT, S.T.M.

PART III The Ascension

Chorus: Hail to the day that sees Him rise to His throne above the skies; Christ, the Lamb for sinners given, enters now the highest heaven.

Recitative: And He led them out as far as to Bethany, and He lifted up His hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

Chorus: See, the Conqueror mounts in triumph; see the King in royal state, riding on the clouds, His chariot to His heavenly palace gate!

Chorus: Christ our King to heaven ascendeth, past the blue sky's utmost bound; Christ our King to heaven ascendeth, clouds of angels close Him round. Glory be to God on high! Alleluia.

PART IV Epilogue Let Us Give Thanks

Bass Solo: O come ye all, and let us render thanks unto the Lord, the Giver of all good; thanks be to God, Creator and Lord.

Chorus: Thanks unto the Lord! Praise ye the Lord; give thanks unto the Lord: for He is good; for His mercy endureth forever.

Baritone Solo: O give thanks to Christ, our glorious King, Redeemer of us all, our Faith and only Hope. O'er Death and Sin He triumphed for our sake. O come, let us thank Him; in Heaven and on Earth His glory shall endure.

Chorus: Thanks unto the Lord!

Tenor Solo: Christ our King, before He rose to Heaven, bequeathed unto us the Comforter Divine, the Holy Spirit of Mercy, Truth, and Love.

Trio: (Tenor, Baritone and Bass): O come ye all, give thanks to God the Father. O give thanks to Christ, our glorious King who thrones in Heaven; to Christ our Redeemer give thanks. O come ye all, and let us render thanks unto the Holy Spirit, our Comforter, our Light. Thanks unto the Lord.

Chorus and Trio: Thanks to God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost!

Glory and Praise to our Triune God! Glory and Praise! Thanks to the Lord! Praise ye the Lord, and render thanks! Alleluia. Amen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 489—Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing

TRINITY SUNDAY, MAY 20TH

is the patronal festival of this church. On May 25, 1857, ninety-four years ago, the corner-stone was laid, and the name of Holy Trinity was given to our church. Next Sunday, at the 4:30 P.M. service, Mr. Ott will speak on some of the things Holy Trinity has stood for through the years, and a Te Deum will be sung as an act of thanksgiving.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

When you came into church this morning, did you notice the poster on the door? The thermometer marks the percentage of the women in the parish who are contributors to the United Thank Offering.

At a recent meeting of the parish custodians of the Diocese, it was agreed to set out on a "Great Adventure—every woman a prayerful contributor to the United Thank Offering."

Will you not help your custodian in this "Great Adventure" which has as its goal one hundred percent participation of the women of Holy Trinity Parish? The power of the offering comes not from a few large gifts, but from the great number of sharers in the Offering.

Won't you join in this great undertaking? It is a fine way to show your thankfulness to God by helping to spread the Tidings of Great Joy. You will find blue envelopes in the pews for this purpose.

The Diocesan Presentation Service will take place in Holy Trinity this coming Thursday evening, May 17, at 8 o'clock.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD

At the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, held on Thursday, May 10, the following officers were elected:

President	Mrs. John P. Lutz
Vice Presidents
Community Committee	Mrs. Wm. W. Arnett
Missions	Mrs. Ross E. Gorsuch
Parish Work	Mrs. J. B. Rudolphy

THE DIOCESAN ADVANCEMENT FUND

In 1950 the Diocesan Convention called for the immediate development of a sum of $400,000 for Diocesan Advancement. This is the most important undertaking in our Diocese in over twenty years. It will give, if raised in full

1. $150,000 for implementing new work in the Diocese
2. $125,000 for sorely needed dormitory and classroom space at Philadelphia Divinity School
3. $125,000 for a Conference Centre, where the young folks and other groups of our Diocese may gather for meetings.

As a parish, we shall of course do our level best to give our full share. Next Sunday morning, Mr. Robert N. D. Arndt, Vice Chairman of the Fund, will speak to us. Leaflets explaining the Fund clearly and briefly will be found in the pews at that time. Personal solicitations will be made during this coming week, concluding with the Parish Offering in which all may participate on SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 3rd.

EVENING AUXILIARY FOOD SALE

Next Saturday, May 26, is the date of the Sale and Tea which our Evening Auxiliary holds each year. This is always a most enjoyable occasion, with all sorts of delectable things for sale—cakes, cookies, candies, rolls and other wonderful articles to tempt you—all homemade, and all delicious. And then, when you have bought all you can carry, there will be refreshing tea awaiting you.

To every member of our Parish, and to their many friends, we send a cordial invitation to come to the Parish House next Saturday. You will not only be helping the work of our Evening Auxiliary, but you and your friends will enjoy a fine afternoon.

Saturday, May 26, 12:30 to 4:30 p.m., in the Parish House.

THE SOCIAL HOUR

Everyone is cordially invited to come to the Parish House after the 11 o'clock service today, for some refreshments and a friendly chat.

Great joy is mine when Thou art near: my Saviour, comfort me. Hide not Thy face, look on Thy servant. In pain and sorrow wilt Thou heal me; Lord, hear the voice of my complaint. O Lord my God, comfort Thy servant. Lord, hear me when I cry to Thee; help me, my God, my Saviour. Thou art my guide, Thou art my Saviour, O hear me when I call to Thee. Thou art my life, my strength, my joy.

ERIC BELAR, Bass

1. Introduction
2. Recitative In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth; and the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep.
Chorus And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.
Recitative And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.
3. Air Now vanish before the holy beams the gloomy shades of ancient night; the first of days appears. Now chaos ends, and order fair prevails. Affrighted fly hell's spirits black in throngs: down they sink in the deep abyss to endless night.
Chorus Despairing, cursing rage attends their rapid fall. A new-created world springs up at God's command.
4. Recitative And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. Now furious storms tempestuous rage, like chaff, by the winds impelled are the clouds, by sudden fire the sky is inflamed, and awful thunders are rolling on high. Now from the floods in steam ascend reviving showers of rain, the dreary, wasteful hail, the light and flaky snow.
5. Solo The marvelous work behold amazed the glorious hierarchy of heaven; and to the ethereal vaults resound the praise of God, and of the second day.
Chorus And to the ethereal vaults resound the praise of God, gathered together to one place, and let the dry land and of the second day.
6. Recitative And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be appear: and it was so. And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering of waters called He Seas: and God saw that it was good.

7. Air Rolling in foaming billows, uplifted, roars the iterous sea. Mountains and rocks now emerge, their tops among the clouds ascend. Through the open plains, outstretching wide, in serpent error rivers flow. Softly purling, glides on through silent vales the limpid brook.

8. Recitative And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

9. Air With verdure clad the fields appear, delightful to the ravished sense; by flowers sweet and gay enhanced is the charming sight. Here fragrant herbs their odours shed: here shoots the healing plant. With copious fruit the expanded boughs are hung: in leafy arches twine the shady groves; o'er lofty hills majestic forests wave.

10. Recitative And the heavenly host proclaimed the third day, praising God and saying:

11. Chorus Awake the harp, the lyre awake, and let your joyful song resound. Rejoice in the Lord, the mighty God; for He both heaven and earth has clothed in stately dress.

12. Recitative And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of heaven, to divide the day from the night, and to give light upon the earth; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and for years. He made the stars also.

13. Recitative In splendour bright is rising now the sun, and darts his rays; a joyful, happy spouse, a giant proud and glad to run his measured course. With softer beams, and milder light, steps on the silver moon through silent night; the space immense of the azure sky a countless host of radiant orbs adorns. And the sons of God announced the fourth day in song divine, proclaiming thus His power:

14. Chorus The heavens are telling the glory of God, the wonder of His work displays the firmament;

THE DIOCESAN ADVANCEMENT FUND

Next Sunday morning, June 3, we shall take a special offering for our Parish share of the $400,000 Fund being raised in our Diocese for

1. Diocesan extension
2. Philadelphia Divinity School
3. Conference Center

Mr. Charles Bancroft has kindly consented to be Parish Chairman for this undertaking. You will find leaflets in the pews today explaining the Fund clearly. Anyone wishing to pledge a particular sum may obtain pledge cards from the Chairman at the close of this service, in the vestibule of the church.

This appeal is a very necessary one, and we are sure the congregation of Holy Trinity will respond cheerfully and generously to the first appeal for Diocesan work since 1929, because of the three objects involved, and to uphold the hands of Bishop Hart in the worthwhile leadership which he has given our Diocese during the past eight years.

We are very glad to have with us this morning, Mr. Robert N. D. Arndt, Vice Chairman of the Fund, who will speak to us about this appeal. We welcome Mr. Arndt to the Church of the Holy Trinity.

THIS AFTERNOON

our choir, under the leadership of Robert Elmore, will sing the first part of The Creation, by Haydn.

This will be the last afternoon service until the fall.

HOLY TRINITY'S NEW RECTOR WILL OFFICIATE THIS SUNDAY

The Rev. Harry S. Longley will begin his ministry at Holy Trinity this Sunday, September 9th. He will officiate at the services at 8 and 11 o'clock, and will preach at the latter.

HOLY TRINITY NEIGHBORS

Holy Trinity's new rector is anxious to meet personally and to talk intimately with all the members of the parish just as soon as he possibly can.

To facilitate this, the vestry has selected a number of men of the parish, chosen from its various neighborhoods, to help the rector in getting acquainted. This group will be a continuing one for some time to come. Its members will meet with the rector this week and, as one of their first duties, will plan for neighborhood gatherings during the next three months.

The first of these neighborhood gatherings will probably be in the Parish House, with those in the immediate vicinity of the church in attendance. Perhaps there will be two or three such downtown meetings because each different group should be a small one. Then, neighbors in outlying sections will be asked to meet together for an evening with the rector. Some of you will be asked to let us come to your home for this gathering at which there will be twenty or twenty-five people present, including the host and hostess. Announcement of the various meetings will be in the Bulletin.

During the next three months, it is the rector's hope that he may spend the Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings of each week at the neighborhood gatherings as they are held one after the other until the whole parish is covered.

HOLY TRINITY RECTOR'S MEN

The Rector's Men will arrange the meetings spoken of in the paragraph above. They will keep the rector informed of the needs of the members of their neighborhood groups. They will report illness and difficulty. They will tell the rector about new families on whom he should call. They will be a liaison between him and the people of the parish in many ways.

The Rector's Men are:

Charles Bancroft	Dr. George D. Geckeler	F. R. Goehring
Wm. E. Caveny, Jr.	Wm. H. DuBarry	Wm. M. Boenning
W. Clark Hanna	Wm. M. West	Edw. R. McQuillan
Robt. B. Selfridge	J. B. Sidebotham	James J. Miller
C. C. Morris	Frank N. Kneas	John P. Lutz
Charles J. Kenkelen	H. C. Griffith	Dr. J. B. Rudolph
	Dr. J. Harold Austin

RECTOR'S MEN WILL MEET ON WEDNESDAY, September 12th

The Rector's Men will have their first meeting with the rector this week on Wednesday, September 12, in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, at 7:45 P.M. Mr. John Lutz, aided by his good wife, has represented the vestry in choosing the rector's men and dividing the parish into small neighborhoods. He is arranging for this initial meeting. The Parish is indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Lutz.

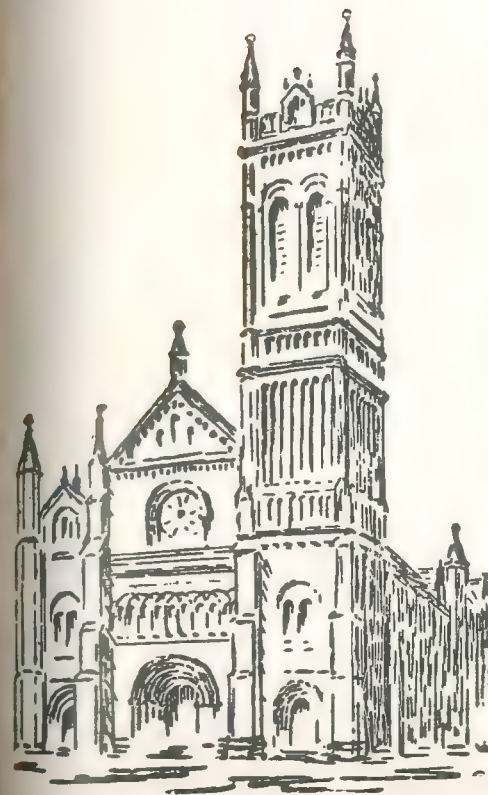

RECTOR TO BE INSTITUTED SUNDAY, September 16th

Although Dr. Longley will conduct the services this Sunday, September 9th, his formal institution as rector will take place at the 11 o'clock service on the following Sunday, September 16th, with Bishop Hart as the officiant and preacher. This service is found in the Book of Common Prayer on page 564, and is entitled "An Office of Institution of Minsters." It has been called one of the most informative and impressive services of the Church.

BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE TO INSTITUTE RECTOR.

One of the services of the Church found in that section of the Book of Common Prayer known as the Ordinal is called "An Office of Institution of Ministers into Parishes or Churches." The first paragraph of the rubric pertaining to this service reads, "The Bishop having received due notice of the election of a minister into a parish or church, as prescribed by canon, and being satisfied that the person chosen is a qualified minister of this Church, may proceed to institute him into the Parish."

This service will be held to institute the Reverend Harry S. Longley as rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. After the service itself, Bishop Hart will be the preacher. Also at this service, the choir will sing one of the great works of Mendelssohn, "The Hymn of Praise."

NEWS OF THINGS HAPPENING AT HOLY TRINITY

THE NEW RECTORY, purchased by the vestry during the past summer, is located in Ardmore at 116 Bleddyn Road. The Longleys are now in residence. The rectory telephone is Ardmore 6511.

THE ASSOCIATE RECTOR and his family are living at Black Rock and Righters Mill Roads, Gladwyne.

PEW CARDS will be found in the pews this Sunday for use by old and new members alike, in order to furnish information to the clergy of the parish. Please note that cards with messages should not be put back in the holders, but either handed to one of the clergy after the service, or left in the pew.

LENTEN NOON DAY services to be held every day during next Lent are being planned. Two Bishops have already accepted our invitation to preach, the Rt. Rev. Lauriston L. Scaife of Western New York, and the Rt. Rev. Wilburn C. Campbell, formerly of Ascension Church, Pittsburgh, now Bishop Coadjutor of West Virginia. Canon Theodore Wedel of the National Cathedral will be the preacher during Passion Week.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON SERVICES BEGIN OCTOBER 7

Great Religious Music Will Be Sung

Once again, the works of the great religious composers will be heard every Sunday afternoon at Holy Trinity, at 4:30 o'clock, beginning Sunday, October 7. During October, under the direction of Robert Elmore, "The Creation" will be sung, Parts I, II, and III, on successive Sundays. At the All Saints season, Faure's "Requiem" will be heard.

Here is the choir roster:

YOUNG ADULT MEETING TONIGHT

at Y. W. C. A.

All young adults of this parish are invited to an open house this evening at the Y.W.C.A., 2027 Chestnut Street, starting with tea at 6 o'clock, followed by a program at 7. This meeting is sponsored by the Twenty Club of the First Presbyterian Church.

It is suggested that Holy Trinity Young Adults meet at the Parish house, 1904 Walnut Street, at 5:30 and walk to the meeting together.

GROUP MEETINGS, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY at 8 P.M.

From now until November, neighborhood groups are meeting with the rector three evenings each week to help the rector get acquainted and to hear something of his thinking about our parish life. Each person is asked to attend one of these meetings. This is a terrific assignment for the rector who must attend all the meetings but it will be tremendously worthwhile if the people are responsive.

Next Tuesday night, the meeting will be for Locust Street people in the neighborhood of 20th to 22nd Street, Locust to Pine Street in the neighborhood of 16th and 17th Streets, and the Rittenhouse Square—Delancey Street neighborhood around 18th and 20th Streets.

Wednesday night's groups are the Spruce—Delancey, 18th to 21st people, Spruce—Pine, 17th to 19th, Delancey—Pine 21st to 24th Streets. Mr. C. C. Morris is the leader of the Spruce-Delancey group.

Thursday night, the groups are Chestnut to Pine 13th to 17th Street, and Walnut—Spruce, Broad to 17th Streets.

At the present time, only one of these groups has a leader. This is the area of our greatest "group leader deficiency." Because this is true, the personal responsibility of each person to attend the meetings is all the greater. Come to your meeting! The rector is anxious to see and to talk with you.

PEOPLE

Visitors who signed cards at last Sunday morning's service included: Miss Grace Hershey, 3800 Spruce Street; Mrs. Meta Uphoff, 1027 Wagner Street; Gene Widenhouse, 2014 Walnut Street; Robert H. McNew, Jr., 220 So. 30th Street, Camden, N.J.; Lester B. Kinnamon, Jr., U. of P. Medical School, Phila. 4; Rear Adm. J. F. Bowling, Mrs. Bowling and Kathryn Bowling, 1911 Ringgold Place; Donald Hand, Washington, D.C.; Dr. Paul Witmer, 1303 Green Street; Miss Ethel F. Cox, 613 E. Willard Street.

Two members of the armed services signed cards: John M. Wright, U.S.S. Block Island; Cpl. Robert F. Sebert, Hq. Co. 43rd Div., Camp Pickett, Va.

Radio listeners who wrote in appreciation of the service included: Henry G. Mitchell, Harrison Home; Charles Jackson, 615 E. 168th St., New York. N.Y.; Miss Katharine A. Dutcher, 109 Penarth Road, Bala-Cynwyd; Miss Mary W. McCuen, 4314 Sansom St.; Mrs. Emma Travilla, 7243 No. Barnard Ave.; Frank L. Gernet, 529 Allen St., Allentown.

A letter of transfer to the Church of the Holy Trinity has been requested by Mrs. Frederick Bachman, 345 South 18th St.

ANNUAL BAZAAR to be held in NOVEMBER

Mrs. George Eyre Smith, Mrs. Ross E. Gorsuch, and Miss Kathryn Breidenfeld are already at work choosing leaders and making plans for the annual Auxiliary Bazaar to be held this year Thursday, November 29th. There will be more about this later.

NOTE TO TEEN AND COLLEGE AGE YOUNG MEN

The Associate Rector is anxious to meet with young men interested in assisting at the services of the church. He will be at the Parish House on Thursday evenings, September 20th and 27th, at 7 P.M. to meet with any who are interested.

RECTOR TO PREACH SERMON SERIES ON THE BIBLE

Beginning on Sunday, September 30th, one week from this Sunday, the Rector will begin a series of five sermons on the Bible. The sermon titles are: September 30, "We look at the Bible as a whole;" October 7, "The Old Testament, why isn't it enough?" October 14, "The Gospels, the history of God's Redeeming, Saving Love;" October 21, "The Epistles, God's Redemptive Power;" October 28, "Revelation,—the Great Salvation."

Thursday, 8 P.M. the New Jersey group meeting at The Woods, 120 Parkview Apts., W. Collingswood, N. J.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS TUESDAY, 6:15 P.M.

The Rector will be the speaker at the dinner meeting of the Evening Auxiliary this coming Tuesday at 6:15 P.M.

KOREA CLOTHING COLLECTION, SUNDAY THE 7TH

Women's Auxiliaries in all Diocese of Pennsylvania parishes have been asked to sponsor the collection of good used clothing for the American Clothing Relief for Korea committee. You are asked to bring clothing and places of deposit will be found in the church porch on Sunday, the seventh of October, one week from this Sunday.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON SERVICES BEGIN OCTOBER SEVENTH. RECEPTION AFTERWARD

The choir will open the Sunday afternoon series of services on Sunday, October 7th, at 4:30 with the singing of Part I of Haydn's masterpiece, "The Creation." The associate rector will preach at this service.

Students, young marrieds, and youth are especially invited and all will be welcome at a tea in the Parish House following the service.

MEN: NOTE THE NEXT MEN'S CLUB DATE, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9

The members of the Men's Club are looking forward to welcoming the rector and associate rector at this meeting. Mark down the date now,—Tuesday, October 9.

NOTES

A new member of Holy Trinity is Miss Mary Nelson who is living at the Roosevelt Hotel, 23rd and Walnut Streets.

The Rector, in the past three Sundays, has enjoyed the presence of almost thirty parishioners from West Virginia and Iowa. Last Sunday, thirteen of these were present in a heart-warming experience. All told him that they felt at home in Holy Trinity, were warmly welcomed, and gained much from the corporate worship here.

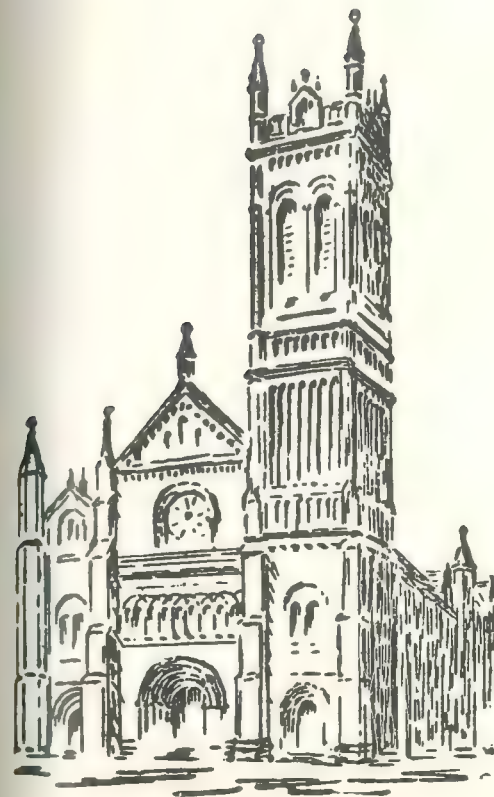

This Bulletin is being mailed each week. You should receive it in your home on Fridays or, at the latest, on Saturdays. If you are not receiving it, please let the parish office (Lo 7-1267) know.

The Sermon, this Sunday morning, will mention every book in the Bible. It will be interesting for you to review them as the sermon proceeds. (P.S. This does not mean that the sermon will be longer than usual.)

The Twentieth Sunday After Trinity

WORLD-WIDE COMMUNION SUNDAY

OCTOBER 7, 1951

During the entire twenty-four hours of this Sunday, Christians of all churches all over the world, Protestant, Catholic, and Orthodox will come to their altars to participate in the Lord's Supper. This will be the most momentous united action of all Christendom ever known—Christians everywhere gathered at the Lord's table.

May it be that every member of The Church of the Holy Trinity will join this united action today either at eight o'clock or eleven o'clock.

7. Air Rolling in foaming billows, uplifted, roars the mysterious sea. Mountains and rocks now emerge, their tops among the clouds ascend. Through the open plains, outstretching wide, in serpent error rivers flow. Softly purling, glides on through silent vales the limpid brook.

8. Recitative — Gabriel — And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

9. Air With verdure clad the fields appear, delightful to the ravished sense; by flowers sweet and gay enhanced is the charming sight. Here fragrant herbs their odours shed: here shoots the healing plant. With copious fruit the expanded boughs are hung: in leafy arches twine the shady groves; o'er lofty hills majestic forests wave.

10. Recitative — Uriel — And the heavenly host proclaimed the third day, praising God and saying:

11. Chorus Awake the harp, the lyre awake, and let your joyful song resound. Rejoice in the Lord, the mighty God; for He both heaven and earth has clothed in stately dress.

12. Recitative — Uriel — And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of heaven, to divide the day from the night, and to give light upon the earth; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and for years. He made the stars also.

13. Recitative — Uriel — In splendour bright is rising now the sun, and darts his rays; a joyful, happy spouse, a giant proud and glad to run his measured course. With softer beams, and milder light, steps on the silver moon through silent night; the space immense of the azure sky a countless host of radiant orbs adorns. And the sons of God announced the fourth day in song divine, proclaiming thus His power:

THE CANTATA—THE CREATION (Part I)—Joseph Haydn

Characters represented: Gabriel, June Goodman; Uriel, Arthur Abbott; Raphael, Eric Belar

1. Introduction (Representation of Chaos)
2. Recitative — Raphael — In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth; and the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep.
Chorus And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.
Recitative — Uriel — And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.
3. Air Now vanish before the holy beams the gloomy shades of ancient night; the first of days appears. Now chaos ends, and order fair prevails. Affrighted fly hell's spirits black in throngs: down they sink in the deep abyss to endless night.
Chorus Despairing, cursing rage attends their rapid fall. A new-created world springs up at God's command.
4. Recitative — Raphael — And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. Now furious storms tempestuous rage, like chaff, by the winds impelled are the clouds, by sudden fire the sky is inflamed, and awful thunders are rolling on high. Now from the floods in steam ascend reviving showers of rain, the dreary, wasteful hail, the light and flaky snow.
5. Solo — Gabriel — The marvelous work behold amazed the glorious hierarchy of heaven; and to the ethereal vaults resound the praise of God, and of the second day.
Chorus And to the ethereal vaults resound the praise of God, gathered together to one place, and let the dry land and of the second day.
6. Recitative — Raphael — And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be appear: and it was so. And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering of waters called He Seas: and God saw that it was good.

SEPTEMBER IN REVIEW, OCTOBER IN PROSPECT

GREAT TIMES AT THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

Congregations averaging well over four hundred people each Sunday have been present at Holy Trinity during the past month. The Rector and the Associate Rector have met personally over a hundred people at the neighborhood meetings and many others in personal calls at home. The Vestry has appointed committees to expedite the mission of Holy Trinity to people, is preparing an adequate budget for 1952. The Women's Committee is looking forward to the Bazaar in November. The Parish is on the march toward greater and ever greater usefulness in the redeeming saving work committed to it in the name of the Redeemer and Saviour, our Lord.

MEN'S CLUB MEETS THIS TUESDAY, AT 6:30 P. M.

The Rector will be the speaker at the first fall meeting of the Men's Club in the Parish House this Tuesday evening at 6:30. All interested men are invited to this meeting. The supper is $1.50 a plate.

NEW MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Schoerke, 318 South 21st St., have signified their desire to become members of The Church of the Holy Trinity and their letters of transfer here have been requested. Miss Margaret M. Wright, 2031 Locust St., has become a member of this Parish.

PARTNERS IN A GREAT FELLOWSHIP

Although all the seats in the church are hospitably available to all, and only a few still pay "pew rent," nevertheless the Rector finds it a pleasant thing to find the names of past and sometimes present members of the Parish imprinted on plates on the pews. He wandered up and down the aisles the other day reading such names as Fitler, Coffin, Stotesbury, Boles, Baker, Blanchard, Mahan, Buffington.

These names speak of the fact that the Church of the Holy Trinity is a family fellowship, a great partnership of members of the Body of Christ, working together that all may have Life and have it abundantly. It is not a group of isolated individuals but a compact brotherhood, like a mighty army, in which we all, not forgetting those gone on before us, are aware of each other and our common mission in Christ's Name.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS THURSDAY, 2:30 P. M.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets this coming Thursday at 2:30 P. M. in the Parish House. The Rector and Associate Rector will speak briefly at this meeting.

VISITORS AT HOLY TRINITY LAST SUNDAY

Miss Betty R. Stewart, Chateau Crillon; Mrs. Esther Langlois, 331 Smedley Street; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cheney, 261 W. Walnut Lane; Miss Olga Kremonosuk, 3415 Helen Street; Miss Pauline J. Gothie, 249 So. 49th Street; Miss Allison Beck, 213 Greenwood Avenue, Wyncote, Pa.; Orville Olson, Dover, Del.; Martha Otterson, The Cambridge, Germantown; Mrs. I. I. ## THE CANTATA—"THE CREATION" (Part II) Joseph Haydn

Characters represented: Gabriel, June Goodman; Uriel, Arthur Abbott; Raphael, Eric Belar

15. Recitative— Gabriel—And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.
16. Air— On mighty pens uplifted soars the eagle aloft, and cleaves the air in swiftest flight, to the blazing sun. His welcome bids to morn the merry lark, and cooing calls the tender dove his mate. From ev'ry bush and grove resound the nightingale's delightful notes; no grief affected yet her breast, Nor to a mournful tale were tun'd her soft, enchanting lays.
17. Recitative— Raphael—And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth; and God blessed them, saying, be fruitful all, and multiply, Ye wingéd tribes, be multiplied, and sing on every tree; multiply, ye finny tribes, and fill each wat'ry deep; be fruitful, grow, and multiply, and in Your God and Lord rejoice.
18. Recitative— Raphael—And the angels struck their immortal harps, and the wonders of the fifth day sung.
19. Terzetto— Gabriel—Most beautiful appear, with verdure young adorn'd, the gently sloping hills; their narrow, sinuous veins distil, in crystal drops, the fountain fresh and bright.
Uriel—In lofty circles play, and hover, in the air, the cheerful host of birds; and as they flying whirl, their glitt'ring plumes are dy'd as rain-bows by the sun.
Raphael—See flashing through the deep in thronging swarms the fish a thousand ways around. Upheavèd from the deep, th'immense Leviathan sports on the foaming wave.
Gabriel, Uriel, Raphael—How many are Thy works, O God! who may their number tell?
20. Trio and Chorus—The Lord is great, and great His might, His glory lasts for ever and for evermore.
21. Recitative— Raphael—And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth, after his kind.

Raphael — Straight opening her fertile womb, the earth obey'd the word, and teem'd creatures numberless, in perfect forms, and fully grown. Cheerful, roaring, stands the tawny lion. With sudden leap the flexible tiger appears. The nimble stag bears up his branching head. With flying mane, and fiery look, impatient neighs the noble steed. The cattle, in herds, already seek their food on fields and meadows green. And o'er the ground, as plants, are spread the fleecy, meek, and bleating flocks. Unnumber'd as the sands, in swarms arose the host of insects. In long dimension creeps, with sinuous trace, the worm.

23. Air —

Now heaven in fullest glory shone; earth smil'd in all her rich attire; the room of air with fowl is filled; the water swell'd by shoals of fish; by heavy beasts the ground is trod: but all the work was not complete; there wanted yet that wondrous being, that, grateful, should God's power admire, with heart and voice His goodness praise.

24. Recitative —

Uriel — And God created Man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them. He breath'd into his nostrils the breath of life, and Man became a living soul.

25. Air —

In native worth and honour clad, with beauty, courage, strength, adorn'd, erect, with front serene, he stands a man, the lord and king of nature all. His large and arch'd brow sublime of wisdom deep declares the seat; And in his eyes with brightness shines the soul, the breath and image of his God. With fondness leans upon his breast the partner for him form'd, a woman, fair and graceful spouse. Her softly smiling, virgin looks, of flow'ry spring the mirror, bespeak him love, and joy, and bliss.

OFFERTORY

26. Recitative —

Raphael — And God saw every thing that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And the heavenly choir, in song divine, thus clos'd the sixth day:

27. Chorus —

Achiev'd is the glorious work; the Lord beholds it, and is (well) pleas'd. In lofty strains let us rejoice, our song let be the praise of God.

28. Trio —

Gabriel and Uriel — On Thee each living soul awaits; from Thee, O Lord, all seek their food; Thou openest Thy hand, and fillest all with good:

Raphael — But when Thy face, O Lord, is hid, with sudden terror they are struck; thou tak'st their breath away, they vanish into dust:

Gabriel, Uriel, Raphael — Thou sendest forth Thy breath again, and life with vigour fresh returns; reviv'd earth unfolds new strength and new delights.

29. Chorus —

Achiev'd is the glorious work; our song let be the praise of God. Glory to His name for ever. He sole on high exalted reigns. Hallelujah.

CHORAL POSTLUDE: "Now it is evening"

Woodward

Twenty-three groups of Holy Trinity people have now met with the rector,—most of them at the Parish House, although last week the Robert Woods entertained most pleasantly in their Park View apartment in Collingswood, N. J.

This coming week, three groups are meeting as follows:

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the John Sidebotham's, 4731 Northwood Avenue, Frankford.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Clark Hanna's, 3319 Queen Lane.

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Charles Kenkelen's, 8216 Provident Road, Mt. Airy.

A SUNDAY CHURCH SCHOOL WILL START OCTOBER 21ST

Church School classes, during the 11 'clock service, for nursery age children (2 and 3 year olds), kindergarteners (4 and 5 year olds), and first graders will be available in the Parish House beginning Sunday, October 21st, one week from this Sunday. Teachers for each group will be there at 10:45 on Sunday mornings.

Classes for older children, 2nd grade through High School, will also be available, these children first coming to the eleven o'clock service and leaving during the sermon hymn. Mr. Pollanick will take charge of this group after they leave the church. All who plan to attend this group are asked to sit in the south aisle (geographically) or (ecclesiastically) the far aisle on the Gospel side of the church.

All groups will be dismissed when church is out to join with parents at the Coffee Hour.

Parishioners with children, and knowing of others, are urged to return the cards enclosed with the bulletin this week, mailing them or placing them on the alms basins at one of the services.

Let's have a growing Church School at Holy Trinity. Tell others about it.

WELCOME, NEIGHBOR

The neighboring parish of St. Mark's has a new rector,—the Reverend Emmett P. Paige. To him Holy Trinity sends greetings and a warm welcome to Philadelphia with all its opportunities for service in our Master's Name. The Reverend Emmett Paige is forty-six years old, has been rector of parishes in Poultney, Vermont, Gladstone, N. J. and Rosemont, Pa. He comes to the great work of St. Mark's with experience behind him and a great present skill. We are fortunate to have him in our midst.

A PRAYER WHICH WE ALL MIGHT USE

O Loving Father who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate and was made man in the Person of Jesus, our Redeemer and Saviour, give us grace by thy Holy Spirit that we may ever love Him more dearly, know Him more clearly, follow Him more nearly as we move forward in our life's pilgrimage. Amen.

LET'S USE OUR YOUNG MEN

Your rector is anxious to have the nation's flag and the church flag carried in procession with the choir as reminders and symbols, bold in the faith, that this is a nation, "under God," of free men in Christ. He has asked the associate rector to provide two young men each Sunday to carry the flags.

Incidentally, there are many opportunities open to young men to help our work here at the Church of the Holy Trinity. In the rector's former parish, during the twelve years of his rectorship there, six young men decided on the ministry as a life-vocation as a result of taking responsible positions in the work of the parish. It is a good thing for you to do and we need your help. Ask the rector or the associate rector about where you can be of service.

THE CANTATA—"THE CREATION" (Part III) Joseph Haydn

Characters: Gabriel, June Goodman; Uriel, Arthur Abbott; Raphael, Eric Belar;

Adam, Samuel Brick; Eve, Ethelwyn Whitmore

28. INTRODUCTION: MORNING

Recitative —

Uriel—In rosy mantle appears, by music sweet awak'd, the morning, young and fair. From heaven's angelic choir pure harmony descends on ravish'd earth. Behold the blissful pair, where hand in hand they go: their glowing looks express the thanks that swell their grateful hearts. A louder praise of God their lips shall utter soon; then let our voices ring, united with their song.

29. Duet —

Adam and Eve—By Thee with bliss, O bounteous Lord, both heaven and earth are stor'd; this world so great, so wonderful, Thy mighty hand has fram'd.

Chorus —

For ever blessed be His power, His name be ever magnified.
Adam—Of stars the fairest, pledge of day, that crown'st the smiling morn; and thou, bright sun, that cheer'st the world, Thou eye and soul of all:

Chorus —

Proclaim, in your extended course, th' almighty power and praise of God.

Eve—And thou that rul'st the silent night, and all ye starry hosts, spread wide and ev'rywhere His praise in choral songs about.

Adam—Ye mighty elements, by His power your ceaseless changes make; ye dusky mists, and dewy steams, that rise and fall thro' th' air:

Chorus —

Resound the praise of God our Lord. Great His name, and great His might.

Eve—Ye purling fountains, tune His praise, and wave your tops, ye pines. Ye plants, exhale, ye flowers, breathe to Him your balmy scent.

Adam—Ye that on mountains stately tread. And ye that lowly creep; ye birds that sing at heaven's gate, and ye that swim the stream:

Duet and Chorus — Ye creatures all, extol the Lord! Him celebrate, Him magnify.

Eve and Adam—Ye valleys, hills and shady woods, made vocal by our song, from morn till eve you shall repeat our grateful hymns of praise.

Chorus — Hail! bounteous Lord! Almighty, hail! Thy word call'd forth this wondrous frame, the heavens and earth Thy power adore; we praise Thee now and evermore.

OFFERTORY

30. Recitative — Adam—Our duty we have now perform'd, in offering up to God our thanks. Now follow me, dear partner of my life! Thy guide I'll be; and every step pours new delights into our breasts, shows wonders everywhere. Then may'st thou feel and know the high degree of bliss the Lord allotted us, and with devoted heart His bounties celebrate.

Eve—O thou for whom I am, my help, my shield, my all, thy will is law to me: so God our Lord ordains; and from obedience grows my pride and happiness.

31. Duet — Adam and Eve.

Adam—Graceful consort, at thy side softly fly the golden hours; ev'ry moment brings new rapture, ev'ry care is lull'd to rest.

Eve—Spouse adored, at thy side purest joys o'erflow the heart; life and all I have is thine; my reward thy love shall be.

Adam—The dew-dropping morn, O, how she quickens all!

Eve—The coolness of even, O, how she all restores!

Adam—How grateful is of fruits the savour sweet!

Eve—How pleasing is of fragrant bloom the smell!

Both—But, without thee, what is to me the morning dew, the breath of even, the sav'ry fruit, the fragrant bloom? With thee is every joy enhanced, with thee delight is ever new, with thee is life incessant bliss; thine, thine it all shall be.

32. Recitative — Uriel—O happy pair! and happy e'er to be, if not, misled by false conceit, ye strive at more than granted is, and more desire to know, than know ye should.

33. Chorus with Quartet—Sing the Lord, ye voices all, magnify His name thro' all creation, celebrate His power and glory, let His name resound on high. Praise the Lord. Utter thanks. Jehovah's praise for ever shall endure. Amen.

THIS IS YOUTH SUNDAY

A national observance by the Episcopal Church of Youth Sunday calls attention to the presence and importance of young people, in our own and every parish in the land. Today, throughout the Church, Youth are joining in an act of worship with all other young people, as youth united for Christ. The Youth also are sharing in the United Youth Offering, this year designated for work at Boluhan in interior Liberia.

TWO NEIGHBORING MEETINGS THIS WEEK

TUESDAY NIGHT: Mr. Edward McQuillan's group will meet at the Parish House at 8 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT: West Philadelphia group (leaders Mr. John P. Lutz and Mrs. Robert B. Selfridge) will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Selfridge, 4410 Walnut Street, West Philadelphia, at 8 P. M.

MEN'S CLUB CHOOSES NEW LEADERS FOR 1951 — 1952

At its recent meeting, the Men's Club chose new leaders for the coming year. The new President is Charles W. H. Bancroft; for Vice President, John B. Sidebotham was chosen and for Secretary, W. Clark Hanna. The Executive Committee of the Club is William M. Boenning, F. Rudolphy Goehring, Edwin Humphries, Charles J. Kenkelen, Frank N. Kneas, J. B. Rudolphy, Robert B. Selfridge, William M. West.

All Holy Trinity men and their friends are welcome at the meetings and as members.

ONE OF THE GREAT PRAYERS OF ALL TIME

O Lord, our Christ, may we have thy mind and thy spirit; make us instruments of thy peace; where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

IF A PLEASANT VOICE CALLS YOU

If a pleasant voice calls you this coming week, it will probably be the rector's secretary who will be seeking to complete our parish records. Church records are important and should be accurate. In several instances in our records, the name appears as, let us say for instance, "Mary C. Smith." What does the "C" stand for? It should read "Mary Clara Smith." In other instances, only the Holy Trinity member is listed. It would be better if the whole family were listed, even though the wife is, let us say, a Baptist and the children attend the Baptist Sunday School. Sometimes, we may not be sure about an address.

Please help us have good records in the Church office. This is the kind of thing which has to be done constantly and your help will be greatly appreciated.

NOTES

Between five and six hundred people attended the services at Holy Trinity last Sunday. Among them was the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania and also several members of the Penn football team who, we hope, found some post-Princeton consolation. One hundred thirty people attended the afternoon service and heard the choir sing Part Two of Haydn's "Creation."

The people of the Chapel of the Prince of Peace were hosts to the rector and Mrs. Longley last Sunday evening at a very lovely reception. The Chapel is very much alive. Sunday night something was happening in almost every room of its large parish house,—Scouts, Teen-agers, Men's Groups were all over the building.

YOUNG ADULTS AND YOUNG MARRIEDS—MEET YOUR RECTORS

Young adults and young married are invited to meet with the Rector and Associate Rector this Sunday afternoon at 5.45 (following Evensong). Refreshments are being supplied by the Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. As guests of honor, such a gathering will allow Dr. Longley and Mr. Pollanick to meet the young men and young women of the parish as a group, and to talk over with them some of their hopes and plans, particularly as they affect their age and interests. Be sure to be present.

SHORT ADDRESS, THE ASSOCIATE RECTOR

OFFERTORY

THE CANTATA—"Requiem" by Gabriel Faure

Grant them rest eternal, O grant them rest eternal, Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.

Hymns shall become Thee, O God in Zion, and to Thee shall new vows be paid in Jerusalem.

Hear Thou my prayer, O Lord God; unto Thee shall all flesh come.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Grant us Thy peace.

OFFERTORY

O Lord our God Jesus Christ, Thou all-glorious King, deliver Thou the souls of Thy servants from earthly bondage, and from the death of this mortal flesh; from death's dark valley, and from the shadows of the deep abyss. O Lord, our God, be Thou merciful; save Thou them from lasting darkness.

Unto Thee we offer, Lord, this sacrifice, unto Thee this prayer and praise; do Thou receive it for those beloved and honored whom we bless this day, whose memory we recall; Lord, let them pass from the death of the body of life eternal, as of old Thou didst promise unto Abraham and his seed. Amen.

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory. Glory be to Thee, O Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

BENEDICTUS

Blessed Jesus, Lord and God, grant them Thine eternal rest.

Gentle Shepherd lead them now through this darkness to Thy Day;

To Thy Life that knows no death,

To Thy Time that knows no end,

To that Home that ends the way.

Blessed Jesus, Lord and God, grant them Thine eternal rest.

AGNUS DEI

Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant them eternal rest.

Let light eternal shine upon them forever with Thy blessed servants, for that Thou art gracious, Lord, for that Thou art good.

Rest eternal grant them; let light perpetual shine upon them.

DELIVER ME

Deliver me, Lord, from death eternal upon that day of terror, upon that day of trial; then shall heaven and earth be moved, be consumed together, for Thou shalt come upon the earth in judgment.

Trembling, I stand before Thee and wait in fear till judgment shall come upon the earth and men shall know Thine anger.

Day of wrath and doom impending! Death then is struck and all creation wakes.

Day of wrath and day of sorrow! Great the waking, exceeding bitter.

Rest eternal grant them, Lord; let light perpetual shine upon them.

Deliver me, O Lord, deliver me.

IN PARADISE

In paradise be Thou received of angel hosts. Thy coming attended by all the blessed martyr throng, Thy pathway guided into the holy city, Jerusalem. May the chorus of angels there receive Thee; and with Lazarus, blessed of Abraham, Lazarus, once a beggar, now comforted of Abraham, be Thine eternal rest.

NOVEMBER EIGHTEENTH

This is the date for LOYALTY SUNDAY,—NOVEMBER EIGHTEENTH. On that day, your rector is asking that every member of the Church of the Holy Trinity be in the church at the eleven o'clock service. He is asking for a total mobilization of every interested partner in our parish fellowship. So that you may surely be there, won't you go now to your calendar, draw a circle 'round the date, and make no other engagements for that day. Be a participant in a great experience at Holy Trinity on November eighteenth.

TWO GROUP MEETINGS THIS WEEK

Don't miss your group meeting? Because it seems more convenient for the greatest number, this coming week's meetings will be held in the Parish House instead of in the neighborhoods. If you are not present at the meeting, the rector will come to call on you at your home. Help him by being at the meeting:

Tuesday:—West Philadelphia Group (Frank N. Kneas, leader)—8:00 P.M.

Thursday:—Delaware County Group (James J. Miller, leader)—8:00 P.M.

ALL SAINTS DAY, NOVEMBER FIRST

The Church's Memorial Season

Once again, the season of all Saints, the Church's Memorial Day, comes to hallow our lives with its call to blessed memories and its message of sure hope. Once again, it says to us, "There is no death,"—those whom we have loved long since and lost awhile still grow in love and service. Once again, it says to us that there is a Communion of Saints, a communion of the living and the dead that is never broken.

At All Saints time, we keep in mind and prayer all those, our dear ones, whom we have loved long since and lost awhile. Especially do we remember those of this parish and fellowship who have passed from this life since last All Saints Day: Georgina Haven Cochran, Charles Fretz Derby, Josephine Jawnett, Charlotte Dallas Morrell Patterson, Ella Hoover, Lottie Quillman, C. Francis Barnes, Camille Beck, Josephine Lewry Reeves, Gerald Holzman, Harry Leon Dexter, Frances Harlow Megraill, Catherine Jones, George Parker, Clara Fisher Nazel, Lovey Graham Miller, Mina Richardson, Sallie Turner, Ada Morrison Layman, Virginia Curry Henderson, Rachel Conley, Elsie Wilson Derr, Susannah Brandon, Hannah Hughes, Anna Reynolds, Martha Baird.

As in past years, there will be two services of Holy Communion next Thursday, November 1st, at 8 a.m. and at 12.15 (noon).

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

The presentation of the United Thank Offering at the Church of the Holy Trinity this year will take place on Sunday, November 4th. Next week, envelopes to be presented on the 4th will go out with the Bulletin to all the women of the parish. Any who cannot be at church on that Sunday can send their offering to Miss Margaret R. Kollock, 343 Bala Avenue, Bala-Cynwyd, Pa.

Last year, the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity gave almost a thousand dollars in thankfulness for many blessings.

HOUSE OF REST DAY, NOVEMBER SIXTH

Donation Day and Open House at the House of Rest for the Aged at 5919 Wayne Avenue, Germantown, will be held this year on Tuesday, November 6th. Tea will be served from two until five o'clock. Car 53 goes directly to the door. All are invited. Checks to help with this work of providing a home for the elderly may be sent to Mrs. Harold E. Galer, Oliver Hall, Philadelphia 44, Pa.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS NOVEMBER SIXTH

The regular monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary will be held in the Parish House 1904 Walnut Street, on Tuesday evening, November 6th. Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock ($1.25) followed by the meeting. The speaker will be Mrs. Charles Myers, Vice President in charge of promotion, of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

All persons not now members who wish to attend may make reservations for dinner by calling the Parish House—LO 7-1267 not later than Friday, 2 p.m., November 2.

NOVEMBER THE FOURTH—FOUR-THIRTY

CHORAL PRELUDE: "O What Their Joy"

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: 125

THE OPENING SENTENCES

APOSTLES' CREED, LORD'S PRAYER, OTHER PRAYERS

SHORT ADDRESS, THE ASSOCIATE RECTOR

MOTET—"O what their joy and their glory must be"

O what their joy and their glory must be, those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see! Crown for the valiant; to weary ones rest; God shall be all, and in all ever blest. What are the Monarch, his court and his throne? What are the peace and the joy that they own? Tell us, ye blest ones, if what ye feel, ye can fully declare. Truly Jerusalem name we that shore, "vision of peace" that brings joy evermore! Wish and fulfillment can severed be ne'er, nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer. We, where no trouble distraction can bring, safely the anthems of Sion shall sing; while for thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise thy blessed people shall evermore raise. There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er, those Sabbath-keepers have one, and no more; one and unending is that triumph-song which to the angels and us shall belong. Now in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high, we for that country must yearn and must sigh, seeking Jerusalem, dear native land, through our long exile on Babylon's strand. Low before Him with our praises we fall, of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all, of whom the Father, and through whom, the Son in whom the Spirit, with these ever One. Amen.

Offertory

MOTET—"Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy house"

(Soloists: June Goodman and Eric Belar)

"Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy House"

H. Alexander Matthews

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle;
Yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me and set me up upon a rock of stone.
Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness:
I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.

Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness; make thy way plain before my face.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require; even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; hearken, O God of Jacob.
Behold, O God our defender, and look upon the face of thine anointed.
For one day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be always acceptable in thy sight,
O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

Therefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of music: unto thee will I sing, O thou holy one of Israel.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house; They will be always praising thee. Alleluia!

SHORT ADDRESS: The Associate Rector

THE CANTATA:

"THE LORD IS A SUN AND SHIELD"
Johann Sebastian Bach

1. Chorus "God, the Lord, is a Sun and Shield"
God, the Lord, is a Sun and Shield. The Lord will give grace and worship. No good thing will He withhold from them that are godly.
2. Air (Alto) "God is ever Sun and Shield"
God is ever Sun and Shield, therefore we our praises bringing, join with grateful hearts in singing, thanks for all His tender care. He will still protect and bless us, though our foes may sore distress us, sharpened arrows they may wield, God is still our Sun and Shield.
3. Chorale "Now thank we all our God"
Now thank we all our god, with heart, and hands, and voices, who wondrous things hath done, in Whom His world rejoices; who from our mother's arms hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

OFFERTORY

4. Recit. (Bass) "O God! the straightest way"
O God! the straightest way to Blessedness we know, for Thou, Christ hast revealed it through Thy Holy Word. So praised be Thy Name for evermore. But since there yet are some, who even now still blindly labour under a foreign yoke, ah! of Thy mercy look on them in graciousness, that they may learn to know the right way, and seek Thee for their only Saviour!
5. Duet (Soprano and Bass) "O my God, forsake Thy people nevermore"
O my God, forsake Thy people nevermore! Shine upon us now and ever, and though foes in our spite are fiercely raging, our lips are in Thy praise engaging.
6. Chorale "Firm in Thy truth retain us"
Firm in Thy Truth retain us, and evermore sustain us, to praise Thy Name to all men, through Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Loyalty Sunday—November Eighteenth

EVERY MEMBER of the Church of the Holy Trinity who is well and able is asked to be at church on Sunday, November 18th, at 11 o'clock to hear a talk by the rector and to indicate his subscription to the church for 1952 or (if unable to subscribe) to indicate his personal loyalty.

All are asked to refrain from indicating any subscription until after listening to the rector's sermon on the eighteenth.

Examine the enclosed folder. It is our parish and our budget—the parish can move on into great things if we stand together. Loyalty Sunday is the time for united action.

PARISH AMBASSADORS

Between thirty and forty men (maybe a few of the ladies) will meet for dinner at 6 o'clock (finishing at 8 promptly) this coming Thursday night, November 15th, to join the Loyalty Sunday task force. They will be briefed by the rector, will pass on his words to all the parish, will meet again to check results at a luncheon immediately after church on the eighteenth. On what these men do will largely depend the future usefulness of the Church of the Holy Trinity. They ask your help and loyalty.

THE COMING BAZAAR—THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29th

The Annual Bazaar and Card Party of the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be held at the Barclay, 18th and Rittenhouse Square, on Thursday, November 29th from 12 noon until 6 o'clock. On sale will be attractive and useful articles of every kind; home made cakes, cookies and candies, Christmas cards and wrappings and a good supply of interesting books. There you may purchase gifts for Christmas and other occasions.

Commencing at 2 o'clock there will be a Card Party with Door Prizes, $5.20 a table or $1.30 for a single ticket. Later in the afternoon tea, with sandwiches and little cakes, will be served for 60 cents.

The annual Bazaar affords the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity an opportunity of raising the money to carry on their share of the Missionary Work of the Church.

Donations of non-perishable articles may be sent to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, before November 24th; cakes and candies to the Barclay before noon November 29th. Thank you.

YOUNG ADULTS TO HEAR DR. FORD SUNDAY NIGHT

The Young Adult—Young Married group will meet this Sunday night for sandwiches and refreshments at 5.45 immediately after Evensong. They will hear Dr. Ann Leaman Ford speak on "Are Religion and Psychiatry Compatible" and will have an opportunity to discuss the topic with her.

Dr. Ford, a member of the Church of the Holy Trinity, has been on the faculties of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School and the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania. She is a Diplomate of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

All Young Adults and Young Marrieds of whatever church or none are invited to the meeting which is to be held this Sunday, November 11th, at 5.45 in the upstairs front room of the Parish House. This is a new group and all are welcome in it. And we mean you!

NOTES

The Christ Church Hospital Open House and Donation Day, observing the home's 179th anniversary, is on Thursday November 15th from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. at 49th and Monument Avenue, North Wynnefield. All are invited.

Samuel Johnson in Chapter 4 of "Rasselas" said this wise thing, "Nothing will ever be attempted if all possible objections must first be overcome." There are so many reasons for not being adventuresome, that we're glad that Columbus, Alexander Bell and Thomas Edison didn't heed them.

"THE CANTICLE OF THE SUN"

The Text by

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

The Music by

SETH BINGHAM

(Soloists: June Goodman, Clara Szombat, Arthur Abbott, Eric Belar)

Here begin the praises of the creatures which the blessed Francis made to the praise and honor of God while He was ill at St. Damian's:

Most high, omnipotent, good Lord,
Praise, glory and honor and benediction, all are Thine.
To Thee alone do they belong, Most High,
And there is no man fit to mention Thee.

Praise be to Thee, my Lord, with all Thy creatures,
And especially to my worshipful brother sun,
The which lights up the day, and through him
dost Thou brightness give;
And beautiful is he and radiant with splendor great;
Of Thee, Most High, signification gives.

Praised be my Lord for sister moon and for the stars,
In heaven Thou hast formed them clear and precious and fair.

Praised be my Lord for brother wind,
And for the air and clouds and fair and every kind of weather,
By the which Thou givest to Thy creatures nourishment.

Praised be my Lord for sister water,
The which is greatly helpful and humble and precious and pure.

Praised be my Lord for brother fire,
By the which Thou lightest up the dark.
And fair is he and gay, mighty and strong.

OFFERTORY:

Praised be my Lord for our sister, mother earth,
The which sustains and keeps us.
And brings forth divers fruits with grass and flowers bright.

Praised be my Lord for those who for Thy love forgive
And weakness bear and tribulation.
Blessed those who shall in peace endure.
For by Thee, Most High, shall they be crowned.

Praised be my Lord for our sister, the bodily death,
From the which no living man can flee.
Woe to them who die in mortal sin;
Blessed those who shall find themselves in Thy most holy will,
For the second death shall do them no ill.

Praise ye and bless ye my Lord, and give Him thanks,
And be subject unto Him with great humility.

THE CLOSING PRAYER, BENEDICTION AND VESPER HYMN

RECESSIONAL HYMN: 351

"Praise the Lord through every nation"

CHORAL POSTLUDE: "Firm in Thy truth"

4:30 - Evensong

This afternoon, the choir sings "The Sower" by Darke.

YOUNG ADULTS—YOUNG MARRIEDS TO HEAR HENRY DOLAN TODAY

Henry Dolan, Philadelphia attorney, and a great Christian gentleman, will talk to the Young Adult—Young Married group Sunday evening at their meeting immediately after Evensong at 5:45 upstairs in the Parish House. A Buffet Supper will precede Mr. Dolan's talk. The rector says, "Mr. Dolan is one of the most inspiring and truly Christian speakers that I have ever heard." Any young adult, any young marrieds are welcome at this meeting. Come and bring your friends.

HARVEST HYMN (Congregation and Choir)

We plow the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand;
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
The breezes and the sunshine,
And soft refreshing rain.

All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above;
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
For all his love.

2 He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey him,
By him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, his children,
He gives our daily bread. Refrain

3 We thank thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seedtime and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food:
No gifts have we to offer
For all thy love imparts,
But that which thou desirest,
Our humble thankful hearts. Refrain

OFFERTORY

TENOR SOLO

Psalm cxxvi—5. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again bringing his sheaves with him.
Isaiah lxi—1. The Spirit of God is upon me, to appoint unto them that mourn, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness: that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

CHORUS

Isaiah xxxv—10. Psalm xcvi—11. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion, with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; for light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

QUARTET (Words from a Sixteenth Century Carol)

Pleasure it is
To hear, I wis,
The birdes sing,
The deer in the dale,
The sheep in the vale,
The corn springing;

God's purveyance
For sustenance
It is for man.
Then we always
To Him give praise
And thank Him then.

CHORUS

Psalm cl—O praise God in His holiness: praise Him in the firmament of His power.
Praise Him in His noble acts: praise Him according to His excellent greatness.
Praise Him in the sound of the trumpet: praise Him with the lute and harp.
Praise Him in the cymbals and dances: praise Him upon the strings and pipe.
Praise Him upon the well-tuned cymbals: praise Him upon the loud cymbals.
Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

HYMN (Congregation and Choir)

1 Ye watchers and ye holy ones,
Bright Seraphs, Cherubim and Thrones, Raise the glad strain, Alleluya!
Cry out Dominions, Princedoms, Powers, Virtues, Archangels, Angels' choirs,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

3 Respond, ye souls in endless rest,
Ye Patriarchs and Prophets blest, Alleluya, Alleluya!
Ye holy Twelve, ye Martyrs strong,
All Saints triumphant, raise the song:
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

2 O higher than the Cherubim,
More glorious than the Seraphim,
Lead their praises, Alleluya!
Thou bearer of th' eternal Word,
Most gracious magnify the Lord,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

4 O friends, in gladness let us sing,
Supernal anthems echoing,
Alleluya, Alleluya!
To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya, Alleluya!

THE OPENING SENTENCES

Prayer Book, pages 21, 25

APOSTLES' CREED, LORD'S PRAYER, OTHER PRAYERS

Prayer Book, pages 30, 31

SHORT ADDRESS: The Associate Rector

HARVEST CANTATA: "THE SOWER"

(The Words compiled by Claude Aveling and set to Music by Harold E. Darke)
Soloists: June Goodman, Clara Szombat, Arthur Abbott, Eric Belar

CHORUS

Psalm xxxiii—1. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful.
2. Praise the Lord with harp: sing praises unto Him with the lute.
3, 4. Sing unto the Lord a new song: for the word of the Lord is true, and all His works are faithful.
5. He loveth righteousness and judgment; the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.
Psalm cxlvii—8. Who covereth the heavens with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth; and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men.
Psalm cxvii—O praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise Him, all ye people.
For His merciful kindness is great toward us; and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever.
Praise ye the Lord.

TENOR AND BASS SOLOS

Luke viii, 5—A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.
12. Those by the way side are they that hear; Then cometh the wicked one, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.
6. And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away.
13. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.
7. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.
14. And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.
8. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold.
15. That on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.
11, 8. Now the parable is this: the seed is the Word of God. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

CHORUS

Psalm xlix—1. O hear ye this, all ye people; ponder it with your ears, all ye that dwell in the world.
4. I will incline mine ear to the parable; and shew my dark speech upon the harp.
Psalm xxxiii—12. Blessed are the people, whose God is the Lord Jehovah. Blessed are the folk that He hath chosen to Him to be His inheritance.
19. Our soul hath tarried for the Lord; for He is our help and our shield.
20. For our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have hoped in His Holy Name.
21. Let Thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us, like as we do put our trust in Thee.

SOPRANO SOLO

Psalm lxxv—9. Thou visitest the earth and blessest it; Thou makest it very plenteous.
The river of God is full of water; Thou preparest their corn, for so Thou providest for the earth.
Thou waterest their furrows, Thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof;
Thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.
Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness; and Thy clouds drop fatness.
They shall drop on the dwellings of the wilderness; and the hills shall rejoice on every side.
The folds shall be full of sheep; the valleys also shall stand so thick with corn, that they shall laugh and sing.

Bazaar at the Barclay! When? Next Thursday, November 29th, from 12 noon until six o'clock. Who? All of us and our friends:—everyone is welcome. What? Ah! Listen! Amazing white elephants that need only a new setting, a new home, to be treasures! instead of white elephants. There will be home made cookies, cakes, candies, Christmas cards and wrappings. You will find a supply of current and not so current books, none on sale, even the latest, for more than fifty cents. There will be articles of all kinds,—Christmas gifts.

And more,—at 2 o'clock, there will be a card party at $5.20 a table, $1.30 a single ticket. Added inducements in the form of a door prize will console the less brilliant bridge players. As the day wanes, there will be afternoon tea and sandwiches and cakes at a small fee, sixty cents. The Bazaar will be fun. Come and enjoy it. The end result? The Women's Auxiliary will be able to do its share toward the greater missionary enterprise of the Church. Card Party tickets are available at the Parish House.

Note: Donations of non-perishable articles may be sent to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut St., before noon on Friday, November 24th.

A MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE

"The Diocesan Mission, to be conducted by the Rev. Bryan Green at Convention Hall December 2-11, should have the active support of every interested churchman in the Diocese. It is our first Diocesan Mission since I have been bishop and we will not likely have another for the next twenty years. I am counting on the men and women of this Diocese being there themselves and bringing others with them. I ask you to join your prayers with mine for God's blessing on the Mission.

I want also to thank the clergy and laity who have so splendidly supported the missionary work of the Church. When the decision was made that we would not have a special appeal for the Presiding Bishop's Fund, but that the amount needed would be added to the regular national budget, it meant that parochial Proportionate Shares would have to be increased. The Diocese, in Convention, accepted the enlarged budget and assigned the Proportionate Shares to the parishes. I am now conscious of the fact that there is a lag of several thousand dollars and I am appealing to every member of our Diocese to do his utmost to meet this great need. As a practical method, I suggest that you send to your Accounting Warden a special gift to be applied for this purpose. The concern of the missionary work of the Church is a common one. By making an offering, you can make it a deep personal one.

May this Advent season be one of real spiritual preparation for the celebration of Christmas."

Faithfully your Bishop, OLIVER J. HART

ADVANCE NOTICE—MEN'S CLUB MEETS DECEMBER 12TH

Wednesday (note the day, Wednesday), December 12th, is the day set for the Christmas meeting of the Men's Club of the Church of the Holy Trinity at the Parish House, 1904 Walnut, for dinner at 6:15. Those attending are requested to bring a gift not exceeding a cost of twenty-five cents. These will be exchanged among the men attending the party. Maybe Santa Claus will be present, who knows? Mark the date on your calendar now and be there.—F. R. Goehring, Chairman, Christmas Party.

$24,216 SUBSCRIBED LAST SUNDAY MORNING

At the Loyalty Sunday service, over twenty-four thousand dollars was subscribed for the work of the Church of the Holy Trinity in 1952. As your rector, may I say that never have I known anywhere more complete cooperation than was given by the congregation and canvassers last week. It is with deep humility that I, in a place of leadership, give grateful thanks to God for what the parish has done together.

As this Bulletin goes to press (last Monday), additional pledges have brought the total to $25,256.40. This is over $10,000 more than was pledged by the parish a year ago. It means that we are determined to move forward into ever greater usefulness.

Johann Sebastian Bach

(Soloists: June Goodman, Arthur Abbott, Philip Steinhoff)

OVERTURE (WITH CHORUS)

Come, Redeemer of our race, Virgin born by holy grace, hail'd by all the won'dring earth; God of old ordain'd His birth.

RECITATIVE AND ARIOSO (TENOR)

The Saviour now appeareth, and our poor human form of Flesh and Blood He weareth, that we may all be one with Him indeed. Oh! Thou most perfect joy, what wondrous things hast Thou not done, what dost Thou not each day Thy love expressing? Thou comest down in light to crown Thine own with blessing.

AIR (TENOR)

Come, Jesu, come, Thy church awaits Thee, and deign to bless the new-born year. Help us in all to seek Thy glory, to hold in truth the sacred story, and grow in love and holy fear.

OFFERTORY: "Kirchen-Arie"

RECITATIVE (BASS)

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If any man hear my voice and open the door I will come in to him and will sup with him, and he with me.

AIR (SOPRANO)

Open wide, my heart, thy portals, Jesus enters in to thee. Though my dust to dust returneth, He a home in me hath sought Who the soul that He hath bought never from His presence spurneth. O, how blessed shall I be!

NEW MEMBERS OF HOLY TRINITY

During November, the following have become members of the Church of The Holy Trinity by transfer: Miss Lucy J. Cummings, 1415 Clearview Street; Ramsey M. B. Fischer, 1915 Ringgold Place; Miss Pauline Jeanette Gothie, 249 S. 49th Street; Mrs. Austin Greer, 2100 Walnut Street; Miss Lois Hans, 2206 S. 19th Street; Miss Elizabeth H. Robertson, 1820 Pine Street.

Since last September, these others have become Holy Trinity members by transfer: Mrs. George R. Ford, Jr., 1935 Panama Street; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bachman, 345 S. 18th Street; Miss Noel Gardiner, 1929 Spruce Street; Miss Margaret Leamy Huet, 1832 Spruce Street; Miss Florence Maxwell, 4232 Sansom Street; Miss Mary Nelson, the Roosevelt Hotel; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Schoerke, 318 S. 20th Street; Miss Patricia Schofield, 260 S. 20th Street; Mrs. Emma Randolph Thompson, 1318 Spruce Street; Mrs. Noel Urquhart, 1630 Spruce Street.

All these people are commended to the hospitality and friendship of our Christian fellowship. We need them and they need us. We are one body in Christ and members one of another.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES PUBLISHES SURVEY

In a recently published survey of Philadelphia by the Council of Churches, the immediate Holy Trinity Area is shown as having grown in population by 3.8% in the last ten years. Areas immediately to the west and north have grown by 8% and 7.2%. The fastest growing Philadelphia city area is in the extreme Northeast where the growth has been 83%. In the 8th Ward in which Holy Trinity is located, there are 12,000 people of whom 614 are children under fifteen and 3500 are people under 35.

Incidentally, there are 631,464 Roman Catholics in Philadelphia, 250,000 of the Jewish faith, 320,982 Protestants. There are 44,000 Episcopalians in the city.

BE YE OUR ANGEL UNAWARES

If after Kirk ye bide a wee There's some wad like to speak to ye
If after Kirk ye rise and flee
We'll all seem cold and stiff to ye.
The one that's in the seat with ye
Is stranger here than ye, maybe
All here hae got their fears and care;
Add Thine own soul unto their prayers
Be ye our angel, unawares

A NEW YEAR HAS BEGUN

Last Sunday was the first Sunday of a new Christian year. The purpose of the Christian year is to bring people who belong to our Lord Jesus Christ into living contact with Him. It revolves around His life. It achieves its purpose when our lives are "hid in Christ with God."

Dear God, Help me to put
First things first
And not pay dearly for cheap things
Or give cheaply for the one supreme thing

ALL ORGANIZATIONS MEETING THIS WEEK SUNDAY NIGHT, YOUNG ADULTS, YOUNG MARRIEDS

CALLING ALL YOUNG ADULTS and YOUNG MARRIEDS:—Come to Evensong this Sunday, have supper together afterward in the Parish House, and go together to the Bryan Green Mission service at Convention Hall in the evening. This can be a great experience. Don't Miss It!

MONDAY, VESTRY MEETING AT 4:30

The vestry meets on Monday afternoon at 4:30 for the regular monthly meeting.

TUESDAY, FINAL MISSION MEETING AT CONVENTION HALL

Bryan Green wants to see us all at 7:30 on Tuesday evening as the Mission ends.

WEDNESDAY, MEN'S CLUB MEETS FOR DINNER

The Men's Club of Holy Trinity will welcome all men at their Christmas party on Wednesday, December 12th, at 6:15 P.M. All are asked to bring a gift not exceeding twenty-five cents in cost and exchange it for another surprise package. Maybe even Santa Claus will be among the guests, who knows? Next Wednesday is the day. Be there!—F. R. Goehring, chairman for the Christmas Party.

THURSDAY, WOMEN'S AUXILIARY AT 2:30

The Women's Auxiliary and Guild are having their Christmas party on Thursday at 2:30 and everybody is invited (women, that is) whether or not they are Auxiliary members. Miss Kitchen is in charge. The old Christmas carols will be sung. Christmas stories will be told. Come and spend a happy afternoon together.

FRIDAY, THE EVENING AUXILIARY AT 6:00

The Evening Auxiliary rounds out the week with a dinner on Friday evening at six o'clock. Dinner is $1.25. There will be no regular business meeting. All are asked to bring small gifts and packages will be wrapped which will be sent to Philadelphia General and Byberry hospitals.

SATURDAY, CHURCH SCHOOLERS TO MAKE PILGRIMAGE

Oops,—one more! On Saturday, December 8th (oh! oh!—that's THIS Saturday), the Junior and Junior Highs in the Church School will embark at 10 A.M. for a pilgrimage to the chapel at Valley Forge. Each pilgrim is asked to bring his or her lunch.

THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE SAYS "THANK YOU, THANK YOU"

This year's bazaar was a great success. Financial results cannot be announced yet but they will be considerable. The committee wants to thank all of you and your friends who gave so generously of time, skill, and money to make the bazaar so successful. Mrs. George Eyre Smith, general chairman, says, "it is impossible to reach all who helped personally, so we want to take this way of saying thank you for the magnificent help which was given so readily and joyfully."

NOTES

EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT! Inquiries have come to the rector from two people available for positions. One is available as a companion (not a nurse) for an invalid or aged person. The other is available for practical nursing. If you are interested, call the rector (LO 7-1267).

THE POST OFFICE says please mail early so that all employees can be home for Christmas.

LOYALTY SUNDAY PLEDGES INDICATE 100% INCREASE

As the Bulletin goes to press on Monday, the actual pledges from the people for the support of the parish in 1952 total $27,736.40. Last year, when the parish was without a rector, the total was slightly under fourteen thousand dollars. With thanksgiving to God

"Lord, How long wilt Thou forget me? How long wilt Thou hide Thy face from me?
How long, O Lord, shall I take counsel within my spirit, having sorrow within my heart all the day? How long shall they that hate me be exalted against me?

"Look on me and answer me, O Lord, my God: Enlighten Thou mine eyes, lest I soon in death be sleeping. And lest my foes glory over me, for they that are mighty are against me, and lest mine adversaries be exulting, because I am moved.

"But I have trusted herein, that Thou so gracious art; my heart joys herein, that Thou are nigh to save.

YOUNG ADULT-YOUNG MARRIEDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

This Sunday evening, after Evensong, at 5:45, there will be a Young-Adult, Young Marrieds Christmas party to which all young adults and young marrieds are invited.
This means you, whoever you are. Come and have a good time with us. There will be games and prizes. However, you bring the prizes—something inexpensive which you may win and then will be asked to wrap it up and send to a children's home to brighten another's Christmas. Come, have fun, bring a friend. This Sunday night in the Parish House after Evensong! There will be food—a Marcia Potts kind of buffet supper—and that means something very, very nice. We'll see you there.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL IS GROWING

Twenty-eight in the Church School may not sound like very many. But it's twice as many as there were three weeks ago and its twenty-eight times as many as there were in September.

All children, aged two through eight, meet upstairs in the Parish House during the eleven o'clock service. Others, nine through High School, come into the Parish House from church during the singing of the hymn before the sermon.

The Juniors and Junior Highs went on a pilgrimage to Valley Forge last Saturday.
Next Week, Saturday the twenty-second, they are going with Mr. Pollanick to the Planetarium for the Christmas performance.

Do you know of children who should be in our Church School? There is a corps of excellent teachers—one of them was director of religious education in a large Massachusetts parish.

JOSEPH HENDERSON IS PLANNING A CHRISTMAS DISPLAY

One of our loyal members, Joseph Henderson, has been working for some time on a Christmas scene which will be seen in the church during the Christmas season. It will first be on view at the Midnight service, Christmas Eve, and will remain up until after the Feast of the Epiphany.

CHRISTMAS PLANS TO FOLLOW PAST YEARS

The Christmas service hours will be the same as those for many years past:—the Midnight service on Christmas Eve at 11 o'clock, the Holy Communion on Christmas Day at 8 and 11 A.M.

THE CHRISTMAS HOLY DAYS

Clustered about Christmas itself are days when certain of those very close to the heart and care of our Lord are remembered. This coming week on Friday comes St.
Thomas' day. St. Thomas (the word Thomas means "a twin") was a hard to convince man but one of those who, once convinced, gave himself wholly to the object of his faith and conviction. It is tradition that he travelled as a Missionary in Jesus' name to the Malabar coasts of India there to found the Church which, today, has its headquarters in Travancore—an apostolic Church separate from all others but in communion with all. We remember St. Thomas year by year—in this church next Friday at Holy Communion at 11:15. On his day, we shall pray for India, too.

SPEAKING OF MISSIONS

"Say something to the congregation this morning," said the old missionary to a new arrival who had not yet learned Chinese, "and I will interpret for you."

The novice began, "Truth is both relative and absolute."

The Midnight Service of Holy Communion

MONDAY NIGHT AT 11:00 O'CLOCK

Tonight's service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing the "O Come, All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphal ending when the "Gloria in Excelsis," followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" and finally at the very end, "The Hallelujah Chorus," is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion, if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during this time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

Christmas Day

Holy Communion At 8 A.M.

Holy Communion At 11 A.M.

During the time of Communion at the midnight service, while all who wish to receive Holy Communion are coming to the Altar, the congregation is invited to sing carols with the choir.

While Shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
Fear not, said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind
Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind
To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid
Thus spake the seraph and forthwith,
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
All Glory be to God on high
And on the earth be peace
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease.—Hymn 13

1. It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From Heav'n's all gracious King,"
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.
3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;

2. Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heav'nly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hov'ring wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.
And man, at war with man, hears not
The tidings which they bring;
O hush the noise, ye men of strife
And hear the angels sing!—Hymn 19 (2nd Tune)

1. What child is this who, laid to rest,
On Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet,
While shepherds watch are keeping?
2. Why lies He in such mean estate
where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christians fear, for sinners here
the silent Word is pleading.

3. So bring Him incense, gold, and myrrh;
Come peasant, king, to own Him.
The King of kings salvation brings;
Let loving hearts enthron Him."

Chorus—(after each verse):

This, this is Christ, the King
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing.
Haste, haste to bring Him laud,
The Babe, the son of Mary.—Hymn 36

1. Angels from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye, who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:
Refrain:
Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn King.

2. Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing;
Yonder shines the infant Light:
3. Saints before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His Temple shall appear:—Hymn 28

1. Away in a manger, no crib for a bed
The Little Lord Jesus
Laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky
Looked down where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep
On the hay.

2. The Cattle are lowing,
The baby awakes
But little Lord Jesus
No crying he makes
I love Thee, Lord Jesus!
Look down from the sky,
And stay by my side
Until morning is nigh.—Hymn 43

Young Adults Meet Tonight

Immediately after Evening Prayer, at about 5:30, the Young Adults will meet in the Parish House for a sandwich supper and will then go to the Philadelphia Divinity School to visit the Seminary Chapel, one of the nation's most beautiful buildings, and to hear about Theological Education,—the making of a Priest of the Church. James J. English, student assistant at Holy Trinity, will be the leader of the group.

Dr. Salmon to Address Evening Auxiliary Next Tuesday

The Evening Auxiliary meets for dinner next Tuesday evening, January 8th, at six o'clock. The Reverend E. Frank Salmon, D.D., will be the speaker of the evening.

An All Parish Bible Class to Begin January 21st and 22nd

Your rector has found in the days of his ministry that nothing in the life of any parish is so important as a vital group studying the Bible. He believes that a knowledge of what the Bible contains is the most needed knowledge of our time—especially needed by people in positions of influence and authority—business men and women, civic leaders, teachers, in short, by all.

A Bible Class at the Church of the Holy Trinity will start on Monday evening, January 21st, at 7:45 P. M. This class will be repeated the next morning, Tuesday, the 22nd, at 10:45 A. M. The class will thereafter continue for ten weeks on Monday evening and Tuesday morning. Those who cannot come in the evening will have the opportunity of the class in the morning.

The first class will study "The Book of the Acts of the Apostles" over the ten week period. In this study, we shall see what life was like in the first century Christian Church.

An Adult Confirmation Class Will Begin Sunday, January 27th

A class in preparation for the visit of Bishop Hart on March 23rd will begin its sessions on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 on January twenty-seventh. This early notice is given so that the people of the parish may be giving notice to the candidates that they are bringing to the class. The class is open to all who wish to attend—whether already confirmed or not. There will be eight sessions and the subjects will be: Church History, the Faith, the Ethic of the Church, the Sacraments, the Worship, the Devotional Life of the Churchman, The Holy Communion, and a general review.

Communicant membership in the Episcopal Church is the privilege of those who have been confirmed. Confirmation means that the person has actively and openly joined himself to the Christian fellowship to witness with others to the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour. Confirmation is the prayer of the Bishop that such a one may have the gifts of the Holy Spirit to fulfill his professed mission as a follower of our Lord.

An Old Quotation Revisited. A Reminder of Our Common Life

The lines, "no man is an island entire of himself" are often quoted but seldom seen in their whole context. Here are the words of John Donne in their entirety.

When (the Church) baptizes a child, that action concerns mee; for that child is thereby connected to that Head which is my Head too, and engrafted into that body, whereof I am a member. And when she buries a man, that action concerns me: All mankind is of one Author, and is one volume; when one man dies, one Chapter is not torne out of the books, but translated into a better language; and every Chapter must be so translated. God employes several translators. Some peeces are translated by age, some by sickness, some by warre, some by justice; but Gods hand is in every translation, and his hand shall bind up all our scattered leaves againe, for that Librarie where every booke shall lie open to one another: As therefore the Bell that rings to a Sermon calls not upon the preacher onely, but upon the Congregation to come, so this Bell calls us all . . .

No man is an Iland intire of it selfe; every man is a peece of the Continent, a part of the maine; if a clod bee washed away by the Sea, Europe is the lesse, as well as if a Promontorie were, as well as if a Mannor of thy friends or of thine owne were; any mans death diminishes me, because I am involved in Mankinde. And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls. It tolls for thee.

In Memoriam

Within the past two weeks, the parish has lost in death two of its members—Belle Kemble and Sarah McKinney. May they forever grow in service in Thy Heavenly Kingdom and may Light perpetual shine upon them.

Notes

The Christmas services were attended by some six hundred people. Over four hundred received Holy Communion during the Octave. The offering was in excess of twelve hundred dollars.

The Rector speaks this week on Thursday at Cedar Crest College in Allentown.

USHERS AT CHURCH

The following men have accepted assignments as ushers at the Church services: the first Sunday in the month, W. H. DuBarry, H. C. Griffith, J. P. Lutz, W. M. West; the second Sunday in the month, R. R. Gifford, F. N. Kneas, D. M. Layman, A. S. Reeves; the third Sunday in the month, R. M. B. Fischer, R. Montgomery, D. M. Scott, J. B. Sidebotham; the fourth Sunday in the month, W. E. Caveny, Jr., J. M. Gazzam, Jr., W. E. Krall, K. A. Syfrit; Reserves, F. R. Goehring, W. C. Hanna, M. Jones, Wm. H. Storey, Henry C. Gulbrandsen.

Most of these men have not ushered before and they bespeak the patience of the members until they become accustomed to the locations where people like to sit. They will seek, so far as possible, to seat the congregation forward in the church. Unless there are some who feel very much at home in the seats back of the rear aisle in the church, it is hoped that they will sit farther forward and leave these seats for very late comers.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS BEGINS MONDAY, THE 21st; TUESDAY, THE 22nd.

Nothing more important could happen in any church than that its members should be studying the Bible. Modern ignorance on the part of Christians of all churches of what the Bible, speaking for itself, really says is resulting often in the Church's being not Christian at all but rather a gathering of modern philosophers.

For the next ten weeks, beginning at 7:45 P.M. on Monday evening, January 21, and with an identical repeat class the next morning, beginning at 10:45 A.M. on Tuesday, the 22nd, the Rector will open the Bible that it may speak for itself. This term's study will be in "The Book of the Acts of the Apostles" which is an historical account of the Christian Church in its earliest days.

All people of all churches or no church are welcome at the classes. Members of the Church of the Holy Trinity especially are urged to take advantage of them. We shall do nothing here ever of more importance than these Bible study classes.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGIN SUNDAY, JANUARY 27th

All who plan to be confirmed by Bishop Hart on the First Sunday in March this year, thus becoming communicant members of the Church, are asked to attend eight classes of instruction preliminary to their confirmation. The classes are also open to all others, whether already confirmed or not. Inquirers are welcome. The classes begin at 2:30 in the afternoon on Sunday, January 27th in the Church. The subjects of the classes are The History of the Church, The Faith, the Ethic of the Church, the Sacraments, the Worship, the Devotional Life of the Churchman, the Holy Communion, and a general review.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Mrs. Oliver J. Hart has transferred from the Church of the Holy Trinity to St. Martins in the Field, Chestnut Hill. Mrs. Linda Sayre Phillips has transferred from our parish to St. Mark's.

Mrs. W. Arthur Warner and her daughter, Margaret Warner, of 221 St. Mark's Square, has transferred to our parish. Miss Eleanor Meagher of 238 S. Camac Street has transferred here from the Church of the Saviour.

We feel the loss of those going from our midst and we welcome those who are now fellow members with us in our parish. It is indeed a joy to have them.

NOTES

We are anxious to have the names and addresses of all men and women of the parish who are away at school or college or in the armed services that we may write them and send them the church bulletin. Whether or not you have done so previously, may we ask you to phone or mail the names and addresses of such people to the parish office, LOcust 7-1267.

Sets of envelopes were mailed on December 31 to all who requested offering envelopes on their pledge cards. If you should have them and have not received them, please notify the office at once.

Some very competent people in the parish would welcome contacts looking towards permanent positions. One man has had wide buying and selling experience, has traveled as a salesman all over this country as well as in Mexico and Canada, has had financing and advertising experience. A most competent woman, a teacher, writer, and executive, is seeking new work. A carpenter of skill is available. If you are interested in the

WE WELCOME AS PARTNERS IN OUR FELLOWSHIP

MRS. HORACE C. PORTER, 1622 Locust Street, transferred from the Good Shepherd, Oak Road.

YOUNG ADULTS MEET THIS SUNDAY AT 5:30

Are you a young adult? Are you young marrieds? Then you are more than welcome at our young adult-young married fellowship which meets this Sunday at 5:30 in the parish house. There is a buffet supper and a program as well as social fellowship. This Sunday, Dr. J. H. Hall, of the Philadelphia Divinity School, will lead a discussion on "Who founded the Church of England? Was it Henry the 8th? Why does it matter anyway?" Come and bring your friends. These meetings are not by any means limited to Episcopalians. Everyone is welcome. Mr. Charles J. Kenkelen is the head of the group.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS BEGINS THIS MONDAY AND TUESDAY

At 7:45 P. M. every Monday and at 10:45 A. M. every Tuesday for the next ten weeks, there will be a Bible Class, led by the rector, studying "The Acts of the Apostles." It will be about first century Christians and the Church. Anyone is welcome to attend. The Rector considers these classes as a matter of first importance in the life of our parish. If you possibly can, come. The classes will be in the Parish House unless the space is too small.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL IS ESTABLISHED

"Small but growing" describes our Church School. Thirty one are now enrolled. If you know of children in your neighborhood who are not active in any school, bring them at 10:45 on Sundays, or ask the Associate Rector to make a contact with them.

The Nursery Class is under the direction of Mrs. Charles B. Davidson; the Kindergarten-Primary classes, Miss Marcia Potts; The Intermediate-Junior group, Mr. Charles B. Davidson; the intermediate-Senior group, Mr. James B. English. Miss Alice Jean Huber is secretary.

VESTRY MEETS, SCANS REPORT.

The Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity met last Monday. Among the most important items on the agenda was the report of the Accounting Warden indicating receipts of $58,761.37 during the past year, 1951. Only $12,405.35 of this amount came from regular subscribers to the support of the parish. Other extra gifts totalled $4,938.69. (For this year, $29,490.40 has been pledged for these items by the people of the parish which, again, will be augmented by special gifts. This means the difference between our standing still and moving forward.) Last year, the endowment fund yielded $28,131.23 for parish support. Other smaller items making up the total were from such things as plate offerings and radio gifts. When the auditors have reported, a complete annual report will be sent to the members of the parish.

NOTES

AWAY FROM HOME people, at school or college or in the armed services should hear from their parish. Let the parish office know about Holy Trinity people in these categories. We want to write them and send them the Bulletin. Call LO 7-1267.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES begin Sunday, January 27th, at 2:30 in the church. Are you bringing someone? The classes are for all,—people already confirmed who wish to review their knowledge of the Church, people who are curious about the Church, or people who are planning definitely to be confirmed. For these latter, the

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE COFFEE HOUR

Join us after church at the coffee hour in the Parish House. The Parish House may be entered from the door at the nave on the Gospel side or at 1904 Walnut Street. Dr. Wrightmeyer will be our special guest today.

NEW SERMON SERIES PLANNED FOR FEBRUARY

During February there will be a series of sermons by the rector implementing the weekly Bible classes. The sermon titles are: February 3, "The Church is One;" February 10, "The Church is Holy;" February 17, "The Church is Catholic;" February 24, "The Church is Apostolic." The titles are taken from the words of the Apostles Creed, "I believe in the Holy Catholic Church;" and the Nicene Creed, "I believe one Catholic Apostolic Church."

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2, THE PURIFICATION

HOLY COMMUNION IN THE CHURCH AT 10:15

BISHOP HART SOUNDS THE NEED FOR MEN

In a letter to the Rector, Bishop Hart writes, "I hope that you will emphasize the need of our congregations praying and working to get the ablest and best men to offer themselves for the Ministry. I hope also that you will ask your congregation to take part in the Theological Education Offering on Sunday, January 27th."

In compliance with the Bishop's request, we have asked the Rev. Nelson Wrightmeyer to tell us the Seminary story this morning and will send the plate offerings today to the Seminaries, one half to the Philadelphia Divinity School and one half to your rector's seminary, Seabury-Western, Chicago.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS BEGINS THIS SUNDAY

At 2:30 this Sunday afternoon, in the church, the rector will begin a series of eight classes especially for those who desire to be confirmed when Bishop Hart visits the Parish on Sunday, March 23rd. The classes are open to all, however, and many already confirmed, should be interested in them as a review. Interested people, inquirers about the church, will be more than welcome. So, although the classes are a prerequisite to confirmation for confirmation candidates, they are open to all.

The subject of the lectures are: This Sunday, "Church History;" Feb. 3, "The Faith of the Church;" Feb. 10, "The Ethic of the Church;" Feb. 17, "The Sacraments of the Church;" Feb. 24, "The Worship of the Church;" March 2, "The Devotional Life of the Churchman;" March 9, "The Holy Communion;" March 16, a general review. The confirmation service is Sunday, March 23rd, at 11 in the morning.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY AT ST. MARK'S THIS SUNDAY

Teen-agers in the North, South, and West Philadelphia convocations will meet together at 2:30 this Sunday afternoon at St. Mark's on Locust Street between 16th and 17th.

CONFIRMATION CLASS FOR YOUNGER PEOPLE MEETS SUNDAY MORNING

Children who are completing sixth grade and all others through High School who are interested in confirmation in March are asked to meet with Mr. Pollanick in the Parish House this Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Other young people, already confirmed, are also welcome.

120 ATTEND THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS

One hundred and twenty people attended the Rector's Bible Classes on Monday evening and Tuesday morning. The Tuesday morning class still meets in the Parish House. Entrance into the class is still open. Anyone may come at any time. To secure the full benefit of the nine sessions to come, begin NOW. The class is studying "The Book of the Acts of the Apostles,—early Christians and their Church."

THE WORLD FEDERALIST MOVEMENT

The implications for world peace contained in the work of the World Federalists are tremendous. Watch your newspapers for announcement of their meetings. Hear Benjamin Seaver at the Drexel Institute Art Gallery, 32nd and Chestnut Streets, at 8:15 on January 31st when he speaks on "Europe's and Asia's Impact on America." The

2:30—Adult Confirmation Class

Today's Subject: "The Faith of the Church."

LAST CHANCE TO ENTER THE CONFIRMATION CLASS

You may still enter the Confirmation class this Sunday as a candidate for Confirmation. The rector will present to the Bishop on March 23rd only those who are members of the class from today on. In other words, this Sunday is the last chance to enter the class preparing for Confirmation on the twenty-third of March.

Anyone is welcome to attend the class at any time; but confirmation candidates are asked to attend the eight classes of preparation and to make up any that are missed. A "make-up" of the first class will be held on Sunday, the tenth of February for those who enter today.

YOUNG ADULTS MEET THIS SUNDAY EVENING AT 7 P. M.

Seven o'clock is the new hour for the Young Adult meeting. The place is the same, the Parish House. The date is this Sunday, February third. The program subject is "Paints and Saints,—Art and the Christian Church." All Young Adults are welcome. Just come, this is your invitation.

The speaker and illustrator (that sounds interesting!) is Mrs. Anna T. Achenbach. She is one of the many greatly talented people who are members of our parish. She is a Bachelor of Arts of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, a holder of the Cresson European Fellowship, and winner of the first Toppan Prize. Come and enjoy the fellowship of the meeting and the certainly stimulating program.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY AT 6

The Evening Auxiliary will hear Mrs. Marmaduke Tilden, Diocesan U.T.O. Treasurer, at its next meeting, this coming Tuesday evening in the parish house at 6 o'clock for supper.

WE WELCOME AS FELLOW MEMBERS:

Mrs. George Taylor, 1900 Rittenhouse Square, who has transferred to Holy Trinity from Saint Mary's Church, Philadelphia; Mrs. Sophia Griffin Ewell, 205 South 42nd Street, from The Memorial Church of St. Paul, Philadelphia; Miss Adelaide A. Lyons, 1612 North Felton Street, from the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany, Philadelphia.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS; MONDAY, 7:45; TUESDAY, 10:45

You may become a member of the Rector's Bible class at any time. The class meets in two identical sessions each week, one on Monday evenings at 7:45, the other on Tuesday mornings at 10:45. The class is studying the earliest Christians and their Church as they are seen in the Book of Acts of the Apostles. If you have not been attending thus far, try it. We think you will find them interesting and helpful. There are eight more sessions including this week.

NOTES

BISHOP SCAIFE, due to illness, has had to cancel his noon-day preaching engagement with us. He has been replaced by one of the great preachers of America, a southern Presbyterian, The Reverend J. Blanton Belk of Saint Giles' Church, Richmond. Other noon-day speakers at Holy Trinity are The Reverend Charles W. Lowry, Bishop Wilburn C. Campbell, The Reverend John V. Butler of Princeton, Canon Wedel of Washington, Canon Mortlock of England.

WANTED: A lady, whose sister recently died, has room for another lady who would share rental in her apartment. Kitchen privileges. Call Dr. Longley if such a possibility interests you.

Septuagesima Sunday

FEBRUARY 10, 1952

The season of Lent is preceded by three outriders, heralds, Sundays, called by the names of Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima, meaning (although oddly only seven days apart) seventy, sixty, and fifty days before Easter. In the life of the Church they have been used to emphasize the so-called theological virtues, Faith, Hope, and Love. The note of both Courage and Humility is found in the Collects, Epistles, and Gospels for this season.

2:30 - The Adult Confirmation Class

Anyone may attend; however, no new confirmation candidates preparing for the Bishop's visit on March 23rd can now be admitted. The subject today is "The Church's Ethic."

AFTERNOON SERVICES WILL BE RESUMED ON MARCH 2ND

During Lent, every Sunday afternoon at 4:30, an augmented choir of twenty voices is planning to sing six of the great oratorios. On March 2nd, Brahms's "Requiem"; March 9, "The Elijah," Part I, by Mendelssohn; March 16, "Jesus, Thou My Wearied Spirit," by Bach; March 23, "The Stabat Mater" of Rossini; March 30, "The Redeemer," by Shaw; April 6, "The Darkest Hour," by Moore.

FAITH: SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

The Philosopher Spinoza says, "The struggle against truths established by reason must be sterile. And since this struggle is impossible, one must submit. One must understand that every individual being, whether it be Job or the Logos-Messiah, is condemned in advance, by virtue of an eternal and ineluctable law, to suffer and disappear. Consequently, man must renounce whatever has a concrete and particular existence, and himself above all, in order to orient his thought toward that which has neither beginning nor end, which neither is born nor dies; that is precisely what it means to contemplate life in eternal terms."

In like vein, a modern Jewish philosopher named Shestov writes, "Faith is not reliance on what has been told us, on what has been taught us, on what we have heard. Faith is a new dimension of thought, unknown, strange to speculative philosophy, and which opens the way leading to the Creator of all things, to the source of all possibilities."

The writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews says, "Faith is the substance of things hoped for; the evidence of things not seen."

MEN'S CLUB MEETS THIS TUESDAY, 6 P. M.

The men of the Church of the Holy Trinity meet this coming Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock for dinner together. You are invited. The dinner cost is $1.50. Miss Helen Annesley, exchange teacher from England is to be the speaker, speaking on "England, Which Way?"

The Men's Club is sponsoring the Noon-Day preaching program this coming Lent when, during the six weeks of Lent, there will be an outstanding preacher in the pulpit of Holy Trinity every day (except Saturdays) from 12 to 12:30. The preachers are to be: The Reverend J. Blanton Belk, The Reverend Charles W. Lowry, Bishop Campbell, The Reverend John V. Butler, The Reverend Theodore Wedel, The Reverend Terence Mortlock.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY MEETS THURSDAY AT 2:30 P. M.

Next Thursday is the day for the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary. The meeting is in the Parish House at 2:30 P. M.

ANNUAL REPORT TO THE DIOCESE IS REVEALING

The Annual Report to the Diocese delivered to the Church House this past week by the Rector indicates that the communicant strength of the Church of the Holy Trinity is now only 585. Although last year's report showed a total of 761 communicants, the Rector has been able to find actually only the smaller number now reported. The number of baptized persons in the Parish is 617. Last year, there were 6 confirmations, 11 baptisms, 3 marriages, 21 burials.

Among the interesting new additions to the report is that there is a Church School although it numbers only 34 pupils. There are also Adult Bible Classes having an enrollment of 130, with, thus far, an average attendance each week of 121. Another new group is the Young Adults with a membership of 68, with an average of 35 attending its meetings.

NOTES

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES are meeting regularly, Mondays at 7:45 P. M., Tuesdays at 10:45 A. M.

THE BROTHERHOOD CORPORATE COMMUNION is on Saturday, February 16th, at St. Stephen's at 8 A. M. Governor Fine will be the Communion Breakfast speaker after the service.

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4:30.

for

His Most Excellent Majesty
King George VI

FEBRUARY 15, 1952

1 o'clock

The Church of the Holy Trinity

PHILADELPHIA

Hymn—"For All the Saints"

For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blest,

Alleluia, alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, the one true light.

Alleluia, alleluia!

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia, alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.

Alleluia, alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
Sweet is the calm of paradise the blest.

Alleluia, alleluia!

But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way.

Alleluia, alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

Alleluia, alleluia!

The King shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord; exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.

Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

For thou shalt meet him with the blessings of goodness, and shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head.

He asked life of thee; and thou gavest him a long life, even for ever and ever.

His honour is great in thy salvation; glory and great worship shalt thou lay upon him.

For thou shalt give him everlasting felicity, and make him glad with the joy of thy countenance.

And why? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord; and in the mercy of the Most Highest he shall not miscarry.

Be thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength; so will we sing, and praise thy power.

Hym—"The Strife is O'er"

The strife is o'er, the battle done,
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun.

Alleluia!

The powers of death have done their worst
But Christ their legions hath dispersed:
Let shout of holy joy outburst.

Alleluia!

The three sad days are quickly sped,
He rises glorious from the dead:
All glory to our risen Head!

Alleluia!

He closed the yawning gates of hell,
The bars from heav'n's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise his triumphs tell!

Alleluia!

Lord! by the stripes which wounded thee,
From death's dread sting thy servants free,
That we may live and sing to thee.

Alleluia! Amen.

Bishop of Pennsylvania

Hymn—"O God, Our Help in Ages Past"

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home:

Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

The Midnight Service of Holy Communion

WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT 11:00 O'CLOCK

Tonight's service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing the "O Come, All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphal ending when the "Gloria in Excelsis," followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" and finally at the very end, "The Hallelujah Chorus," is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion, if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during this time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

Christmas Day

Holy Communion at 8 A.M.

Holy Communion At 11 A.M.

During the time of Communion at the midnight service, while all who wish to receive Holy Communion are coming to the Altar, the congregation is invited to sing carols with the choir.

While Shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
Fear not, said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind
Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind
To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:
The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid
Thus spake the seraph and forthwith,
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
All Glory be to God on high
And on the earth be peace
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease.—Hymn 13

1. It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From Heav'n's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.
  2. Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heav'nly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hov'ring wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.
  3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
  1. What child is this who, laid to rest,
On Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet,
While shepherds watch are keeping?
  2. Why lies He in such mean estate,
Where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christians fear, for sinners here
The silent Word is pleading.
  3. So bring Him incense, gold, and myrrh;
Come peasant, king, to own Him.
The King of kings salvation brings;
Let loving hearts enthrone Him.
- Chorus—(after each verse):
This, this is Christ, the King
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing.
Haste, haste to bring Him laud,
The Babe, the son of Mary.—Hymn 36

1. Angels from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye, who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:
Refrain:
Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn King.
2. Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing;
Yonder shines the infant Light:
3. Saints before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His Temple shall appear.—Hymn 28

TUESDAY, THE EPIPHANY, Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M., 12:15 (Noon).

Adult Confirmation Class to Begin January 11

A class for adults in preparation for Confirmation on March 1st will begin on Sunday, January 11th, in the Church at 2:30 in the afternoon. The Class is open to all who care to attend, whether planning to be confirmed or not. All who are confirmed on March 1st must have attended each class or have attended a "make-up" class. It should be stressed that attendance at the classes does not commit anyone to being confirmed at their close.

Operation Bells

The Men's Club of The Church of the Holy Trinity has taken on a man-sized project—to make it possible to play the Bells of Holy Trinity from the organ console. It is expected to cost in the neighborhood of five thousand dollars which the men of the club, who already have a nest egg of one thousand dollars, hope to raise by various projects. No general solicitation will be made but opportunities to help in various ways will be offered.

The first "bell ringing" project will be a series of four "bridge" evenings when Mr. Joseph Gazzam, Jr., will act as instructor for bridge lessons in the early part of the evening and games will be played in the latter half. The charge for the four lessons and games will be five dollars for the series and this money will go to aid "operation bells."

Mr. Gazzam, the instructor, is a member of The American Contract Bridge League and of The Hamilton Bridge Club. A graduate of St. Paul's School, Harvard College, and the University of Pennsylvania Law School, Mr. Gazzam is a former Deputy Attorney General of Pennsylvania and Counsel for the City of Philadelphia.

The series of four lessons and games starts on Wednesday evening, January 14th, at 8 P. M., and continues on the following Wednesday evenings, January 21, 28, and February 4. Mr. Christopher C. Morris is chairman of the "Operation Bells" Committee.

The Evening Auxiliary Meets This Coming Tuesday

A former Marine Corps Officer, who served at Guam and Okinawa, and is now an Episcopal Missionary in Africa, is to be the speaker at The Evening Auxiliary Dinner this coming Tuesday at 6 P. M. His name is Gale F. Miller and (perhaps of special interest to the Evening Auxiliary) The National Council Office says "he is barely thirty years old." There should be a large attendance at the Auxiliary and reservations should be made early. Don't miss this—Tuesday Evening, January 6th, at 6 P. M.

Woman's Auxiliary and Guild This Thursday

Bishop Roberts is the speaker at the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild this coming Thursday, January 8th, at 2:30 P. M. Bishop Roberts, formerly Bishop of Shanghai, lived there under Communist rule for more than a year and knows the Far East situation intimately at first hand. All women of the parish and their friends are invited to hear Bishop Roberts this coming Thursday.

Christmas In Review

A letter to the Rector from a parishioner reads as follows: "Just a few words of appreciation to the clergy, choir, and organist for the beautiful service Christmas day. Everyone I have visited has spoken of the service the evening before which I suppose was repeated on Christmas, and of how the Church was decorated so beautifully and the music was heavenly. Thank you all so much for it." Such gracious thoughtfulness warms the heart. And the Rector knows that the writer will not mind if he adds his own thanksgiving to the choir, the ushers, the chancel committee members, Mr. Humphries, and Mr. Henderson; and, especially to Dr. and Mrs. A. Wiese Hammer, who made possible the decorations which were so beautiful and which are given in loving memory of Charles A. Daniel.

More than six hundred people attended the three Christmas Day services and four hundred and twenty-two received Holy Communion during the week of Christmas.

Five hundred and sixteen gift packages were wrapped and sent by The Evening Auxiliary to Byberry and Philadelphia General Hospitals, and to the Home for the Indigent. The Women's Auxiliary and Guild sent Christmas plants and gifts to our own shut-in members and to some of our newcomers. Almost two hundred dollars was sent in gifts to others whose fortunes were low at this Christmas time. The Christmas offering for Missions will approach a thousand dollars enabling the vestry to assure The Diocese that we shall pay our full Missionary share of fifteen thousand in 1953.

Note

PARENTS, teachers, and children of the Church School are asked to meet at 10:15 this Sunday morning to receive new quarterly materials, parents magazines, and instructions as to their use.

The Sunday Evening Program at Holy Trinity

6:30 to 7:30 P. M.

Trinity Club supper for youth, students, young adults, and young marrieds, in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. The speaker at supper is the Reverend N. Lascelles-Ward, Chaplain at the Philadelphia General Hospital, who will speak on Chinese Art. He will illustrate his talk on China with native costumes, which his wife will model.

7:30 to 8:30 P. M.

Evening Prayer with sermon by Captain Robert C. Jones, National Director of The Church Army. The choir will sing Bach's “Sages of Sheba” at this service.

8:30 to 9:30 P. M.

Trinity Club interest groups meet in the Parish House. There are Discussion, Choral, and Dramatic groups to meet every interest. You are welcome in these groups. Come and enjoy them.

Confirmation Classes Begin This Sunday

Confirmation classes for all who desire to become communicant members of The Episcopal Church at the Church of the Holy Trinity begin this Sunday—for adults at 2:30 P. M. in the Church; for children immediately following the 11 o'clock service.

All are welcome to attend the Adult classes (eight classes between now and March 1st, when Bishop Armstrong visits the parish for Confirmation). Already confirmed Episcopalians will find them a good way to become better informed Churchmen. Interested people are welcome whether planning to be confirmed or not. All who are planning to be confirmed are asked to attend all the classes before being presented by the Rector to the Bishop.

No previous enrollment is necessary. The Adult Class will begin promptly at 2:30 this Sunday. Note: Are you bringing anyone for Confirmation this year? Just suppose we all brought one each year! It is something to think about.

New Bible Class Series to Start Monday and Tuesday, January 19 and 20

A new series of Ten Bible Classes will begin on Monday evening, January 19th at 7:45 and Tuesday morning, January 20th at 10:45. Both classes are identical. This winter-spring term will have as its subject. “The Gospel According to St. Matthew.”

Imposing List of Noon-Day Preachers in Lent

Noon-day preaching services will be held again at Holy Trinity this Lent. At the suggestion of many, the hour has been changed to 12:25—the service ending at 12:55. Services will begin on Ash Wednesday with the Reverend Powell Mills Dawley as the preacher on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. He will be followed during the weeks of Lent by Bishop Hubbard of Michigan, Bishop Gray of Connecticut, Bishop Stark of Rochester, the Reverend John Ellis Large of New York, and the Reverend Edward G. Harris.

The Men's Club Project: Operation Bells

Are you interested in playing better Bridge? Lessons in Bridge (five dollars for four) under the instruction of a tournament player, Mr. Joseph M. Gazzam, Jr., will be available at the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, beginning this coming Wednesday Evening at 8 P. M. and continuing on January 21st, 28th, and February 4th. Bridge games will also be played. Although under the auspices of The Men's Club, the instruction is open to both men and women. The project will benefit the plan for making it possible to play the Carillon from the organ console.

Notes

A CHURCH ARMY CAPTAIN will speak at Evening Prayer this Sunday. He is Captain Robert C. Jones and he is the National Director of The Church Army. The choir will sing Bach's “Sages of Sheba.”

THE RECTOR took the Holy Communion to 15 sick and shut-in persons in the week following Christmas. He is always ready to bring Holy Communion to anyone upon their request.

AFTER CHURCH TODAY come into The Coffee Hour in the Parish House, especially if you are a visitor this morning. We are anxious to meet you and to do for you what we can.

7:30 P. M.—Senior Choir Rehearsal.

SATURDAY:

7:30 P. M.—(in the Parish House) Square Dancing. (See below).

The Bible Classes Resume on Monday, Tuesday

The importance of the Bible Classes cannot be overemphasized. On the next ten weeks, the study will be "The Gospel According to St. Matthew." This is a study of the life and teachings of our Lord. Every person, man or woman, who believes that he or she does not know enough about the gospel ought to attend the Bible Classes. It is not too much to say that our times need, more than any other one thing, intelligent Christians. Don't be a Christian in name only. Know what you profess. Attend the Bible Classes.

There are two identical classes, both for men and women. One meets on Monday evenings at 7:45; the other, on Tuesday mornings at 10:45.

Sewing Is Needed

Sewing by Episcopal women is urgently needed to keep up the flow of supplies to both Diocesan and Missionary hospitals. Our own Episcopal Hospital on Lehigh Avenue needs our help. If you can help, come and join a sewing group which will begin meeting in the Parish House this Wednesday morning, January 21st, at 10:30 A. M. For further information, call Mrs. Harvey C. Griffith at Welsh Valley 4-9694.

Want to Really Relax? Well, Look, Square Dancing

Saturday night, January 24th, will see the first of what may well be the beginning of more square dances at the Parish House. John (Hi,O) De Silver is the caller. Young adults, students, and young marrieds are invited. The place is the Parish House (room by room) and the time is 7:30 P. M. There will be instructions in the "Art" of the (square) dance. This can really be fun. Bring your friends—Saturday, the 24th, no charge.

Notes

THE BRIDGE CLUB with instructions in Bridge by Mr. Joseph M. Gazzam, Jr., and opportunity to play regular games, takes place in the Parish House on Wednesday evenings. This is a project of The Men's Club to raise money to make it possible to play the carillon from the organ console. Men and women, at a cost of five dollars for the remaining evenings, January 21, 28, and February 4th, are invited.

Come in to the Coffee Hour After Church

"If after Kirk ye bide a wee, there's some wad like to speak to ye. If after Kirk ye rise and flee, We'll all seem cold and stiff to ye. The one that's in the seat with ye, Is stranger here than ye, may be. All here hae got their fears and care; add thine own soul unto their prayers, be ye our angel, unawares."

The Sunday Evening Program at Holy Trinity

6:00 to 7:30 P. M.

Trinity Club supper for youth, students, young adults, and young marrieds, in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. This Sunday night's speaker is Mr. Drayton S. Bryant, Assistant Director, Philadelphia Housing Authority. His subject is, "Meeting Interracial Housing Problems," illustrating his talk with pictures.

7:30 to 8:30 P. M.

Evening Prayer with Sermon by the Rev. Mr. Pollanick. Music by the Young Adult Chorus under the direction of Mr. Charles Ennis and assisted by F. Mason Jones Jr., Solo French Horn with the Philadelphia Orchestra.

8:30 to 9:30 P. M.

Trinity Club interest groups meet in the Parish House. There are Discussion, Choral, and dramatic groups. You are welcome in these groups. Come and enjoy them.

Monday—The Feast of the Purification

Holy Communion at 7:30 and 12:15 (Noon).

The Book of Common Prayer has a long name for the Holy Day that occurs on February 2nd,—it is called "The Presentation of Christ in the Temple, commonly called The Purification of Saint Mary The Virgin." It is an additional devotional opportunity. At the request of several whose working day begins early, there is now a service at 7:30 in the morning on Holy Days as well as at 12:15 (noon).

Bishop of South Dakota Speaks Tuesday

The Evening Auxiliary speaker next Tuesday evening will speak in the Church at 7:30 after the usual Evening Auxiliary dinner at six o'clock. The speaker will be the Right Reverend William Blair Roberts, D.D., Bishop of South Dakota, where, in its mission to the Sioux Indians, the Episcopal Church has done one of its finest pieces of missionary work. Members of the Woman's Auxiliary groups in the Diocese have been invited and the address in the Church at 7:30 is open to the public.

Reservations for the Evening Auxiliary dinner at six on Tuesday, February 3rd, must be made by this Saturday Noon (there can be no exceptions and no cancellations after Saturday Noon).

The Christian Living Conferences—February 12 to 15

Since the first of January, thousands of Episcopalians in various neighborhood locations in the Diocese of Pennsylvania have attended Diocesan sponsored conferences on Christian Living. The conference which is most convenient for Holy Trinity people will be at the Church of the Holy Apostles and the Mediator, 5101 Spruce Street, beginning on Thursday evening, February 12th, and continuing through Sunday evening, the 15th. The purpose of the conference is to discuss how the effectiveness of The Church in the life of today can be continually increased. Skilled leaders direct the meetings.

The Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity asks that all the officers of every organization attend these conferences. He has had reports on them and all point to their being particularly worthwhile. In addition to officers who should attend, the Rector commends the conference to everyone.

Kenneth A. Syfrit Succeeds William E. Caveny, Jr.

Church ushering is important and especially so in a downtown Church like ours. Often it is the Usher who leaves the most lasting impression with the visitor. An efficient and hospitable corps of ushers is a most vital part of our service here at Holy Trinity. For some time past, this part of our work has been under the direction of Chief Usher William E. Caveny, Jr. who has done an outstanding piece of work. Recently, Mr. Caveny has moved out to the far reaches of Chestnut Hill and he feels that he is now too far from the Church to act effectively as chief usher. Therefore, the Rector has accepted reluctantly his resignation and appointed Kenneth A. Syfrit as Chief Usher to succeed Mr. Caveny. Mr. Syfrit has accepted and has already taken over the responsibilities.

To Mr. Caveny go the thanks of all of us. He is the kind of Churchman that every parish needs,—taking his place and share in parish activities and doing all things well.

Parish Notes

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES are meeting in the Parish House every Monday evening at 7:45, Tuesday mornings at 10:45. They are an opportunity to learn about the most important fact that any man can ever know. Over a hundred people attend each week—why don't you?

THE CONFIRMATION CLASS, meeting in the church on Sunday afternoons at 2:30, has as its subject this Sunday "The Sacraments of the Church" and next week, February 8th, "The Book of Common Prayer." Anyone may attend.

THE CHOIR is singing "old favorite" offertory anthems each Sunday from now until Easter. During February, the choir will sing, "O Lord Most Holy," Franck; "Be Not Afraid," Mendelssohn; "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place," Brahms; "O for a Closer Walk with God," Foster.

THE GOLDEN AGERS resume their first and third Friday meetings on February 6th, at 2 P. M.

Nominations for Vestrymen—Annual Meeting, April 20th

The annual meeting of the corporation known as The Church of the Holy Trinity is called in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation for Easter Monday, April 6, 1953. However, as is permitted, this meeting will be adjourned and the adjourned meeting will be held on Monday, April 20th, at 8 P. M.

Nominations for Vestrymen to be elected at the meeting of April 20th may be made by members of the parish in accordance with Article 2, Section 1 of the by-laws which reads as follows: "Nominations may be made in writing by any three persons entitled to vote at the election provided all written nominations are delivered to the Secretary of the Vestry at least fifteen days prior to Easter Monday" (or fifteen days prior to the adjourned meeting). Therefore, if any desire to make nominations, the nominations must be signed by three persons and mailed to "The Secretary of the Vestry" at 1904 Walnut Street so that they will be received not later than Monday, April 6th.

Notes

The Sewing Group will not meet on Thursday in Holy Week.
Parents and teachers of the Church School will meet Monday, March 30th, at 7:30 P. M., in the Parish House.

Young Adult Planners meet Sunday evening at five in the Parish House.

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter. Immediate emergency repairs to the organ have arisen as an unbudgeted item. Your generous Easter offering this year will help us meet this emergency.

Easter—1953

7:30 P.M.—Evening Service

At this service, the choir will sing the Easter music of Haydn, Handel, and Stainer.

Young Adult Program as usual this Sunday Evening

The Young Adult, Young Married, Student Program begins with supper at six o'clock Sunday evening in the parish house when this week's speaker will be Dr. Howard C. Kee of the Department of Religious Thought at the University of Pennsylvania, who will talk of his experiences "in the Holy Land in Holy Week" and will show slides of his travels in Palestine.

After the seven thirty service, the various interest groups, choral, dramatic, and discussion groups, will meet in the Parish House.

Evening Auxiliary Meets This Tuesday

"Liturgical Music" is the intriguing topic of the Reverend William P. Loane, director of the Diocesan Commission on Music, who will be the speaker at The Evening Auxiliary Meeting this Tuesday evening at 6 P. M. Dinner reservations must be in by noon this Saturday, April 4. All Business and Professional Women, and any others who find the evening meeting more convenient, are welcome at The Evening Auxiliary.

Woman's Auxiliary Meets Thursday

Featured speaker at The Woman's Auxiliary next Thursday at 2:30 is Sister Lois, a member of the Community of All Saints, a religious order for women. She will talk about the history of the order to which she belongs and also tell of its work at St. Anna's Home on Race Street. The Woman's Auxiliary is for all women. No special invitation is needed.

Coming Events of the Easter Season

THE TEA AND CAKE SALE, an annual event sponsored by The Evening Auxiliary, is scheduled for Saturday, April 18th, from 12 to 4 o'clock. Donations from anyone will be thankfully received. Call Miss Tansley, evenings, BA 9-8464. Note the date now. More later.

AN ALL PARISH PARTY is being planned for Friday night, April 24th. This is something new, is not for profit of any kind—just a general parish good time for all from 9 months to 90 plus.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING to hear the reports of all parish organizations and to elect Vestrymen will take place at 8 P. M. on Monday night, April 20th, in the Parish House.

CARILLON RECITAL, SUNDAY, APRIL 12, 7:30 P. M.

Arthur Lynds Bigelow, Bellmaster at Princeton University, carillon authority, will present a recital, using his salon carillon of forty-two bells, in the church on Sunday, April 12, as a part of the 7:30 service. This is one of the many things being done in the interest of the rehabilitation of the "Carillon of Rittenhouse Square" in the tower of The Church of the Holy Trinity.

Holy Communion, Thursday, Saturday, 12:15

Saturday, April 25, is St. Mark's Day, Holy Communion at 12:15.

Every Thursday, Holy Communion at 12:15.

The Annual Parish Meeting

Monday evening at eight o'clock in the Parish House is the time and place for the Annual Meeting of the Church of the Holy Trinity. There will be voting for three vestrymen to fill the places of those whose terms expire this year. Reports of all the organizations of the parish will be heard. It is very much hoped that this meeting will grow in interest and that the time may come when there will be a parish dinner as a part of it. Come on Monday night and learn about the many things that are happening in your church. Remember—This is your parish.

Other Events of the Week

THE VESTRY holds its regular monthly meeting on Monday at 4:30.

THE MEN'S CLUB is having a supper meeting on Tuesday at 6 o'clock with Mr. John Thistle of the Prison Welfare Society as the speaker.

THE ALL PARISH PARTY is to be on Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Parish House. It is for everybody of every age. There will be fun for all—Bridge and Canasta (bring your own cards), Round and Square Dancing, Group Singing, Sketching. A small fee (50 cents or less) will be collected to cover expenses. The party, however, is not for profit of any sort. It's to help us all to get better acquainted with each other. Come—whoever you are!

THIS Saturday (April 18) from noon to 4 o'clock: The Evening Auxiliary Cake and Bake Sale in the Parish House. Stop, Buy, and eat the best food in Philadelphia. Better come early. Tea, too, thirty-five cents.

Vestry Nominations

The Secretary of the Vestry announces that the following have been nominated for election as Vestrymen at the Parish Meeting on Monday night, April 20th, at 8 P. M., in the Parish House: Charles W. H. Bancroft, James Perry Emerson, Joseph M. Gazzam, Jr., George D. Geckeler, Harvey C. Griffith, Kenneth A. Syfrit.

Who Are Eligible to Vote

Article Ten, Section One of the Charter of the Parish reads as follows: “The members of the Corporation who shall be qualified to vote at any election for Vestrymen and upon all questions which may come before any meeting of the Corporation, shall be all lay, confirmed members of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of the age of at least twenty-one years who shall have been worshippers in this Church as their usual place of public worship for at least three years and who shall appear by the books of the Corporation to have been contributors of record during each of three successive years immediately preceding such election or meeting or shall be members as shall appear by the Vestry books to have paid two successive years immediately preceding the time of such election, for a pew or sitting in the said Church.”

From “The Inner Life”

The will is entirely a matter of attention. If we hold some thought or the idea of some action in the centre of our imagination, concentrate on it, attend to it with all the powers of our mind, then that is the thought which we shall go on thinking, and that is the action which we shall perform. The idea of all other acts will fade away from our consciousness.

Jesus Christ influences our wills by providing us with an all-absorbing, supremely interesting object of attention, to which we may turn immediately in our hour of need. In place of the unworthy or even base objects which seek to force themselves upon our attention. He substitutes Himself in all His strength and attractiveness. He asks us to attend to Him.

Don't Be Late to Church

Set your clock ahead on Saturday and be at church on time on Sunday. Don't come at twelve instead of eleven. Don't forget now!

Vestrymen Elected

The annual parish meeting was held last Monday evening. Reports of the various organizations were read and received. The following were elected to the Vestry to serve for the coming four years: Charles W. H. Bancroft, Harvey C. Griffith, and Kenneth A. Syfrit.

Other Vestrymen are: William H. DuBarry, Frank N. Kneas, Daniel M. Layman, John P. Lutz, Carl N. Martin, Francis F. Milne, C. C. Morris, J. B. Rudolphy and William M. West.

New Women's Auxiliary Officers

The following are the present officers of the Women's Auxiliary: President, Mrs. John P. Lutz; Vice Presidents—Community, Mrs. William W. Arnett; Missions, Mrs. Harvey C. Griffith; Parish, Mrs. J. B. Rudolphy; Program, Mrs. F. Mason Jones; Treasurer, Miss Margaret C. Maule; Recording Secretary, Mrs. George Eyre Smith; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Helene C. Reinhardt; United Thank Offering Custodian, Miss Margaret R. Kollock; Hospitality Chairman, Mrs. E. B. Bartlett, with Mrs. S. D. Metzger as Co-Chairman.

This Is Episcopal Hospital Garden Day

Benefit of Episcopal Hospital this Sunday, April 26, 1953, from 2:30 to 5:30 P. M. (In case of rain, May 3rd). These homes and gardens will be open to visitors at $1.00 each for the benefit of the Episcopal Hospital: The Misses Paxson, 8764 Frankford Avenue; All Saints' School, “Penryn”, State Road, Andalusia; Mrs. Charles J. Biddle, “Andalusia”, State Road, Andalusia; Mrs. Edward T. Taws, “Chestnutwood”, Station Road, Andalusia; Mrs. William T. Tonner, “Glenfoerd”, Grant Avenue, Torresdale.

Notes

DR. SALMON has graciously accepted an invitation to be the preacher at Holy Trinity on the last Sunday in September when we shall have another “homecoming” Sunday. This will be his first sermon in his old pulpit since November 1950.

THE PRINCE OF PEACE CHAPEL Lenter Mite-Box Offering was over six hundred dollars.

FRIDAY of this coming week is St. Philip and St. James' Day. Holy Communion will be at 7:30 and 12:15.

On Singing Hymns

The clergyman wants a hymn with teaching value, the organist one with a tune of high musical merit, and the congregation one that makes them feel good. And we have often wondered whether the real reason for singing is not that emotional escape which a group always finds in the singing of a rousing tune, with little regard for the literal meaning of the words. In wars the soldiers always sing nonsense. The young people have a happy time singing of the tragedies of love. Perhaps when we do not sing it is because we have been so fearful of emotion and tunes with a swing.

Prayer

I know not by what methods rare,
But this I know, God answers prayer.
I know not when He sends the word
That tells us fervent prayer is heard;
I know it cometh, soon or late,
Therefore we need to pray and wait.
I know not if the blessings sought
Will come in just the guise I thought.
I leave my prayer to Him alone
Whose will is wiser than my own.

Revised Parish Directory on Back Cover

The Parish Directory, on the back cover of this leaflet, has been recently revised and contains a number of new names. Look it over. It speaks of the many activities of the parish.

Diocesan Convention at Holy Trinity This Week

The annual convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania meets at the Church of the Holy Trinity this coming Monday and Tuesday. The Bishop of the Diocese will preach at the opening service on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to this service. During the sessions on Tuesday, beginning with Holy Communion at 9 in the morning, spectators may watch proceedings from the gallery of the church. Our delegates to the Convention are: the Clergy, William H. DuBarry, Daniel M. Layman, and William M. West.

The Church of the Holy Trinity will report proudly that it was able to give $15,238.00 to the Missionary work of The Church in 1952. This is the third largest gift in the Diocese. We shall report twenty-one confirmations and twenty-one baptisms in 1952.

Emerson to Lead Men's Club for 1953-1954

J. Perry Emerson was elected President of the Men's Club for the 1953-1954 year at a recent meeting. Other newly elected officers are: Vice-President, Kenneth A. Syfrit; Secretary, Arthur Parkinson; Treasurer, Austin Ross. Newly elected members of the Club's Executive Committee are the officers and Charles W. H. Bancroft, George D. Geckeler, F. Rudolph Goehring, Harvey C. Griffith, Edwin Humphries, Merrill A. Kercher, Daniel M. Layman, John P. Lutz, C. C. Morris, Robert B. Platt, and William M. West.

Recent Transfers to Holy Trinity

Cleaver of The Rittenhouse Savoy from Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook; Mr. Parker Enwright of 2122 Locust Street from St. Luke's Cathedral, Orlando, Florida; Mrs. Elizabeth Taussig Flershem of 2212 Panama Street from St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill; Miss Anne Killey O'Keeffe of 1832 Spruce from Christ Church, Bluefield, W. Virginia; Mrs. Charles H. Scott of 2141 North 10th Street from The Holy Apostles' and The Mediator, 5101 Spruce Street, and Mrs. Marguerite Ingraham of Comly and State Road, Philadelphia, from The Church of the Saviour.

The following have transferred from Holy Trinity to other parishes: Mrs. Mary Brownlow Hatch Ashbaugh to St. Joseph's, Elmsford, New York; Mrs. Dorothy Flaherty to St. Mark's Evanston, Illinois; Mrs. Frank Huet to St. Paul's, Chester, Penna.; Mrs. James Sturgis McCord to the Church of the Incarnation, Baltimore, Maryland; Mrs. Mary Mason Young Miller to All Saints, Wynnewood, Penna.; Mrs. Emma Jane Morris to Church of the Resurrection, Broad and Tioga Streets, Philadelphia; Miss Julia Corona Sutton to Grace Church, New York, and Mrs. Elizabeth Cappers Wilson to The Church of the Epiphany, Norfolk, Virginia.

Notes and Comments

THE RECENT PARISH PARTY was attended by one hundred and fifty people (one in disguise) and was a howling success. Everybody had a good time. Some played Bridge, others played Canasta, many had their fortunes told by Das of India, others square-danced, and some just sat. But all had fun.

A STUDENT GROUP from Temple University is spending two hours at Holy Trinity this Friday morning. The rector will talk to them about the Episcopal Church.

THE CORONATION of Queen Elizabeth will be marked in Philadelphia by a service at Holy Trinity at 10:30 A. M. on June 2nd. St Peter's Boy Choir will sing.

THE VESTRY recently authorized a gift to The Episcopal City Mission of one thousand dollars from "the poor fund." The clergy of the parish depend greatly on The City Mission for help in social service cases and The Episcopal City Mission is always ready to help in every possible way.

THE WINDOWS on the Walnut Street side of the Church, as well as the rear Rose window, are now lighted at night as the result of a recent anonymous gift. The Rose Window is being cleaned and, when done, should shine out over the square nightly as a benediction.

8:30 to 9:30 P. M.

Trinity Club interest groups meet in the Parish House. There are discussions, Choral and dramatic groups to meet every interest. You are welcome in these groups. Come and enjoy them.

Thursday, May 14, Ascension Day

Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 (noon)

If you are one of those blessed souls who possess always a sense of constant companionship with Jesus, a realization of His glorious beauty, the profound and humble consciousness of trust in Him, you will make all possible arrangements to be at the altar of your Church on Ascension Day to keep the yearly remembrance of Him as the eternal King, the everlasting Lord who is ever our Redeemer and Saviour through all time.

The United Thank Offering

The offering at the 11 o'clock service today will be received by ladies of the congregation who, on this Sunday, will take the place of the regular ushers at the time of the offering. This will mark the receiving of The United Thank Offering of The Women of The Church of the Holy Trinity for the first half of the year 1953.

The United Thank Offering is presented every three years at the meeting of the General Convention and is for the missionary work of The Church both in this country and in foreign areas. At the convention in Boston last October, it was approximately two million and a half dollars. Our own parish gave three thousand, three hundred and ninety-two dollars and eighty-nine cents of this amount during the three years.

The United Thank Offering has meaning when it represents the prayerful giving from time to time of those who have reason to be thankful to God for help and guidance. It is a good way to emphasize that Prayer without Thanksgiving to God who loves us is poor prayer indeed.

Meetings This Week

THE MEN'S CLUB meets on Tuesday, May 12th, at 6:15 P. M. for dinner. The new officers (see back cover) will be installed. Our own fellow member, C. C. Morris, will speak on his visit to the Holy Land and will show slides. Be sure to come and greet the new officers.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY-GUILD meets on Thursday, May 14th, at 2:30 P. M. Mrs. Crozer Martin will speak on "The United Nations and World Order."

ST. PETER'S CHOIR of men and boys sings in a special service of music at St. Peter's, 3rd and Pine Streets, Wednesday, May 13th, at 8:30 P. M.

NOTE ABOUT ALTAR FLOWERS—Several open dates are available to persons wishing to place memorial flowers on the altar. The open dates for the remainder of the year are: May 17th and 24th; July 5th, 12th and 26th; August 2nd, 16th and 23rd; October 18th and 25th; November 8th; December 6th and 27th. Call Mrs. Levintow at the parish office if you wish to take one or more of these Sundays (LO 7-1267).

A week ago, there passed from this life one William G. Smith. A fine gentleman, beloved by his neighbors, a communicant of the Church of the Holy Trinity who sat near the rear of the south aisle. Not a well man for many years, unable to work, his only means of support was public assistance. During the past two years, about once every three months, he would ask the rector for a loan of five dollars, never more, to carry him over until his next relief check came. And, promptly, when it came, he would come to the parish house and return the loan. Mr. Smith was a man of old-fashioned integrity and certain humility. Poor in this world's goods, he was rich in kindness and uprightness. Relieved now of the burdens of this life, he will most surely grow in love and services. And so for him we pray.

The Coming Coronation

Protestant Episcopalians in the United States of America, although not subjects of the English Crown, are deeply interested in the coming coronation of Britain's Queen because the coronation is a religious rite, presided over by Archbishops, Bishops, and Clergy of the English Church. It is essentially a service of Consecration and is full of the elements of the service appointed for the consecration of Bishops.

Episcopalians will, therefore, be interested in available publications about the Coronation all of which are available at the British-American Bookstore, 1627 Walnut Street: "The Story of the Coronation" by Randolph Churchill, Sir Winston's Son ($3.00); "The History of the Coronation" by Lawrence Tanner ($4.50 with some fine pictures); "The Coronation Service" by Francis Eeles ($2.25). Also, for children, there is "The Coronation Gift Book for Boys and Girls" by Malcolm Savilla ($2.00 with many pictures).

Also, in Forth Magazine (The Church's own magazine to which you can subscribe for $1.25 by notifying the rector) for May, there is an outstanding article on the Coronation. In one place, it says, "As in the case of the consecration of a bishop, the consecration of a King or Queen takes place within the framework of the Holy Communion and partakes of its sacramental character. The central act of the whole ceremony is not the Crowning but the Anointing when, by the hallowing with holy oil, the Sovereign is 'anointed, blessed and consecrated Queen over the peoples whom the Lord God hath given her to rule and govern.' All the symbolic rites that follow the Anointing, such as the girding with the Sword, the presentation of the Orb and the Ring and the two Sceptres, culminating in the act of Coronation itself, are outward and visible signs charged with an inward and spiritual meaning, and may therefore be truly said to be sacramental in intention. Not until the Queen has been invested with all the emblems of royalty and has been presented with the Bible, 'the most valuable thing that this world affords,' is she 'lifted up' into her throne, there to receive the homage due to her 'state of royal and imperial dignity,' delivered unto her 'in the Name and by the authority of Almighty God.'"

Flower Market and Holy Trinity Join Hands

Under the Associate Rector's guidance, The Church of the Holy Trinity has become a part of the Annual Flower Market in Rittenhouse Square. On May 21st, Flower Market Day, visitors to the Flower Market are invited to use the Church for rest and meditation. At 12:15, there will be the usual service of Holy Communion. At 2 o'clock, Mr. Elmore will play a recital and there will be other soloists present to play and sing.

The Rose Window

When it was decided to light the Church windows at night, it was found that the lovely Rose Window at the rear of the nave was covered with an inner opaque glass which kept light from shining through the window. No one seems to know why this was done. Last week, Mr. Humphries, at some personal risk since the window is not easily accessible, removed the inner glass and the window has become again a thing of beauty. Not only does it let light into the church but it shines out on the square after dark.

Notes

THE CHURCH USHERS took note last Sunday when the ladies, with great dignity, took up the offering—it being the occasion of the presentation of The United Thank Offering.

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4:30.

ARMED FORCES Prayer Book for use by members of the armed services are available without cost upon application to the Rector.

CONGRATULATIONS to parish pledgers because better than 92% of you are keeping your pledges paid up to date.

The Sunday Evening Service Will Be Resumed in the Fall.

Trinity Club meets for Supper at 6:00 P. M. In place of the usual speaker, a dramatic film, "Fire Upon the Earth," will be shown. Following the film, there will be an evaluating of the programs and procedures of the past year and plans discussed for the Fall.

South Philadelphia Convocation Meets This Tuesday
The South Philadelphia Convocation meets this Tuesday, May 26th, at the Prince of Peace Chapel, 22nd and Morris Streets. Members of the Women's Auxiliary meet at 3:15 with Miss Helen McHenry as the speaker. Any woman is welcome at this meeting.

There is a service of worship for all, men and women, at five o'clock with the Reverend Benjamin J. Rudderow as the preacher. Dinner follows the service ($1.25) with Bishop Hart as the speaker. Anyone may attend these meetings. For dinner reservations, call Mr. Cragg at FULTON 9-3835.

Final Trinity Club Meeting This Sunday—Until Fall

Trinity Club, the Sunday Evening Club for students, young adults, and young marrieds, will close its activities which have been carried on during the Fall, Winter, and Spring months this Sunday evening—to resume again on September twentieth.

Discussion, choral, and dramatic groups have featured its activities. At Christmas time, a crowded church witnessed a pageant presented by the choral and dramatic groups. The Club has sponsored the Sunday evening services as well as an all parish party. Under its inspiration and as a result of its work, the upper room in the Parish House was redecorated and re-furnished.

During the year, some thirty people, eminent in various fields, have addressed the group and led it in discussions. Among these have been the Bishop of the Diocese; the acting president of the University of Pennsylvania; the Chaplain of the University; Lincoln Harter, Political Scientist; Barry Moyerman, leading Jewish layman in a talk about Judaism; Mary Schaeffer, associate director of The World Affairs Council; Ellen Donovan, Art Gallery director; Eugene Hahn, librettist; John Anthony Brown, Dean of Men at Temple; Martin Chworowsky, director of the Greenfield Center of Human Relations, and many others.

Trinity Club and associated youth work are under the direction of Mr. Pollanick, Associate Rector.

Holiday House

Holiday House, in the country near Sellersville, will be open again this summer and will afford vacation opportunities for many people. The Reverend J. Aubrey Cragg, the Vicar of Prince of Peace Chapel, in in charge of operations and will be glad to receive reservations from any desiring to be at the house this summer. Vacation periods are as follows: July 6-17; 20-31; and August 3-14, 17-28. The August 3rd to 14th period is for married couples and children. The other periods are for women and children. Children may be sent by parents and will be cared for at the house. Children must be under sixteen years old and over six years old.

The cost for each period is $15.00 for adults and $8.00 for children. Children must have a physical examination. For further information, call the Reverend Aubrey Cragg, 2132 Shunk Street, 'phone FULTON 9-3835.

Notes

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING, with over 225 contributors, reached a total of more than $820.00. Miss Margaret R. Kollock is custodian for the Day Auxiliary, Miss Laura Abrams, for the Evening Auxiliary. The offerings were presented at Holy Apostles-Mediator Church last Monday morning.

THE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL May Fete is set for Wednesday, May 27, from 11 A. M. to 9 P. M., at Front Street and Lehigh Avenue.

THE MITE BOX presentation is this Sunday at 4 P. M. at Episcopal Academy, City Line Avenue and 57th Street. Members of our Church School are asked to be ready to leave the Church at 2:30.

Transfers for the following have recently been received: Mrs. Beatrice Maude Bowley, 1613 South Paxon Street, from the Church of the Epiphany, and Miss Dorothy Gordon Hay, 1811 Chestnut Street, from The Good Shepherd Memorial Church.

The following have recently transferred from Holy Trinity to other parishes: the Misses Margaret Jeanette and Frances Mary Armour have become members of the Bala-Cynwyd Methodist Church; Mrs. Bernice Byrd Bassett and son to St. Martins-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill; Mr. William M. Boenning to St. Jude and the Nativity, Plymouth Meeting; Mr. William E. Caveny, Jr., to St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill; Mr. Spencer Brown Downing to St. Martin's in Radnor; Miss Susanne C. French to St. Paul's in Edgely; and Jane Ephlyn Trout to the Chapel of the Holy Apostles, Penn Wynne, Philadelphia.

Coronation Thanksgiving Service on Tuesday

On Tuesday, June 2nd, Coronation Day, at 10 A. M., a service of Thanksgiving will be held at the Church of the Holy Trinity. The galleries will be open to the public at all times and the floor of the nave after nine-forty-five. Before that time, this part of the church will be reserved for members of British societies and guests of the local Consulate.

Bishop Hart and Bishop Armstrong will have part in the service. Canon Earp will be the preacher. The Consul General, D. F. H. Brickell, will read the lessons. The choir of St. Peter's Church, under the direction of Mr. Harold W. Gilbert, will be present to sing at this service.

Holy Trinity Note Paper Available

A member of the parish has had printed, at her expense, some most attractive note paper with an original sketch of the Church of the Holy Trinity on its cover. It is her desire to sell the paper at one dollar a package of ten folders with envelopes and to give the money to the Carillon Fund. The rector has given her permission to set up tables, during the summer season, at the ends of the church porch where this note paper may be obtained.

The Carillon restoration fund still lacks a thousand dollars before work can be begun to enable the bells to be played regularly.

Additional New Transfers to Holy Trinity

Since last week's list, the following new transfers to Holy Trinity have been received: Miss Joan Bradford, 2100 DeLancey Place, from Advent Church, Cape May; Miss Estella A. Brooks from Grace Church and the Incarnation, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Harry S. May, 513 Woodland Terrace, from Grace Church, Hastings-on-Hudson, New York.

Sermon Series During June

Beginning on June 7th, the Rector plans to preach three sermons during June on "Great Men at Crisis Times." The three great men are Elijah, St. Paul, and St. Francis. They were leaders at what may well be called the three times of greatest moment during the last three thousand years.

Notes

LAST SUNDAY, the Rector completed thirty years in which he has never had to be absent from a Sunday service because of illness. He has not missed being present at church somewhere every Sunday during the thirty years. He has been told that the next thirty years are going to be more difficult. Today marks the Rector's thirtieth anniversary of his ordination to the Diaconate.

WRITING ABOUT ENGLAND'S QUEEN, a recent writer said this: "The Queen's attachment to her religious duties was strikingly shown recently on the occasion of her going to Scotland for the wedding of the Earl of Dalkeith. The ceremony (on a Saturday) involved Her Majesty in two night journeys by train on successive nights. She reached Sandringham on her return between nine and ten on Sunday morning, but at 11 o'clock was in her place in Sandringham parish church."

Hymn—"Holy, Holy, Holy"

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, Holy, Holy! all the Saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and Seraphim falling down before thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, Holy, Holy! though the darkness hide thee,
Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see,
Only thou art holy, there is none beside thee
Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy Name, in earth, and sky, and sea;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Amen.

Sentences

THE REV. HARRY S. LONGLEY, D.D.

Rector, Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, Pa.

Anthem—"I was glad when they said unto me" . . . . . Parry

St. Peter's Choir, Harold W. Gilbert, Director

Priest: O Lord, open thou our lips;

Answer: And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest: O God, make speed to save us;

Answer: O Lord, make haste to help us.

Here, all standing up, the Priest shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Priest: Praise ye the Lord;

Answer: The Lord's Name be praised.

Psalm 145

THE REV. ALVIN DUANE SMITH

Minister, Overbrook Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia

I will magnify thee, O God, my King: and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever.

Every day will I give thanks unto thee: and praise thy Name for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and marvellous worthy to be praised: there is no end of his greatness.

One generation shall praise thy works unto another: and declare thy power.

As for me, I will be talking of thy worship: thy glory, thy praise, and wondrous works;

So that men shall speak of the might of thy marvellous acts: and I will also tell of thy greatness.

The memorial of thine abundant kindness shall be shewed: and men shall sing of thy righteousness.

The Lord is gracious, and merciful: long-suffering, and of great goodness.

The Lord is loving unto every man: and his mercy is over all his works.

All thy works praise thee, O Lord: and thy saints give thanks unto thee.

They shew the glory of thy kingdom: and talk of thy power;

That thy power, thy glory, and mightiness of thy kingdom: might be known unto men.

Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom: and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

The Lord upholdeth all such as fall: and lifteth up all those that are down.

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season.

Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

The Lord is righteous in all his ways: and holy in all his works.

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: yea, all such as call upon him faithfully.

He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will help them.

The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but scattereth abroad all the ungodly.

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name for ever and ever.

[Anglican Chant]

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Lesson—I St. Peter 1. 1-12

D. F. H. BRICKELL, Esq., O.B.E.

Her Britannic Majesty's Consul General

Hymn—"Praise, my Soul, the King of Heaven"

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;

To his feet thy tribute bring.

Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,

Who like me his praise should sing?

Praise him! Praise him!

Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour

To our fathers in distress;

Praise him still the same for ever,

Slow to chide, and swift to bless.

Praise him! Praise him!

Glorious in his faithfulness.

Father-like, he tends and spares us;
 Well our feeble frame he knows;
 In his hands he gently bears us,
 Rescues us from all our foes.
 Praise him! Praise him!
 Widely as his mercy flows.

Angels, help us to adore him;
 Ye behold him face to face;
 Sun and moon, bow down before him;
 Dwellers all in time and space.
 Praise him! Praise him!
 Praise with us the God of grace. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed—(All remain standing)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
 And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried, He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints, The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers

THE RT. REV. J. GILLESPIE ARMSTRONG, D.D.
Bishop Suffragan of Pennsylvania

Minister: The Lord be with you;

Answer: And with thy spirit.

Minister: Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Answer: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Minister: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done; In earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Priest: O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us;

Answer: And grant us thy salvation.

Priest: O Lord, save the Queen;

Answer: Who putteth her trust in thee.

Priest: Send her help from thy holy place;

Answer: And evermore mightily defend her.

Priest: Be unto her, O Lord, a strong tower;

Answer: From the face of her enemies.

Priest: Endue thy ministers with righteousness;

Answer: And make thy chosen people joyful.

Priest: O Lord, save thy people;

Answer: And bless thine inheritance.

Priest: Give peace in our time, O Lord;

Answer: Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Priest: O Lord, hear our prayer;

Te Deum . . . Set to music in the key of B-flat by C. V. Stanford

Prayers

THE RT. REV. OLIVER J. HART, S.T.D.

Bishop of Pennsylvania

National Anthem

God save our gracious Queen!
Long live our noble Queen!
God save the Queen!
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the Queen!

Hymn 279—"Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of Creation"

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation:
Come ye who hear,
Brothers and sisters draw near,
Praise him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under his wings, yea, so gently sustaineth:
Hast thou not seen
All that is needful hath been Granted in what he ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work, and defend thee;
Surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee:
Ponder anew
All the Almighty can do,
He who with love doth befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the amen
Sound from his people again:
Gladly for ay we adore him. Amen.

The Pamphlet Rack

At the rear of the nave, there is maintained a small rack of helpful pamphlets, most of which cost five or ten cents. It has been interesting to note, during the past two years, how fast the pamphlets have disappeared. Evidently, they are helpful to many people. From time to time there appear there such titles as “Why Worship,” “Loneliness,” “Christ Heals Today,” “How to Pray for Others Who Are Sick,” “How to Use the Prayer Book,” and many others.

A new venture on the rack is the placing there a dozen copies each week of the new Church weekly, “The Episcopal Churchnews.” It sells at twenty cents a copy. It is suggested that you investigate it. It is excellently printed, well written, and very informative in terms of Church news. Also, there is in it always a very good article of general interest by someone well qualified to write it.

Look over the pamphlets in the rack. Buy “The Episcopal Churchnews.”

The People of the Church Can Help

Next Thursday and Friday, Rittenhouse Square will house the first open air blood donor program under the auspices of the Central Branch of the American Red Cross.

The Army will pitch a tent, and doctors, nurses, and aides will be in attendance from 11 A. M. to 6 P. M. both days and on June 11th, at 12:30, an opening program will feature a male and female representative of each of the Armed Services and an official of the City, State and Nation. The Navy Band will play from 11:30 to 1:30 P. M.

Church people from 18 to 58 years old are eligible to volunteer as blood donors. Notify in writing A. G. H. Lucas, 321 South 25th Street, if you will give blood and at what time on either of the days. For further information, call him at LO 7-0198.

Notes

DURING JUNE, the Rector is preaching on “Great Men at Crisis Times.” The three great men are Elijah, St. Paul, and St. Francis. They were leaders at what may well be called the three times of greatest moment during the last three thousand years.

JUNE 11 is St. Barnabas Day. There will be one service at 12:15. The clergy will be at a clergy conference at Valley Forge Military Academy,—hence no 7:30 service.

A Harrowing Tale With a Happy Ending!

Last year a member of our church was out bass fishing, when a terrible storm came upon him. He looked for shelter, but there was none. It began raining, so he crawled into a nearby hollow log. It fitted snugly. The rain lasted for hours, and the water soaked through the log. Then the log began to contract. When the storm was over the man could not get out. The log held him tight. He knew that if he could not free himself, he would die of starvation. His whole life flashed before him, especially his mistakes. Suddenly he remembered he had not paid his pledge to his church for his vacation time in advance. This made him feel so small that he was able to crawl out of the log without difficulty. Next day he sent a check for three months' pledge in advance.

This Sunday is Shut-In Day

“The Shut-in's Day Association of the United States of America” urges you to remember the sick and disabled, both civilians and war veterans, on Sunday, June 7th. Further information about the work of this group may be had at 1505 Land Title Building, Broad and Chestnut Streets.

Monday Is St. Matthew's Day

Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 (noon).

Dr. Salmon to Preach Sunday, the 27th

For the first time since his retirement as rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity Dr. Salmon will preach in his old pulpit at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday, September 27th. Former members of Holy Trinity are especially invited to this service and to meet Dr. and Mrs. Salmon at The Coffee Hour Afterward.

Young Adults, Young Married, Student Activities Begin This Sunday Evening

Under the leadership of the Associate Rector, the doors of Holy Trinity open wide this Sunday evening at six o'clock to Young Adults, Young Marrieds, and Students of whatever church or none offering Christian fellowship to all. During the evening, there is discussion on a high and thoughtful plane. There is opportunity for those interested in dramatics or music. At 7:30, there is a service of worship in the church.

No one is a stranger. If you come for the first time tonight, you will feel immediately at home. Trinity Club is for you.

Tonight's discussion leader will be a University of Pennsylvania faculty member, Dr. Norman D. Palmer, leading a discussion on our Far Eastern Policy. The Young Marrieds (meeting separately) will hear a talk about Egypt by Dr. Barook J. Masuda.

At the worship service, the Choir of Holy Trinity, under Robert Elmore's direction, will sing “Lord I Have Loved the Habitation of Thy House,” one of the loveliest of all motets.

Missing Faces Since Summer Began

During this past summer, members of our fellowship here, whom we loved, have passed from this life and beyond our earthly sight. Others whose presence was valued deeply have moved out of the parish and city to other parts of the country. We miss their companionship. They are still in our prayers.

Those who departed this life during July and August were: Mabel Zimmerling, Pearl Nealon, Corinne C. Atherton, Dorothy Littlefield Flaherty, Mary H. Kauffman.

Familiar faces that we shall miss who have moved away are: Mrs. Rebecca Beattie, Joseph Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Syfrit.

Church School Junior Choir Sings for First Time

In vestments of brilliant red with white collars and white ties, the members of the Church School Junior Choir made their debut last Sunday morning. On some Sunday soon, we shall ask them to join the procession at 11 o'clock so that the congregation can see them. And, in due time we shall also hear them. Present members of the Choir are: Adele and Arthur Abbott, Suzanne Bolan, Cynthia Davidson, Gordon Emerson, Olivia Israel, Laurie S. and Varick D. Martin, Barook J. Masuda, Walton J. Momer, Carolyn L. Pollanick, Carla Schofield, Karen C. and Roslyn A. Stone, Paul Tolstoy, Carol Ann Walichnowski, and Gail Crumling. Ask Miss Martha Libis at Church School about joining.

Evening Auxiliary Reminds Members of Mission Shop Shower

Advance Notice is herewith given reminding Evening Auxiliary members to bring something for the Diocesan Mission Shop to the first Auxiliary meeting on October 6th at 6. Anything may be brought—writing paper, handmade flowers, pot holders, what have you.

Notes

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4:30.

NEW FORWARDS at six cents each are on sale this Sunday for the convenience of the many who use them daily. Over 300 are sold here each issue. Their meditations begin on Sunday, the 27th.

A STORE in Ardmore has its Christmas decorations up. Advent is getting longer and longer.

Every Student, Young Adult, Young Married is welcome at Trinity Club's Meeting in Holy Trinity Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, every Sunday night at 6. No one needs a special invitation. You are invited. Tonight's program is a panel arranged by Judge Herbert E. Millen. Participants: Captain Howard R. Leary, Head, Juvenile Aid Division, Philadelphia Police Department; Miss Geraldine Kelly, Policewoman, Juvenile Section; John Carey, Esq., Assistant District Attorney; Dr. Donald Davidson, Psychiatrist, Youth Study Center, Philadelphia; Dr. John Otto Reinemann, Director of Probation, Municipal Courts, Philadelphia.

7:30 P.M.—Evening Prayer

The Young Adult Trinity Chorus will sing Wesley's "Lead Me Lord."

Holy Trinity Members Invited Back This Sunday

Former members of Holy Trinity are particularly invited to worship this morning in their old parish church and to hear the former rector, Dr. E. Frank Salmon, who will be the preacher. Dr. and Mrs. Salmon will be the guests of honor at the Coffee Hour in the parish house after the service.

The Rector's Bible Classes Begin Monday, October 5th, Tuesday, the 6th

For ten consecutive weeks this Fall, the Rector's Bible Classes will study what many would call the Key book of the New Testament—the Epistle to the Romans. If you would know what Christianity is, here is the answer. Your rector cannot urge too strongly that you make plans to attend these classes. The first class is on Monday evening, October 5th at 7:45 with an identical class on Tuesday morning, the 6th, at 10:45. The classes will continue on Mondays and Tuesdays for ten weeks.

Open House At The Parish House Every Friday Evening

A home away from home for every lonesome (or not so lonesome) young person can now be found at Holy Trinity's Parish House every Friday evening. Beginning at 7:30, there will be round and square dancing with the same caller that stirred up things at the parish party last year. There will be free Bridge and Canasta lessons taught by members of the Young Adult Group. All kinds of games, ping pong and otherwise, will be available. There will be refreshments too.

Looking for a place to go? Make it 1904 Walnut Street on Friday evenings. You'll have a good time.

Rector Talks About Radio Parish

Radio listeners are a very real part of the life of the Church of the Holy Trinity. In his sermon two weeks ago, the rector spoke of the need for a "radio parish" in which an active ministry could take place even though these listeners for various reasons could not be Church attendants.

Each week, many radio listeners write such comments as these: "We found much comfort and help in the sermons preached by Mr. Pollanick during an especially difficult time for us this summer." Another writes, "Two weeks have passed since I listened to your sermon on the radio, about a boy named "Bill," who was drowned, and I feel you should know just how much your sermon helped me. Three years ago, I too, had a boy "Bill" who was drowned and the many questions and doubts that filled my mind were so like those of the parents in your sermon. You, unknowingly, have helped and answered my doubts." A third person says "May God bless you and the Church in the splendid work you are doing."

Notes and Comments

BISHOP TSU is to be the speaker at the first Woman's Auxiliary luncheon meeting at one o'clock on Thursday, October 8th. This is the Auxiliary's first luncheon meeting. (More about it next week).

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES will begin on Sunday, November 15th. Bishop Hart will visit the parish for Confirmation in January. Eight instruction classes will precede this service.

ORGAN REPAIRS costing three thousand dollars will be completed this week. Installation of electrical equipment to make the Carillon playable has begun.

TUESDAY is St. Michael and All Angels Day. There will be Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 Noon—additional devotional opportunities this week.

The Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

October 4, 1953

WORLD WIDE COMMUNION SUNDAY

This Day, The World Will Be One. Be A Part of It.

On this Sunday, all Christian people all over the world, whether Protestant or Catholic, will gather in their churches to receive Holy Communion—a witness in a broken world to the unbroken fellowship of Christian people. Even in Russia, in China somewhere, this will happen.

When it is five o'clock on Saturday evening here in Philadelphia, New Zealanders will be starting this world-wide action. And, after that, thru the whole twenty four hours of Sunday, somewhere during every minute a group of Christians will be gathering with each other and their Lord around a holy table in Communion.

Let every Christian in our fellowship be a part of this unbroken chain. And may each one pray for the peace of the world, good will, and righteousness among men. May we all remember our Lord's saying, "I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto Me." Let us all witness to Him on this solemn day.

Tuesday: 6:00 P. M.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY meets for dinner with William Parker Heston, Philadelphia Investment broker and active layman in the Church, as the special speaker. All business and professional women and other women unable to attend a day time meeting are invited to join the Evening Auxiliary. Supper reservations ($1.25), (call LO 7-1267), must be in by Saturday, October 3rd.

Wednesday: 8:30 P. M.

St. Paul's Cathedral Choir at the Academy of Music.

Thursday: 12:15 (Noon)

There is a service of Holy Communion with special intercessions every Thursday noon. Requests for prayers at this service should be sent to the Rector.

Thursday: 1:00 P. M.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD meets for luncheon with Bishop Y. Y. Tsu, Chinese Bishop in Exile, as the special speaker. Perhaps no one in the United States today knows more intimately the situation now existing inside China. All women of the parish are invited to join the Auxiliary. Luncheon reservations ($1.00) must be made by Tuesday, October 6th. Call LO 7-1267. Bring a friend.

Thursday: 7:30 P. M.

"The Divine Commission"

First Performance in Philadelphia

Music by Joseph W. Clokey, with spoken dialogue and responses.

Text Compiled by Harland E. Hogue, Joseph W. Clokey.

Performance time, one hour and fifteen minutes.

The Words of the Music and the Responses of the People

(The congregation will remain seated at all times except for the singing of the hymns)

Christus vincit. Christus regnat. Christus imperat. Laudate dominum omnes gentes: laudate eum populi. Christus imperat. Christus vincit. Christus regnat. Christus vincit. Christus regnat. Christus imperat.

HYMN 289 (in the Hymnals); Stanzas one, three, four, and six.

DIALOGUE (based on the Book of Job)

WHY ART THOU CAST DOWN, O MY SOUL? WHY SO DISQUIETED? LIKE AS THE HART DESIRETH THE WATER BROOKS, SO LONGETH MY SOUL AFTER THEE, O GOD. MY SOUL DOTHT THIRST FOR GOD, YEA FOR THE LIVING GOD. WHEN SHALL I COME TO APPEAR FOR THE LIVING GOD? WHEN SHALL I COME TO APPEAR BEFORE THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD? WHY ART THOU CAST DOWN, O MY SOUL? WHY SO DISQUIETED? O PUT THY TRUST IN GOD, THE LORD, O PUT THY TRUST IN GOD, FOR I WILL EVER MORE PRAISE HIM WHO IS THE HELP OF MY COUNTENANCE, AND MY GOD.

Reader, God is our refuge and our strength; People, A very present help in trouble.

Reader, We will not fear, though the earth be moved; People, And though the hills be carried into the sea.

Reader, Though the waters thereof rage and swell; People, Though the mountains shake with the tempest,

Reader, Though nations rage, and kingdoms be moved; People, Yet if He utter his voice, the earth shall melt.

Reader, He shall make wars to cease; People, He shall break the bow in pieces.

Reader, He shall cut the spear in sunder; People, He shall burn the chariot in the fire.

Reader, Be still then, and know that He is God; People, We will exalt Him among the nations.

Prayer

THE LORD WHO KNOWS HIS SHEEP WILL ALL IN SAFETY KEEP. HE WILL NOT LOSE ONE SOUL, NOR EVER FAIL US, NOR WE THE PROMISED GOAL, THOUGH HELL ASSAIL US. I KNOW MY GOD IS JUST: IN HIM I TRUST. TO HIM I WILL ENTRUST ALL THAT I HAVE AND AM, ALL THAT I HOPE FOR. ALL'S SURE AND SEEN TO HIM WHICH NOW I GROPE FOR. NOW TAKE MY SPIRIT, LORD, I TRUST THY LOVING WORD. TAKE HOME THE WANDERING SHEEP, FOR THOU HAST SOUGHT IT, THIS LOVING WORD. THIS SOUL IN SAFETY KEEP, FOR THOU HAST BOUGHT IT.

DIALOGUE (from the Prophets)

Reader, Bless the Lord, O my soul; People, And all that is within me, bless His Holy Name.

Reader, He will redeem my life from destruction; People, And crown me with loving kindness.

Reader, The Lord has brought up my soul from the grave; People, He has kept me alive, that I go not down to the pit.

Reader, He will uphold me in my integrity; People, And set me before His face forever.

Reader, He shall quicken me again; People, And bring me up from the depths of the earth.

Reader, He will deliver my soul from death; People, My heart shall live forever.

Prayer

I SOUGHT THE LORD AND AFTERWARD I KNEW HE MOVED MY SOUL TO SEEK HIM, SEEKING ME. IT WAS NOT I THAT FOUND THEE, SHEPHERD TRUE. NO, I WAS FOUND OF THEE. THY HAND, O LORD, REACHES FORTH, MINE TO ENFOLD: SECURE I WALKED UPON THE STORM-TOSSED SEA. 'T WAS NOT SO MUCH THAT I ON THEE TOOK HOLD AS THOU, O LORD, AS THOU ON ME. I FIND, I WALK, I LOVE, BUT O THE WHOLE OF LOVE IS BUT MY ANSWER LORD TO THEE; FOR THOU WERT LONG BEFOREHAND WITH MY SOUL FOREVER LOVING ME.

DIALOGUE (from the Wisdom of Solomon)

Reader, Let nothing disturb you; People, Nothing affright you.
Reader, All things are passing; People, God never changes.
Reader, Patient endurance; People, Will attain all things.
Reader, Who God possesses; People, Is wanting in nothing.
Reader, Trust, then, in God alone; People, He is sufficient.

Prayer

COME MY WAY, MY TRUTH, MY LIFE! SUCH A WAY, AS GIVES US BREATH; SUCH A TRUTH AS ENDS ALL STRIFE; SUCH A LIFE AS KILLETH DEATH. COME, MY LIGHT, MY FEAST, MY STRENGTH! SUCH A LIGHT AS SHOWS A FEAST: SUCH A FEAST AS MENDS IN LENGTH: SUCH A STRENGTH AS MAKES HIS GUEST. COME, MY JOY, MY LOVE, MY HEART! SUCH A JOY, AS NONE CAN MOVE; SUCH A LOVE, AS NONE CAN PART, SUCH A HEART, AS JOYS IN LOVE.

DIALOGUE (from the Gospel of St. John)

Reader, Would you know the Way? People, Follow Him.
Reader, Would you know the Truth? People, Believe in Him.
Reader, Would you have Eternal Life? People, Keep His Commandments.
Reader, Would you be His disciple? People, Deny yourself.
Reader, Would you be perfect? People, Lay not up treasures on earth.
Reader, Would you have treasures in heaven? People, Humble yourself in this world.
Reader, Would you reign with Him? People, Bear the cross with Him.

The Lord's Prayer (all repeat it quietly)

IF GOD BE GOOD, WHY IS A RIGHTEOUS MAN CRUCIFIED? IF GOD BE GOOD WHY DO THE WICKED ONES PROSPER? IF GOD BE JUST, WHY ARE NATIONS SLAUGHTERED WITH THE SWORD? IF GOD BE JUST, WHY ARE TYRANTS EXALTED? CHRIST CONQUERETH. CHRIST REIGNETH. CHRIST RULETH.

DIALOGUE (from the Gospels)

Reader, O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious; And his mercy will endure forever; People, This is the day which the Lord has made.
Reader, This is the Lord's day; and it is marvelous in his sight; People, This is the day which the Lord has made.
Reader, I shall not die, but live; and declare the works of the Lord; People, This is the day which the Lord has made.
Reader, The Lord is my strength and my song. He is become my salvation; People, This is the day which the Lord has made.
Reader, The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous; People, This is the day which the Lord has made.
Reader, The right hand of the Lord shall bring mighty things to pass; People, This is the day which the Lord has made.
Reader, O give thanks unto the Lord; for He is gracious; And his mercy will endure forever; People, This is the day which the Lord has made.

(During this time, an offering will be received). I GOT ME FLOWERS TO STREW THE WAY: I GOT ME BOUGHS OFF MANY A TREE: BUT THOU AROSE AT BREAK OF DAY, BRINGING THY SWEETS ALONG WITH THEE. THE SUN ARISING IN THE EAST THOUGH HE GIVE LIGHT, AND THE EAST PERFUME, IF THEY SHOULD OFFER TO CONTEST WITH THY ARISING, THEY PRESUME. CAN THERE BE ANY DAY BUT THIS? THOUGH MANY SUNS TO SHINE ENDEAVOUR? WE COUNT THREE HUNDRED, BUT WE MISS; THERE IS BUT ONE, AND THAT FOREVER.

DIALOGUE (based on Words of our Lord)

Reader, O Father, O Son, O Holy Spirit; People, Have mercy upon us.
Reader, O Jesu, God above all gods; People, Have mercy upon us.
Reader, O Jesu, King above all kings; People, Have mercy upon us.
Reader, O Jesu, Man above all men; People, Have mercy upon us.
Reader, By Thy birth in Bethlehem; People, Help us O Jesu.
Reader, By Thy death and crucifixion; People, Help us, O Jesu.
Reader, By Thy resurrection and ascension; People, Help us, O Jesu.
Reader, Impart unto us Thy Holy Spirit; People, We beseech Thee, O Lord.
Reader, Protect and preserve us from iniquity; People, We beseech Thee to hear us, O Lord.
Reader, Kindle in us Thy righteousness; People, We beseech Thee to hear us.
Reader, Grant unto us Eternal Life; People, We beseech Thee, O Lord.

Prayer

IN CHRIST THERE IS NO EAST OR WEST, IN HIM NO SOUTH OR NORTH: BUT ONE GREAT FELLOWSHIP OF LOVE THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE WIDE EARTH. HIM SHALL TRUE HEARTS EVERYWHERE THEIR HIGH COMMUNION FIND: HIS SERVICE IS THE GOLDEN CORD CLOSE BINDING ALL MANKIND. JOIN HANDS THEN BROTHERS OF THE FAITH, WHATEVER YOUR RACE MAY BE: WHO SERVES MY FATHER AS A SON IS SURELY KIN TO ME. IN CHRIST NOW MEET BOTH EAST AND WEST, IN HIM MEET SOUTH AND NORTH: ALL CHRISTLY SOULS ARE ONE IN HIM, THROUGH-OUT THE WHOLE WIDE EARTH.

DIALOGUE

Reader, Thou, Lord, art Holy. Thou art Most High. People, Strong, Great, Almighty.
Reader, Thou, Holy Father, art King of Heaven and earth. People, Good, All Good, Highest Good.
Reader, Thou art charity, love wisdom; People, Humility, patience, quietude.
Reader, Thou art joy and gladness; People, Justice and temperance.
Reader, Thou art our protector and guardian; People, Defender and strength.
Reader, Thou art our hope and our faith. People, Thou art Eternal Life.

HYMN 577; Stanzas one, two, three, and four.

A LECTION

CHRIST CONQUERETH, CHRIST REIGNETH, CHRIST RULETH. O PRAISE THE LORD ALL YE NATIONS, ALLELUIA, PRAISE HIM ALL YE PEOPLES ALLELUIA. CHRIST CONQUERETH, CHRIST REIGNETH, CHRIST RULETH. ALLELUIA, IS EVERMORE AND MORE TOWARD US ALLELUIA, PRAISE THE LORD. CHRIST CONQUERETH, CHRIST REIGNETH, CHRIST RULETH. 'GLORY BE TO THE FATHER, AND TO THE SON, AND TO THE HOLY GHOST. ALLELUIA, AS IT WAS IN THE BEGINNING, NOW AND EVER SHALL BE, WORLD WITHOUT END. AMEN. CHRIST CONQUERETH, CHRIST REIGNETH, CHRIST RULETH.

who was killed in Korea on his twenty-sixth mission on June 22, 1953.

6:00 P.M.—Trinity Club

Topic for tonight: “What Industry is Looking for in Young People,” with Dr. Sidney Rappaport, Associate, Edward N. Hay and Associates, as the special speaker.

Young Married Program: Mrs. Helen E. Heydrick on “The Art of Living Together.”

7:30 P.M.—Evening Prayer

Dr. Longley talks on “The Remedy for Sin.” The Trinity Club Choir will sing an anthem by Ralph Kinder.

This Tuesday, The Men's Club Meets

The “get together” meeting of The Men of the Parish which opens The Men's Club year is this coming Tuesday at 6:15 for dinner in the Parish House. All Holy Trinity men are invited. Guests are more than welcome. Reservations for dinner ($1.50) should be 'phoned to the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) before Monday noon.

Entertainment at the first meeting will be furnished by Harold Stephens of New York, musical comedy writer and producer who now has a new show in production.

Your rector hopes that every interested Holy Trinity man will stand behind the once a month meetings of The Men's Club which, more than any other factor, can make our parish grow “man-wise.”

Rector's Bible Classes Now Meeting Monday, Tuesday

It is not too late to begin attendance at the Rector's Bible Classes on Monday evenings at 7:45 or (same class) Tuesday mornings at 10:45. The present study is St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans—the Key book of the New Testament.

Don't be a religious illiterate. Don't be half-Christian. Know this Epistle.

Sewing Group Starts Meeting Again Thursday, 10 A. M.

The Sewing Group, under the direction of Mrs. Harvey C. Griffith, resumes its meetings in the Parish House at 10 A. M. this coming Thursday. This group sews for Diocesan and community projects.

Episcopate Endowment Fund Seeks Help

There is a Diocesan project which is seeking to build up an adequate endowment fund so that the Diocese will be able to pay all the expenses of the Bishops and their staff without dependence upon the parishes. This will make the Bishop's office self-sustaining.

If you are interested and feel able to help in this, full particulars will be supplied if you write or call the Secretary of the Committee, 202 W. Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia 3, or
'phone LO 7-0644.

Notes

Austin Ross has succeeded Kenneth A. Syfrit who has moved away as chief of ushers.

A DEED FOR A PEW bearing the date 1867 and signed by John Bohlén and Lemuel Coffin as Wardens during the rectorship of Phillips Brooks was sent to the Rector last week with the comment “The church became so popular under the late Bishop Brooks that such deeds as this one were bought and sold at Barnes and Lofland at a price as high as $3000.”

ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 25, the Reverend Canon Marcus Knight and Treasurer of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, will be the special speaker at the 11 o'clock service at Holy Trinity.

MR. ARTHUR S. JARVIS who services the Rittenhouse Square drinking fountain maintained by the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Holy Trinity receipts his bills for this work as a donation to the Broadcasting Fund. Thank you, Mr. Jarvis. It is appreciated,

The Reading from Holy Scripture

St. John, Chapter 14

Romans, Chapter 8

A Hymn: High Flight

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings
Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there I've chased the shouting wind along and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long delirious, burning blue
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew,
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.

David Edward Leyshon, born in Philadelphia, January 29, 1927, enlisted as an Air Force Cadet in 1944 and, after training at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, was assigned to Kessler Field. On congressional appointment to the United States Military Academy, he passed all scholastic and aptitude tests but was rejected because of "facial disfigurement" due to an accident. After five major operations at Valley Forge General Hospital, his facial scars were eliminated and he was enrolled as a cadet at West Point in 1947 where he graduated in June, 1951.

Lieutenant Leyshon was married to Doris Zoll after graduation and they have one daughter, Laura Lee. Assigned to Korea in January, 1953, Lieutenant Leyshon had flown twenty-five missions before being killed in line of duty on the twenty-sixth mission, June 22, 1953.

His body has been returned for burial at West Point.

6:00 P.M.—Trinity Club

International night with speakers from International House on Latin America—Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Venezuela, and Argentina.

7:30 P.M.—Evening Prayer

The Senior Choir sings “Jubilate, Amen,” by Bruch. The Rector concludes four talks on “Sin and Its Remedies.”

Nursery

Equipped with crib, play pens, and a “sitter,” we are now prepared to care for young children in the parish house while parents attend church either at 11 or 7:30 in the evening. You are invited to leave your children.

How Do You Stand?

After a recent survey of pledge payments for the first three quarters of the current year, the Rector and the Accounting Warden were decidedly pleased to find that from an expectation to date of $27,512.22 (three quarters of the total amount pledged for 1953), there had been paid $25,622.96, leaving only $1,889.26 in unpaid pledges up to October first.

Furthermore, on looking over the list of unpaid or only partially paid pledges, there seems to be every reason for supposing that most of these will be paid eventually.

If you are behind, won't you bring your giving up to date? It will help us and, we believe, make it easier for you. If you are uncertain about where you stand, call the parish office (LO 7-1267) and Mrs. Levintow will be able to tell you at once.—H. L.

Things Are Happening—Take A Look

One of the most significant things at the Church of the Holy Trinity these days is the Sunday Evening activity. Last Sunday night, seventy-five young adults, students, and young marrieds gathered in the parish house at 6 o'clock to meet in two groups (one for young marrieds and engaged couples only) to hear two speakers. In the general group, an industrial consultant talked about personnel problems in industry. In the young married group, the talk was on personal relationships. After going to the church for Evening Prayer, the groups returned to the parish house for discussion.

Members of the parish at large are invited to look in on this activity. Drop in about six-thirty or any time during the evening. You will perhaps be amazed at what you see—the beating pulse of intelligent Christian youth surveying their world with both hope and concern.

Again, we say, drop in on Sunday night and take a look. This week, Latin America is the concern with natives of Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Venezuela, and Argentina as speakers.

Notes

CONFIRMATION CLASSES start on Sunday afternoon, November 15th, at 2:30 P. M. Communicant membership in the Episcopal Church is marked by Confirmation—the laying on of the hands of the Bishop, inclusion thus in the Apostolic heritage of the Church, and the empowering of the Holy Spirit. Confirmation is preceded by eight classes of instruction so that every member of the Episcopal Church may begin his active fellowship on the basis of sound knowledge. The instruction classes start on November 15th.

BIBLE CLASSES are now going on—meeting every Monday at 7:45 P. M. and Tuesday (the same class) at 10:45 A. M. All are welcome whether regular attendants or not.

ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 25th, Canon Knight of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, will be the preacher at 11 o'clock.

The Bazaar Is On Its Way

November 18 (a Wednesday) will be Bazaar Day from 12 to 6 at the Barclay. In addition to the card party which is traditional, there will be the usual Christmas Gift buying opportunities—not least from The White Elephant Table. It's amazing what one can pick up there. Of course, there will be foods—cakes, candies; and aprons and handkerchiefs.

This year, there will be new (note, new) books from the publishers latest lists for sale or on order, at regular retail prices. There will be adult fiction, non-fiction, and in addition children's Landmark books. This new book availability is a new feature. Don't buy until you see what is at the Bazaar.

This Sunday's Preacher

It is our great privilege to have the Reverend Marcus Knight, Senior Canon Residentiary and Treasurer of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, as the preacher this Sunday morning. During the war years, Canon Knight was Vicar of the large industrial parish of Nuneaton, Warwickshire. He is also secretary of The Church of England Council for Education.

The rector is absent today and is taking the services at his old parish in West Virginia. On Saturday, he officiates at the weddings of two former parishioners who were small children when he first went to Charleston.

The Community Chest

The Christian Church is, of course, interested in the success of the Community Chest and urges its members to support it liberally. Many of its members are among the fifteen thousand volunteers who are working to raise over eight million dollars in the Philadelphia campaign.

Don't forget that the USO is a part of the Chest campaign—as well as Boy and Girl Scouting, care of the aged and handicapped children and adults, concern for the tragedies of broken homes, and many other things.

For additional information, contact Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, Embassy Apartments, 2100 Walnut Street (LO 4-0864) or send your gift directly to campaign headquarters, 16 South Broad Street, Philadelphia 2.

Christmas Cards

Why not send Holy Trinity Christmas cards? A beautiful folder with a picture of the church and containing two verses of “O Little Town of Bethlehem,” calling attention to its connection with Holy Trinity, are available at ten cents each. The profit realized from the sale will go toward the Carillon Fund. The cards will be available after church in the church porch or at the Coffee Hour.

Every Member Canvass—November 22

Loyalty Sunday is November 22nd. Mark the date now on your calendar and save this Sunday for your parish church. Every Holy Trinity member who is well and able should be in church that day at 11 o'clock. That can happen if you will mark the date down now.

Notes

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS, Mondays at 7:45, Tuesdays at 10:45.

THE ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS begins Sunday, November 15, 2:30 P. M.

THE SEWING GROUP is meeting every Thursday morning at 10:00 in the Parish House. All are welcome. There is plenty to do.

Special Note

Send your White Elephants to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut, now. Mark your gift plainly as a donation for the White Elephant Table. Here's your chance to get rid of that (to you) eyesore. Somebody else will love it; for beauty, you know, is in the eye of the beholder!

The Sunday Evening Program

At 7:30 this Sunday evening, the Senior Choir will sing as the second of “the first Sunday in the month oratorios,” Leo Sowerby's “Christ Reborn.” This is frankly so called modern music. It is a bold as well as sincere attempt to proclaim the truth of the Gospel with certainty and confidence through the medium of words set to music. Although you may not like the music form, it is worth your listening.

At the Young Adult supper, there will be a forum participated in by Donald Clark, Moderator, Charles Summers, Ethel Cox, Alice Maes, and Walter Storey. The topic for debate is “Should clergy be retained by companies as human relations consultants?”

THIS FRIDAY NIGHT, October 30, there is a “Hallowe'en Hop” at 8 P. M. in the parish house. There will be round and square dancing, Bridge and Canasta. You are invited.

Evening Auxiliary to Hear Kenneth Anthony Tuesday

One of the Diocese of Pennsylvania's leading younger clergymen, the Reverend Kenneth Anthony, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, West Chester, is to be the special speaker at the Evening Auxiliary supper meeting this coming Tuesday at six o'clock. His talk will tell how a parish can analyze its effectiveness in the work it is supposed to be doing.

The Evening Auxiliary is for all women, especially Business and Professional women but not limited to such, who cannot attend a daytime meeting. All are welcome and invited. Dinner reservations ($1.25) should be made by Saturday noon. Call LO 7-1267.

Confirmation Classes Begin November 15th

The Episcopal Church welcomes to its communicant fellowship all who have an earnest desire to follow Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. The parish fellowship of Holy Trinity invites such into its membership. All who thus desire responsible membership in the life of the Church are presented to the Bishop, who represents the Church, who confirms the purposes of the seeker, prays that the Holy Ghost will strengthen him, and receives him into the age long life of the apostolic heritage.

All who seek this blessing are asked to prepare for it that they may come to it with understanding and ready acceptance. Eight weeks of classes begin on Sunday afternoon, November 15th, at 2: 30 in the church and continue on successive Sundays. All who seek Confirmation are asked to attend the classes.

The classes, which are about the Episcopal Church in particular and its place in the Christian Mission, are also open to any who wish to come, inquirers, or people already confirmed.

Important Notes

THE HOUSE OF REST, a Church home for elderly women, holds its annual donation day tea this coming Wednesday afternoon, November 4, from 2 to 5 o'clock. The House of Rest is located at 5919 Wayne Avenue. You are welcome to come and see it.

A CHOIR FESTIVAL, featuring various Diocesan choirs will take place in the Church of the Holy Trinity this Wednesday evening at 8 P. M.

THE PAROCHIAL UTO service will be Sunday, November 8th.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS, Mondays, 7: 45 P. M., Tuesdays, 10: 45 A. M.

THE WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT of the Philadelphia Council of Churches will sponsor a special clothing drive on World Community Day, November 6. Church people are asked to bring at least one article of used but usable clothing for overseas relief to church with them on the following Sunday, November 8th.

United Thank Offering Presentation

The United Thank Offering of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be presented at the 11 o'clock service this Sunday. This offering will, in turn, be added to the offerings of all the parishes for the In-Gathering to be held at St. Stephen's Church on Thursday, November 19th at 8 P. M., when the Right Reverend C. Alfred Voegeli, Bishop of Haiti, will be the preacher.

Every Member Canvass Set For November 22nd

Plans are being completed rapidly for Loyalty Sunday, November 22nd. Early in the week of the fifteenth, the people of the parish will receive the proposed budget for 1954; and all will be asked to be at church on Sunday the 22nd at 11 o'clock to present their pledges of support for the coming year.

As this Bulletin goes to press on Monday, the 2nd, at the request of the Vestry, the following have consented (and with enthusiasm) to be members of the Canvass Team: Frederick C. Bachman, Martha H. Bailey, Newell C. Bradley, Margaret Colflesh, Morrow G. Campbell, Carola S. Collings, Helmut H. Dahlke, Parker F. Enwright, J. Perry Emerson, Mary Fielden, Gwen Grant, Mary K. Harper, Dorothy H. John, James L. Kauffman, James L. Kercher, Merrill A. Kercher, Ada Louise Layman, Marjorie A. Layman, Edward S. Leyshon, Edward McQuillan, James J. Miller, Russell G. Montgomery, Anne O'Keeffe, Arthur Parkinson, Robert B. Platt, Caroline M. Price, Jessie M. Price, Salome P. Riegner, Austin Ross, Rodney E. Sachs, Douglas A. Schoerke, Allison Smith, Elizabeth Webster. Others not heard from yet will be added later to this list. All these people will attend the Canvass Dinner on November 18th from six to eight o'clock and participate in the Canvass on Sunday, the 22nd.

Make your plans now to be in church on Sunday, the 22nd, at 11 o'clock for our great Loyalty Sunday service.

Confirmation Classes Begin Sunday, the 15th, at 2:30 P. M.

Eight classes for adults in preparation for Confirmation when Bishop Hart visits the parish in January will begin Sunday, the 15th, at 2:30 in the church. All who plan to be confirmed are asked to receive this instruction. All others are invited. These classes are your opportunity to become informed about the Episcopal Church. They are open to all inquirers—to anyone.

Confirmation is the way in which one becomes a responsible communicant member of the Episcopal Church. If you are not a member now and desire to express your Christian witness in the fellowship of Christian people, you are invited to consider attendance at the classes. Attendance does not imply commitment. All are welcome, whether planning to be confirmed or not.

Parish Meetings: Men's Club, Woman's Auxiliary, This Coming Week

THE MEN'S CLUB meets for dinner on Tuesday, November 10th at 6:15 P. M. Featuring the meeting will be a talk by Chief Inspector Albert E. DuBois of the Philadelphia Police Department. Tickets for supper are $1.50; reservations should be made by this Saturday noon. Phone LO 7-1267. If you are a Holy Trinity man, support your Men's Club. Bring a friend. The doors are open wide!

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will hear Mrs. George Ames, who has lived in Korea and who will speak on “What About Korea?” at its monthly meeting next Thursday, November 12th at 2:30 P. M. All women of the church are members of the Woman's Auxiliary. No special invitation is necessary. Come!

Five More Meetings of the Rector's Bible Class

The Fall Term of the Rector's Bible Class is half over. There are five more sessions on Mondays at 7:45, Tuesdays at 10:45 (identical classes). Become a Bible Class Member.

The Senior Choir of the Church of the Holy Trinity sings, "Jesu, Friend of Sinners."

"As Thou hast given man the freedom not to be determined by material things only, help us to remember that Thou also hast set limits to our freedom. We can defy Thee and Thy purpose—but only within the bounds Thou hast set. We can assert our pride and greed and corrupt the arrangements of lending and borrowing, and so divert them from Thy purposes—but only so far—until Thou dost judge them and destroy our institutions. Keep us mindful that is Thy will that finally governs in the affairs of men, even though sometimes we cause it to be forced upon us in wrath and destruction."
—E. A. DE BORDENAVE

The Bazaar (Fabulous, Colossal) Is Next Wednesday

At the Barclay from noon to six o'clock on Wednesday, the 18th, immediately to the left as you enter the hotel, you will find the Christmas Bazaar of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Beginning at two o'clock, there is a card party. Later in the afternoon, tea is served.

The Bazaar is positively the pleasantest place in Philadelphia to do your Christmas shopping. You will be amazed at what you can find at the White Elephant Table. Children's things feature another table. Yet others will have fancy and useful articles. The latest new books as well as used books will be available for buying. And of course the traditional handkerchief, apron, cake, and candy will all be there.

The money raised at the Bazaar goes directly to the missionary work of the Church which supports churches, hospitals, schools, clergymen, doctors, nurses, teachers all over the world—and not least in the troubled East where Christianity is the great bulwark against the enslavements of tyranny.

Sunday, November Twenty-Second, Loyalty Sunday

One week from this Sunday is Loyalty Sunday when every loyal member of Holy Trinity is asked to be in church if in good health and so able to come. This is but one of many previous notices asking the members of the parish to set this day aside for their church. It should be a great day in our parish life—a great spiritual experience.

Fifty workers are sharing in the effort of the Every Member Canvass and will give of their time in attendance at a dinner next Wednesday night, the 18th, and on Sunday, the 22nd. Ease their work, support their efforts by your ready response. Added name of workers (not published last week) are: May Belle Baird, A. Hendrik Drake, Joseph M. Gazzam, Jr., James H. Mearns, Margaret Mencke, Ann Mitchell, Alfred S. Reeves, and Charles V. Summers.

Our motto of Loyalty this year is that "Membership is Partnership." Be a Partner on the 22nd.

Confirmation Classes Begin This Sunday Afternoon

At 2:30, in the church, this Sunday afternoon, November 15th, a series of eight Confirmation classes for Adults will begin looking toward active communicant membership in the Episcopal Church for all who complete them. The classes are not only open to Confirmation candidates but to anyone who desires to attend. Inquirers are welcome. Parishioners anxious to review their knowledge of their Church are welcome. The classes are open to all.

A children's class also begins this Sunday in the Church immediately after the close of the morning service.

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE
OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge,—others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of a doxology.

Today's action is an act of worship. We shall talk together as pastor and people about the future of the Church of the Holy Trinity—whether, in our Lord's name, we can meet the opportunities that are ours here in a true Christian adventure or whether we must curtail our activities. We know that we must live within our income. The vestry must know what to expect from the fellowship. Then we must decide how much we can do. It is your rector's prayer that all will consider this carefully, sacrificially, and prayerfully, and so make their offering today.

STAY AT HOMES WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in or ill or prevented by conditions of work and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you can.

GOAL IN SIGHT

Last Sunday, the people of the parish pledged $32,175.20 for our work in 1954. There is still a way to go but this amount represents an increase in pledges received on Sunday as compared with last year of $4,447.00. This is an increase of $7,959.00 over the amount received two years ago.

The breakdown of this amount may be interesting: Six teams were responsible for reaching the people of the parish. So far as possible, they covered certain geographical neighborhoods. There were two center city teams—Center City No. 1, captained by Mr. Charles W. H. Bancroft and manned (or "womanned," should we also say) by the Misses Carola S. Collings, Gwen Grant, Mary K. Harper, Ann Mitchell, Jessie Price, Caroline Price, and Salome P. Riegner; Mrs. Martha H. Bailey, and the Messrs. Parker F. Enwright, James L. Kauffman, and Douglas A. Schoerke received $10,931.20; Center City Team No. 2, captained by Mr. Frank N. Kneas, and manned by the Misses Margaret Colflesh, Mary J. Fielden, Anne K. O'Keefe, and Elizabeth Webster, and the Messrs. Frederick C. Bachman, Jack F. Bowling, Newell C. Bradley, and Merrill A. Kercher received $4,976.50; Team No. 3 (North and West Philadelphia), captained by Dr. J. B. Rudolph, and manned by Messrs. Morrow G. Campbell, Edward S. Leyshon, James J. Miller, Robert B. Platt, Austin Ross, Walter B. Renneisen, and Miss Alethea R. Davenport received $4,316.20; Team No. 4 (Suburban Areas) captained by C. C. Morris, and manned by the Messrs. Donald Danenhowe, A. Hendrik Drake, R. E. Gifford, and James L. Kercher, received $3,035.20; Team No. 5 (North and South Philadelphia), captained by Mr. Harvey C. Griffith, and manned by the Misses May B. Baird, Margaret J. Mencke, and Dorothy H. John, and the Messrs. Joseph M. Gazzam, Jr., Edward McQuillan, Rodney E. Sachs, Harvey E. Schock, and Charles V. Summers, received $3,951.10; Team No. 6 (West Philadelphia) captained by Mr. John P. Lutz and manned by the Misses Helen L. Dietz, Ada Louise Layman, Marjorie Layman, and Allison Smith; the Messrs. F. Rudolph Goehring, James H. Mearns, Russell G. Montgomery, Arthur J. Parkinson, and Alfred S. Reeves, received $4,965.00. All who have not yet turned in their cards are urged to do so as soon as possible.

This Coming Tuesday Night, The Evening Auxiliary

The Evening Auxiliary meets this coming Tuesday night, December 1st for dinner at six o'clock. The Group will see a film and film strip about the Advent and Christmas season. All women, unable to attend daytime meetings, are welcome at the Evening Auxiliary. No special invitation is needed. However, please phone your dinner reservation at once (before Monday noon) to the office, LO 7-1267.

"Thanks A Million"

To all our friends who so splendidly worked and gave for our Bazaar we say a heart felt Thank You. The financial report is not complete but is very encouraging. It isn't possible to reach each one individually but the Bazaar committee wants you to know how deeply we appreciate all you have done toward the success of this year's affair.

The service of Holy Communion lasts about ten minutes longer than the other Sunday morning services. If you have not attended an earlier service, plan to stay until the conclusion of the service if you possibly can. It is a unit of worship and will mean more to you and your worshipping neighbor if you do. All who attend, worshippers in sincerity and truth, are of course welcome at the Altar of Holy Communion.

Prince of Peace Chapel Sixty Years Old

On July 14, 1893, at a special meeting of the Vestry of the Church of The Holy Trinity held at the home of Lewis H. Redner, 727 Walnut Street with Messrs. Coffin, Redner, Morris, Frazier, Whelen, and Bohlen present, it was resolved that the Committee to establish Mission Work in the southwest part of the city be authorized to rent a house and to purchase a lot as a site for the mission.

The Vestry minutes for March 26, 1894, record that “the committee on the new mission report that the mission is in a most flourishing condition. The numbers attending the various meetings have increased very much and already tax the capacity of the building.”

The Reverend John Bunting, the Rector's Assistant, became the minister in charge of the new mission. It was he who, impressed by the name of the chapel at Gettysburg, Prince of Peace, chose the name for the new mission.

Congratulations, Prince of Peace Chapel, on sixty years of service in southwest Philadelphia.

Men's Club Christmas Party Tuesday Night

The Annual Men's Club Christmas party is this Tuesday night at 6:15 in the parish house. The dinner cost is $1.50. Each person attending is asked to bring a gift for another—not to exceed twenty-five cents in cost.

Why not bring a guest. It will be a happy evening,—and Santa will be there. Reservations may still be made by calling the Parish House, LO 7-1267.

Rector's Bible Class Closes This Week

The Fall Term of Bible Classes closes this Monday night at 7:45 and Tuesday morning at 10:45. These identical classes will review the previous nine and a mimeographed summary will be available. Even if you have not been attending the classes, you may be interested in being at this last one. All are welcome.

The Spring term will start the first week in February.

Loyalty Sunday Echoes

We wish that we might write every pledger to the Church of the Holy Trinity a personal letter of thanks. The great loyalty of the people of this parish has been abundantly evident. Pledges now in the Accounting Warden's hands as of last Monday when the Bulletin went to press totaled $36,185.00 toward our goal of $37,480.96. This has been accomplished in one week's time. When all pledges are in (and many are still out), we shall undoubtedly find our goal reached.

All this speaks volumes about our Christian fellowship—The Church of the Holy Trinity. It says that we are unitedly aware of our great mission here in center city Philadelphia. We are a great parish. We are humbly proud. And so we move forward to do great things in the Master's name.

Notes

The December Issue of Coronet carries a story about Holy Trinity and the writing of “O Little Town of Bethlehem.”

The Post Office urges early mailing. Let's give them a hand at their busiest season.

Over three hundred people were present at the evening service last Sunday. More than seven hundred attended the services during the day.

1954 Budget Amount Oversubscribed

Pledges of $37,480.96 were sought for the support of the 1954 budget. As this bulletin goes to press, pledges totalling $37,976.63 have been received. It is noteworthy that this was accomplished in a period of two weeks time. It is a tribute to the magnificent corps of canvassers and their superb work and interest.

It was hoped that an additional amount might be received enabling us to add an extra man to the staff who would minister to people with problems involving many conferences and contacts as well as to the growing broadcast congregation. On the basis of pledges received last year which are still out, there will probably be almost $3,000 still to come. All this means that we will still be short of the amount needed but will have moved toward this goal. Many who generously increased their subscriptions for the coming year have, thus, moved us closer and we may yet be able to do this.

Other Canvass Considerations

The people of the parish should be interested to know and realize that a well conducted Every Member Canvass, manned by faithful canvassers such as we had this year, serves to accomplish results beyond the mere pledging of money. As noted below, it is a time when people transfer to other parishes. Loyal parishioners of Holy Trinity, in the past, they now feel that, perhaps for reasons of age, they should go to and support a parish nearer to them. Also, it is a time when others find themselves face to face with a decision about Church loyalty. It is an interesting fact that there are on the books of Holy Trinity as communicants eighty people who make no financial contributions to the support of the parish so far as can be known. Some of these, although interested and usually in church find themselves so hard pressed financially that they feel it impossible to pledge anything. We must help them. There is however also a correlation between non-contributors and non-church attendants, non-contributors and the non-interested. These people need pastoral care and will receive it. We must know who is with us and who is not. We must care for the hard pressed and encourage the faithless. Those who need this extra care come to light in the Canvass.

And of course the canvass reveals those who are vitally interested—who want to see this Christian fellowship be a power in Christ's work of redeeming and saving people and establishing eternal righteousness. If well carried out (and this last one was), it is a barometer of loyalty and spiritual enthusiasm. It reveals what the parish really is and really wants to do. It indicates to the clergy who the people are on whom they, as leaders, can count and who the people are who need their particular attention and help.

Transfers To and Away From the Parish

Every Churchman should be definitely registered in some parish church where he can channel his energies in Christian accomplishment. No one can truly be a “Private” Christian. As Christians, we are fellow-members each with the other.

The following have transferred to Holy Trinity: Miss Margaret Russel of 548 North 17th Street from St. Bartholomew's; Rodney E. and Beverly Wilson Sachs of 1810 Rittenhouse Square from Holy Trinity, Logan, West Virginia. With warmest greetings we welcome them into our fellowship.

The following have transferred to other parishes: Carl F. Hahn to Holy Apostles and The Mediator; George F. Humphreys to St. John the Evangelist, Lansdowne; James J. Miller to St. George's, Ardmore, and Mrs. Helen Potts to St. Matthew's. We shall miss these people and commend them warmly to their new friends in other parishes.

Notes

THE CHRISTMAS SERVICES will be as last year: The Midnight service beginning at 11 on Christmas eve, two services on Christmas Day at 8 and 11.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS held its last Fall session this week. Classes will be resumed in February. This Fall, there has been an average attendance of 125 at the two classes.

The Sunday Evening Program at Holy Trinity

6:00 to 7:30 P. M.

Trinity Club supper for youth, students, young adults, and young marrieds, in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. The Speaker at supper is Mr. Eugene Hahn, Librettist. His subject: "Techniques of the Musical Theater."

7:30 to 8:30 P. M.

Evening Prayer. The Chorus of the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music and The Choir of the Church of The Holy Trinity will sing "The Requiem" by Johannes Brahms.

8:30 to 9:30 P. M.

Trinity Club interest groups meet in the Parish House. There are discussion, Choral and dramatic groups to meet every interest. You are welcome in these groups. Come and enjoy them.

Philadelphia Conservatory Chorus to Sing

The Chorus of The Philadelphia Conservatory of Music will assist our own choir in the singing of Brahms' "Requiem" at the 7:30 service this Sunday evening. Some sixty voices will occupy the chancel. The Conservatory Choir is under the direction of Mr. Allison R. Drake.

Rector of New York Parish is the Noon-Day Preacher

The Reverend John Ellis Large, rector of the Church of The Heavenly Rest, New York City, is the noon-day preacher during the coming week. He will speak each day at the service which begins at 12:25 ends at 12:55. Dr. Large was formerly rector of St. Andrews Church, Wilmington.

Notes

THE COMMUNITY COMMITTEE of The Woman's Auxiliary meets on Thursday, March 19th at 2:30 P. M. Note the change in hour from the morning to the afternoon.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS will meet as usual on Tuesday, March 17, at 10:45. However, the Monday night class will be omitted this coming week.

THE RECTOR is preaching every night this coming week at St. Philip's Church, Harlem, in New York. This is the largest parish in the Episcopal Church. It has 3707 communicant members.

THE USHERS have been asked not to seat people at Morning Prayer during the penitential portion of the service after the processional hymn. Late comers are asked to wait until the singing of the Venite to take their seats.

From Korea

Both Bishops and other clergy of the Church have been visiting the Korean front regularly. One of these, Bishop Pardue of Pittsburgh, has written a fascinating report of his Korean mission which he has just completed. Here are a couple of paragraphs:

"After dinner, I held my mission preaching service . . . and it was extremely well attended . . . When I finished, a staff car awaited me to drive me back around the runway and over to the fighter bomber side of the base. There a fine congregation awaited me . . . Tonight, I preached to another full church. Religion was never like this any place in my experience. To see service after service in these various bases with all pews full must be a great joy to the Lord. I then rushed around the end of the runway again to the fighter bomber side. Once more the chapel was filled . . .

"These last two bases I am visiting are two of the three hottest combat bases in Korea. Therefore, we are up close to the lines. This one has not only the fighters but the bombers and the night interceptors and, therefore, the roar of the jets goes on 24 hours a day. One almost wants to keep a perpetual prayer going for these boys for at any given moment in the 24 hours, they are up there toward the Yalu. Yet, when you meet them and talk with them, they are boyish, humble, and almost shy."

A Prayer For Our Armed Forces

Heavenly Father, we commend to thy gracious care and keeping all the men and women in our Armed Forces. Defend them day by day with thy heavenly grace; strengthen them in their trials and temptations; give them courage to face the perils that beset them; and help them to know that none can pluck out of thy hand those who put their trust in thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ST. STEPHEN'S DAY (Saturday, December 26): (Holy Communion, 7:30; 12:15 (Noon).

THE MASTER IS COME AND CALLETH FOR THEE

Christmas is the day of The Christ, God of God, Lord of Lords, King of Kings, The Prince of Peace; But also it is the day of the extension of God's love to you—little, insignificant you. It is the day on which God in Jesus, Son of God, and son of man, comes to you and says, as God, you are my beloved child; and also says, as man, you are my brother. In God's sight, you have value. In My sight, you are not insignificant. You are meant to create the beautiful, the true, the good by using your life,—your body, your mind, and the tools this earth provides. You are to live meaningfully, fulfilling a destiny. You are all important to Me. And so Christmas, the celebration of God with man that man may be with God, is the everlasting promise that God stands ready to help you to be all that you can be in beauty, truth, and goodness. Open the door of your life to his indwelling power this Christmas. Accept His gift of Himself to you. Say, at last, This Christmas, “I will walk in His ways. Nothing shall separate me from the Love of God in Christ Jesus.”

“Whom wilt thou find to love ignoble thee Save Me, save only Me?”

Rise, clasp My hand, and come!”

Halts by me that footfall:
Is my gloom, after all,
Shade of His hand, outstretched caressingly?
“Ah, fondest, blindest, weakest,
I am He Whom thou seekest!
Thow dravest love from thee, who dravest Me.”

Church School Christmas Program This Sunday

This Sunday morning, in the Parish House, children of the Church School will bring their Advent offerings to the Christmas Manger and have their Christmas program. The Advent offering is for the benefit of St. Andrew's in the Fields, Somerton, and the Missionary District of Haiti.

New Church School material will be distributed and discussed by the teachers for the benefit of the children and their parents.

Trinity Club on Christmas Visits Sunday Afternoon

On this Sunday afternoon, members of Trinity Club will visit three institutions recommended by the Episcopal City Mission—a home for older people, a nursing home, a convalescent center. They will sing and present useful gifts in our Lord's name at each place.

The Midnight Service of Holy Communion

THURSDAY NIGHT AT 11:00 O'CLOCK

Tonight's service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing the "O Come, All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphal ending when the "Gloria in Excelsis," followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" and finally at the very end, "The Hallelujah Chorus," is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion, if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during this time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

Choral Prelude: Christmas Antiphon.....Hymnal, Chant 603
The Processional Hymn: 12....."O Come, All Ye Faithful"
The Introit: "Break Forth, O Beauteous Light".....Bach

Christmas Day

Holy Communion at 8 A.M.

Holy Communion at 11 A.M.

During the time of Communion, while all who wish to receive Holy Communion are coming to the Altar, the congregation is invited to sing carols with the choir.

While Shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
Fear not, said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind
Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind
To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.
Thus spake the seraph and forthwith,
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
All glory be to God on high
And on the earth be peace
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease.—Hymn 13

1. It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From Heav'n's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.
2. Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heav'nly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hov'ring wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.
3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;

1. All my heart this night rejoices
As I hear, far and near,
Sweetest angel voices.
"Christ is born," their choirs are singing,
Till the air everywhere
Now with joy is ringing.
2. Hark! a voice from yonder manger,
Soft and sweet, doth entreat:
"Flee from woe and danger!
Brethren, come! from all doth grieve you,
You are freed; all you need
I will surely give you."

3. Come, then, let us hasten yonder!
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder!
Love him who with love is yearning!
Hail the star that from far
Bright with hope is burning!—Hymn 32

1. Angels from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye, who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:
2. Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing;
Yonder shines the infant Light:
3. Saints before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His Temple shall appear.—Hymn 28

Refrain:

Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn King.

Also Hymns 43, 31

1954 Offering Envelopes Mailed

If you have not received your 1954 offering envelopes (which you requested on your pledge card), notify the parish office (LO 7-1267) immediately. Anyone desiring envelopes may have them by calling the parish office.

The Gift That Meant the Most

May the rector share with the parish family the Christmas gift that meant most to him. It was a letter, nothing more, but it said: "There are few to whom one says, Thank You. You saved my life. You gave me back my sanity. You gave me hope for eternal life thru making me see Christ. You told me there were two worlds thus giving me back my son who died in Christ. Thru believing this I've been able to strengthen the ties that bind by the help of The Holy Spirit so that our older son is studying for the Priesthood in a seminary, and we are a happy family. Where life was grim it is now fruitful. Patience is the watchword and the joys of this life are boundless."

This is what a pastoral ministry should mean. It should mediate that redeeming, saving power which brings new and joyful life to people through Christ. To know that his ministry has meant that is the great reward on this earth for every pastor.

The Christmas Decorations

The decorations at Christmas time within the Church of the Holy Trinity are as lovely as one could desire. They are made possible through the generous gift of Mrs. A. Wiese Hammer in memory of her father, Mr. Charles A. Daniel. We are indeed grateful to her.

Transfers to Holy Trinity

Letters of transfer to Holy Trinity have recently been received for the following: Miss Margaret S. Parry, 232 South 22nd Street, from the Church of the Holy Comforter, Drexel Hill; Miss Ann Bartram Gibson, 2208 Walnut Street, from Trinity Church, Swarthmore; Miss Nell Cramer, 225 St. Mark's Square, from the Church of the Saviour, and Joseph Trotman, 143 N. 15th Street, from St. Paul's, Greenville, N. C.

With great joy we welcome these people into the life of this parish fellowship.

Sunday Evenings at Holy Trinity

We have been looking at the Holy Trinity Sunday evening program for January. What a rich and helpful one it is! And how varied! Of course, Worship is central in it and Evening Prayer in the church at 7:30 is a major part of it. On January 10 and 17th, the music of the service is furnished by members of the Young Adult group. On January 24th, our own church choir sings; and, on January 31st, the Men and Boys' Choir of St. Peter's Church will sing. This is a major event. St. Peter's choir is without a peer anywhere.

This Sunday, at the Supper meeting at 6:30, a team from the Philadelphia Divinity School will discuss "The Ministry" as one of a series of Sunday evening talks on Vocations. At the same time, the station manager of WPVA at Chester will talk to the Young Married group on "Building a Record Library."

On January 17th, students in Philadelphia from Egypt, India, Iran, Pakistan, and Turkey will be present at the 6:30 Supper and speak briefly about their countries in relation to the present world scene.

The District Supervisor of the Federal Narcotics Bureau speaks at supper on the 24th. On the 31st, at supper, Guy S. Klett, authority on historic Philadelphia, talks (appropriately enough before the choir from St. Peter's sings) about this great city's past.

No small part of the Sunday night program is the coffee and discussion period upstairs in the Parish House which follows Evening Prayer. Anything can happen here. And it usually does. Anyone is welcome on Sunday nights. Students, Young Adults, Business people form the major portion of the group.

Woman's Auxiliary Meets Next Thursday

The Diocesan President, Mrs. Charles Myers, will speak at the next meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, this coming Thursday at 2:30 in the Parish House. The Auxiliary meets every second Thursday in the month. All women of the parish are invited to attend its meetings. You do not need a special invitation to become an Auxiliary member. Come to the meetings.

A Parish Planning Council

This past week, the Rector sent invitations to the Directors, Presidents and Vice-Presidents, or Vice-Presidents and Secretaries, of all the parish organizations inviting them to meet with him to discuss our having a parish planning council at Holy Trinity.

Some Recent Religious Books Worth Reading

Among the recent writings in the field of religion, here are some noteworthy current and new ones: "Man's Need and God's Action" by Reuel Howe (it will help you understand the place of the Church in your everyday life); "Making Man Whole" by J. B. Phillips (who also edited "Letters to Young Churches"); "Christ in the Haunted Wood" by W. Norman Pittenger (about Christian living in a disordered world); "The Optional God" by Stephen F. Bayne (which the rector is summarizing in his sermon today); "Uses of the Past" by Muller (who takes issue with Toynbee); "The Galilean Way" by Jeremy Ingalls (it will cause you to think).

Notes

THE CARILLON FUND has received almost four hundred dollars as the result of the sale of Christmas cards by Miss Virginia Ryan. It is another illustration of what one dedicated individual can do. The Tower Bells, by the way, are now actively in the process of rehabilitation. The work has been progressing very slowly but should be finished by the beginning of Lent.

CONFIRMATION, with Bishop Hart as the preacher, on Sunday, January 17th, 11 A. M.

THANKS to F. Mason Jones who was the soloist during the offertory at Evening Prayer Sunday night. His rare artistry is always an inspiration and his kindness in playing for us is always appreciated.

Reception to Honor Class Members at Coffee Hour

Members of the Confirmation Class will be received by members of the parish at the Coffee Hour after Church this Sunday morning. Bishop and Mrs. Hart will also attend.

The Bishop's Visitation

The Bishop's visit to the Church of the Holy Trinity today is his official visitation to the parish in accordance with Canon 43, Sec. 2 (a) of the Church which reads:

"Every Bishop shall visit the Congregations within his Diocese or Missionary District at least once in three years, for the purposes of examining their condition, inspecting the behavior of the Clergy, administering Confirmation, preaching the Word, and at his discretion celebrating the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. At every visitation it shall be the duty of the Bishop to examine the records required by Canon 45, Section 3." Canon 45, Section 3, refers to the Parish register containing the record of "all Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, Burials, and the names of all Communicants" within the Parish.

The Prayer Which Prefaces the Confirmation

Just before the act of Confirmation this Sunday morning the Bishop will say a prayer beginning with the words, "Almighty and Everliving God, who hast vouchsafed to regenerate these thy servants, etc." This prayer is one of the oldest in the prayer book. It was used in 378 when St. Ambrose confirmed Augustine of Hippo, later to become one of the great theologians. It was probably used as early as the second century. Thus, in this service this Sunday morning, with the presence of the Bishop, the living witness of the continuous life of the Church since our Lord and its unfailing witness to His gospel, and in the use of this ancient and apostolic ritual, we are carried back thru centuries of history only to realize again that the ancient Church is also contemporary and that, in it, the Christ of history is in our midst today.

Notes

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4:30 for its regular monthly meeting.

THE RECTOR has called a meeting for Monday evening, January 25th, to discuss having

Theological Education Sunday

For many years, an extra offering has been received on the Sunday nearest St. Paul's Day for the benefit of one or more of the Church's eleven seminaries scattered from coast to coast. The bulk of our offering at Holy Trinity has gone to the “Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania” which is the full name of Philadelphia's own seminary which is sometimes referred to only as “P. D. S.” There are now approximately a thousand students in all the seminaries with over one hundred students at “P. D. S.” From all the seminaries, there will be more than three hundred men graduated next June.

This Sunday, the loose offering in the alms basons together with the offering in the special envelopes will go to the work of the seminaries. This offering from the people of the Church in general each year is the margin between operations in the black and a deficit. Let's train our clergy well. This is everybody's chance to help.

The City Church

All over the country today, clergymen and laymen are meeting to discuss the City Church. In particular, they are discussing the Episcopal parish church which finds itself, sometimes suddenly, in an area where the population is almost entirely made up of workers in industry (the Levittowns); or the old parish church in an area of changing living standards where the trend is downward economically; or an area of changing racial backgrounds; or the parish like our own Holy Trinity ministering to the “City dweller” of fairly high economic standards, with a background of educational opportunity, who lives in an apartment, and whose community activity is not like that of his suburban friends;—a parish, too, which ministers to the young office worker, students in special fields such as music or medicine or other arts. In our great American cities, all these types of parishes exist and each one constitutes a special field.

Next Monday night, a group called together by the rector, will meet to discuss establishing a parish planning council here at Holy Trinity. Are we doing all we can to make Holy Trinity effective in its mission here in center city Philadelphia? Are we doing the right things in the best way? Is there an activity (such as Evangelism) which we ought to be furthering in a greater way? Such questions as these will concern this group. For the first meeting, the rector has asked certain of the officers of each of the parish groups to meet with him together with two people representative of the parish at large. Later on, it may seem best for each group to elect members to serve on a permanent planning council.

This Sunday Night

At the parish house supper at 6 this Sunday, “The Narcotic Drug Problem” will be presented by Joseph M. Bransky, district supervisor of the Bureau of Narcotics of the Treasury Department. All students, office workers, young adults are invited. Miss Nettie Mae Merritt will talk to the Young Marrieds about “A Singing Tour Through Europe.”

At the Evening Service, George Rockett, Violinist of The New School of Music, will play Mozart's “Sonatina in C Major” and “The Andante” from Handel's Sonata No. 9 at the time of the offertory.

Notes

ST. PETER'S CHURCH CHOIR sings here at Holy Trinity on Sunday night, January 31st, at the 7:30 evening service. This should be an event of just importance to Episcopalians generally.

ON SUNDAY MORNING, January 31st, from fifty to seventy younger members of Temple Rodolph Sholom, Broad and Mount Vernon Streets, will be guests at the eleven o'clock service. On February 14th, the rector will visit them at a ten o'clock service to talk about The Episcopal Church.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY CARD PARTY is on Friday evening, February 5th. See any member for tickets.

Notes

The Church of the Holy Trinity has been invited to send members to an "intensive weekend" on February 26-28 at the Strath Haven Inn, Swarthmore. The cost is $18.00 per person. Talk to the Rector for further information if you are interested.

The Rector's Bible Classes Resume Monday, February 8th, Tuesday, the 9th

This Sunday Evening, St. Peter's Choir

In my opinion, on the basis of no little experience, the choir of men and boys of St. Peter's Church in this city is as good as any in England and better than any in America. It is a devotional experience and a musical treat to hear the choir. As was evident at the service in observance of the Coronation last June, the remarkable acoustics of Holy Trinity serve only to enhance the choir's music. The choir will sing Choral Evensong and several anthems this Sunday evening at seven-thirty under the direction of Harold Wells Gilbert, the Choirmaster. It can be one of the most inspiring evenings you ever spent. I urge your attendance.—Harry Longley.

Francis J. Chesterman, New Vestry Member

At its meeting last Monday, the Vestry elected Francis J. Chesterman as a vestryman to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Daniel M. Layman who has transferred to a suburban parish.

The Vestry also took note that the total amount received from the members of the parish last year for the work of this parish in the world, the diocese, and this community was $39,173.06. This total is the more remarkable when compared with 1951 when it was $22,395.11 and 1952 when it was $30,197.16. Also, it was noted that $40,329.43 had been received in pledges for this year.

On the basis of this anticipated income, the rector was instructed to look for an additional clergyman for the parish staff whose interests would center in pastoral counselling and in the building of a "broadcast parish."

Special Visitors This Sunday Morning

Six pews on both sides of the center aisle will be set aside this Sunday morning for a group of young people from Rodeph Shalom Temple who are studying the various faiths of men. Later on, the Rector of Holy Trinity will visit them at their school session and talk about the service which they have witnessed. We welcome them to our service today.

Woman's Auxiliary Announces Luncheon on February 11th

On Thursday, February 11th, at one o'clock, there will be a luncheon meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to hear M. Moran Weston of the National Council, New York City. The Diocesan President of the Auxiliary tells us that he is one of the truly great speakers in the Church. All women are welcome at the luncheon (cost, $1.00). Save the date. Plan to attend.

Notice to Evening Auxiliary Members

Remember: Friday evening, February 5th, is the night of the card party and bake sale at the Parish House—your big night. Don't forget: 1) Homemade donations for bake sale table—Priscilla Kitchel in charge. Donations may be left at Parish House any time Friday, February 5th; 2) Gifts for surprise package baskets—Betty Pinchback in charge; 3) Take care of your tickets—number for door-prize drawing is on back.

Also, this Tuesday evening, supper at six, with the Rector and the Choir furnishing the program on "The History and Variety of Church Music." Reservations (by Saturday noon), phone LO 7-1267.

This is a major musical work and a rare opportunity to hear great religious music with June Goodman and Clara Szombat as soloists.

Rector's Bible Classes Resume This Monday, Tuesday

Among those who call themselves "Christians," there is unquestionably a vast ignorance about Christianity. The purpose of the Bible Classes is to dispel this ignorance and to cause the Christian life to be a vital experience.

If "just what Christianity is" is truly vague in your mind, then you ought to enroll in this coming class. If for you Christian living is merely twentieth century decency with a dash of the Golden Rule, then you need this coming class.

Resolve now to be no longer ignorant about Christianity.

The classes begin next Monday night in the Parish House at 7:45 P. M. and on Tuesday morning at 10:45 A. M. In them, for nine successive weeks, the Gospel according to St. John will be studied. The two classes each week are identical. Everyone is welcome.

Woman's Auxiliary Luncheon, Thursday the 11th

All women of the parish are invited to the Woman's Auxiliary luncheon at one o'clock (immediately after the service of Holy Communion at 12:15 in the church) on Thursday, February 11th. The luncheon is $1.00. The speaker is M. Moran Weston of the National Council in New York City. He is described as one of the most dynamic speakers in the Church today. Luncheon reservations should be made through the Parish Office (LO 7-1267).

Something to Think About

We need a small chapel for weekday services, small weddings and funerals, occasional prayer and devotional services. It might cost as much as fifty thousand dollars. It could be, of course, a majestic memorial. Through the years to come, it would mean much indeed to the devotional life of the parish. Well, anyway, it's a thought!

Parish Planning Council Formed

Eighteen members of the parish, representing the parish at large and its various groups, met with the rector a week ago and formed a parish planning council to do research in terms of the greatest usefulness of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

The Rector explained the possibilities of such a group and a discussion followed in which the fellowship of the parish, our hospitality to the stranger, the importance of ushering at church, reaching out into the neighborhood, and such matters were discussed.

One of the first actions of the Council was to accept an invitation to send six members of the parish to an "intensive week-end" at the Strath Haven Inn, Swarthmore, the last week in February. Mrs. Sue Easterbrook was the first delegate selected as the representative of the Council. Other groups were asked to send a member. Trinity Club has chosen Miss Alice Maes to represent them.

At the Council's next meeting, each parish group plans to state the primary purpose for which it exists, to ask what we together are doing "to" each other and "for" each other.

Three Holy Trinity Members Pass From This Life

The Burial service has been read recently for three members of Holy Trinity who have passed from our midst. Miss Gertrude Kennedy died on January 23rd, Mrs. Marie Casselberry on January 26th, and Miss Theresa Marker on January 31st. May they forever grow in love and service in Thy heavenly Kingdom.

Notes

DO YOU KNOW that over a thousand people attended the services at Holy Trinity last Sunday? The lower floor was completely full and the gallery had to be used at the evening service.

THE CARILLON rehabilitation has turned out to be a slow process. It is now hoped that the work may be completed by the beginning of Lent.

Some Wise Words

A society which believes in freedom will not imitate the coercive methods of dictatorships; but it will have an ultimate faith by which it lives, and will deliberately set itself to communicate this to the rising generation through all the agencies of education. There must be certain fundamental values which will be consciously encouraged in every possible way, while behaviour of a contrary kind, such as that characteristic of the dictatorships, will be discouraged and repressed.

A society that believes in freedom will consciously plan for freedom. Planning in such a society will not follow a military pattern or aim at standardization. It will apply to a developing society the foresight that is essential to give it unity and to keep conflicting and competing forces from disrupting it. But it will deliberately refrain from exercising control over important fields, leaving, for example, to religious and cultural activities freedom for creative development. Long range decisions will be taken by the central authority, for the democratic control of which constitutional guarantees will be provided; but as many matters as possible will be delegated to local and subsidiary authorities, thus providing for free initiative and experiment.—Oldham.

Intensive Week-End at Swarthmore

At the invitation of the Diocese, Holy Trinity is sending six members to take part in the Intensive Week-End at the Strath Haven Inn, Swarthmore, on February 26th to 28th. Already chosen by various groups are Mrs. Sue Easterbrook, Miss Alice Maes, Miss Ann O'Keefe, and Miss Betty Stewart. Two others will be chosen at an early date.

The Chief of Chaplains for the Allied Forces at the time of the Normandy Invasion and now Rector of the Anglican parish at Monte Carlo, Monaco, the Reverend Bruce G. Beale, will be the preacher at Holy Trinity this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

This Is Brotherhood Week

Every week is “something or other week.” Now and then, it seems worthwhile to call attention to what “week” it is. The period from February 21st to 28th is one of those times. It is a week dedicated to Brotherhood and is sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The purposes of Brotherhood Week are: 1) To give people an opportunity to re-dedicate themselves as individuals to the basic ideals of respect for people and human rights which are essential to our way of life; 2) To dramatize the practical things which people can do to promote an understanding and realization of these ideals; 3) To enlist the support of a larger number of people in year-round activities to build brotherhood.

Newly Formed Parish Council Meets This Week

On Wednesday evening, February 24th, the Parish Council will hold its second meeting. The Rector has asked each member to do some preliminary thinking about the parish group which he or she represents and to speak briefly on what seems to be its principal purpose and how it is furthering the Mission of the Church. Another matter which the Council will be asked to think about will be the “priority of needs in Holy Trinity.”

Members of the Council are: Emma McClintock, Jessie G. Williams, representing the Chancel Committee; Robert Elmore, Susanne Easterbrook, representing the Choir; Mrs. John P. Lutz, Mrs. George Eyre Smith, representing the Woman's Auxiliary; Francis E. Tansley, Marjorie E. Lyons, representing the Evening Auxiliary; Arthur J. Parkinson, Austin Ross, representing the Men's Club; Austin Ross, representing the Ushers; Alice Maes, representing Trinity Club; Martha Libis, Elizabeth Williams, representing the Church School; Mrs. J. F. Bowling, Edward S. Leyshon, representing the Parish at Large.

Lenten Noon-Day Preachers, An Impressive List

Including three Bishops, and two Deans, the Noon-Day preaching during Lent promises to be indeed helpful. The preacher on the first three days, Ash Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 3, 4, and 5 is the Reverend Harold J. Ockenga, one of the greatest preachers of the Gospel in our time, recently returned from preaching Missions in India and the Pacific. Following him is the Bishop of Indianapolis, the Right Reverend Richard A. Kirchhoffer; the Reverend Don Frank Fenn, Rector of the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, Baltimore; the Very Reverend Louis M. Hirshson, Dean Christ Church Cathedral, Hartford; the Right Reverend Leland W. F. Stark, Bishop Coadjutor, Diocese of Newark; the Very Reverend John B. Coburn, Dean Trinity Cathedral, Diocese of Newark; and the Right Reverend J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop Coadjutor, Diocese of Delaware.

Notes

This Friday night, (February 19th), Trinity Club invites all Young Adults to a “Washington Frolic” in the Parish House at 8 P.M. (Donations, 50c). There will be Games, Dancing, Refreshments and you are invited.

Sunday night at 8 o'clock, the Rector preaches at Christ Church and St. Michael's, Germantown.

Ash Wednesday, Next Wednesday

Ash Wednesday's purpose is to cause us, in relationship with God, to express our deep need of Lenten revival. It is a day of humility, of penitence, of selflessness. It is the gateway to Lent when we express before God our need of Lent and make a resolution at God's Altar to use Lent for the welfare of our souls. Ash Wednesday is the day on which humble people stand with bowed heads before God with the door of their soul's house open to His entering.

Ash Wednesday Services

7:30 A. M., The Holy Communion; 12:25 to 12:55, Noon-Day Preaching.
5:30, Evening Prayer Penitential Office; 7:30 Holy Communion and Meditation

Noon-Day Preaching, Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday

The Reverend Harold J. Ockenga, of the Park Street Church, Boston, is the first of the Noon-Day preachers. Literally sought for all over the world, recently returned from India, he is one of the great "Bible Preachers" of our time. His coming to Holy Trinity is a rare opportunity for us to listen to a great man.

Evening Auxiliary Meets This Tuesday Night

Beginning with supper at six, the Evening Auxiliary has an unusually interesting program arranged for next Tuesday night, March 2nd. The speaker is Professor Robert E. Keighton whose topic is "Serendipity."

Friday Is the World Day of Prayer

It has long been the custom to observe the first Friday of Lent as a world-wide day of prayer for the world and its people. In the Central City Area the noon-day service will be held in the First Baptist Church, 17th and Sansom Streets, from 12:00 noon to 2:00 P. M.
At this service the main speaker will be the Reverend Howard Moody Morgan, Pastor of the Chambers Wylie Presbyterian Church.

NEW VESTRYMAN ELECTED

Admiral James L. Kauffman was elected to the Vestry at a recent meeting to succeed Kenneth Alcutt Syfrit who has moved to Chicago.

The Vestry found it necessary to appropriate several hundred dollars to repair the outside south wall of the church building from which pieces of cornice are dropping.

Notes

THE LENTEN PROGRAM will be mailed to the parish at the end of this week. In addition to the Noon-Day and Sunday services, there will be Evening Prayer at 5:30 every day, Monday through Friday beginning on Ash Wednesday. The regular Thursday service of Holy Communion will be at 11:30 instead of 12:15. There will be an additional service of Holy Communion on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 to be followed by Meditations based on Bible readings.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES welcome all people on Mondays at 7:45 and Tuesdays at 10:45.

THIS SUNDAY AFTERNOON at 4:00 o'clock, The Youth of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will hold its Annual All Youth Service at the Church of the Holy Trinity with the Reverend James R. MacColl, III, Rector, St. Thomas' Church, Whitmarsh.

EIGHT MEMBERS OF THE PARISH are attending an Intensive Week-End at the Strath-Haven Inn, Swarthmore, this week-end.

RECENT TRANSFERS TO HOLY TRINITY include: James Holmes Mearns III, of 4912 Chestnut Street, from St. Stephen's, Philadelphia; Miss Mary Glenn Sharpe of 1822
Pine Street, from the Church of the Holy Sacrament, Drexel Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel
D. Hawley of 555 East Hermit Lane, Chestnut Hill, from St. Mary's Church, Burlington, New Jersey.

Lent Means Revival—Use It.

Lent is opportunity to be used. The word is an old English one and means “Spring.” It connotes the return of life, the revival of things dead through the long winter. In the Church, it is a season of revivifying the Christian life thru more than usual worship and devotion, more than usual listening to the word of the Gospel, more than usual concern for the Christian life. It can be a time of great discovery for you.

Lenten Worship and Study Opportunities

EVERY DAY: Noon Day Service, 12:25 to 12:55.
Evening Prayer, 5:30.

HOLY COMMUNION: Wednesdays at 7:30 P. M., Thursdays at 11:30 A. M.

STUDY: The Rector's Bible Class, Mondays, 7:45 P. M., Tuesdays, 10:45 A. M.
The Associate Rector's Meditations, Wednesdays after the 7:30 Service.

Indiana Bishop, This Week's Noon-Day Preacher

The Right Reverend Richard A. Kirchhoffer preaches at Holy Trinity every day this coming week from 12:25 to 12:55 at noon. Many will remember Bishop Kirchhoffer's having been in this Diocese several years ago assisting with Confirmation.

Strath Haven Team At Sunday Night Supper

The eight people from the Church of the Holy Trinity who attended the “intensive week-end” at Swarthmore last week will tell of their experience at Trinity Club this Sunday night after supper at 6:00 o'clock. All are welcome to hear this report. Those who went to Swarthmore were: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Mearns, III, Mrs. Susanne Easterbrook, Miss Alice Maes, Miss Betty Rahn Stewart, and Miss Ann O'Keeffe.

Women's Auxiliary Meets Next Thursday

The Women's Auxiliary meets at 2:30 on Thursday, March 14th with a representative of the New Jersey Employment Service who will speak on “The Problems of Spanish-speaking Immigrants.”

A Brief Editorial

Your Rector has been looking for a suitable third clergyman to add to our staff to take over the work involved in what might be called “social service problems,” to concern himself also with the “broadcast parish,” and to do survey work in the immediate area—large responsibilities which are not now being met adequately. It began to seem that it would take a considerable length of time to find the right man. Suddenly, an experienced man, with a social work background, ideally suited to this work, has become available, but (what a way these “buts” have of getting in between “wants” and “results”) he is unmarried, has a daughter in college, and could hardly come to us at less than a total cost of five thousand dollars. Your vestry is not certain that we can afford a man at that cost and has suggested that this word be given to the parish for suggestions. It is slightly more than a thousand dollars over expected income. The Rector and the Vestry will be glad to hear what the parish has to say.—H. L.

Men's Club Planning Hobby Show After Easter

Don Frank Fenn, 12:25 Each Day

Beyond any doubt, The Reverend Don Frank Fenn, this week's Noon-Day Preacher, is one of the ablest preachers and pastors in the Church today. His week with us will be a tremendous experience for all who hear him day by day. He has been rector of St.
Michael and All Angels Parish, Baltimore, for the past twenty-three years. Today, in many ways, he is "Mr. Baltimore" by reason of his community activities there. In the Church, he has been a leader—was Vice President of the National Council at one time and has been eight times a deputy to General Convention. He will preach at 12:25 each day this coming week. The service ends promptly at 12:55.

Other Services During Lent

EVERY DAY: Evening Prayer at 5:30.

HOLY COMMUNION: Wednesday Evenings at 7:30; Thursdays at 11:30 A. M.

The Rector's Bible Classes are on Monday Evenings at 7:45, Tuesday mornings at 10:45.
On Wednesday evening, after the service of Holy Communion, there is a Bible-based period of Meditation led by the Associate Rector and is especially for those who cannot come at any other time. Perhaps it is a special opportunity for you.

Whither Mankind?

There appear various possibilities ahead in the eons of time for mankind. Through advances in nuclear studies men may learn enough to be able to cause the earth to explode. Or through advances in technology men will continue to increase the destructiveness of their weapons until eventually in war they will either destroy all individuals utterly or leave only a miserable remnant with minds so shattered by horror they can hardly eke out a brutish existence.

Or through advances in culture by arts as well as science men may acquire an ease and leisure of living that will lead to flabbiness in body and character and progressively to the degeneration of the race and at last its extinction.

Or men may believe that life in Christ is to be had. They may search and find it. And so they may become creators of beauty, discoverers of truth, doers of good after the manner of their Lord and by the power of His spirit. Instead of being adamantly pessimistic, resigned to evil's triumph, they may choose, by God's grace to conquer evil, to build the dominion of God, to live to make the realms of this world the place of God's dwelling and man's redemption—the places of love and joy and peace.

Are you convinced enough and strong enough to take your stand on the Lord's side?
Let Lent Help you to know Him and to love Him.

Francis B. Sayre Writes From Japan

"The picture of Japan which I take home is one of matchless opportunity for the cause of Christianity. A Christian Japan could turn the tide of history in Asia. In many ways Japan today is one of the most strategic and critical spots in the world. During the past year which I have been spending in Japan I have felt sometimes as if I were standing on a mighty battle ground, watching God making history through His soldiers and saints. The outcome is something none of us yet can know or comprehend. But Japan is still the land of the rising sun; the things we are beginning to witness here are to me revelations of God's purpose in this part of Asia."

The Episcopal Church has ten dioceses in Japan, operates St. Luke's Hospital which is one of the finest in the Far East, has many schools, one of them being St. Paul's University in Tokyo with 4700 students. Our Missionary giving helps to move the Church forward in Japan.

Dean Hirshon, Noon-day Preacher

The Very Reverend Louis M. Hirshon, a graduate of Harvard and of Bexley Theological School, Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Hartford, since 1946, is this coming week's noon-day preacher. Before going to Hartford, Dean Hirshon was rector of St. Stephen's, Sewickley, Pennsylvania.

Woman's Auxiliary Corporate Communion, Thursday at Christ Church

At 8 A. M., next Thursday morning at Christ Church, 2nd Street above Market, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese will have its annual Corporate Communion. The Speaker at the breakfast following the service is Dean Philip McNairy of St. Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo. Reservations for the breakfast ($1.00) may be made through Mrs. Wood at the Woman's Auxiliary Office (LO 7-6650), not later than Monday, March 22nd.

Have you adopted an honest and good Lenten Rule?

Will you receive Communion more frequently remembering the week-day opportunities?

Will you as an added devotion receive Communion at 8 o'clock on Sundays during Lent?

Will you consider seriously the opportunity provided in daily Evening Prayer?

Will you pray more fervently at home, more faithfully?

Will you deny yourself? (As John Wesley said: "The man who never fasts is no more on the road to Heaven than the man who never prays.")

Will you do some serious religious reading?

The Associate Rector's Meditations, Wednesdays after the 7:30 Service.

Former Washington Rector, This Week's Preacher

The Right Reverend Leland W. F. Stark, formerly Rector of The Epiphany, Washington D. C., and now Coadjutor Bishop of the Diocese of Newark is the preacher on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this coming week at the Noon-Day Service. On Thursday and Friday, the preacher will be the Dean of the Newark Cathedral, the Very Reverend John B. Coburn, war-time Naval Chaplain, former Rector of the Amherst College Chapel.

Regarding an Additional Clergyman

In reply to the Rector's asking for expressions of opinion regarding the securing of a third clergyman for the parochial staff, there was a worthwhile response, very helpful to the Vestry, revealing both interest and enthusiasm for the plan and also interest but hesitancy about the wisdom of it. In regard to this latter concern, there has probably been some misunderstanding on two counts. For one thing, some have thought that the only duties such a man would have would be to serve as a social service case worker. However, that would be only a fraction of his work and would include not merely what might be called possibly "relief of the poor" but work with the mentally ill, the socially dislocated, the troubled transient, family counselling matters, and such problems. However, a third man would also be concerned with our radio parish which, beyond a doubt, could become a vital part of our ministry far beyond what it is now possible for it to be without "working it." We are in direct contact with some seven hundred families from whom we have had letters and where members look to us in many ways as "their church." We believe that there are fascinating possibilities here. Also, there is a third field of work—survey calling in the center city where it is known that there are many unchurched whom the Church needs to help. The third clergyman would be a very busy man and would be meeting an opportunity for service in our Lord's name with which we are face to face in a downtown urban area which has been called "the newest mission field."

The second possible misunderstanding had to do with financing such a man. In this regard, after study of the need and resources, your Vestry felt justified in saying that because of the response of people in the canvass last Fall and help for the Radio from Miss Kitchen's bequest we are able to proceed.

So, after a most wholesome discussion and a thorough canvass of the situation, the Vestry voted unanimously at its last meeting to instruct the rector to secure such a man.

The sad ending to this story is that the Rector had high hopes that an ideal man was immediately available. However, he declined the call. And immediate prospects are not bright. However, every effort will be made, consistent with finding the right person, to secure someone as soon as possible.

Coming Events

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING DATE will be Monday evening, April 26th. Save the date now and attend your parish meeting, vote for Vestrymen, and hear reports of the parish at work.

A STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL is being planned for Tuesday, June 8th. The Men's Club will sponsor it and it will be a "good old fashioned time." Mark your calendars.

"THE VIGIL," a dramatic presentation of the trial of our Lord is being given at Christ Church and St. Michael's, Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets, on the evenings of March 26, 27, and 31st at 8 P. M.

Note: The Holy Communion at 11 o'clock this month will be on Easter, April 18th rather than on this first Sunday as is our usual program.

Advance Notice

ANNUAL PARISH PARTY plans are in the making. Sponsored by the young adult- of Trinity Club, for all parishioners of all ages, this post-Easter party made a big hit last year, promising an equally delightful time this year, for all, Friday evening, April 30.

Passiontide—The Final Two Weeks of Lent

On page 132 of the Book of Common Prayer, we find that the last two weeks of Lent are called "Passiontide" in particular remembrance of our Lord's travail and anguish as He approached Calvary. May we use these days to find new and nobler heights of personal living for ourselves. So take deliberate steps to bring yourself to Easter at your noblest point. Seek the grace, the help, of God in prayer and sacrament, and by new knowledge of His Word. Jesus lived and, let us remember, died that we might have life and have it abundantly. He came down from heaven for us and for our salvation. Surely, we cannot be indifferent when we see His great love.

Evening Auxiliary Meets This Tuesday, April 6th

The Evening Auxiliary, composed chiefly of Business and Professional women and also those who can attend at no other time, meets monthly for Christian fellowship and to plan and work for the welfare of the parish and the Church at large in our Lord's name. Its next meeting is this Tuesday evening for supper at 6:15 in the Parish House. ($1.25 a plate).

Of special interest will be Mrs. Roland Whitehurst's pictures and talk about the great National Cathedral in Washington.

You are invited to attend the Evening Auxiliary.

Woman's Auxiliary-Guild Meets Thursday, the 8th

Mrs. Welsh Strawbridge will conduct a Lenten Meditation for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild at the April meeting, next Thursday, April 8th, in the Parish House at 2:30 P. M. All women of the parish are invited to attend.

The annual meeting of The Woman's Auxiliary is on Thursday, May 13th, with a luncheon at 1 o'clock. Reports from the Parish, Diocese, Community, and World will be heard and there will be the election of officers.

New Delaware Bishop Coadjutor, Noon-Day Preacher

The Right Reverend J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop Coadjutor of Delaware, is the Holy Trinity preacher each day at 12:25 this coming week. Bishop Mosley is a native of Philadelphia and was formerly Dean of the Cathedral Church of St. John in Wilmington.

Here Are some Samples of Radio Listeners' Letters

Each week the parish office receives many letters from listeners to Holy Trinity's every Sunday broadcasts. The following quotations are typical ones.

"Your sermon last Sunday was very fine and an inspiration to Mother, her nurse, and me. The radio broadcast this winter have meant everything to her, confined as she is most of the time."

Another writes, "A most interesting conversation followed your discourse of last Sunday on the subject of the 'natural man' as compared with the 'spiritual man,' with a guest in our house who thought you had hit upon a very original and interesting comparison. I showed him that St. Paul had used this expression, and he was surprised that he had not known of its use by the Apostle, or heretofore. This led to quite a talk in which I think our guest, a brilliant engineer and member of the Atomic Energy Commission, received a clear picture of the need of everyone to be "born" anew, into the spiritual kingdom of God."

Under date of March 19th, a letter from Devon says "A very dear friend of my sister and mine died early this week. The last time we saw her she told us of the wonderful help and inspiration she received from the broadcast of your Sunday morning sermons and she requested that, instead of a floral remembrance when she died, we send you the money for your very good work."

Nominations for Vestrymen—Annual Meeting, April 26th.

The annual meeting of the corporation known as The Church of the Holy Trinity is called in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation for Easter Monday, April 19, 1954.
However, as is permitted, this meeting will be adjourned and the adjourned meeting will be held on Monday, April 26th, at 8 P. M. So April 26th is the actual date of the meeting.

Nominations for Vestrymen to be elected at the meeting of April 26th may be made by members of the parish in accordance with Article 2, Section 1 of the by-laws which reads as follows: "Nominations may be made in writing by any three persons entitled to vote at the election provided all written nominations are delivered to the Secretary of the Vestry at least fifteen days prior to Easter Monday" (or fifteen days prior to the adjourned meeting).
Therefore, if any desire to make nominations, the nominations must be signed by three persons and mailed to "The Secretary of the Vestry" at 1904 Walnut Street so that they will be mailed not later than this Sunday, April 11th.

During the past week, the rector read the Burial Service for five former members of our parish fellowship: Edward Lincoln Gilchrist, William Hoffman, Ellen Morris, Charles Nicholas Pappas, and Dorothy Clayton Warhurst. Miss Ellen Morris was a life-long member of Holy Trinity, Dorothy Warhurst was devotional chairman of the Evening Auxiliary. May they forever grow in love and service in Thy heavenly kingdom.

can prove to be the most valuable period during the service if rightly used.

7:30 P.M.—Evening Service

“The Climax of Easter,” arranged by the Associate Rector.

At this service, the choir will sing the Easter music of Haydn, Handel, Brahms, and Stainer.

The Easter Offering

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our missionary and parochial budget needs. The generosity of its people is enabling this great old church to carry forward an effective ministry in center city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity in thanksgiving to God for His blessings to us to add extra strength to our work.

Young Adult Program As Usual This Sunday Evening

The Young Adult, Young Married, Student Program begins with supper at six o'clock Sunday evening in the parish house with an International Night program on the subject of the Far East, with speakers from Japan and China.

After the seven thirty service, the various interest groups, choral, dramatic, and discussion groups, will meet in the Parish House.

Important Parish Events After Easter

The Parish Meeting—Monday, the 26th

Every active parishioner should plan to be present at The Annual Parish Meeting which will be held this year at eight o'clock on Monday evening, April 26th. Reports of all the parish organizations will be heard (more briefly than last year!) and vestrymen will be elected. Plan now to come.

All Parish Party—Friday, April 30th

An evening of games and good fellowship for members of Holy Trinity from nine months to ninety years old (which takes in almost everybody) is planned for the evening of April 30th. The All Parish Party is being sponsored and conducted by Trinity Club,—the Sunday Evening Young Adult group. Announcements say that there will be Square and Round Dancing, Bridge, Entertainment for Children, Canasta, Group Singing, and Refreshments. Come and enjoy the evening with fellow members of your parish.

Join in Hobby Night, May the Fifth

Be an exhibitor on Hobby Night at the Parish House, Wednesday, May 5th. This evening, sponsored by the Men's Club, is for all men and women hobbyists and there will be prizes for the best exhibitions—beautiful cups donated by a Men's Club member. Spruce up your collection, polish up your coins, refurbish your stamps, bring your paintings, arrange your photographs, gather together your collection of Pennsylvania Dutch. Get ready and watch for further announcement next week. But put the date down now—Wednesday Evening, May 5th.

Builders For Christ—Opportunity

On Sunday, May second, the people of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to do their share in helping The Episcopal Church as a whole to erect urgently needed buildings in mission centers overseas, at home, and on the campuses of Theological Seminaries to meet adequately great present opportunities.

Although there is a shortage of clergy, our seminaries have turned away men because facilities for housing and teaching are lacking. Two million dollars is the need to bring Seminary facilities to the place of meeting the present opportunity.

Three currently strategic Mission centers need help: Japan needs $625,000; The Philippines, $100,000; Puerto Rico, $200,000.

In the United States, $500,000 is needed for our six Negro colleges.

Next week, each member of the parish will receive a letter from the two Wardens.
Please read it carefully and then be ready on May second to share that your Church may not miss the chance to move forward in doing good.

The Parish Meeting, This Monday, April 26th, 8 P. M.

Monday evening at eight o'clock in the Parish House is the time and place for the Annual Meeting of the Church of the Holy Trinity. There will be voting for three Vestrymen to fill the places of those whose terms expire this year. Reports of all the organizations of the parish will be heard. Come on Monday night and learn about the many things that are happening in your church. Remember—This is your parish.

As noted below, some who have recently become members of Holy Trinity will not be able as yet to vote not having been parish residents for three years; but come anyway to the meeting for the reports will be of interest to all.

Who Are Eligible to Vote

Article Ten, Section One of the Charter of the Parish reads as follows: "The members of the Corporation who shall be qualified to vote at any election for Vestrymen and upon all questions which may come before any meeting of the Corporation, shall be all lay, confirmed members of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of the age of at least twenty-one years who shall have been worshippers in this Church as their usual place of public worship for at least three years and who shall appear by the books of the Corporation to have been contributors of record during each of three successive years, immediately preceding such election or meeting or shall be members as shall appear by the Vestry books to have paid two successive years immediately preceding the time of such election, for a pew or sitting in the said Church."

Come to the Parish Party, Friday Night, the 30th

The All Parish Party is to be on Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Parish House. It is for everybody of every age. There will be fun for all—Bridge and Canasta (bring your own cards), Round and Square Dancing, Group Singing. Opportunity will be given to help with the expenses but the party is not for profit of any sort. It's to help us all to get better acquainted with each other. Come—whoever you are!

SET YOUR CLOCK AHEAD ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

THIS IS THE FINAL SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE UNTIL OCTOBER

The United Thank Offering of the Women

The United Thank Offering is not "another offering." It is not intended that women of the Church should give to it in a lump sum as to some fund; but rather that, constantly, from day to day, as they have occasions for thanksgiving, they should be setting aside a coin with a prayer of thankfulness. Boxes or banks are available for this purpose. That is why the semi-annual presentation of the offering is called an "ingathering."

Today, women of the congregation will receive the offering at the time of the offertory and present it at the altar. This offering in turn will be presented at a Diocesan service at the Church of the Holy Apostles and the Mediator on Monday, May 24th. At the last General Convention, the United Thank Offering of the Women of the Church amounted to more than two million dollars. It is used for Missionary purposes.

Marjorie Layman, New Evening Auxiliary President

The Evening Auxiliary has chosen Miss Marjorie Layman as its President for the next two years. Other officers hold over and the new President will make committee appointments. The Evening Auxiliary now numbers over ninety active members. At its last meeting, four members of the Strath Haven intensive week-end team gave reports.

Hobby Show Attracts Many Exhibits

The Men's Club hobby show had thirty-one exhibitors with everything from model trains to Lincoln pennies on display. Mrs. Dorothy Hutton, wife of the Inquirer cartoonist and a well known Philadelphia artist in her own right, judged the exhibits and first prize went to Miss Miriam Cone for her hand wrought jewelry display. Kenneth Baird was second with his "men of science" stamp collection, one of his many collections. Third prize went to the Rector for his old books and newspapers. Cups, given by F. Rudolph Goehring, were awarded the winners.

Church School to Have Choir at Diocesan Service

For the first time in many years, the Church of the Holy Trinity will have a children's vested choir at the service for the annual presentation of the Lenten Mite Box Offering held each year at the Episcopal Academy grounds on City Line Avenue. Eighteen choir members will represent Holy Trinity together with a crucifer carrying the choir's new processional cross, and also with a Holy Trinity Banner and flags.

The service begins at 3:30 and the public is invited. Come and see your choir.

Notes

THE BUILDERS FOR CHRIST offering from Holy Trinity is now more than seven thousand dollars. Contributions may still be received.

YOU WILL BE WELCOME at the Episcopal City Mission Tea this Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at 225 South 3rd Street.

HAVE YOU SEEN Miss Virginia Ryan's doll collection? Her dolls are for sale—the money going to the Carillon Fund. Want one? Call her at RI 6-7622.

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4:30.

Durham University Theologian to Preach in July

On Sunday, July 25th, the Reverend Stanley L. Greenslade, head of the Department of Theology of Durham University, England, and canon of Durham Cathedral, will be the preacher at Holy Trinity. Canon Greenslade is a delegate to the World Council of Churches' meeting in Evanston in August.

A Prayer for Whitsunday

O God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit, Trinity of love, good beyond all good, fair beyond all that is fair, in whom is calmness and peace; Make up, we beseech thee, the dissensions which divide us from each other, and bring us back into that unity of love which is the likeness of thy sublime nature; that bound together in the Spirit, we may know that peace which maketh all things one; to thy honor and glory, world without end Amen.

Parish Council to Study Philadelphia Situation

During the coming summer, the Parish Council with Mrs. John P. Lutz as special chairman, is going to study Holy Trinity in relation to what might be called “the Philadelphia situation.” This survey came out of a question by the rector in relation to other cities. In Boston, Trinity Church, which seats well over a thousand people, is packed to the rafters every Sunday morning and has large Sunday evening congregations. In New York, St. Bartholomew's, which seats more than Holy Trinity, has standing room only on Sunday mornings. In Washington, The Church of the Epiphany is always filled on Sunday. Why is it that no downtown Philadelphia church has such congregations on Sunday?—no Episcopal church, that is? The Parish Council has decided to study this question as a lay body—without benefit of clergy. At the September meeting, a report will be made. Mrs. Lutz, as chairman, will be glad to receive suggestions.

The Strawberry Festival, This Tuesday

Due to unexpected electrical expenses, the Carillon Fund is still in need of money. The Strawberry Festival this coming Tuesday night, June 8th, at eight o'clock, will help add to the Fund. Come to the Festival, enjoy Mr. Bancroft's remarkable pictures taken in England and Europe last summer, eat your fill of ice cream and strawberries, and enjoy the fellowship of other Holy Trinitarians for the evening. Have you anything better to do next Tuesday evening? What could be better than this for a summer night?

Going Away? Pay Pledge in Advance

Two or three of our families have already left Philadelphia for the summer. We know that to be true because last Sunday all of them sent in their pledge paid up into September. The Church must pay salaries and maintain itself throughout the summer months. Pay your pledge in advance, if going away, and help keep your church's credit good.

Summer Preaching

The Rector preaches today and on the next two Sundays. The Associate Rector will be the preacher on the last Sunday in June when the rector will be preaching to Boy Scout summer camp leaders at Treasure Island. In July, the Rector will preach on the first three Sundays, using the first Epistle of St. Peter as the text for the three sermons. On the last Sunday in July, the preacher will be The Reverend S. L. Greenslade, head of the Department of Divinity of Durham University and Canon of Durham Cathedral. He will attend the Anglican Congress in Minneapolis in August.

The Associate Rector will be the preacher during August.

This Is “Shut-In's Day

The Shut-In's Day Association of the United States of America is a nation-wide group to encourage remembrance of the sick and disabled civilian and war veteran by the public on Shut-In's Day and throughout the year. You are asked to visit shut-ins today, take someone for a ride in your car, take a gift to the bedridden.

Notes

THE RECTOR of Holy Trinity has been appointed by Bishop Hart to be the Priest delegate from the Diocese of Pennsylvania to the Anglican Congress which will meet in Minneapolis from August 4th to the 13th. Every Diocese in the Anglican Communion around the world will be represented by its Bishop, one Priest, and one Layman. The Rector plans to attend.

Please Let The Clergy Know

During the past two weeks, your ministers at Holy Trinity have discovered, quite by accident, the severe illness of three members of our parish fellowship. We could wish that you would let us know when this-world trouble of any kind comes to you, so that we may have you in our prayers and visit you in the name of God and of His Church. We would weep with you when you weep and rejoice with you when you rejoice. In short, we want to be true pastors. We want you to feel that we are the friend of you all.

Let us all remember that our parish is not a club, but a closely knit fellowship in Christ where love abounds each for the other. Each one of you is the particular concern of the ministers. Please keep in touch with us so that we may be of all possible help to you. Neither of your ministers is ever too busy to answer your urgent call.

A Word of Thanks to Miss Steward

As noted at the bottom of the page, this is the last issue of the Bulletin to be mailed until September. As we come to this last mailing of the 1953-54 season, we want to say a very special word of thanks to Miss Mae Steward, who, on every Wednesday afternoon, all year, has assisted the parish secretary with the mailing. In fact, she has helped out often in many other ways, too. Thank you so much.

Important Notes and News

THE CARILLON work should be completed soon. The final contract for the electrical work has been awarded and when this work is done, the job should be completed. We are grateful to Mrs. Florence Eareckson for a recent gift of two hundred dollars toward the Carillon Fund in memory of her sister, Mabel Emma Murray.

TRINITY CLUB members will meet for a Corporate Communion on this Sunday morning at 8 o'clock and will have breakfast together afterward in the Parish House.

THIS COMING MONDAY is St. Barnabas' Day. Due to a clergy conference called by the Bishop, there will be only one service of Holy Communion—at 7:30 A. M.

ON JUNE 19 AND 20, the Trinity Club young adults will spend the week-end at Holiday House, leaving here at 9:15 on Saturday morning, June 19. The Associate Rector will accompany the group as Chaplain.

A THANK YOU to many of you who brought your offering envelopes up to date last week or paid in advance, pending being away on vacation.

Monday Is Flag Day

On Flag Day, be thankful that, under the Stars and Stripes, you can worship as your conscience dictates, in the church of your choice; you can demand and receive a fair trial, by a jury of your fellow citizens, and are considered innocent until proven guilty; your newspaper can print ALL the news—even criticism of the party in power; you can vote for or against the party in power, according to your convictions; and many other rights are yours, such as education in the school of your choosing and travel where you please. Be thankful. Be responsible as a citizen.

The Apostles' Creed

At this time, the Church Wardens shall meet the Rector at the Chancel steps and the Rector's Warden shall say:

Reverend Rector, we request you to dedicate the Bells in the tower, now rendered playable again, that they may resound to the glory of God and the use of this Church.

The Rector, facing the bell tower, shall then dedicate the restored bells.

Almighty God, we beseech thee to accept this offering at our hands; Bless, sanctify and hallow these Bells, and grant that they may call together thy faithful people to praise and worship thy holy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IN THE FAITH OF JESUS CHRIST, WE NOW BLESS, SANCTIFY AND HALLOW, AND FOREVER SET APART FROM ALL PROFANE AND COMMON USE THESE BELLS. IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY GHOST. AMEN.

Then all the Bells shall be rung round, after which the Rector shall lead the congregation in prayer.

Immediately after the service, the Carillon will be played by the Bell-Master of Princeton University, Arthur Lynds Bigelow, who supervised the restoration of the Carillon, this being the first installation of motor-strikers in America for the playing of a carillon.

Notes on the Restoration of the Carillon

The bells in the tower of our Church were given by Joseph E. Temple in memory of his wife, Martha Anna Kirtley, born in England, May 11, 1821, who died in Philadelphia, December 7, 1864. They were cast by Severin Van Aerschodt, of Louvain, Belgium, in 1882. The carillon was first played at the General Convention, which was assembled at the Church, October 3, 1883.

In 1952, it was found that rehangng was necessary and that the striking mechanism needed rehabilitation. It was recommended that it be made possible to play the bells by electricity. It was found that the total cost of the project would be more than six thousand dollars. The Men's Club undertook this restoration and dedicated its effort to the memory of Floyd W. Tomkins, onetime rector of this church. A committee was appointed, with Mr. C. C. Morris as chairman and Mr. Frank Kneas and Mr. Charles Bancroft as advisors.

Individuals in the parish went to work to raise the money. The Men's Club, with the aid of Joseph Gazzam, sponsored a series of bridge lessons. Miss Virginia Ryan, at her own expense, had attractive cards made bearing an etching of the church and sold them. She also sponsored the sale of very attractively dressed dolls and, last spring, held a strawberry festival. She, alone, is responsible for the raising of nearly a thousand dollars. In a letter from her, she says, "Don't say anything about me. Many, many people of the congregation have helped me and they deserve all the credit." The Young Adult group sponsored a concert by Arthur Lynds Bigelow, the supervisor of the restoration, and gave the proceeds to the fund. Over a thousand dollars was made available from a fund, long carried by the church, known as "The Floyd W. Tomkins Memorial Fund." A group in Tremont, Pennsylvania, representing the Tremont Hardware Company, sent in a contribution. Many individuals in the parish sent in personal contributions ranging from a dollar to a thousand dollars. Close to eight hundred dollars is still needed, but the Men's Club feels sure that this will come in one way or another.

So, once more, we have "our bells" in playable condition and our hearts are full of gratitude to all who have helped so splendidly.

Trinity Club (Young Adults) Begins Meetings Tonight

This Sunday night at six o'clock in the Parish House, Trinity Club, for all young adults, students, young marrieds, begins its meetings for the year 1954-1955, with Edward G. Harris, Chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania, as the first special speaker. Students of the Philadelphia Divinity School and the "Y" College Club will be special guests.

The service at 7:30 in the church will be Choral Evensong, sung by the choir of Holy Trinity. During the service, there will be a talk on "Church Music, Gregorian and Romanesque."

Trinity Club has a magnificent program planned for the year. A complete preview in pamphlet form can be obtained by writing or calling the church office, 1904 Walnut Street, Phone LO 7-1267.

Note: Immediately below this note, you will find this week's young adult program, which is carried on under the direction of the Associate Rector. Last week, eighty-three young adults were present at the Trinity Club supper. Almost two hundred people attended the evening service. At supper they heard a talk by the chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania and at the evening service a talk by our choir director, Robert Elmore, on early church music. Both talks were among the finest I have ever heard. Any person who participates in the young adult program as planned here at Holy Trinity for the year 1954-55 will not only find worship opportunities and good fellowship, but will come to the end of the year with a liberal education to his credit. I know of no more significant program available anywhere.

Sermon Series to Begin This Sunday

With the general theme being "What does it mean to be a Christian today?", the Rector will begin a series of four sermons this Sunday. This week's title is: "Is There Hope for a Frustrated, Frightened, Frantic World?" October 3, "Dedicated as Christians"; October 10, "Dedicated as Protestants"; October 17, "Dedicated as Citizens."

Operation Booklet

No one living near the Church of the Holy Trinity today can say that he or she has never heard of us. Last week, nearly four thousand booklets called "Life at Holy Trinity" were mailed, personally addressed, to center city residents in the immediate neighborhood and including the apartments in the Parkway. This operation was carried out under the direction of one of our active laymen, Mr. Edward S. Leyshon. Not only was he successful in getting names and addresses, but he solicited and got the help of twenty-three members of the Parish who addressed envelopes. They were: Marjorie and Ada Louise Layman, Mrs. Jack F. Bowling, Jessie Williams, Mrs. Elizabeth Salter Williams, Doris J. Duke, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ross, Mrs. George C. Colvin, Mary Fielden, Margaret Colflesh, Anne Sargent, Dr. Eunice Stockwell, Mrs. Susanne R. Easterbrook, Richard Lopez, Marjorie E. Lyons, Charles W. H. Bancroft, Gwyn Grant, Emily J. Carlson, Marian Fenstermacher, Evelyn Clark, Geneva Penley, Elizabeth Webster. Thanks a thousandfold for a good job done with skill and imagination.

Bazaar Notes

Remember the White Elephant Table at fall cleaning or moving time. We can use all saleable items.

Become A Part of Your World This Sunday

On this Sunday, October 3, 1954, it is the hope of the Christian Church in every part of the world that every person who calls himself or herself "Christian," whether Anglican, Orthodox, Protestant, or Roman Catholic, will, if he or she is in anyway able to do so, be present at the Lord's table and participate in the Holy Communion. This vast corporate act of the whole Church will begin with the first Christians on the other side of the international date line—in the Fiji islands and New Zealand. It will be six o'clock on Saturday evening here, eleven o'clock on Sunday morning in New Zealand. As the hands go around the clock, every hour of the twenty-four, Christians will kneel at their altars. And, thus, millions will witness to their common faith in Christ Incarnate and their common love of God who first loved them.

Be yourself a part of this witness this Sunday. Join with your fellow Christians everywhere.

The Rector's Bible Classes Begin Monday and Tuesday

Monday at 7:45 P. M.; Tuesday at 10:45 A. M.

Studying "The Revelation of St. John, the Divine"

All people, men and women, of all churches or none, are welcome and invited to attend this nine-week series of Bible Classes in the Parish House, beginning this Monday evening, October 4, at 7:45 P. M. The class is repeated every Tuesday morning at 10:45 A. M. for those unable to attend the evening meeting.

This term's study is "The Revelation of St. John, the Divine," one of the great dramatic epics of all time written by a dedicated Christian in the darkest hour of the Christian Church. It is a writing for our time as well, as relevant and contemporary as any existing work.

Tuesday, 6:00 P. M.: First Evening Auxiliary Meeting

The Evening Auxiliary holds its first dinner meeting of the new working year this coming Tuesday evening, October 5, at six o'clock. Dinner in the Parish House. All business and professional women and all who cannot attend a daytime meeting are cordially invited to come. No special invitation is necessary. Please, however, if possible, phone your reservation to the Parish Office at once (LO 7-1267) or return the card, if you are already on the Auxiliary's mailing list. Dr. Longley will speak at dinner on "The Anglican Congress."

On Sunday, October 10, at 8:00 A. M., the Evening Auxiliary will attend a Corporate Communion and meet together for breakfast after the service.

New Members of our Parish Fellowship

During the past two weeks, letters of transfer to The Church of the Holy Trinity have been received for Miss Blanche I. Hunter, 120 South 22nd Street; Mrs. Annie Laurie Hamilton, Alden Park Manor; Mr. and Mrs. William C. Freeman, 1900 Rittenhouse Square; and Mrs. Jane Koelle, Rittenhouse Claridge.

Last Sunday morning, we welcomed the following newcomers and extend to them now a heartfelt invitation to participate in all the parish activities: Shirley A. Mason, 3553 Shelmore Street; Mrs. Stewart and son, Dr. Stewart; Mr. Thomas Sproule, 2601 Parkway; Miss Winifred L. Hodgkins, Graduate Hospital; Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dator, 30th and Snyder Avenue; Miss Amy Pifer, Y. W. C. A.; Miss Grace Bourne, 212 St. Mark's Square; and Thomas Cobb King, 1800 Kenyon Street, Washington, D. C.

A Significant Study

During the past summer, a committee of the Parish Council, under the very capable direction of Mrs. John P. Lutz, made a study of the reasons behind the church attendance at three metropolitan churches which are crowded every Sunday morning—Trinity, Boston; St. Bartholomew's, New York; and Epiphany, Washington. Although the entire findings cannot be reproduced here for lack of space, the most significant over-all finding appears to be that these churches feel themselves to be a family fellowship and are genuinely glad to welcome others and include them in the parish life. One of the Council members reported that, on her visit to Epiphany, Washington, no less than six people welcomed her before she got to her seat in church. Finding Number One of the report reads: "A welcoming committee should be organized, on the pattern of St. Bartholomew's, for the express purpose of making visitors feel at home and as a source of information regarding them."

Copies of the report are available in the Parish Office. The report is offered, according to the chairman, Mrs. Lutz, "as a means whereby we can be more certain than we possibly now are that our resources, both human and material, are being utilized to the utmost, so that The Church of the Holy Trinity will be as attractive a church home as is within our capabilities to make it."

Notes

HOUSE OF REST donation day is Tuesday, October 5. Tea will be served from two to five P. M. All are invited to inspect this Diocesan model home for the aged at 5919 Wayne Avenue, Germantown.

THE RECTOR, Diocesan Chairman of the Field Department, is conducting Every Member Canvass clinics on three evenings next week at St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill; Church of The Holy Apostles and The Mediator; and St. Paul's Church, Kensington.

NEW FORWARDS, starting today, are available at the church door. The cost is six cents each.

This Week's Opportunities

The Rector's Bible Class, Monday, 7: 45 P. M.; Tuesday, 10: 45 A. M.

It is never too late to join the Rector's Bible Class. Start coming—you cannot know too much about the Bible. This term's class is studying “The Revelation of St. John, the Divine.” The two classes are identical. Come Monday night or Tuesday morning. The class meets in the Parish House. All, men and women, of any church or none, are invited.

Men's Club Meets Tuesday at 6:00 P. M.

Men, become acquainted with the other men of your church. The best place to do it informally, in good fellowship, is at the meetings of the Men's Club on every second Tuesday evening each month. The club is open to all men of the parish and their friends. No invitation is needed. You are invited and welcome.

Next Tuesday evening, October 12, at 6:00 P. M. in the Parish House is the time and place. The cost of the dinner is $1.25. “The Great Isaac,” magician extraordinary, will be on hand to entertain. Make it a great night for the men of Holy Trinity.

Woman's Auxiliary-Guild Service and Luncheon, Thursday at 12:15

The first meeting for the year of the Women's Auxiliary and Guild will begin at the Altar of the church, when the members will receive Holy Communion together at the 12:15 service on Thursday, October 14. At this service, the new officers will be installed.

After the services, there will be a luncheon in the Parish House at one o'clock. Dr. Longley will speak about his visit to the history-making Anglican Congress in Minneapolis this summer. All women of the parish who can attend a daytime meeting are invited to membership in The Women's Auxiliary and Guild. No special invitation is needed. Come and make yourself known. Reservations for lunch ($1.00 payable at the door) must reach the Parish House by Monday, October 11.

There is a Place for You in the Fellowship of this Parish

CARILLON PLAYERS: We need people, men or women, to form a Carillon Players' Group who will play the bells before services, everyday at noon, and in the late afternoon on a regular schedule. If you can play the piano with one finger, you can learn to play the bells. Let the rector know if you are interested. Call LO 7-1267 and leave your name.

SERVERS (Crucifers, Flagbearers): We need people, men and boys, to assist at services, at Holy Communion, as crucifers, flagbearers, etc. Holy Trinity, because of its downtown location, is short on young men of high school age; therefore, we need men of college age and older to aid in our worship. Call the rector and let him know if you are interested. Leave your name in the Parish Office.

CHANCEL COMMITTEE: We are hoping to enlarge the work of those who care for the chancel and altar. We need more workers. If you are interested in Altar Guild work, please let the rector know.

Bazaar Preparation in Full Swing

The annual “Bazaar at the Barclay” comes early this year on November 4 at the Barclay, from noon until six o'clock. Everybody's help is needed—yours, too. As many have so splendidly in the past, you can help now again by sending contributions for the various tables and, of course, by coming to the Bazaar on November 4. Perishable goods should be sent to the Barclay on the morning of the 4th; other articles to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, sometime before that date. The entire proceeds from the Bazaar go for the missionary work of the Church.

Church World Service Clothing Drive

Tons of clothing are being sent by the churches to destitute people in stricken areas all over the world so that, literally, the naked may be clothed in protection against heat and cold. Good clothing, warm clothing, shoes, coats, bedding are needed. And note, have you pieces of sturdy new material that can be used to make children's garments?

Bring your clothing and materials to church this Sunday and on Sunday, October 24. There will be cartons to receive your gifts in the church porch.

Church Unity (From an Anglican Congress Paper)

"If Anglicanism has been one of the chief goads by means of which the conscience of Christendom has been stabbed awake to the sin of its disunity, I think it is because we hold so strongly (with the main "catholic" tradition) the immense importance of the Church's visible unity according to the New Testament pattern, yet also hold (with the main "protestant" tradition) that this unity so far from being indefectible has in fact been broken. 'We therefore cannot blunt the edge of God's demand by arguing either that we ourselves are the one visible Church and it is simply up to others to join us; or that it is sufficient for the Church to have inward and spiritual unity and therefore our outward separations are of secondary importance.

"The kind of a reunion we have aimed at has been first, an organic visible unity, though of a decentralized kind. We envisage as the goal one visible society, with a single framework of faith, sacraments, and ministry, existing in the form of a united regional Church in each place, each being in full communion with the rest but none of them being dominated by any central authority.

"It would be a society in which all the existing Communions, 'catholic' and 'protestant' alike, would be able to contribute the riches of their separate heritages, and in which each would learn from and be enriched and corrected by the others. Our aim is variety within an agreed framework of essentials. If there can be variety within a single Church, the same even more obviously holds good of Churches which are in fellowship with each other but still autonomous. We do not want every one to become Anglican—to lose their heritage and replace them by ours. Still less do we want to lose our heritage and replace it by another. We hope to carry it with us into a reunited Church where we shall share it with others and they will share theirs with us."

Guild of Carilloneurs Begun

A group of people in the parish have volunteered to play the bells for fifteen minutes each day between twelve and one and five and six o'clock. They are: Miss Doris Duke, Miss Miriam Cone, Mrs. S. Scott Stewart, Mrs. Morrow G. Campbell, Miss Marjorie Lyons and Mrs. M. K. Werle. For awhile until they become accustomed to the technique required, they must practice "before the world," as it were, because there is no way to learn except by sounding the bells.

If there are others who would like to join the Carilloneurs, please let the Rector know.

Chancel Committee Enlargement Planned

The Rector is calling a meeting of all people interested in Altar Guild or Chancel Committee work for Friday evening, October 29, at 7:30 P. M. in the Parish House. Several new volunteers are already on the Rector's list and he is anxious to know of others so that the work of this group may be enlarged. Plan to attend the meeting, if you are interested.

Welsh Preacher at Holy Trinity on October 31st

The principal of the largest seminary in the Anglican Communion, St. David's College, Lampeter, Wales, will be the preacher at The Church of the Holy Trinity on Sunday, October 31st, at the eleven o'clock service. During this year, he is a special lecturer at the Berkeley Divinity School in New Haven, Connecticut.

A Paragraph Worth Reading from An Anglican Congress Paper

In the first century when lonely and embittered men came near the Church they were met by a community, a new society growing up beneath the society of the Empire and compacted with a new quality of life. Churchmen need to know that "to be a Christian today is not just to be attached to Christ as an individual but to be 'in Christ,' that is, to be in His Church as a living, active, worshipping and witnessing member. The word must take flesh here and now. And the basis of its life must be that supreme respect for human personality which was characteristic at all times of the ministry of Jesus. He showed this respect by His attitude to all, even the most degraded. He made it plain that He regarded every individual as of infinite value just because each was potentially a son of God. He wanted them. He loved them. A key word for him was 'neighbor.' We need to discover again the meaning of 'our neighbor.' Our world breaks personal relations. It classifies men and we know them by group names and not as brothers for whom Christ died. The desperate illness of our time is that men do not know how to receive love from God or from each other. The love of God only becomes possible to men who know they are loved. That is the task of every congregation to become a body which reaches out arms of love to every man."

The forty-voiced University of Pennsylvania Chorus from the School of Fine Arts will appear in a concert of sacred music from the chancel of the church at 7:30 this Sunday evening. The works of Bach and Buxtehude will be heard in the first section of the concert; Brahms in the second; Russian composers in the third; and contemporary composers in the fourth section. Violinists will accompany the organ.

This is the first of a series of appearances at Holy Trinity by outstanding choruses of the city on fifth Sunday evenings during the year.

Save November 21st (LOYALTY SUNDAY) And Plan to Be at Church

Monday, November 1st, Is All Saints' Day

On All Saints' Day, we remember by name at the Altar especially all those from this parish who have departed this life during the past year. The services are the Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and at 12:15, noon.

Special Preacher This Morning

The principal of the largest theological seminary in the Anglican Communion, The Reverend Canon Henry Kingsley Archdall, Th.D., will be the preacher at the eleven o'clock service this Sunday. During the past twelve years, Canon Archdall has been a member of the Faith and Order Committee of the World Council of Churches. He has been the "Select Preacher" at Oxford and Cambridge Universities. He is in this country now as a Visiting Fellow of Yale University and is lecturing at Berkeley Theological Seminary.

The Bazaar at the Barclay Next Thursday, November 4

A great annual event in the life of the parish is the Bazaar at the Barclay. It will take place next Thursday, November 4, from noon until six o'clock at the Barclay, Rittenhouse Square, at 18th and Locust Streets.

This is the place to buy your Christmas gifts. There will be new books, direct from the publishers at the same prices as at the book stores. There will be articles of jewelry, clothing, handkerchiefs, white elephants. There will be toys and games and wearing apparel at the children's table. The usual food items, cakes, candies, cookies, will be on sale.

During the afternoon, there is a card party. Reservations for tables may be made through this coming Monday. Call LO 7-1267. Tea will be served during the afternoon.

Evening Auxiliary to Hear Outstanding Woman Leader

Next Tuesday evening, November 2, Mrs. Faith Magee will speak to the Evening Auxiliary at their monthly dinner meeting in the Parish House at six o'clock. Mrs. Magee is the mother of the young poet, killed in the last war, who wrote the poem "High Flight." She and her late husband were missionaries to China in their early years. Both of them, with their son, have made great contributions to the devotional life of Christian people. To hear and talk with Mrs. Magee is a rare opportunity. Reservations for the dinner must be in the parish office not later than Monday, November 1st.

United Thank Offering to be Received November Seventh

Holy Trinity's United Thank Offering from the women of the church will be gathered in and presented at the morning service on Sunday, November Seventh. A further notice will appear in next week's bulletin.

Notes

The Rector has been receiving suggestions that we paint the front doors of the church red, as is being done in so many places. From ancient times, red church doors have been the sign of sanctuary from the ills of the world through the sacrifice of Christ. A writer says, "They would speak a welcome to people in the Square and let them know that the church is here." The Rector is inclined to think that this is a good idea. What do you think? Does he hear some violent, unyielding opposition? The question is open for discussion.

Speaker: Dr. George Tatum, School of the Fine Arts, University of Pennsylvania

Subject: "The Sistine Ceiling" (Illustrated)

7:30 P. M.—Evening Service

The Choir of The Church of the Holy Trinity sings "A Hymn of the Immortals", by David McK. Williams, and "Psalm 93", by Robert Elmore (First Philadelphia Performance).

The United Thank Offering

Ladies of the congregation will receive the offering this morning, symbolizing the ingathering of the United Thank Offering from the women of the Church.

The United Thank Offering is not (and should not be) a one-time contribution, but is an accumulated offering, built up from time to time as occasions of thankfulness occur. At such times, a coin is dropped in the blue box which every good churchwoman has. Then, twice each year, the box is emptied and the offering is brought to the Altar of the parish to be used for various missionary purposes.

The parish presentation is this Sunday. The Diocesan ingathering, of all the parish offerings, is at St. Mark's Church, 1625 Locust Street, on Thursday, November 18th, at 8:00 P. M.

Ellen Morris Memorial

The Women's Auxiliary and Guild are grateful to the friends of Miss Ellen Morris who have subscribed to her memorial, which amounts to $237 and is being divided as follows: a high school and a college scholarship for one year at St. Agnes' School for Girls, Kyoto, Japan, $130; for the Girls Friendly Society branch at St. Agnes, $50; and for the Girls Friendly Society in the Diocese of Kobe, $57; any amount not used in five years to apply to a scholarship in these two dioceses.

Re-Think Your Pledge Before Loyalty Sunday

Your Rector earnestly hopes that every parishioner will read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest the pamphlet which is enclosed in the mail with this Bulletin. All over our Church, the people are re-thinking their giving to the Church in terms of a definite percentage of their income. People are no longer giving to the Church to meet a budget. They are giving truly of themselves that the Church may move forward now far beyond its present needs. People are giving, not to a budget, but to God. Ask yourself about this.

Transfers to Holy Trinity

Letters of transfer to Holy Trinity have been received for Miss Leah V. Welsh, 5117 Willows Avenue, and Mr. Robert J. Walton, Jr., 265 South 44th Street.

The Women's Auxiliary and Guild Meets Thursday, 2:30

The topic at the coming Auxiliary meeting on Thursday, November 11, is "Man and God in the City" with Miss Marjorie Penney, of Fellowship House, as speaker.

The Reverend Ralph N. Parkhill Called as Additional Assistant

The search for a third man to be added to the clergy staff has brought us back to the man we had hoped to secure early this year. At that time, he was unable to accept a call, but it is now our understanding that he will accept and the call to him has been re-issued. He is now rector of St. John the Baptist parish, Milton, Delaware. His work will be concerned with contacting new people in the center-city area, reaching out to members of the radio congregation, and work with social problem cases which come to the church office.

Thank You

The President of the Women's Auxiliary and Guild, Mrs. George Eyre Smith, writes "Members of the Bazaar Committee express their gratitude to all who, by their gifts, their efforts, and their cooperation, helped to make our Bazaar on November 4th a great success. It is not possible to reach every individual who contributed, except through this leaflet, and so we ask you to accept our heartfelt thank-you. The amount of the proceeds is not available just now; you will have it later on."

NOTES

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4:30 P. M.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES continue through November on Monday evenings, at 7:45 P. M., and Tuesday mornings, at 10:45 A. M.

THE CLOTHING DRIVE brought instant and generous response from Holy Trinity people. Four large cartons were filled and sent to the Church World Service Centre at New Windsor, Maryland. There the clothing is processed and sent to the stricken areas overseas. They say thank you.

and students from the Philadelphia Bible Institute.

7:30 P.M.—Evening Service

At the service tonight, the choir of the Church of the Holy Trinity sings “Come Redeemer” by Bach and “Psalm 130” by Robert Elmore.

THE DECEMBER CALENDAR

THIS SUNDAY: At the morning service, the Rector begins a series of three sermons. The first, this Sunday, will have to do with the history of the Bible; the second, the history of the Church; and the third will have to do with what both the Bible and the Church have preserved for us, the knowledge of the Incarnation.

TUESDAY, DEC. 7: The Evening Auxiliary meets for supper at 6 P. M. All business and professional women are invited to fellowship in the Evening Auxiliary. Dinner reservations should be phoned in by Monday, the 6th (LO 7-1267). Color and sound films of Japan and the Philippines will be shown.

THURSDAY, DEC. 9: The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets at 2:30 in the parish house. All women of the parish are invited. This month's program is about the United Thank Offering, its beginnings and accomplishments with Mrs. P. Blair Lee, Diocesan Custodian, as the speaker. A short pageant will illustrate her talk. Plan to stay for tea after the meeting.

FRIDAY, DEC. 10: At Trinity Memorial, 22nd and Spruce, The Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary sponsors a “Quiet Morning” from 10 until 12 o'clock with the Reverend Arthur Lee Kinsolving of St. James, New York, conductor. All women are invited to this period of spiritual refreshment.

FRIDAY, DEC. 10: From 9-12 at the Parish House, Trinity Club's “Holly Hop”—$1.50 a couple. Jack O'Reilly, WPEN disc jockey, will spin the platters.

SUNDAY, DEC. 12: Holy Communion at 8 A. M., Morning Prayer at 11 A. M. (Sermon on the history of the Church), Trinity Club at 6 with Dean Gifford talking on “Careers in Church Work. 7:30, Evening Prayer.

MONDAY, DEC. 13: Evening Auxiliary Christmas Wrapping Party at 7:00 P. M. Carols, too.

TUESDAY, DEC. 14: MEN'S CLUB Christmas Party with dinner at 6:30 P. M. ($1.50). This is always one of the most delightful evenings of the year. Plan to come.

SUNDAY, DEC. 19: Fourth Sunday in Advent. Services at 8, 11, and 7:30.

TUESDAY, DEC. 21: St. Thomas' Day. Holy Communion at 7:30 and 12:15 (Noon).

THURSDAY, DEC. 23: From 7 o'clock on, there will be the hanging of the greens in church. All are invited to come and help decorate the church for Christmas. There will be carol singing and coffee afterward in the parish house.

FRIDAY, DEC. 24: The Mid-night service begins at 11 P. M.

SATURDAY, DEC. 25: Christmas Day services are at 8 and 11 A. M.

Other Important Notes

CONFIRMATION CLASSES for Adults will begin on the first Sunday in January. Are you going to bring anyone to Confirmation this year? Begin your planning now.

OFFERING ENVELOPES are mailed during the week after Christmas for use on the first Sunday of the New Year.

THE CARILLON installation has not been at all satisfactory and is still giving trouble. This is why you have not been hearing the bells lately. It is hoped that it will be repaired before this Sunday.

THE LOYALTY SUNDAY CANVASS total after one week was $43,100.00 with several people still to be heard from. This is an increase of three thousand dollars over the same date last year. It was one of the smoothest projects of its kind your rector has ever known. The cooperation of everyone, the taking on of responsibility was phenomenal. What a parish!

Tonight's Speaker: Dean Gifford, Philadelphia Divinity School
Subject: "Careers in Church Work."

Special Guests this Week: Arch St. Y.M.C.A.; Children's Hospital New Affiliate Students; Philadelphia Institute of Music.

7:30 P.M.—Evening Service

Preacher, Dr. Longley.
Special Music: Institute of Music Students.

The Reverend Ralph Parkhill, New Assistant

On January First, The Reverend Ralph Parkhill will assume his duties as the third member of the clergy at The Church of the Holy Trinity. Mr. Parkhill was born in Wells-ville, Ohio, is 60 years old, is married and has two children. He is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh and The Virginia Theological Seminary. He has been in the Church's ministry only two years. Previous to his taking orders in the Church, he was engaged in social work, in particular in relation to rehabilitation problems. He has been Vicar of The Church of St. John the Baptist in Milton, Delaware.

Adult Confirmation Class Will Begin Sunday, January 2nd

Bishop Hart will visit the parish and confirm on Sunday, February 13. A class in preparation for his visit will begin on Sunday afternoon, January 2, and continue each Sunday afternoon in January, with two further classes in February. All who are thinking of becoming communicant members of The Episcopal Church should begin their planning for these classes now. The classes are open to all, — whether planning to be confirmed or not. Inquirers are welcome.

Men's Club Christmas Party This Tuesday

All men of the parish and their friends are invited to the Men's Club Christmas dinner and party this coming Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. The price of the dinner is $1.50. Bring a twenty-five cent present for another member. Stretch your vocal "chords" and come prepared to sing with the carolers. Meet Mr. S. Claus and have a good time in good fellowship. Make your reservation, please. Call the Parish House, LO 7-1267.

The Parish Has a Prayer Group

Prayer can constitute a very real power in our lives and that of others. With this thought in mind and the deep need for spiritual help for the world, a Prayer Group has been formed in The Church of the Holy Trinity. Its members meet in the first few pews at the front of the church on the left (Gospel) side facing the Chancel at 11:45 each Thursday. The group is informal in character and adjourns before the 12:15 service of Holy Communion.

Anyone is welcome in this group. Perhaps it can be helpful to you. You, surely, can be helpful in it. Come and see on Thursday.

Cause for Thanksgiving

With grateful Thanksgiving to God, it can be announced that the people of The Church of the Holy Trinity have indicated to the Vestry by their pledges on Loyalty Sunday and in the past two weeks that over forty-five thousand dollars will be available for the coming year's work. This is an increase of five thousand dollars over last year and provides the salary of the third clergyman, thus enabling us to enlarge our work and reach more people.

No special letter of thanks is sent to people who mail in their pledge cards. But, of course your Vestry and Clergy rejoice in you all with grateful hearts. Holy Trinity is a parish of truly "very special" people.

NOTES

OLD CHRIST CHURCH is presenting Henri Gheon's "Christmas in the Market Place" at the Neighborhood House, 20 North American Street, at 8:30 p.m., on December 17 and 18. Mrs. Milton Price Harley is directing the play and the cast is made up of local little theatre and Actor's Stock players. Admission at the door is $1.00.

THE RECTOR will be in West Virginia next Wednesday preaching at the ordination of one of his old boys who is entering the Priesthood. Six young men became priests or started training while he was in Charleston.

Recessional Hymn: 339....."O Lamb of God" Choral Postlude: "Lord Forever at Thy Side".....Gibson

The flowers on the altar today are in loving memory of Harry F. Angstadt.

Words of the Anthem

"Bow down Thine ear, O Lord, and hear me, for I am poor and in misery. Be merciful to me, O Lord, for I do put my trust in Thee. For Thou, O Lord, art good and gracious, and great mercy unto all, to all that call upon Thee in truth."

Keep Lent

I feel that I cannot stress too much that Lent is opportunity for the earnest seeker for God. Don't let the opportunity go by without using it. For these six weeks, put the church not only definitely first in your program, but also make it a matter of decisive unusual action to take every advantage of the Lenten program. Listen as often as you can to the truly great preachers in the pulpit of Holy Trinity at the noon-day services. Come to the Bible Classes if possible. Prepare for the Holy Communion and make it a great spiritual experience. Drop in for Evening Prayer and take away a blessing.

Lent can lift you to a new level of life. It can give you something that can come to you in no other way. It can relate you vitally to God and His Grace.

Why not resolve now to use this Lent. The privileges are many. It is for you to use them.

—H. L.

The Noon-Day Preacher

The Reverend John Ellis Large, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York City, is the noon-day preacher during the coming week. He will speak each day at the service which begins at 12:25, ends at 12:55. Dr. Large was formerly rector of St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington. At one time, he was chaplain of St. Andrew's School, Middletown, Delaware.

Notes

THREE CLERGYMEN were guests at Holy Trinity on a recent Sunday. One was the brother of one of our members, The Reverend Stephens T. Gulbrandsen, whose parish is in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. Another, The Reverend William Aiden came all the way from Jerusalem, where he is connected with the Anglican Cathedral. The third was The Very Reverend Frederick W. Kates, Dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in Spokane, Washington. Dean Kates, one of the Church's best known clergymen, is the author of several books published by Harpers. One of his best known is "The Use of Life."

ATTENDANCE at last Sunday's services totalled more than 600. At eight, there were 30 present; at 11:00 A. M., 406; at 7:30 P. M., 212. About 125 people are attending the Bible Classes each week.

THE VESTRY meets Monday at 4:30 P. M.

Words of the Anthem

"Ye now are sorrowful, howbeit, ye shall again behold me, and your heart shall be joyful, and your joy no man taketh from you. Yea, I will comfort you, as one whom his own mother comforteth. Look upon me; ye know that for a little time labor and sorrow were mine, but at the last I have found comfort."

The flowers on the altar today are in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rapp.

The Lenten Services

Each Day, 12:25 to 12:55, Preaching

Each Day, 5:30 P. M., Evening Prayer

Thursdays (Additional), 11:30 A. M., Holy Communion
(No Services on Saturdays)

The Noon-Day Preacher, Shelton Hale Bishop

Shelton Hale Bishop is one of the most outstanding leaders of the Negro community in America. He is in demand as a leader, lecturer, and preacher everywhere. This Lent, he preaches at Old Trinity, Wall Street, New York, for a week. He will preach at the Hartford Cathedral and in Boston. We are fortunate indeed to have him. It is your rector's opinion that his preaching here will be the high spot of Lent.

Dr. Bishop will be here only on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. On Tuesday and Thursday, the preacher will be The Reverend Cornelius Trowbridge, rector of St. Peter's Church, Morristown, New Jersey. Mr. Trowbridge is the brother of The Reverend George Trowbridge, rector of St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill.

Men's Club Meets Tuesday for Dinner, 6:30 P. M.

How the Big Brothers organization is meeting the problem of juvenile delinquency is the topic of the speaker, Mr. Thomas Cairns, at the Men's Club meeting this coming Tuesday. The meeting begins with dinner at 6:30 P. M. ($1.50). Reservations should reach the Parish House not later than Monday, March 7. Call LO 7-1267.

Women's Auxiliary Meets Thursday, 2:30 P. M.

The Women's Auxiliary and Guild meets on Thursday, March 10, at 2:30 P. M. in the Parish House. The subject for this Lenten meeting is "The Struggle for the Prayer Book." The speaker, Mrs. Francis Packard, is well known to the women of this Diocese and will present this interesting topic in a helpful and enlightening way. All women of the parish are urged to attend.

Church Growth Committee Meets Thursday, March 10, 7:45 P. M.

The Church Growth Committee, the Ushers and the Hospitality Group, will meet for an important meeting on Thursday evening, March 10, in the church at 7:45 P. M. Edward S. Leysen, chairman of the Committee, will outline plans for the future, especially in relation to the end of Lent and the Easter season.

Notes

THE BIBLE CLASSES are on Mondays, 7:45 P. M.; Tuesdays, 10:45 A. M.

THE RECTOR is preaching at St. Andrew's, Wilmington, this coming Wednesday. The Associate Rector was the speaker at a meeting of the United Auxiliaries in Harrisburg last Thursday. He was the leader at a Parish Life Conference at Denbigh this past weekend. He preaches at St. Christopher's, Gladwyne, on Tuesday.

Lent

"And thou shalt know Him when He comes
Not by any din of drums,
Nor the vantage of His airs;
Neither by His crown, nor His gown,
Nor by anything He wears.
He shall only well known be,
By the holy harmony
That His coming makes in thee."

Words of the Anthem

"And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoso believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not His Son in to the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved."

6:00 P.M.—Trinity Club Supper

Speaker: Grant Husband, Associate Director, Mental Health Association

7:30 P.M.—Evening Prayer

Preacher: The Rector

After the Sunday services, there is a Coffee Hour in the Parish House. You are invited to come and share a cup of coffee with us,—especially if you are newcomers or visitors in our midst.

The Golden Rule of Silence

"For everything there is a season," writes the author of Ecclesiastes; "a time to be born, a time to die; . . . a time to keep silence, and a time to speak."

One of the joys of our services of Common Prayer is the audible participation of the congregation. In hymns and prayers and responses, we all have "a time to speak," and it is important that we take our full part. God is praised and the worship of our neighbor is strengthened when we accept responsibility for our part in the service. But "common" prayer imposes the discipline of silence. We are not individuals worshipping alone, but a rather family worshipping together. In consideration of our neighbor we need also to be receptive to the "time to keep silence."

Many who come to Church find that unless they are in their pew a few minutes before the service starts, they are not "on time." They need this quiet time for putting aside the cares and concerns of the moment, and for preparing themselves for worship. It is extremely distracting for others to come in late, or for others to use this quiet as a chance to visit together. That should come after, rather than before the service.

In the singing, in the prayers, in hearty responses and strong "Amens"—and in fellowship after the service—we have our "time to speak." During the rest of our worship we suggest the golden rule of silence.

Don Frank Fenn

The Reverend Don Frank Fenn, rector of St. Michael and All Angels, Baltimore, is the Noon-Day preacher this coming week each day from 12:25 to 12:55 at noon. Our preachers this Lent represent various points of view and their very presence reveals to us the true catholicity of the Church. Dr. Fenn is an Anglo-Catholic, Dr. Ockenga is a Protestant, Dr. Bishop spoke for the Negro Community, Dr. Sayre comes from the nation's capital. But all speak for our Lord and bring to us the opportunity to know Him more clearly, love Him more dearly, follow Him more nearly.

A Prayer Group Is Meeting on Thursday Mornings

Immediately before the service of Holy Communion on Thursdays, a group is meeting in the southwest corner of the church to pray,—especially for others. Already, they have had words of thanksgiving from those who have been helped by their prayers. If you would care to join them at eleven o'clock on Thursday mornings, you would be most welcome. If you wish to ask their prayers for someone, call Miss Ferry (Phone WE 4-5145).

This Is Red Cross Sunday

Don't forget that your Red Cross stands between you and total disaster. When trouble comes, when blood is needed, when a holocaust happens, the Red Cross is there. Your gift is necessary. Don't forget.

Notes

A BAPTISM will take place after the morning service this Sunday. If you are in the church, please come to the Baptism. It is an event in our parish life and belongs to us all.

THE RECTOR is preaching in his old parish in West Virginia on Tuesday this week.

The Fourth Sunday in Lent

March 20, 1955

This Sunday is called "Mi Careme" by the French, "Mothering Sunday" by the English, "Mid-Lent" or "Refreshment Sunday" by the Americans. The collect for the day is a prayer for the comfort of God's grace, even though "we for our evil deeds unworthily deserve to be punished." The theme of the rector's sermon for today is found in this collect. In many parishes where no flowers are found on the Altar all through Lent this Sunday is made an exception because of its note of forgiveness and hope.

8:00 A.M.—Holy Communion

10:45 A.M.—Church School

11:00 A.M.—Morning Prayer

Ushers: George Burkitt, John W. Gilmore, Paul Hunter, Robert Leak, James H. Mearns, II, David Scott, Walter R. Storey, Warren R. Weidemann, Jr., Richard Lopez.

Words of the Anthem

"Blessed they, blessed are they that mourn, for they shall have comfort. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. Who goeth forth and weepeth and beareth precious seed, shall doubtless return with rejoicing and bring his sheaves with him."

The flowers on the altar today are in loving memory of John and Mary Custer Kneas.

Women's Corporate Communion

The Annual Corporate Communion of the Women of the Diocese will be held on March 25, the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, at eight a. m. in Old Christ Church, 2nd Street above Market. The celebrant will be Bishop Armstrong. After the service, breakfast will be served in Neighborhood House, which adjoins the church. The speaker will be The Reverend Richard Trelease, rector of St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, Delaware, and until recently, Dean of the Cathedral in Honolulu. Reservations for breakfast ($1.00) may be reached the Women's Auxiliary office in the Church House before March 22. (Phone LO 7-6650)

Dean Sayre

In the fall of 1916, your rector shook hands with the President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, as he passed through Rhinebeck, New York, on his way to the Baptism of his grandson. This grandson is the preacher at the Noonday Services at Holy Trinity this week,—Francis Bowes Sayre, Jr., now Dean of the National Cathedral in Washington. During the war, Dean Sayre was for four years a Naval Chaplain. Before coming to Washington, he was rector of St. Paul's Church, Cleveland.

The Fifth Sunday in Lent

March 27, 1955

Passion Sunday

Passiontide

This Sunday, we enter the final two weeks of Lent when, with increasing intensity, we see the depth of God's love for us and realize at least a little His call to our answering love. Lent has, thus far, meant spiritual revival to us; if indeed, as a result of particular action during this Lent, we know God more clearly, love Him more dearly, follow Him more nearly than we know, in some measure, our need of God's love. We can appreciate a little the significance of His passion, His suffering, His dying that we may truly live.

Recent Transfers to Holy Trinity

We welcome the following people, who have recently transferred to The Church of the Holy Trinity: Mrs. O. Percy Bright and Mr. Rodman P. Bright, 2031 Locust St.; Mr. Stuart Perkins, Mrs. William P. Scott, The Chatham; and Mr. William Desmond Stokes, 4040 Baltimore Avenue.

J. Harold Ockenga, Noon-Day Preacher

The Reverend J. Harold Ockenga is one of the most significant of the contemporary preachers of the Gospel. For many years, he has been minister at the Park Street Church in downtown Boston on "Brimstone Corner." His services there are broadcast each Sunday, as are ours here at Holy Trinity. Dr. Ockenga has preached in pulpits all over the world. His consecration, his power, his clarity, his sincere faith have brought thousands into the way that has led to new birth and new life in Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Let this great preacher of the faith lead you to a blessing. Hear him this week.

Signed with the Sign of the Cross

During the past two weeks, there have been four baptisms: Walter Lee Bartholomew, III, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee Bartholomew, Jr., of 2206 Rittenhouse Square; Mrs. Elizabeth Harkins Cochrane, of 403 South Croskey Street; James Holmes Mearns, IV, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes Mearns, III, of 4912 Chestnut Street; and Kimberly Brooks Kimmel, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Horace Kimmel, of 617 North Franklin Street.

Notes

ST. PETER'S CHOIR SCHOOL has issued an attractive folder telling of the opportunities available. The School is from fourth grade through ninth grade. Write to the Headmaster for particulars—Harold W. Gilbert, 319 Lombard Street, Philadelphia 47.

MRS. ARTHUR HUGHIE STONE has been assisting Miss Mae Steward on Wednesday afternoons preparing the Bulletin for mailing. We are greatly indebted to both these ladies.

THE ST. GEORGE ASSOCIATION of the Pennsylvania Railroad is again planning to attend the evening service at Holy Trinity on Good Friday.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES (Winter series) have two more sessions,—this week, Monday, 7: 45; Tuesday, 10: 45, and the Monday and Tuesday of Holy Week. The Holy Week classes end this series and there will be a summary of St. Luke's Gospel at these final classes. You may be interested in the summary, even if you have not attended every class.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Griffith are leaving Philadelphia and our parish next week to live in western Pennsylvania. Mr. Griffith, one-time President of the Men's Club, has been secretary of the Vestry for many years and Mrs. Griffith has been active in leadership in The Women's Auxiliary and Guild. Christians in the truest sense of the word, they both have meant a very great deal indeed to Holy Trinity and it is with keen regret that we see them go. Their places will be very hard to fill. Our prayers and thanksgivings for all they have been to us go with them. God bless you, Harvey and Zoe.

Nominations for Vestrymen — Annual Meeting, April 18th, Parish Dinner

The annual meeting of the corporation known as The Church of the Holy Trinity is called in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation for Easter Monday, April 11, 1955. However, as is permitted, this meeting will be adjourned and the adjourned meeting will be held on Monday, April 18th, at 6:30 P.M. at the Y.W.C.A. Building, 2027 Chestnut Street, when a dinner will be served ($2.00 a plate). The meeting itself will begin at this same address at 8:00 P.M. It is, of course, not necessary to attend the dinner. Anyone may come at eight o'clock for the meeting. It is earnestly hoped, however, that there will be a general attendance of parishioners at the dinner, so that our fellowship together may be increased. Note the date again,—Monday, April 18, Dinner at 6:30 P.M., Meeting at 8:00 P.M. at the Y.W.C.A.

Nominations for Vestrymen to be elected at the meeting of April 18th may be made by members of the parish in accordance with Article 2, Section 1 of the by-laws which reads as follows: "Nominations may be made in writing by any three persons entitled to vote at the election provided all written nominations are delivered to the 'Secretary of the Vestry,' Parish Office, 1904 Walnut Street, at least fifteen days prior to Easter Monday."

Therefore, if any desire to make nominations, the nominations must be signed by three persons and mailed to "The Secretary of the Vestry" at 1904 Walnut Street so that they will be mailed not later than this Sunday, April 3rd.

Four vacancies are to be filled, three vacancies due to the expiration of the terms of William H. DuBarry, Francis R. Goehring, and Frank N. Kneas; and one vacancy due to the resignation of Harvey C. Griffith, who has moved away from the city. Those whose terms expire may be re-elected. In accordance with the by-laws, the Vestry has nominated William H. DuBarry, Francis R. Goehring, Frank N. Kneas, and Merrill A. Kercher to fill the vacancies.

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ

According to the Gospel of St. John

Music by

Heinrich Schutz

This work is an example of the unaccompanied liturgical Passion, following strictly the Bible text except for the opening and closing choruses. The text, originally sung in recitative form, will be read by the associate rector between the dramatic choral exclamations of the crowd assigned to the choir.

6:00 P.M.—Trinity Club Supper

For all young adults, students, young marrieds
Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street

Tonight's Subject: "The Passion in Art" (Illustrated). Speaker: Dr. Benton Spruance, Head of the Graphics Division of the Philadelphia Museum School of Art; Head of the Department of Fine Arts, Beaver College.

Notes

PLANS are in the making for Trinity Club's program for 1955-56. Are you making plans to be at Trinity Club's second weekend retreat at "Denbigh", the Diocesan Conference Center, Radnor—April 29-May 1? All reservations must be in by Sunday, April 24.

ATTENDANCE at supper-programs has been averaging well over 100.

COFFEE HOUR after service is becoming increasingly popular—when we relax, sing, play games, quiz the speaker, browse through the book display, or just gab. A Lent that draws us near to God also draws us near to one another.

WELCOME TO AN EVENING OF "THE PASSION IN ART AND MUSIC"

Recollection

HYMN: 80 (Kneeling)

It tolls for thee

Benediction

Devotion No. 1 (From The Litany)

V. O Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world;
R. Grant us Thy peace.
V. O Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world;
R. Have mercy upon us.
V. O Christ, hear us.
R. O Christ, hear us.
V. Lord, have mercy upon us.
R. Lord, have mercy upon us.
V. Christ, have mercy upon us.
R. Christ, have mercy upon us.
V. Lord, have mercy upon us.
R. Lord, have mercy upon us.
V. O Lord, deal not with us according to our sins.
R. Neither regard us according to our iniquities.
V. O Saviour of the world, Who by Thy Cross and precious Blood has redeemed us.
R. Save us and help us, we humbly beseech Thee, O Lord.
V. We adore Thee, O Christ.
R. And we bless Thee.

Together: Because by Thy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Easter—1955

The Easter Offering

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our missionary and parochial budget needs. The generosity of its people is enabling this church to carry forward an effective ministry in center-city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in thanksgiving to God for His blessings to us.

IMPORTANT PARISH EVENTS AFTER EASTER

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild — Thursday, April 14th

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold a luncheon meeting April 14th at the Conference Center of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, located at Gulf Creek and County Line Roads, Norristown, Pennsylvania. Train leaves suburban station of the Pennsylvania Railroad at 10:15 A. M., arriving Radnor station at 10:39 A. M. Automobiles will meet this train and provide transportation to the Conference Center. Here is an opportunity to visit this beautiful place, to take part in the meeting and, shortly after lunch, have a "go-see" trip through the buildings and grounds. Guests will be welcome. Reservations for lunch—$1.00—must reach the Parish House not later than Monday, April 11.

Evening Auxiliary Party — Friday, April 15th

Don't miss the Evening Auxiliary's spring Card Party and Bake Sale next Friday evening, April 15, beginning at eight o'clock in the Parish House. Tickets at $1 each may be purchased from members of the Auxiliary or at the door. This is one of the great events of the season. Come and enjoy an evening of good fellowship together.

The Parish Meeting — Monday, April 18th

The annual Parish Meeting will be preceded by a parish dinner on Monday night, April 18th, promptly at 6:15 P. M. at the Y. W. C. A., 2027 Chestnut Street. Dinner tickets are $2 each and will be sold only at the door. A postcard is enclosed with this bulletin for you to mail back to the parish office, making your reservation. I hope very much that you will come to this all-parish dinner and make it a gala occasion.

The parish meeting itself will begin at approximately 7:15. Four vestrymen will be elected to fill present vacancies, one due to the resignation of Harvey C. Griffith and the others to fill the places of those whose term expires at this meeting.

Men's Club Tournament — Tuesday, April 19th

The Men's Club is staging a tournament at the Coffee Bowl on Tuesday evening, April 19, 7:30 sharp, in the Parish House. The Bombardiers, captained by Admiral Kauffman, whose captain will be Admiral Bowling, will oppose the Engineers, captained by Mr. Francis J. Chesterman, whose co-captain will be Mr. Merrill Kercher. A king and queen of the Coffee Bowl will be crowned. There will be coffee and refreshments during the contest.

God's Life — God's Love — Our Immortality

I know not how that Bethlehem's babe Could in the Godhead be;
 I only know the manger child
 Has brought God's life to me.

I know not how that Calvary's cross

Words of the Anthem

"Christ conquereth, Christ reigneth, Christ ruleth. O praise the Lord all ye nation Alleluia, praise Him all ye peoples. For His merciful kindness is evermore and more toward us. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen."

Thank You

This year, the season of Lent and its ending on Easter brought to me a greater blessing than I believe that I have ever known before. I am sure that this was partly true because of the ministry and that of the other clergy in our Lord's name was apparently being helpful to more people than ever before. During Lent, attendance at the Sunday services averaged six hundred and twenty each week. The week-day attendance, not counting Good Friday and except for one very stormy week, averaged one hundred and sixty-nine in attendance each day. Every week, an average of over one hundred and forty attended the Bible classes. Easter was a glorious day and over five hundred and fifty persons received Holy Communion. Over four hundred attended the services. It indicates to me that what I and my associates so much want to do, namely to bring the good news of redemption and salvation, is being accomplished or would not be sought.

To all in the parish who have stood behind our program in cooperative fellowship I am deeply grateful. May I be pardoned if I mention especially those who have helped in the worship services—the members of the Altar Guild, who have worked so faithfully behind the scenes, so to speak; the choir members and the choirmaster, who have participated in many services; and, not least by any means, the corps of ushers. The Head Usher tells me that on Good Friday nineteen men served between the hours of twelve and three. There is, he says, almost perfect dependability in the group. This is true throughout the parish. It is indeed a happy thing to be rector of The Church of the Holy Trinity and I am grateful to you all.

—Harry Longley

Come to the Parish Meeting

Come this Monday night to the parish dinner. The price is $2.00. The place is the Y. W. C. A., at 207 Chestnut Street. The hour is 6:15 promptly. We need to know each other better, to meet more often in fellowship. Make this an opportunity to deepen the ties that bind us all together in Christian love. Let's have a happy time together.

The annual parish meeting will begin at 7:15. If you cannot attend the dinner, then do come to the meeting. If you are not yet eligible to vote, not having been a contributing member for the past three years, come to the meeting anyway.

The Presiding Bishop's Easter Message

"Difficulties and uncertainties press hard upon us all. For in addition to the inevitable sundry and manifold changes of the world, we are faced with such problems as the possibility of war, civilization in relation to atomic power, Christianity and the present state of affairs. Everywhere in the presence of human frustration and failure, there is a longing for God's gifts of strength, peace and spiritual power.

"Easter with the notes of Victory, of Joy, of Eternity, meets an especially poignant need today. But as we welcome the Risen Christ we must not forget certain values. He cannot be used for our purposes; we are to serve Him. The Resurrection demands much of us. If we be risen with Christ, we are to seek those things which are above. Every promise of this joyous season should teach us so to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

"Easter brought to the first disciples joy, but also courage, insight, vision and purpose. God grant that this Easter may bring to us these gifts of the Risen Christ."

Men's Club Meets Tuesday

The Men's Club is staging a tournament at the Coffee Bowl on Tuesday evening, April 19, at 7:30 sharp, in the Parish House. The Bombardiers, captained by Admiral Kauffman, whose co-captain will be Admiral Bowling, will oppose the Engineers, captained by Mr. Francis J. Chesterman, whose co-captain will be Mr. Merrill Kercher. A king and queen of the Coffee Bowl will be crowned. There will be coffee and refreshments during the contest.

Children's Chapel

A new cross, candelabra, vases, and lighter will be dedicated this morning, in and for use in the Church School chapel. Parishioners are invited, during the coffee hour following the morning service, to inspect this beautiful addition to the children's chapel on the second floor of the parish house.

Choral Postlude: "Now Christ Is Risen" ..... 13th Century

Words of the Anthem

"O Christ, the heavens' eternal King, Creator, unto Thee we sing, with God the Father ever One, co-equal, co-eternal Son. Once of a Virgin born to save, and now newborn from death's dark grave, O Christ, Thou bidd'st us rise with Thee from death to immortality. Je-do Thou to ev'ry heart unceasing Paschal joy impart; from death of sin and guilty strife free the newborn sons of life. All praise be Thine, O risen Lord, from death to endless life restored; all praise to God the Father be and Holy Ghost eternally. Amen."

Annual Parish Meeting

More than a hundred people attended the Annual Parish Meeting and Dinner last Monday night. William H. DuBarry, Frank N. Kneas, and Francis R. Goehring were re-elected vestrymen to serve for the next four years, 1955-1959. Merrill A. Kercher was elected to out the term of Harvey C. Griffith, who has moved away from Philadelphia. Reports were made by the presidents and treasurers of the various parish organizations. An evening of good fellowship was enjoyed by every one.

A Quiet Week

With the exception of the services on Sunday and Monday, St. Mark's Day, this is a quiet week in the life of the parish. On Sunday, there are, of course, the usual services. On Monday, there is Holy Communion at 7:30 and 12:15. There is a Vestry meeting at 4:30. On Tuesday, there is Holy Communion at 12:15 as usual. On Tuesday evening, the Evening Auxiliary Executive Board meets at 7:30. Otherwise, there are no other meetings.

The South Philadelphia Convocation

The Diocese of Pennsylvania, comprising Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, and Philadelphia Counties, is divided into six sections or convocations known as the Convocations of Chester, Germantown, Norristown, and South, North, and West Philadelphia. These convocations are presided over by a Dean whose principal interest is in supervising the missions in the convocation, as well as being the liaison officer between the Diocese as a whole and his section of the Diocese. The convocations meet twice a year, in the spring and fall.

Our convocation, the South Philadelphia Convocation, presided over by Dean Thomas Parker, meets this Tuesday, April 26, at five o'clock at the Chapel of The Prince of Peace, 4th and Morris Streets. The meeting continues through supper. Our delegates are the president of The Woman's Auxiliary and the Accounting Warden, together with the clergy. Anyone is welcome to attend. Dinner reservations should be phoned to The Reverend Aubrey Cragg (LU 9-3835).

The Archbishop of Canterbury Speaks

Here are some pertinent paragraphs from a recent address by the Archbishop of Canterbury:

"The Christian's life is always difficult. The fight against evil is always costly. Without the Cross, there could have been no Resurrection. But the Resurrection is the guarantee that the love of God is stronger than death or evil.

"Whatever man may do, God is undefeated. God reigns. The world belongs to Him, and in it He is working out that purpose which He has revealed to us in Jesus Christ.

"The supreme task of the Church today is to win the nations of Christendom back to the knowledge of God revealed in Jesus Christ as Judge and Saviour, and to take the Good News to those who have not yet heard it.

"There is no place in the Church for those who will not try to honor the obligations of their membership. We thankfully recognize how many do so honor them, how great is the zeal of many of our younger people, and how much is owed to the witness of faithful congregations and to churchwardens and other office-bearers. But all must take their full share. We must show that we put God first by regular worship on the Lords' Day. We must put our hands to the understanding of our religion, so that we may meet men's doubts and questions with a reasoned faith. We must bring the teaching and example of Christ into our everyday lives. We must do our duty in paying for the Church's work. The Church in the diocese and parish is the key to the whole situation. The local congregation is the place where men must lead the life of the 'Great Church, which is God's instrument for the world's salvation. See to it, then, that your congregation is a true community in Christ, that it may influence the common life of its whole neighborhood. Nothing that is good in the sight of God should be outside the Church's interest.

"We invite all men and women to join with us under Christ's banner in the war against the evils which wreck man's life and against the false creeds which debase it. In that war there can be no neutrality. To those who stand aloof Christ says, He that is not with me is against me."

Words of the Anthem

"Doubt not thy Father's care: for ev'ry grief He finds relief, and answers ev'ry prayer. Night comes: the sun is lost; He doth provide the gleam of a starry host. The soul is dark: all joy is dead, all gladness fled, and life has miss'd its mark. Then Thou the wounded soul in that sad hour, with healing power, dost touch, and makest whole."

Diocesan Convention Here Monday and Tuesday

The annual convention of the Diocese will meet at Holy Trinity this coming week, beginning on Monday at five o'clock and continuing through Tuesday. Delegates will be chosen to the General Convention in Honolulu next September. A budget, larger than ever before, is presented. New items in the budget are occasioned by the opening up of new areas here in the world. What is happening in so many places in the environs of Philadelphia, the Valley, is also happening in Japan, in Central and South America, in New Mexico and the state of Washington, where the Church cannot plant its work without the help of all

The Convention Service is on Monday night at eight o'clock. Bishop Hart is the speaker. This service is open to the public (as are the galleries at all sessions).

Episcopal City Mission, 85 Years Old This Sunday

At three-thirty this Sunday afternoon, at 225 South Third Street, a service of thanksgiving will commemorate the eighty-five years of Christian service rendered to the sick and distressed by our Episcopal City Mission. The Reverend Stanley West will review the years in a talk at the service. Everyone is invited to attend. There will be refreshments after the service. The Rector of Holy Trinity is a member of the Board of Council of The City Mission.

Evening Auxiliary Elects Officers Tuesday Night

Members of the Evening Auxiliary and their friends will gather in the parish house for dinner at six o'clock on this Tuesday evening, May 3, for the annual meeting of the Auxiliary. Officers will be elected. There will be the ingathering of the United Thank Offering to be presented at the altar on Sunday, May 15. Last year, our parish gave nearly a thousand dollars to this offering.

Trinity Clubbers are Week-Ending at Conference Center

About fifty Trinity Clubbers, our young adults, are meeting at The Diocesan Conference Center at Radnor from Friday night through Sunday noon. They will consolidate plans for next year while there, will attend a Corporate Communion on Sunday morning, will have time for quiet spiritual meditation and good fellowship together. The Associate Rector is the Club Captain.

Near the end of June, there will be another week-end at our own Holiday House in Sellersville when Trinity Clubbers will "open the house" for the season and dedicate the chapel for the summer of '55.

Vestry Meeting

The Vestry of the parish met last Monday. Mr. William H. DuBarry was appointed Rector's Warden. The Vestry elected Mr. William M. West as Accounting Warden and Mr. Charles W. H. Bancroft as Secretary. The Property Committee of the Vestry is securing bids on new seat cushions for the church. The Committee also was authorized to look into the matter of making a room for meetings in the basement of the church.

Transfers to Holy Trinity

We welcome as newly transferred communicants Miss Marguerite Aspinwall, 2031 Locust Street; and Miss Florence Jones, Episcopal Hospital.

Words of the Anthem

"In heavenly love abiding, no change my heart shall fear; and safe is such confiding, nothing changes here. The storm may roar without me, my heart may low be laid, but I is round about me, and can I be dismayed? Wherever He may guide me, no want shall I me back: my Shepherd is beside me, and nothing can I lack. His wisdom ever waketh, sight is never dim, He knows the way He taketh and I will walk with Him. Green pastures are before me, which yet I have not seen, bright skies will soon be o'er me, where dark clouds have been, my hope I cannot measure, my path to life is free, my Saviour hath treasure, and He will walk with me."

Mother's Day

Love, an attribute that is a synonym for God, is inseparable from Mother, as are Pure Truth and all the graces. That which, within the entire range of human experience is sacred and brings us nearest the Divine is not the disciplinary direction of Fatherhood, the supreme tenderness, unstinted affection, ceaseless solicitude, self-sacrificing care and less protection of the Infinitude of Mother-love. Motherhood is the essence of permanent human society.

Woman's Auxiliary and Guild Luncheon, Thursday, 1:00 P. M.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will have a luncheon meeting at one o'clock on Thursday, May 12. The Reverend Mr. Cragg will show a motion picture in color of Bishop Gordon and visits to the Mission stations of Alaska in his plane, "The Blue Box." Stories of the people of Alaska will be related by Miss Julia Williamson. This is a good opportunity to learn about our fellow countrymen who live in that missionary area.

Reservations for lunch, $1.00, must reach the Parish House by Monday, May 9. This will be the last meeting of The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild until next October. Guests are always welcome.

United Thank Offering

On Sunday, May 15, the women of The Church of the Holy Trinity will present their United Thank Offering at the eleven o'clock service. Special envelopes will be provided on that day. The Diocesan spring ingathering will be held at Calvary Church, Germantown, on May 23 at 11:00 A. M. This ingathering will be our last opportunity to give to the offering before General Convention.

The World-Wide Mission of The Church

A display of maps posted for The Diocesan Convention has been left up at the rear of the church. The maps are worth looking at because, naming places where we are carrying on work, they show in detail the vast spread of the Church's missionary outreach. Although we are a church of only slightly more than two million members, we have taken the Gospel to the utmost parts of the earth. We have built churches, schools, and hospitals all over the world.

In addition to our work elsewhere, we operate five schools and colleges in the South especially for Negroes with small incomes, we aid churches in college and university communities to minister to students, we aid some four hundred of our chaplains in the armed services, we give particular aid to the development of rural parishes.

In the field of Christian Social Relations, we have such institutions as our own Episcopal City Mission, many, many hospitals, homes for the aging, settlement work. In the prayer book on Page 74 of the Prayer Book, we pray for "all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity"; but not only do we pray, we seek to minister in our Lord's name as well.

A Prayer of Thanksgiving for the Salk Vaccine

O, God, who declarest thy almighty power in showing mercy and pity and who revealest to men in each new discovery a part of thy truth; we give thanks that the blindness of our world has been lifted, and there is new hope for the prevention of infantile paralysis. Gracious art thou, O Lord, and full of compassion to the children of men. Continue thy work of healing among us, and grant us so to be thankful that we will share this blessing with all the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Words of the Anthem

“How lovely are the messengers that preach us the gospel of peace! To all the nations gone forth the sound of their words, throughout all the lands their glad tidings.”

Thursday, May 19, is Ascension Day

Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 (noon)

If you are one of those blessed souls who possess always a sense of constant companionship with Jesus, a realization of His glorious beauty, the profound and humble consciousness of trust in Him, you will make all possible arrangements to be at the Church's Altar on Ascension Day. This day, the anniversary of the last time anyone saw Jesus as a man, in the flesh, has become the observance of His eternalness,—a day of great worship and faith.

Evening Auxiliary Elects Officers for 1955-56

At its meeting last week, the Evening Auxiliary elected the following officers to fill the vacancies: Vice-President, Miss Mary Fielden; Treasurer, Miss Margaret Colflesh; Recording Secretary, Miss Margaret Mencke; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Humbert Lanzi; Thank Offering Custodian, Mrs. Ethel Conard. The President is Miss Marjorie Layman.

Notes

THE UTO, United Thank Offering, being presented at this Sunday's service will be presented at the Diocesan Service on Monday, May 23, at 11:00 A. M., at Calvary Church, Germantown. The offering from the whole Church will be presented in Honolulu at the General Convention on September 8. It is expected to be more than two million dollars,—an outpouring of grateful hearts to aid the Church's missionary program.

THE DIOCESAN WOMAN'S AUXILIARY meets at Calvary Church, Germantown, on Monday, May 23rd, at 10:30 A. M. for its 81st Annual Meeting. Reservations for the luncheon at the Germantown Cricket Club at 12:45 ($1.85) must reach The Woman's Auxiliary at 202 West Rittenhouse Square, by Wednesday, May 18. All women of the Church may attend the luncheon.

AN ELECTRONIC ORGAN will be seen in the chancel this Sunday. It will be played at the evening service by Robert Elmore in connection with the music to be sung by Trinity Choir, assisted by the Curtis Brass Ensemble. Installation of the organ before the morning service was necessary because of mechanical details. The instrument is the product of The Allen Organ Company.

C. C. MORRIS and the Rector were among the delegates elected to the General Convention in Honolulu in September. Other clergy elected were The Rev. James M. Niblo, The Rev. John H. A. Bomberger, and The Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel, Jr. Other laymen were Mr. Blair Lee, Mr. Robert T. McCracken, and Mr. Thomas B. K. Ringe. Mrs. Longley expects to accompany Dr. Longley on the trip.

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS' Center City group will begin meeting at Holy Trinity next Wednesday night in the Parish House. The group will meet each Wednesday and Saturday nights. We welcome their meetings and are glad to encourage the magnificent work done by A. A.

Mary Light to Speak Here on May 25

On Wednesday evening, May 25, in the church at eight o'clock, Mary Light, one of the great leaders in the field of spiritual healing will speak and conduct a healing service at The Church of the Holy Trinity. This is not a parish-sponsored service, but the Rector is glad to accord the privileges of the church's building to Mary Light and to aid this service in every way. All who are interested in this rapidly growing healing movement are welcome to attend. Miss Light will speak on the previous evening at St. Stephen's Church.

Mary Light is a Canadian and has devoted her life to the ministry of healing. Glenn Clark spoke of her, “You are the unexpected person because you are so eternally natural. You are productive because you never produce. You give such wise thoughts because you never think. You heal so many people because you never do the healing.”

Church Growth Committee Party

On Saturday, May 21, at four o'clock, the Church Growth Committee is having a garden party and steak dinner. Believe it or not, the party will take place in the courtyard between the church and the Church House. Anyone, whether a member of the Committee or not, is welcome to come. Please notify the Church Office if you wish a reservation ($1.50).

Holiday House to Open Again This Summer

Holiday House at Sellersville will be open for four vacation periods this summer, July 3 to July 13 to 28, July 31 to August 11, August 14 to 25. The first two periods are limited to women and children (boys up to 16 years old). The last two periods are for husbands and wives with or without children. Boys and girls old enough to look after themselves may go without parents, subject to direction of Mrs. Clymer and counselors.

The cost per individual for the eleven-day periods is $15.00 for adults, $10.00 for children. Applications should be made to The Rev. J. A. Cragg, 2132 Shunk Street, Philadelphia 45—telephone FUlton 9-3835—as early as possible. After June 24th, to the registrar, Mr. George Mitchell, 2341 Tasker Street, Philadelphia 45, telephone HOward 5-0492 (calls to Mr. Mitchell between 1 and 7 P.M.).

New Prayer Books

The old prayer books in the pews are gradually being replaced with new books. The latest edition is a gift of eighty-five books by Mr. and Mrs. F. Rudolph Goehring, which have been given in memory of Mr. Goehring's mother.

I Would Be True

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.
I would be friends of all—the foe—the friendless;
I would be giving, and forget the gift;
I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift.
How can this be, for well I know my failures,
Unless there comes grace, strength, and love from Thee?
O King of Love, my Master and my Saviour,
Grant these I pray. To serve Thee, set me free,

Words of the Anthem

"Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed, unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you with all malice. And be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake, hath forgiven you. Amen."

Prayer for Whitsunday

O God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit, Trinity of love, good beyond all good, fair beyond all that is fair, in whom is calmness and peace; Make up, we beseech thee, the dissensions which divide us from each other, and bring us back into that unity of love which is the likeness of thy sublime nature; that bound together in the Spirit, we may know that peace which maketh all things one; to thy honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Pentecost

Pentecost, commonly called Whitsunday, celebrates the anniversary of the visible descent of the Holy Spirit in tongues of fire upon the Apostles and Disciples of our Lord who were gathered in Jerusalem. At this time, the Apostolic group realized its commission to carry on the work of the Incarnate Son of God for the salvation and redemption of humanity. For this reason, the feast of Pentecost has been called the birthday of the Church.

The "nickname" Whitsunday is derived from the frequent custom of having baptisms and confirmations on this appropriate day. Participants in these sacraments were often dressed in white, the color of purity and Faith in Life—hence the name White Sunday.

Confirmation Survey after Ten Years

Bishop Hart recently asked the parishes of the Diocese to review the Confirmation classes of the past ten years. Mr. Parkhill has just completed a study of our classes here at Holy Trinity from 1944 to 1954.

During that period, 203 people were confirmed. 110 of these are now active communicants of the parish. 28 have transferred to other parishes. 1 has gone to another communion. 15 have died. Of the remaining fifty-two, 23 are known to the parish, but are not now active members and have not asked for letters of transfer, and 29 are without local addresses and whereabouts are unknown. They have been transferred to the Diocesan Register.

The names of these twenty-nine people are: Ethel E. Baltz, Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. W. Bateson, Margaret Braccia, Mrs. Margaret Hamilton, Broomall, Mrs. Pauline Thorp Bryan, William Duval, Margaret Jane Everhart, George Douglas Grant, Mildred S. Hall, Starling Hall, Walter William Hargadine, Bertha Estella Hope, Charles Dean Hope, Jr., Mrs. Ethel Hoyt, Clarence Frederick Kuester, Elizabeth Jane Lowell, Frank T. Mitchell, Jr., Francis M. Mohr, Alan Peabody, David Herbert Pendleton, Frederick H. Runklewich, Jeanne Solimeo, Elizabeth B. Tobey, Mrs. Sara Scott Todd, Ann Williams, and Lillie Lee Winston. Perhaps you can help us locate them.

The General Convention

Members of the church will be hearing much about the General Convention of the Church in the next few months. It is to be held in Honolulu during the first two weeks of September. For the first time it is being held outside the continental United States, and for the first time it is meeting in a missionary district.

It is primarily an ecclesiastical synod, meeting every three years, the official legislature of the Episcopal Church. Its functions and procedures are carefully outlined in the Church's laws, the Constitution and Canons. It alone has the right to alter or revise The Book of Common Prayer; it alone may amend the Constitution; it alone may change the Canons. It is a bicameral legislature, in structure somewhat resembling the American Congress. Neither chamber may legislate by itself. Both houses must agree in all actions. The House of Deputies is a much larger chamber, with a potential membership of 654. It is equally divided between clerical deputies and lay deputies. The former must be priests. The latter must be adult, male communicants of some parish within the diocese they represent.

Also held in Honolulu during the period of the General Convention will be the Triennial Meeting of the Womens' Auxiliary. There are some five hundred delegates to this meeting, 250 women from each diocese and missionary district plus one additional delegate from each diocese and missionary district having a racial minority group of a certain size.

Shut-In's Day, June 5

Sunday, June 5, is the day of the Annual Observance by the Shut-In's Day Association of the United States of America, which is a nation-wide group to encourage remembrance of the handicapped and disabled civilian and war veteran by the public on Shut-In's Day and throughout the year. You are asked to visit shut-ins today, take someone for a ride in your car, take a gift to the bedridden.

Trinity Sunday

June 5, 1955

The observance of a special feast in honour of the Trinity began at Liege in the 10th century and became general in northern Europe before it made its way southward to Rome. It was established officially for the West in 1334, when it was fixed on the first Sunday after Pentecost.

Usually, the Gospel and Epistle on a given Sunday are the same in Anglican, Roman, and Lutheran churches. However, on Trinity Sunday, The Prayer Book follows an English tradition and uses the Gospel appointed as early as Bede for use on the Octave of Pentecost, for which it is admirably adapted, especially with its reference to baptism. But it was so appropriate to the Trinity festival likewise that no change was necessary when this Sunday received its dedication. The Roman missal has the purely Trinitarian passage Matthew 28:18-20. The Epistle also follows this tradition. The Roman missal has Romans 11:33-36 for this Sunday.

Words of the Anthem This Sunday

"The heavens are telling the glory of God, the wonder of his work displays the firmament to day that is coming speaks it the day, the night that is gone to following night. In all lands resounds the word, never unperceived, ever understood.

Down the Delaware Trip Planned

Saturday, June 11, "Episcopal Day" on the Wilson Line and at Riverview Beach Park. The Church Growth Committee is planning to make the trip and the chairman of the Committee, Mr. Leyshon, will have tickets available for any others who care to go. The cost is $1.25. For see Mr. Leyshon (LO 7-4058) if you wish tickets. This is a fellowship project in which all are welcome to share a pleasant day together.

Priests' Convention at Valley Forge Military Academy

This Sunday evening at eight o'clock, a so-called Priests' Convention opens a three-day session at the Valley Forge Military Academy chapel in Wayne with solemn Evensong. For those who may want to travel out the Main Line, it will be an opportunity to witness the fullness of liturgical tradition in the beauty of holiness.

United Thank Offering Presented

Holy Trinity thankfully presented its United Thank Offering at the Diocesan Service recently. The parish offering amounted to $733. The Diocesan Offering was over $23,000. This will be presented at the United Thank Offering service in Honolulu when the offerings from the whole Church are expected to be over two million dollars. Miss Margaret Kollock is United Thank Offering custodian for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. The Evening Auxiliary custodian is Mrs. Clyde W. Hoar.

F. Rudolph Goehring, Loyalty Sunday Chairman

Next fall's Loyalty Sunday observance will have F. Rudolph Goehring as the Every Member Canvass Chairman. The Rector has assumed this responsibility for the last three years. He is now glad to turn this over to a capable layman. Mr. Goehring will choose an assistant who, if planned, will succeed him in the following year.

Going Away for the Summer? Pay Your Pledge in Advance

Two or three of our families have already left Philadelphia for the summer. We know it to be true because last Sunday all of them sent in their pledge paid up into September. The Church must pay salaries and maintain itself throughout the summer months. Pay your pledge in advance, if going away, and help keep your church's credit good.

There Will Be Two Baptisms After the Service Today

Immediately after the morning service, Holy Baptism will be administered to George Evan Burkitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Burkitt, and Gina Maria Pinto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Biagio Pinto. Every church service is, of course, a public service in which all, the whole Church, are participants; and members of the congregation are invited to be assistants at this service.

Words of the Anthem

"Jubilate, Amen. Hark! the morning hymn is stealing o'er the waters soft and clear; nearer and yet nearer pealing, farther now, and farther stealing. And now breaks upon the ear. Now the sunlit waves retreating, to the shore it dies along; now like angry surges meeting, breaks the tide, the mingled tide of song. Hush! again like waves retreating, to the shore it dies along.

Open House at Holiday House, June 19

On Sunday, June 19, all are invited to visit Holiday House at Sellersville on Route 309, between the hours of 3:00 and 7:00 P. M. Refreshments will be served and there will be conducted tours of the grounds. There will also be opportunity to enjoy the broad verandas.

If you wish transportation, sign your name on the sheet in the church porch and if possible (note that "if possible"), transportation will be arranged. If it is possible, you will be notified.

Mr. Parkhill Accepts Call in Foxburg

The Reverend Ralph Parkhill has presented his resignation as Assistant Minister, to take effect on July 1, to accept a call to the Memorial Church of Our Father in Foxburg, Pennsylvania. Although he has been with us only a short time, he has made many friends who will miss him and whose prayers will go with him in his new work. Mr. Parkhill plans to take a vacation between now and the assuming of his new duties.

How Goes It With Our Youth?

The Church School adjourns on the 19th with a promotion program and Father's Day-only Picnic at Holiday House. Classes resume September 18, to include a class for parents and grandparents, family worship, a teacher training program, and longer periods of instruction.

Twenty-four educators, representing as many center-city scholastic institutions, met at the parish house recently to discuss the needs of their students. Two student representatives from each school met later to discuss their problems and to ask how we could help. Plans are underway to meet those needs through the Church's leadership.

Trinity Club for young adults has many interesting events planned for this summer. 70 young adults will go to Holiday House on the 24th for the weekend. The weekly program, beginning September 18 with Sunday supper at six, followed by resumption of Choral Evening, has already been planned for 1955-56.

Some twelve young married couples, meeting for a covered-dish supper at the Merion Rectory, decided to do things together from time to time, inviting other young couples to join them. Immediate plans are to picnic together August 20 and have a fall dinner-party October 7.

During the Summer, Remember the Fall Bazaar

Whether you are traveling afar, or spending the summer in cool vacation spots, or in your pleasant home, please remember the Bazaar. Plan to make or bring home something for one of the many tables or for a door prize.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild holds this bazaar each year for the benefit of the missionary work of the church. This year it will be held at the Barclay Hotel on November 10, which is earlier than usual. This means that we must plan and work for it during the summer.
Many things are needed—fancy goods, children's clothes and toys, useful articles, "white elephants," and door prizes are among them. Please help us to make it the most successful of all bazaars when we gather at the Barclay on November 10.
—Nellie Poyntz Ferry.

Notes

THE RECTOR is away this Sunday delivering two Baccalaureate sermons,—Sunday morning at the Church Farm School and Sunday evening at the Baldwin School.

THE PAST TWO SUNDAYS, Pentecost and Trinity Sunday, were glorious over at Holy Trinity. Over five hundred were present at the two services on Whitsunday, when men from the Canadian navy worshipped with us. Last Sunday, about three hundred received Holy Communion at the eleven o'clock service.

SPECIAL THANKS to three ladies who have been coming in on Wednesdays to help with the mailing of the Bulletin: Miss Mary C. Buchanan, Miss Mae M. Steward, and Mrs.
Arthur H. Stone. With the inserts when there is a Sunday evening service, and special mailings at other times, this is a time-consuming job. Thanks so much for your gracious help.

THE COFFEE OR JUICE HOUR after church may continue during the summer in the yard. If so, listen for the announcement at church this Sunday.

This Saturday's Boat Trip

You can still buy tickets and go on the boat trip this Saturday to Riverview Beach Park.
Tickets are $1.25 and can be obtained either at the Parish House (LO 7-1267) or from Mr.
Edward Leyshon (LO 7-4058). The boat leaves from Chestnut Street Wharf at 10:00 A.M., arriving at 7:00 P. M.

THIS IS THE LAST BULLETIN TO BE MAILED UNTIL SEPTEMBER.

A Great Year Begins Today at Holy Trinity

In 1956, The Church of the Holy Trinity will complete a hundred years of service in Philadelphia. 1957 is its centennial year. Although the city has changed and the living habits are different today, Holy Trinity's ministry continues with its usefulness still un-

1955-56 will be a great year. The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and the Evening Auxiliary have planned fine programs for their meetings. Speakers will include the Vice-President of the Church's National Council, Bishop Bentley; the Director of the Home Department, The Reverend William Wright; The Reverend Thorne Sparkman, Rector of The Church of the Holy Trinity, Bryn Mawr; The Reverend Arnold Purdie, Director of the City Mission; and others.

The Lenten Noon-Day speakers will include The Reverend Roy S. Lee, Rector of the Unity Church, Oxford, England; Paul Austin Wolfe of The Brick Church, New York; The Reverend Charles Kean of The Church of the Epiphany, Washington; with The Reverend on Hale Bishop preaching again; and others.

The Trinity Club Program during the coming months lists such speakers as Dean Thomas of Temple University; Dean Nichols of The University of Pennsylvania speaking on "Social Values and Christian Principles"; and, on every fourth Sunday, a missionary from one of the Church's frontier stations. On Sunday, October 2, at 8:00 P. M., the choir sings "The Creation" by Haydn as the first of eight great oratorios on first Sunday evenings.

Bible Classes Will Begin Monday, Tuesday, October 10 and 11

The Rector's Bible Classes will begin a nine-weeks' course at 7:45 P. M. on Monday, October 10, and 10:45 A. M. on Tuesday, October 11, continuing every Monday and Tuesday through the first week in December. The topic chosen for the fall series is "The Scriptural Sources for the Nicene Creed." This will involve a study, not only of the Church's faith, but also its biblical background.

Confirmation Classes Begin Sunday, October 9, at 2:30 P. M.

Bishop Hart will visit the parish on Sunday, December 4, for Confirmation. Classes in preparation will begin on Sunday, October 9, at 2:30 P. M. in the church and continue for eight weeks. It should be noted that these classes are not only for Confirmation candidates, but are open to all interested people, whether confirmed already or not—inquirers only—anyone. The instruction in the classes is in Church history, the faith, the ethic, the sacraments, The Book of Common Prayer, personal devotion, and one class in particular on the Holy Communion.

Sermons During October

On October 2, World-Wide Communion Sunday, the Rector's sermon will be about the Holy Communion as Episcopalians see it. On October 9, a series of three sermons begins with the general title, "What do you want out of life?", and the title of the first sermon is, "Who wants to live?" October 16, "Who wants to be good?" October 23, "Who wants to be brave?" The sermon October 30 will be on "Christ, the King."

A Sample of What Goes On

For instance, last summer one of our Holy Trinity families, consisting of a husband and wife, both of whom are between seventy-eight and eighty years old, found it necessary to move where they were living. It was extremely difficult for them to find a new place, furnished. What happened? About twenty Holy Trinity people put their heads together and, with the help of the Philadelphia Housing Authority, found a suitable place for the couple at about half their present rent, collected and refinished furnishings for three rooms, secured rugs, bought a set of dishes, and resettled these two communicants of the parish.

Become A Part of Your World This Sunday

On this Sunday, October 2, 1955, it is the hope of the Christian Church in every part of the world that every person who calls himself or herself "Christian," whether Anglican, Orthodox, Protestant, or Roman Catholic, will, if he or she is in anyway able to do so, be present at the Lord's table and participate in the Holy Communion. This vast corporate act of the whole Church will begin with the first Christians on the other side of the international date line—in the Fiji islands and New Zealand. It will be six o'clock on Saturday evening here, eleven o'clock on Sunday morning in New Zealand. As the hands go around the clock, every hour of the twenty-four, Christians will kneel at their altars. And, thus, millions will witness to their common faith in Christ Incarnate and their common love of God who first loved them.

This Tuesday, 6:00 P. M., First Evening Auxiliary Meeting

All business and professional women and all women of the parish who cannot attend daytime meeting are invited to attend the monthly meetings of the Evening Auxiliary. Past leaders this year include such people as Bishop Bentley, the Vice President of the Church's National Council; The Reverend Thorne Sparkman, rector of the Church of Redeemer, Bryn Mawr; William Wright, director of the Church's national work in the fields, on the college campus, with minority groups; T. J. Gibbons, Commissioner of Police in Philadelphia; and others.

At the first meeting this Tuesday evening, Dr. Longley will show movies of his recent trip to Honolulu and will talk about the Church's General Convention and show slides of what happened there. You are invited to be a part of this meeting.

Reservations for dinner ($1.25) must reach the parish house before Monday noon, October 3rd. Call LO 7-1267.

NOTE: The Evening Auxiliary's Corporate Communion will be on Sunday, October 9, one week from this Sunday at the 8 A. M. Service with breakfast served afterward in the parish house.

Robert Elmore Resigns

Robert Elmore has resigned his position as Choirmaster and Organist at Holy Trinity to take a position at the Second Moravian Church in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. His going is a loss to us in this parish. He has been with us for seventeen years and his outstanding personality coupled with his deep spirituality have endeared him to us all. He leaves to take up his work on November first. Our prayers and our true affection will go with him.

The Bazaar, Annual Autumn Event, November 10th

Once again, the women of the parish are beginning to look forward to the Annual Christmas gift bazaar and card party. This year, the Bazaar will again be at the Barclay, 18th and Rittenhouse Square, on Thursday, November 10th.

Everyone is invited to join in the preparations for the event. The Committee asks you to help by contributing one or more articles that the tables may be well stocked with attractive things. Donations for the Fancy and Useful tables, aprons and handkerchiefs will be welcomed, as well as salable items for the popular White Elephant stall. Promises of cake and candy for those tables will be most appreciated. An interesting and popular part of the fair is the Book Table which features the newest books right from the publishers at no advance in prices. This is the place to buy books for Christmas giving. Donations of non-perishable articles plainly marked "Bazaar," and with your name, may be sent to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, anytime before November 5th. Candies, cakes, and salted nuts may be sent to the Barclay before noon, November 10th.

Be a partner in making this year's bazaar the greatest ever. Everyone can help. For further information, call Mrs. George Eyre Smith, Phone GE 8-9341.

NOTES

CONFIRMATION CLASSES begin on Sunday, October 9th, in the church at 2:30 in the afternoon. It is emphasized that the classes are open to all whether already confirmed, planning to be confirmed, or not. Inquirers are very welcome. All who plan to be confirmed when Bishop Hart visits the parish on December 4th are asked to attend the eight classes.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES start on Monday, October 10th, at 7:45 P. M. with a biblical class the next morning, October 11th, at 10:45 A. M. There will be nine classes in series. The subject of the classes: "The Scriptural Sources of the Nicene Creed."

House of Rest's Annual Donation Day

All people are invited by the Bishop of the Diocese to visit the House of Rest, 5919 Wayne Avenue, Germantown, this coming Tuesday afternoon, October 4, from 2 until 5 o'clock. This is the official Diocesan Home for the Aged. Go and see how attractive it is and how happy are the people who live there. Many Holy Trinity people help with its upkeep. Should you wish to do so, checks may be made payable to "The House of Rest."

6:00 P.M.—Trinity Club Supper

(For all young adults—of all churches or none)

1904 Walnut Street, Parish House

Tonight's Subject: “The Christian Doctrine of Creation” (first in a first Sunday series, “The Christian Faith—Some Theological Foundations.”) Tonight's Speaker: Dr. Arthur Holmes, Retired President of Drake University; Teacher, Author, Philosopher.

The Coffee Hour following the service is for all—enjoy it with us!

Note

Trinity Club greets the newest youth group sponsored by Holy Trinity, an Inter-School Student Council. On invitation of Mr. Pollanick, some twenty-four administrators of Center schools met at “1904” last May to discuss student needs. Later, their student representatives met for similar discussion, out of which has grown this group of liaison representatives to meet the needs of students in their respective institutions, on an inter-school basis, with Trinity as a Student Center. This is the fruit of some four years of work by our Associate Rector. We watch this promising and worthwhile student activity with real interest.

The Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

8:00 A.M.—Holy Communion

At the eight o'clock service this Sunday, the members of the Evening Auxiliary will be present together at Holy Communion to ask God's blessing on their work during the coming year of activity. They will meet for breakfast afterward in the Parish House.

2:30 P.M.—Adult Confirmation Class

This is the first of eight classes in preparation for Confirmation when Bishop Hart visits the parish on December 4. All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend each class and to make up any that are missed.

However, all people, whether confirmed or not, whether Episcopalians or not, if only interested, are not only welcome, but invited to these classes.

The classes will follow the same general outline as in past years and will be supplemented by mimeographed summaries. They are about the Episcopal Church, its history, faith, ethics, sacraments, worship, and life. Most Episcopal adults probably need these classes. Here is an opportunity during the next two months to know your Church better.

8:00 P.M.—Evening Prayer

(See inserted sheet.)

Woman's Auxiliary (Day Group) Begins Year on Thursday

Members of The Women's Auxiliary and Guild will begin their year at the Altar next Thursday noon at the service of Holy Communion at 12:15. After the service, they will go to the Parish House for luncheon and to hear Mrs. David W. Clark as the speaker in the first talk of the year's series on "Christian Witness." Mrs. Clark represents the work of the Home Department (formerly "Domestic Missions") of the National Church. She will talk about the Church's care for the Indian people of North America, especially in relation to the Indian's adjustment to modern urban life. Mrs. Clark has worked for many years among the Indians.

In connection with Mrs. Clark's talk, a motion picture on the Indian Americans, "Window in the Sky," will be shown.

All women of the parish are invited to attend. No special invitation is necessary. Reservations for lunch ($1.00) must reach the Parish House by Tuesday, October 11 Phone LO 7-1267).

F. Rudolph Goehring, Jack F. Bowling, Every Member Canvass Chairmen

F. Rudolph Goehring, Every Member Canvass chairman, has announced that Jack F. Bowling has accepted his appointment as Canvass co-chairman. They have set November 20 as the first day of the Canvass. Invitations will shortly go out to selected members of the parish to assist in the Loyalty Sunday organization. In the meantime, all members of the parish are asked to be ready for the Canvass on Sunday morning, November 20, for the Church.

The Rector's Bible Classes Begin This Week

On Monday night at 7:45 P. M., with an identical class the next morning, Tuesday, at 10:45 A. M., a nine weeks' series of Bible classes will begin under the leadership of the Rector. This fall's study will be "The Scriptural Sources for The Nicene Creed."

Everyone is welcome at the Rector's Bible classes. They meet in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. Last spring, about one hundred and fifty people enrolled in the classes. You will be welcome.

Eugene Roan to Be New Choirmaster and Organist

The Bulletin is privileged to announce that Eugene Roan has accepted the invitation of the Rector and the Vestry to succeed Robert Elmore as choirmaster and organist at Holy Trinity. Mr. Roan will take up his work here on November 1st.

Mr. Roan is a graduate of The Curtis Institute of Music with a Bachelor of Music degree. He is at present working for his Master's at the Westminster Choir College in Princeton. During the past year, he has been organist at the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church. Before that, he was at St. Mary's, Hamilton Village. Recently, he was the organist-accompanist for a series of hymn recordings to be released by the Episcopal Church National Council's Commission on Radio and Television.

Notes

A PRAYER GROUP is meeting every Thursday morning at 11:45 before the 12:15 service to study the life of prayer and to offer prayer for the needs of people. The group meets in the front seats of the south aisle (Gospel side) of the church. Anyone, men or women, is welcome to join the group.

THE SEWING GROUP resumes its Monday morning meetings this Monday at 10:30 A. M. in the Parish House. Each one is asked to bring her own sandwich. Dessert and coffee served at a minimum cost. All who like to sew are invited to come.

THE CHURCH GROWTH COMMITTEE, Mr. Edward S. Leyshon, chairman, recently sent letters to members of the radio congregation, especially inviting them to church on September 25th. As a result, not only was the nave of the church filled that morning, but 41 letters to listeners unable to attend were written to the Committee. Nearly $600 was sent to help the Broadcasting Fund.

LAST SUNDAY, 620 people attended the services during the day. More than three hundred and seventy-five received Holy Communion at the morning services.

BISHOP HART commends The United Community Campaign to the people of the Diocese. Certainly, the members of Holy Trinity will be generous contributors. The Episcopal City Mission is one of the beneficiaries of the Fund. Let us here remember that "He who gives to help the unfortunate of this world, gives to the Lord."

Words of the Anthem

"Be calm and peaceful and trust in God, on His bounteous love relying. In Him true peace abides, without Him vain is striving. He is our Friend and Guide, our Saviour, who leads to life eternal. In Him is true peace. He knows our needs and will comfort us when we ask His guidance. Trust, and no ills o'erwhelm thee; always in His love believing. He is our Hope, our Strength, Life giver, who leads us to the perfect life. In Him is true peace."

2:30 P.M.—Adult Confirmation Class

Today's Subject: The Faith of the Church

This class is for all who wish to attend. Those who are planning to be confirmed when Bishop Hart visits the parish on December 4 are asked to attend all the classes. This is the last day for confirmation candidates to join this class. However, anyone may attend whether already confirmed or not—inquirers are very welcome.

Monday Evenings: 7:45 P. M.

Tuesday Mornings: 10:45 A. M.

"The Scriptural Sources of the Nicene Creed"

Excerpts from the Bishop's 1955 Pastoral Letter

Issued in Honolulu at the Close of General Convention

In relation to the world-wide mission of our Church, the Bishops have written this: "Of the population of God's world is crowded into the lands toward which we look—the Pacific and Asia. In all these lands, save those populated by white men migrated from the West, there is a tidal upheaval of deprived, hungry peoples struggling for food and nationhood and human status and acceptance, and resentful towards the West and towards the white man and his pride and power.

"These people are in full revolt against foreign political and economic control, against colonialism and imperialism. They are in revolt against age-old poverty and misery . . . they are in revolt against the western white man's assumption of permanent superiority . . ."

"In all this we are summoned as Christians to recognize the judgments of God, which are the disclosures of the contradictions between our human ways and His design for His people.

" . . . Plainly a deep-going reorientation in the method and spirit of our mission is called for. Only Asians can carry the main weight in witnessing for Christ to Asians. We cannot leave our Church and our institutions in Asia and then take pride because they are ours. We can only hope to plant Christ's Church in Asia with the full understanding that it will be theirs for Him.

"When God entered the world redemptively in Christ, He identified Himself with our humanity. He put Himself at our mercy; and when we had done our worst was raised up in answer. He is calling us who are His people so to identify ourselves with our brethren that we put ourselves at their mercy, offering our gifts and our service to them without the will to control or take credit.

"By bringing us here to the mid-Pacific, God has called us to open our ears to the cries for help that come to us from the Churches of Asia. If we hear those calls, we will be greatly concerned that the actions of our nation and the attitudes of our American people shall be guided and overruled by the purpose of God for the peoples of Asia, and not simply by our shortsighted judgments of what will be to our immediate political, military, or economic advantage. For nation and Church alike, His will is our peace."

"We have painted with a large brush what God has enabled us to see here. We beseech you, brethren, to share our thankfulness to God for what He has done with the too-little offerings of self and substance we have given. Join your prayers with ours that God will open to us the ways in which we can fulfill more worthily our Church's mission in Asia. Stand ready to offer your gifts and yourselves. Search your hearts for whatever blocks the way between us and our brethren."

A Note from Your Rector

For various reasons, partly because I have been trying to do a creditable job as Director of the Department of Promotion in The Diocese, by the Bishop's appointment, and partly because I feel a certain responsibility as a delegate to the General Convention, I have accepted more engagements outside the parish during the present five weeks than I should have. And, because my conscience tells me that it means that I must be neglecting certain parish duties, I feel that I want to share with you what I am doing and ask your prayers and your understanding.

On the evenings of September 27, 28, and 29 and October 3, 5, and 6, I conducted six Department of Promotion meetings in the six Diocesan Convocations. On October 9 in the afternoon, I spoke to a college group at St. Mark's on the General Convention; October 10 in the morning, spoke at a Diocesan Clergy Conference at Denbigh; on October 18 I am to speak at St. Mary's, Ardmore, Men's Club; October 19, St. Mark's, Frankford, at a Promotion meeting; October 20, at 11:15, Good Shepherd, Germantown, and at 6:00, St. Mary's, Hamilton Village, at the General Convention; October 25, at the South Philadelphia Convocation; October 30, 1:00 A. M., at St. Martin's, Radnor; November 2, 6:30, St. Peter's, Glenside; and November 6:30, St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, to the Every Member Canvassers. After that, I hope to settle down. In the meantime, of course, there are our own Bible and Confirmation classes. So please bear with me.—H. L.

This Is "World Order Week"

October 24th is the tenth anniversary of the first meeting of the United Nations. The United Nations is both a symbol and a method for strengthening the foundations of freedom, peace, and security in the world. It can help fulfill the promise of those "unalienable Rights" which the Creator has endowed His children. Mankind, under God, is one. He in whose image we are made summons us to persevere in the task of achieving for our own and other nations that peace and concord that are the fruits of world community.

Bishop Hart has suggested the following prayer to be said each day this coming week: O ETERNAL GOD, we beseech thee for all who serve in the United Nations Organization. Grant thy blessing upon their endeavors to heal the wounds of the world through cooperation in education and other fields of human service; and may thy Holy Spirit so guide their deliberations in Council and Assembly, that all causes of strife may be removed, and peace and concord be secured among all the peoples of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Church World Service

THE NEED CONTINUES! A multitude of refugees now face the pinch of winter with the tatters of our last donated garments to shield them from the biting cold. WILL YOU HELP TO CLOTHE THEM ONCE AGAIN?

Receptacles will be in the church porch on October 23rd and 30th to receive your clean, warm clothing in wearable condition. Essential, (in order of priority) men's trousers, suits, coats, sturdy shoes, etc.; women's and children's warm clothing of any kind; babies, layettes, diapers; other needs, blankets, sheets, remnants and sewing utensils. PLEASE!!

Recent Transfers to Holy Trinity

Miss Barbara Ann Blair, from St. Martin's-in-the-Field; Mrs. Leonard W. Coleman, from St. Shepherd Memorial; Miss Salome H. Metzger, from Holy Innocents Chapel, St. Mary's Church, Burlington, New Jersey; Mrs. Maria E. "Turn back O Man, forswear thy foolish ways. Old now is Earth, and none may count days. Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame, still wilt not hear thine inner voice proclaim, 'Turn back O Man, forswear thy foolish ways!' Earth might be fair and all glad and wise, age after age their tragic empires rise. Built while thy dream, and in that dream weep. Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep. Earth might be fair and all glad and wise. Earth shall be fair, and all her people one, nor till that hour shall God's work will be done. Now, even now, once more from earth to sky peals forth in joy man's old haunted cry 'Earth shall be fair, and all her folk be one!'"

The Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity

October 30, 1955

Daylight Saving Time ends this week. The time on Sunday, don't forget, will be "Time" again in more ways than one.

8:00 A.M.—Holy Communion

10:45 A.M.—The Church School

11:00 A.M.—Morning Prayer

Today's service has special significance in several ways. First of all, it is Robert Elm's last morning service at The Church of the Holy Trinity after seventeen years with us, with the greatest regret that we see him leave us, but we wish him the greatest joy in his work. His time here has been a blessing to us all.

Also, today, as on coming fifth Sundays in the month, we shall have the presence of the Church School choir in the chancel. We rejoice in the growth of our Church School and appreciate this glimpse of their activities.

Finally, the fall ingathering of the United Thank Offering will take place today and all of the parish will receive the offerings of the people at the time of the Offertory.

Tuesday, November First, Is All Saints' Day

In accordance with our usual custom, we shall remember at the Altar on All Saints' Day, the Church's memorial day, all those for whom the clergy of this parish have read the Burial Service during the year since last All Saints' Day. Many of these were not members of Holy Trinity, but for various reasons called on us when death came. We shall remember them all on Tuesday, both at the 7:30 A. M. service and at 12:15 (noon), praying that in the mercy of God they may forever grow in love and service. Their names are these:

United Thank Offering Presentation This Sunday Morning

Once each year, the United Thank Offering of the women of the Church is collected and read at the Altar. The offerings are used for the missionary work of the Church. On special occasions, it is our privilege to have women in the parish receive the offerings at the 6 o'clock service. Envelopes are provided in the pews for all women who have not given their thankofferings in some other way through their auxiliary meetings.

It is a truly remarkable thing that over the last three-year period between General Conventions the United Thank Offerings from the whole Church totalled $3,149,197.83.

Evening Auxiliary Meets Next Tuesday Evening

The Reverend Thorne Sparkman, Rector of The Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, will speak on "Personal Religion" at the dinner meeting of the Evening Auxiliary on Tuesday evening at six o'clock. All business and professional women and all who cannot attend a daytime meeting are invited to the meetings of the Evening Auxiliary. The dinner is $1.25. Reservations (Call the Parish Office, LO 7-1267) should be made by October 31.

Notes

THE CANDY TABLE at the Bazaar, November 10, at the Barclay, is again under the direction of Mrs. Charles F. Derby. She hopes that there may be many donations of homemade candy.

CLOTHING for Church World Service will again be received this morning. Containers will be found in the church porch.

LOYALTY SUNDAY is November 20th. Plan now to be in church on that day.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES, Mondays, 7:45 P. M.; Tuesdays, 10:45 A. M.

The Use of the Parish House

Last week, although there were no unusual meetings and no parish organizations other than the Church Club had meetings, might still be called a typical week. There were activities in progress every evening but one, ranging from the Rector's Bible Class to a meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous and a Trinity Club dance. Close to four hundred people used the building.

Here's One for the Book

The Rector receives many letters each day from radio listeners. Often, they seek advice and counsel. Often they are letters of sincere gratefulness for the Sunday morning services. Not long ago they read like this one, which came last week: "Today part of my family went to the Garden State. My Mrs. and I intended to play 3-1, the Daily Double. Late Tuesday I changed my mind and said to myself, I better send my dollar to Rev. Longley. As the results came out seven and two, I am happy I did not play, as my dollar sent to Rev. Longley helped to rescue more immortal souls than the race track."

Next Thursday, November 10, Visit the Bazaar

The Bazaar at the Barclay is always fabulous—something you should come to, if only to see it. It takes place next Thursday, begins at noon, at the Barclay, Rittenhouse Square and 17th Street, to the left as you enter the hotel door. Not only is it an opportunity to buy cheap Christmas gifts, to pick up just the white elephant that you need, to take home a piece of candy and pastry, to buy the latest books, fancy and useful articles, but also you can spend the afternoon playing bridge at the bazaar card party.

The proceeds of the Bazaar are used toward the women's share of the missionary work of the Church, at home and abroad. Come and enjoy it. Come and help your Church.

Loyalty Sunday Is November Twentieth

The Loyalty Sunday Team is now being put together by Chairman F. R. Goehring, together with his co-chairman, Admiral Jack F. Bowling. Members of the Loyalty Sunday Team (to date, more to come) are: Mr. Kenneth Baird, Miss May Belle Baird, Mr. Walter L. Bartholomew, Jr., Mr. Newell C. Bradley, Mr. Francis J.
Chesterman, Mr. David L. Copson, Miss Sophia Ewell, Miss Gwen Grant, Mr. Henry
Kercher, Mrs. Robert S. Kitchel, Mr. William E. Krall, Miss Marjorie Layman, Mr.
Donald S. Leas, Miss Mary E. Maguire, Mr. E. R. McQuillan, Miss Eleanor Meagher, Mr. Charles L. Rapp, Mr. Douglas A. Schoerke, and Mr. Robert J. Walton. The Captains of the Loyalty Sunday Teams are: Mr. Charles W. H. Bancroft, Mr. Merrill A. Kercher, Mr. Frank N. Kneas, Mr. Robert B. Platt, Mrs. B. Mercer Reese, and Mr. William M. West.

Members of the Loyalty Sunday Team will meet for dinner on Wednesday evening, November 16, at six o'clock in the Parish House.

Every member of the Parish is asked to be in church at eleven o'clock on Sunday, November 20, for the Loyalty Sunday service.

New Choirmaster and Organist Takes Over This Sunday

Eugene Roan has succeeded Robert Elmore as choirmaster and organist at The Church of Holy Trinity and begins his duties with our congregation today. Mr. Roan is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music with a Bachelor of Music degree. He is at present working as Master's at the Westminster Choir College in Princeton. For the past two years, he has been organist at the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church.

Notes

MONDAY at 7:45, TUESDAY at 10:45, the Rector's Bible Class.

THURSDAY at 8:00 P. M., the Diocesan United Thank Offering service at Holy Trinity with the Reverend Eduardo Longid of the Philippine Islands as the preacher. Bishop Hart will conduct the service.

PAMPHLETS are available in the rack at the rear of the church. They may suggest a thought to you which will lighten a burden or inspire a new way of living. Look them over.
The Episcopal Church News is also on sale. It helps you to keep informed about what people are doing and thinking in your Church.

The Octave of All Saints

"For those we love within the veil,
Who once were comrades of our way,
We thank thee, Lord; for they have won
To cloudless day.

"Free from the fret of mortal years,
And knowing now thy perfect will,
With quickened sense and heightened joy,
They serve thee still.

"Nor know to what high purpose thou
Dost yet employ their ripened powers,
Nor how at thy behest they touch
This life of ours."

From the Parish Register

We welcome to Holy Trinity John Graham, Jr., who has transferred from The Church the Resurrection, and Miss Annabel D. Maxwell, who has transferred from St. Stephen's Church, Wilkes-Barre.

Last Sunday afternoon, Selby Lane Beebe received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beebe, former Philadelphians and members of Holy Trinity who are now living in New York City.

Not until the Vestry knows what the people of the parish will do to support the work at Trinity will a budget for next year be made. It must be apparent to many that the fabric of the buildings is "run down" and "shabby". We need to "spruce up", but is expensive, would run into thousands of dollars for new seat cushions, new floor cover-painting here and there, furniture repair, and such items. We need certain new office ment. Yet we can do none of these things and also carry on our present program at the time.

But we could do all this and more if all the people of this parish would do what many are doing in ever-increasing numbers—give five per cent of their annual income to the Church.

Your Rector asks all of you, before Loyalty Sunday, November 20, to think seriously about this matter. He asks you to get out pencil and paper and put the figures down. It is a searching question—are you dedicated enough to your Lord and His Church to give, at a minimum, five per cent of your income to His work? Can you, in love, do less? Are you honestly unable? Surely every sincerely dedicated parishioner will give this careful thought.

Miss Betty H. Wilson. They will meet for dinner on this coming Wednesday night promptly at six o'clock in preparation for Loyalty Sunday.

Make this Loyalty Sunday a great mobilization of dedicated people that Holy Trinity may and worthily in Center City as a witness to the everlasting righteousness of God in Christ.

Woman's Auxiliary Meets Thursday, the 17th

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild (day group) will meet at 2:30 P. M. on Thursday, November 17th, in the parish house. This season's program is based on the general theme,
"Christian Witness." The subject for this meeting is "Witness in the Nation." Dr. Longley, Rector, will give an account of the Triennial Convention, held in September in Honolulu.

All women of the parish are invited to attend. No special invitation is necessary.

Notes

FIVE LARGE CARTONS of clothes given by Holy Trinity people were sent to the World Service shipment center at New Windsor, Maryland, last week. From there, they will go to strategic centers of need to "clothe the naked." There are still millions of people in this world of ours. This is one way in which we help.

A REFUGEE FAMILY will soon be on its way to us from across the Atlantic under the sponsorship of Holy Trinity Parish. Work has been secured for these people. Housing must be found for them at a cost which they can pay. Mrs. Harry Angstadt has been representing this project.

CHRIST CHURCH HOSPITAL donation day is this coming Thursday from 2 to 5. Visit hospital, have tea there. Location? 49th and Monument Road.

THANKSGIVING DAY

9 A. M., Holy Communion; 11 A. M., Morning Prayer; 12:15, Holy Communion

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge,—others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of a doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time. May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

STAY AT HOMES WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in or ill or prevented by conditions of work and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you can.

Words of the Anthem

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness, prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Ev'ry valley shall be exalted, and ev'ry mountain and hill made low: the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. The voice said, Cry. What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the greenness thereof is as the flower that is in the field, the grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand forever. Amen."

$44,116 Pledged on Sunday

Exceeding last year's Sunday total by $6,560, the amount pledged toward the work of The Church of the Holy Trinity last Sunday was $44,116. It is expected that more than fifty thousand dollars will be received before the Canvass ends. The Canvass team hopes to complete the work among everyone before the end of this week.

Congratulations to F. R. Goehring and his co-chairman, Jack F. Bowling and to all the fifty-five members of the Canvass team. Congratulations to the loyal people of The Church of the Holy Trinity, who are standing so splendidly behind the work of this church in the city.

Vestry Approves Plans for Church Basement Room

At its meeting last Monday, the Vestry of the parish approved plans for the construction of an assembly room in the basement of the church building. The room is designed to seat one hundred and seventy-five people at dinner and two hundred at a non-dinner meeting. A new kitchen, with modern equipment, in the church basement is part of the plan. Entrance to the room will be from Walnut Street and also through an enclosed entrance in the alleyway from the present parish house. Plans are being submitted to the city for bidding this week. The cost of this work is expected to be in the neighborhood of forty thousand dollars and funds from an undesignated legacy will be used to finance it.

"Interesting" Information on the Inserted Sheet

On the Bulletin insert this week, there is an extremely interesting summary of the religious affiliations of the members of our Sunday night young adult Trinity Club group. Of particular interest is the fact that 105 of the group are Episcopalians. Twenty of these have become members of Holy Trinity and many of the other eighty-five consider Holy Trinity their parish, even though they have not yet officially transferred here.

Thank You, Bazaar Workers

The Committee for the Bazaar takes this opportunity to thank all the friends who, by their interest, their work, and their donations, contributed to the success of the Bazaar—held on November 10 at the Barclay. It is not possible to express our gratitude to each person, except through this Sunday leaflet, but the Committee wants you to know how greatly your help is appreciated. A definite financial report is not possible, at this time, but it is expected to approximate last year's net proceeds of seventeen hundred dollars. Thank you.

—Mrs. George Eyre Smith

Note

It is interesting to note who comes to Trinity Club. Of the 266 young adults registered since September 18, 105 claim to be Episcopalians, 31 Presbyterians, 23 Methodists, 19 Baptists, 18 Lutherans, 7 Dutch Reformed, 4 Roman Catholics, 3 Friends, 3 Church of England, 2 Unitarians, 2 Brethren, 2 Congregationalists, 1 Christian Scientist, 1 Church of Christ, 1 Greek Orthodox, 1 Ethical Society, 4 "Protestant" and 39 "No Claims." We are pleased to have become a Church where youth—of all churches or none—find Trinity Club active, informative and purposeful, and a friendly welcome, congeniality and young adult Christian fellowship at its very best!

Words of the Anthem

“Oh! for a closer walk with God, a calm and heav'nly frame! A light to shine upon my road that leads me to the Lamb! What peaceful hours I once enjoyed! How sweet their memory still! But they have left an aching void the world can never fill. Return, O holy Dove! return, sweet messenger of rest! I hate the sins that made Thee mourn, and drove Thee from my home. The dearest idol I have known, whate'er that idol be, help me to tear it from Thy throne, and worship only Thee. So shall my walk be close with God, calm and serene my frame, so purer light shall mark the road that leads me to the Lamb!”

The Bishop's Visitation

The Canon law of the Church (Canon 43, Section 2a) requires that every Bishop visit the congregations in his Diocese at least once in every three years to examine their condition, “inspect the behavior of the clergy,” administer Confirmation, preach the word, also to examine the records of the parish in the Parish Register where are recorded Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, Burials. A record is also required of the names of all communicants within the parish.

Here Are the People Who Have Become Members of Holy Trinity During 1955 The Members of the Confirmation Class, December 11, 1955

Note: The Canon law of the Church reads: “A communicant or baptized member of good standing, removing from one parish to another, shall be entitled to receive a letter of transfer.” Bishop Hart comments on this as follows: “If a person moves from one locality to another and still desires to go back to the parish in which he was confirmed and be active in that parish, the Church encourages him to do so. If a person moves to a new locality and is not going to remain active in his own parish, the Rector of the former parish should encourage him to ask for a letter of transfer.” Note that the Canon says, “He shall procure one.”

Evening Auxiliary Meets Tuesday at 6:00 P. M.

The work of The Episcopal City Mission will be described by its director, the Reverend J. D. Purdie, at the meeting of the Evening Auxiliary this Tuesday, December 7, for dinner at 6:00 P. M. This is the third talk in the Auxiliary series on “Christian Witness” and tells of the Church's witness in the community. All business and professional women, and others who cannot attend a daytime meeting, are welcomed at the Evening Auxiliary dinners. No special invitation is necessary. Dinner reservations ($1.25) must be made by Monday noon, December 5. (Call LO 7-1267)

Note also: The Evening Auxiliary annual “Christmas Get-together” will be on Monday, December 12, at 7:00 P. M. There will be the wrapping of candy which is given to Byberry Hospital and carol singing.

Women's Auxiliary and Guild Meets This Thursday at 1:00 P. M.

Opening with luncheon at 1:00 P. M., following the Holy Communion in the church at 1:30 P. M. the Women's Auxiliary and Guild (day group) will hear Mrs. U. S. Beath speak of the work of The Episcopal City Mission at its meeting on Thursday, December 8. The Mission story is a thrilling one. Be sure to hear Mrs. Beath.

All women of the parish are invited to attend, no special invitation is necessary. Reservations for lunch ($1.00) must reach the Parish House not later than Tuesday, December 6.

Quiet Day, December 9, Trinity Memorial, 10:30 to 12:30

The Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Newark, New Jersey, the Reverend John B. Coburn, will conduct the Advent Quiet Day of the Pennsylvania branch of the Women's Auxiliary, at Trinity Memorial, 22nd and Spruce Streets, Friday, December 9, from 10:30 to 12:30. All women are invited to attend.

 Story:

"SLEEPERS WAKE"

J. S. BACH

The text is based on the first thirteen verses of Chapter XXV of the Gospel of St. Matthew, the parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins. The opening Choral Fantasia is one of Bach's most dramatic. The prelude to the entrance of the Chorus describes vividly the awakening and confusion of the sleeping virgins on the announcement of the approach of the wedding party. To quote Schweitzer, "Not until Berlioz do we meet with any dramatic-pictorial music comparable to this." The Chorale-Melody, that is the basis for the first, fourth and last sections, was by Philipp Nicolai, the text being from his hymn of 1599, "Wake, awake, for night is flying." The Tenor Chorale combines a jolly dance tune with the Chorale. And the "twelve pearls" in the final Chorale refer to (Rev. 21:21) the twelve gates of the Holy City, the New Jerusalem.

Words of the Offertory

"Solitary lieth the city, she that was full of people! How is she widow'd! she that was great among nations, Princess among the provinces, how is she put under tribute! Sorely weepeth in darkness, her tears are on her cheeks: and no one off'reth consolation, yea, all her friends have betray'd her, they are become her enemies. Zion's ways do languish, none come to her feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh; yea, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness. Is it nothing to all ye that pass by? Behold, and see if there be any sorrow to me like my sorrow. Now behold, O Lord, look Thou on my affliction: see the foe hath magnified himself. Jerusalem! O turn thee to the Lord thy God!"

A Quiet Time in Church Life

This coming third week in Advent is a quiet time in the life of the parish. Except for lay, no meetings are scheduled during the week. The parish house will see no particular activity. But Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week are the Advent Ember Days, and the Church bids us to pray—especially for the increase of the ministry. This, then, is a good opportunity to say a word about prayer in the Bulletin.

Here is what the Reverend William S. Lea, rector of St. John's Parish, Knoxville, Tennessee, recently wrote about prayer: "Our ideas of prayer depend upon our ideas about man and ideas about God. There are many things which pass for prayer which are not prayer at all, a long way from the magical incantations of primitive man to the prayers of adoration and love of a St. Francis of Assisi. And it is quite a step from our own 'Now I lay me down to sleep . . . ' to the mature self-commitment to our Lord which is the goal of our adult Christian discipleship. Prayer may begin in a desire to get what we want, but if it grows to fulfillment it becomes an offering of 'our selves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, living sacrifice . . . ' to God. Here is the way the Westminster Catechism says it: 'Prayer is an offering up of our desires unto God, for things agreeable to His Will.' We begin with desires, as we should, but only that we may ultimately offer them to God for His judgment.

"If prayer is a communication between God and man we need to have a deeper understanding of both. We need to know what and who we are and to Whom we pray. Dr. Georgia Harkness makes this clear in her excellent book, Prayer and the Common Life. She says that the Christian idea of man can be stated in five paradoxes: 1) Man is both nature and spirit, both free and bound, 3) both sinner and created in the divine image, 4) both an individual and a member of society, and 5) Man is both for this world and for another. If we believe these things about man then we can believe in the possibility of prayer, for only thus is a human being precious enough in God's sight to have any status before Him.

"On the other hand, our prayers depend upon our ideas of God, for if we are wrong here, we shall end up far off course. Most of the mistakes in religion have been made because of an erroneous or a perverted notion of God. The Christian believes that God is personal, although limited by our small, human notions of personality; that He is a Spirit, ever present in His action, all wise, and all knowing; and furthermore, that God is a loving Father, Who, although just in His judgments, is also merciful and comes to us in our deepest need as Saviour.

"If these things we have said about man and about God are true, then prayer is the most important thing we can do. It anchors us in the very Ground of our being. It bridges the gulf between our poor, sinful world and the Eternal World which is our final objective."

Notes

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS results have been most encouraging. As the Bulletin goes to press, the pledge total stands at $51,192.10. This is an increase over last year of more than thousand five hundred dollars. It is an increase over the amount pledged for 1952 of more than nineteen thousand dollars. It means that we can not only add a third man to the staff (if you find one), increase our missionary giving as asked by General Convention, but also do the necessary things by way of rehabilitation of the buildings.

THE VESTRY has submitted specifications to contractors and asked for bids for the construction of a room in the basement of the church. It will include a new kitchen and be large enough to seat two hundred at dinner.

NEW TRANSFERS to The Church of the Holy Trinity, received last week and so not included in last week's summary for the year, include Miss Dorothy Sullivan, 1415 Clearview St.; and Mrs. George MacGoldrick, 2034 Sansom Street; and Mr. T. Henry Walnut, 1900 Churchhouse Square. We welcome these people to the fellowship of this parish.

Help Decorate the Church for Christmas

Join our "happy throng" again this year on Friday night, December 23, in the church at 7:15 and help decorate the church for Christmas. Wear your old clothes. Sing carols together, enjoy some refreshments at the close of the evening. This is an invitation to each and all of you. Come one, come all.

Some Thoughts on a Christmas Personality

Santa Claus, or Saint Nicholas, was of course a real man who lived in the 4th century and was the Bishop of Myra on the Mediterranean coast of Asia Minor, which is as near to the North Pole as he ever came. He took a great interest in two groups of people,—children and the poor; and he became, after his death, the patron saint of both. The Dutch people, in particular, seemed to take him to their hearts and the first church built in the city of New Amsterdam in America was called Saint Nicholas. It still exists on Fifth Avenue in New York.

The English in America created the later legend of Santa Claus out of the life of this Bishop who loved children. They are responsible for associating him, not with the children's festival of the Dutch on St. Nicholas' Day, December 6, but with Christmas. The result has been an illogical composition of a Palestinian Bethlehem, a manger, and wisemen with Arctic regions, reindeers and a sleigh, and snow. St. Nicholas is probably not a little amazed these days to see what has happened to him.

Some Other Christmas Thoughts

The shepherds heard the angels sing. The angels seem to have deserted us of these latter years, but the Bible frequently records their presence. We see them comforting Hagar (Genesis 16:7-14); visiting Abraham and Lot (Genesis 18:19); wrestling with Jacob (Genesis 32:24-32); announcing the Incarnation to the Blessed Virgin (St. Luke 1); singing to the shepherds (St. Luke 2); and we find them at the tomb of the Resurrection (St. Matthew 28:3). Guardian angels are spoken of in Daniel 10:13-20 and St. Matthew 18:10. St. Paul speaks of angels in Ephesians 1:21 and Colossians 1:16. Today, there have been those who think that the flying visitor visitors are angels! Once a year, we keep a day called Michaelmas in honor of the angels.

The carol, by the way, dates from the 15th century. Perhaps the oldest printed carol is the Boar's Head Carol" printed in 1521 by Wynkynde Worde. Carols of French origin are often called "noels."

"—and there were shepherds"

"Time never was, when Wisdom hath not shown
The glory of God's Name upon this Earth;
Yet men obscured that glory with their own
Dark shame—dishonoring Him Who gave them birth
Until these shepherds knelt, to own His reign
Beneath His infant hands, outstretched in grace
To share our sorrow, yea, embrace our pain,
And give Himself to all who seek His Face!

"No more misled by love of self, they rose, Forsook the false and walked with Him Who is True Love—Who needs and wants us One, yet knows Eternal longing till our hearts be His.
And so shall all men Wisdom know, who kneel
In love, and learn that only Love is real!"

The Midnight Service of Holy Communion

SATURDAY NIGHT AT 11:00 O'CLOCK

Tonight's service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing "Come, All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphal ending when the "Gloria in Excelsis" followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" and finally at the very end Hallelujah Chorus," is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during this time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

Before the service, Mr. Roan will play "Christmas, 1914" by Reger; after the service he will play "In Dulci Jubilo" by Bach.

The decorations at Christmas time are in memory of Charles A. Daniel and are placed in the church by Mrs. A. Weise Hammer, his daughter.

Be Joyful, Sing the Hymns and Carols with the Choir

Especially during the time of Communion, while all who wish to receive Holy Communion are coming to the Altar, the congregation is invited to sing carols with the choir.

Shepherds watched their flocks by night
On the ground,
And of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.

He said he, for mighty dread
Of their troubled mind
Angels of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind

For you in David's town this day

Of horn of David's line

Is your, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

Came upon the midnight clear,
The glorious song of old,
Angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:

"Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From Heav'n's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Ten thousand years of wrong;

All my heart this night rejoices
As I hear, far and near,
Sweetest angel voices.

"Christ is born," their choirs are singing,
Fill the air everywhere
Now with joy is ringing.

1. Come, then, let us hasten yonder!
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder!
Love him who with love is yearning!
Hail the star that from far
Bright with hope is burning!—Hymn 32

Angels from the realms of glory,
Sing your flight o'er all the earth;
Who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:

And in
And worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn King.

The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.

Thus spake the seraph and forthwith,
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
All glory be to God on high
And on the earth be peace
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease.—Hymn 13

2. Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heav'nly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hov'ring wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

And man, at war with man, hears not
The tidings which they bring;
O hush the noise, ye men of strife
And hear the angels sing!—Hymn 19

2. Hark! a voice from yonder manger,
Soft and sweet, doth entreat:
"Flee from woe and danger!
Brethren, come! from all doth grieve you,
You are freed; all you need
I will surely give you."

2. Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing;
Yonder shines the infant Light;
3. Saints before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His Temple shall appear.—Hymn 28

Also Hymns 43, 31

Christmas Day

Holy Communion at 8 A.M.

Church School at 10:45 A.M.

Holy Communion at 11 A.M.

The eleven o'clock service follows the order used at the midnight service (see inside page) except that on Christmas Day there will be a sermon by the Rector.

As during past years, all are asked to sit in the center section of the church during Christmas services. Since many are away from the center-city during the Christmas season, there is ample room.

TRINITY CLUB HONORED

It isn't every group that gets the privilege of beginning the New Year with the Bishop's presence to address it and give its members his blessing. But such will be the privilege of the young adults of Trinity Club, when the Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, D.D., comes to supper at six." Keep January 1, 1956 in mind—you have a date with the Bishop!

The Circumcision of Christ

January 1, 1956

In ancient Judaism, eight days after birth, every male child was circumcised and, at the same time, given a name. At the services this Sunday, we shall hear about the giving of the name "Jesus." The name is the same as Joshua. It means a mighty man who is a Saviour of the people. Although once it referred to a warrior, our Lord has made it mean a man whose might is the power of Love.

Begin the New Year at the Altar asking God's guidance and help in the days which are coming. As we pray before a journey, so now let us pray before we start our journey in the new year.

Words of the Anthem

"When blossoms flower 'mid the snows upon a winter night was born the Child, the Christmas Rose, the King of Love and Light. The angels sang, the shepherds sang, the grateful rejoiced, and at His blessed birth the stars their exultation voiced. O come let us adore Christ the Lord. Again the heart with rapture glows to greet the holy night that gave the world its Christmas Rose, its King of Love and Light. Let ev'ry voice acclaim His name, the glorious chorus swell, from Paradise to earth He came that we with Him might dwell."

Vestry Awards Contract to Build Parish Hall

At its last meeting, the Vestry voted to proceed with building a room in the basement of the parish hall. The room is designed to seat one hundred seventy-five people at dinner, or two hundred people at a meeting. It will have a new kitchen. The cost, including kitchen furnishings, will approximate fifty thousand dollars. A large part of this amount will be provided from unrestricted parish funds.

The Vestry also approved recommending Victor George Richer, of this parish, to the Standing Committee of the Diocese as a candidate for Holy Orders. Mr. Richer is now a student at the Philadelphia Divinity School.

It was decided, at this meeting, to accept the full missionary quota of eighteen thousand dollars which has been assigned to this parish by the Diocese. The significance of this lies in the fact that together with our share of four thousand five hundred dollars in the support of Prince George Chapel, we are now giving twenty-five per cent of our income for purposes outside the parish. Increased missionary giving in the Church as a whole will not only expand the work in schools and hospitals all over the world, but will also increase pitifully low salaries in many missionary areas.

Miracles Still Happen, — But of Course!

The Vestry was enthusiastically unanimous in its vote to increase missionary giving to a figure which is six thousand dollars more than the amount given five years ago. It seemed to some that this action of faith received divine approval when, on the morning after the Vestry meeting, an anonymous giver (known only to the Rector and not a member of Holy Trinity) came into the parish house with a check for over fifteen hundred dollars which, as he said, he had decided to give to Holy Trinity.

Evening Auxiliary Meets Next Tuesday Evening

Vice-President of Church's National Council to Be the Speaker

The Right Reverend John B. Bentley, Vice-President of The National Council of the Church, and former Bishop of Alaska, is the speaker at the meeting of the Evening Auxiliary next Tuesday evening. The Auxiliary meets for dinner at six o'clock and all business and professional women are invited. Phone your reservation before Monday noon to the parish office, LO 7-1267. The price of the dinner is $1.25.

In securing Bishop Bentley, certainly a V.I.P., the Evening Auxiliary is highly honored. No one knows the missionary picture better than he does. He will speak at approximately seven-fifteen and others, both men and women, are invited to hear him. His talk will help us all to appreciate the tremendous good that our own Church is doing in far corners of the world.

By the Way

During the Christmas season, the Rector and the Associate Rector took Holy Communion to our shut-in or hospitalized communicants except those in places like Christ Church Hospital, for instance, where there is a regular chaplain. Also, under the direction of Miss Helene Schardt, baskets of fruit, food orders, and flowers were sent to more than thirty-six families. Members of Trinity Club sang carols at the Naval Hospital. Members of the Church Parish Committee sang carols on Christmas Eve in the Rittenhouse Square area. Members of the congregation helped decorate the church.

Testimonials

It is a very great satisfaction to your staff at Holy Trinity to receive almost daily letters from grateful listeners to the radio service. For instance, here is a quote from one of them, dated last Sunday I was shut in because of illness, I reached for Holy Trinity on my radio. The hand had slipped and I had a little difficulty in setting the dial properly. The fear ran through my mind, don't they broadcast any more? So here is a thank-offering that you do." Another reads typically, "Believe me, the wife and I wait for the church service and would not miss all the gold in the world." This past year, almost five thousand dollars has been contributed in thank offerings toward the broadcasting (total cost, $8,500 a year) of the services. It is while. Thousands of shut-ins (the radio station says "hundreds of thousands") are able to attend church in this way every Sunday. Scores of letters are received and answered in the parish office each week. Our weekly radio broadcast is one of the ways that this parish serves the wider community.

“THE INCARNATE WORD”

ROBERT ELMORE AND ROBERT B. REED

PART I THE PROPHECY

The yearnings of mankind for the coming of the Messiah are portrayed. People grope in darkness, but their hopes and longings are fulfilled by the promise of Him who is to come. It is a scene of darkness to light—of despair to faith.

PART II THE NATIVITY

The story of the first Christmas is told. The song of the angels is heard; the shepherds appear and, at last, the manger is revealed, where the shepherds behold and adore.

Requiem

PART III THE ADORATION BY THE MAGI

The Magi, learned men, in contrast to the simple shepherds, come to offer their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, and to adore.

PART IV THE ETERNAL MANGER

Since the first Christmas, mankind has constantly sought for, and found the manger. Now, surrounded by those who in the past worshipped there, the manger is again revealed. To it come all sorts and conditions of men, each to offer the gift of himself, and to adore Him, the Saviour of mankind.

Words of the Anthem

"When Jesus, our Lord, was born in Bethlehem, in the land of Judaea; behold, from the east to the city of Jerusalem there came wise men, and said: Say, where is He born, the King of Judaea? for we have seen His star, and are come to adore Him. There shall a star from Jacob come forth, and a sceptre from Israel rise up. And dash in pieces princes and nations. As bright the star of morning gleams, so Jesus sheddeth glorious beams of light and consolation! Thy Word, O Lord, radiance darting, truth imparting, gives salvation; Thine be praise and adoration!"

A Call for Volunteers

Would you like to take your place as a volunteer in the fellowship of the choir of The Church of The Holy Trinity? There are vacancies for men and women in all sections. If you have the interest, a good ear, and some musical training, see Mr. Roan at the conclusion of the organ after the services. We hope to enlarge the choir and will welcome you of interest.

The Early Service on Sunday

At eight o'clock every Sunday morning, and at 7:30 in the morning on all Saints Days and Days, the service of Holy Communion takes place in The Church of the Holy Trinity. Sad to say, although the church is so conveniently located that many of its members need walk only a block or two to attend, there are many who never attend these refreshing services to receive abundant grace. May the Bulletin suggest that here is opportunity to consecrate the day of the week.

William Law, a great Christian teacher, has written, "I take it for granted that every Christian who is in health is up early in the morning; for it is much more reasonable to suppose a man is up early because he is a Christian than because he is a labourer or a tradesman or a servant or has business that wants him. Prayer is the noblest exercise of the soul, the most valuable use of our best faculties, and the highest imitation of the blessed inhabitants of heaven. On the other hand, sleep is the poorest, dullest refreshment of the body, that is so far from being intended as an enjoyment that we are forced to receive it either in a state of insensibility or the folly of dreams. Sleep is such a dull, stupid state of existence that even amongst mere mortals we despise them most which are most drowsy. He therefore that chooses to enlarge his indulgence of sleep rather than be early at his devotions to God; chooses the dullest employment of the body before the highest, noblest employment of the soul; he chooses a state which is a reproach to mere animals rather than that exercise which is the glory of angels."

Woman's Auxiliary Meets Next Thursday for Luncheon

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets next Thursday for luncheon at one o'clock in the parish house. Continuing the series on "Christian Witness," Mrs. James Ludwig, of the rector of St. Paul's and vice-president in charge of the Department of Christian Education in the Diocese, will speak on "The Witness Overseas." Mrs. Ludwig attended the General Convention in Honolulu last summer and has brought a wealth of knowledge back with her. All women of the parish are invited to the luncheon. The cost is $1.00. Reservations should be made by Tuesday, January 10.

New Student Group to Begin Friday Night

In addition to the Trinity Club group for young adults, a new group of young people starts meeting in the parish house this week—center-city students. There are, of course, many students in the medical, nursing, music, and art schools which surround Holy Trinity. Plans include a student supper at 6:30, discussions from 7:30 to 8:30, and recreation after 8:30. Singing groups will be invited, as well as other entertainers.

Notes

BIBLE CLASSES will be resumed the first week in February and continue until Easter. The Rector would appreciate your telling him which you might prefer—(1) a study of St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians; or (2) studies in the Old Testament looking in some detail at different book or section in each class.

DURING THE CHRISTMAS SEASON, over four hundred and seventy-five people received Holy Communion at the services. The special offering for Missions totalled nine hundred and seventy-four dollars.

Frank N. Kneas, vestryman of The Church of the Holy Trinity for many years, departed this life on the morning of Last Christmas Day. Mr. Kneas had been in failing health for some time, although he was able to be in church until he entered the hospital three weeks before death. He attended the meeting of the Vestry in November.

Mr. Kneas will be remembered for his rock-like integrity of character, which accompanied outstanding ability as an engineer. He was a devoted Churchman and the best interests of the Trinity were ever close to his heart. He will be greatly missed by all within the parish fellowship. May he forever grow in love and service.

Two other members of the parish also passed from this life in December—Walter Berkholz and Ethel Lewis Mayer. Both had been active in the parish fellowship over many years. Mr. Renneisen was an active member of the Men's Club and also served as an usher. God grant them an abundant entrance into the land of light and joy in the fellowship of the saints.

The Coffee Hour following the service is for all—enjoy it with us!

What Is Trinity Club?

Trinity Club is an open door to opportunity to young adults of all churches or none, who are seeking an active, informed and purposeful way of life: opportunity to worship God and absorb the rich spiritual values of the Christian heritage; opportunity to gain a broader understanding of Christianity in relation to the problems of everyday life; opportunity to enjoy social activities in company with young adults drawn together by similar interests and ideals. Focal point of Trinity Club is Sunday evening, with supper and speaker at six, service at eight, Coffee Hour following. In addition to a wide variety of seasonal and social events, there is opportunity to take a hand in social service projects in the community. Trinity Club renews its open invitation to be a part of this active, happy, worthwhile group, in 1956, assured of a friendly welcome, congeniality, and young adult Christian fellowship at its very best.

The Choir of The Church of the Holy Trinity sings
"Pilgrims Progress" by Robin Milford

This oratorio for chorus, with tenor, baritone, and soprano soli, was written in 1933. Using John Bunyon's text, it is based on familiar hymn tunes and written in the traditional English oratorio style.

Thursday, the Feast of the Purification
Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 (Noon)

The Ministry Is Your Business

This Sunday morning, the Dean of The Philadelphia Divinity School will be the preacher, and the offering at the service will be for Theological Education.

There are eleven Episcopal seminaries in the United States. Only one of these, the General Seminary in New York, receives any financial help through regular church subscriptions. The others depend entirely on limited endowments, contributions of friends, and the tuition of students. This is a precarious situation on which the Church must depend for the training of her ministers. Several years ago this was called to the attention of the Church at large, and one Sunday a year was set aside for a general appeal for Theological Education.

At the present time seminary buildings are inadequate, facilities are understaffed, and endowments are too small. This is true of every one of our seminaries. To meet the needs of more students several new seminaries have been opened in recent years and they are trying to build facilities and endowments.

Your offering at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday will help to train men for the ministry of the Church.

The Men's Dinner

This Monday evening at 6:30, in the Parish House, there will be a dinner for the men of the parish. Your Rector hopes very much that all of the men of The Church of the Holy Trinity will be present. If you have indicated that you cannot come and now find it possible to be there, he hopes you will so notify the office. Places have been reserved and a meal will be prepared for all who have not notified the office that they cannot come.

Bible Classes Will Resume February 6th and 7th

One week from this Monday and Tuesday, the Bible Classes will resume for an eight-week series between now and Easter. Two identical classes are held each week, on Monday evenings at 7:45 and Tuesday mornings at 10:45. This term's study will be St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians. The classes are open to everyone.

Do you know how to get out of the Bible the tremendous knowledge that it treasures? Have you ever attended a Bible class? Why not dedicate the coming eight weeks, beginning February 6 or 7, to attending the classes? Your Rector believes that you will find it a rewarding experience.

Your Parish and Your Part

A parish must have clear objectives. There is always a goal, tho' sometimes we may not think so, or may not see it. By a goal is meant the thing that sticks out in people's minds as the thing that the parish is up to, what it is trying to accomplish. And, first of all, a parish which is really doing its business will surely leave the definite impression among its people that it is a redemptive fellowship, a fellowship where people come close to God and each other in a new, redeeming way.

From year to year there may be a theme or emphasis around which the thought and work may be centered, such as "The Parish as a Family," "The Holy Communion," "The Church's Mission," "The Faith of the Church"; but, whatever the theme, the ongoing purpose of the parish is redemption and salvation in the name of our Lord and His mission. It seems especially important that our main concern be for what is central in the Christian Faith, and that we not be diverted to what "shows" but is not central. In whatever we do, then, as a parish, let us keep this purpose in mind.

Notes

A NOTE TO OLD TIMERS: Beyond a cheery good-morning, please avoid conversing with the people who help the clergy at the church doors on Sunday mornings. They are there to welcome new-comers and cannot do it if old-comers are talking with them.

THE CHOIRMASTER is still on the look-out for volunteers. Some good voices have been added since the previous notice. If you are interested, see him at the console after church this Sunday.

The Lenten Preachers—A Great List

Although there will be more about them later, here's a preliminary look at the Lenten preaching list: Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday: The Reverend Roy S. Lee, University Church, Oxford, England; February 20-24, The Reverend Paul Austin Wolfe, The Brick Church, New York; February 27-March 2, The Reverend Shelton Hale Bishop, St. Philip's Church, New York; March 5-9, The Reverend Charles D. Kean, The Church of the Epiphany, Washington; March 12-16, The Reverend Canon H. K. Archdall, St. Mary's Church, Devon, England; March 19-24, The Reverend Grant A. Morrill, St. Mark's Church, New Canaan, Connecticut; Holy Week, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, The Reverend James R. MacColl, St. Thomas' Church, Whitmarsh.

A Week of Opportunity

The Rector's Bible Classes

An eight-week series of Bible Classes begins in the parish house this Monday evening at 7:45, with an identical class on Tuesday morning at 10:45. The subject for study is St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians. The classes are open to all people.

If you have never attended a Bible Class, why not take this opportunity? He who calls himself a Christian and does not know his Bible had better think again about his profession of faith. Here is opportunity offered you to be a better disciple of the Lord Christ than you are today.

Another National Council Officer Speaks Tuesday to Evening Auxiliary

The Evening Auxiliary and the whole parish have been signally honored by having two of the highest officers of the National Council come to speak here. This is opportunity indeed. Last month, the Vice-President of the Council spoke and this month the Director of the Home Department, The Reverend W. G. Wright, is the speaker. He directs the Church's work in relation to the urban church, rural missions, the Negro, The Indian, and the chaplains of the Armed Forces.

The Evening Auxiliary meets for dinner ($1.25) on Tuesday evening at 6:00 P. M. Reservations should reach the parish house by Monday noon. Dr. Wright will begin speaking at 7:15 and anyone, man or woman, is welcome to come to hear him. We give $100,000 each year to the work of our Church outside the parish. Come and hear Dr. Wright tell us about some of the places where our money is useful.

Day Auxiliary Meets for Luncheon Thursday

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets Thursday, February 9, for luncheon at 1:00 P. M. in the parish house, following Holy Communion in the church at 12:15. Continuing the theme for this season, "Christian Witness," the emphasis for this meeting will be on "Refugees—What are we doing about them?" A panel of Auxiliary members will discuss the part our government, the Episcopal Church, and our parish will play in receiving refugees from overseas. All women of the parish are invited to attend the luncheon. No special invitation is necessary. Reservations for lunch ($1.00) must reach the parish house by Tuesday, February 7.

1957 Is the Centennial Year of Our Parish

Plans are beginning to form looking toward the observance of The Church of the Holy Trinity's one hundredth year as a parish, which occurs in 1957. The Rector has asked Miss Margaret Aspinwall to act as parish historian and to prepare a book for publication next year. Miss Aspinwall was formerly for several years an associate editor of the Ladies Home Journal, on the editorial staff of G. P. Putnam's Sons publishing house in New York City, and on the editorial and research staff of the Encyclopedia Americana for which she wrote many signed articles, among them the history of Philadelphia and New Orleans. She has had more than a dozen books published and a number of short stories in national magazines.

Miss Aspinwall hopes that everyone who has knowledge of historical anecdotes or facts which should appear in a history of The Church of the Holy Trinity will mail them to her at the church office, 1904 Walnut Street. She hopes to start work immediately. Her completed work will be submitted to an editorial board to be named later by the Vestry before publication. In accepting this assignment, Miss Aspinwall has written, "To think that all my years of editorial training, research and writing can now be used for the Church makes me very humble." We rejoice that she is available for this work.

Note

The new assistant minister, the Reverend George Bell Davidson, begins his ministry with us at this morning's service. On Sunday, February 12, we will welcome him and his family at the Coffee Hour after church.

Words of the Anthem

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid? When the wicked even mine enemies and my foes came upon me, to eat up my flesh; they stumbled and fell. Though a host of men be laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid; and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in Him. Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; have mercy upon me and hear me. Thou hast been my succor, leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. O tarry thou the Lord's leisure, be strong and he shall comfort thine heart!"

Words of the Anthem

"Lord of our life, and God of our salvation, Star of our night, and Hope of ev'ry nation, hear and receive Thy Church's supplication, Lord God Almighty. See round Thine ark the hungry billows curling; see how Thy foes their banners are unfurling; Lord, while their dark, envenomed they are hurling, Thou canst preserve us. Lord, Thou canst help when earthly armour faileth, Lord, Thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth, Lord, o'er Thy Church nor death nor hell prevaieth; Grant us Thy peace. Grant us Thy help till foes are backward driven, Grant them Thy truth, that they may be forgiven, Grant peace on earth, and, after we have striven, Peace in Thy Heaven."

Lent Begins on Wednesday

Holy Communion at 7:30 A.M.

Penitential Office and Holy Communion at 11:15 A.M.

Noon-Day Preaching at 12:25 (noon)

Penitential Office and Evening Prayer at 5:30 P.M.

Holy Communion at 7:30 P.M.

Ash Wednesday's purpose is to cause us, in relationship with God, to express our deep need of Lenten revival. It is a day of humility, of penitence, of selflessness. It is the gateway to Lent when we express before God our need of Lent and make a resolution at God's Altar to use Lent for the welfare of our souls. Ash Wednesday is the day on which humble people stand with bowed heads before God with the door of their soul's house open to His entering.

Oxford University Chaplain—Noon-Day Preacher

On Ash Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, the preacher at 12:25 is the Reverend Roy Stuart Lee, Vicar of the University Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Oxford, and chaplain to students at Oxford University. Dr. Lee holds the chief pastoral office in Oxford. During the war, Dr. Lee was on the staff of the British Broadcasting Service and arranged all the religious programs for the Allied armies in Europe, and also for the B.B.C.'s North American Service. In 1947 he was invited to his present post at Oxford. In addition to his chaplaincy work he also lectures in the University. He has published "Freud and Christianity," for which he was awarded his doctorate in philosophy by Oxford University, and "Psychology and Worship," the Burroughs Memorial Lectures for 1953.

The Lenten Sunday Sermons, a Study of Sin

When is a man right before God? When is a man truly good? What kind of persons ought we to be? When are we sinful? Let's face it during Lent. Let's look at sin. Here is the Lenten preaching program, beginning this Sunday morning: February 12, "The Nature of Sin"; February 19, "Pride, the Sin of the Rationalist"; February 26, "Covetousness, the Sin of the Materialist"; March 4, "Lust and Gluttony, the Sins of the Sensualist"; March 11, "Envy, the Sin of the Discontented"; and March 18, "Anger and Sloth, the Sins of the Loveless."

As a basis for reading in preparation for the sermons, the Rector is using in particular the following books and recommends them to all: Conquering the Seven Deadly Sins by Lance Webb (Abingdon Press); Christian Ethics by R. C. Mortimer (Hutchinson's University Library); Christian Ethics and Moral Philosophy by George F. Thomas (Scribners); and The Christian Experience of Forgiveness by H. R. Mackintosh (Harper & Brothers).

Important Notices

A QUIET DAY for women will be held on Shrove Tuesday, February 14, from 5:00 to 7:30 P.M., at The Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian. Mrs. U. Grant Beath will direct the meditations. Mrs. Lela Walker Williams will lead the prayers.

THE WORLD DAY OF PRAYER, annually held on the first Friday in Lent, is to be observed at the First Baptist Church, 17th and Sansom Streets, on Friday, February 17, at identical services from 12:00 to 1:00 P.M., or 1:00 to 2:00 P.M.

THE FORWARD DAY BY DAY issue for Lent is available in the church porch today. Copies are priced at ten cents each.

A GROUP OF YOUTH from Rodeph Sholem Temple are visiting with us today. For the past three years, it has been our privilege to have this Jewish youth group observe our worship. On Sunday, the 19th, the Rector will talk to them at their class in Rodeph Sholem Temple.

A NEW WINDOW has been installed on the upper floor of the porch at 19th and Walnut. At due time, it will be dedicated.

Tonight's Subject: "The Arts and Christian Values." Speaker: Mr. Benton Spruance, Head of Graphics Division of the Philadelphia Museum School of Art; Head of Department of Fine Arts, Beaver College.

The Coffee Hour following the service is for all—enjoy it with us!

Notes

Last call for the young adult Hobby Show, this Sunday evening, at the Coffee Hour. Exhibitors—please see Ira Williams for your exhibit space; bring your hobby, or part of it—we are all interested!

A Center City Young Adult Choral Group was organized last week, after a lively discussion with its leader, Eugene Roan, choirmaster and organist at Holy Trinity. For the moment, rehearsals Friday evenings are best for rehearsals, beginning with supper at six, at 1904. With time out for the dance, this Friday, the 10th—next get-together, February 17. If this sounds interesting, it will also be fun. Come out!

Reserve Wednesday evenings in Lent for an hour of worship and discussion, with Mr. Erickson, on "The Relevancy of the Christian Gospel to Life," beginning Ash Wednesday, February 15, at 7:30, in the church. Other Lenten opportunities are as announced—use Lent fully and purposefully.

Words of the Offertory Motet

"How long wilt Thou forget me, O Lord, forever, how long wilt Thou hide Thy face from me? Consider, and hear me, O Lord my God, lighten mine eyes, that they sleep not in death. Oh, that I knew where I might find Him, that I might come even to His seat. I sink in despair, where there is no standing, I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. Oh, cast thy burden upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee, and He will not let thee fall forever. Look unto Him, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth. For though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow. Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed me. Save me, O God, for the waters are come in, even unto my soul. As one whom his mother comforteth, so will He comfort you, and ye shall be comforted in Zion. Behold, now is the accepted time, now is the day of salvation."

SATURDAY: Washington's Birthday Men's Corporate Communion, St. Stephen's Church, 8:00 A. M.

The Noon-Day Preacher

The Reverend Paul Austin Wolfe is the minister of the Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City. He is the author of several books and a frequent contributor to various publications. He will speak each day next week from 12:25 to 12:55. The service will begin and end very promptly. Invite your friends of other churches to use these services as Lenten refreshment.

Next Men's Meeting—February 28

The Men's Club Committee of Twelve has planned three meetings for the men of the parish during the coming months—on Tuesday, February 28, for dinner; on Sunday, March 18, a Corporate Communion and breakfast afterward; and on Tuesday, April 10, a dinner meeting.

Notice of the February 28th meeting will go to all men this week and reservation cards should be promptly returned.

The Use of the Parish House

Now that the building of the new room in the basement of the church has begun, it is interesting to realize a little how useful it will be. One indication might be given by looking at typical parish house week. For instance, last week, 639 people used the present parish house. On Sunday morning, at Church School (37); at a lunch for young marrieds (21); Trinity Club (110); Monday, the Rector's Bible Class (38); Tuesday, Bible Class (65); Evening Auxiliary (55); Wednesday, Alcoholics Anonymous (40); Thursday, Women's Auxiliary (40); Men's Committee (12); Choir (20); Youth Committee (15); Friday, Student Group (30); Trinity Club dance (105); Saturday, Alcoholics Anonymous (40). At least another 25 people come into the building for interviews and office calls of various kinds. With the new room, further expansion and usefulness will be possible. It is interesting to contemplate that the time can only come when our facilities will be of use to a thousand center-city people each week.

NOTE

The Christian Education program of Holy Trinity now includes a teenage discussion class, the leadership of Miss Barbara Blair and Mr. David Williams. The class adjourns from the first floor to the second floor of the parish house during the sermon hymn on all but first Sundays.

(For all young adults—of all churches or none)

Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street

Tonight's Subject: "Christianity's Influence on the Drama" (one of a third Sunday series, "Christian Fruits—Christianity's Influence on Western Culture"). Speaker: The Reverend Robert E. Keighton, B.D., Th.M., Professor of Homelitics and Liturgics, Crozer Theological Seminary.

The Coffee Hour following the service is for all—enjoy it with us!

Notes

This Sunday night, being election night, it is of the greatest importance that every person interested in the worth of Trinity Club be present to vote for the leaders of the group as a whole and the fourteen committee chairmen and co-chairmen that make up the Executive Committee. It then remains for the rest of us to support their leadership in the coming year, that this group, which has become known far and wide, may continue to earn its reputation as an open door to opportunity to young adults of all churches or none, who are seeking an active, informed and purified Christian way of life.

The newly elected, because they will want to understand their job and purpose better, will meet with outgoing officers, in executive session, Tuesday the 21st, beginning with dinner in the parish house at 6 o'clock.

A Meeting for Men, Tuesday, the 28th

The Men of the Parish are invited to meet at a men's dinner at 6:30 P.M. ($1.25 a plate) on Tuesday, February 28, in the parish house to hear Rear-Admiral Robert Porter. All men and their friends are invited. Make your reservations (by card or call the Parish House, LO 7-1267) before Monday noon.

Admiral Porter is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and was in active service during both World War I and World War II. During World War II he was chief of staff to the Commander of Destroyers, Atlantic Fleet. Following World War II he served as deputy commander of the Philadelphia Naval Base.

This Week's Noon-Day Preacher

Shelton Hale Bishop is our only "repeat speaker" from last year. His deeply spiritual and moving sermons were a blessing to us all last Lent and we felt that we must have him again. Dr. Bishop is rector of the largest parish in numbers in the Episcopal Church,—St. Philip's, Harlem. He is one of the great Negro leaders of our time,—a man of far-reaching influence everywhere.

Books and Pamphlets

In the rear of the church, there is a small stand where you can find on sale the current issues of two church magazines, "The Episcopal Church News" and "The Living Church," as well as interesting pamphlets about some phase of Christian knowledge and activity.

In the Parish House, there is a selection of books with an order pad available if you wish to order. In the selection, you will find such books as Prayer Works, Austin Pardue; The Secret of Letters, C. S. Lewis; Love So Amazing, E. Frank Salmon; The Faith of the Church, James A. Pike and W. Norman Pittenger; The Worship of the Church, Massey H. Sheppard, Jr.

Lent

The difference between us who are Christians and the secularist world around us is not that we have been good and it bad, it stupid and we wise, it damned and we holy. All we like to have gone astray, Church folk along with the rest of the crowd. The difference is that the world does not know where to turn for redemption and healing, while we Christians do know Christ the King is our only savior. He can renew the spirit of my mind and create out of me a human being, no longer the hopeless victim of confusion. He has made out of men and women no better than I am, the bringers-in of righteousness, the restorers of peace, the sowers of joy, the bearers of light to them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death.

Lent is my opportunity, through hearing sermons, through study, through prayer, through Communion, to know God as I have never apprehended Him before. Opportunity is offered here in my parish in the Bible Classes, the Noon-Day Preaching, Evening Prayer, and frequent services of Holy Communion, so I can, if I will, come close to my Lord, and in coming to Him, understand something of His love for me. It will cost me to sacrifice myself to make room for Him, to cross out my selfishness that He may reign as my sovereign Lord. But it will be worth that cost.

The Reverend Charles D. Kean, Rector of The Church of the Epiphany in Washington, is the noon-day preacher this coming week. Dr. Kean attended Woodberry Forest School in Virginia, graduated from Brown University and the General Theological Seminary. He has twice been a deputy to General Convention. He is the author of Christianity and the Cultural Crisis, The Meaning of Existence, and has been a contributor to several magazines.

Evening Auxiliary to Discuss "Witness in the Parish" Tuesday

At its dinner meeting this coming Tuesday at 6:00 P. M., a panel of Evening Auxiliary members will discuss "Our Witness in the Parish." Participants in the panel are: Miss Mary Ellen, Moderator; Mrs. Martha Campbell, Miss Sally Riegner, and Miss Marguerite Sibley.
Reservations for the dinner ($1.25) should be in the parish office (LO 7-1267) before Saturday evening, March 3.

The Reverend Christopher Atkinson Speaks to Auxiliary on Thursday

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets this coming Thursday, March 8, at 2:00 P. M. (Note the hour,—no luncheon.) The speaker will be the Reverend Christopher Atkinson, Rector of St. Faith's Church, Brookline, whose subject, "Personal Religion," develops further the theme for this year, which is "The Christian Witness." It will bring focus at this mid-Lenten meeting our personal witness. After the meeting, tea will be served. All women of the parish are urged to attend. No special invitation is necessary.
This is your Auxiliary.

Letters of Transfer

We welcome into our parish fellowship Mr. and Mrs. James N. Ashbrook, 3153 North Sullivan Street, who have transferred from St. James' Church, New London, Connecticut, and the Church of the Transfiguration, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Margaret Renshaw Butler, 1906 Walnut Street, from St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia; Miss Ethel F. Cox, 613 East Willard Street, from St. Nathanael's Church, Kensington; The Reverend and Mrs. George Bell Davidson and Ian Hallock Davidson, 147 Garvin Boulevard, Sharon Hill, from Christ Church, Easton, Connecticut; Miss Margaret McClain, 4619 Chester Avenue, from St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia; Miss Anna M. Schwartz, 821 North Pennock Street, from St. Augustine's Church of Covenant, Philadelphia; Mrs. Lever F. Stewart, Rittenhouse Claridge, from The Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia; Mr. Basil Varian, 6404 North Fifth Street, from St.
Mark's Church, Philadelphia; and Mrs. Marian Tyas and Miss Jane Tyas, 4302 Chestnut Street, from St. Paul's Church, Overbrook.

Of Special Interest to Holy Trinity People

Helen Dunn, mezzo-soprano, and Robert Elmore, pianist, will appear in recital on Saturday, March 17, at 8:30 P. M. at the Philadelphia Ethical Society, Rittenhouse Square.

Mrs. Dunn is anxious to start an organ fund to accomplish needed repairs on the present chancel organ at Holy Trinity and, if possible, to rehabilitate the Roosevelt organ in the gallery, which was installed in 1881. The chancel organ dates from 1898 and the need for restoration, after fifty-eight years, is obvious.

Both Mrs. Dunn and Robert Elmore are giving their services in this recital for these purposes. There will be a donation received at the door. Of course, Holy Trinity people will be interested.

(For all young adults—of all churches or none)

Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street

Tonight's Subject: "The Christian Doctrine of the Word and Sacraments" (one of a series, "The Christian Faith—Some Theological Foundations.") Speaker: The Rev. C. Edward Hopkin, Ph.D., Professor of Systematic Theology and Ethics, The Divinity School in Philadelphia.

The Coffee Hour following the service is for all—enjoy it with us!

Notes

In 1862 the Church of the Advent, Fifth and Spring Garden Streets, came to Holy Trinity the person of Phillips Brooks. In 1956 (this Sunday, March 4, at 3:30), Holy Trinity goes to the Church of the Advent, when Trinity Club Choir sings and Mr. Pollanick conducts the service and preaches. It is hoped that out of this service, one of a Lenten series, will develop interest in that neighborhood for further English-speaking services. We are pleased and privileged to be asked to be part of this experiment.

Many Trinity Clubbers, when they first registered, indicated an interest in singing. Out of this has grown the "Rittenhouse Glee Club," meeting for supper and rehearsal, every Friday at 6:00, at 1904. Similarly, many are interested in dramatics. It is highly possible a "Chancel Players" group may come of it. At any rate, that is the topic of discussion, Friday evening, March 9, when all who are interested are invited to meet Stephen Price, at supper at 6.

Words of the Anthem

"O brother man, fold to thy heart thy brother: where pity dwells, the peace of God is there; to worship rightly is to love each other, each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.
Follow with reverent steps the great example of Him whose holy work was doing good.
Shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple, each loving life a psalm of gratitude. Then all shackles fall: the stormy clangor of wild war music o'er the earth shall cease; love shall tread out the baleful fire of anger, and in its ashes plant the tree of peace."

St. David's Cathedral Canon—Noon-Day Preacher

The Reverend H. K. Archdall, Canon of St. David's Cathedral, Wales, is the noon-day preacher during the coming week. Canon Archdall is presently in this country as special lecturer in Christian Ethics at the Berkeley Divinity School. During the past twelve years, Canon Archdall has been a member of the Faith and Order Committee of the World Council of Churches. He has been the "Select Preacher" at Oxford and Cambridge Universities.

Retreats for Lay People

A retreat in the Church is an opportunity to go apart for prayer and meditation under the guidance of someone skilled in leadership in prayer. In the Diocese of Pennsylvania, there is a retreat association which plans such opportunities for the people of the Diocese. Two retreats at the Diocesan Conference Center have been recently announced: one for men and wives beginning Friday night and continuing through Sunday, April 6, 7, and 8; and another for men on May 18, 19, and 20. The approximate cost is between twelve and fifteen dollars each.

Should any who read this be interested in entering into such a retreat, write for details to Mr. Frederico F. Mauck, 412 DeKalb Street, Norristown, Pennsylvania.

Men Plan Lenten Corporate Communion, Breakfast

On Sunday, March 18, the men of the Parish will meet for a Lenten Corporate Communion at the eight o'clock service and will have breakfast together afterward. Bishop Longley will be the speaker at breakfast. The Men's Committee in charge of this event consists of Donald Danenhower, John W. Gilmore, Robert B. Platt, and Harvey E. Schock, Jr.
All men of the parish are invited.

Notes on Matters of Interest

A RADIO LETTER came last week, containing a contribution for the broadcasting fund, from a listener who had written the letter just before her death. The letter was forwarded by her daughter, who expressed her thankfulness for what the services of the church had meant to her mother in her last days in this life.

THE NEW CHURCH FLAG replacing the old worn-out one is the gift of Mrs. Harry Longley, Sr., and is in memory of her husband, Bishop Longley.

NEXT WEEK'S LENTEN PREACHER will be heard on Ruth Welles' Show, Station
WRCV, on Friday, March 16, at 9:45 A. M. Two others of our preachers, Dr. Lee and Dr.
Bishop, have been on the same program this Lent. The Church of the Holy Trinity was also the topic of a comment by Dave Garro-way on his "Today" program and was saluted recently by Phil Sheridan on WFIL.

A LETTER OF TRANSFER has been received for D. W. Telford Cochrane, 403 South
Key Street. We welcome him into our parish fellowship.

The Rector is Away this Week

This Sunday morning, the Rector is preaching at the Wellesley College Chapel, in the evening at Walnut Hill School. During next week, he is the noon-day preacher at St. Peter's Church, Albany, New York. On Saturday, he will preach at the ordination to the ministry of one of his old boys in Charleston, West Virginia, one of six who made decisions for the ministry while he was there.

The Associate Rector will be the preacher at this Sunday's service and will also lead the Rector's Bible Class on Monday and Tuesday.

Dunn-Elmore Concert

Helen Dunn, mezzo-soprano, and soloist with our choir, will appear in concert on Saturday evening, March 17, at the Ethical Society, Rittenhouse Square, for the benefit of an organ which she is anxious to establish for the rehabilitation of the present organs in the church.
Robert Elmore will accompany her at the piano. There is no admission, but donations may be made at the door.

(For all young adults—of all churches or none)

Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street

Tonight's Subject: "Marriage and Holy Matrimony" (one of a second Sunday series on "Christian Practice"). Tonight's Speaker is from the Marriage Council of Philadelphia, Division of Family Study, Department of Psychiatry, University of Pennsylvania.

The Coffee Hour following the service is for all—enjoy it with us!

Notes

Tonight we welcome the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Allison R. Drake. The Chorus is composed of students taking the Degree Course majoring in voice, piano, organ, composition and orchestral instruments. Assisting them, and equally welcome, is the Solo Ensemble Choir, from the Abraham Lincoln High School, under the direction of Frances L. Snyder.

Two important young adult weekends to keep in mind, so as to avoid a conflict in dates: Advent—for fun and program planning for 1956-57: April 13-15; and, Holiday House: June 22-24. Details later.

Passiontide

The Book of Common Prayer, on page 132, designates the last two weeks of Lent as Passiontide. Unfortunately, "Passion" is a word frequently misunderstood. Its meaning from the Latin is "suffering." And as it has been used in religious reference, it has meant the suffering of Jesus in love, especially as He drew nearer to the cross. It connotes the growing intensity of His love, culminating on Good Friday.

Through His steadfastness in faith and life, Jesus found redemption and salvation for self and all mankind in the final battle of hate against love. If, by being with Him especially during these two weeks of His Passion we can come, thereby to know His way better before, we shall find Love's victory, too.

Use the last two weeks of Lent with the deliberate purpose and intent of coming to Easter knowing our Lord more clearly, following Him more nearly, loving Him more dearly. Our Lord, lived and, let us remember, died that we might have life and have it more abundantly. He came down from heaven for us and for our salvation. Surely, no one of us will be indifferent as we see His great love.

The Opportunities of this Holy Season

Noon-day Preaching, Monday through Friday, 12:25 to 12:55

This week's preacher: The Rev. Grant A. Morrill

Evening Prayer, Monday through Friday, 5:30 P. M.

Corporate Communion for Men, Sunday at 8:00 A. M.

The men of the parish will meet together at the Church's Altar this coming Sunday morning at eight o'clock to receive Holy Communion. After the service, there will be a breakfast in the Parish House at which the Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will be the speaker.

All men of the parish and their friends are invited to the service and the breakfast. Reservations for breakfast should be made through the parish office not later than Saturday morning. The members of the committee in charge of this meeting are: Donald Danenhower, John W. Gilmore, Robert B. Platt, and Harvey E. Schock, Jr.

Noon-day Preacher, The Reverend Grant A. Morrill

The noon-day preacher this coming week is the Rector of St. Mark's Church, New Canaan, Connecticut. Mr. Morrill was formerly Associate Executive Secretary of the Church's National Department of Christian Education. From 1943 to 1946 he was a chaplain in the United States Navy. He is a graduate of the Virginia Theological Seminary. Mr. Morrill is one of the leading younger clergymen in the Church today.

Notes

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING date is Monday, April 16, and will be a dinner meeting to be held, as last year, at the Y.W.C.A. on Chestnut Street.

THE NEW ROOM in the basement of the church is well underway. It will not be ready for some weeks yet, but all of the preliminary digging and "shoring up" has been completed.

THE VESTRY meets this Monday in the Parish House at 4:30.

Words of the Anthem

"O hark! the cry, a thousand voices shouting! They greet a King, for Him wild welcome sing, His majesty they sing beyond all doubting; and loud the people cry: 'Hosanna! O Z see, your King comes nigh!' Look! see Him come, with gentle mien and lowly; is this King? To Him wild welcome sing? While from His home the watching angels holy in we hear the cry: 'Hosannah! O Zion, see, your King comes nigh!' Today they cry, but will the cry tomorrow, and hail Him King? To Him wild welcome sing? He goes to die, to lonely sorrow. And few hear His sigh. O Christ, Thy Day shall come again at Easter; to Thee as King, in triumph shall we sing, and homage pay; and once again, O Master, in love shall raise the cry."

Nominations for Vestrymen—Annual Meeting, April 16th.

The annual meeting of the corporation known as The Church of the Holy Trinity is held in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation for Easter Monday, April 2, 1956. However, as is permitted, this meeting will be adjourned and the adjourned meeting will be on Monday, April 16th, at 8 P. M. at the YWCA, 2027 Chestnut Street. Thus, April 16th is the actual date of the meeting.

Nominations for Vestrymen to be elected at the meeting of April 16th may be made by members of the parish in accordance with Article 2, Section 1 of the by-laws which reads as follows: "Nominations may be made in writing by any three persons entitled to vote at the election provided all written nominations are delivered to the Secretary of the Vestry at least seven days prior to Easter Monday" (or fifteen days prior to the adjourned meeting). Therefore, if any desire to make nominations, the nominations must be signed by three persons and mailed to "The Secretary of the Vestry" at 1904 Walnut Street so that they will be mailed no later than fifteen days prior to the meeting.

Evening Auxiliary Corporate Communion

The members of the Evening Auxiliary will receive Communion together at the 8:00 P. M. service on Maundy Thursday.

Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street

Film: "Hope of the East." Discussion Leader: The Rev. Robert Coleman, Missionary from Tokuyama, Japan (currently in the United States on extended furlough; enrolled in the graduate school of Columbia University, studying Japanese language and literature).

The Coffee Hour following the service is for all—enjoy it with us!

Notes

Who says this generation is soft? In the midst of last Friday's swirling snow storm of almost blizzard proportion, 40 young adults (to say nothing of the students, who also meet on Friday evenings) turned out for supper at six and drama and glee club rehearsals. It must be worth it! It must be fun! Come and see! (Incidentally, in the midst of Sunday's worst storm of the year, there were 56 young adults out!)

Still another Friday evening group is in the making—The Handcrafters. Needed: a good leader, with a way about him and a knowledge of all sorts of arts and crafts—and patience and ability to teach and make it fun!

Latest on Radnor Weekend, April 13-15. Send $5.00 registration to Tauno Maki, 321 Hawthorne Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. or Nadine Rak, 1919 Spruce St., Phila. 3, Pa. Deadline: April 8.

Hold the evening of April 6 open, beginning at 8:00, for the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Party. Donation: $1.00. Benefit: Missions!

Recollection

HYMN: 80 (Kneeling)

It tolls for thee

Benediction

The Lord be with you. And with thy spirit. Let us pray.

Easter—1956

Easter Communion

The clergy are ready and indeed anxious to take Holy Communion during the week after Easter to all shut-in people who cannot be at church. We depend on your calling the parish office, LO 7-1267, and requesting that one of the clergy may come to you. When you call, a time will be arranged for the service. Please do not hesitate to ask.

The Easter Offering

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our missionary and parochial budget needs. We are grateful to God that here at Holy Trinity the generosity of its people is enabling this church to carry forward an effective ministry in center-city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in a special thanksgiving to God for His blessings to us.

IMPORTANT PARISH EVENTS AFTER EASTER

Evening Auxiliary to Hear Police Commissioner Tuesday

At its regular monthly meeting, this coming Tuesday, April 3, at six o'clock for dinner, Evening Auxiliary will be addressed by Police Commissioner Gibbons, the head of the Philadelphia Police Department. He will speak on "Juvenile and Narcotic Problems." This is part of the year's "Christian Witness" series and has to do with the Christian's witness in the community.

Dinner reservations should reach the parish office not later than noon on Monday, April 2.

Evening Auxiliary Bake Sale and Card Party, Friday Evening, April 6

The whole parish, men and women, is invited to spend the evening of Friday, April 6, beginning at eight o'clock, at the parish house enjoying the Evening Auxiliary's Card Party and having the opportunity to purchase goods at the Bake Sale. There will be door prizes, surprise packages, and "a good time will be had by all." Consider yourself invited. Tickets ($1.00) may be purchased from members or at the door. Be sure to come!

The Men of the Parish Will Meet April 10

Men: Save the evening of April 10 for a get-together in the parish house at dinner 6:15. The speaker for the occasion will be Dr. W. Edwin Collier, of the World Affairs Council.

Don't Forget the Parish Meeting is Monday, April 16

Again this year, the annual parish meeting will be preceded by a parish dinner on Monday April 16, at 6:15 P. M., at the YWCA, 2027 Chestnut Street. Dinner tickets will be $2.00. Every parishioner should reserve this evening and be at the meeting. If you cannot come for dinner, you can come to the meeting afterward. In any case, plan to come. It will be an important occasion. A further comment will appear in next week's Bulletin.

Handel

The Easter Portion

CHORUS: Hallelujah! for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever. King of kings, and Lord of lords. Hallelujah!

AIR (Soprano): I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth; and though worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God. For now is Christ risen from the dead, the first-fruits of them that sleep.

CHORUS: Since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

RECITATIVE (Bass): Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep; but we shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet.

AIR (Bass): The trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

CHORUS: Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by His blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Blessing and honour, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever. Amen.

Women's Corporate Communion

A Corporate Communion for the women of the Diocese will be held on Monday, April 9, 8:00 A. M. at Old Christ Church, Second Street above Market. Celebrant: The Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart. Breakfast Speaker: The Reverend Pierson Parker, of the General Theological Seminary, New York. Please obtain breakfast tickets ($1.00) in the Woman's Auxiliary Office of the Church House, 202 West Rittenhouse Square, before April 6th.

Notes

ON SUNDAY, April 15, Bishop Hart will be the preacher at Holy Trinity at a service dedicated to Christian Education. Representative alumni of the four Episcopal Church Colleges, Hobart, Kenyon, Trinity, and the University of the South, will be present at the service.

THE VESTRY, at its March meeting, elected S. Scott Stewart to the Vestry to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Frank N. Kneas.

Men of the Parish Meet Tuesday Night

Under the direction of a committee of men composed of Mr. Henry C. Gulbrandsen, Barook J. Masuda, Mr. William Maurer, and Mr. James H. Mearns, III, the men of the parish will meet for dinner this coming Tuesday evening, April 10, at 6:15 in the parish house to hear Dr. W. Edwin Collier, of the World Affairs Council. This is one of a series of men's meetings this spring. All men of the parish and their friends are invited to attend. The price of the dinner is $1.25. Reservations should reach the parish office (LO 7-1267) before Monday noon.

Woman's Auxiliary Luncheon Thursday, April 12

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets Thursday, April 12, for luncheon at one o'clock in the Parish House. The theme for this year's program, "Christian Witness," is continued as Helmut Braendel speaks on "Our Witness in the Parish." Since Christians must "witness" if their faith is to have power, how important it is to have a "witnessing parish." All men of the parish are invited to attend. No special invitation is necessary. Reservations for $1.00 must reach the parish house by Tuesday, April 10.

Annual Parish Meeting, Monday, April 16, 6:15 P. M.

The Annual Parish Meeting, postponed from Easter Monday, will be held at the Y.W.C.A., 202 Chestnut Street, beginning with a dinner at 6:15 P. M. on Monday, April 16. Dinner tickets are two dollars and will be sold at the place of meeting. However, the enclosed card should be returned immediately indicating that you wish a place reserved for you at the dinner.

The meeting itself will begin at 7:15 P. M. and the polls for the election of vestrymen will immediately be open for one half hour. After this, reports from all the parish organizations will be heard. It is not necessary to attend the dinner in order to be at the meeting. It is hoped however that everyone will come for the dinner and its fellowship.

Nominations for vestrymen to fill the three vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of Francis J. Chesterman, Carl N. Martin, and C. C. Morris will be posted in the Church Porch this Sunday. The men whose terms expire may be re-elected and they have been nominated by the Vestry in accordance with the by-laws of the parish. Other nominations must reach the parish office by Friday, April 6.

Two Important Committees

At the last meeting of the Vestry, the Rector appointed a Centennial Committee of the Vestry to make plans for 1957, the Centennial Year of the parish. Members of this Committee are: Mr. Charles W. H. Bancroft, Mr. William H. DuBarry, Mr. C. C. Morris, Mr. S. Scott Stewart, and Mr. William M. West. It is within their discretion to add others to the Committee. The official centennial historian is Miss Marguerite Aspinwall.

Also, the Rector appointed a Committee to survey the work at the Prince of Peace Chapel, toward the time when it will become independent of The Church of the Holy Trinity. Members of this Committee are: Mr. William H. DuBarry, Admiral James L. Kauffman, and C. C. Morris.

Some Interesting Easter Statistics

Looking back over six decades to the first year of the Reverend Floyd W. Tomkins' Rectory, it is interesting to compare the Easter attendance and the numbers of those receiving Holy Communion at Easter. These records have been kept all through the years. At the time of the first Easter morning in 1899, the attendance was 1560, the number receiving Holy Communion 470; in 1906, attendance 1381, communicants 619; in 1916, attendance 1374, communicants 618; in 1926, attendance 1320, communicants 630; in 1936, attendance, 1445, communicants, 595; in 1946, attendance 1156, communicants 606.

This year, 1956, 1035 attended the services and 555 received Holy Communion. The neighborhood has seen many changes and Holy Trinity has become very decidedly a center-city church, but it will be seen from these figures that the old church is still holding her own and drawing a great number of people, although in the meantime great parishes have grown up in the suburbs.

NOTES

NOTES

New directories will be ready for distribution this weekend, containing the names of 176 County Clubbers who have attended three or more times since the first of the year. If your name doesn't appear, it is sincerely hoped that you will become more active, at least come more regularly, during the coming weeks. Is there a better program and a warmer welcome, for young adults, to be found anywhere?

As this goes to press, 75 Trinity Clubbers will spend the week-end with Mr. Pollanick, at the Radnor Conference Center, having a great time, and re-thinking the purpose of Trinity. The basic needs of young adults, and how those needs can be met, week by week, spiritually, socially and intellectually, in 1956-1957. If you can't go to Radnor, be sure to come to "Super at Six," on Sunday evening, to hear what happened, and what you can look forward to.

Parish Meeting Highlights

The following men, whose terms expired at this meeting, were re-elected to the Vestry: J. J. Chesterman, Carl N. Martin, and C. C. Morris.

It was noted that, after less than three months of activity at Holy Trinity, the Assistant Minister, our "center-city missionary," has added twenty-six new people to the parish rolls, lists fourteen persons interested in confirmation, and has called on twenty-five other persons who are more or less interested at this time in Holy Trinity. In addition to this work, he has "serviced" thirteen social service cases, as well as done pastoral counselling in several other instances.

The growth of young adult and student activity as part of our parish life is, to use a good teen-age word, "Fabulous." It was noted that the total active young adult enrollment is now one hundred seventy-eight. Four hundred and eighty have attended at least one of our Sunday night meetings, whose average attendance is one hundred ten each week. Another hundred are active in the student group. Thirty-four schools are represented. There is a Glee Club, with twenty-five members, and a Drama Group with another twenty-five. The parish is planning its first production, a religious "chancel drama," for Sunday, May 27.

Plans for Parish Neighborhood Meetings in the fall were announced. Present plans call for meetings in each of probably ten groups during late September, October, and November. More plans will be formed in the early summer.

Centennial plans for the year 1957 are in process of formation. Two projects are of particular interest. Miss Marguerite Aspinwall is preparing a history of the past one hundred years which, it is hoped, will be published before Christmas of this year. Admiral Bowling, a worker in silver, has offered to create a silver "centennial chalice" for the parish. Members of the parish will be given the opportunity to donate silver to be melted and used for the making of the chalice. More details will appear in next week's Bulletin.

In terms of statistics, the Rector stated that ninety-three have been confirmed in the past five years. Seventy-one of these are now active in parish life. Three have died. Fifteen have been transferred to other parishes. Four have disappeared without leaving any address.

Work in Front of the Church

Nineteenth Street sidewalks are being torn up to lay pipe for heating the new apartment building between Locust and Locust. Entrance to the church will be maintained at all times, although the work is expected to last until the end of August.

Do you Know about Hopetown?

Hopetown, which has offices at 1218 Chestnut Street, Room 407, is the name of a group of people interested in helping patients with mental illness and also in helping their families. Members of the Hopetown group work with such patients before, during, and especially after hospitalization. There are more than three hundred Hopetown volunteer workers. Perhaps you are interested. Call the Hopetown office, PE 5-4195.

NOTES

Total number who attended the Radnor Weekend Conference: 87. In addition to everyone attending that discussions were helpful, the food good, the fellowship fun, out of it all came the theme for the Trinity Club program for 1956-1957—no mean achievement.

The Club and Chancel Players resume Friday evening suppers at six, after a "Radnor" New comers are welcome—there is a place for everyone who is interested.

Be sure you have marked April 27 on your calendar, 8:30 P. M., Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. If you have seen "Geneveive," there will also be three flickers upstairs for entertainment. Informal dancing and refreshments following—with something really different in store.

Valley Forge Military Academy

Tuesday, May 1, St. Phillip and St. James' Day

Holy Communion (Parish): 7:30 A. M.

Holy Communion (Diocesan Service): 9:00 A. M.

(No service at 12:15 because of Diocesan Convention.)

Diocesan Convention at Holy Trinity, Monday, Tuesday

The Convention of the Diocese meets at Holy Trinity this coming week, beginning at eight o'clock on Monday afternoon, continuing with a Diocesan service on Monday evening at eight o'clock. Sessions continue all day on Tuesday. Visitors are welcome in the galleries of the church at all times.

Evening Auxiliary, Tuesday at 6:15

The Evening Auxiliary holds its election meeting this Tuesday after dinner at 6:15 in the parish house. The only officer to be elected at this year's meeting is a new president. Others continue for the second year. Miss Marjorie Layman retires after two years in office. Increasing growth and an increasing usefulness has continued steadily in the Auxiliary under fine leadership. There are now ninety-seven members.

This Sunday Night, Valley Forge Choir

The Valley Forge Military Academy Choir sings at Holy Trinity this Sunday night at the eight o'clock service. This promises to be a thrilling occasion and you are urged not to miss it. Incidentally, it might be a good time for the congregation as a whole to pay tribute to the fine Sunday evening programs being carried on each week by Trinity Club.

After the six o'clock supper in the parish house, preceding the choir's appearance, the speaker is Dr. Douglas V. Steere, intimate friend of Albert Schweitzer, about whom he will speak.

Vestry Designates Name for New Room

The Vestry of the parish has voted to place a tablet at the entrance to the new room under the church. The wording will be "The Centennial Room (The Ruth C. Kitchen Memorial) 1857-1957."

The Rector has appointed William H. DuBarry as Rector's Warden. The Vestry elected William M. West to be Accounting Warden and Charles W. H. Bancroft to be Secretary.

Woman's Auxiliary and Guild Meets at Conference Center

On May 10 the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will meet at the Conference Center, Gulph Creek and County Line Roads, Radnor, Pennsylvania. Trains leaving Pennsylvania Railroad Urban Station at 10:15 A. M. and 10:45 A. M.—Daylight Time—will be met at Radnor station. All women of the parish are invited. No special invitation is necessary. There will be a short business meeting and time for a stroll through the buildings and beautiful grounds before lunch. The afternoon session will be devoted to an evaluation of this season's program, "Christian Witness": Has the program proved helpful and interesting to Auxiliary members?

Reservations for lunch, which will be provided by the Conference Center for $1.25, must be made at the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, before May 3 (a week in advance).

DAYLIGHT TIME BEGINS: ONE HOUR FASTER.

Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street

Tonight's Subject: "Albert Schweitzer" (One of fifth Sunday series, "Some Christian Greats—Their Lasting Contributions.")

Tonight's Speaker: Douglas V. Steere, Ph. D., Professor of Philosophy, Haverford College; Personal Friend of Dr. Schweitzer.

The Coffee Hour following the service is for all—enjoy it with us!

NOTES

Re: This Sunday Night's Speaker. It is a great privilege to have as our guest of honor, Douglas V. Steere, author, lecturer, and world traveler. His friendship with Dr. Albert Schweitzer will bring us intimate and stirring insights into the life of a great man. Extra is being arranged to provide for the attendance a man of his ability and world reputation serves.

Re: This Sunday Night's Service. The Valley Forge Military Academy Choir, under the direction of Lt. Robert Woodside, is a 44-voice choral group, selected from the 725-member corps of cadets at the Wayne post, hailing from 36 states and 17 foreign countries. We are indebted to Major General Baker and Colonel Walker for their consent and assistance.

Friday nights, as usual, in the Parish House: supper at six for the young adult Glee Club and Chancel Players; rehearsal following. This Friday, April 27, an evening of movies and dancing, beginning promptly at 8:30. The best seats go to early-comers—come early; fun!

The Fifth Sunday after Easter

This Sunday before Ascension Day is traditionally known as Rogation Sunday. Particularly in rural areas, it has been observed for centuries as a day of prayer for those engaged in agriculture. Out of this has come its observance also as a day for thinking about prayer in general. The word "rogare" from which the popular name of the Sunday comes means "to pray."

Trinity Choir Sings "Dona Nobis Pacem" by R. Vaughan Williams

Thursday, May 10, Ascension Day

Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M., 12:15 Noon

If you are one of those blessed souls who possess always a sense of constant companionship with Jesus, a realization of His glorious beauty, the profound and humble consciousness of His presence in Him, you will make all possible arrangements to be at the Church's Altar on Ascension Day. This day, the anniversary of the last time anyone saw Jesus as a man, in the flesh, become the observance of His eternalness,—a day of great worship and faith.

The Centennial Chalice

A short time ago, Admiral Jack Frank Bowling, one of whose hobbies is work in silver, designed and created an exquisite memorial silver chalice for use at St. Margaret's Church in Washington. He has now offered to do the same thing for our parish as a Centennial Year memorial and has suggested that we use the same method of collecting silver as was used in Washington. Thus, the chalice will be a memorial to many who have figured in the life of the church.

Beginning this Sunday, in the church porch on Sunday mornings and in the Parish House on week days, there will be a receptacle into which one may put silver pieces of any denomination,—salt-cellars, candlesticks, spoons, bracelets, rings, anything. These will be melted and used for the chalice itself.

Note well: When a piece of silver is left, do not wrap it, but securely attach a tag saying in whose name it is given as a memorial. Co-incident with the dedication of the chalice, a book of remembrance will also be dedicated which will contain a record of all the memorials in the church and including those which are represented in the Centennial Chalice.

For further information about the chalice, call the Rector at the parish office.

News and Notes

THE CHURCH GROWTH COMMITTEE will meet in the Parish House at 7:30 this Tuesday evening. This is an important meeting and a full attendance is urged.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD meets on Thursday (Ascension Day) at the Diocesan Conference Center for lunch. Trains leaving the Pennsylvania Suburban Station at 7:15 and 10:45 A. M. will be met at the Radnor station and transportation will be provided to the Center.

LAST SUNDAY, the congregations at the services totalled six hundred and eighty-nine people. Over four hundred were present in the morning, two hundred and seventy-five in the evening.

Vestry Committees

Know your vestrymen. Talk over the affairs of the parish with them. Here is a list of special responsibilities as committee members. The chairman of the Finance Committee is N. Martin. Members of this committee are Francis J. Chesterman, Francis F. Milne, C. C. Morris. The chairman of the Property Committee is Francis R. Goehring. The members are James L. Kauffman, Frank B. Murdoch, and S. Scott Stewart. The chairman of the Music Committee is Charles W. H. Bancroft. Its members are Merrill A. Kercher, C. C. Morris. These are the standing committees. The wardens are ex-officio members of committees. At the present time, there are three special committees: on the Centennial, Francis J. Chesterman, chairman, together with Francis R. Goehring and James L. DuBarry. The Centennial Committee (making plans for the observance in 1957) has as its chairman William M. DuBarry. The members are Charles W. H. Bancroft, C. C. Morris, S. Scott Stewart, and William M. West. The chairman of the Committee on the Prince of Peace Chapel is the Rector's Warden, together with James L. Kauffman and C. C. Morris.

A Thought for your Meditation

I am a child of God. My life is not separate from the life of God. The resources of God are for the taking. Whatever the day brings, I can count on God's love, and goodness, and power, all sufficient for my need. I am at peace with myself, with my fellow men, and with God. Therefore, I have no need to be anxious, or worried, or afraid. I can live this life simply, peacefully, and creatively. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. A meditation based on Romans 12:2.

I WAS IN THE SPIRIT

DR. JOHN BLOW

"I was in the spirit on the Lord's day. And I heard a great voice of much people in heav'n, saying, Hallelujah, Hallelujah; salvation, and glory, and honor, and pow'r, unto the Lord our God. For true and righteous are His judgments. And again they said, Hallelujah, Hallelujah. And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down, and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen. And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye His servants, and ye that fear Him, both small and great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thund'rings, saying, Hallelujah, Hallelujah: for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to Him; for the marriage of the Lamb is come, Hallelujah, Hallelujah. (From Revelation XIX)

News, News

In a remote Indian village in the Far East, children afflicted by an obscure disease are being cured to health by a woman doctor. In Manila, a much-needed hospital which was totally destroyed in the war is being rebuilt. In Alaska, an Episcopal Bishop is flying a plane which enables him to administer a diocese a quarter as large as the whole United States. In Japan, a school for very poor children is giving hundreds of lives opportunity to become worthwhile.

All this is happening because thousands of women in the Church have a little blue box somewhere in their homes,—a box into which they drop a coin from time to time when they say a prayer of thanksgiving for someone's recovery from illness or someone's survival after a hazardous journey or some other event of life.

The offerings put in the "little blue box" from 1952 to 1955 added up to over three million dollars. With this money, in depressed areas of our world, schools are being built and teachers employed; hospitals are being built and nurses and doctors are being provided; the Gospel of the Lord is being preached and people are living with new hope and true love.

At the service this Sunday morning, the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will present their United Thank Offering. Envelopes are provided for those who wish to contribute.

The Centennial Chalice

Last Sunday, in the receptacle provided in the church porch, several people placed sterling articles which will be melted and used to create the memorial Centennial Chalice. All articles given should be of sterling silver, unwrapped, but with a tag indicating the donor and the date whose memory, if any, the article is given. Out of these silver pieces, Admiral J. Frank Bland, a worker in silver, will create the chalice. Also, a Book of Remembrance will be started listing the memorial names in relation to the chalice, as well as all the present memorials in the church.

If you wish to donate sterling silver for the chalice, bring it with you to church or leave it anytime in the parish house.

Recent Transfers to Holy Trinity

The following have recently transferred their church membership to Holy Trinity: Mrs. M. Herring and James M. Herring, Jr., 1900 Rittenhouse Square, from St. Asaph's Church, Bala-Cynwyd; and Mr. Murray R. Smith, 2211 Pine Street, from Trinity Parish, Southport, Connecticut.

Events

MISS MARY FIELDEN was elected last week to succeed Miss Marjorie Layman as president of the Evening Auxiliary. Other officers continue for another year. The Bulletin's congratulations go to Miss Layman, whose two-year term has been an outstanding one. The Evening Auxiliary now has ninety-seven members.

A GARDEN PARTY on Saturday afternoon, May 19th, in the courtyard of the church is being sponsored by the Church Growth Committee. Although it is a Church Growth Committee affair, anyone with two dollars is welcome to attend and share in the fellowship and the program. Outdoor cooked steaks are but one attraction.

Now and Then We Need to Remind Ourselves

THAT the General Canons of the Church read, "All persons within this Church shall observe and keep the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, by regular participation in the worship of the Church, by hearing God's Word read and taught, and by other acts of devotion and works of charity, using all godly and sober conversation."

THAT the Book of Common Prayer, on Page 291, asks the question, "What is your bounden duty as a member of the Church?" And, in answer, says, "My bounden duty is to follow the Lord to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the advancement of his Kingdom."

THAT the minister of the parish should be notified when anyone is ill (Prayer Book, Canon 18), "When anyone is sick, notice thereof shall be given to The Minister of the parish."
(to be continued next week)

Words of the Anthem

"Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire. Thou the anoint Spirit art, Who dost Thy seven fold gifts impart, Thy blessed unction from above is com life, and fire of love. Enable with perpetual light, the dullness of our blinded sight; a and cheer our soiled face, with the abundance of Thy grace. Keep far our foes, give p at home, where Thou art guide, no ill can come. Teach us to know the Father, Son, and The of both to be but one, that through the ages all along, this may be our endless song; prai to Thy eternal merit, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit."

THREE IMPORTANT COMING EVENTS

This Sunday, Pentecost, Holy Communion at 8 and 11

This Sunday is the Feast of Pentecost commemorating the coming of the Holy Spirit to assembled Apostles and Disciples of Jesus in Jerusalem. It marks the beginning of the Church as such and so the day is sometimes called "the birthday of the Church."
For present-day Christians, it is a day of witness to the power of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Church and of the individual. It is a day of thanksgiving for guidance and strength which Christian people express in grateful worship at God's altar.

Sunday, May 27, a Special Preacher

The Reverend George M. Docherty, successor to Peter Marshall in Washington,
C. will be the special preacher at eleven o'clock on Sunday, May 27. The Presbyterian General Assembly, marking the 250th anniversary of the beginning of Presbyterianism in the United States, will be meeting in Philadelphia from May 24 through May 30.
Trinity is pleased to have an outstanding Presbyterian preacher in its pulpit during a week and to extend to Presbyterians an invitation to attend its services.

Sunday, June 10, Highlanders' Church Parade

A Royal Canadian Highlander Regimental Battalion, three hundred and fifty men, will have their church parade at Holy Trinity on Sunday morning, June 10, at eleven o'clock. They will be accompanied by a detachment of United States Marines. The Battalion in their Scottish will be piped into church by their piper's band.

After the service, the usual Coffee Hour will be held in Rittenhouse Square and the pipers' will give a concert. Scottish societies of Philadelphia will also attend the service.

Notes

MONDAY, 4:00 P. M., Vestry Meeting.

WEDNESDAY, 7:30 P. M., the Parish Council meets.

Errors and Omissions

The Bulletin said last week that only one officer, the President, of the Evening Auxiliary was elected at its last meeting. The past president has pointed out quite rightly that the Bulletin was in error (blush, blush). Miss Marjorie Turner was elected Vice-President and Program Chairman. Our apologies, Miss Turner, and our congratulations to you and the Evening Auxiliary.

Now and Then We Need to Remind Ourselves (continued)

THAT there is the following rubric on Page 321 of the Prayer Book: "Forasmuch as mortal men are subject to many sudden perils, diseases, and sicknesses, and ever uncertain time they shall depart out of this life; therefore, to the intent they may be always in readiness to die, whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call them, the Ministers shall exhort their parishioners to the often receiving of the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, when it shall be publicly administered in the Church; that being, they may, in case of sudden visitation, have the less cause to be disquieted for lack of the same. But if the sick person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house; then he must give timely notice to the Minister, signifying also how many there are to communicate with him; and all things necessary being prepared, the Minister shall there celebrate the Holy Communion, beginning with the Collect, Gospel, and Epistle, here following."

THAT on moving from one parish to another, every person shall procure a letter of transfer (Canon 16).

THAT the Church is the place for funerals (It is evident that the Prayer Book takes for granted on Page 324).

THAT, on Page 320 of the Prayer Book, it says this: "The Minister is ordered (note emphatic that is,—is ordered) from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in the Church, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to make Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

THE MUSIC OF NORTH AMERICA

(Last in Series, "Music of Western Culture." Commentary by Mr. Roan)

"I Looked, And Behold a White Cloud" ..... Willan
 I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice unto him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. Lift up your eyes, and look upon the fields; for they are white even unto harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal. The harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. Amen. Amen.

Welcome, Presbyterians

It is our good pleasure to welcome to Holy Trinity our Christian neighbors of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, who are holding their annual General Assembly in Philadelphia this week. Our fervent prayer is that the day may speedily come when we shall be no longer "neighbors," but fellow members of one family in Christ. We are not divided in terms of the Holy Scriptures nor their content in the Faith once delivered to the Church. We are divided about the essence of the Ministry, the fundamental necessity of the Episcopate to the being of the Church. We are divided also in our concepts of the Sacraments, their nature and efficacy. To many, these matters seem superficial, but to others they have to do with the very validity and integrity of the Body of Christ in our time. May it be that some day wise statesmen of Christ will find the way of resolving our divisions that in every sense we all may be one in our Lord.

In the meantime, truly we are neighbors and we are called upon to love each other as we love ourselves. In this love, it is our great privilege as Episcopalians to have a Presbyterian preach the Gospel in our pulpit today on this very special occasion and to welcome all our friends and neighbors who worship with us today. Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Jesus' love.

Today's Preacher

We at the Church of the Holy Trinity feel very honored in having as our preacher today the Reverend George M. Docherty, minister at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C. Dr. Docherty is a native of Scotland and succeeded the late Peter Marshall at his Washington church. Before coming to America, he served parishes in Glasgow and Aberdeen.

The Next Two Sundays, June 3 and 10

On Sunday, June 3, the International Convention of Rotary Clubs will be opening their meetings in Philadelphia. Doubtless you will know of Rotarians who will be visitors. We request that you write them a letter inviting them to worship with us on that day.
On Sunday, June 10, plan to come early to church so that you will be assured of a seat.
A Battalion of the Royal Canadian Highlanders Regiment will be holding their church parade in Holy Trinity. They will be piped into church by the pipers' band. After church, they will meet in the Square. Scottish societies of Philadelphia will also attend this service.

A New Flag for Hanging Outside

A new American flag for use outside the church has been given us by Mrs. Edward Stinson.
Arrangements for hanging it are being made. We are most grateful to Mrs. Stinson for this

Notes

NEW "SUMMER FORWARDS" are available at ten cents each in the church porch this morning.

THIS SUNDAY AFTERNOON, thousands of Church School children will meet for the presentation of the children's offering at 4:00 P. M. at the Episcopal Academy, City Line and 5th Street. This is something to see and participation in it is thrilling.

THIS SUNDAY NIGHT at eight o'clock in Convention Hall there will be an Ecumenical service of all Christian people which is being held in connection with the Presbyterian General Assembly. Ministers of all churches will march in procession and all people are invited. The musical delegation will be headed by Bishop Armstrong. Dean Pike of New York is one of the speakers.

The Priest

The priestly vocation is, in essence, twofold: its end is personal sanctification and the salvation of souls. The priesthood, though complete in itself, does not exist for its own sake but for the redemption of mankind. It exactly follows the pattern of the priesthood of Christ:
union with the Father's will, redemption through sacrifice. Men are ordained to make good use of their abilities, not to maintain themselves in a congenial way of life, but to be builders or writers or preachers or theologians, but to be men who will lay down leisure and life in reclaiming, with Christ, the world from sin, to give the Christ-life to souls. "For what do I sanctify myself": the Christ-life lived, the Christ-life spread—and in that order.

The flowers on the altar today are in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Teakle.

Words of the Anthem

"Holy Lord, God of Hosts, heav'n and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to Thee O Lord most High. Amen."

Today is Shut-In's Day

Will you visit a shut-in person this Sunday? All over the United States, thousands are doing it today. You can bring the joy and peace of God to someone by your act of visitation. Be His witness and messenger this Sunday.

Silver for Chalice is Pouring In

Many are giving sterling silver for the memorial chalice. If you wish to contribute a silver piece as a memorial, please attach a tag to it with the name of the person for whom it is a memorial.

About the Service on Sunday, June 10

The Third Battalion of the Royal Highland Regiment of Canada, the "Black Watch," under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Ian R. McDougall and Captain Ian Roberts, is in Philadelphia on the invitation of the Mayor and will hold its church parade at Trinity at eleven o'clock on Sunday, June 10. The Battalion will be accompanied by a detachment of United States Marines. At the close of the service, there will be a memorial remembrance with a member of the Battalion playing a lament on the bagpipes. Scottish societies have been invited to attend. Scots in kilts will receive the morning

Warning: come early to church so that you will be assured of a seat.

Welcome, Rotarian Visitors

Rotary International holds its annual convention in Philadelphia this week. To many Rotarians and Rotary Ann visitors from places far and wide, Holy Trinity extends a welcome this Sunday. Rotarians will be interested to know that a former rector, Phillips K. wrote the words of the Christmas Carol, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and a member of this parish, Lewis Redner, composed the music. It was sung for the first time in this church. The chancel murals are in commemoration of this event.

Sunday, September 9: Rally Sunday, Holy Communion at 8:00; Morning Prayer at 11:00; preacher, the Rector.

A Suggestion

Many of you will be leaving soon to spend the entire summer away from Philadelphia. We suggest that you fill your envelopes or send in your pledge check before you leave. In past years, most of you have always done this and it enables us to operate throughout the summer without any undue strain on our resources. We think, too, that it's easier

Summer "Forwards" are available at ten cents each in the church porch.

The Church of the Holy Trinity is honored to be chosen as the church for the Church Parade of the 3rd Battalion of the Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada during its visit to Philadelphia. The Commanding Officer of the Third Battalion is Ian R. McDougall, Lieutenant Colonel. The Adjutant is Ian Roberts, Captain. The chaplain of the 3rd Battalion, who unfortunately could not leave his duties in Montreal to be present today, is the Reverend R. J. Berlis.

The Drums and Pipes of the Battalion will pipe the Battalion into church at ten minutes past eleven on Sunday morning. Immediately after church, there will be a parade around the square, after which the Battalion must leave for lunch and ceremonies later at Independence Hall.

The 3rd Battalion will be accompanied by a representative detachment from the United States Marine Corps and the United States Marine Corps Reserve.

We welcome the members of Scottish societies who are attending the service this morning. The chaplain of the St. Andrew's Society, the Reverend Andrew Mutch, will lead in the reading of the Psalms.

All who attend the eleven o'clock service today are invited by the Church Growth Committee of the parish to have a glass of lemonade and cookies at tables in Rittenhouse Square immediately after the service.

Monday is St. Barnabas' Day. There will be Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 P. M., as on all saint's days and holy days.

Words of the Anthem

"Hark! hark, my soul; angelic songs are swelling o'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore: how sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling, of that new life in sin shall be no more! Angels of Jesus, angels of light, singing to welcome the pilgrims night. Onward we go, for still we hear them singing, come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come; and, through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing, the music of the Gospel leads us home. Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing, the voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea, and laden souls by thousands meekly stealing, kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee. Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary, the day must dawn and the night be past; all journeys end in welcome to the weary, and heav'n, the heart's true home, will come at last. Angels, sing on! Your faithful watches keeping; sing us sweet fragments of the songs above; till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping, and life's long shadow break in cloudless love."

Our Thanks

Thank you, Miss Mae Steward, Miss Mary C. Buchanan, and Miss Dorothy G. H. for your every Wednesday afternoon work of preparing the Bulletin for mailing. Without the Bulletin mailing would be a tremendous job for the secretary each week. Your work is necessary and appreciated.

THIS IS THE LAST ISSUE OF THE BULLETIN TO BE MAILED UNTIL SEPTEMBER NINTH.

The Church School

The Church School adjourns for the summer today with closing exercises in the parish hall, the awarding of certificates of promotion, and a resume of the year's work and Christian gains gained. After the Baptism of Robbyn Glendine Stone, refreshments will be served to children and parents of the Church School and the annual family outing to Holy Trinity's Day House will get underway.

We are indebted to the Church School teachers (Miss Doris Duke, Mrs. Naomi Massey, Jeanette Clark, Mr. and Mrs. James Ashbrook, Mrs. Arthur Abbott, Miss Barbara Blair, Mr. David Williams, and Miss Anne O'Keeffe, and the Misses Evelyn Clark, Caroline Gillespie, and Virginia Lent) for their loyalty and devotion during the past year. Classes resume September 16.

Remember the Bazaar Wherever You Are

Thursday, November 8, the date of the annual Christmas Bazaar and Card Party at the school, seems a thousand miles away right now. But it is not too soon to start remembering. The women of Holy Trinity need your interest and help again this year and ask that during the hot summer you use your leisure moments to make things for the tables or, when travelling, remember that charming things from other places have great appeal and will be deeply appreciated. The Bazaar tables will be: Fancy, Useful, Aprons, Handkerchiefs, Cake, Candy, Books, and New, White Elephants, and Surprise Packages. —Mrs. J. F. Bowling, Chairman

Summer at Holy Trinity

Summer arrives this week on (or about) the twenty-first of June. During the summer months, until almost the beginning of fall on (or about) September twenty-first, the parish organizations (except Trinity Club and the indefatigable Church Growth Committee, see below) will meet and the Bulletin is not mailed.

However, Sunday, Thursday, and Holy Day services continue as usual, except for the evening service. There will be Holy Communion every Sunday at eight o'clock and the first Sunday at eleven o'clock, with services of Holy Communion on Holy Days at 8:30 and 12:15 (noon) and on every Thursday at 12:15 (noon). On Sundays at eleven o'clock (except the first), there is Morning Prayer.

During July, the Rector is the preacher. He will repeat a series of sermons on the Bible which he preached on the Sundays immediately following his first Sunday at Holy Trinity three years ago. The sermon titles are: "We look at the Bible as a whole," "The Old Testament, isn't it enough?", "The Gospels, the history of God's Redeeming, Saving Love," "The Holy Spirit, God's Redemptive Power," "Revelation,—the Great Salvation."

During August, the Associate Rector is the preacher. He will preach a series of sermons on "Personalities Who Made Church History." The titles are: August 5, "From the Catacombs to the Throne"; August 12, "In the Not-So-Holy Roman Empire"; August 19, "Reformers of the Continent"; August 26, "Reformation on the British Isles"; September 2, "The Church Yesterday's New World and Today's."

The Summer Boattrip down the Delaware

How about a good old-fashioned, all-day trip down the Delaware on the Wilson Line on Saturday, July 7? The Rector recommends it for fun and fellowship. It's a little noisy, yes,—but for change of pace, a cool breeze, close-ups of river traffic, it's worth it. The Church Growth Committee has arranged an "Episcopal Day." Why not put it on your calendar?

The Coming Year

Plans for 1956-1957, the Centennial Year, are taking shape. The Rector is planning a series of neighborhood group meetings for the fall months and you will be hearing more about this in the next few weeks. A history of the past one hundred years at Holy Trinity will be ready for publication in September. One of the first acts of the fall will be the dedication of the new Memorial Room, the Ruth Custis Kitchen Memorial.

The Trinity Club young adult plans and the program of the Canterbury student group are completed. Another year of worship, brilliant lectures, discussions, and social activities is planned.

In the spring, during Lent, there will be a parochial mission under the leadership of the Rev. William Lea, Editor of the Episcopal Church News. This can be an event of tremendous significance and every effort will be made to make it just that important.

The Archbishop of York has been invited to preach the Centennial Sermon in May. His acceptance has not yet been received.

The Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity

SEPTEMBER 9, 1956

This Is Rally Sunday at Holy Trinity The Rector Hopes to See You at Church This Sunday

Three or four times during the year, as the Rector of The Church of the Holy Trinity I ask every parishioner to make a special effort to be at church. This first Sunday of the working year is one of these occasions. It gives me an opportunity to make articulate our hopes and plans for the coming year and also to review the things which are our aims as a Christian fellowship,—and to know that all of us have thought about them together. May I count on you to be present this Sunday?

Words of the Anthem

"Surely God is in this place. This is none other than the house of God, the very gate of heav'n. The place whereon thou standest is holy ground. O Lord of Hosts, my King and God, how lovely is the place where Thou, enthroned in glory, shew'st, the brightness of Thy face. How highly blest are they Who in Thy temple always dwell, and there Thy praise display. To Father, Son and Holy Ghost, the God whom we adore be glory as it was, is now, and shall be evermore. Amen."

Trinity Club resumes its meetings next Sunday, September 16.

The eight o'clock evening service resumes next Sunday, September 16.

Centennial Room Dedication Today

At the conclusion of the morning service, members of the congregation are asked to follow the choir and clergy to the Centennial Room in the basement of the church for a brief service of dedication. The room is a memorial to Ruth Custis Kitchen, who was for many years a devoted leader in the activities of Holy Trinity, as well as the Diocese and the Philadelphia Council of Churches.

On this Sunday evening, Trinity Club will use the room for its first organization meeting. The Mayor of Philadelphia will be the first speaker.

September Sermon Series

This Sunday and on the remaining two Sundays in September, the Rector is preaching a series of sermons with the general title, "Studies in Christian Thinking." Today's sermon is "Four Ways of Thinking about God"; on Sunday, September 23, "Two Ways of Thinking about Christ"; and on Sunday, September 30, "Three Ways of Thinking about the Church."

The Coming Group Meetings

Beginning on Monday evening, September 24, a series of sixteen neighborhood group meetings will begin with Group Number Two meeting in the Centennial Room at 7:45 P. M. Each member of the parish is asked to attend one of the meetings,—the one in his or her own neighborhood, if possible. Each member should know what his group number is. In addition to last summer's advance notice of the meetings (which it is hoped you have marked on your calendar), further notices will be sent notifying people of their group meeting place and date.

Four groups will meet during the week of September 24, Group Two (Chestnut and Walnut Street, 19th to 24th) on Monday evening in the Centennial Room; Group Three (Locust, Spruce, Pine, 20th to 24th) on Tuesday evening in the Centennial Room; Group Four (Spruce, Pine, 17th to 20th) on Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Bachman, 1500 South 18th Street; and Group 5 (Locust, Spruce, 10th to 17th) on Thursday evening with Mrs. M. K. Werle at her apartment in the Touraine at 1520 Spruce Street. Further meetings will be announced in next week's Bulletin. Please note that Group One (Rittenhouse Square) will not meet until October 3.

Adult Confirmation Classes Will Begin Sunday, October 14

Members of the parish are advised that the Bishop will visit Holy Trinity for Confirmation on Sunday, December 9. Eight preparatory classes will begin at 2:30 on Sunday afternoon, October 14, and continue each Sunday through December 2. All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend the preparatory classes. The classes are also open to anyone, whether planning to be confirmed or not.

Now is the time to talk to your friends and acquaintances who may be interested in becoming communicant members of the Episcopal Church. The September sermons may also help them to come to a decision.

The Thursday and Holy Day Services of Holy Communion

Every Thursday in the year at 12:15, noon, there is a service of Holy Communion at Holy Trinity. Here is an opportunity for spiritual refreshment, for worship and dedication. Also on all Holy Days and Saints' Days there are services at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15, noon. Take advantage of these spiritual opportunities as often as possible.

Notes

St. Matthew's Day is Friday, September 21. There will be Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15, noon.

The Vestry meets this coming Monday, September 17, at 4:00 P. M. This is the regular monthly meeting.

The Sunday Evening Program at Holy Trinity

Although the evening service is for all people, center city students in various schools be interested in the Canterbury Club program. Young adults will take note of the Trinity Club announcement. No special invitations are necessary. Any student or young adult who wishes will find a welcome at these meetings.

The Sunday evening services will have visiting choirs frequently, sermons by the Rector on every second Sunday evening, The Associate Rector on the third Sunday evening.

6:00 P.M.—Canterbury Club (for students)

Speaker: Rabbi Joel Zion, Director Council of Reformed Congregations of Greater Philadelphia, and Herbert Zuckerman, Director of Education, Keneseth Israel. Meeting in Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street.

6:00 P.M. Trinity Club (for Young Adults)

Speaker: The Rev. G. Elson Ruff, L.D.D., Litt.D., Editor-in-Chief, United Lutheran Publication House. Meeting in the Centennial Room, 1902 Walnut Street.

8:00 P.M.—Evening Service

The Choir of St. Thomas' Church, West Philadelphia, will sing at this service. The Rev. Jesse F. Anderson will be the preacher.

Parish Group Meetings Start This Monday

I cannot stress too strongly the importance of these meetings for our parish life. I urge attendance of every parishioner.
—HARRY S. LONGLEY, Rector

Time Program for the Meetings

The first part of the meeting will begin at 7:45 P. M. and last until 8:30 P. M. Then there will be a ten-minute intermission and the second part of the meeting will begin at 8:40 P. M. and last until 9:30 P. M. The two parts of the meeting will form the whole and all are to plan their time accordingly. Plan to arrive promptly and plan to stay throughout the evening.

Note: Each person will attend only one of the meetings,—the one in his neighborhood. For some very pressing reason, you cannot attend your own group, then plan to attend some other group. The Parish Office (LO 7-1267) has the complete schedule of meetings. However, one of the basic elements in the meetings has to do with neighbors meeting together. It is important for you to be with your own group.

This Week's Meetings

Group Two (Chestnut, Walnut Street, 19th to 24th) Monday, 7:45 P. M., Centennial Room.
Group Three (Locust, Spruce, Pine, 20th to 24th) Tuesday, 7:45 P. M., Centennial Room.

Group Five (Locust, Spruce, 10th to 17th) Thursday, 7:45 P. M., with Mrs. M. K. Werle at her apartment in the Touraine at 1520 Spruce Street.
Subsequent Meeting dates and places for groups in Next Week's Bulletin).

Transfers to and from the Church of the Holy Trinity

A number of new people who have recently transferred to Holy Trinity have been added to our parish fellowship. They are: Joseph Burr Bond, 1810 Rittenhouse Square; Neale Bringham, 136 Edgehill Road, Bala-Cynwyd; Charles F. Hall, 1902 Spring Garden St.; Samuel Hoffer, 1002 South 45th St.; Mrs. Marlene Maertens, St. James Hotel; Mrs. Spruance, 128 South 11th St.; Mrs. Robert Trueman, 1917 Panama St.; David H. Hams, 1445 Kynlyn Dr., Wilmington. Transfers to Holy Trinity have been requested by Mrs. Joseph Noonan, 2101 Walnut St.; Miss Lillian Stockburger, 113 South 20th St.; Dorothy B. Vaughan, Rittenhouse Claridge, and are in process of completion. With joy we welcome these new people to our parish life and pray God's blessing on them.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow G. Campbell and family have transferred from Holy Trinity to Martin's, Radnor; Mrs. Ann Nash (nee Renninger) to Trinity, Miami; Mrs. Eugene Roan to St. Thomas', Whitmarsh. We lose these people from our parish life with regret but rejoice to know that they are assuming responsibilities in another parish. Mr. Campbell is chairman of the Every Member Canvass at St. Martin's.

Centennial Room Dedicated, Crowded at First Meeting

Last Sunday morning, in the presence of many parishioners, the new and beautiful Centennial Room in the church basement was dedicated to the glory of God and in memory of Custis Kitchen. At the morning service, the rector spoke in appreciation of the services of Francis J. Chesterman who has been in charge of the building of the room. He was aided by Francis R. Goehring and Admiral Kauffman, the other members of the special vestry committee.

On Sunday evening, the room was used for the first time for a parish meeting. One hundred and fifty members of Trinity Club sat down to supper. Also, because of the room's spaciousness, another group of Canterbury Students were meeting in the parish house. Thus, at one time, the scheduling of more than one parish meeting at a time was possible.

AUXILIARY PROGRAMS ANNOUNCED

Mailed with this issue of the Bulletin are the 1956-1957 programs both for the Day and Evening Women's Auxiliaries. Both programs are based on the relation of our parish to the world as a part of the Church to the world around it. Speakers include persons who are doing exciting pieces of work in their fields: Church Army Captain Paddock, the specialist in relation to the Church's Ministry to Migrant Workers; the Rev. J. McNeal Wheatley, who has done a job of integrating a parish in a changing neighborhood which has become a model for the whole Church; the Rev. C. L. Samuelson of the National Council; the Rev. Herman H. Bruner, Rector of St. Peter's, Albany, New York, and one of next Lent's noon-preachers; Dr. George F. Thomas, Professor of Religion, Princeton University.

The first Evening Auxiliary meeting is on Tuesday, October 2nd. The dinner is at 6 in the Centennial Room. The first Women's Auxiliary and Guild meeting is on Thursday, October 11th. The lunch is in the Parish House, 1 P. M.

NEW FORWARDS ARE AVAILABLE AT THE CHURCH DOOR SUNDAY

NOTE: Wednesday night's meeting (Group 1) postponed to Monday, October 8th, Centennial Room.

Thursday Night, Group 7 (Pine, Locust and South, 47th to 55th Streets) meets at the Garden Court Plaza Apartments with Mr. and Mrs. David C. Seager, Apartment 2J.

The Rector urges every parishioner to attend his or her group meeting.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 2nd.

The Evening Auxiliary meets in the Centennial Room for dinner at 6:15 P. M. this coming Tuesday, October 2nd. All women of the parish who cannot attend a daytime meeting are invited to the Evening Auxiliary meeting. The theme for the year's educational program is “His Witnessing Community.” The first speaker, talking about “Our Parish and The Urban Church” is the Rev. J. McNeal Wheatley, Rector of the Church of The Advocate, Philadelphia. The Rector of Holy Trinity has heard the story of the work at The Advocate and reports that it is a thrilling and fascinating one. Be sure to come to the meeting.

Men's Club to Hear Noted Psychologist on October 9th

The first Men's Club meeting of the 1956-1957 year will be on Tuesday, October 9th at dinner in the Centennial Room. Rex B. Hersey, Professor at the University of Pennsylvania, will be the speaker and will talk about the psychological problems of present day people who have more leisure time than ever before. Notices will go out to the men of the parish this week. All are invited together with their friends.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

DONATION DAY at the House of Rest, 5919 Wayne Ave., in Germantown, is Monday, October 8th. At 3:30 that afternoon, Bishop Hart will dedicate the new memorial wing at the House of Rest. Tea will be served from 2 to 5 and all are invited to visit and inspect this Diocesan home for the Aged.

The White Elephant table at the Christmas Bazaar is ready for any and all objects for donations. Send them to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, plainly marked “White Elephant Table.” Mrs. George M. Laws is in charge of this part of the Bazaar to be held at the Barclay on November 8th.

Adult Confirmation classes begin on Sunday, October 14th, at 2:30 P. M. in the church. Now is the time to advise your friends who may wish to enter these preparation classes.

Every Thursday at 12:15 (noon), there is a service of Holy Communion in the church. All clergy welcome requests for special intercessions at this service.

On Wednesday, October 3rd, the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary Committee on Prayer and Praise will attend a service of Holy Communion at Holy Trinity, at 10:30 A. M. The Rector of Holy Trinity will be the celebrant and the Rev. James G. Ludwig, III, will explain the service as it moves forward. Any interested person is welcome to attend.

Your Attention Is Called

Page 308 of the Prayer Book where it says “When any person is sick, notice thereof may be given to the Minister of the Parish.” One of the primary responsibilities of a Priest is to his people is their care and welfare in times of illness. Therefore, it has always been your custom to place calls on the sick in the category of first priority. The great difficulty in this matter is the failure of those who need the ministrations of the Church to call on their minister at such times. Won't you please let him know when you need the prayers of your minister? It is the Rector's glad privilege to respond to your call.

NEW “FORWARD DAY BY DAY” BOOKLETS ARE AVAILABLE IN THE PARISH PORCH.

Become A Part of Your World This Sunday

On this Sunday, October 7, 1956, it is the hope of the Christian Church in every part of the world that every person who calls himself or herself "Christian," whether Anglican, Orthodox, Protestant, or Roman Catholic, will, if he or she is in anyway able to do so, be present at the Lord's table and participate in the Holy Communion. This vast corporate act of the whole Church will begin with the first Christians on the other side of the international date line—in the Fiji Islands and New Zealand. It will be six o'clock on Saturday evening here, eleven o'clock on Sunday morning in New Zealand. As the hands go around the clock, every hour of the twenty-four, Christians will kneel at their altars. And, thus, millions will witness to their common faith in Christ Incarnate and their common love of God who first loved them.

Be yourself a part of this witness this Sunday. Join with your fellow Christians everywhere.

Words of the Anthem

"Send forth Thy Spirit, O Lord, our God eternal and let the face of earth be renewed. Come Thou, Spirit Heavenly, expand our hearts with faith in Thy Holy Name. And grant us Thy love and mercy, O Lord, Thy peace everlasting. Alleluia!"

Charles W. H. Bancroft, Fifty Years at Holy Trinity

Vestryman, Choir Singer, Carillonneur, Faithful Parishioner, and many other things, Charles W. H. Bancroft is keeping the anniversary of his fifty years at Holy Trinity this Sunday. His favorite hymn "When Morning Gilds the Skies" is the processional. Although there will be no Coffee Hour, this being the first Sunday in the month, the Rector hopes that Mr. Bancroft will stand with him at the church door to receive the congratulations of the people.

Men's Club Meets Tuesday Evening, Dinner at 6:15 P. M.

All men of the parish, together with their friends, are invited to attend the first men's dinner of the year in The Centennial Room, Tuesday evening at 6:15 P. M. Dr. Rexford Casey, Professor of Industry, University of Pennsylvania, will speak on the psychological problems and tensions arising out of the increase in leisure time. Please call the Parish House before Monday noon for reservations (LO 7-1267). The dinner is $1.25.

Women's Auxiliary and Guild Meets Thursday, Luncheon at 1 o'clock

The Women's Auxiliary and Guild meets Thursday, October 11th, at 1 o'clock for luncheon immediately after the service of Holy Communion in the church at 12:15 P. M. It is hoped that all members will attend the service of Holy Communion when the work of the Women's Auxiliary will be especially remembered. At the luncheon meeting after service, Captain William Paddock of the Church Army will tell of the church's ministry to agricultural and industrial migrants and isolated people. This is the first in the series, "Our Parish and Its Outreach." Captain Paddock has been in this field of work for many years and is the authority on the subject in the church.

All women of the parish are invited to attend, no special invitation is necessary. Reservations for lunch ($1.00) must reach the Parish House by Tuesday, October 9th. Telephone LO 7-1267.

The Sunday Evening Program at Holy Trinity

Speaker: The Rev. Joseph H. Hall, 3rd, A.M., Th.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History, The Divinity School in Philadelphia. Topic: "Background of the Christian Church—Contributions of the Greeks; the Romans; the Jews."

8:00 P.M.—Evening Service

The Young Adult Chancel Players will present a pageant, "Prophecy and Fulfillment." This is a pageant of voices and light produced and directed by John W. King.

GROUP MEETINGS THIS COMING WEEK

Monday night, Group 1 (Rittenhouse Square), The Centennial Room, at 7:45 P. M.

Wednesday night, Groups 9, 10, 14, 15. This is a joint meeting of four groups with widely scattered addresses. Since no one place would be convenient, it seemed best for people to gather in The Centennial Room, at 7:45 P. M., at the church. The Rector suggests that people unable to attend earlier meetings, come to this one, Wednesday, October 10th.

Thursday night, Group 11 (Germantown, Chestnut Hill) at St. Peter's Church, Wayne Avenue and Harvey Street, Germantown, at 7:45 P. M.

Words of the Anthem

Turn back, O man, forswear thy foolish ways. Old now is earth, and none may count her days. Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame, Still wilt not hear thine inner voice proclaim, "Turn back, O man, forswear thy foolish ways."

2:30 P.M.—Adult Confirmation Class (in the church)

The Sunday Evening Program at Holy Trinity

Although the evening service is for all people, center city students in various schools will be interested in the Canterbury Club program. Young adults will take note of the Trinity Club announcement. No special invitations are necessary. Any student or young adult reading this will find a welcome at these meetings.

6:00 P.M.—Canterbury Club (for students)

Tonight's Subject: "The Baptists," first in a series, "Our Churches"—led by leading representatives of denominations on the teachings and practices of their respective church.

6:00 P.M. Trinity Club (for Young Adults)

Tonight's Subject: "Biblical Translations," first in a series on, "Understanding the Bible." Speaker: Harold S. Murphy, Ph. D., Instructor in Religious Thought, University of Pennsylvania.

8:00 P.M.—Evening Service

Preacher: Dr. Longley, the first in a series of sermons on, "The Nature of Sin." Music by the University of Pennsylvania A Cappella Choir.

Adult Confirmation Classes Start This Sunday

At 2:30 this afternoon in the church, the first of eight classes in preparation for Confirmation and communicant membership in the Episcopal Church will begin. Bishop Armstrong will visit the parish on Sunday morning December ninth to confirm those people who are presented to him. All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend the classes on the next eight Sunday afternoons.

It should be noted that the classes are open to anyone, whether planning to be confirmed or not. Attendance at them does not commit anyone to being confirmed at their pleasure. For people who are already confirmed members of the church, the classes are an opportunity to gain a better understanding of what it means to be an Episcopalian.

There are Still Forgotten People But the Church Still Cares

Refugees, homeless wanderers, still throng Hong Kong, Korean, Greek, and German. The refugee problem is a paramount one in the Near East. Your Church, through Church World Service is seeking at present to clothe these unhappy people. Clean, warm, women's, and children's clothing in good condition, shoes, layettes, yard goods, sheets, and sewing equipment will reach refugees through Church World Service. You can help in this by bringing articles to church this Sunday and next Sunday. Put them into the receptacles which will be provided in the church porch.

Neighborhood Group Meetings This Week at 7:45 P. M.

MONDAY NIGHT, Group 12 (Overbrook, Bala, Merion, Wynnewood, etc.) at the Episcopal Academy, City Line Avenue and Berwick Road, held at 7:45 P. M. Come to the main building for directions.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE BAZAAR, NOVEMBER 8th, will be at The Barclay as usual with an afternoon card party as its feature attraction. Mrs. Jack Bowling is chairman and is calling for donations for the fancy and useful tables, white elephant table, apron table, etc. Call Mrs. Bowling for further information, KI 5-7228. (More next week).

THE PRAYER GROUP (for all concerned people) will resume its weekday meetings Thursday, October 18th, at 11:45 A. M., in the church near the font (southwest corner). It is open to all, men or women.

THE NEW PARISH SECRETARY, succeeding Mrs. Gene Roan, is Mrs. Virginia Bitter. Mrs. Bitter has come to us after being secretary to the Rev. Howard B. Miller of Holy Trinity Church in Collingswood, New Jersey.

THE CENTENNIAL HISTORY is finished and in the hands of the printer. Miss Marguerite Aspinwall has been at work on this for the past year. Much more will be about it later on. It will be published between hard covers and will be amply illustrated.

THE COMMUNITY FUND should be in everyone's mind. This is the way that all people unite for the welfare of their community. Christian people will, of course, lead the way in love.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, ST. LUKE'S DAY

Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 (noon)
On this day, we remember especially physicians, nurses, hospitals, and their staffs.

THE BAZAAR, ANNUAL AUTUMN EVENT, IS NOVEMBER 8th

The women of the Parish once again are busy working hard for their annual Christmas gift bazaar and card party to be held at the Barclay, 18th and Rittenhouse Square, from noon until six o'clock on Thursday, November the eighth.

Conscious of the generosity of the whole parish and the all-important part it plays in the success of our venture, The Women's Auxiliaries again appeal for articles to stock our tables. We hope you did not forget our summer slogan, "Remember the Bazaar wherever you are."

Donations for the Fancy Work and Useful Tables, aprons and handkerchiefs, will be welcomed as well as saleable items for the popular White Elephant stall. This table would like jewelry, both modern and old.

Promises for cake and candy for those tables will be most appreciated at this time.
Remember that the Book table will be stocked with the latest best-sellers fresh from the publishers at book store prices and is an excellent place to buy for the book-lovers on our Christmas list. Mrs. Longley will be happy to order any book you wish. The Book table also wants clean, attractive, used books.

Your donations of non-perishable articles plainly marked "Bazaar" and with your name, may be left at the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, anytime before November third. Candies, cakes, and salted nuts should arrive at the Barclay before noon the day of the Bazaar.

Plan to come to the Bazaar. If you don't play cards or haven't that much time, drop in and take advantage of the rare bargains to be had at all the Tables. Help us to make this year's Bazaar the most successful one ever.

For further information, call Mrs. Jack Frank Bowling, KI 5-7228.

YOU MAY STILL ENTER THE CONFIRMATION CLASS

It is still possible to enter the present Adult Confirmation Class, but no new persons who are planning to be confirmed will be enrolled after this Sunday. Persons entering today will be asked to make up the first class later. The class meets in the church on Sunday afternoons at 2:30 P. M. promptly.

Anyone, whether planning to be confirmed or not, is welcome at the class. The Rector asks that all who plan to be confirmed attend the seven classes on successive Sunday afternoons between now and December ninth when the Bishop visits the parish.

SOUTHERN CONVOCATION MEETS HERE ON TUESDAY

For the first time in many years, the Southern Convocation of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will meet at Holy Trinity next Tuesday afternoon and evening, October 23rd. The Southern Convocation includes all the parishes between the Delaware, and the Schuylkill south of Market Street.

The Women's Auxiliary meets in the Parish House at 3:30 P. M. The Convocation dinner is in the church at five o'clock, and the Convocation dinner will be in the Centennial Room at six o'clock. Bishop Hart will speak at the dinner.

Members of the Women's Auxiliary and Guild, and the Evening Auxiliary of Holy Trinity will be hostesses and waitresses at the dinner.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE GROUP MEETINGS have been completed. Action on information obtained in the questionnaires will be taken as soon as possible. A summary of the general health of the parish as revealed in the meetings will be published in next week's Bulletin.

THE CARILLON is liked by a resident of Rittenhouse Square who writes, "Please never stop playing the chimes of Holy Trinity. We look forward to Sunday and Thursday any other day when there is occasion for them to ring out. There have been many times on Rittenhouse Square (not for the better and, of course, that is the price of progress) that Holy Trinity has remained its charming self since before the Civil War, and for that we are truly grateful."

THE UTO INGATHERING will take place on Sunday, October 28th, at the 11 o'clock service. Blue Box offerings should be made at this time.

THE PRAYER GROUP begins its meetings this Thursday at 11:45 A. M. in the church southwest corner (the north transept!) near the font. Everyone, men or women, is welcome to become "one who is praying" and to learn of prayer needs at the Prayer Group meetings.

THE CENTENNIAL ROOM has been used by more than fifteen hundred people in one meetings since its dedication one month ago. The Diocesan Auxiliary has used it, our parish is holding monthly meetings in it, Alcoholics Anonymous uses it for meetings, as well as the meetings of our own parish group.

ALL SAINTS' DAY, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER FIRST

"We are one Church, one Fellowship—the living here and the living there who have passed this life but forever grow in love and service in God's Heavenly Kingdom. So, in the name of Holy Communion, we say "therefore with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of Heaven," we join in worship. In the special preface to the Sanctus, we speak of being encompassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses." We remember at the All Saints season in particular those whom we have loved long since and lost awhile. And we, through faith, know that at Holy Communion we are joined with them again.

On All Saints' Day, this Thursday, November First, and at the services on Sunday, November Fourth, we will remember by name especially those of our parish fellowship (whose names have been entered on the parish register of the Church of the Holy Trinity) who have passed from this life since last All Saints' Day.

7:30 A.M.—HOLY COMMUNION

12:15 (NOON)—HOLY COMMUNION

8:00 P. M.—THE CHOIR SINGS THE "REQUIEM" BY GABRIEL FAURE

The Choir, under the direction of Robert Knox Chapman, will be assisted by Frank Costanzo, violinist, and Marilyn Costello, harpist of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Faure's "Requiem," so appropriate for the All Saints' season, is one of the great works of religious music.

ANALYSIS OF ATTENDANCE AT THE GROUP MEETINGS

The neighborhood group meetings, although not well attended, did provide a view of the Parish, which perhaps could be had in no other way. The breakdown is interesting. There are six hundred and ninety-three individuals in the parish. Two hundred and thirty-seven attended group meetings. Four hundred and fifty-six did not attend.

Who comprise the four hundred and fifty-six who did not respond to the Rector's invitation? One hundred and eighty-three of these are, for various reasons other than age or illness, inactive either as church attendants or participants in parish activities. Ninety-three of them make no financial contribution to the church's work. Probably many of them should be removed from the list of active parishioners. Ninety-eight others were known to be unable to attend for the following reasons: too aged, sixty-four; ill, twenty-five; too far from meeting place at night, three; out of town, six. Many of these wrote notes to the Rector expressing their regret at being absent. This leaves one hundred and seventy-five who were not present and accounted for at the meetings.

In brief, out of the six hundred and ninety-three individuals in the parish, four hundred and twelve, not aged, ill, or away, could have been expected at the meetings. Of these, a little more than half, or two hundred and thirty-seven actually attended. Where were the other one hundred and seventy-five? Could it be they forgot?

ADDITIONAL MEETING, NEXT TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 7:45 P.M.

For those who forgot or were otherwise unable to attend a group meeting, there will be a general meeting next Tuesday evening, October 30th, at 7:45 P.M. in the Centennial Room. The Rector invites you to be present.

LOYALTY SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 18TH

Members of the congregation are urged to set aside Sunday morning, November 18th, so that they can be in church and participate in the Loyalty Sunday Service, at 11 o'clock that morning. This great act of worship and offering is an annual service with us and all should support it.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE MEN'S CLUB next meeting is Monday night, November 5th, at 6:15, when the Rev. Charles E. Greene, Rector of St. Mary's, Wayne, will talk on, "Why Different Christian Churches?"

THE BAZAAR, don't forget, is at the Barclay on Thursday, November 8th, from noon until six o'clock. Do you have your card party tickets? Call Mrs. Jack Frank Bowling, (KI 5-7228) for further information.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING SERVICE of the Diocese is at Holy Trinity on the evening of November 8th.

THINGS THAT LIFT UP HEARTS

Your Rector has not been made so happy in a long time as he was after reading a letter that came to him last week in which the writer said, "Maybe it would help to know that every day I pray for you and Mr. Pollanick and sometimes pray the Parish Prayer. Do you know it? That God "will vouchsafe to the clergy of the parish Thy daily help and prosper departments of parish work and move Thy people to give as Thou has given to them."

LOYALTY SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 18. BE IN CHURCH THAT SUNDAY.

The Octave Of All Saints

At both the eight and eleven o'clock services on this Sunday, the Sunday following All Saints' Day, we shall remember the following persons, departed this life, whose names have been entered on the register of The Church of the Holy Trinity praying that they may forever grow in love and service:

Mabel Starnes	Florence Maxwell	Marguerite Scott
Mayer	Sallie Miller	Lisette Adel Shertel
Reinneisen	Blanche Scott	Richard Nichols
Kneas	Helen Weigand	Florence Silberman
Denby	Donald Forsyth	Ralph Deetz, Jr.
Gittleson Malchie	Blanche Hunter	Anne Marie Soffray Boyer
Lyons	Minnie Twist	Elizabeth Howe
Kemble Yarrow	Robert Walter Peterson	Ernest Louis Metzger
Stanley Wilson	Alfred Tily
McMichael	Bessie Ford

And all others in our own hearts and minds who have finished their earthly course in faith.

The Canvass Dinner for the Admiral, his Captains, and the members of the crew is Wednesday evening in The Centennial Room promptly at 6 o'clock with adjournment promptly at 8 o'clock. It is both necessary and important that the entire organization be present at the dinner.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY and GUILD MEETS THURSDAY, the 15th

The Day Auxiliary will listen to the thrilling story of the Church of the Advocate, a city church in a changing neighborhood, at the meeting next Thursday, November 15th, beginning with a luncheon in the Parish House at one o'clock. This is the second address of a series on "Our Parish and Its Outreach." The speaker is the Reverend J. McNeal Wheatley, Rector of the Church of the Advocate. All women of the parish are invited to the meeting. If you have never attended a meeting before, make this the first time. You will be well repaid. The price of the luncheon is $1.00. Reservations should be made by Tuesday, November 13. Call the Parish Office, LO 7-1267.

THE PAMPHLET RACK

A small rack at the rear of the church is kept supplied with interesting pamphlets designed to be helpful to church people. Most of the pamphlets cost five or ten cents. You will find here such titles as "What Use Religion;" "Anxiety, the Cause and Cure;" "Overcoming Our Fears;" "What is Man;" "The Church and the Sacraments;" "What to Pray About;" "Twenty Questions About the Episcopal Church."

Also, two church magazines are available: The Episcopal Church News and The Living Church.

CONCERNING OUR YOUTH WORK

Every Sunday there are young children to be seen in the morning congregation as well as those of student and young adult age. Children worship with their parents in church on first and third Sundays, going to the parish house during the sermon hymn for classes; and on second and fourth Sundays their worship begins in their chapel at eleven on the second of the parish house, with classes following. A class for parents is conducted during the one hour on second Sundays while the children are occupied in a story hour. Commend this church school program to others,—it may well increase our ministry of Christian education.

Our program for students in their late teens and early twenties and young working men and women in their twenties and thirties, including graduate students is enjoying a wide reputation. Both groups, numbering upwards of 150 every Sunday evening enjoy supper at six, with speaker and discussion; attend a service in the church at eight; followed by a coffee hour during a number of activities of interest. We rejoice in this important feature of our parish which, under the direction of the associate rector, youth in increasing numbers are finding interesting and worthwhile, positive and satisfying, timely and challenging.

Membership

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE
 OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge,—others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time. May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in or ill or prevented by conditions of work and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

The Sunday Evening Program at Holy Trinity

Although the evening service is for all people, center city students in various schools be interested in the Canterbury Club program. Young adults will take note of the Trinity announcement. No special invitations are necessary. Any student or young adult reading will find a welcome at these meetings.

6:00 P.M.—Canterbury Club (for students)

The Canterbury Club will meet with the Trinity Club over the Thanksgiving weekend.

6:00 P.M. Trinity Club (for Young Adults)

Tonight's Subject: "The Moral Role of the United States as A Foremost Power," Speech by Dr. Morris Wolf, President, Ethical Society of Philadelphia; Department of Social Studies, Girard College.

8:00 P.M.—Evening Service

Choral Evensong with visiting choir from St. John's Church, Norristown. Preacher: The Rev. William N. Lanigan, Associate Rector of St. John's.

PLEDGED LAST SUNDAY—$41,631.19

Eighty magnificent team members accounted for a congregation of nearly five hundred people at 11 o'clock last Sunday and pledges of support for the parish of $41,631.19 at the service and during the day. Of course, there are many pledges still to be received. Next week, a full report of the team members' totals to date will be in the Bulletin.

DECEMBER WILL BE AN EVENTFUL MONTH AT HOLY TRINITY
This is the Program for Advent

SUNDAY, DECEMBER FIRST: Probable publication date of "A Hundred Years in His History" by Marguerite Aspinwall. This is the history of The Church of the Holy Trinity from 1856 to 1957 and will be on sale for $2.58 (eight cents is tax) at the Church after December 10. More on this next week.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER SECOND: Men's Corporate Communion at 8 o'clock to be followed by breakfast with Mr. George Kostritsky of the City Planning Commission talking about the future of the center city, development trends, and such matters.

At 11 o'clock, instead of a sermon, there will be an "explained service of Holy Communion." This means that the service is interrupted from time to time as its parts are explained as it proceeds. This has been done on frequent occasions in many places and helps to make the service both better understood and intensely devotional.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER FOURTH: The Evening Auxiliary meets with the Rev. Arnold B. Diehl, Director of the Episcopal City Mission, as the speaker.

THURSDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER SEVENTH AND EIGHTH: Advent Play, "The Boy with a Cart" by Christopher Fry, presented by the Unicorn Theater Production Company, 8:45 P. M.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER NINTH: Confirmation at 11 o'clock with Bishop Armstrong as the speaker.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER THIRTEENTH: The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets with Mrs. U. S. Beath as the speaker about the work of the Episcopal City Mission.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER SIXTEENTH: At 11 o'clock, the Litany. The Choir sings "The Gloria."

TUESDAY, DECEMBER EIGHTEENTH: At 8:00 P. M., the Church Choir invites the congregation to an evening of music in the church. The group will present "The Mystery of Bethlehem" by Willan and "Unto Us a Child is Born" by Bach.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER TWENTY-THIRD: The Fourth Sunday in Advent, the Christmas preparation.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER TWENTY-FOURTH: The Christmas Service, Holy Communion at 11 P. M.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER TWENTY-FIFTH: Christmas Day: Holy Communion at 8 and 11 A. M.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER TWENTY-SEVENTH: Diocesan Vocational Conference at Holy Trinity for young men and women and with well known leaders speaking on various aspects of full time religious vocations.

Be a participant in these Advent spiritual opportunities. Many young adult and student activities are not listed here but their programs are available in the Church Porch.

THE SEWING GROUP IS MEETING EACH THURSDAY

Every Thursday at 10:30 in the Parish House, women who can sew meet together to carry out projects for the Diocese and the community. If you can sew, you are needed. Bring a sandwich for lunch. Coffee and tea are provided. This is your invitation to come and enjoy this fellowship.

CANVASS ANALYSIS—PLEDGED TO DATE $44,985.19

The total amount pledged by the people to carry on the work of the Church of the Holy Trinity in 1957 is at this date (November 26th) $44,985.19. This compares with last year's total of $44,116. on November 27th.

A breakdown of teams is as follows—Center City Team Number One, Captain Charles W. H. Bancroft with members Francis J. Chesterman, Neale Bringham, Mary K. Rapp, Robert S. Kitchel, Donald S. Leas, Florence Loos, Mary E. Maguire, Jacqueline Miller, Mary C. Nelson, Caroline M. Price, Jessie M. Price, Charles L. Rapp, Horace Y. Rapp, Edith T. Roll, T. Henry Walnut, Elizabeth S. Williams, and Ruth K. Yeager, $26.74; Center City Team Number Two, Captain Merrill A. Kercher with members Clara A. Blair, Margaret Colflesh, Carola S. Collings, Elizabeth Laws, Grace D. Macomber, Marie B. Reese, Douglas A. Schoerke, Helen L. Sheriff, Walter R. Storey, Alma Tomlin, Emma F. Tomlin, Clara E. Watt, and Elizabeth Webster, $7,638.80; Center City Team Number Three, Captain Barook J. Masuda with members May Belle Baird, Helen L. Dietz, Evelyn Clark, Mary Fielden, R. Elliott Gifford, David Greenwood, Margaret Holloway, Edward S. Leyshon, Doris I. Leyshon, Eleanor E. Meagher, Anne L. Mitchell, Robert B. Platt, and James D. Wiley, $9,730.85; Center City Team Number Four, Captain S. Scott Stewart with members Frederick Bachman, Hettie R. Bachman, S. W. Densmore, Sophia Ewell, Gwen Grant, James L. Riegner, Robert J. The canvass was under the direction of Admiral J. Frank Bowling.

All honor to the canvass team workers who have done such a great piece of work. Thanks to the loyal members of Holy Trinity who stand behind their Church. There are still a number of pledges not received and all who have not yet pledged are urged to notify the Church Office as soon as possible.

THE HOLY COMMUNION SERVICE EXPLAINED

This Sunday morning, instead of the usual sermon, there will be an explanation of the parts of the service of Holy Communion as the service proceeds. This is not something new, but has been done often in many places. You will find that it helps the listeners to appreciate the service and increases the intensity of the devotion.

WHAT'S GOING TO HAPPEN TO THE CENTER CITY?

Every member of the Church of the Holy Trinity is interested in the future of Center City Philadelphia. The Men's Club has secured the Planning Designer of the City Planning Commission of Philadelphia, George Kostritsky, to speak this Sunday at the Post Communion Breakfast. He will talk about the matters which pertain to the development of the Center City,—such things as shifting populations, zoning, property values, traffic control.

Mr. Kostritsky will speak in the Centennial Room at the breakfast which follows immediately after the Men's Corporate Communion in the Church at 8 o'clock.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETING THIS COMING TUESDAY AT 6 P. M.

Appropriate to the Advent season will be a talk entitled "A Year in the Holy Land" by Deaconess Helene Kuechler at the meeting of the Evening Auxiliary on Tuesday evening, December 4th, at dinner at six o'clock in the Centennial Room. Reservations must be made before Monday noon (call LO 7-1267). All women unable to attend a daytime meeting are invited to join the meetings of the Evening Auxiliary. No special invitation is necessary.

CHRISTOPHER FRY PLAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHT

Drama began in the chancel of the church. This coming Friday and Saturday evenings, December 7th and 8th, it returns to the chancel of the Church of the Holy Trinity when the Unicorn Theater Production Company presents Christopher Fry's exquisitely play, "The Boy with a Cart." There is no ticket charge. An offering will be received. The play begins at 8:30 P. M. You will find it worthwhile.

"A Hundred Years in His House" by Marguerite Aspinwall is available for purchase Sunday in the Church Porch and at the coffee hour. Publication of Miss Aspinwall's book is the first event of our 1957 Centennial celebration. It sells for $2.50 plus eight cents tax.

A BRIEF REVIEW

If one can call anything in this world by the adjective "perfect," then Miss Aspinwall's story of the hundred years of The Church of the Holy Trinity from its founding in 1857 until today must be the perfect church history. The book has been written with painstaking care after hours and hours of research in vestry minutes and church records as well as many interviews with older parishioners, and is authentic in every detail. It is not, however, a tedious history book but a delightful story, full of anecdote, a commentary on Philadelphia history as well as that of the church itself. It is the kind of book that people will enjoy even though they had no connection at all with Holy Trinity. For those who are and have been Holy Trinity members, it will be found to be a fascinating book.

Miss Marguerite Aspinwall, a writer by profession, who has been on the editorial staffs of Curtis and other publications, has given her skill and time to the writing and publishing of the book. It would be impossible to thank her enough for what she has done, the year of research, the hours of writing. We can only thank God that there was a Miss Aspinwall who consented so graciously to do this great work for us.

Our grateful thanks go also to Admiral J. Frank Bowling for his drawings which decorate the book and for editorial suggestions.—H. L.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD

On December 13th the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will meet for luncheon at one o'clock in the Parish House. The theme of the meeting is "Our Parish and Community Service." The speakers are members of our parish, who give of their time and skill in active community service, in hospitals, aid to the blind, work with youth, and the many other places where church people are serving. Here is an opportunity for you to learn an opportunity close at hand. All women of the parish are invited to the luncheon.

Reservations for luncheon ($1.00) must reach the Parish House not later than Tuesday, December 11.

Words of the Offertory

"Solitary lieth the city, she that was full of people! How is she widow'd! she that was great among nations, Princess among the provinces, how is she put under tribute! Sorely she weepeth in darkness, her tears are on her cheeks: and no one offereth consolation, yea, all her friends have betrayed her, they are become her enemies. Zions ways do languish, none come to her feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, yea, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness. Is it nothing to all yet that pass by? Behold, and see if there be any sorrow that is like my sorrow. Now behold, O Lord, look Thou on my affliction: see the foe hath magnified himself. Jerusalem, O turn thee to the Lord thy God!"

6:00 P. M.—Canterbury Club (for students)

6:00 P. M.—Trinity Club (for young adults)

"Does Legality Always Mean Right?"—Speaker: Richard P. Brown, Jr., Esquire.

8:00 P. M.—Evening Service

"Christmastide"—Speaker: Arthur Tait, student seminarian assistant.

CHOIR PROGRAM NEXT THURSDAY EVENING

The Church Choir, under the direction of Robert Knox Chapman, is offering the people of the parish and the community an evening of seasonal music next Tuesday evening in the Church at eight o'clock. The Choir will sing "The Mystery of Bethlehem" by Healey Willan and "For Unto Us a Child is Born" by J. S. Bach. The soloists will be June Goodman, soprano; Katherine Chapman, contralto; Arthur Abbott, tenor; and Samuel H. Brick, baritone. All are invited to attend.

NOTES, NEWS, AND COMMENTS

THE CONFIRMATION CLASS members will attend the service of Holy Communion at eight o'clock this Sunday morning and will be the guests of the Rector for breakfast at the Warwick following the service.

A CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS conference will be held at Holy Trinity under the auspices of the Diocese on St. John's Day, December 27th, when between one and two hundred senior high school and college people will hear about various lifework opportunities in the Church.

ENVELOPES for your offerings in 1957 will be mailed to all who have asked for them during the week of December 30th. The first envelope bears the date of January 6th.

THE CHIMES have been out of order for two weeks. It is hoped that repairs will be completed before this Sunday.

THE CHRISTMAS SERVICES will be as in former years, the Midnight Service at eleven on Christmas Eve and two services on Christmas Day at eight and eleven.

THE CENTENNIAL ROOM is not only proving useful to the parish but is being used both by the Diocese and another parish. Since its dedication, an average of over two hundred people have used it every week.

MRS. J. FRANK BOWLING, BAZAAR CHAIRMAN, SAYS "THANK YOU."

A sincere thank you goes to all who worked for the Bazaar, made articles, contributed, worked at tables, and did innumerable other things to make the Bazaar a true success. After all necessary expenses, more than seventeen hundred dollars will be realized for the missionary work of the Church.

RADIO LISTENERS ARE HELPING WITH INCREASED COSTS

Literally scores of letters have come from radio listeners since the announcement that the cost of broadcasting has been increased almost four thousand dollars. Within the past month, almost $2,500 has been contributed.

Typical of many such letters is one which reads in part: "There is that sense of being an infinitesimal part of your congregation, during the service and hour of worship. Loneliness is dispelled, distress, tension and pain is eased and good thoughts linger long afterwards."

ADVENT,—TIME OF PENITENCE?

Someone has written, "We have lost a whole season out of the Christian Year. There is no Advent anymore. Beginning with Thanksgiving, it is Christmas." For many Christians however, Advent still has its place as the time when they seek to "cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light." For them, the penitence of Advent is still a blessing because it clears away evil that the good may be seen. Christmas is a day of joy only if, in Advent, we have prepared for the coming of the King.

The Midnight Service of Holy Communion

MONDAY NIGHT AT 11:00 O'CLOCK

Tonight's service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing the "Come, All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphal ending when the "Gloria in Excelsis," followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" and finally at the very end "The Hallelujah Chorus," is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during this time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

the same as at 11, Monday Night

Be Joyful, Sing the Hymns and Carols with the Choir

Especially during the time of Communion, while all who wish to receive Holy Communion are coming to the Altar, the congregation is invited to sing carols with the choir.

The Shepherds watched their flocks by night
Seated on the ground,
An angel of the Lord came down,
His glory shone around.
He said, not said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind
And tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind
To you in David's town this day
Born of David's line
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From Heav'n's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heav'nly music floats
O'er all the weary world;

All my heart this night rejoices
As I hear, far and near,
Sweetest angel voices.
"Christ is born," their choirs are singing,
Fill the air everywhere
Now with joy is ringing.

3. Come, then, let us hasten yonder!
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder!
Love him who with love is yearning!
Hail the star that from far
Bright with hope is burning!—Hymn 32

Angels from the realms of glory,
Sing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:

Refrain:
Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn King.

Also Hymns 43, 31

The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.
Thus spake the seraph and forthwith,
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
All glory be to God on high
And on the earth be peace
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease.—Hymn 13

Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hov'ring wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing

3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The tidings which they bring;
O hush the noise, ye men of strife
And hear the angels sing!—Hymn 19

2. Hark! a voice from yonder manger,
Soft and sweet, doth entreat:
"Flee from woe and danger!
Brethren, come! from all doth grieve
you,
You are freed; all you need
I will surely give you."

2. Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing;
Yonder shines the infant Light;
3. Saints before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His Temple shall appear.—Hymn 28

THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

This Epiphany morning, something of the majesty of the day will be found in the sixteenth century chorale, wedded to the harmony of Johann Sebastian Bach, we will sing as the hymn before the sermon. It tells us that God who made the sun and stars, “The whole creation's Head and Lord,” in whom “The host of heaven has entered our life, “Assumed our very nature.” that we may know the meaning and purpose of our living. He is the “Morning Star with mercy beaming from The star which the wise men followed has become the Star, our Lord, which now follow to salvation. The second verse of the chorus is our prayer, “Jesus, grant through thy merit to inherit thy salvation.”

EVENING AUXILIARY DINNER, TUESDAY NIGHT, 6:00 P.M.

Our Parish and Evangelism” is the topic at the Evening Auxiliary meeting this Tuesday at 6:00 P.M. with the Rev. Edward B. Polianick as the speaker. Reservations should reach the Parish House by Monday noon (LO 7-1267).

At Christmastime, the Evening Auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. Ruth K.
Yeager, chairman, provided a party for patients at Philadelphia General Hospital, and sent 259 pounds of candy for distribution at Byberry Hospital.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD MEETING, THURSDAY, 1 P.M.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets this Thursday for luncheon at 1 P.M. in Parish House. The speaker will be Mrs. John P. Lutz, who, with her husband, has recently returned from a two year stay in Karachi, Pakistan. The title of Mrs. Lutz' is “Our Stay in Pakistan, the Country and its People.” Moving pictures, taken on her trip, will illustrate this first hand reporting. This promises to be, not only interesting, but enlightening, on this country whose government is still in its infancy.
Reservations for lunch ($1.00) must reach the Parish House not later than Tuesday, January 8th.

Miss Helene C. Reinhardt arranged that many of Holy Trinity's sick and shut-ins were remembered by gifts of fruit and flowers at Christmas time. The Community and Social Service Committee through the kind services of Mrs. Harry T. Angstadt brought happiness to the children's wards of Philadelphia General Hospital by supplying radios to lighten the long hours in the hospital.

SERMONS DURING JANUARY AND FEBRUARY

Under the general title of “Sermons purposely on the human level,” the Rector will preach three sermons in January with the following titles, January 6th, “Is Star Gazing Practical?” January 13th, “Is There An Answer To My Problem?” January 27th,
“Do I Have To Like Everybody?” On January 20th, Dean Gifford of the Philadelphia
Divinity School will be the preacher.

During February, after a sermon by the Rector on “Lighting Candles” on February 3rd, there will be a series of three sermons, preached by the Rector, on texts from St. Mark's Gospel: February 10th, from St. Mark's 9:33 and following “Big Wheel, Little Cog, Or What?” February 17th from St. Mark 4:13 and following “Does It Have To Be Now Or Never?” February 24th from St. Mark 3:28 and following “Is There A Son God Can't Forgive?”

DECEMBER TOTALS FOR STATISTIC LOVERS

The four Sundays in December before Christmas, on two of which it rained, saw an average of 501 people at the Sunday services. The 11 o'clock average was 333. The Evening Service average was 131. An average of 36 people attended the early 8 o'clock service each Sunday.

A total of 447 people attended the Midnight and Christmas Day services and 342 received Holy Communion. The Christmas Gift offering (as this Bulletin goes to press) now totals $853.65.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR, PRE-EMPT THE MISSION DATES

Circle the week of next March 24th through Sunday, March 31st which is the week of the Mission at Holy Trinity. It is your Rector's hope that you will give that week, every evening except Saturday (every evening, every evening) for attendance at the Mission. Do you now have dates already planned for that week? If not, will you give up now, take it out of your life today, set it apart for the Mission?

WHAT IS THE MISSION?

It is a week of devotion and study to the end that your relationship with God, through Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit, may be strengthened and that you may know how the Church through the Word and the Sacraments can be of help to you. It is a week of learning and practical experience,—study and prayer. It should bring you a new understanding of yourself and God and a new sense of spiritual realization. If you are truly concerned in terms of your life's meaning and purpose under God, you will welcome the opportunity of the Mission. Nothing more important than the Mission will happen in our parish life this year.

WHO WILL LEAD THE MISSION?

The leader of the Mission in the church every night (Sunday through Sunday, except Saturday at 7:45 P. M. will be the Reverend William Lea, formerly rector of John's Church, Knoxville, Tennessee, and now the Editor of the Episcopal Church News. The Reverend William Lea, in the opinion of your rector, is the best qualified man for us here at Holy Trinity that we could have. He is eminently intelligent, sincerely spiritual, devoutly earnest, a teacher and a wise counsellor. Perhaps no man in the church today is more respected by his colleagues in the Ministry. We could have no better leader.

WHO WILL ATTEND THE MISSION?

It is hoped that the Mission will attract not only members of Holy Trinity but many in the neighborhood of all parishes and none. It is for the unchurched as well as others. We all should tell our friends and neighbors about it.

SOME INTERESTING STATISTICS

One of the surveying services recently made a nation-wide survey of the sources of church membership. The largest percentage of people who attend church, 21 percent, were invited to come by either relatives or friends. The next highest percentage (of particular interest to us), 18 percent, were interested because of hearing a radio or television broadcast. 16.6 percent were invited specifically by members of churches who called on them for this purpose. Other percentages came for various other reasons. Only 3 percent were attracted through newspaper advertising.

Putting these figures together and including all percentages, it is worth noting that over 44 percent of church growth, nation-wide, is through the efforts of church people making themselves concerned with spreading the Kingdom.

NOTE

596 people attended the services at Holy Trinity last Sunday. 415 attended the morning services, 181 were present in the evening. 324 received Holy Communion. The bank deposit of offerings from all sources was $3,978.89. For various reasons this is unusually large, the average deposit, week in and week out, being about one thousand dollars. The amount in the initial offering envelopes was $35.70.

Centennial Books will be on sale in the church porch and at the coffee hour after church. The books sell for $2.50, plus eight cents tax.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

"Who knocks tonight so late," the weary porter said. Three Kings stood at the gate, each with a crown on head. The serving man bowed down; the inn was full he knew. Said he, "In all this town is no fit place for you." A light the manger there lay the Mother meek. Said they, 'This place is fit: here is the rest we seek. They loosed their latchet strings; so stood they all unshod. Come in, come in, Kings, and kiss the Feet of God.

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY TO VISIT HOLY TRINITY

The centennial celebration of the Church of the Holy Trinity will include a visit by the Archbishop of Canterbury, on Monday, May 6th, when the Diocesan Convention will also honor Holy Trinity at an evening service. The Archbishop will preach and thus open the "Centennial Month." The parish was admitted to union with the Diocese and the Church on May 27, 1857. The Reverend Theodore P. Ferris, Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Boston, will close the month with a sermon here on May 26th. Phillips Brooks left Holy Trinity to become Rector of Trinity, Boston, and the two parishes long felt a sense of kinship because of this fact.

A centennial dinner, probably in connection with the Annual Meeting, will also be a feature of the centennial observance.

Another part of the centennial year is the Mission from March 24 through March 31 conducted by the Reverend William S. Lea, now the Editor of the Episcopal Church News.

DEAN GIFFORD, SPECIAL PREACHER THIS SUNDAY

Your Rector believes that we should give every possible support to the Seminaries of the Church and is, therefore, glad to welcome the Dean of our own Philadelphia Divinity School to Holy Trinity's pulpit today. It is a well known fact that Dean Gifford is doing an outstanding piece of work at the school which is seeing its greatest progress under his leadership.

Philadelphia Divinity is one of 12 seminaries located in strategic centers in the United States—Cambridge, Massachusetts; New Haven; New York; Alexandria, Virginia; Gambier, Ohio; Lexington, Kentucky; Evanston, Illinois; Austin, Texas; Nashotah, Wisconsin; Sewanee, Tennessee; and Berkeley, California. Close to a thousand young men are now in training for the Ministry.

CHURCH GROWTH GROUP TO MEET MONDAY NIGHT

Under the leadership of Edward S. Leyshon, a group of some 70 men and women in the Church Growth Committee which has as its concern all that has to do with what might be called "public relations" in terms of ushering, the coffee hour, and downtown evangelism in general. ### CARL N. MARTIN RESIGNS AS VESTRYMAN

Carl N. Martin has written the Rector "After much prayerful thought I feel it my duty not only to my family as well as the Church of the Holy Trinity, to send you my resignation as a member of the Vestry." At its meeting on Monday, the Vestry accepted his resignation with great regret. Mr. Martin has been a vestryman at Holy Trinity for over forty-five years. For many years, he has served as chairman of the Finance Committee and administered the various endowment funds which now have a total value of over a million dollars. His wise investment counsel has made these funds an ever increasing bulwark in the maintenance of a strong center city church. His value to a church vestry and to a parish of such a man as Carl Martin, sound in judgment, wise in making decisions loyal as a member of the Church, cannot be overestimated. His leaving our vestry is a tremendous loss and his place will be very difficult to fill. The gratefulness of the whole parish goes out to him and to Almighty God for raising up such a man in our midst.

MEN'S CLUB TO HEAR COMMISSIONER GIBBONS, FEBRUARY 4th

The Police Commissioner of Philadelphia, Thomas J. Gibbons, is the next Men's Club speaker at dinner, Monday, February 4th, at 6:15 in the Centennial Room. This meeting is in charge of the Men's Club Committee Number three, Henry C. Gulbrandsen, William Maurer, James H. Mearns, III, and Barook J. Masuda.

Reservations for the dinner must reach the parish office before Saturday noon, February 2nd. All men of the parish and their friends are invited. The dinner is $1.50 a plate.

THE EVENTS OF THE CENTENNIAL YEAR

THE CENTENNIAL MISSION, March 24th through March 31st, with noon-day preaching and a Mission service each evening at 7:45 with the Reverend William S. Lea as the Missioner.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY as the preacher at a Diocesan service honoring Holy Trinity parish on Monday evening, May 6th, at 8 o'clock.

A PARISH DINNER during May to take a look both back and ahead.

THE RECTOR OF TRINITY, BOSTON, the Reverend Theodore P. Ferris, as the preacher on the Sunday nearest the Centennial date. Dr. Ferris will preach on Sunday, May 26th, at 11 A. M. The parish was received into union with the Convention of the Diocese on May 27th, 1857.

THE CENTENNIAL CHALICE, to be the work of Admiral Jack Frank Bowling, which we hope will be ready for a Memorial Service on Sunday, June 2nd, which will commemorate those of past years who were members of Holy Trinity.

Note: THE CENTENNIAL HISTORY, "A Hundred Years in His House," by Marguerite Aspinwall, is already published and is available for all who wish to own it.

SERMONS DURING FEBRUARY

The Rector is purposely preaching very personal sermons during January and February. He has called them "Sermons purposely on the human level." Unusually, he has given them titles. Here they are: this Sunday, "Do I have to Like Everybody?"; January 3rd, "Lamplighters"; February 10th, "Big Wheel, Little Cog, or What?"; February 17th, "Does It Have to be Now or Never?"; February 24th, "Is There a Sin God will Forgive?"

$15,000 OF OUR GIVING GOES TO MISSIONARY WORK

Your Vestry has advised the Diocese that it may expect $15,000 from Holy Trinity this year as its share in the missionary work of the Church. The missionary program of the Christian Church is not an elective in the Church's life. A Church without missionary enthusiasm is a Church without a soul, for the soul of the Gospel is the Commission to Go into all the world and preach the Gospel. Nor is the missionary program of the Christian Church an elective in the world's life, for without the dynamic of the Christian Gospel, without that Charter of Christ's Salvation which the Church proclaims, the world cannot be redeemed from its folly and its sins. Never in all the two thousand years of its presence in the world has the Church been challenged as in the present hour. We are proud that Holy Trinity at this critical hour in the life of the world, stands forth in the Diocese in the amount of its missionary giving.

POLICE COMMISSIONER TALKS TO MEN MONDAY NIGHT

The Men's Club, under the direction of Committee Number Three, Henry C. Gulradsen, William Maurer, James H. Mearns, III, Barook J. Masuda, presents Thomas Gibbons, Philadelphia Commissioner of Police, at its meeting this Monday night, February 4, at dinner at 6:15 in the Centennial Room. Commissioner Gibbons will speak on "How Church Members Can Help to Combat Crime." Reservations for the dinner ($5.00) should reach the Parish Office by Friday noon, February 1. Call LO 7-1267.

PRINCETON PROFESSOR TALKS TO EVENING AUXILIARY TUESDAY EVENING

Dr. George F. Thomas, Professor of Religion at Princeton University is the speaker at the Evening Auxiliary's dinner meeting Tuesday at 6:00 P. M. Dr. Thomas will talk about the South India Plan of Church Unity. In South India, several non-Roman Churches, including the Anglican, have united under a plan which includes Episcopal ordination. Although the Anglican Communion, as such, has not recognized the South India Church as having become a part of the historic Catholic tradition, it looks with favor on the plan. Our own branch of the Anglican Communion recently sent a delegation to survey the South India Church. Dr. Thomas' talk will comment on some of their findings. Reservations for the dinner on Tuesday, February 5, should reach the Parish Office by Monday Noon.

The Evening Auxiliary's Annual Sale and Card Party is scheduled for Friday night, March 1. Although this is a way of making money for the Auxiliary's work, it is also an opportunity for a parish gathering. Plan to come, whether you play cards or not (there will be other games), and enjoy an evening of good fellowship together. This is definitely not an "all woman party." The men are invited and urged to attend.

THE PARISH REGISTER FOR DECEMBER, 1956 AND JANUARY, 1957

The Parish Register records for the past two months tell of the deaths of nine members of Holy Trinity whom we greatly miss: Ethel Goodell Freeman who died December 2; Selene Harrison Wilson, December 3; Douglas Warfield, December 7; Donald Lee Greenwood, December 8; Elizabeth Brazier, December 23; Mary Afrah
Brown, December 26; Wiese Hammer, December 26; Edward Beardsley, December 27; Harriett C. Sproule, January 19. The Rector also officiated at the services of two others, presently members of Holy Trinity, Emma Margaret Guffy who died on January 14, and Francis Lawton, January 17. We remember all these in our prayers and ask that they may forever grow in love and service.

There were two services of Holy Matrimony during the two months: Robert Stanley Snyder and Ann Roddy were married on December 29 and Joseph Quinton Trotman and Frances Lola Barnes on January 19.

Seventeen people were confirmed on December 9. Their names have appeared in earlier issue.

There were no baptisms. In fact, the last baptism at Holy Trinity occurred on September 23. This is an interesting commentary on the fact that at the present time we have few children in the parish, few young marrieds. It also says something about the fact that also few adults are seeking baptism. It is something to think about.

NOTES

THE MISSION is from March 24 through March 31, every day (except Saturday) 12:25 noon, and every evening (except Saturday, but including both Sundays) at 5 P. M. with the Reverend William S. Lea, Editor of the Episcopal Churchnews, as leader. You are asked, thus early, to save these dates,—to make this event a "mission" on your calendar for those eight days. The experience of the mission for the parish is comparable to a ship going into drydock for an overhaul or an individual having a physical check-up. The mission can be a "spiritual check-up" for the parish and for you.

REWIRING OF THE PARISH HOUSE has recently been completed at a cost approaching $3,000. This is one of the "INVISIBLE" but necessary pieces of work on the Church property which your vestry is finding it necessary to undertake because of age and deterioration in various parts of our buildings.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD LUNCHEON NEXT THURSDAY

On Thursday, February 14th, immediately after Holy Communion at 12:15, the Women's Auxiliary and Guild meets for luncheon at one o'clock in the Parish House. The luncheon is for all the women of the parish and their friends and no special invitation is necessary. The special speaker is the Reverend Robert Nelson Back, Rector of St. Peter's, Glenside. Mr. Back is one of the leading younger clergymen in the Church. His rapidly growing congregation has recently completed building a great church building, contemporary in design. He will speak on Evangelism.

The Auxiliary's theme for 1956-1957 is "Our Parish and Its Outreach" and Mr. Back's interpreting of "Evangelism—the Good News of the Gospel" is sure to be interesting and helpful. Reservations for the luncheon ($1.00) must reach the Parish Office by Tuesday, February 12th.

ARE CHURCH MAGAZINES HELPFUL?

Our Episcopal Church Magazines such as the Episcopal Churchnews and the Living Church, both of which are available on our pamphlet shelf at the rear of the church, are plagued by the fact that few Church people read them. Presbyterian Life, for instance, has a circulation close to a million. None of the Episcopal magazines reaches a circulation of even one hundred thousand. We find it difficult to get rid of fifteen copies in the rear of the church.

Of course the magazines are of most interest to the clergy but they are certainly without interest for the laymen in the Church. For instance, in last week's Living Church, there was an interesting article on the banning of the showing of the "Martin Luther" on WGN-TV in Chicago. The general manager of the television station said that in view of an "emotional reaction, the station elected to cancel the showing, not wanting to be a party to the development of any misunderstanding or ill will among persons of the Christian faith in the Chicago area." Privately he admitted that it was at the receiving end of pressure from high Roman Catholic circles. Eugene Carson Blake, President of the National Council of Churches, has commented, "American Protestants must resist the distortion of history and the resultant false climate of public opinion which are inevitable if their presentations of their history are excluded from mass media by pressure from any source." The implications in this are important and the report of the controversy makes interesting reading. Another article is headed "Needed, a Church Business Manager to Give the Rector a chance to Pray and Think." It, too, is thought provoking.

The Episcopal Churchnews is of course an exciting new development in religious journalism. It is directed to the layman in a way that no former Episcopal magazine has been. In its recent issues, it has had for instance a column called "London Notebook" with news of the English Church, reviews of such movies as "The Ten Commandments" and "Baby Doll," what the Church has done in relation to Hungarian refugees, an article on "Churches in a World of Turmoil." The Episcopal Churchnews is well illustrated and unquestionably better edited than any church magazine in circulation.

Take a look at the pamphlet shelf. There are probably things of interest to you. Take a look, too, at one of the church magazines.

NOTES

COME TO COFFEE HOUR after church, — especially if you are a newcomer or a visitor. We are anxious to welcome you, talk with you, to know you better. Come, too, and meet and chat with your friends in Holy Trinity's fellowship.

CENTENNIAL BOOKS, the history of the hundred years of Holy Trinity's existence, are available at any time in the Church Office. They are priced at $2.50, plus eight percent tax.

BEGIN PRAYING for the fruitful success of the Mission which will begin on Sunday, March 24 and end on Sunday, March 31.

Septuagesima Sunday

We begin today to look toward Lent and Easter. The "gesima" Sundays, the outsiders, the heralds of Lent, are with us. This Centennial year, the hundredth Lent spent together by the people of the Parish, will have a Mission as its central point. Read about the Mission's importance on the opposite page.

THE MISSION

Sunday Through Sunday, March 24 to 31

The Mission Theme: "What the Religion of Jesus Christ Can Mean to Me."

The dates of the coming parochial Mission were announced for the first time several years ago so that everyone could make them a "first" on his calendar, — planning and making all necessary arrangements to keep this week of March 24 to 31 free of all other engagements.

The Mission services are every night, Sunday through Sunday, except Saturday, at 8 P. M. The Missioner, the Reverend William S. Lea, Editor of the Episcopal Churchman, and formerly rector of St. John's Church, Knoxville, Tennessee, will also preach at noon, Monday through Friday, at 12:25.

THE MISSION IS IMPORTANT

If your Religion is important to you now, if you are finding meaning and usefulness in your life through it, then this Mission has a peculiar importance for you. It is your opportunity to make your religion a thousand fold more useful than ever before through a greater understanding of its possibilities for your life.

If Religion has little meaning for you, ask yourself if you have ever really tried to understand its function and possibilities. The Mission is an opportunity to study intensively the Religion of Jesus Christ and to learn how it can be useful to you. It is an opportunity too important to lose.

THE MISSION IS CRUCIALLY SIGNIFICANT

Does what is happening at Holy Trinity have real meaning in terms of peoples' lives? Is it worthwhile to maintain this Church? Is the work of the clergy fruitful in terms of redeemed, saved people? The response of the parish to the Mission will say much to your clergy about the earnestness of the participation of the people in this work. It will speak to the community about how serious we are in our belief in the significance of Christ's gospel. It will result in a renewed conversion in ourselves.

If the Mission fails in its purpose because any of us find other things more important than the Mission during the eight days from March 24 to March 31, then we must seriously doubt whether our work here is worthwhile.

THE MISSION IS NEEDED

There is not a one of us but needs this Mission. From the best informed person in the parish, from the most saintly of all, to the least informed and, if you will, the most sinful of all, this Mission is needed. There is not a one of us but needs greater knowledge of the Gospel, the Church, and their relation to our lives. There is not a one of us but needs the devotional experience which the Mission will make possible. There can be no question but that the Mission is needed, — needed by those to whom Religion is important for they do not know as much about it as they should, needed by those who find no use in it for they have no reason to condemn it until they know what it means and can do.

YOUR RECTOR NEEDS THE HELP OF SIXTY PEOPLE

Next Monday morning, sixty people in the parish will receive in the mail an invitation asking them to assist in reaching both the people of the parish and the community on behalf of the Mission. They are being asked not in terms of any particular ability but rather because of the location in which they live. The Rector fervently hopes that, if you are invited, you will respond and become a Mission Assistant. All Mission Assistants are invited to a dinner on Thursday evening, March 7th, to receive instructions.

8:00 P. M.—Choral Evensong

Preacher: The Reverend William Elwell, D.D., Rector of St. Clement's Church, Philadelphia. The Choir from St. Clement's will sing Evensong.

THREE IMPORTANT COMING EVENTS

Evening Auxiliary Parish Party, Friday Night, March 1

Come one, come all to the Centennial Room, Friday evening, March 1st, at 8 P.M. We meet together socially as a parish all too infrequently. Take advantage of this opportunity to know each other better. Baked goods will be available to buy. All kinds of games will be played. Bring your own cards and games. Tickets are $1.00 and can be had from members or at the door. There will be door and table prizes, surprise packages, and a good time for all. You, man or woman, you are invited to the party.

ASH WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6

Lent begins on March 6th as we enter the season of revival through the gateway of penitence on Ash Wednesday. The services during the day are: The Holy Communion at 7:30 A.M.; the Penitential Office at 12:15, followed immediately by the Holy Communion at 12:25; Evening Prayer and Penitential Office at 5:30 P.M.; and the first Lenten Bible Study Class on "The Gospel According to St. Mark" to be led by the Associate Rector, at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House.

MEN'S CLUB CORPORATE COMMUNION, SUNDAY, MARCH 10

On the first Sunday in Lent, the men of the parish will meet for a Corporate Communion at the 8 o'clock service with a breakfast to follow in the Centennial Room. The speaker will be the Reverend William W. Manross, Ph.D., formerly the Librarian of the Church Historical Society and now Librarian and a member of the faculty of the Philadelphia Divinity School, who will speak on "The Most Important Thing Happening in the Church Today." Save the date, — Sunday, March 10, 8 A.M. This meeting is in charge of the Men's Club Committee, Number Two, Donald Danenhowe, John W. Gilmore, Robert P. Platt, and Harvey E. Schock, Jr.

THE LENTEN NOON-DAY SPEAKERS

The Noon-Day service on Ash Wednesday will be the Holy Communion without a sermon. On the two following days and during the first two weeks of Lent, the Noon-Day preachers will be "home talent." The Rector will preach on Thursday, March 7, and Bishop Roberts on Friday, March 8. During the week of March 11-15, the preacher will be the Associate Rector, Mr. Pollanick. On March 18 and 19, the Reverend Charles Long, secretary of the Diocese, will preach. The Rector will preach on the next two days.

On March 24 to 31, the week of the Mission, the preacher is the Reverend William S. Lea, the Missioner, and Editor of the Episcopal Churchnews; April 1 to 5, the Reverend James A. Paul, Rector of Holy Trinity Church, New York City; and April 8 to 12, the Reverend Laman H. Bruner, Jr., Rector of St. Peter's Church, Albany, N. Y. The preacher on the first four days of Holy Week will be the Reverend John J. Albert, the new Rector of All Saints', Wynnewood.

The program for Lent will be mailed with next week's Bulletin.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S VISIT

There has been some confusion about whether the service on May 6th when the Archbishop of Canterbury will speak is under the auspices of the Church of the Holy Trinity, or the Diocese. It is a Diocesan Service in which Holy Trinity is being honored on the occasion of its Centennial. Tickets of admission will be given to delegates to the Diocesan Convention. All others must apply for tickets, before April 20th, to the Church House, 202 S. 19th Street. The doors will be open to the general public at 8 P.M.

NOTE

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25: St. Matthias' Day, 7:30 and 12:15 (noon), Holy Communion.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26: Southern Convocation Quiet Day at Gloria Dei Church (and Swedes) at 916 Swanson Street, 10:45 to 12:45 with Mrs. Arthur Crosby and Mrs. W. Williams as the leaders. With such leaders, this can be a rich spiritual experience and your rector commends it to the people of Holy Trinity.

Penitential Office, 12:15 (noon); Holy Communion 12:25 (noon)
Penitential Office and Evening Prayer, 5:30 P.M.; Bible Study and Devotions 7:30 P.M.
Ash Wednesday is the Gateway of Penitence through which we enter Lent, the season of spiritual revival. Penitence precedes pardon. Humility is the pathway to blessedness. Ashes are an ancient symbol of penitential humility and so we call Lent's first day Ash Wednesday. Every person who sincerely intends to use Lent as spiritual opportunity needs first to bring himself in humbleness, confessing his failures, to the throne of God's presence on Ash Wednesday. It is a solemn heart-searching day but it can be a day of great blessing if properly used.

OTHER LENTEN SERVICES

The Mission Assistants and Ushers will have a preparation meeting with the Rector at a dinner in the Centennial Room next Thursday, March 7, at 6:15 P.M.

THE PURPOSE OF THE MISSION, MARCH 24 TO 31

Arnold J. Toynbee, the eminent historian and philosopher, wrote in March 1956: "Man has been given freedom by God, Man is free to refuse to cooperate with God. When Man refuses, he is free to make his refusal and to take the consequences. When Man accepts, his reward for willing what is the will of God is that he finds himself taken by God into partnership in the doing of God's creative work. When Man is cooperating with God, Man's freedom is at its maximum, because Man is then utilizing the potentialities for which God has created him. God has created man to be God's free partner in the work of creation."
The purpose of the Mission for all of us is to strengthen our relationship with God and to deepen our lives spiritually through a greater understanding and appreciation of religion. The Mission is an intensive experience of seeking and devotion.
The Mission, announced many weeks ago to give ample time for all to make arrangements to attend, will be helpful to those who use the opportunity every day during the Mission week.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETING, TUESDAY, MARCH 5th, 6:00 P.M.

The Rector of the parish will be the speaker at the Evening Auxiliary Meeting this coming Tuesday evening. The Auxiliary meets for dinner at 6 o'clock. Reservations could reach the Parish House by Monday noon (LO 7-1267).

The First Sunday in Lent

MARCH 10, 1957

8:00 A. M.—Holy Communion

The men of the parish will meet at this service for a Lenten Corporate Communion (see the opposite page).

10:45 A. M.—Church School

11:00 A. M.—The Litany

Ushers today: R. P. Bright, J. W. King, R. B. Platt, W. R. Storey, J. P. Lutz, J. T. Storey, C. E. Lloyd, Kenneth S. Baird.

Choral Prelude: Antiphon.....Hymnal, Chant 60

Processional Hymn: 55....."Forty Days and Forty Nights"

Introit: "Lead Me, Lord.".....W.

The Litany Hymn: 332 (1st Stanza only)....."Saviour When in Dust to Thine Arms"

The Litany (Prayer Book, Page 54)

Hymn before the Sermon: 460....."Jesus, My Lord"

The Sermon: Preacher, the Rector

The Offertory: "Hear My Prayer".....Mendelssohn

The Offertory this morning is a Motet which takes about eleven minutes performance: "Hear my prayer, O God, incline Thine ear. Thyself from petition do not hide. Take heed to me, hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee. Without Thee, all is dark, I have no guide. The enemy shouteth, the Godless come fast. Iniquity, hatred, upon me they cast. The wicked oppress me, ah where shall I fly? Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry. My heart is sorely pained within my breast, my soul with deathly terror is oppressed, trembling and fearfulness upon me fall. With horror overwhelmed, Lord, my call. O for the wings of a dove. Far away would I roam. In the wilderness build me a nest and remain there forever at rest."

The Doxology

The Closing Prayers and Benediction

Recessional Hymn: 349....."O Saviour, Precious Saviour"

Choral Postlude: "Lead us, O Father".....Langran

The flowers on the Altar today are in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rapp.

MEN'S CLUB CORPORATE COMMUNION, BREAKFAST, THIS SUNDAY

The men of the parish will meet together for a Corporate Communion this Sunday morning at the eight o'clock service. After the service, there will be a breakfast in the Centennial Room with the Reverend William W. Manross, Ph.D. as the speaker. He is Librarian of the Philadelphia Divinity School and a member of the faculty. He will talk about what he considers the most exciting thing happening in the Church today. All men of the parish are invited. The breakfast cost is $1.00. Reservations should be made at once (Phone LO 7-1267).

WCMAN'S AUXILIARY TO HEAR NEW FIRST PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild luncheon next Thursday at one o'clock, the Rev. J. Ernest Somerville, new minister at the First Presbyterian Church, our pastor at 21st and Walnut, will be the speaker. He will talk about the devotional life of a parish church, continuing the theme for the year of "Our parish and its outgrowth." Dr. Somerville is a Scot, a graduate of Edinburgh, and brings the accent of the Highlands with him.

Reservations for the luncheon should reach the parish house (LO 7-1267) by Tuesday, March 12th. All women of the parish are welcome. No special invitation is necessary.

LENTEN SERVICES AND PREACHING

Every Day (except Saturday), 12:25 to 12:55, Preaching; 5:30, Evening Prayer Wednesdays at 7:30 P. M. Bible Class; Thursdays, 11:30 A. M. Holy Communion. This coming week's Noonday Preacher is the Associate Rector of the parish, Mr. Pollanick.

OFFICE LIGHTS, BAPTISMAL EWER, GIVEN AS MEMORIALS

Six silver candlesticks to be used on the Altar during the week days have been given to the parish in memory of Charles Albert Daniel and Emma Ann Stokes Daniel. The candlesticks were designed in England and are the gift of Mrs. Sarah Daniel Metzger. A silver ewer for the water used at services of Holy Baptism has also been given by Mrs. Metzger in memory of Ernst Louis Metzger II.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER IN FEBRUARY

During the month of February, there passed from our midst into the Church Extant, Thomas Dun Belfield who died on February 15th, and Caroline Denny DuBarry died on February 26th. Both Mr. Belfield and Miss DuBarry were long time members of Holy Trinity. They will be greatly missed. May they forever grow in love and service. Justine Julius Statkus and Catherine Burgin Richardson were married on February 23d.

The following have transferred to Holy Trinity: Miss Mildred Clark from Devil's Lake, North Dakota; Miss Marion Moore Bodine from St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia; Miss Margaret Russell from St. Bartholomew's, Philadelphia; John J. Denny from Holy Innocents, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Aldrich Crozer from David's, Radnor; Mrs. Elizabeth Varian, Mrs. Walter S. Stauffer, and Mr. David W. Stauffer, all from St. Mark's Philadelphia.

The following have transferred from Holy Trinity: Rebecca Beattie to Miami; Dr. Mrs. Charles Frederick Sackett to St. Mary's Ardmore; Miss Emily Carlson to Grace, Airy, and Dr. Eunice Stockwell to The Atonement, Philadelphia.

NOTES

THE ANNUAL VISIT of High Schoolers from Temple Rodeph Shalom will take place this Sunday morning. It has been our privilege to have them as our guests for the past four years and we are exceedingly happy to welcome them once again. They will give a splendid testimony to the truth that most teen-agers are solid citizens.

MRS. BITTER, the parish secretary, must undergo major surgery and will be out of the office for two months. If some things are "not up to snuff," please bear with her. In the meantime, remember Mrs. Bitter in your prayers.

THE RECTOR is preaching here this Sunday and in Raleigh, North Carolina during the week.

THE LENTEN SERVICES THIS WEEK

EVERY DAY, Noonday Preaching from 12:25-12:55.
Evening Prayer at 5:30 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, Bible Class at 7:30, conducted by Mr. Pollanick.

THURSDAY, Holy Communion at 11:30 A.M.

The Noonday Preacher on Monday and Tuesday is the Reverend Charles Long, D.D., formerly an assistant at Holy Trinity and now the Secretary of the Diocese.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the preacher is the Rector of the parish who will speak on the Gospel of St. Luke (Wednesday), of St. John (Thursday), and The Epistle to the Philippians on Friday.

NOTES

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4 P.M. At this meeting, Admiral Jack F. Bowling, newly elected member of the Vestry will take his place as a vestryman of the Church of the Holy Trinity to fill out the unexpired term of Carl N. Martin, resigned.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY rejoiced at its last meeting over the very successful card party and bake sale and wishes to thank everyone who so generously supported this activity.

THE RECTOR has been preaching in Raleigh, North Carolina, at Noonday services this past week. He also spoke to the student body of St. Mary's School, at an evening service at the Church of the Good Shepherd and to the Men's Club at Pinehurst. This coming Tuesday, he preaches in his old parish in Charleston, West Virginia.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH NEWS will feature Holy Trinity in its March 31st issue with a picture of the Church on the cover and a feature article. Five hundred copies have been ordered for the people of the parish. The Philadelphia Inquirer will also have a feature article on Holy Trinity in its Sunday magazine in the near future.

SIXTY FIVE MISSION ASSISTANTS ARE AT WORK

Having as their goal a full Church on the evening of March 24th when the Mission begins, sixty five Mission Assistants will be calling members of the parish during the week to remind them of the Mission's beginning. The Mission Assistants are also distributing fliers, locating posters, and are actively praying for the Mission.

Use your prayer card, talk to others about the Mission, become yourself an unofficial Mission Assistant.

Don't let the opportunity of the Mission pass you by. Become a better disciple of our Lord, He needs you, His Church needs you. You need Him. May we all become understanding and inspired Christian men and women. The Mission can help as nothing else can. Use the Mission.

ST. PATRICK WAS A PROTESTANT

Well,—at least he wasn't as much a Roman Catholic as modern Roman Catholics seem to make him. Like St. Francis, no one group of Christians can claim him as their own. Ask a "scotch irish" Irishman about Patrick and he will point out that his grave is in British Ulster and the chief Protestant church of Dublin is named after him. Read St. Patrick's writings and they are almost like John Calvin, and certainly without any modern Roman tinge. He was a reformer before the Reformation, the author of The Breastplate which we are singing today, an Ulsterman, a saint that no one branch of Christendom can claim as its own.

8:00 P. M. The Final Mission Service
Preacher, The Reverend Wm. S. Lea

MISSION THANKSGIVING SERVICE THIS SUNDAY EVENING

The final Mission Service will begin with a hymn sing this Sunday evening at 7:45. Dr. Lea will preach the final sermon. At the service, a Thankoffering to be given to the Missioner will be received. The service will end with a hymn of thanksgiving to God for the blessings of the Mission.

This has been a tremendous week and a time of great spiritual experience. Last Sunday, the Church attendance during the day was between eight hundred and a thousand people. All during the week, people have been flocking to hear Dr. Lea. No words would be in any sense adequate to express our gratefulness for what he has done here at Holy Trinity.

THE REVEREND JAMES PAUL, NOONDAY PREACHER THIS WEEK

The Rector of Holy Trinity Church, New York City is the noonday preacher this week at Holy Trinity, Philadelphia. The services, each day except Saturday, are from 12:25 to 12:55. Dr. Paul received his graduate degree from Oxford University, England, and has been associated with his present parish for the past seventeen years. Other Daily Lenten services are at 5:30, Evening Prayer; and Thursday, 11:30, Holy Communion.

EVENING AUXILIARY TO HEAR HAVERTOWN RECTOR.

The Reverend Christopher J. Atkinson, rector of St. Faith's parish, Havertown, will be the speaker at the Evening Auxiliary next Tuesday, April 2nd, at dinner at 6:15. Atkinson will speak on "The Devotional Life of the Parish." This is the sixth address of the year on "Our Parish and its Outreach." The Evening Auxiliary welcomes all Business and Professional Women and all others who cannot attend a daytime meeting. No special invitation is necessary. Reservations for the dinner should reach the Parish House (LO 7-1267) before Saturday Noon.

HAVE YOU READ THE CHURCHNEWS ARTICLE ON HOLY TRINITY?

Every member of Holy Trinity ought to buy a copy of The Episcopal Churchnews (on sale at the back of the church) and read not only the write-up on our own parish but look through the magazine generally. There is a timely editorial on the Refugee relief effort. There is an article on China that is a scoop over any other magazine published in this country. There is a London letter. There are helpful devotional articles. You can subscribe to the Churchnews for $4.50 a year. It is something that a well informed Churchman will do. Subscription blanks are furnished with the magazine.

IN THE MAIL BAG

Someone sent us last week a copy of the parish magazine of St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh in which the Rector of the parish has an article on his recent visit to Holy Trinity. He writes, "last week, it was my privilege to visit a lovely church in downtown Philadelphia, 'Holy Trinity' on Rittenhouse Square." Then he goes on, and we particularly like what he says at the end, "Holy Trinity has a proud heritage and perhaps its greatest gift is the Christian carol 'O Little Town of Bethlehem' proclaiming in simplest words the deepest truths of the Incarnation." Then he adds, and for this we are grateful, "Won't you all say a word of prayer for Holy Trinity's Centennial year."

Another letter that came in the mail made us very happy. It came from one of the Mission Assistants and says "Just want to say how much it means to Mother and myself to belong to Holy Trinity. It's my second home. Thank you so much and Mr. Allanick for it certainly is a privilege to work for you both and to the glory of God." Isn't that nice, now?

A Radio listener writes, "I sit by my radio every Sunday, hymnal and prayer book in hand, and join in the service out loud with you. You will never know the joy that the service brings to me. I could not begin to express what it means to me each week. God bless you."

TICKETS FOR ARCHBISHOP'S VISIT

Don't forget that tickets for the service at which the Archbishop of Canterbury will preach are available at the Church House, 202 S. Rittenhouse Square. This is a Diocesan service, not a Holy Trinity service and tickets can be obtained only thru the Diocesan office.

O Savior of the world, who by Thy Cross and Passion hast redeemed us, save us and help us, we humbly beseech Thee. Amen.

6:00 P. M.—Trinity Club (For Young Adults and Students)

Topic: "Colonial Christianity in America," Speaker, Dr. Manross.

At 8:00 P. M., The Philadelphia Conservatory of Music Chorus will sing a group of hymns set to music by Vincent Persichetti and also the Schubert "Mass in G". At the Offertory, Edith Hemingway, flautist, will play Gluck's "Dance of the Blessed Spirits".

MEN'S CLUB MEETS THIS MONDAY, 6:15 P. M.

Frank G. Reeves, USN, Submarine Service, will speak to the Men's Club Monday night and show a film about Submarines. All men of the parish are invited to this fellowship. The dinner is at 6:15, "Humphries Prepared" and at $1.25. Let us get together and know each other better.

THE LAST TWO WEEKS OF LENT

During the last two weeks of Lent, over against ourselves, we put the Passion of our Lord. He suffered because of the sins of men. He was crucified by the evil of mankind. As we contemplate His love in spite of what we are, may these two weeks help us to avoid the failures in our lives which break His heart. In self discipline, in spiritual training, may we take deliberate steps to bring ourselves to His altar and communion on Easter Day at our noblest point. May we be given grace to see ourselves as He sees us in the light of His desires for us. May we seek His grace in prayer and sacrament in the services of worship. May we seek ever greater knowledge and understanding in the teaching services and in our own reading that we may measure up in a new degree to the stature of the fullness of Christ. He came down from Heaven for us and for our salvation. Surely, we cannot be indifferent to His great love.

THE NOONDAY PREACHER, THE REVEREND LAMAN BRUNER

This week's Noonday Preacher from 12:25 to 12:55 each day is one of the most vital clergy of the Church today, The Reverend Laman H. Bruner, Rector of St. Peter's Church, Albany, New York. A former assistant at St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City, and Rector of Trinity Church, Indianapolis, he has been at St. Peter's Albany for the past three years.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS THURSDAY, THE 11th

Following the Noonday Service at 12:25, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will meet on Thursday, April 11th, for lunch at one o'clock in the parish house. The speaker is the Noonday Preacher, the Reverend Laman Bruner, who will talk on the study life of a parish. All women of the parish are invited to the luncheon ($1.00) and reservations must reach the parish house not later than Tuesday, April 9th.

CHOIR TO SING NEW CANTATA ON PALM SUNDAY AFTERNOON

At 3:30 on Palm Sunday afternoon, in the Church, our choir will sing a new work by Alec Rowley, a contemporary English composer. It is called "The Garden and the Cross." Full of drama and poetry, it is an intriguing work musically and a moving piece in a spiritual sense.

THE MISSION IN RETROSPECT

The Mission was a milestone in Holy Trinity History,—a fitting end to a hundred years of Christian fellowship. It was a deep spiritual experience for all who participated in it, putting before us as it did the Christian answer to modern questions. It was a time of new realization and appreciation of the meaning of Grace, Faith, Forgiveness, Love and Sanctification. It was a time of new insight into the deepest meaning of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion together with Holy Matrimony and Confirmation. Your rector was pleased that many of the things which Dr. Lea said confirmed much that we have thought about together as Christians in fellowship.

That the Mission was worthwhile appears a little in statistics. The total attendance at the twelve Mission services was one thousand, seven hundred and eighty two. If we add to this the nine hundred who attended the two Sunday morning services, the total would be two thousand, eight hundred and eighty three. At the twelve Mission Services themselves, the average attendance was one hundred and forty eight. Probably three hundred people attended with more or less regularity, perhaps one hundred attended all the services. Your rector feels that this represents a great response to the challenge of the Mission and that in every good sense it was successful. The Thank-Offering given to Dr. Lea amounted to $391.29.

Again, we all must feel greatly indebted to the Mission Assistants who spread the word. Your rector never knew a more faithful group of people. They were:

Laura M. Abrams, May Belle Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Baird, Minetta Bentz, Barbara Ann Blair, Mary C. Buchanan, Mrs. Esther F. Callis, Carolyn A. Cessna, Mrs. Evelyn Clark, Mrs. Ernest Davies, Mrs. William Flick, Ethel R. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Fuernissen, R. Elliott Gifford, Pauline J. Gothie, John Graham, Jr., F. Graves, David Greenwood, Lola C. Harris, Dorothy G. Hay, Mrs. Josephine W. Herring, Dr. Mary P. Hitner, Lydia D. Jenks, James L. Kercher, Florence Loos, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Lanzi, Mrs. F. C. Tyas, W. H. Van Buren, Mrs. Dorothy B. Vaughn, Anne Walford, Clara E. Watt, Mrs. J. Thomas Watson, Elizabeth Williams, Marguerite Zulick. The following were ushers at the Mission services: James N. Ashbrook, Frederick C. Bachman, Adm. Jack F. Bowling, Rodman P. Bright, David L. Copson, Donald Danenhower, S. W. Densmore, John W. Gilmore, Robert S. Michel, Robert Leak, Clifford E. Lloyd, John P. ### WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

O Hark! the cry, a thousand voices shouting, they greet a King. For Him wild welcome sing, His majesty. They sing beyond all doubting and loud the people cry: "Hosannah!" O Zion see your King comes nigh! Look see Him come with gentle mien and lowly, is this the King? To Him wild welcome sing? While from His home the angels hear the cry: "Hosannah!" Today they cry, but will they cry tomorrow and hail Him King? To Him wild welcome sing? He goes to die in lonely sorrow and few will hear His sigh. O Christ, Thy day shall come again at Easter; to Thee as King in triumph shall we sing and homage pay, and once again, O Master, in love shall raise the cry: "Hosannah!" O see your King comes nigh! ## Holy Week

He who will spend this week with God, in worship and meditation, in prayer-filled living and thinking will come to its close with a new understanding of the Way, the Truth, and the Life as Life is in Christ Jesus. The Worship and the Preaching of the week are set forth to help all who are seeking sincerely and honestly to live meaningfully as Disciples of the Christ.

Monday Through Wednesday

Each Morning at 7:30, The Holy Communion

Each Noon at 12:25, The Preaching Service

Each Day at 5:30, Evening Prayer

Each Day at the Holy Communion and as the second lesson at Evening Prayer, the Gospel for the day will be read. Thus, the entire story of the Passion as we find it in the New Testament will be read during the week.

Maundy Thursday

7:30 A. M. The Holy Communion

11:30 A. M. The Holy Communion

12:25 Noon The Preaching Service

5:30 P. M. Evening Prayer

8:00 P. M. The Lord's Supper

Beginning at sundown on Maundy Thursday and continuing through Good Friday, Christians keep the ancient Jewish "day". It is begun as Jesus began it with the ancient Passover supper as He transformed it into the pledge of the New Covenant. It is carried on next day as we watch beside the cross. It is ended with the service of Evening Prayer on Good Friday as sundown approaches. Begin it, therefore, solemnly at the table of the Last Supper with Our Lord and continue it in thought and action during the next twenty four hours.

THE NOON-DAY PREACHER THIS WEEK

The Noonday Preacher this week is a longtime friend of the Rector's. The Reverend John Albert was a Charleston, West Virginia boy, ordained at St. John's Charleston, and is now Rector of All Saints, Wynnwood. He will preach at the Noonday services on Monday through Thursday.

Attend a service of Worship every day during Holy Week. The hours of services are purposely varied so that everyone should be able to fit one of the services into his schedule. If you cannot attend at Holy Trinity, seek out a church nearby and worship there. Live in vital relationship with God.

EASTER COMMUNION

The clergy are ready and indeed anxious to take Holy Communion during the week of Easter to all shut-in people who cannot be at church. We depend on your calling the parish office, LO 7-1267, and requesting that one of the clergy may come to you when you call, a time will be arranged for the service. Please do not hesitate to ask.

THE EASTER OFFERING

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our missionary and parochial budget needs. We are grateful to God that here at Holy Trinity the generosity of its people is enabling this church to carry forward an effective ministry in center-city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in a special thanksgiving to God for His blessings to us.

ARMED FORCES RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS DAY, SUNDAY, MAY 5th

The Church of the Holy Trinity will participate in Armed Forces Religious Emphasis Day when about fifty representatives of Armed Forces personnel will be present at church on Sunday morning, May 5th, and will be entertained by parishioners at dinner at the service.

ARCHBISHOP'S VISIT ON MONDAY EVENING, MAY 6th

The Archbishop of Canterbury will preach in Holy Trinity Church on the evening Monday, May 6th, at 8:00 P. M. The service will be televised over Channel 6. The service is under the auspices of the Diocese and will honor the Church of the Holy Trinity on the one hundredth anniversary of its being a parish.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING POSTPONED TO TUESDAY, MAY 14

The annual Parish Meeting which by the charter of the parish must be on Easter Monday unless adjourned to a later date will be adjourned to Tuesday evening, May 14, when there will be a parish dinner in the Centennial Room with reports from parish organizations, and an address by Bishop Hart.

CENTENNIAL SERVICE TO BE ON SUNDAY, MAY 26th

The Church of the Holy Trinity will observe the day of its becoming a parish May 27, 1857 at a Sunday service on May 26th. The preacher will be the Reverend Theodore F. Phillips, Rector of Trinity Church, Boston, to which Phillips Brooks went from Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, to become its rector and later Bishop of Massachusetts. It is hoped that many former clergy and former parishioners may be present at this service. The Vestry Committee in charge of the event is composed of the Rector's Warden, the Accounting Warden, Charles H. Bancroft, C. C. Morris, and Samuel Scott Stewart.

NOTES

The Philadelphia Inquirer is carrying a feature story on Holy Trinity in its magazine edition this Sunday in honor of Holy Trinity's Centennial Year.

The Rector's son, Robert, will be married to Miss Nancy Dempster on Saturday, April 27, 1957 at 3:30 in the afternoon in Christ Church, Tarrytown, New York. Every member of the Church of the Holy Trinity is invited to the wedding and both the Rector and Mrs. Longley sincerely hope that you will come. Invitations in particular have gone to members of the Vestry and to four other people who had an unusually close relationship with Bob; the invitation to all of you herewith, is just as real.

Miss Dempster, the new member to be of the Rectory Family is a graduate of Vassar College. Her mother who was a classmate of the Longley's at Northwestern University, is the Head Advertising Executive for Elizabeth Arden. Her father is also a New York advertising man.

Words of the Anthem

Voice of Mankind, sing over land and sea! the long, long night is gone from Calvary the Cross, the thong, the thorn; the sealed tomb yields up its saintly Guest, no longer to be burdened and oppressed. Heart of mankind, thrill answer to His own! So human yet divine! For earthly love He left His heavenly throne for love like thine and mine for love of us, as one might kiss a bride, His lifted touched death's all satisfied. Soul of Mankind, He wakes, He lives once more! Oh soul, with heart and voice sing! The stone rolls slowly from the door! Our Lord stands forth, rejoice! O garden land of song and flowers, our King returns to us, forever ours! James Whitcomb Riley.

CONFIRMATION CLASS TO BEGIN IF DESIRED

Five or six people have recently told the rector that they are interested in being confirmed. Are there other people attending Holy Trinity who are interested in being confirmed and thus becoming communicant members of the Episcopal Church? If so, please let the Rector or the Associate Rector know at once. One requirement is attendance at eight instruction classes which if enough are interested will begin on Sunday afternoon, May 10th and continue until the end of June on succeeding Sunday afternoons from 2:30 to 3:45.

EARLY RESERVATIONS NEEDED, WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETING

The next meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild is at the Episcopal Conference at Radnor on Thursday, May 9th. Please note that reservations for lunch, which will be provided by the Conference Center for $1.25, must reach the Parish House, 1902 Walnut Street, before May 2nd, a week in advance.

The Conference Center is at Gulph Creek and County Line Roads in Radnor. Trains leaving the Pennsylvania Railroad Suburban Station at 10:15 A. M. and 10:45 A. M. daylight time, will be met at Radnor Station. All women of the parish will be welcome at this meeting, no special invitation is necessary. There will be a short business meeting and time for a stroll through the buildings and beautiful grounds before lunch. The afternoon session will be devoted to an evaluation of this season's program, how it has proved helpful by interpreting the Christian Witness in terms of the work of the church.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

EASTER saw well over a thousand people attending the services at Holy Trinity in spite of the fact that so many center city people leave the downtown area for visits elsewhere at this season. The Easter offering which is a "love" offering over and above our regular giving, now amounts to more than fifteen hundred dollars. This always grows a little after Easter from gifts of people who were away at Easter time. The attendance at the Three Hour service on Good Friday totalled more than fifteen hundred people.

OUR THANKS to Hugh Scott and the Inquirer for the splendid article on Holy Trinity's Centennial in last Sunday's Inquirer. Mr. Scott produced a very accurate and inspiring summary of one hundred years of the life of this church.

THE SOUTHERN CONVOCATION meets at the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany at 13th and Spruce this coming Tuesday. Meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary begin at 3 P. M. in the parish rooms of the church. Bishop Armstrong speaks at 5:15 P. M. at evening Prayer. All are welcome.

MISS JUNE GOODMAN, our soprano soloist for the past several years, has resigned to take work elsewhere. She will be greatly missed and it is certain that the good wishes of all of us go with her.

ON GOING TO CHURCH

J. B. Phillips who published a translation of the Epistles of the New Testament in "Letters to Young Churches" has written another book called "New Testament Christianity." Here is a quotation from this book. "Many people who profess to be Christians are very irregular worshippers. I do not think they can possibly realize how they weaken the cause of the Church and in addition starve themselves of Christian fellowship. Many people appear to be convinced that they can lead good lives without committing themselves to Church attendance or the fellowship of the Church. Of course, if the object of Christianity were to produce good respectable people quite a fair proportion could go on being good and respectable and even bringing up good and respectable children without much aid from the Church. But suppose that is not the point at all; it certainly is not the point in the New Testament. The Church is never regarded as a rallying ground for the good and respectable. On the contrary it is a fellowship of those whose lives have been transformed by Christ, a fellowship of those who have become aware of the vast spiritual struggle which is taking place on the stage of this planet, a fellowship of those who are the actual living instruments of God's Purpose today. If our aim is merely morality we may very well be able to do without the Church but if we are being called as sons and daughters of God to cooperate with His high Purpose in the redemption of mankind, we cannot absent ourselves from the fellowship of other Christians without impoverishing both that fellowship and our own souls. If the Church is to make any worth-while impact on the surrounding community, if it is to speak with a voice worth hearing, it must have the active, committed support of all true Christians.

Words of the Anthem

Glorious is Thy Name, Almighty Lord; all the angels stand round about Thy throne, let all nations bow before Thee and declare Thy wondrous works. We praise Thee, we give thanks to Thee, we adore Thee, we glorify Thee. Lord, we bless Thee, we thank Thee for Thy Great glory. Heav'n is Thy throne and earth is Thy footstool. Thou art King over all the world. Blessing and honor be to God for ever and evermore.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

Following a parish dinner in the Centennial Room at 6:15 P.M., the Annual Parish Meeting will be held next Tuesday evening, May 14. Reports of parish activities during the past year will be available and the officers of parish organizations will be introduced. Bishop Hart will be the speaker.

CONFIRMATION CLASS TO BEGIN THIS SUNDAY, 2:30 P.M.

A Confirmation class will begin this Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the church and will continue for the next eight weeks, through June 30, each Sunday afternoon. The class will consider the history, faith, ethic, sacraments, worship, and devotional life of the Episcopal Church. The class is open to anyone who wishes to attend whether planning to be confirmed or not. All who desire to be confirmed by the Bishop and thus become Communicant members of the Episcopal Church are asked to receive this instruction.

HOLY TRINITY AND THE NURSING SCHOOLS

Through its Associate Rector, the Church of the Holy Trinity ministers to center its students in medical colleges and schools of nursing. Regular pastoral visits are made to Children's Hospital, Episcopal, Hahnemann, and Jefferson Hospitals, to the Osteopathic Hospital of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia College of Osteopathy, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, Philadelphia General Hospital, Philadelphia School of Occupational Therapy and Presbyterian Hospital. On Sunday evenings during the past year, nurses' choirs from Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia College of Osteopathy, Philadelphia General Hospital, and Temple University Hospital have sung at Holy Trinity.

This Sunday evening, May 12, at 8 o'clock, nurses from all the Philadelphia area have been invited to participate in a service here at Holy Trinity in memory of Florence Nightingale who was born at Florence, Italy, on May 12, 1820. Although she is perhaps best known for her achievements as a nurse during the Crimean War in 1854, it can also be truly said that modern nursing owes its beginning to her work. In 1860 she gave a testimonial fund of fifty thousand pounds to found a school of nursing. In Waterloo Place, in London, a statue of her can be seen. She is called "The Lady with the Lamp." The public is invited to this commemorative service.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE ARCHBISHOP OF CENTERBURY had to cancel his visit to the United States because of illness. The question has been asked about his age. Had he visited Philadelphia last week, it would have been on the day following his seventieth birthday. He was born on May 5, 1887.

A LIST OF DONORS AND MEMORIALS in relation to the Centennial Chalice being fabricated by Admiral Bowling will be available for checking at the parish dinner on Tuesday evening and after that in the parish office. All who gave silver are asked to check the list for corrections and omissions. The Chalice will be dedicated at a Centennial Memorial Service on Sunday morning, June 2.

WHO SAID THIS?

"The Christian Churches are the greatest bulwark against atheism and the whole philosophy and practice of communism. It is not simply a matter of pronouncements but of all that happens on the parish level—the training of children, the preaching of the Gospel of Christ, the worship of Almighty God. The Church is equally opposed to what may be described as 'creeping fascism' . . . We are against trial by uninformed public opinion; against accusations by hearsay . . . We are for fairness and justice as a part both of Christianity and of our democratic way of life."

These words are from an address by the Right Reverend Henry Knox Sherrill, President of the Episcopal Church.

ELIZABETH D. PAXSON

A gentle little lady, Elizabeth D. Paxson, who was a part of our fellowship for many years, passed from this life on April 27. The Rector read the Burial Service for her on May 1, at the Chapel, in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, where she is buried. May she forever grow in love and service.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Open our eyes, O loving and compassionate Jesus, that we may behold Thee walking beside us in our sorrow. Thou hast made death glorious and triumphant; for through its portals we enter into the presence of the Living God. Open our eyes, O loving and compassionate Jesus, that we may see to follow Thee, Jesus our Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

2:30 P. M.—Adult Confirmation Class in the Church

6:00 P. M.—Trinity Club Young Adults (20's and 30's) and Students

CONFIRMATION CLASS BEGUN

Twelve people registered for Confirmation instruction last Sunday afternoon. Others may register today and later, there will be a "make-up" of the first class for them. After today, NO further registrations can be made for this class.

The class will meet today and every Sunday afternoon in the church at 2:30 for the next seven Sundays, ending on June 30. Anyone may attend the class whether planning to be confirmed or not.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

DR. THEODORE P. FERRIS, Rector of Trinity Church, Boston, to which Phillips Brooks went as Rector when he left Holy Trinity, will be the preacher at Morning Prayer on Sunday, May 26, which will mark the actual Centennial date when Holy Trinity became a parish of the Episcopal Church.

THE MEMORIAL CHALICE, fashioned by Admiral Bowling, from old silver contributed by members of the parish as memorials, will be dedicated at the Service of Holy Communion on Whitsunday, June 9. It had been planned to have this dedication on June 2, but it has seemed best to postpone it to this major feast day of Pentecost.

A STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL is in the offing. A committee from the women's and men's organizations will meet this Friday evening to talk over details. There will be more on this later.

MISS LORETTA RUFO has been engaged as soprano soloist to replace Miss Goodman. Miss Rufo will sing with the choir on Sunday, May 26, for the first time.

THE COLLECT AND THE HYMNS

Very often, the hymns we sing, it will be noted, are related to the theme set by the Collect for the Day. Today's Collect speaks of the reign of God, the King, and the duty of man to serve Him in this life. So, for instance, it begins "O Almighty God who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men" and we sing as the Processional Hymn, "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven" which also contains the lines "Father-like he tends and spares us, well our feeble frame he knows." It will be noted that the Psalms reflect the theme of God's reign and man's duty.

The Collect goes on to say "that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise." In the Hymn before the sermon "Soldiers of Christ, Arise," we sing "take to arm you for the fight, the panoply of God." Much of this hymn, it will be noted, is related to the Collect.

The final hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be" will be seen to be related to the thought of the Sermon.

A WORD FROM MR. CHAPMAN

There is room in the choir for volunteer singers. It is hoped that volunteer sections of the choir may be built up so that one group will sing on certain Sundays and another on other Sundays, so that all will not have to be present every Sunday. This gives opportunity to sing with the choir and yet not be tied down to every Sunday duty. Mr. Chapman will be glad to hear from volunteers who may be interested. Come to the console after service, or call him at MI 6-4220.

THE CHURCH IN THE SEATO COUNTRIES

A recent dispatch from Manila reads: "The second biennial conference of the Council of the Church of Southeast Asia took place in Manila in February bringing together Bishops, Clergy, and Lay Delegates from Hong Kong, Borneo, Singapore, Rangoon, Korea, and the Philippines, the most representative gathering of Anglicans ever held in this part of the world. The Council discussed the strengthening of theological education in Southeast Asia and a proposal to establish a mission among the three million Chinese in Thailand, not as a Western missionary enterprise, but staffed and supported insofar as possible, by the Southeast Asia dioceses.

The conference concluded with a Festival of Witness, conducted jointly by the Episcopal Church and the Philippine Independent Church which was attended by more than 30,000 persons." This is the fruit of Mission work. Could we gather together 30,000 Episcopalians in Philadelphia?

Words of the Anthem

Unfold, ye portals everlasting, with welcome to receive Him ascending on high. Behold, the King of Glory! He mounts up through the sky, back to the heavenly mansions hasting, for lo, the King comes nigh. But who is He, the King of Glory? He who Death overcame, the Lord in battle mighty. Of hosts He is the Lord; of angels and powers: the King of Glory is the King of the saints.

2:30 P. M.—Adult Confirmation Class

Anyone is welcome to attend the classes. Today's topic: The Church's Sacraments.

The Sunday Evening Programs will resume on Sunday, September 15. During the summer, there will be many young adult events under the auspices of Trinity Club and to which all young adults are invited. Next Friday night (June 7), there will be a trip to see "The Boy Friend" at the Valley Forge Theatre and on June 21-23 a weekend at Holy Trinity's Holiday House in Sellersville. Write Mary L. Marsh, 2220 Spruce St. Philadelphia, Pa., for details.

TWO IMPORTANT JUNE EVENTS

Sunday, June 9—Dedication of the Centennial Chalice

On the Feast of Pentecost (Whitsunday), June 9, the Centennial Memorial Chalice and Paten will be dedicated at the 11 o'clock service of Holy Communion. The Chalice and Paten have been fabricated by Admiral Jack F. Bowling from old silver given as memorials by members of the parish. A special program will be issued giving the names of donors and the names of those being memorialized, and the Chalice and Paten will be used at the service.

The significance of this action is beyond calculation. Seventy-two members of the parish have contributed to it in terms of gifts of old silver and in a few instances of money. Admiral Bowling has spent upwards of 140 hours in the making of the Chalice and Paten. He is presenting it in the name of the officers and men of the U.S.S. Frederick Davis, who went down with their ship or died after rescue during the last war. Admiral Bowling's ship was the rescue vessel. Others will be memorialized as requested by the donors of silver. The Chalice and Paten will be the vessels of the Holy Sacrament for countless people throughout the years—the work and gifts of people in the parish today.

Thursday, June 20—Strawberry Festival

The women of the parish are determined to put an automatic dishwasher in the Centennial Room kitchen. It will cost close to $2000. Something over $500 is now in sight from the treasuries of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, and the Evening Auxiliary.

To raise further money, a summer Strawberry Festival has been planned by a committee from the Women's organizations, and the Men's Club, to be held at 8 o'clock on the evening of Thursday, June 20, in the Centennial Room. Tickets at $1.00 each will be mailed to the parish and it is hoped that many will participate in this project.

There will be more about this later. Join the "Clean Plate Club" and help us get a dishwasher (not human, that is).

MRS. MARLENE MAERTENS ADDED TO CHURCH STAFF

For a long time, we have believed that a special ministry by Holy Trinity for "unchurched" (inadequate word!) people in the center city area is a necessity. During the past two and a half years, we have tried to provide this ministry in terms of an additional clergyman, but have not found this to be satisfactory. Now we are going to experiment with a lay person and have found such a person in Mrs. Marlene Maertens.

Mrs. Maertens is not new to this kind of work. Furthermore, she is a dedicated person of great spiritual sensitivity. We have great faith that as a result of her work we shall see miraculous things happen.

NOTES

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING of the women of Holy Trinity which was presented at the recent Diocesan service amounted to $794.69. The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild offering was $627.23, and the Evening Auxiliary offering was $167.46. Mrs. S. Scott Stewart is the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild Custodian and Miss Emma Tomlin was the Evening Auxiliary Custodian. The new Custodian for the Evening Auxiliary is Mrs. E. Taxdal.

GOING AWAY FOR THE SUMMER? Several people, believe it or not, have already left Philadelphia for the summer! We know that to be true, because we have received pledges paid up to September. You can help greatly if you will pay your pledge in advance before you go away—realizing that the Church must pay salaries and maintain itself during the summer months.

Choral Postlude: "Triumphant Zion, Lift Thy Head".....Wareham

The flowers on the Altar today are in loving memory of Mrs. Louise Kelsey Draper

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Glory to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen. Only begotten Son, Word of the Father, who art immortal. Thou dost vouchsafe for our salvation to become incarnate of the holy Mother of God and ever virgin Mary. Changeless Essence, lo, Thou wast made very Man; and crucified, Thou the Godman, to vanquish death by dying. Thou alone, O Christ, art glorified in the Trinity with Father and Holy Spirit: O save us. Lord, have mercy upon us; Christ, have mercy upon us; Lord, have mercy upon us. Amen.

2:30 P. M.—Adult Confirmation Class in the Church

Monday, June 17—St. Barnabas' Day, Holy Communion at 7:30 and 12:15

THE SYMBOLISM OF THE CHURCH FLAG

The red cross on a white field is the cross of Saint George and indicates our descent from the Church of England. The Saint Andrew's cross in outline in the field of blue recalls our indebtedness to the Scottish Church in connection with the consecration of Bishop Seabury at Aberdeen in 1784, and the nine cross crosslets symbolize the nine original dioceses which met in Philadelphia and in 1789 adopted the constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. The colors red, white and blue, obviously represent our country and stand for the American branch of the Anglican Communion.

THIS IS THE LAST MAILED BULLETIN UNTIL SEPTEMBER 15

THURSDAY, JUNE 20—STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

Featuring strawberries, ice cream, a new film about Russia, music and entertainment, plus good fellowship with other members of Holy Trinity and their friends, the Strawberry Festival is set for 8 o'clock, Thursday night, June 20, in the Centennial Room. Incidentally, it costs $1.00 to get in. "on account of we want to buy an automatic dishwasher for the Centennial Room kitchen." Come to the Strawberry Festival and become a member of the "Clean Plate Club." This is a blow against "Kitchen Slavery." Come one, come all!

NOTES AND COMMENTS

A DOVE (symbol of the Holy Spirit) flew about the interior of the church during the Whitsunday services, lighting above the pulpit during the sermon and over the center of the Chancel during the blessing of the new Paten and Chalice. Who knows? It was a very beautiful dove, white winged, tipped with gold! Was it straight out of Rittenhouse Square or, perhaps, was Heaven its home?

THE GIDEONS do a great work in the distribution of the Scriptures and God has abundantly blessed them. We are glad to welcome a speaker for the Gideons this morning who will speak for three minutes. Listen carefully—he has something important to say.

A BAPTISM will take place immediately after the service this morning when Sela Stockton Weidemann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Weidemann, will receive this Sacrament. Her sponsors are Miss Tamzen Milliken, Miss Ruth Van Sciver, and Frank Weidemann. It is hoped that members of our parish fellowship will be present at the service.

THE SUMMER PREACHING SCHEDULE

Next Sunday—June 23—the Rector will preach on "A Most Human Fellow." On Sunday—June 30—Bishop Armstrong is the preacher at a Confirmation Service. During July, the Rector will repeat four sermons, preached five years ago, on "You," "You Are Important," "You and Your Troubles," "You and Your Inferiority," and "You and Your Victory."

During August, and the first two Sundays in September, the Associate Rector is the preacher. He will outline in a series of six sermons, six new resource volumes edited by the National Department of Christian Education on the Episcopal Church's traditions, beliefs, and practices: The Holy Scriptures, Chapters in Church History, The Faith of the Church, the Worship of the Church, Christian Living, and the Episcopal Church and Its Work.

NEW STAFF ASSISTANT ASKS THE PRAYERS AND HELP OF ALL

Mrs. Marlene Maertens, Staff Assistant, has as her special task reaching people with the good news of Christ's saving way and truth and life and to tell them how they can be helped to find life through Holy Trinity Church. She asks your prayers for her work in seeking people. So often, people are unaware of their need. Equally often, they are wasting life, unaware of their potential usefulness. The Church of the Holy Trinity, this Christian community, offers help and opportunity to the life of any person who enters its fellowship. Mrs. Maerten's work is to bring the Church and people together. If you know of new people in this area, of "unchurched" (inadequate word) people, of people we can perhaps help or can help us by new insight and directions, Mrs. Maertens know. Call her at the Church office (LO 7-1267). She and all of us are vitally interested in people.

THIS IS THE LAST MAILED BULLETIN UNTIL SEPTEMBER 15—BUT . . .

Never forget that the Church of the Holy Trinity is active throughout the year. There are Sunday services at 8 and 11 every Sunday, services at 7:30 and 12:15 on Saints Days and Holy Days, and Holy Communion at 12:15 every Thursday. Either the Rector or the Associate Rector are in residence throughout the summer and the parish office is open every day but Saturday and Sunday. The worship of God, and through His love are not seasonal affairs.

WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

A NEW YEAR OF ACTIVITY BEGINS TODAY

To be associated with the Church of the Holy Trinity is to belong to an active Christian fellowship in which many opportunities are offered for the deepening of one's Christian understanding and living as well as expressing one's Christian love toward God and other people. Special preachers, sermon series, Bible classes, Confirmation classes, Church School classes offer educational privileges this fall. The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, the Evening Auxiliary, the Men's Club, Trinity Club, the Altar Guild and the Choir offer opportunities of fellowship. The Sunday and Holy Day services offer the privileges of worship.

You will find the dates of activities listed below. Be an active parishioner. Receive for yourself in terms of these opportunities. Give of yourself as a witness to our Lord and in His name a lover of your fellow man. Here is Christian opportunity. Avail yourself of it.

HERE ARE SOME DATES FOR YOUR CALENDAR

September

THIS SUNDAY: Holy Communion at 8 A.M.; Morning Prayer at 11 A.M.

The Rector preaches to the Parish at 11 o'clock.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Unto Thee all praise be given, King of kings and Lord of lords: Heav'n and earth proclaim Thy glory, and the wonders of Thy works. Song of praises we will give Thee evermore. In Thy mercy Thou dost save us, and from harm Thou'll keep us free: When temptations dire assail us we shall always look to Thee. In Thy pow'r we ever glory, in Thy strength we shall endure: Leaning on Thy gracious mercy, and Thy precious love so pure. Song of praises we will give Thee evermore.

8:00 P.M.—EVENING SERVICE

Preacher, the Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, D.D., Bishop, Diocese of Pennsylvania
Guest Artist: Mason Jones, First Horn, Philadelphia Orchestra.

MR. POLLANICK TO LEAVE HOLY TRINITY

Mr. Pollanick has resigned to accept the Rectorship of All Saints' Parish, Rawn-hurst. Although we were all aware that this would happen some day, still it comes as a blow we shall not easily weather because of the significance of his ministry at Holy Trinity. Much more will be said about it at a later time. He will assume his new duties on November 1.

BISHOP HART, EVENING SERVICE PREACHER

Bishop Hart, who has just returned from a meeting of the House of Bishops, will be the speaker at the 8 o'clock service this Sunday evening. Mason Jones, first horn of the Philadelphia Orchestra, will play during the offertory.

A GET ACQUAINTED PARTY FOR NEWCOMERS THURSDAY NIGHT

Are you a newcomer to Holy Trinity since last January first? Then you are one of the Guests of Honor at a get acquainted party this Thursday night, September 26, in the Centennial Room at 8 o'clock. No further invitation is necessary. Members of parish organizations will tell about their groups. And, although your aching joints may not permit you to participate, there will be a square dance with a real "caller" to round out the evening. If you don't dance, you can watch. Newcomer! This is for you! Be sure to come!

COMING EVENTS! MARK YOUR CALENDARS! PARTICIPATE!

CONFIRMATION Classes begin, Sunday, October 20, at 2:30 P.M.

BISHOP WHITE SOCIETY, YOU MAY JOIN

We are asked to mention the Bishop White Parish Library Association which has functioned since 1839 supplying books and reading matter to families and clergymen anywhere but chiefly in missionary areas. For further information, it is suggested that you contact Miss Elizabeth Lea, 2031 Locust St., (RI 6-0523).

SPEAKERS AT ORGANIZATIONAL MEETINGS

At the Evening Auxiliary on Tuesday evening, October 1, the speaker will be Mr.
Blair Lee, President of the Western Saving Fund Society and a member of the national Council.

At the Men's Club Dinner, at 6:15 on Tuesday evening, October 8, William H. Du-Barry, Rector's Warden, will speak on his trip around the world this past summer. His talk will include pictures and comments on personalities whom he met. All men of the parish and their friends may attend. Cards for reservations will be in the mail this week.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER

Two long-time members of Holy Trinity passed from this life during the past two months.

Miss Sarah Tomkins died on July 27. She was the daughter of Floyd Tomkins, Rector of this parish. Although unable to attend services here at Holy Trinity because of her work, she was a radio listener and keenly interested in all Holy Trinity activities.
We shall miss her encouraging enthusiasm.

Carl Martin, a vestryman for many years until his resignation because of ill health April, died on August 5. For many years, Mr. Martin looked after the endowment funds of the parish as his special responsibility. He has been a wise counsellor to records of the parish and in the business of the vestry. He will be greatly missed.

May these members of our fellowship forever grow in love and service.

Dean of the Havana Cathedral. Previously, he was Rector of Emmanuel Church, Alexandria, Virginia.

NEVER ENOUGH FOR CHRIST—THE MISSIONARY IMPERATIVE

The Christian Church has been an outreaching ongoing organism from the very beginning. It has gone forth on Missions in Christ's name ever since our Lord said "Ye shall be witnesses to me . . . unto the uttermost parts of the earth."

Today, our branch of the Church alone, that is the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S.A., carries out Missions beyond the United States on four continents, maintains 243 schools, 34 hospitals, and supports 345 ordained clergymen as well as providing partially for the support of lay workers; it ministers in 19 territorial divisions or countries in over 500 specific localities. In addition, in Japan, we also help support the Japanese Church which has workers in 330 places with 243 clergy. We give help also to the English Church in India, Pakistan, and Jerusalem. In addition to overseas Mission work, there is American work in colleges and schools, in depressed as well as newly settled urban areas, among Indians, in Negro (now integrated) schools in the South. All told, because the Church believes that it must reach out everywhere that witness to our Lord is especially needed, we are spending over six million dollars each year.

This morning, we shall hear about our Missions in terms of one particular area, namely Cuba, which is about the size of the state of Iowa, has over twice as many people, and also has well over twice as many Episcopalians. Like parts of Philadelphia, it too, is a fast growing area and needs all the help the Church can give. It is typical of our work everywhere, in such places as Alaska, the Philippines, Liberia in Africa, Hawaii, Okinawa, Brazil, Honolulu, and Mexico.

CHURCH GROWTH COMMITTEE CORPORATE COMMUNION THIS SUNDAY

The Church Growth Committee, composed of the Church Ushers and the Hospitality Group, under the Chairmanship of Edward S. Leyshon, will hold its Corporate Communion this Sunday morning at the 8 o'clock service to be followed by a breakfast in the Centennial Room at which the Bishop of Cuba will speak.

During the summer, various members of the Church Growth Committee have worked most everyday compiling a downtown address and telephone list of almost 4000 names, and have addressed envelopes and sent a pamphlet about the Church of the Holy Trinity to these people. Special thanks for this work go to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. H. Bancroft, Mrs. Lucretia A. Bentley, Neale Inghurst, Mrs. Esther F. Callis, Mrs. Evelyn G. Clark, Mrs. George G. Colvin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, Austin J. Gangel, R. Elliott Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graves,
Mr. and Mrs. David Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Humphries, Merrill A. Kercher, Mrs. Priscilla S. Kitchel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Kitchel, Ada Louise Layman, Florence
Ross, Marjorie Lvons, Mr. and Mrs. William Maurer, Anne O'Keefe, Elizabeth Pinch-cock, Robert B. Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Y. Rogers, Lillian I. Stockburger, and Walter Storey.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY AT 6 P.M.

The Evening Auxiliary, for all women of the Parish who cannot attend a daytime meeting (no special invitation is necessary), holds its first meeting of this year on this coming Tuesday, beginning with a dinner at six, in the Centennial Room. The speaker is Mr. P. Blair Lee, President of the Western Savings Fund Society and a member of the National Council of the Church, who will speak on "We Follow By Our knowledge of The Church At Work."

RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES START OCTOBER 7 AND 8

An eight-week series of Bible Classes begin in the Centennial Room on Monday night, October 7, at 7:45, with the class repeated on the following morning, Tuesday, at 10:45; also in the Centennial Room. The subject of the study this Fall will be "Pre-Christian Ideas of God and Man in the Old Testament." No previous enrollment is required. The classes are open to everyone.

MONDAY NIGHT, TUESDAY MORNING, RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS

At 7:45 on this Monday evening, October 7, and at 10:45 this Tuesday morning, October 8, in the Centennial Room, the Rector's Bible Classes begin and will continue each Monday and Tuesday for eight weeks. The general subject for the classes is "Pre-Christian Ideas in the Old Testament" and will consider in particular the books of Genesis, Exodus, Proverbs, Job, Isaiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel. The Monday evening and Tuesday morning classes are identical. All people, men and women, are welcome. There is no fee. Do you really know the basic ethos of the Christian faith? Come and learn about it at the Bible Classes.

TUESDAY NIGHT, MR. DuBARRY TELLS OF WORLD-WIDE TRIP

At the Men's Club Dinner, at 6:30, Tuesday night, October 8, Mr. William H. DuBarry will speak about his trip around the world this past summer. All men of the parish and their friends are welcome at the dinner ($1.50 a plate). Reservations should be phoned at once to the Parish Office, LO 7-1267. The committee in charge of this meeting is: Frederick C. Bachman, S. W. Densmore, David Greenwood, S. Scott Stewart, and James D. Wiley.

THURSDAY, WOMAN'S AUXILIARY COMMUNION AND LUNCHEON MEETING

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of the parish, Mrs. J. Frank Bowling, president, meet together for a Corporate Communion at 12:15 next Thursday, October 10, to be followed by a luncheon and meeting at one o'clock in the Parish House. The Rector will speak under the year's general theme of "The Way of Life" on "The Way of Life in the Parish." He will emphasize "The Way" in terms of its practical meaning. All women of the parish are invited. It should be made very clear that no special invitation is necessary. Come to the meeting. You will find friends and a warm welcome.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGIN SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2:30 P.M.

An Adult Confirmation Class begins Sunday, October 20, at 2:30 P.M. in the church and continues for eight successive Sundays. Bishop Hart visits the parish for Confirmation Sunday, December 15. All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend these preparatory classes. However, the classes are open to all. Inquirers, who may be merely thinking about confirmation at this time, are definitely welcome. Members of the parish will find the classes an opportunity to deepen their knowledge of the church.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE HOUSE OF REST donation day and open house is this coming Wednesday, October 9, from 2 until 5 P.M., at the home, 5919 Wayne Avenue. You are invited to come and help maintain this attractive and comfortable home for elderly women of the Episcopal Church. For further information, call Mrs. George Eyre Smith (GE 8-9341).

THE GRAY LADIES at Wills Eye Hospital need volunteers. Call Miss Alice Kerr, Gray Lady Director, at Wills Eye Hospital, for further information.

WIDER USE of our facilities, made possible by the new Centennial Room, is being enjoyed by several non-parochial groups. Alcoholics Anonymous meets here on Wednesday and Saturday evenings. The Mendelssohn Club rehearses here on Tuesday evening. A Temple University Class group meets here on Wednesday evenings. The Daughters of the British Empire and the Dickens Fellowship meet here on one evening a month. The buildings we support are greatly useful to many people each week.

NEW FORWARDS are available today in the Church Porch. Do you use this daily devotional?

TWO CONFIRMATION CLASSES START SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20

A confirmation preparation class for children (in sixth grade or older) will begin at the church at 10 o'clock Sunday mornings, starting on Sunday, October 20, and continuing for eight weeks.

An adult confirmation class will begin at 2:30 Sunday afternoons in the church starting October 20, and continue for eight weeks. The adult class is open to everyone whether planning to be confirmed or not. It is hoped that many will take advantage of it to refresh their understanding of the Episcopal Church. Inquirers are welcome.

All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend the eight classes before being presented to the Bishop who visits the parish at the 11 o'clock service on Sunday, December 15.

No previous registration is necessary—simply come to the class. Remember, enrollment in the class commits no one to being confirmed at its end.

CHURCH GROWTH COMMITTEE ENTERTAINS VESTRY THURSDAY NIGHT

The members of the Vestry will be the guests of the Church Growth Committee at dinner on Thursday night, October 17, at 6:30 in the Centennial Room. This is "Operation, Get To Know Your Vestrymen" and each member of the Vestry will be asked to give a five minute sketch of his life and interests.

In addition, Dr. Barook J. Masuda will show the colored slides of his trip to Europe. If you would like to come to this dinner, whether a member of the Church Growth Committee or not, you are more than welcome. Call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) or Mr. Leyshon (LO 7-4058) for a reservation.

PLANS FOR BAZAAR AT BARCLAY, NOVEMBER 14, BEING READIED

The annual Bazaar and Card Party of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, will be held at the Barclay on Thursday, November 14, from 12 noon until six P.M.

The chairmen once again appeal to YOU for articles to stock their tables. Help them out with your generous support. We need things for all the tables. Please let the chairmen know as early as possible what you plan to contribute. Here are the chairmen: Books, Mrs. Harry S. Longley, MI 2-6511, can use clean, used books. Also remember that in addition to having the publishers latest books on sale (adult or children) Mrs. Longley can order any book you wish. Candy, Mrs. E. M. Callis, LO 7-796, homemade candy, candy novelties. Cake, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, PE 5-9423, needs cookies, homemade bread, and rolls. Fancy, Mrs. John Gretz Fell, KI 5-0300, needs lovely things of all sorts. Handkerchiefs, Mrs. Harry F. Angstadt, SU 9-9086, needs also Christmas novelties. Surprise Packages, Mrs. L. Stauffer Oliver, PE 5-9465, needs attractive articles of all sorts that are worth at least 50 cents or $1.00. Useful, Mrs. Harry S. May, EV 6-6515, aprons, pot holders, coat hangers, etc. White Elephant, Mrs. George M. Laws, PE 5-7776, everything and anything, costume and old jewelry. Card Party and Tea, Miss Margaret Kollock, WE 4-5145, door prizes from your favorite merchants. Centennial, Miss Julia Leighton, KI 5-3920, let her know how many tiles and centennial histories you want. Mrs. Jack F. Bowling is chairman of the Bazaar (KI 228), and Mrs. Robert D. Franklin is treasurer (PE 5-8365).

RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES NOW IN PROGRESS

Every Monday evening at 7:45 and every Tuesday morning at 10:45, (identical classes), the Rector's Bible Classes are now in session. The study topic for the next ten weeks is "Pre-Christian Ideas In The Old Testament." All are welcome. There is no fee. Deepen your Christian faith and knowledge by taking advantage of the opportunities offered by the classes.

A LITTLE EDITORIAL

Your Rector is troubled because the turn of events this Fall, namely Mr. Pollanick's leaving and the necessity of interviewing, visiting, and screening possible successors in addition to maintaining the normal life and work of the parish, is going to prevent his pastoral calling. It disturbs your Rector when he cannot, for lack of time, see each person in the parish.

He will continue to call as he is able, but he asks you to come to meetings that he may see you there and especially to seek him out whenever you desire. If or not, he is available as your pastor and counselor. The change in Associate Rectors creates more additional burdens for the Rector and one may realize. Your cooperative help and forbearance in all things is very much needed that Holy Trinity may continue to be useful in Christ's name to many people.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Bow down Thine ear, O Lord, and hear me, for I am poor and in misery. Preserve Thou my soul, for I am holy; my God, save Thy servant that putteth his trust in Thee. Be merciful unto me, O Lord, for I will call daily upon Thee. Comfort the soul of Thy servant, for unto Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. For Thou, Lord, art good and gracious, and of great mercy unto all them that call upon Thee.

Psalm LXXXVI, Verses 1-5.

2:30 P.M.—ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS IN THE CHURCH

Speaker: Mr. Stanford Summers, whose topic is "Inside Russia," (illustrated), spent the summer touring Russia and taking pictures.

8:00 P. M.—Evening Prayer

SERMON: THE ASSOCIATE RECTOR

CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGIN THIS SUNDAY

A class for adults in preparation for Confirmation begins this Sunday afternoon
2:30 in the Nave of the Church. Traditionally, these classes are thought of as Confirmation Classes, and so they are, but they have a wider scope than just this. They are helpful to many, not only those planning to be confirmed. These latter persons are asked to be present at the classes before being presented to the Bishop, but the classes are open to all. Anyone may attend. Here is opportunity to review your knowledge of the Church.

Especially, of course, we invite all who worship with us but are not confirmed communicants of the Episcopal Church to attend the classes and seriously to consider being presented to the Bishop when he visits the parish on Sunday, December 15, 11:00 A.M. It should be emphasized, however, that attendance at the classes in no way commits anyone to being confirmed.

A class for children will begin promptly at 10:00 A.M. this Sunday in the Church (note, not the parish house). Children in sixth grade or older are eligible to attend.

THIS COMING TUESDAY, CONVOCATION MEETING AT PRINCE OF PEACE

The Diocese is divided into five sectional districts called Convocations. We belong to the one which includes all the territory between the Delaware and Schuylkill south Market Street. Members of these parishes will meet together on next Tuesday, October 22, at Prince of Peace Chapel, 22nd and Morris Streets. The women meet at 10 P.M. The men meet at 5:15 in the church when Bishop Armstrong will speak.
Lunch is at 6:00 P.M. After supper the Rectors of St. Luke and the Epiphany, St. Mark's, and Gloria Dei Parishes will speak on their work. The sound movie, "The Founding of Jamestown" will be shown.

All are invited. The dinner is $1.25. Call the parish office immediately for a reservation if you plan to attend.

RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES NOW IN PROGRESS

The Rector's Bible Classes meet on Monday evenings, at 7:45, and Tuesday mornings, at 10:45. The topic for the eight Fall classes is "Pre-Christian Ideas in the Old Testament." The classes are open to all, men and women. There is no fee. Why not visit the class this week? You will find it worthwhile.

NOTES

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING PRESENTATION for the parish will be on Sunday, October 27, at the 11:00 A.M. service. Blue boxes (the traditional Thank Offering for use at home) are available today in the Church Porch. Mrs. S. Scott Stewart is the United Thank Offering custodian for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and Ruth Taxdal for the Evening Auxiliary.

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4 o'clock in the parish house.

EVERY MEMBER LOYALTY SUNDAY is November 24. Plan now to be in Philadelphia at Holy Trinity on that day. Your partnership is always needed.

MR. POLLANICK LEAVES HOLY TRINITY THIS WEEK

Mr. Pollanick will preach his last sermon as Associate Rector of Holy Trinity at his Sunday morning's service. He becomes the Rector of All Saints' Church, Rhawnhurst, on Friday, November 1, and will be instituted that evening by Bishop Hart at All Saints' at eight o'clock.

Mr. Pollanick's ministry at Holy Trinity has been a notable one. His outstanding achievement has been his ministry to young adults and students. Last year, over 600 young people passed through the doors of this church. Trinity Club, which meets on Sunday evenings, has an average attendance of 150. The Sunday evening service is part of its activities and from 100 to over 300, at times even more, attend this service.

From nothing, Mr. Pollanick has established a Church School—small to be sure in his center city area, but in one sense, remarkable, in that it exists at all.

As a preacher, a pastor, a counsellor, a friend and minister to all, Mr. Pollanick is respected by young and old. Needless to say, he will be greatly missed. All of us wish him everything good in his new work and our fervent prayers go with him.

UNITED THANK OFFERING—THIS SUNDAY

The women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will present the fall in-gathering of the United Thank Offering at the 11 o'clock service this Sunday. Mrs. S. Scott Stewart is custodian for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, and Mrs. Henry Taxdal for the Evening Auxiliary. Representatives of both these groups will receive the Offering at the morning service.

In a very real sense, the work done through the United Thank Offering is the symbol of all our Christian life. The buildings built, the lives of service prepared for and supported, the care of retired workers, and all the thousands of special needs and as the response of God's children in thanksgiving for His unspeakable gifts.

As the number of participants has increased over the years, the amounts of the offering also have increased and the usefulness of the Offering has grown. Each triumph, new and bolder projects, have been added and the work of the United Thank Offering has become more widespread. There is practically no limit to the potentialities of the United Thank Offering in furthering the work of the Episcopal Church.

HOW TO GET TO ALL SAINTS'—RHAWNURST

It would be a splendid tribute to Mr. Pollanick and an encouragement to his new congregation if Holy Trinity people could be present at his Institution on next Friday evening, November 1, at eight o'clock. All Saints' can be reached, from center city, by taking the elevated, east, and getting off at the Orthodox-Margaret Station, then by No. 59 trackless trolley to Castor and Loney Avenues, cross Castor Avenue and walk two squares. If you go by car, drive on Broad Street to Roosevelt Boulevard, along Roosevelt Boulevard, past Sears-Roebuck and Oxford Circle to Rhawn Street, and make left turn and go on Rhawn Street to Frontenac, turn left, and proceed two blocks to Loney Avenue.

EVANGELISM NEVER STOPS

Two thousand years ago, our Lord appointed teams of evangelists. The scriptures read "After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two . . . into every city and place whither he himself would come."

What did they do? They were messengers proclaiming the good news of God's love. Not long ago, in a report entitled: "Towards the Conversion of England," it was stated, "To evangelize is so to present Christ Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit that men shall come to put their trust in God through Him, to accept Him as their saviour, and serve Him as their King in the fellowship of His Church."

What is needed today? New evangelists reaching out to the people with the good news of the Gospel. Evangelism is a work that cannot be done by the clergy alone; it can only be done to a very small extent by the clergy at all. It must be undertaken by the laymen.

What, specifically can a layman do? He can give a friendly invitation to church. He can fill the empty seats of his car on the way to worship. He can look up the friend who has not been coming to church. He can work on an Every Member Canvass team. This is a spiritual and evangelistic activity. He can call on new communicants and help them find significant work in the church. He can visit newcomers to the community. He can help enlist members of confirmation and study groups. He can teach in the church school. He can encourage young men to study for the ministry. All this is spreading the Word of God. This is evangelism that everybody can do! Evangelism is everybody's job!

THE SEASON OF ALL SAINTS

Someone has written, "My first evidence for a life to come is the justice of God. My second is the wisdom of God, and my third is the love of God. I mean the love of God that will not let you go, because he loves you."

You remember that is what Jesus Christ said: "I am going away. I am going to prepare a place for you. Some day I shall come to receive you unto myself, because I love you. Because I love you, where I am, there I would have you also." That is always the way love speaks. It desires the presence of the one that is loved and Jesus Christ said, "I am going away to prepare a place for you, that where I am, there you, whom I love so dearly, shall be with me."

What more can we ask?

On all Saints' Day (Friday, November 1) and this Sunday, we remember with love and true joy those whom we have loved long since and lost awhile who are now in that place prepared for them and us. At the All Saints' Day services and the Sunday morning services, we shall remember in particular the following whose names appear in the Parish Register who have departed this life since last All Saints' Day. We shall also remember others by name whom we may have been asked to remember.

EVENING AUXILIARY—MEETS THIS TUESDAY EVENING

Miss Elizabeth C. Beath is the speaker at the Evening Auxiliary dinner this coming Tuesday at 6 o'clock in the Centennial Room. Miss Beath is the Associate Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, with offices in New York, and will bring a wealth of knowledge about women's work in the Church.

The Evening Auxiliary is open to all business and professional women and others who cannot attend a day time meeting. No special invitation is necessary. If you come for the first time, you can be assured of a warm welcome.

MEN'S CLUB TO HEAR SPACE SCIENTIST, NOVEMBER 12

Reserve your place at the Men's Club dinner one week from this Tuesday, November 12, at 6:30 P. M. The speaker is to be J. W. Reid of the Aero Dynamics Laboratory of the General Electric Company, who will talk about "Probing Into Space." If you want to know what makes Sputnik tick, here's your opportunity. Remember, Tuesday, November 12—one week from this coming Tuesday.

LOYALTY SUNDAY TO BE NOVEMBER 24

The Loyalty Sunday team is now being organized and plans are under way for the service of pledging at 11 A. M. on the Sunday next before Advent, November 24. You are asked to help, please do so. This is a critical time in the life of the parish and we must pull together.

SOUTH AFRICA IN OUR PRAYERS

A great struggle against persecution of the Negro in South Africa is being waged by the Anglican Bishops, clergy, and people of South Africa. The Government has recently passed laws favoring the strictest sort of segregation and emphasizing the part of white supremacy. Our Bishops are in violent opposition to these laws and are going through a period of the greatest travail as a result. Today, we shall remember them in our prayers that the forces of evil, dividing humankind, may not prevail.

MEN'S CLUB TO HEAR SPACE SCIENTIST TUESDAY

J. W. Reid, of the Aero Dynamics Laboratory, of the General Electric Co., is the speaker at the Men's Club meeting this Tuesday evening, November 12, at 6:15 o'clock. He will talk on "Probing Into Space." All men of the parish and their friends are invited. Dinner is $1.50 and no special invitation is necessary. Be sure to notify the parish office (LO 7-1267) before Monday noon if you have not yet made a reservation.

THE BAZAAR AT THE BARCLAY, THURSDAY, 12 TO 6 P.M.

Next Thursday, November 14, at the Barclay, from 12 to 6 P.M., is Holy Trinity Bazaar Day. Mrs. Jack Frank Bowling is chairman. Honorary chairman for the fancy work table is Mrs. William W. Arnett, with Mrs. Robert Gratz Fell, as active chairman. Chairman of the candy booth is Mrs. Eugene M. Callis; useful articles, Mrs. Harry S. May; cake table, Mrs. S. Scott Stewart; gift and novelties, including greeting cards, handkerchiefs, Mrs. Harry F. Angstadt; book stall, Mrs. Harry S. Longley; mystery packages, Mrs. Stauffer Oliver; white elephant table, Mrs. George W. Laws; Centennial table, Miss Julia Leighton.

The card party begins at 2 o'clock, with Miss Margaret Rose Kollock in charge, assisted by Mrs. George Eyre Smith. Tea will be served later in the afternoon. Come one, come all—to the Bazaar!

NEW FLAG TO BE RECEIVED AND DEDICATED SUNDAY

Trinity Club has presented a new American Flag to the Church which will be received and dedicated at the 11 o'clock service this Sunday morning. Neale C. Bringhurst, President of Trinity Club, will make the presentation immediately following the processional hymn.

CHOIR TO SING MENDELSSOHN'S "HYMN OF PRAISE" SUNDAY MORNING

This Sunday's service will be shortened somewhat and after the sermon, the choir will sing a portion of Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise." The rendition takes about 5 minutes. The soloists will be: soprano, Edith Wilson; mezzo-soprano, Audrey Hazlett; tenor, Clifford Scott.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS TEAM BEING FORMED FOR SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24

So far, the following have accepted assignments as members of the Loyalty Sunday organization in response to the letter sent out by the Rector last week (others have yet to reply, and a complete list will appear next week): May B. Baird, Mrs. Helen W. Barber, Ann Becker, Rodman P. Bright, Mrs. Hilda M. Chaddick, Mrs. Evelyn Clark, Sophia G. Ewell, Mary Fielden, Austin J. Gaugel, R. Elliott Gifford, F. R. Goehring, David Greenwood, Lydia D. Jenks, James L. Kercher, Merrill A. Kercher, Mrs. Priscilla S. Kitchel, William E. Krall, Ada Louise Layman, Donald Leas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Leyshon, Florence Loos, Grace D. MacAllister, Dr. Barook J. Masuda, Eleanor Meagher, Mary C. Nelson, Robert B. Platt, Mrs. John T. Rightor, Mrs. Ruth R. Saxdal, Alma Tomlin, Emma Tomlin, Jane W. Tyas, Elizabeth H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Humbert Lanzi, Mrs. Artemis Pinney, Marjorie E. Lyons, Millicent Shell, and Mrs. Ruth Yeager.

Loyalty Sunday is on Sunday, November 24, and the canvassers' Preparation Dinner on Wednesday, November 20, promptly at six o'clock—over at eight.

Every member should plan to be in Church on Sunday, November 24, at 11 o'clock. This way, we help each other and give assurance that the work of the Church of the Holy Trinity will go forward in 1958.

NOTE

LOYALTY SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 24

Several weeks ago, this Bulletin carried an announcement of Loyalty Sunday on November 24, and expressed the hope that members of the congregation would make their plans well in advance, so that they could be present at the 11 o'clock service on that day. Now, Loyalty Sunday is only a week away, and all is in readiness for its observance.

This coming week, everyone will receive a letter from the Rector and a phone call from a Canvasser, stressing the importance of the day and the hope that you will be definitely a part of our fellowship that morning.

Members of the canvass organization are: Captains, Charles W. H. Bancroft, F. R. Behring, Merrill A. Kercher, Dr. Barook J. Masuda, and S. Scott Stewart. Team members, May B. Baird, Mrs. Charles W. H. Bancroft, Mrs. Helen W. Barber, Ann Becker, Mrs. Lucretia L. Bentley, Barbara Blair, Admiral Jack F. Bowling, Rodman P. Bright, Dale C. Bringhurst, Carolyn A. Cessna, Mrs. Hilda M. Chaddick, Francis J. Chesterman, Mrs. Evelyn G. Clark, Margaret Colflesh, Carola S. Collings, David L. Copson, Donald Danenhowe, Helen L. Dietz, Sophia G. Ewell, Mary Fielden, Katherine Flick, Austin Gaugel, R. Elliott Gifford, David Greenwood, Margaret Holloway, Lydia D. Jenks, James L. Kercher, Mrs. Priscilla S. Kitchel, William E. Krall, Mr. and Mrs. Humbert Lanz, Elizabeth Laws, Ada L. Layman, Robert C. Leak, Donald Leas, Julia Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Leyshon, Florence M. Loos, H. Warren Lutz, Marjorie E. Lyons, Grace D. MacAllister, Mary E. Maguire, Eleanor Meagher, Anne L. Mitchell, Mary C. Nelson, Anne O'Keeffe, Mrs. Artemis Pinney, Robert B. Platt, Salome P. Riegner, Mrs. John T. Rightor, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Y. Rogers, Edith T. Roll, Millicent Shell, Allison Smith, Anne Surgent, Alma and Emma Tomlin, Marjorie Turner, Jane W. Tyas, Mrs. Margaret W. Warner, Clara E. Watt, Elizabeth C. Webster, William M. West, Elizabeth Williams, Elizabeth H. Wilson, Mrs. Ruth Yeager, and John P. Lutz.

May we all remember that Loyalty Sunday involves not only pledging to the support of the Church in the coming year, but also, is a time of witness together to the whole work and worship of the parish. May we all be a part of it.

SOME THOUGHTS ON STEWARDSHIP

BY RICHARD S. EMRICH, THE BISHOP OF MICHIGAN

"I cannot tell any man how much to give to church and charity in dollars and cents, for I do not know that much about any man; but I do not have the slightest hesitation in asking a man to give as God has given to him, which is the principle of proportionate giving or tithing. Nor do I have the slightest hesitation in asking men to be thankful and responsible to God, and to reveal this, not only with their lips, but with their lives. And I do not have the slightest hesitation in saying that it seems to me absurd that an institution the size of the Episcopal Church has given its people no practical advice on how to give.

"When we are afraid to speak to men thus, we rob them of a great opportunity; for it is true, not only that giving comes from faith, but also that faith is strengthened by giving, that we learn to love that for which we work and give. By the way in which men give they are showing either respect for God's will and the great purposes of His Church, or a not too subtle contempt. Our responsibility is to give as we have been given. We are to give of our lives, and not simply throw a remainder to God after we are through living. This will not only be a sign of our devotion, but it will also deepen our souls."

How should you give? Note, I do not say "how much" but only "how." The answer is that if you are devoted to our Lord, you will give not only in proportion to your ability, but also in proportion to your devotion. You will give honestly and it will be between you and God.

MEN

Reserve Sunday morning, December 1, at 8 o'clock for the Men's Advent Corporate Communion and breakfast. Last Sunday, your Rector spoke to over 75 men at a Communion breakfast at a suburban parish. It was a thrilling sight. Plan to join with others in this corporate act of devotion here at Holy Trinity.

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE CLOTHING COLLECTION

If you have clothing, warm, clean, in good condition, with which to help people in troubled countries, bring them to church this Sunday and place them in cartons to be put in the church porch. It will be promptly packed and sent overseas. For further information, call Mrs. George Eyre Smith (GE 8-9341).

FOR CHRIST CHURCH

Membership

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed, because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge, others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time. May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in, or ill, or prevented by conditions of work, and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family returned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

(See the opposite page for the Sunday Evening Program)

MEN'S ADVENT CORPORATE COMMUNION THIS SUNDAY, 8 A. M.

Holy Trinity will participate this Sunday in the nation-wide Advent Communion of the men of the Church. Our service will be at 8 o'clock, Sunday morning, with a breakfast afterward in the Centennial Room. Every man in the parish is invited.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY AT 6 P. M.

Bishop Armstrong, Suffragan Bishop of Pennsylvania, will speak to the Evening Auxiliary at their regular monthly meeting this Tuesday evening, December 3, at 6 o'clock, in the Centennial Room. This is, of course, one of the outstanding programs of the year and all women of the parish are invited. The Evening Auxiliary is especially for women who cannot attend a daytime meeting. No special invitation is needed. Dinner is $1.25. Reservations may be made by calling the Parish Office (LO 7-1267). For further information, see the back cover of this Bulletin.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE, MEMORIAL TO BESS COLLINS LUPIN

At the 11 o'clock service this Sunday, a “Book of Remembrance” will be dedicated in memory of Bess Collins Lupin, who passed from this life last July 30. This memorial is the gift of her fellow workers in the Department of Collections at the City Hall.

As soon as possible, there will be inscribed in the Book of Remembrance, a record of every memorial in the church, donors to the endowment funds, the names of those who have left legacies to the church and something about the use of these gifts.

HERE ARE SOME PLACES WHERE SOMEBODY CAN HELP

We need someone to become the custodian of the Book of Remembrance mentioned in the preceding paragraph. It will require research into all the memorials to the parish and their donors, as well as, entering in the book, the record of memorials. Ultimately, the book will be kept on display in a suitable place near the door of the church.

We need volunteers (strong men and artistic women) to do the decorating for Christmas. The decorations are generously supplied by a person in the parish. Let the Rector know if you will help to decorate.

We need people to deliver Christmas flowers and baskets, which we have sent in the past, to our older parishioners who are in homes for the aged and other such places. The Associate Rector has been doing this for several years. Now we need the help of parish people. Please note that paying for delivery is not what is desired. Someone or more of us should personally do this.

PLEDGED LAST SUNDAY — $42,373.80

A loyal congregation, led by 74 team members and 16 captains, accounted for a magnificent total of $42,373.80. This is $4,181.80 more than last year on Sunday, when the Sunday total was $38,192.00.

Of course, there are many more pledges still to be received and the final total should be well over $50,000 in pledges which we need for our work.

Next week's Bulletin will carry a further analysis by teams with a word of Thanksgiving for every team member and captain.

THE SUNDAY EVENING PROGRAM AT HOLY TRINITY

6:00 P. M.—Trinity Club, Young Adults (20's and 30's) and Students
Topic: “Should the State of Israel Exist?” Speaker: Rabbi Reuben J. Magil, Temple Beth Zion, Philadelphia.

8:00 P. M.—EVENING PRAYER

Cantata: “Rejoice, Beloved Christians” by Buxtehude. Commentary by the Choir Master, Mr. Robert Knox Chapman. Trinity Club Choir, assisted by two violins, cello, and organ.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD TO HEAR BISHOP ARMSTRONG

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets this coming Thursday, December 5, at 7 P. M. for luncheon ($1.25). All women of the parish are potential active members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and are urged to attend the meetings. No special invitation is necessary. If you plan to come, call the parish office to make your luncheon reservation (LO 7-1267).

The speaker at next Thursday's meeting is Bishop Armstrong, who will talk about the work of the Diocese.

DEDICATION OF NEW PORCH WINDOW

Two years ago, a new window of stained glass was placed in the upper porch of the Church at the corner of Walnut and Nineteenth Streets. Now, through the thoughtfulness and generosity of Mr. and Mrs. F. Rudolph Goehring, a companion window has been placed in the south section of the upper porch. Both these windows, together with the center rose window, now form a pattern on the front facade of the Church and are lighted at night, continually carrying a blessing from the Church of the Holy Trinity to dwellers on Rittenhouse Square. The window will be known as the Centennial Window, and is given as a thank offering for the 100 years of activity in Holy Trinity since the founding of the parish in 1857.

The window will be dedicated during the service this Sunday morning. In the daytime, it is best seen, of course, from the inside and doubtless many will wish to view it after Church today.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT THIS SUNDAY'S SERVICE

This Sunday morning, the choir sings selections from the Advent portion of Handel's "Messiah" at the time of the offertory. The soloists are: Katherine Chapman, contralto; Clifford Scott, tenor; Samuel H. Brick, Jr., baritone. Robert Knox Chapman is the choir-master and organist.

Members of the choir are: Sopranos, Edith Wilson, Patricia Connaghan, Jeanne Eagles, Audrey Hazlett, Dorothy Howard, Bobbie Scott, Elizabeth Williams; Altos, Katherine Chapman, Barbara Kitchel, Virginia Lingenfelder, Eleonore Neumann, Doris Howell, Jane Tyas, Joyce White; Tenors, Walter Hornibrook, Thomas McFarland, Merrill Rhoads, Clifford Scott, John Wiley; Basses, Samuel H. Brick, Jr., F. William Harland, Robert S. Kitchel, Matthew J. Leider, Wayne Rowell, and Basil Varian.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

REQUESTS REPEATED: We are still looking for a good research person to look into all the memorials, bequests, and gifts that have ever been given to the Church of the Holy Trinity, so that we may enter them in gratefulness in the Book of Remembrance. It has been suggested that this is a job for at least two people—one to do the research and prepare the material, another to do the actual inscribing in the book. Who wants to volunteer?

Also, we have had some volunteers for decorating the Church on the Monday evening before Christmas, but we need more. The call is for strong men and artistic women. Let the Rector know.

THE SEARCH for a successor to Mr. Pollanick goes on continually, but without any conclusion, as yet. Only one man has been asked to come and he declined.

SAVE DECEMBER 17 for the Church Growth Committee Christmas Party at 8 o'clock that evening. All members of the parish are invited to an evening of good fellowship together. More about this next week.

A NEW GROUP OF ASSISTANTS at the services, crucifers, flag bearers, and assistants at the Holy Communion has been organized. The present members are: John Aro, Richard Bird, David L. Copson, George R. Davies, Carlos Echeverria, John W. Gilmore, F. William Harland, Robert S. Heitz, Thomas Homeyard, Robert S. Kitchel, George H. MacGoldrick, Robert B. Platt, Robert S. Snyder, Earl R. Thomas, Basil B. Varian, William Wilkins, and John Wiley. If you are interested in serving in this capacity, call Mrs. Gaertens, the staff assistant, at LO 7-1267.

REACHING FOR OUR GOAL OF $50,000, the Loyalty Sunday total at the end of the first week is $47,055.20. It is interesting to see the extent of our strength in terms of areas of the city. The totals for the various teams are as follows: Team No. 1 (Rittenhouse Square Area) $9,471.60; Team No. 2 (downtown areas, adjacent to the square) $8,320.40; Team No. 3 (other downtown areas) $5,498.20; Team No. 4 (west of the Schuylkill) $7,613.20; Team No. 5 (Suburban) $8,177.20; Team No. 6 (north central, Germantown, Chestnut Hill, Kensington, etc.) $7,974.60.

If you have been away or ill and have not yet turned in your pledge of support for 1958, please do so as soon as possible. The Vestry will meet to plan for the coming year on December 16.

Bishop Hart will confirm three young people and four adults during the service this Sunday morning, and will also be the preacher at the service. This is the second group to be presented this year. Twelve others were confirmed last June.

PARISH CHRISTMAS PARTY, 8 P.M., NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

Next Tuesday evening, December 17, at 8 o'clock, the whole parish is invited to a Christmas party, sponsored by the Church Growth Committee in the Centennial Room.

There will be a "live" orchestra, dancing, carol singing, a "turkey buffet." Each person attending is asked to make a $2.00 contribution. You and your friends are invited. Come one, come all—and we do mean you!

NOTES AND COMMENTS

1958 OFFERING ENVELOPES will be mailed in time for use on the first Sunday in 1958, January 5. You should receive them on December 30 or 31.

THE VESTRY meets this Monday in the Parish House at 4 P.M.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING from the women of Holy Trinity this year (The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and the Evening Auxiliary) amounted to $838.39. This is a noteworthy offering in every way and we rejoice in it. Mrs. S. Scott Stewart is the United Thank Offering custodian for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. Mrs. Henry Taxdal is the custodian for the Evening Auxiliary.

THE RECTOR'S CALL for volunteers to: (1) do research on a record of memorials to the parish to be entered in a Book of Remembrance has been answered by Miss Marguerite Aspinwall, the author of our Centennial history "A Hundred Years In His House," and Colonel John Truitt and Miss Margaret R. Kollock have also volunteered to assist her; (2) the call for "strong men and artistic women" to do the Christmas decorating on the evening of Monday, December 23, has been answered by 12 people. On this, we can always use more; and (3) the call for someone to distribute Christmas remembrances to the sick and shut-in has been answered by Miss Marguerite Sibley and Mrs. Gilbert Parker. The Rector knew that he would only have to ask, and people would respond. Thank you, thank you.

The EVENING AUXILIARY, this Saturday, will distribute 145 pounds of Christmas candy. Sixty boxes of it and 60 kits of shaving equipment together with cigarettes will be given to the men who live at the Riverview County Home, and the balance will go to Byberry.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD is providing a Christmas party for the children at the Pennsylvania General Hospital and the Northeast Division of the hospital, providing small tables for the children at the Home of the Merciful Saviour, gifts for the children's party at St. Martha's Home, and gifts to the Seamen's Institute, the Church Farm School, the Chinese Christian Center.

THE NEXT MEN'S CLUB meeting is Tuesday, January 14. Save the date now!

ADVENT QUESTIONS

What shall I give you for Christmas? What should I give Tom, Dick, and Harry? What shall I give in love to God? He asks only one gift—your noblest self. When you stop, look within yourself. Are you ready with your gift of love to God? Have you prepared that package? Your gift of yourself to the good God is the most important gift you will give this Christmas. Prepare it now during this Advent.

The Christmas Services

MONDAY—Decoration of the church at 7:15 P. M. Come one, come all

TUESDAY—The Midnight Service begins at 11 P. M.

WEDNESDAY—Christmas Day, Holy Communion at 8 and 11 A. M.

The Feast of Christmas is followed by three days of particular significance. On the day following Christmas, there is the commemoration of the first Christian to give his life for his faith—St. Stephen. It was he who was stoned after a courageous sermon full of youthful enthusiasm in which he denounced his fellow Jews for their rejection of Jesus

Two days after Christmas, we keep St. John, the Evangelist's day. He is described in the Gospel as the Apostle who was closest to Jesus—"The disciple whom Jesus loved." And on the third day after Christmas, the Church commemorates the children who were killed by Herod's men in the hope of killing the infant Jesus also. It is a day on which we remember in particular all that is being done for children in schools and hospitals, in foster homes and shelters

The services on these three days, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this coming week are at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 (noon)

HELP DECORATE THE CHURCH FOR CHRISTMAS

Join our "happy throng" again this year on Monday night, December 23, in the church at 7:15 and help decorate the church for Christmas. Wear your old clothes, sing carols together, enjoy some refreshments at the close of the evening. This is an invitation to each and all of you. Come one, come all.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING

In the Christmas programs which should reach you this Monday, there is an offering envelope for your Christmas gift to the Church. The Christmas offering is a part of tradition and one in which the parish, as a whole, participates with joy each year

CHRISTMAS VOCATION CONFERENCE

A conference on opportunities open to both men and women for full time service in the church will be held on Friday, December 27, at the Philadelphia Divinity School, 22nd and Spruce Streets. The conference will start with the Holy Communion in the Chapel at 9 o'clock. Among the speakers will be C. Marshall Lamason, Jr., vice president of the food distribution center; Howard Kellogg, Philadelphia lawyer; and Dean Gifford of the Divinity School. Luncheon is at 12:30 in the Divinity School refectory

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE RECTOR has always made it a practice to send no Christmas cards in particular to members of the parish. It would be an impersonal gesture at best. But all the members of the parish are indeed in his thoughts and prayers at this holy season and he wishes for everyone the experience of the deep joy and faith which comes to those who find their Saviour in the blessed Child of Bethlehem

THE RECTOR'S GREETING

"And an highway shall be there and a way,
And it shall be called the way of holiness!
The old words hold new meaning for our day.
From global sorrow, from a world's distress
We seek the starlit road to Bethlehem!
The road the shepherds and the wisemen trod
So narrow that it strips the soul of pride,
So broad all men may walk there, side by side
For Bethlehem's road leads to the Son of God!"

The Midnight Service of Holy Communion

TUESDAY NIGHT AT 11 O'CLOCK

Tonight's service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing the "O Come, All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphal ending when the "Gloria in Excelsis," followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" and finally at the very end, "The Hallelujah Chorus," is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion, if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during this time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

Choral Prelude: Christmas Antiphon ..... Hymnal, Chant 603
The Processional Hymn: 12 ..... "O Come, All Ye Faithful"
The Introit: "I Know a Rose-Tree Springing" ..... Praetorius

Robert Knox Chapman, Choirmaster

The organ prelude is an improvisation on Christmas themes. The postlude is the "Great Prelude and Fugue in G Major" by J. S. Bach.

The decorations at Christmas time are in memory of A. Wiese Hammer and Charles A. Daniel and are placed in the church by Mrs. A. Wiese Hammer.

Thursday (St. Stephen's), Friday (St. John's), Saturday (Holy Innocents).

Holy Communion at 7:30 and 12:15 Noon

Make every effort to receive Holy Communion at sometime during the Christmas Season.

Be Joyful, Sing the Hymns and Carols with the Choir

Especially during the time of Communion, while all who wish to receive Holy Communion are coming to the Altar, the congregation is invited to sing carols with the choir.

While Shepherds watched their flocks by night

All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
Fear not, said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind
Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind
To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.
Thus spake the seraph and forthwith,
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
All glory be to God on high
And on the earth be peace
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease. —Hymn 13

1. It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From Heav'n's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hov'ring wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

2. Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heav'nly music floats
O'er all the weary world;

3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The tidings which they bring;
O hush the noise ye men of strife
And hear the angels sing! Hymn 19

1. All my heart this night rejoices
As I hear, far and near,
Sweetest angel voices.
"Christ is born," their choirs are singing,
Till the air everywhere
Now with joy is ringing.

2. Hark! a voice from yonder manger,
Soft and sweet, doth entreat:
"Flee from woe and danger!
Brethren, come! from all doth grieve
you,
You are freed; all you need
I will surely give you."

3. Come, then, let us hasten yonder!
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder!
Love him who with love is yearning!
Hail the star that from far
Bright with hope is burning! Hymn 32

1. Angels from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye, who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:

2. Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing Yonder shines the infant Light:

Refrain:
Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn King.

3. Saints before the Altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His Temple shall appear. Hymn 28

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

There shall a star come out of Jacob and a sceptre shall rise out of Israel, with might destroying princes and cities. As bright the star of morning gleams, So Jesus sheddeth glorious beams of light and consolation. Thy Word, O Lord, Radiance darting, Truth imparting, Gives salvation; Thine be praise and adoration.

THE PREACHING IN JANUARY

The Rector will preach a series of three related sermons beginning this Sunday and continuing on January 19 and January 26. Their titles are: This Sunday, "Too Many of Us Are Schizophrenics;" January 19, "Too Many of Us Are Paranoiacs;" and January 26, "Too Many of Us Are Manic-Depressives." These are not sermons about psychotics in the technical sense, but rather about all of us, everyday people, "me and thee, and even thee's a little queer." The Rector has been trying to think of a general title and this occurred to him (but he rejected it), "What To Do Before the Psychiatrist Comes." He finally decided upon "Aren't We All?"

Just to give you a hint about the content of the sermons, here are the Biblical texts on which they are based: "This Sunday, the Epistle of St. James 1:8, "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways." Our Lord put this more positively when He said "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God;" Sunday, January 19, St. Luke 12:32, "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom;" and on Sunday, January 26, Romans 14:17, "For the Kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost."

MEN'S CLUB MEETS THIS COMING TUESDAY, 6:30 P. M.

All men of the parish are invited to meet together next Tuesday evening in the Centennial Room for dinner at 6:30 ($1.50 a plate). Donald C. Wagner, City Manager of Philadelphia, is to be the speaker on "Problems of City Management."

No special invitation is necessary. You are invited. Your friends are more than welcome. Come and help make the manpower of this parish a strong force in our work. Be sure to reserve your place by notifying or calling the parish office before Monday noon (LO 7-1267).

PARISH LIFE CONFERENCE AT RADNOR, MARCH 7-9

Holy Trinity has been invited to send representatives to the Parish Life Conference at the Episcopal Conference Center in Radnor for the weekend of March 7-9. There conferences are laboratories in living the Christian life. Those who attend, find new insight on how our parish life can be deepened and strengthened through deeper personal understanding. Some of our people who attended such a conference three years ago, have since then, made outstanding contributions to our life together. It is an opportunity of great value to anyone seeking to enrich his spiritual being and to be a fruitful part of a Christian fellowship.

The cost for the weekend is $12.50 per person. The parish will bear half of this cost for all who go from Holy Trinity. If you are interested in attending, please let the Rector know. Each parish is entitled to a limited number—so first come, first served.

LOOKING AHEAD

TRINITY CLUB is having a "Movie Dance" in the Centennial Room on the evening of Friday, January 17, at 8 P. M. What is a movie dance? Just what it says (almost)—a movie followed by a dance. The movie is Robert Sherwood's "The Ghost Goes West." It is very good! You will be welcome at the dance. The small fee is $1.25.

THE CHURCH GROWTH COMMITTEE is sponsoring an all parish get-together just for the fun of it, on Tuesday evening, January 21, starting at 8 o'clock. Charles W. H. Bancroft will show slides and talk about "Rittenhouse Square, Ancient and Modern." There will be music. There will be good fellowship. It is hoped that there will be "you." Everyone is invited.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY'S annual sale and card party is to be on St. Valentine's Day, February 14 (of course) in the Centennial Room and Parish House (both places will be needed, if last year's crowd is any indication), beginning at 8 P. M. Admission tickets are $1.00. If you want to have a happy evening with fellow members of Holy Trinity and their friends, be sure to save February 14 for the Evening Auxiliary Party.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Like a choir of glorious angels, gathering softly through the air in solemn mystery, to our Heavenly Father, Mighty One, raise we now our song to Thy glorious Name. Now, as we lift our hearts to Thee, turn our thoughts this day from care, from all worldliness, all earthly care. As the King of all now we praise Thee! Hallowed be Thy Name, from now and evermore. Alleluia!

5:45 P.M.—TRINITY CLUB—Young Adults (20's and 30's) and Students

The Rector will read from and talk about T. S. Eliot's "The Cocktail Party."

8:00 P. M.—The Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Thomas Homeyard; Flag Bearers: Richard Bird, and George H. MacGoldrick
The Jefferson Hospital Nurses' Chorus will take part in the service.

CHURCH GROWTH COMMITTEE INVITES THE PARISH

This coming Tuesday evening, January 21, at eight o'clock, everyone in the parish is invited to be present at the monthly meeting of the Church Growth Committee. Here is an opportunity for fellowship together, to meet new friends, to participate in a happy evening.

Featuring the evening will be a talk with slides by Charles Bancroft on "Rittenhouse Square, Ancient and Modern." We can think of no one better qualified to recall the "old days" and the square than Mr. Bancroft.

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT FOR 1957

The receipt side of the financial ledger last year showed total receipts of $105,162.70 from all sources. Significant items are as follows: (1) The giving of the people to support the Budget totaled $50,230.03, as compared with $50,069.08 in 1956. (2) Plate Offerings on Sunday mornings were $4,873.15, as compared with $4,894.25 in 1956. (3) Offerings from radio listeners dropped this year from $7,382.25 in 1956, to $6,103.18 in 1957. Both these figures, however, are considerably higher than any year before 1956. Other items remain approximately as in other years—Income from endowments being $35,069.78 in 1957 and $35,065.39 in 1956. The Easter Offering in 1957 was $1,659.52 compared to $1,393.87 in 1956.

On the disbursement side, total costs in 1957 were $96,205.05, leaving a balance of $8,957.65. This is largely due to the deferment of work on the outside of the church and other necessary matters of rehabilitation which will absorb it in the coming year, as well as, some saving due to being without an Associate Rector for two months. Most of this saving will go into the moving expenses of a new man this year.

The parish finances are in good condition, despite significant losses due to death. This good condition is due to the faithfulness of Holy Trinity people in supporting the work that is being done. And, of course, in this we all rejoice.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE VESTRY meets Monday at 4 P.M.

THE PARISH HOUSE was the scene of a wedding reception last Saturday after the wedding of Robert Stanley Heitz and Renate Schneider, both Trinity Club Members.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES will again be delivered at Holy Trinity this spring after a lapse of several years. The lecturer is the Reverend William G. Pollard, director of nuclear physics studies at Oak Ridge. The dates are Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings, May 12, 13, and 14.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH ANNUAL, the directory of the Church in this country, points out that ordinations to the Priesthood in 1957 were 328, compared to 408 in 1956, and comments: "It becomes increasingly hard to find rectors and curates for vacant parishes. Two things are necessary if the Church is to have a sufficient supply of fit men for the ministry. One is a greater effort to recruit men. The other is the improvement of facilities for training them."

PRAYER

O Lord Jesus, grant that I may know Thee more clearly, love Thee more dearly, and this day follow Thee more nearly. Amen.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

"Who knocks tonight so late?" the weary porter said. Three kings stood at the gate, each with a crown on head. The serving man bowed down, the inn was full, he knew. Said he, In all this town is no fit place for you! A light the manger lit; there lay the Mother meek. Said they, This place is fit. Here is the rest we seek. They loosed their latchet strings, so stood they all unshod. Come in, come in ye kings, and kiss the Feet of God.

"Compatibility and Adjustment"—Speaker: Richard N. Hey, B.D., Department of Psychiatry, University of Pennsylvania.

8:00 P. M.—Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Robert B. Platt; Flag Bearers: George R. Davies and William Harland.
The Holy Trinity Choir will sing "Mass for Four Voices" by Richard Byrd. Commentary by the Choirmaster, Robert Knox Chapman.

CHOIR TO SING SPECIAL MUSIC SUNDAY EVENING, 8 O'CLOCK

This Sunday evening at eight o'clock, the Choir of the Church of the Holy Trinity will sing the "Mass For Four Voices" by William Byrd. It will be sung unaccompanied from the rear gallery of the church.

William Byrd, an English composer, who lived in the 16th century, wrote three masses for three, four and five voices. Among musicians, they rank with the best contrapuntal writings of Palestrina and J. S. Bach. Many musicians consider William Byrd not only the greatest composer of his time, but probably the greatest composer in all of English history.

All who love great music, especially music touched with spiritual fervor, will find Sunday evening's service a great experience. Come yourself and bring your friends. It will be wonderfully worthwhile.

MEMBERSHIP IS REDEMPTIVE FELLOWSHIP

In every parish of the Episcopal Church, each one of the communicant members has promised before God, to follow Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour. This means that each member has promised to walk in the Master's steps and pursue His mission. Jesus' work was the redemption and salvation of people, rescuing people from evil and restoring them to good. Therefore, each one of us must have a concern for others. There is no such thing as a private Christian. Every Christian is a radiator of love toward others.

Our gathering together at weekly intervals or oftener, our meeting each other at Church or coffee hour or in our group gatherings gives us the opportunity to touch peoples' lives. However these are not our only opportunities. In the current Epiphany News letter from the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work, there is this statement: "It is going to be a long pull to get Church members to see that their chief function is the unblueprinted representation of Christianity in home, office, and club, and that ushering, canvassing, and such activities are important jobs but not by any means the layman's total ministry. It goes without saying that 'sounding off' for one's faith at civic meetings or informally in on-the-job situations can often do more for the cause of the Kingdom than giving a patiently prepared address to some Church group."

May we love our Church, want to see its material fabric kept in the best of repairs, provide beauty in relation to the worship of God—but may we never forget that the worth and beauty of our own lives as the representative of Christ in order through us others may find the way, the truth, and the life is our function as disciples of our Lord. Live Christianly.

PARISH LIFE CONFERENCE, MARCH 7-9, FRIDAY THROUGH SUNDAY

The Rector is going to ask some of you to attend a "Parish Life Conference" at the Episcopal Conference Center in Radnor over the weekend of March 7 to 9. A Parish Life Conference is a group of people from three or four parishes living together in one place for three days and sitting down together to discuss what their parish and they themselves are doing to further the redemptive mission of Jesus. It is not concerned in the details but with the deep motives behind every organization and in all personal effort. A Parish Life Conference is a great experience for anyone who attends.

The total cost per person for the weekend is $12.50. Your parish is prepared to pay half the cost for all who attend. If you are asked to go, it is hoped that you seriously consider it.

DON'T FORGET TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 28

Trinity Club sponsors the Elizabeth Price Martin League of the Northern Division, Philadelphia General Hospital, benefit at the Church of the Holy Apostles' and the Mediator, 51st and Spruce Streets, on next Tuesday evening, January 28, at 8 P. M. It is a concert by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartette Singing in America. If you want a rollicking evening of good old-fashioned music, spend $1.00 and go. Ask a Trinity Club member about tickets.

THE REVEREND RALPH HARPER TO BE ASSOCIATE RECTOR

The Reverend Ralph Harper has accepted the call to succeed the Reverend Edward B. Pollanick as Associate Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Mr. Harper was born in Winthrop, Mass., on September 1, 1915, and is the son of the Reverend Ralph M. Harper, who was rector of St. John's Church, Winthrop, for 40 years. Mr. Harper is a graduate of Harvard University and has had additional study at Oxford, England, and Fribourg University in southern Germany. He was a tutor at St. John's College, Annapolis, was a staff member at Harvard, and is at present the Chaplain of Bard College at Annandale-on-Hudson, N. Y. He is married and is the father of two boys. He will take up his duties here on March 1, although his family will not be in residence until the end of the present school year.

NATIONAL COUNCIL VICE-PRESIDENT AT EVENING AUXILIARY TUESDAY EVENING

The Rt. Rev. John B. Bentley, D.D., Vice President of the National Council and Director of its Overseas Department, will speak at the Evening Auxiliary this coming Tuesday night at their six o'clock dinner.

The Evening Auxiliary is especially for business and professional women and others who cannot attend a daytime meeting and all women are invited to its meetings. No special invitation is necessary. The supper is $1.25 a plate. Call the parish house (LO 7-1267) for a reservation.

Owing to the significant importance of Bishop Bentley's address, especially in a General Convention year, the Woman's Auxiliary invites everyone to hear him. His talk will begin at approximately seven o'clock.

FEBRUARY COMING EVENTS

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1—Young Marrieds meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Ball, 3331 Indian Queen Lane, Philadelphia.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20—Lenten Daily Services begin at 12:25 (Noon-day preaching), 5:30 (Evening Prayer).

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 24—The Rev. Roy D. Deasy, Vicar, Harrow Weald, London, England, continues the Lenten Noon-day Preaching at services from 12:25 to 12:55 from Monday through Friday.

NOTABLE PREACHERS COMING THIS LENT

The Lenten Noon-day Preachers at Holy Trinity this year are certainly one of the best groups that we have ever had. They are: First week, Rev. Roy D. Deasy, Vicar, Harrow Weald, London, England; second week, Rev. Terence J. Finlay, Rector, St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City; third week, Rt. Rev. William H. Marmion, Bishop of Southwestern Virginia; fourth week, Rev. Joseph N. Wittkofski, Rector, St. Mary's Church, Charleroi, Pa; fifth week, Rt. Rev. Nelson M. Burroughs, Bishop of Ohio; Holy Week, Rev. Tom Edwards, Rector, St. Paul's Chestnut Hill.

Topic: "Incident Control Demonstration." Leader from Fellowship House, Philadelphia.

8:00 P. M.—The Holy Communion

Crucifer: Robert B. Platt; Flag Bearers: Thomas Homeyard and George H. MacGoldrick.

This Sunday evening, instead of the usual sermon, there will be an explanation of the parts of the service of Holy Communion as the service proceeds. This was done at the Sunday morning service two years ago and was found very helpful. It will be found that it helps the listeners to appreciate the service and increases the intensity of the devotion.

FOUR MAJOR PARISH EVENTS THIS COMING WEEK

TUESDAY, 6:30 P. M., THE MEN'S CLUB

Featuring a film made by the Bell Telephone Company on the recent laying of the second Atlantic cable, the Men's Club will celebrate Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays at a dinner on Tuesday evening at 6:30. There will be interesting Lincoln and Washington favors for every man and an evening of good fellowship. The committee for this meeting, Frederick C. Bachman, S. W. Densmore, David Greenwood, S. Scott Stewart, and James D. Wiley, are trying for the year's largest attendance. Come if you can. Phone your reservation to the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) before Monday noon.

THURSDAY, 12:15 NOON, WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD

Beginning at the Altar with Holy Communion at 12:15 noon, and continuing with lunch at one o'clock, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild holds its monthly meeting this Thursday. The speaker is "our own" Mrs. Arthur U. Crosby, who is the Diocesan Chairman of the Prayer and Worship Committee. She will speak on: "Christian Living—Our Way Of Life." The Rector knows of no one, anywhere, better qualified, both in spirit and as a speaker, to present this subject than Mrs. Crosby. Hearing her will be a rewarding experience. All women of the Parish are invited. No one needs a special invitation to the Women's Auxiliary and Guild.

FRIDAY EVENING, GALA VALENTINE PARTY, AT 8 P. M.

The Evening Auxiliary's Annual Party is Friday February, 14, St. Valentine's Day, at 8 P. M. There will be things for sale, bridge and other games, door prizes, surprise packages, and a guaranteed good time, all for the benefit of the Evening Auxiliary's share in the welfare of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Be sure to come, meet your friends, have a good time.

SATURDAY NIGHT, TRINITY CLUB PRE-LENT DANCE

Calling all young adults—come to Trinity Club's Valentine Dance on Saturday evening in the Centennial Room, beginning at 8:30. Attendants are asked to contribute $1.25. There will be refreshments. The music will be "the best in latest recorded dance music." You will be welcomed!

LENT BEGINS ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19

Ash Wednesday services will be at 7:30, 11:15, 12:15, and 5:30 P. M. Lent at Holy Trinity will be marked by preaching services each day (except Saturday) at noon from 12:25 to 12:55 with outstanding visiting preachers and Evening Prayer each day at 5:30 P. M.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Since last December first, the following Letters of Transfer to the Church of the Holy Trinity have been received: for Miss Margaret Woodward, 2200 Delancey Place; Miss Mary Genevieve Lee, 2011 Delancey Place; Miss Evelyn Foering, 3705 Powelton Avenue; and Gilbert L. Parker, 1904 Ringgold Place. Letters of Transfer to other parishes have been given for Mrs. Charlotte M. Rasin to Holy Trinity, Lansdale; Mrs. Josephine W. Herring, and James M. Herring, Jr., to St. Asaph's Parish; Miss Marion Ruth Pollanick to All Saints', Rhawnhurst; Miss Margaret S. Parry to St. Peter's, Morristown, N. J.; Mrs. Stella E. Martin to Grace Church, Mt. Administration.

ATTEND ONE SERVICE EACH DAY DURING LENT

WILLIAM H. DuBARRY

William H. DuBarry, Rector's Warden of the Church of the Holy Trinity, passed from this life on Thursday, February 6. He had been a member of the Vestry since 1932. In the Diocese of Pennsylvania, he had served as Secretary of the Standing Committee for 20 years. In civil life, he was Vice President of the Corporation of the University of Pennsylvania. At the service last Sunday, the Rector said of him, "I can think of no better word to describe his life than to say that he was a servant of his fellow man. He was among us as one who served. Certainly in many ways and in terms of a multitude of causes, he served the community at large with untiring interest. Because he saw need, he accepted willingly responsibilities which other men, less willing, declined. He served his Church, of course, both in the larger Diocese and in the Parish in certainly a most unusual sense. He was devoted to the life and work of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Personally, I have lost one to whom I went often for that counsel and advice which the Rector of a parish so sorely needs at times.
He was always ready to talk with me gently and wisely. He was always alert to what was going on. He sincerely wanted for this Parish, this Christian fellowship, all that was right and good. We shall miss him greatly and none more than I. May he forever grow in love and service."

LENT BEGINS NEXT WEDNESDAY

Next Wednesday, February 19, is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. The services on that day are as follows: Holy Communion at 7:30 A.M.; Penitential Office and Holy Communion at 11:15 A.M.; Holy Communion at 12:15 (noon); and Evening Prayer with the Penitential Office at 5:30 P.M.

Ash Wednesday is the gateway to Lent—a day of penitential dedication to spiritual devotion and refreshment between now and Easter. Ash Wednesday holds a mirror up to our lives, bids us look at ourselves in the light of Christ, calls us to greater Christ-likeness. It is a day which says to all of us, "Stop and think—my world can use Christian men and women. Do I truly care as I might and should care for the Way, the Truth, and the Life in terms of Him whom I have promised to follow as my Lord and Saviour? Is it not right that I should take stock of myself? It is my purpose to be a Christian man, a Christian woman—do I need spiritual refreshment, renewed understanding, new resolution that I may be the person God wants me to be?"

THE DAILY LENTEN SERVICES

Every day during Lent (except Saturdays), there will be preaching at noon, 12:25 to 12:55 and Evening Prayer with a brief meditation every day at 5:30 P.M. The Rector will preach on Thursday and Friday of this coming week. The Rev. Roy D.
Deasy, of London, will preach during the first week of Lent. Other preachers are noted on the enclosed folder. There will be Holy Communion every Thursday during Lent at 11:30 A.M.

For people who live within walking distance of the Church, it could well be that they could attend one service each day of Lent. Last year, some 30 people followed this rule throughout the season and found that it meant a great deal to them.
Why not consider it for yourself this Lent?

LENTEN READING—SOME SUGGESTIONS

For daily reading, there is the Forward Day By Day pamphlet for Lent (available in the Church Porch this Sunday). Also, there is a book by J. B. Phillips, "Is God At Home" ($1.75). Bishop Bayne has written "In the Sight of the Lord," designed for daily reading throughout Lent ($2.00).

For continued reading, there is "Prayer and Personal Religion" by John B. Coburn
($1.00); "Jesus of Yesterday and Today" by Samuel G. Craig ($2.75); "The Experiment of Faith," Shoemaker ($2.75).

HOLY TRINITY MEMBERS GOING TO PARISH LIFE CONFERENCE

On the weekend of March 7 to 9, the Diocese will hold a Conference on Parish Life at the Radnor Conference Center with representatives from a half dozen parishes present. Holy Trinity has been asked to participate and the following people are going:
Admiral and Mrs. Jack F. Bowling, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs.
Horace Y. Rogers, Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Miss Mary Fielden, and Miss Anne O'Keefe.

Choral Postlude: "Turn Back, O Man".....Bourgeois

The flowers on the Altar today are in loving memory of Harry F. Angstadt.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

"Solitary lieth the city, she that was full of people! How is she widow'd she that was great among nations, Princess among the provinces, how is she put under tribute. Sorely she weepeth in darkness, her tears are on her cheeks: and no one offereth consolation, yea, all her friends have betrayed her, they have become her enemies. Zion ways do languish, none come to her feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh; yea, her virgins are afflicted and she is in bitterness. Is it nothing to you, ye that pass by? Behold, and see if there be any sorrow that is like my sorrow. Now behold, O Lord, look Thou on my affliction: see the foe hath magnified himself. Jerusalem! O turn thee to the Lord thy God!"

Miss Deborah Reeder, cellist.

ATTEND CHURCH ONCE EACH DAY DURING LENT

RADIO REPLIES ON MONDAY!

Believe it or not, there were 58 replies from radio listeners in the mail on Monday morning! How these people got out of their houses on Sunday (or why they went out) to mail the replies is, as they say, "really something." But for all of us here at Holy Trinity, it is a heart warming experience to realize that people not only appreciate the radio broadcasts, but cared enough last Sunday to mail a card that very day in response to our desire to have some word from them.

This bulletin goes to press on Monday afternoons, so we do not know now how many further replies we shall have, but will make a note of it next week. Incidentally, a good many of these replying also participated in the "offering."

ENGLISH VICAR IS NOONDAY PREACHER THIS WEEK

The Rev. Roy D. Deasy, Vicar of Hallow Weald, London, England, is the noonday preacher at Holy Trinity this week. The noonday services begin at 12:25 and end promptly at 12:55.

At Evening Prayer each day during Lent, there will be a brief meditation. Evening Prayer begins at 5:30, is over at 6 o'clock.

On every Thursday, there is a service of Holy Communion at 11:30. Special intercessions are offered at this service and the Rector will be glad to have the names of people for whom any desire our corporate prayers.

OUR LENTEN RULES

In the sermon last Sunday, the Rector suggested a Lenten discipline to be kept by the members of Holy Trinity as a way of "marking the road of Lent and making the season of revival definitely different from the usual routine of our lives, helping us by the very discipline to keep our thoughts centered on God." Here are the Rector's suggestions:

1. Attend one service at Church every day during Lent, either at 12:25 or 5:30, except Saturdays.
2. If this is physically impossible, then read Morning or Evening Prayer at home each day.
3. In addition to these alternatives, attend Church somewhere every Lenten Sunday.

The Rector called these "minimum suggestions" and also urged religious reading and added good works. Here are some further suggestions for Lenten reading: "Holy Island," James Kennedy ($2.75); "They Knew Jesus," George W. Cornell ($3.75); "The Meaning of Persons," Paul Tournier ($3.75).

NOTES

THIS FRIDAY—February 21—is the World Day of Prayer. Center City Services are at the First Baptist Church, 17th Street, between Sansom and Walnut, at 12:30.

THIS SATURDAY—February 22—12 of our men will attend the Washington Birthday Corporate Communion and Breakfast at 8 o'clock at St. Stephen's, 10th Street, between Market and Chestnut Streets.

MONDAY IS ST. MATTHIAS' DAY—There will be only one service of Holy Communion—7:30 A. M., with breakfast afterward in the Centennial Room.

THE RECTOR is preaching this coming week at the noonday services at St. Bartholomew's Church in New York City. He will be present here, however, for the early service on Monday and for Evening Prayer on Thursday.

THE REV. RALPH HARPER will arrive in Philadelphia on March 1 to assume his duties as Associate Rector.

LENTEN SERMON SERIES

On the first four Sundays of Lent, the Rector will preach a series of four sermons definitely centered in the Bible. This Sunday's sermon is "How Does the Bible Speak To Us?" March 2, "The Bible Speaks About Society." March 9, "The Bible Speaks About the Church." March 16, "The Bible Speaks About Each Person." On March 23, the new Associate Rector will be the preacher. The Rector will preach on Palm Sunday and Easter.

Special music will be sung by the Chorus from the University of Pennsylvania.

THE REV. RALPH HARPER BECOMES ASSOCIATE RECTOR

Today, the Church of the Holy Trinity welcomes the Rev. Ralph Harper as its Associate Rector. Mr. Harper comes to us from the Chaplaincy of Bard College at Annandale-on-Hudson, N. Y. Until June, when his wife and two sons join him in Philadelphia, he will be living at 1811 Walnut Street.

Since November, especially in relation to Trinity Club affairs and the Sunday evening services, the Rector has had the assistance of the Rev. Fred Wandall whose duties with us end with the coming of Mr. Harper. Mr. Wandall has endeared himself to all of us, served with great usefulness, and we can but hope that, unofficially, he will continue to feel very much at home at Holy Trinity.

MR. HARPER INSTALLS NEW TRINITY CLUB OFFICERS SUNDAY NIGHT

As one of his first duties, the new Associate Rector will install the newly elected 1958-59 Trinity Club Officers at the Evening Service this Sunday evening. The new officers are: Nels Nelson, president; Mary Lou Marsh, vice president; Jane W. Tyas, secretary; and William J. Braun, treasurer. Committee chairman and assistants are as follows: Hospitality chairman, John H. Aro; Assistant Hospitality chairman, Mrs. John H. Aro; Social chairman, Nancy E. Hess; assistant, Thomas Homeyard; Social Service chairman, Basil Varian; assistant, Otilie Murray; Supper chairman, Thomas Fulmer; assistant, Christiane Schneider; Membership chairman, Ethelyn Weidner; assistant, Virginia Stanton; Publicity chairman, Unada Gliewe; assistant, Helen Anders; Coffee Hour chairman, Jean Huber; assistant, John Oldach; Members-at-Large of the Executive Committee, Neale C. Bringham, Charles Werntz, John Wiley, Edith Miller, and Elizabeth Wilson.

NEW YORK CITY RECTOR NOON-DAY PREACHER

The Rector of Saint Bartholomew's Church, New York City, the Rev. Terence J. Finlay, is the Noon-Day Preacher at Holy Trinity this coming week each day, except Saturday, from 12:25 to 12:55. The Rev. Mr. Finlay came from Canada three years ago to become Rector of St. Bartholomew's.

Evening Prayer, each day, is from 5:30 to 6 o'clock. This week, the Rector will have the meditations at Evening Prayer except on Tuesday, when Mr. Harper will speak.

EVENING AUXILIARY TO HEAR NOON-DAY PREACHER TUESDAY EVENING

The Rev. Terence J. Finlay will speak at the monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary in the Centennial Room this Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. The Evening Auxiliary welcomes business and professional women and all who cannot attend a daytime meeting. Reservations for dinner ($1.25) should be phoned to the Parish Office (LO 7-1267).

SNOW'S ILL-WIND BLOWS US GOOD

Thanks to 103 faithful members of Holy Trinity and nine faithful choir members who were not daunted by the now famous (or infamous) snow storm of two Sundays ago, services at the Church of the Holy Trinity went out over the air on that day as usual to radio listeners. In response to the Rector's request, during last week, 1056 of these listeners wrote in to say that they were listening. Under normal conditions which were not prevailing on that Sunday) the rating people say that this response would indicate a million listeners since they have found that one in a thousand will actually respond to such a request. At any rate, it is safe to say that many thousands were able to worship in their homes on Sunday, February 16, because Holy Trinity was, as usual, on the air. Incidentally, many listeners sent in their "offering" and $1,348.80 was received.

VESTRY GIVES GREEN LIGHT TO IMPROVEMENTS

At the Vestry meeting last week, the Rector appointed Francis J. Chesterman as Rector's Warden to succeed Mr. William H. DuBarry. At this meeting the Vestry approved new carpeting and new seat cushions in the Church and new floor coverings for the Parish House offices together with the renewing of the floor in the main room of the Parish House. The contract for the stone work on the outside of the Church was discussed, but has not as yet been approved. The Property Committee of the Vestry, R. Goehring, S. Scott Stewart, Admiral James L. Kauffman, and Frank B. Murdoch, has these projects in charge.

NOTES

MEN'S CLUB TO HEAR BISHOP TUESDAY NIGHT

At the Men's Club dinner this coming Tuesday, March 11, at 6:30, Bishop Marmion of Southwestern Virginia, will be the speaker. The dinner will be held in the Centennial Room ($1.50 a plate). All men of the parish and their friends are invited. Phone for reservations (LO 7 1267). The committee for this meeting is: David L. Copson, Henry N. Fuernissen, John W. Gilmore, Humbert Lanzi, and Robert H. Trueman.

ALSO, THE BISHOP WILL ADDRESS THE AUXILIARY ON THURSDAY

On Thursday, March 13, at a one o'clock luncheon ($1.00) immediately following the morning service, Bishop Marmion will speak to the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of the parish. Bishop Marmion will speak to the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of the parish. The Bishop is familiar with this work of his own Diocese. Mrs. Edward J. Parnum, President of the Diocesan Auxiliary and Chairman of the Founders' Committee, will be the guest of honor. Auxiliary members are asked to remember to bring articles for the Thrift Shop.

Special Note: It is important that reservations for luncheon be made or cancelled. Last month, 13 people appeared who had made no reservations. To say the least, this is disconcerting to the cook. Please make a reservation, call the Parish House (LO 7 1267) then, if you cannot come, call and cancel the reservation. Please do both before Tuesday noon.

BISHOP WILLIAM H. MARMION, NOON-DAY PREACHER

This coming week we welcome an old Wilmington neighbor, the Right Reverend William H. Marmion, now Bishop of Southwestern Virginia with headquarters in Roanoke. He will preach each day at the half-hour noon-day service 12:25 to 12:55.

The other daily service is from 5:30 to 6 P. M., Evening Prayer with a brief meditation by the Rev. Ralph Harper, the Associate Rector.

HOLY TRINITY PEOPLE AT PARISH LIFE CONFERENCE THIS WEEKEND

Eight people from Holy Trinity are attending a parish life weekend at the Radnor Conference Center from Friday through Sunday. Those attending are: Admiral and Mrs. Jack F. Bowling, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Miss Ann O'Keeffe, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Y. Rogers. Miss Mary Fielden will attend if working hours permit.

A Parish Life Conference is a meeting of small groups from several parishes who talk about what their parishes are doing, evaluate the work, and seek to find the inmost secrets of Christian fellowship.

THE FOUNDERS' COMMITTEE, WHAT IS IT?

The Founders' Committee is a Diocesan group of women under the chairmanship of the President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Edward J. Parnum, who raise money for the Discretionary Fund of the Bishop of the Diocese which he uses to help men studying for the ministry of the Church. The group operates a thrift shop, the first in Philadelphia, now located at 1735 Sansom Street. It is a perpetual rummage and white elephant sale.

If you have articles of all sorts in fair condition which you no longer need, or want, won't you bring them to the Parish House or the Auxiliary meeting next Thursday for the thrift shop founded (hence the name) by the Founders' Committee.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

NOON-DAY PREACHER, REV. JOSEPH N. WITTKOFSKI

The Rev. Joseph Nicholas Wittkofski, now Rector of St. Mary's Church, Charleroi, was received in 1942 from the Roman Catholic Church where he had been a Priest, and at Fordham, the Maryknoll Seminary, and the University of Illinois. He is author of several works, among them being "Where Saints Have Trod," "A Catechism of Christian Doctrine," and "The Secret Way." His latest pamphlet is called "A Rule of Life" and is available on our pamphlet shelf at the rear of the Church. His ministry in the Pittsburgh area has been a remarkable one and we welcome him with enthusiasm to the pulpit of the Church of the Holy Trinity. He will preach each day this week at 12:25—the service closing at 12:55.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR USE OF LENT?

This Sunday is the halfway point in Lent. Three weeks remain before Easter. What are you making of Lent? At its beginning, the Rector suggested that each member of the parish who is physically able should try to attend Church somewhere every day of Lent and, of course, on Sunday. He also suggested, that if unable physically to attend Church, each member read Morning or Evening Prayer, as found in the Prayer Book at home each day.

Have you been trying to follow this rule? If not, why not begin now and follow faithfully for the next three weeks. It will make Lent have meaning in your life. Remember—there are services in the Church at 12:25 and 5:30 each day with Communion at 11:30 on Thursday morning.

RODEPH SHALOM YOUNG PEOPLE IN CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

One of the happy occasions that we at Holy Trinity have enjoyed each year for several years past has been the visit of a group of young people from Rodeph Shalom Temple at Broad and Mt. Vernon Streets. These members of the Jewish faith study each year the various faiths which surround them in Philadelphia and their coming here is one of their "field projects" in this study. Their genuine interest and always courteous behaviour always make them welcome guests at Holy Trinity.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

OUR THANKS to Mrs. Lucretia A. Bentley, Miss Dottie Layman, Miss Jane W. Tyas, Mrs. Madeleine K. Werle, and Mr. Robert Franklin's secretary, Mrs. Rosemary Johnson, who came to the rescue of the office during recent weeks and enabled us to send letters of appreciation to radio listeners who sent in "offerings" on the day of the big snow. Incidentally, since then, radio listeners have sent us $2,314.30 and, all told, we received 1221 letters or cards.

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4 P. M. in the Parish House.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY SPEAKS

Here is a quotation from a recent pastoral letter of the Archbishop of Canterbury: "There is no place in the Church for those who will not try to honor the obligations of their membership. We thankfully recognize how many do so honor them, how great is the zeal of many of our younger people, and how much is owed to the witness of faithful congregations and to churchwardens and other officebearers. But all must make their full share. We must show that we put God first by regular worship on the Lord's Day. We must put our minds to the understanding of our religion, so that we may meet men's doubts and questions with a reasoned faith. We must bring the teaching and example of Christ into our everyday lives. We must do our duty in paying for the Church's work. The Church in the diocese and parish is the key to the whole situation. The local congregation is the place where men must find the life of the Great Church, which is God's instrument for the world's salvation. See to it, then, that your congregation is a true community in Christ, that it may influence the common life of its whole neighborhood. Nothing that is good in the sight of God should be outside the Church's interest."

NO ORGANIZATION MEETINGS THIS WEEK

BE IN CHURCH EACH DAY—12:25, 5:30.

The Fifth Sunday In Lent

Passiontide

March 23, 1958

The final two weeks of Lent are designated in the Book of Common Prayer (Page 132) as Passiontide. They mark the deepening intensity of the opposing currents centering around our Lord's life—the hostility of officialdom against him which, in the end, culminates in the Crucifixion. For us, they are days when we come to "know" our Lord more clearly, follow Him more nearly, love Him more dearly" as we view to the extent of the love of God revealed in His life and passion.

THE RADIO CONGREGATION

The Sunday of the "big snow" which resulted in our receiving between a thousand and two thousand personal letters from radio listeners has made us all more conscious of the unseen congregation which worships with us every Sunday morning. The Rector has inquired of survey people as to the number of listeners indicated by the recent influx of letters and their estimates vary from at least 150,000 and 350,000 persons. We may certainly assume that thousands of people worship regularly with us every Sunday morning. How much do we sense their presence? How greatly are we aware of these thousands, many with Hymnal and Prayer Book in hand, who, though not singing and praying with us? It is an intriguing thing to ponder.

Here are some typical comments: Mrs. E. L. R. Sr., of Bridgeton, N. J. writes "The services of those months before my husband's death on Thanksgiving Day, 1952, are as real to me now as they were four and a half years ago. We had been told in 1948 that year, that he couldn't possibly live until another Spring, and when he was able to get to our own Church which he had served so well over 30 years, we had forward each week to your services. We learned to love the prayers you read and deeply felt your blessing across the miles and found it was the one thing that kept our heads from banging against a stone wall." Mrs. G. E. of Hammonton, N. J. writes "Our Church is a little country church and our Minister comes only every other Sunday. On the other Sunday we attend Holy Trinity over the air." Mrs. C. F. H. MacL., of Lester, Pa. writes "I want to tell you how much I enjoy your broadcasts on Sunday mornings. During the past eight years, I have been unable to attend services due to illness in my home." M. S. of Atlantic City, N. J. writes "I am ill and my recovery is as slow as the possible. The trap is sprung, so to speak, with no escape but up. I feel no sense of human belongingness, only your service at Holy Trinity means anything to me. Please write to me. You are capable of helping." N. P., of Ardmore, Pa. writes "I am a retired machinist and toolmaker. While we belong to a local church there are times now, partly due to our age, when we play 'hooky' and listen to Holy Trinity. It seems that we can generally count on hearing an effective sermon that does not lull us to sleep as so many long-winded pointless sermons do."

Unquestionably, we are not ministering adequately to this truly vast unseen congregation. For a great many of these listeners, Holy Trinity is in a very true sense their only church. Here is something to which those of us with vision and imagination might well give thought. How limitless are the opportunities which confront a church when it is alive with vision.

BISHOP OF OHIO IS NOON-DAY SPEAKER

The Right Reverend Nelson M. Burroughs, Bishop of Ohio, is the Noon-day speaker next week, Monday through Friday, March 24 through March 28. Bishop Burroughs, formerly Rector of Christ Church, Cincinnati, is a native of Connecticut who before going to Cincinnati, was Rector of churches in Syracuse and Troy, N. Y. He was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Ohio in 1949 and succeeded Bishop Tucker in 1952.

Bishop Burroughs preaches each day at the 30-minute noon-day service from 12:25 to 12:55.

Evening Prayer with a meditation by the Associate Rector is at 5:30 each afternoon except Saturday.

On Tuesday, the Feast of the Annunciation, Holy Communion will be at 8 A. M. instead of 7:30 and at 11:30 A. M. Also on Thursday, there is a service of Holy Communion at 11:30. The eight o'clock service on Tuesday is a Corporate Communion of the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

YOUR RECTOR is very pleased with the attendance this Lent at both the noon-day and afternoon services. It is the best of any Lent since he has been here.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY which is providing Easter candy and cigarettes for the men at the County Home at Riverview, will have a "wrapping party" in preparation for this beginning at 7:15 P. M., Monday, March 24, in the Parish House (not the Centennial Room). There will be refreshments.

HOLY WEEK (March 31-April 5) services will be each day at 7:30; 12:25; and 5:30 from Monday through Thursday with additional services of Holy Communion on Thursday at 11:30 A. M. and 8 P. M. On Good Friday, the Three-Hour Service from 12 to 3 P. M. and Evening Prayer at 5:30. There will be no services on Saturday, but the Church will be open for quiet prayer. Easter services are at the usual Sunday hours.

The three-hour service on Good Friday has been called a spiritual exercise—that we may have spiritual strength. It is most helpful if those who attend remain for the whole three hours. If you can, plan to do this. It is worthwhile.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, MONDAY, APRIL 28

The annual meeting of the corporation known as the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, to elect Vestrymen and to transact other routine business, to hear reports, is called in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation for Easter Monday. However, as is permitted by the by-laws, this meeting will be adjourned and the adjourned meeting will take place on Monday, April 28, in the Centennial Room, beginning with dinner at 6:30 P. M.

It is prescribed in the by-laws that the Vestry shall nominate candidates for the Vestry to be voted on at this meeting and it has nominated the present incumbents whose terms expire at this meeting for re-election to the Vestry, namely, Frank B. Murdoch, Frank F. Milne, and William M. West. Other nominations made by members of the parish will be announced later.

AT THE LAST VESTRY MEETING, MARCH 17

A special resolution was passed thanking members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild who personally supervised and themselves painted the Rector's and the Associate Rector's offices. These ladies were: Mrs. Jack F. Bowling, Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, Mrs. Harry S. May, and Mrs. Gilbert Parker. Thanks also went to Trinity Club which is paying for the painting of other parish house rooms. The Vestry expects to have the parish office repainted, also.

Mr. Robert Dorsey Franklin was elected as a vestryman. As a banker, he brings to the Vestry, a needed skill in terms of his financial knowledge.

EVENING AUXILIARY CORPORATE COMMUNION

The members of the Evening Auxiliary will receive communion together at the 6 o'clock service Maundy Thursday evening.

NOTE: Certain persons have been approaching members of the parish to borrow money. Such people should be referred to the Parish Office.

EASTER COMMUNION

Many of us are ready and indeed anxious to take Holy Communion during the week of Easter. We are sure that in people who cannot be at church. We depend on the generosity of its people is enabling them to be in center city Philadelphia and the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in a special thanksgiving to God.

THE EASTER OFFERING

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we are sure that the generosity of its people is enabling them to be in center city Philadelphia and the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in a special thanksgiving to God.

COMING PARISH EVENTS IN APRIL

ASSOCIATE RECTOR TO LEAD SEMINARS ON MARRIAGE

At 8 o'clock in the Parish House, the Rev. Anson Haughton will begin a series of five seminars on "Marriage, The Kreutzer Sonata" (April 9 and 16), "The End of the Affair" (April 23 and 30), and the Book of Common Prayer, Canon 11 and 18 (May 7). Registrations should be made with Mr. Harper.

FAMED PRIEST—PHYSICIST TO VISIT HOLY TRINITY

One of the most interesting men of our time will deliver a series of three lectures in Holy Trinity next month on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, May 11, 12, and 13. He is the Rev. William G. Pollard, Executive Director of the Institute of Nuclear Studies at Oak Ridge, Tenn. Author of many articles in scientific magazines, he has written several religious works among them, "The Cosmic Drama," and "Revelation and Response." The general subject of his lectures will be "This Atomic Age and the Christian Man." The first lecture will be on Sunday, May 11, at 6:30 P. M. in the Church. The other two lectures will be given in the Church, May 12 and 13, at 8 P. M. The lecture-sermons are under auspices of the John Bohlen Lectureship.

FROM THE PARISH CHARTER AND BY-LAWS GOVERNING THE PARISH MEETING

The Church of the Holy Trinity is a corporation whose charter is entered in the Charter Book of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania under date of May 18, 1858. This charter was amended in 1907 and again in March, 1951, when, in particular, the rental of pews was abandoned and the voting privileges (formerly only pew holders could vote) were extended to other than pew holders.

As to who may vote at an Annual Meeting of the Corporation on April 28, the charter reads:

"Section 1. The members of the Corporation who shall be qualified to vote at any election for Vestrymen and upon all questions which may come before any meeting of the Corporation shall be all lay, confirmed members of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of the age of at least 21 years who shall have been worshipers in this Church as their usual place of public worship for at least three years and who shall appear by the books of the Corporation to have been contributors of record during each of three successive years immediately preceding such election or meeting or shall be members as shall appear by the Vestry books to have paid two successive years immediately preceding the time of such election, for a pew or sitting in the said Church; (provided that after the effective date of this amendment to the Articles of Incorporation lay, confirmed persons of the age of 21 years or upwards who shall have been worshipers in this Church as their usual place of public worship for at least three years prior to the effective date of this amendment to the Articles of Incorporation, according to the books and records of the Church, financial or otherwise, and subject to the approval of the Vestry, shall be entitled to vote at all elections for Vestrymen and at all meetings of the Corporation until the expiration of three years from the date of this amendment, but not longer)."

Further information about the parish meeting will be included in next week's Bulletin.

MEN'S CLUB CORPORATE COMMUNION, SUNDAY, APRIL 20

The spring Corporate Communion for the men of the parish will take place at 8 o'clock, Sunday, April 20, with a breakfast afterward in the Centennial Room. All men of the parish are invited and urged to attend. Please make reservations early. You may call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267).

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD ACTIVITIES

One of the committees of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild is the Community and Social Service Work Committee. Part of their work is to relate the parish in some fashion to people in hospitals, children's homes, and homes for the aged. For instance, under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Angstadt, Valentine parties were held in February for children at Philadelphia General and the Northeast Branch where tubercular children are housed. A table and chairs for children were given to the Home of the Merciful Saviour. Seventy baskets of candy and colored eggs were given to children at the Home for Incurables. Baskets of flowers were sent this Easter to "shut-ins" in our own parish.

EASTER

Someone said on Easter, that "the children were diving for Easter eggs." In spite of the very heavy rain, church attendance during the day was 671. Between 400 and 500 people received Holy Communion. Dour outside, it was glorious inside. Our gratitude goes out to all who helped with the services—the choir, the ushers, the Altar Guild, and everyone.

WE WELCOME MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES

Thousands of servicemen and women will come to Philadelphia today in answer to the invitation of the churches of the city. They will attend church services in the evening, be entertained by church members at dinner after church, will be guests at a party in Convention Hall in the evening. We shall welcome a group of them at Holy Trinity and members of the parish will have them as their guests after church.

COLONEL JOHN P. FELLOWS, THE PREACHER THIS SUNDAY MORNING

Chaplain (Colonel) John P. Fellows will be the special preacher this Sunday morning. Chaplain Fellows is the Staff Chaplain, Atlantic Division, MATS, and is stationed at McGuire Air Force Base. Chaplain Fellows is a graduate of Colgate University and Union Theological Seminary in New York. He is also a graduate of the Air Tactical School and the Air War College. He wears the Commendation Ribbon with Oak Leaf Cluster.

FAMED JAPANESE MISSIONARY TO SPEAK HERE MONDAY AT 2:30 P. M.

Bishop McKim's daughter, Nellie McKim, a life-long missionary in Japan, a fascinating speaker, beloved throughout the church, will speak at Holy Trinity, in the church, this Monday, April 21, at 2:30 P. M., under the auspices of our parish branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. All women, and indeed men, too, are invited to hear her. Tea will be served after her talk.

SOCIAL RELATIONS INSTITUTE IN CENTENNIAL ROOM, MONDAY, 6:30 P. M.

The Department of Christian Social Relations of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will hold a dinner at 6:30 P. M. this Monday, April 21, in the Centennial Room, on the subject of "The Gospel in the Community" with the Rev. James R. MacColl, III, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, Whitmarsh, and vice-chairman of the Department of Christian Social Relations, as the speaker.

Anyone may attend this meeting. There will be opportunity for questions and discussion. Reservations, however, should be made immediately by calling Miss Davies at the Diocesan Church House, 202 Rittenhouse Square (LO 7-6650).

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, AT THE Y.W.C.A., MONDAY, APRIL 28

Since many felt that the Centennial Room was too crowded last year, the Annual Parish Meeting has been moved to the Y.W.C.A., 2007 Chestnut Street, and will take place at 6:30 P. M., Monday, April 28. There will be reports by representatives of the parish organizations, Vestrymen will be elected, and such other business transacted as may properly come before the meeting.

Reservations must reach the Parish House by next Thursday, April 24. This is very important. Please act promptly. The cost of the dinner is $2.25.

FROM THE PARISH CHARTER AND BY-LAWS GOVERNING THE PARISH MEETING

Each year, the question is asked whether a person may be absent from the meeting and vote by Proxy. In answer to this in the By-Laws of the Corporation, adopted in February, 1953, Section 4, Article 2, it reads: "Every member eligible to vote shall be entitled to one vote which may be cast either in person at the meeting or by Proxy submitted in advance of such meeting to the Secretary of the Vestry either by handing the same personally to him or by mailing the same to him in time to reach him prior to the opening of the meeting of members. All votes not cast by such written Proxies submitted in advance of the meeting shall be cast in person by ballot at the meeting unless the persons attending the meeting shall by resolution duly adopted by a majority thereof waive the necessity of voting by ballot."

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

"Great is Jehovah, the Lord, for Heaven and earth testify to His great power. 'Tis heard in the fierce raging storm, in the torrents loud thundering roar, 'tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the forest, seen in the waving of golden fields. In lovelier flowers gaudy array, 'tis seen in myriad stars of Heaven. Fierce it sounds in the thunder's loud roll and flames in the lightning's brightly quivering flash. Yet clearly the throbbing heart to thee proclaims Jehovah's power, the Lord God Almighty, Look thou praying to Heaven and hope for grace and for mercy."

ANNUAL MEETING AND PARISH DINNER THIS MONDAY, 6:30 P. M.

The Parish meets together for dinner and its Annual Parish Meeting this Monday, April 28, at 6:30 P. M., at the Y.W.C.A., 2007 Chestnut Street. Reports will be made by all the organizations, Vestrymen will be elected, our parish fellowship will be gathered, and a happy evening enjoyed.

The whole parish should be there. If you have not made a reservation, do so at once. The Y.W.C.A. has told us that positively, absolutely, no reservations or cancellations may be made after 9 A. M. this Friday. Dinner tickets (pay at the door) are $2.25. People not attending the dinner may come to the meeting, of course. The meeting will be called to order at approximately 7:30 P. M.

A MATTER OF UNUSUAL SIGNIFICANCE, MAY 11, 12, and 13

The Bohlen Lectures are being resumed this year after a lapse of more than seven years. The lecturer is a noted physicist who is now the executive director of nuclear studies at Oak Ridge and is also a Priest of the Episcopal Church, the Rev. William G. Pollard. Trained in both theology and natural science, he will speak on three evenings at Holy Trinity on "The Christian Man in the Atomic Age."

The Sunday evening lecture is at 6:30 P. M. in the church. The subject of this lecture is "The Christian Man and the Nature of Atomic Energy." On Monday and Tuesday evenings, the lectures are at 8 P. M. Monday night's topic is "The Christian Man and the Uses of Atomic Energy;" and on Tuesday, Dr. Pollard speaks on "The Christian Man and the Atomic Crisis."

The lectures are open to all. They could hardly be more timely and pertinent. Plan to attend.

TRANSFERS TO AND FROM

Although there is no public ceremony in this parish (perhaps there should be) for receiving those who transfer to the parish, we announce from time to time those who have recently transferred here. Sometimes, they are people long associated with the parish who "just never transferred." Most often, they are new people recently come into our midst. Organization membership officers will take note of these people and all of us will want to make them welcome. Those who have recently transferred to the parish are: Mrs. Virginia Zane Lingenfelder, 2201 Chestnut Street, from St. Stephen's, Norwood; Miss Janet Bremner Ross, 8601 Stenton Avenue, from Church of the Ascension, Chicago; Miss Mae Peterman, 123 W. Tulpehocken Street, from Christ Church and St. Michael's; Mrs. Lewis G. Wilson, 1810 Rittenhouse Square, from Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia; and Miss Lorraine P. Windsor, 1703 Spruce Street, from St. Nathanael's, Philadelphia.

Transfers out of the parish are frequently people long since in another parish who have not been in our fellowship for many years. Others are people moving to the suburbs or associating in a new relationship with another parish. Recent transfers out of the parish are: George C. Fogwell, Jr. to Good Samaritan, Paoli; Henry J. Irwin to St. John's, York; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney E. Sachs to St. Luke's, Sharples, West Virginia; Miss Doris E. Sproul to St. Alban's, Newtown Square; Miss Anna G. Trotter to St. Paul's, San Diego, Calif.; and Mrs. Harold Waite to St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THIRTY-TWO MEMBERS of the parish entertained servicemen at dinner last Sunday. All the arrangements for this entertainment were made by Edward S. Leyshon, Chief Usher and Chairman of the Church Growth Committee. Those who entertained servicemen were: Mr. and Mrs. James N. Ashbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. H. Bancroft, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Chesterman, Mrs. Evelyn Clark, Mrs. George C. Colvin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, Austin J. Gaugel, R. Elliott Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. David Greenwood, Mrs. Priscilla Kitchel, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Leyshon, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Noonan, Mrs. Clyde Pinney, Robert B. Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Y. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Schoerke, Mrs. Lever H. Stewart, Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager, and Miss Lillian Stockburger.

A RESPONSE to an appeal from a family rebounding from misfortune in the near neighborhood was instantly met last week by members of the parish. Furniture, clothing, and other help were furnished by Mrs. Harry Angstadt, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Craw, Miss Mary Fielden, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graves, James Kercher, Miss Carry Lindsay, Mrs. Virginia Lingenfelder, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Matthews, Mrs. Horace Y. Rogers, and James Wiley.

ON SATURDAY, MAY 3, the church is being used with the Rector's permission, for a service of Holy Communion at 10 A. M. to ask God's blessing on the Diocesan Convention which convenes the next Monday. The service is being held under the auspices of an Anglo-Catholic group in the Diocese and is in no sense a service of this parish. The Rector is glad, however, to extend the hospitality of the church building to these brethren in Christ. They may leave the fragrance of incense behind them, but after all it is a holy smell. A choir from the Philadelphia Divinity School will sing.

VESTRYMEN ELECTED FOR FOUR-YEAR TERM

The Annual Parish Meeting was held last Monday evening after a dinner at the A. on Chestnut Street. Reports from the various organizations were distributed and commented on by the various officers. Francis F. Milne, Frank B. Murdoch, and M. West were elected to the Vestry for a four-year term.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS TUESDAY FOR DINNER

The Annual Meeting of the Evening Auxiliary and the last meeting of the current year is this coming Tuesday, May 6, at 6 o'clock for dinner in the Centennial Room. The president, elected every two years, will be chosen at this meeting and there will be a review and evaluation of programs during the past year.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD MEETS ON THURSDAY

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will meet at the church door this coming Thursday at approximately 12:45, immediately following the 12:15 service of Holy Communion, to be taken to the Officers' Club at the Naval Station for luncheon ($1.25) and the final meeting of the year. In the afternoon, there will be a conducted tour of the station by bus—no walking. Reservations should be made through the Parish Office (LO 7-1267).

DIOCESAN CONVENTION IN SESSION HERE MONDAY AND TUESDAY

This is the season of “Annual Meetings.” The Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, consisting of more than 600 delegates, will meet in Holy Trinity coming Monday and Tuesday. Sessions begin on Monday at four o'clock. At eight o'clock, there is a service at which Bishop Hart is the preacher. The Convention meets on Tuesday beginning with Holy Communion at nine o'clock.

HOLIDAY HOUSE AVAILABLE FOR VACATIONERS

Holiday House will be available for vacations for members of Holy Trinity parish for two 11-day periods—July 27 to August 7 and August 10 to August 21. The cost for an 11-day period is $30 per person. Holiday House is located on a wooded country hill near Sellersville. The attractions are clean, fresh pleasant country atmosphere, good food, plus association with congenial friends from Holy Trinity. Book your reservations through the Parish Office (LO 7-1267).

NOTES AND COMMENTS

DO YOU KNOW that automobile parking for 25-cents on Sunday morning until 10 o'clock is available at the garage at 1831 Walnut Street.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION, a group of clergy in the Diocese, is using Holy Trinity Church this Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, for a service of Holy Communion with special prayers for the Diocesan Convention. All people are invited to the service.

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY, a nation-wide group, holds its Annual Meeting this coming Thursday, May 8, at Arch Street Methodist Church, beginning at 2:30 with presentation of a plaque to the Pennsylvania Bible Society honoring its 150th Anniversary. Tickets are necessary and are available in the Parish Office.

MAY 11, one week from this Sunday, is the day when the United Thank Offering will be presented at the 11 o'clock service. Over a three year period, the United Thank Offering amounts to more than $3,000,000, and is used for missionary work all over the world.

The Fifth Sunday After Easter

On the secular calendar, this Sunday is Mother's Day and there will be prayer for mothers both living and departed at our services. On the Church calendar, this is Rogation Sunday when the emphasis is on prayer.

THIS EVENING AT 8 O'CLOCK: NOTE THE BULLETIN INSERT

NEXT THURSDAY IS ASCENSION DAY: SERVICES AT 7:30, 12:15

Most neglected of the great days in the historic life of Jesus is His last earthly day, Ascension Day—perhaps because it always falls on a Thursday, a week day. And yet it is a day of utmost significance because it speaks to us of the eternalness of Jesus. God's love in Christ could not be defeated by anything of this world. God coming to us, the Incarnation, continues still. The reign of love in Christ goes forward always. In Him, we reign as kings, victors over every vicissitude of earth because He reigns. Lift up your heart, realize the glory of the Christian life in worship of Ascension Day. Services here are at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 noon.

PHYSICIST-PRIEST HERE SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY

A significant series of three lectures will be delivered in the Church of the Holy Trinity, under the auspices of the Bohlen Lectureship, this Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday by the Rev. William G. Pollard, Director of Nuclear Studies at Oak Ridge. His subject is "The Christian Man in the Atomic Age." The first lecture is this Sunday at 6:30 (note the early hour) when he speaks on "The Christian Man and the Nature of Atomic Energy." The lectures on Monday and Tuesday are at eight o'clock. Monday's lecture is "The Christian Man and the Uses of Atomic Energy" and Tuesday's is "The Christian Man and the Atomic Crisis." The lectures are open to all.

UNITED THANK OFFERING PRESENTATION

The spring ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the women of the Church will be presented at the Altar this Sunday morning. The morning offering will be given by women of the parish. This thank offering of the women of the Church is for missionary purposes all over the world.

THE RECTOR FORGOT . . .

At the Annual Parish Meeting, the Rector remembered to call on everybody to give but one—of all people, the ever-faithful Accounting Warden. Here, now, is his report.

"I am sure that the members of the Parish will be interested in some comparative figures which illustrate the growth of the Parish by comparing it with the years 1951 to 1957.

1951 was a year of great opportunity which saw the advent of our present beloved Rector and his devoted wife to our Parish after notable service in Charleston, West Virginia. Dr. Longley arrived in the latter part of 1951, September of that year, and immediately started an aggressive and constructive campaign to acquaint our Parish with his plans and objectives.

In 1951 we received income from the pledges of the parishioners of $18,443. In 1957, this has grown to $50,230. In 1951 our income from Endowment was $28,131. In 1957 it had increased to $35,069. The total from these two important sources of giving in 1951 was $46,574, as against $85,239 in 1957. Not only does this indicate an increase of income from our Endowment Fund but also an increase in the investment value of this fund which was the result of the loving and wise care with which this fund was administered by our late beloved Chairman of the Finance Committee, Carl N. Martin.

I would transpose a cliché by stating 'where your heart is, there is your treasure.' Certainly, nothing more graphically shows where the heart of the Parish is than the figures above quoted. Yet more important is the broadening of the base of givers. In 1951 we had some very generous supporters which have since died or left the Parish. Yet the above figures show how constructive and wisely was the work done by our Rector and his Associates.

Returning to the year 1951, the total funds handled for all purposes, including income and expenses, was $58,263. In 1957 this had increased to $201,367. This indicates the importance of the small loyal givers, whose support frequently indicates sacrifice and deep heartfelt interest in the Parish and what it stands for.

After listening to the splendid reports that were a part of the Parish Meeting, we are convinced that so-called "cold cash" was glorified, transformed, and transmuted by the constructive purposes so ably carried on by the Parish under the able leadership of our Rector.

—William M. West, Accounting Warden."

WOMAN'S COMMITTEE APPOINTED FOR HOLIDAY HOUSE

Merrill Kercher, Chairman of the Holiday House Committee of the Vestry, has asked the following to serve as a committee on Interior Decorating and Refurnishing of the Holiday House: Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, chairman; Mrs. George Eyre Smith, Miss Margaret R. Kollock, Miss Nellie P. Ferry, Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, and Mrs. Harry S. May. Holiday House is open to Holy Trinity people from July 27 to August 7 and August 14 to 21. Reservations and inquiries may be made at the Parish Office (LO 7-1267).

NEW CARPETING, NEW CUSHIONS, READY FOR INSTALLATION

Installation of new carpeting for the floor of the church, new cushions on the seats, and a polishing job on the aisle tiles will begin very soon. Before the new carpet is laid, the floor will undergo a de-moing. This process may cause a moth-eaten odor (whatever that is) for a few days. The whole process should take about two weeks and the church should look very neat and trim when it is done.

Also, in the parish house, the office floors will be covered with rubber tile and the floor in the main rooms will be refinished.

ELEANOR MEAGHER, NEW EVENING AUXILIARY PRESIDENT

Miss Eleanor Meagher was elected president of the Evening Auxiliary for the second two years at its meeting last week. Miss Meagher is a dietician at the Jefferson Hospital. She succeeds Miss Mary Fielden as Auxiliary president. The enthusiastic thanks of one and all were extended to Miss Fielden for her most successful administration of the Auxiliary during the past two years.

NEW MEN'S CLUB COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The following men have been appointed on the Men's Club meeting committees for 1958-59: For the meetings of October 14 and February 10, Barook J. Masuda, Austin Gaugel, Robert S. Heitz, Harry H. Matthews, Penn G. MacGrann, and James D. Wiley; for the meetings of November 11 and March 10, Rodman P. Bright, J. F. Graves, Joseph Noonan, Humbert Lanzi, and R. Elliott Gifford; for the meetings of January 13 and May 12, Neale C. Bringhurst, Robert S. Kitchel, Robert Leak, John W. Gilmore, Harvey F. Schock, Jr., and Horace Y. Rogers. The Rector is responsible for the meetings in December and April when Corporate Communion and breakfasts are held.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH TAKES OVER NEW TERRITORY

Our Episcopal Church has recently taken over from the Church of England missionary responsibility for all the territory between Mexico and the Panama Canal Zone and sent the Right Reverend David E. Richards as Bishop. In the April issue of Earth, the Church's Missionary magazine, commenting on this, there are the following interesting paragraphs.

It reads: "In the year 68 A.D., Roman workmen were rebuilding their city, gutted in the reign of Nero. On the other side of the world, unaware of their existence as they were of his, a bronze-skinned Indian stonecutter was finishing a job in the city of Uaxactun by carving a date in the dot-and-dash numerals of his people. Archaeologists have deciphered it, the oldest recorded date in the New World.

"The stonecutter belonged to one of the most complex and advanced civilizations that human beings have ever created. Cradled in Guatemala, the Mayan empire engulfed most of what is now Honduras, Belize, and El Salvador. Its trade routes and influence stretched north to the Aztec kingdom of Mexico, south to the Incas empire of Peru."

Although the Roman Church is practically the state Church of Nicaragua and strongly settled in all this territory, there are 33 Episcopal parishes in this area of Central America, two schools, and abundant opportunity for all Christians to work among people who need the Gospel.

NOTES

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4 P. M.

PARISH PICNIC PLANNED FOR JUNE 21

The Church Growth Committee is making plans for a parish outing and barbecue at Holiday House on Saturday, June 21. Save this date and plan to go. There will be more details later.

Pentecost

(COMMONLY CALLED WHITSUNDAY)

MAY 25, 1958

The Feast of Pentecost in the Jewish Church is the anniversary of the delivery of the law on Mount Sinai 50 days after the Passover and the deliverance from Egypt. In the Christian Church, it became the occasion of the coming of the Holy Spirit to the first disciples. The name "Whitsunday" comes possibly from the fact that the anniversary of the Holy Spirit's coming became a favorite day for Baptism for which the candidates were clothed in white. The Epistles for Whit-Monday and Whit-Tuesday refer to the baptism of converts to the Church and seem to bear out this derivation. Others, however, have said that the word is "Wit-Sunday" because the coming of the Holy Spirit gave "wit and wisdom" to the members of the Church and sent them forth, newly commissioned, to be Christ's Body in the world—the extension of the Incarnation in the Church.

THREE VISITING PREACHERS COMING THIS SUMMER

On June 29, Martin Niemoeller will preach at the Church of the Holy Trinity. Dr. Niemoeller is president of the Church in Hessen and Nassau, Germany.
On July 6, the Rev. Michael D. Townroe will be the preacher. He is the Rector of St. Paul's with Woolavington, England, and Rural Dean of Petworth.
On July 20, the Very Rev. W. P. Shannon will be the preacher. He is the Provost of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Aberdeen, Scotland.
On the other summer Sundays beginning June 1, the Associate Rector, the Rev. J. M. Harper, will be the preacher and will be available throughout the summer for special ministrations.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

On the great days of the Christian year such as Christmas and Easter and Pentecost (today), the chief service of the Church is always the Holy Communion. It is simple and helpful to note the parts of the service. First, there is the preparation of certain instructive passages of scripture such as the Summary of the Law, the Epistle and Gospel are read and the Faith or Creed is recited. Second comes the Sermon, the offertory, the great prayer for the Church. Third comes the real beginning of the Holy Communion with the penitential portion (that we may come worthily to the Altar) ending with the Sanctus. Fourth comes the consecration of the elements—ourselves—the offering of the sacrifice of Christ to God, "the only offering perfect in eyes, the one, true, pure, immortal sacrifice." Fifth is the Holy Communion itself, and sixth is our thanksgiving after Communion.
Members of the congregation are urged to follow the service in the Prayer Book, using the words, seeking ever new understanding of their meaning, and making earnest prayers in an individual as well as a corporate sense. No matter how long the service is, part of its greatness is that we can always find something new. Use the Prayer Book, follow the service word for word, get from it its deepest meanings.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE NEW RUG in the church is now being installed and the de-moing process is taking place. There may be some inconvenience this Sunday, but the work should be completed by June 1.

THE NEW CUSHIONS will then be installed. In the meantime, some pews will have cushions from the gallery in them. It will be noted that they do not quite fit.

THE RECTOR and Mrs. Longley leave for Europe on the Queen Elizabeth next Wednesday. All who receive this Bulletin are invited to visit their stateroom (M58) prior 90 in New York between 11 and 2 o'clock next Wednesday to see them off.

NEW FORWARDS with meditations for the entire summer are available this Sunday in the church porch. They are 10-cents each.

HOLIDAY HOUSE

Holiday House will be available for vacations for members of Holy Trinity parish for two 11-day periods. The charge for 11 days is $30. The ladies committee, of which Mrs. Robert D. Franklin is chairman, have given much time and thought to making this country house near Sellersville more comfortable and attractive. Those wishing to make reservations should fill in the blank below, tear it off, and leave it at the parish office as soon as possible.

Weekday Services

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11—SAINT BARNABAS THE APOSTLE

7:30 A. M.—The Holy Communion

12:15 Noon—The Holy Communion

THURSDAY, JUNE 12

12:15 Noon—The Holy Communion

How often should we receive the Holy Communion? Once a year, four times a year or once a month? The great Meister Eckhart, praised by Hindus as well as Christians, has said in answer to this: "Those who would like to partake of the body of our Lord should not wait until they feel an upsurge of emotion or devotion but let them rather consider their attitude or disposition. Attach significance, not to what you feel like but rather to what you are to receive and to your thoughts about it. . . . One may eat of this inner food until he becomes richer in grace than any other person on earth. He may eat it a thousand times a day and oftener wherever he wishes, whether sick or well."

WHAT IS A CITY PARISH LIKE?

Nowadays it is commonly said that there are three types of parishes, urban, suburban and rural. And of urban parishes there are also two kinds, the downtown church and the church in the residential area. Holy Trinity is both a downtown church and a church in a residential area.

What goes on in a parish like ours which makes it different from a suburban or a rural parish? We meet more strangers every week, that is the simple answer. How do we meet these and who they are, are questions which cannot be answered simply. We meet them as they come into the parish office; we meet them after church on Sunday; we meet them through members of the parish; we meet them through the phone survey. Who are they? Some are Episcopalians from another city or from the suburbs who are in the city for the day and wish to attend a service. Some are Episcopalians who have moved to Center City and are looking for a parish. Some are shopping for a church, and are not Episcopalians at all, not members of any church.

Some are not looking for a church but come to Holy Trinity because they need help or are asking for something they think we can give. Every church is a center of inquiry and instruction about the Faith. People constantly want to know whether a church really does have the life and truth without which life is worth very little. Some want money. Some want lodging. Some want to talk. Some want to confess great sin. Some want counsel on a moral or even a practical matter of some consequence. Some want to talk about themselves, some want to talk of others. Some pretend they are sure of themselves, and know what they are or what they need. Some have given up pretending—these are the ones we can do most for, for they know in their hearts and minds the truth of the collect for this Sunday, "Through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee."

There are troubles and sicknesses of the soul that are moral ills; these are meant for the priest and not the psychiatrist. Carl Jung, one of the two greatest psychologists of our century, has said that the majority of his patients needed a priest even more than a psychiatrist. Sometimes the priest and pastor wonders whether some of the people with whom he talks, need the psychiatrist more than they need a pastor. There is, undoubtedly, much confusion in our time and country as to whom to turn when we are in trouble. Trusting too much in "science" we are apt to forget that only a religious counselor can help us with some difficulties, namely, the purposes of life and the problems of conscience.

For many people the pastor serves as a diagnostician, who refers those who come to them to those more competent to help. For many people there is no one to diagnose or advise. How can the City Parish make itself known to them, its waiting to serve them as it can, by counselling, prayer, and corporate worship? Perhaps best of all by the spreading abroad in neighborhood and city, by word of mouth of its regular parishioners, of the good news that the City Parish has both competence and a concern. Oftentimes the best thing one friend can do for another is to say, "I think the church may have what you are looking for; why not go and ask, why not go and see?" And finally, the church, and especially a center city parish, is itself looking for lost members of the Body of Christ. And there is no greater joy than when Christ finds his sheep.

PARISH PICNIC

The members and friends of this parish are invited to attend a picnic of the parish, to be held Saturday, June 21. For details see special flyer enclosed.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

The Combs College of Music will be taking part in our regular 11 o'clock service on June 8 as its own Baccalaureate Service. In this way, Holy Trinity demonstrates its well-merited reputation as a Church which belongs to Center City and wishes to be a center for our greater neighborhood.

WHAT ARE EPISCOPALIANS LIKE?

You can not be an Episcopalian long without becoming aware of some of the things that are said about us, for and against. And if you are a member of the Church of the Holy Trinity at Rittenhouse Square, you will know that there are many opportunities for things to be said. So many members of our Sunday congregations are Episcopalian, some being members of other denominations, some of none. And, of course, a very large proportion of the radio congregation are not Episcopalians. What do they say about us? And, what should we know about ourselves?

The first thing that is said about us now is that we are friendly to strangers. And that this could be said of all Episcopal churches. To befriend the stranger is one of the oldest precepts of Biblical religion. "The stranger who sojourns with you shall be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself." (Leviticus 19:34).

Unfortunately, this precept too often honored in the breach. Haven't you heard that Episcopalian are cold, indifferent to strangers? If they are, it is due not only to an over-awareness of social distinctions, but to something better than that, a pride in the liturgy of the church so intense as to capture the whole attention of the regular worshipper. But it is true that we are sometimes snobbish.

There is a parish, for example, which will not institute a coffee hour because some members of the parish are afraid that other members will presume upon the friendliness in church to seek friendship outside! (And all the parishioners were white). In such a parish it is not possible to say, as was said of the early Christians, "Look how these Christians love one another." Certainly, when Christians do not love one another, it is questionable whether they love God.

Most people are attracted to the Episcopal Church by its worship. And you wouldn't be wrong if you said, "An Episcopalian is a Prayer Book Christian," for without our Book of Common Prayer we would not be what we are, and we would not interest others. We have a liturgy that is formal on the one hand, and that requires our participation on the other. Thus, in every service there is a combination of past and present, as the worshippers enter into the traditional Christian ways of offering themselves to God. Of course, there are a few people who like a church service because of the singing, let us call it, the choirs and processions, the candles and incense, the vestments and gestures. But helpful as these may be in making the services live for us, they are all optional, singly or in any combination. The Book of Common Prayer is not optional—it is the rule of our life as Christians.

What are the effects of this rule of life, that is, of the services of worship which other Christians admire and imitate? Are we better men and women for it? What does this mean but to ask whether we are learning to pattern our lives on the divine pattern, on Christ's humility and love? Test yourselves now. Do you ever ask yourselves whether you really are a "miserable offender," and if so, in what way and why? Do you ever seriously examine your conscience, or do you say the General Confession on the general assumption that it is probably edifying for others to hear you say it? And, secondly, in what ways is your love an image of divine energy and charity, at home and at work?

Episcopalians impress others in two quite different ways. Either we strike them as cold and formal, going through a social activity in a correct but unenthusiastic manner. Or we impress them by the sincerity and quietness of our prayer and praise. Although our services are often called dignified, we had better make sure that the dignity arises not from thinking formally, but from an intense pre-occupation with the life of prayer and praise.

MARTIN NIEMOELLER AT HOLY TRINITY

Sunday, June 29

Dr. Martin Niemoeller will preach at the 11 o'clock service at Holy Trinity on June 29. This will be the first engagement in his four weeks speaking tour in the United States. At 7 o'clock, the same Sunday, he will preach again at an open-air service at All Saints' Church, Rhawnhurst.

Dr. Niemoeller is a member of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches and President of the Evangelical Church in Hesse-Nassau. He is probably the best known German churchman, and is widely respected both for his courageous stand against the Nazi Party and for his outstanding Christian evangelism. He is the holder of honorary doctorates from many universities and seminaries all over the world.

For his leadership in the resistance inside Germany to the Nazis, he was imprisoned in the concentration camps of Sachsenhausen and Dachau from 1937 to 1945. Since that time he has been very active in church statesmanship and ecumenical affairs, in the reconstruction of German Protestantism, in the discussion of church relations with the Russian Orthodox Church, and with the arrangements for release of prisoners of war in Russia. A delegate to the Amsterdam and Evanston Assemblies of the World Council of Churches, he is now President of the Evangelical (Lutheran) Church in Hesse-Nassau.

His visit to this country is under the auspices of the World Council of Churches. We are especially honored in having Dr. Niemoeller begin his current American visit at the Church of the Holy Trinity.

BISHOP HART OPENS TRINITY CLUB YEAR TONIGHT

Trinity Club's first meeting for the 1958-59 season at six o'clock this Sunday evening in the Centennial Room will have the Bishop of the Diocese as its speaker. The Trinity Club supper speakers program for the year, a truly remarkable array of leaders in various phases of our living, is available at the rear of the church. Trinity Club welcomes all young adults. Come and join with a hundred and more young adults at supper tonight.

EVENING PRAYER EVERY SUNDAY EVENING AT EIGHT IN THE CHURCH

Meditations led by the Associate Rector.

TWO UNUSUAL EVENTS IN THE NEXT TWO WEEKS

The Bishop of Armidale, Australia, the Right Reverend John Stoward Moyes, will preach at Holy Trinity on Sunday, September 21. Archbishop Moyes has, of course, been in attendance at the Lambeth Conference and is passing through the United States on his way home to Australia. On Saturday he will participate in an all day program at the University of Pennsylvania and it will be our great privilege to have him here at Holy Trinity on Sunday morning.

From another part of the world comes Metropolitan James, representative of the patriarchates of Constantinople, Jerusalem, Antioch, and Alexandria of the Orthodox Church. Educated at Harvard, Dean of the Hellenic Cathedral in Boston for 12 years, he is now the Metropolitan of Malta. He will preach here on Sunday, September 28.

Through these two men, both in their preaching and in the opportunity of personal conversation with them, we shall have the opportunity to realize something of the thinking of church people in two widely scattered parts of the world—one of which is in a greatly troubled area.

OUR ANNUAL RALLY SUNDAY IS THIS SUNDAY

Your Rector on the second Sunday in September, at the beginning of each new year of his rectorship, of which this is the eighth year, has asked every member of the parish to be present if at all possible that we all may review our fellowship together, realize again our deepest purposes, and dedicate ourselves anew to the work and witness of this parish.

The Rector hopes very much that you will make every effort to be present this Sunday morning.

MATERIAL IMPROVEMENTS DURING THE PAST SUMMER

Every congregation should maintain its property from year to year. If years are allowed to pass without proper care, an often almost unbearable burden is put on the generations or else the property deteriorates. At Holy Trinity now, we are catching up on many things. This summer, as surely you have noticed, a new carpet has been placed in the church and sacristy and new cushions for the pews have been installed. Also, work is in progress on the deteriorating outside walls of the church. New floors have been installed in the parish offices and the walls have been repainted.

Not least in our maintenance program has been a "do-it-yourself" project in the Centennial Room where walls have been transformed from "institutional grey" to a creamy yellow and sandy beige. This has been paid for and done by Trinity Club under the leadership of the club president, Nels Nelson, ably aided by Bill Braun, Neale Langhurst, Ed Cheney, John Davis, Robert Heitz, Burke Hodgson, Tom Homeyard, Jean Fisher, Bryant Jones, Ken Laws, Fred Lloyd, Edie Miller, Paul Nelson, John Oldach, Robertson, Laura Sanford, Charlie Werntz, and John Wiley. Mr. Nelson and his father have also made and given a new reading desk for the speaker's table.

To crown the work in the Centennial Room is a hammered copper replica of a 17th century Antioch Cross fashioned by Admiral Bowling.

DIOCESAN WOMEN'S AUXILIARY SERVICE

Thursday, September 25, 12:15 (Noon)

Every Thursday in the year there is Holy Communion from 12:15 to 12:45 (noon). At this service in particular we offer special prayers and intercessions. Please send your prayer requests to the Rector.

BISHOP MOYES OF AUSTRALIA, PREACHER THIS SUNDAY

In 1952, at the Pan-Anglican Conference in Minneapolis, I heard Bishop Moyes' address on "Salvation," and, in my opinion, it was the best address made by anyone at the Conference. This Sunday morning at 11 is an opportunity for all of us to hear a man of scholarly integrity who is keenly interested in people and is a truly great preacher of the Gospel. I urge you to hear him.

Bishop Moyes is the Bishop of Armidale, Australia. He was a Chaplain with the Commonwealth Forces in the First World War, was an Archdeacon and Examining Chaplain before becoming Bishop. He was consecrated Bishop in 1929.

—The Rector.

Note: Metropolitan James, scheduled to preach on September 28, has cancelled plans to visit this country.

BIBLE, CONFIRMATION, AND STUDY CLASSES START IN OCTOBER

On Monday night, October 13, at eight o'clock in the Centennial Room, a Bible study class on "The Book of Psalms" will begin under the leadership of the Associate Rector. He will also conduct a second class on "Christian Classics" beginning Wednesday evening, October 15, at eight o'clock in the Parish House. This will include studies of the works of St. Augustine, St. Francis of Assisi, Master Eckhart, Thomas a' Kempis, Teresa of Avila, Pascal, Kierkegaard, and Bernanos. These classes are open to all. You will be asked to register for the Bible Class.

On Sunday, October 19, at 2:30 P. M. in the Church, Confirmation Classes will begin preparation for the Bishop's visit on December 14. These are classes designed to teach "The Meaning and Purpose of the Church" and are open to all whether planning to be confirmed or not. All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend the classes between October 19 and December 14.

PARISH GROUPS BEGIN NEW YEAR'S SCHEDULE IN OCTOBER

The Evening Auxiliary, cooperating with the Division of Women's Work in the National Church, begins its meetings on Tuesday evening, October 7, with dinner at six o'clock. The Evening Auxiliary, made up largely of business and professional women, is primarily for all women who cannot attend a day-time meeting. No special invitation is necessary. It is open to you, whoever you are. All you need to do is come. There will be a further announcement of the October meeting. Miss Eleanor Leagher is president of the Evening Auxiliary. Other officers are listed on the back of the Bulletin.

The Women's Auxiliary and Guild, also a part of the Women's Division of the National Church, is the day-time group for the women of the Church. Its first meeting will be Thursday, October 9, beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15 noon, in the Church and luncheon in the Parish House at one o'clock.

The Men's Club holds its first meeting Tuesday evening, October 14. The committee for the first meeting is composed of Austin J. Gaugel, Robert S. Heitz, Penn C. MacGrann, Barook J. Masuda, Harry H. Matthews, and James D. Wiley.

YOUNG ADULT TRINITY CLUB BEGINS ANOTHER SEASON

Although the activities of Trinity Club are not altogether suspended in the summer (there are picnics, outings to Radnor, Elfreth's Alley, New Hope, Valley Forge, weekends to Holiday House, Avalon, and Camp Hilltop, sports events such as biking, tennis, swimming, and horseback riding), the active Sunday night program began last Sunday with Bishop Hart as the keynote speaker. A truly remarkable array of speakers has been scheduled for the year, such people as Guy Marinier, Henry Dever, president, Brown Instrument Division of Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Co.; Thurmond Marshall, Bishop Bayne, and Gaylord P. Harnwell. Tonight's speaker is John Lear, artist and chairman of the Oil Paintings Committee, Philadelphia Art Alliance.

All young adults (20's and 30's) and students are invited to Trinity Club. The only requirement for membership is your presence in the Centennial Room on Sunday nights at six o'clock. You will find friends and opportunities if you come.

NOTE

NEW FORWARD DAY BY DAY booklets are available this Sunday in the Church porch. May we recommend this pocket-size, purse-size day by day devotional manual. The cost per copy is 10-cents. The present series of devotions runs from September 18 to November 29.

OTHER PAMPHLETS are available at the rear of the church. They provide brief and spiritually suggestive reading for busy people. We suggest that you look them over.

The usual Sunday services at 8, 11; 6 P. M., Trinity Club; 8 P. M. Evening Prayer.

FUTURE: EVENTS: November 6, the Annual Bazaar; November 23, Loyalty Sunday.

On Tuesday, September 16, the whole parish was saddened by the death of Gladys Phillips Stewart. She was active in parish life, in the Women's Auxiliary and Guild, as custodian of the United Thank Offering, as one of those playing the chimes each week, and in many other ways. One of the nine Christian virtues listed by St. Paul is "gentleness." And many times since her death, we have heard people saying of Mrs. Stewart that she was "a gentle person." She could be described in no better way. Hers was, in marked degree, the quality of Christian gentleness. She will be greatly missed; but she will grow in love and service in God's heavenly kingdom.

THIS IS WORLD-WIDE COMMUNION SUNDAY

All Christians of whatever name around the world will participate in the Lord's Supper during the 24 hours of Sunday, October 5—the Methodists at the Supper of the Lord, the Roman Catholics at the Mass, the Holy Orthodox at the Liturgy, Episcopalians at the Holy Communion. Everywhere, literally millions of Christians will be united at the Lord's Table.

You are invited to play your part in this act of faith and witness. Come to the Altar at either eight or eleven o'clock this Sunday and take your place with others in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

CHURCH SCHOOL BEGINS THIS SUNDAY

The Church School begins this Sunday. Parents should bring their children to the Church House (1904 Walnut Street) by 10:50 A. M. to meet their teachers. The teachers will sit with the children in Church until the Sermon Hymn. At that time they will go to the Parish House for half an hour of instruction.

There will be three classes: a Nursery-Kindergarten Class taught by Mrs. Walter Smith and Miss Margery Brettell; a Primary Class (grades 1, 2, 3), taught by Mrs. M. Smith, Miss Mimi Hartzell, and Mr. John Jay Byrne; and a Junior Class (grades 4, 5, 6), taught by Miss Barbara Blair and Miss Mary Lee.

Children will meet their parents after the 11 o'clock service in the Parish House.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY

This Tuesday, October 7, the Evening Auxiliary meets for dinner at six o'clock in the Centennial Room. The Associate Rector, the Rev. Ralph Harper, will speak on "One Family Through Christian Living."

The Evening Auxiliary is for all women who cannot attend a day time meeting. No special invitation to join is necessary—simply come to the meeting.

All are asked to let the parish office know at once if you have not yet made a reservation. Call LO 7-1267. The price of the dinner is $1.25.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, day group, will hold their opening meeting this season on Thursday, October 9, beginning with Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service, followed by luncheon in the Parish House at one o'clock.

The general theme of this year's program is "One Family in Christ" and Dr. Longley will be the speaker of the day, on "The Family Overseas, Europe 1958." It is a great privilege to have Dr. Longley speak to us of his trip through Europe. All women of the Church are invited to come. No special invitation is necessary.

It is IMPORTANT that reservations for lunch ($1.00) be made early, not later than Monday, October 6, to allow sufficient time for adequate preparation. The Parish Office, 1904 Walnut Street, may be notified by telephone (LO 7-1267) or by mail in good time.

PRESENT SURVEY WORK DISCONTINUED

The survey work being done by Mrs. Marlene Maertens has been terminated and Mrs. Maertens relieved of her responsibilities as of October 1. Mrs. Maertens' work has greatly benefited the parish but it appears that it does not justify the full time employment of a person to do it.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Maertens has notified the rector that she intends to remain a member of the parish. With grateful appreciation of her work, the Vestry has granted her three months terminal pay to help until she finds other work.

DATES TO REMEMBER

THE BIBLE CLASSES begin Monday, October 13 at 7:45 P. M. with an identical class also on Tuesday, October 14, at 10:45 A. M. Mr. Harper will lecture on the Psalms. ANOTHER CLASS entitled "Christian Classics" begins Wednesday, October 15, at 8 P. M.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES begin Sunday, October 19, at 2:30 P. M. in the church. They continue for eight weeks and are open to all. All who plan to be confirmed in November are asked to attend the classes in preparation.

BIBLE CLASSES BEGIN THIS WEEK

Monday night at 7:45 and Tuesday morning at 10:45 in the Centennial Room, a class in "The Psalter: The Prayer of the Church" will begin under the leadership of the Associate Rector. Mr. Harper has taught both at Harvard and Bard College and brings a wealth of teaching experience in giving this course. He will also teach a class on "Christian Classics" each Wednesday evening at 7:45 in the Centennial Room. This is a course on Christian thought through the centuries and the titles for each class are "St. Augustine," "St. Francis of Assisi," "Jostor Eckhart," "Thomas a Kempis," "St. Teresa of Avila," "Pascal," "Kierkegaard," and "Bernanos."

CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGIN SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19

The Rector will conduct eight Adult Confirmation Classes beginning Sunday, October 19, at 2:30 P. M. These classes are in preparation for the Bishop's visit on Sunday, December 14.

The classes are open to everyone. All who are planning to be confirmed are asked to attend each of the classes. But anyone, already confirmed, or just inquiring is welcome at the classes.

The classes have to do with the Episcopal Church, its history, faith, ethics, sacraments, worship, devotional life, its customs and habits. Attendance at the classes for anyone is a good way to review and deepen one's understanding of the Church.

For those looking forward to Confirmation, no previous registration is necessary. Simply attend the class on Sunday, October 19, at 2:30 in the church. You will then be registered as "planning to be confirmed," "inquirer," or "auditor."

MEN'S CLUB DINNER TUESDAY, 6:30 P. M.

The Rector will show slides and talk about his European trip this past summer as an opening feature of the Men's Club season at a dinner Tuesday evening in the Centennial Room at 6:30 P. M. Reservations for the dinner ($1.50) must be received Monday noon at the latest, (call LO 7-1267). All men of the parish and their friends are invited. You will find a warm welcome.

THE ANNUAL BAZAAR IS ON NOVEMBER 6

The Bazaar and Card Party given annually by the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will take place November 6, from 12 noon until 6 P. M. in the ballroom of the Barclay, 18th Street and Rittenhouse Square. We appeal to our friends in the Parish to help us make this year's affair a success by donating one or more articles so that the tables may be well and attractively stocked. Useful and fancy articles are greatly needed. The White Elephant table will welcome any and all saleable objects including jewelry, modern and old. The Cake Table and Candy Booth will be most appreciative of homemade cakes, cookies, and candy.

Donations of non-perishable articles may be sent to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, before November 3, marked "Bazaar." Cakes and candies are to be sent to the Barclay BEFORE noon on November 6, marked "Holy Trinity Bazaar." Thank you.

THE ALTAR GUILD OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

Behind the scenes, so to speak, a group of faithful women care for the vestments, linens, the hangings, the vessels, the furniture having to do with our worship and the ministration of the Sacraments. The members of the Altar Guild during October are: Miss Julia Leighton and Mrs. Patricia Gane; during November, Mrs. Donald S. Gane and Miss Lola C. Harris; during December, Miss Margaret W. Warner and Miss Marguerite Zulick; during January, Miss Elizabeth Laws, Miss Mary E. Maguire, and Miss Mary G. Sharpe; during February, Miss Millicent Shell and Miss Grace D. Macomber; during March, Mrs. Frederick C. Bachman and Miss Alice Ruf; during April, Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager, Miss Mary G. Sharpe, and Miss Mary Maguire; during May, Miss Nellie P. Ferry and Miss Margaret R. Kollock; on second and fourth Thursday, Mrs. Eugene M. Callis; on first and third Thursday and all Holy Days, Mrs. Marlene Maertens. Miss Emma McClintock is the coordinator of the work of the Altar Guild and sees to the laundry, mending, supplying both in relation to the Guild and the parish choirs. Miss Ann Becker, whose work schedule is irregular, also serves on Saturdays and some Sundays.

NOTE: The Church School is rejoicing in a new offering plate presented to it by Miss Julia Leighton.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES START THIS SUNDAY, 2:30 P. M.

In the church, at 2:30 P. M. this Sunday afternoon, adult confirmation classes begin and will continue each successive Sunday for eight weeks.
It should be noted that the classes are open to everyone and afford an opportunity for all to become better acquainted with the Episcopal Church. Those who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend all the classes. The Bishop comes to the parish for confirmation on Sunday, December 14.
The classes will deal with the History, Faith, Ethics, Sacraments, Worship, and devotional life of the Episcopal Church.

THE NEW PRESIDING BISHOP

Newspapers have referred to the Right Reverend Arthur Carl Lichtenberger, the newly elected Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, as a "middle of the roader." This is not an accurate description. He is definitely low Church. He is as definitely on the left politically. He will be sympathetic with liberals in theology. This will be pleasing to many, displeasing to others.
Pleasing to all are other equally definite facts about him. He is known to all as a sincerely dedicated Christian, as a man well above the average in scholarly attainments, and possessed of an abundance of intelligent common sense. He is, in every sense, a gentleman who will be at home wherever he finds himself.

RECENT TRANSFERS TO AND FROM OUR PARISH

Letters of Transfer into the Parish: Mrs. George R. Burns, 304 S. Nineteenth Street and Calvary; Miss Grace G. Haupt, 2100 Walnut Street, from St. Luke and the Epiphany; Wayne S. Rowell, 136 Academy Avenue, Glenolden, from Holy Apostles' and St. Luke; Miss Elsie A. Stauffer, Town House, 19th and Spruce Streets, from St. Luke and the Epiphany. Letters of Transfer out of the Parish: Daniel S. Grubb to St. Thomas', St. Remarsh; Miss Eileen M. Huet to Old Christ Church; Miss Katherine E. Reichert to St. Luke and the Saviour.

THE BOOK TABLE AT THE BAZAAR

At regular book store prices, you may purchase the latest books direct from the publisher through Mrs. Harry Longley, chairman of the Bazaar Book Table. She will be glad to take your order now at any time. She can be reached at Midway 2-6511 or through the parish office LOcust 7-1267. She will have a table at the Bazaar at the Fairway on Thursday, November 6.

Remember—you may order any book published, pay no more than at any book store, and yet help the cause of Missions which benefits by the Bazaar.

HELPING THE CLERGY AT THE CHURCH DOOR

Under the chairmanship of Miss Mary Fielden, the following are helping the clergy and people each Sunday at the church door: Miss May B. Baird, Mrs. Lucretia A. Bentley, Miss Margaret Colflesh, Mrs. William Flick, Mrs. Patricia Gane, Mrs. J. F. Graves, Mrs. Zora Hamilton, Miss Margaret Holloway, Miss Ada L. Layman, Miss Florence Loos, Miss Marjorie E. Lyons, Miss Millicent Shell, Miss Marguerite Sibley, Miss Frances E. Tansley, and Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager.

Holy Trinity hopes that visitors each Sunday and newcomers will feel the interest of all of us in their presence here. We are a fellowship in Christ, a laboratory of love, a place of friendship toward all people. The people mentioned above in their greetings at the church door represent the whole congregation in a very special sense.

HOUSE OF REST DAY, WEDNESDAY

The House of Rest for the Aged, a Diocesan institution at 5919 Wayne Avenue in Germantown, invites you to visit it next Wednesday afternoon from two until five o'clock. Two of our Holy Trinity women are on the Board of Directors and so we have special interest in the House of Rest. Should you wish to send a contribution toward its work, checks may go to Mrs. George Higginson, 901 Magee Street, Philadelphia 11.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE VESTRY meets next Monday at 4:30 in the Parish House.
THE UNITED THANK OFFERING parish ingathering will be on Sunday, October 19, at the eleven o'clock service. The Diocesan ingathering will be at Holy Trinity on Wednesday, November 19, at 8 P. M. More about the United Thank Offering next week.
THE RECTOR will be in Binghamton, N. Y., next Wednesday and Thursday morning attending the dedication of a tablet in memory of his father who was rector of Christ Church there for many years.

NEW VESTRYMAN

Holstein DeHaven Fox was elected to the Vestry last Monday to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Robert D. Franklin who has moved to Detroit. Mr. Fox is an investment broker and will bring helpful knowledge in this field to the Vestry in his trusteeship of endowment funds. Mr. Fox has been appointed to the Finance Committee.

THANKFUL WOMEN GIVE FOUR MILLION DOLLARS

At the General Convention of the Church just concluded, the women of the Church presented a United Thank Offering of $3,869,985 which was received during the last triennium. Of this, the Diocese of Pennsylvania gave $184,804.91 during the three years. From our own parish came $3,701.37 from the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and $103 from the Evening Auxiliary, a total of $4,594.40.

Today, the first offering of a new triennium will be made at the 11 o'clock service. The women of this parish will receive and present the morning offering. The United Thank Offering is not a "collection," but an accumulation of small offerings continually dropped into a "blue box" or bank, by a thankful person. It loses its purpose if someone simply "writes a check." It is always an offering accompanied by a prayer in thanksgiving for a special blessing. Our parish custodians are Mrs. John Hutz for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, and Mrs. Ruth Taxdal for the Evening Auxiliary. Last spring, about 250 of our women gave a total of $842.38.

The Diocesan Ingathering will take place here in our own church at eight o'clock the evening of November 19. It will be preceded by a dinner in the Centennial Room. Rev. Roland Cox, Jr., formerly a missionary in Alaska and now Assistant Secretary of the Overseas Department of the Church, will be the preacher on November 19.

MRS. CHARLES BANCROFT IN CHARGE OF COFFEE HOUR

The "Coffee Hour," new within this decade, has established itself in the Church everywhere. Once upon a time, long ago, Church attendants brought their own lunches and ate together in the churchyard after church. For a long time in the life of the Church, people came and then hurried away and never really knew their neighbors. Now once again friendship in fellowship is happening in the parish family and the art of greeting is extended to visitors and newcomers.

In charge of the Coffee Hour at Holy Trinity is Mrs. Charles Bancroft. Mrs. Horace Rogers is Mrs. Bancroft's assistant.

IMPORTANT DATES ON THE CALENDAR THIS WEEK

THE PENNSYLVANIA BIBLE SOCIETY, founded by Bishop White, celebrates its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary this coming Monday with a service in the Arch Street Methodist Church at eight o'clock with the Rev. Ralph W. Sockman as the preacher.

THE NEEDLEWORK GUILD has been invited to use our Centennial Room as its ingathering and distribution center this coming Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

THE ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS meets Sunday afternoons at 2:30 in preparation for the Bishop's visit on December 14. This is the last Sunday for admission to the class. All are welcome whether planning to be confirmed or not.

OTHER OPPORTUNITIES to increase knowledge and gain new understandings of the Bible and religious thought are available in a course on the Psalms given on Monday evenings at 7:45 and (an identical class) on Tuesday mornings at 10:45. A course in the classics of Christian thought is given on Wednesday evenings at 7:45. This coming week's topic is "Master Eckhart," to be followed by Thomas a Kempis, St. Teresa of Avila, Pascal, Kierkegaard, and Bernanos.

THE BAZAAR is at the Barclay, Thursday, November 6 (two weeks from this Thursday) from noon until six.

TRINITY CLUB members will spend a Quiet-Day in retreat at the Diocesan Conference Center, on Saturday, November 1. Cars leave from the parish house at 10 o'clock. The cost is $1.40. The meditations will be led by the Associate Rector.

THE PHILLIPS BROOKS CLUB for young married couples of the parish will hold a Hallowe'en Dance in the Centennial Room on Saturday, November 1 at 8:30.

THE BAZAAR, THIS WEEK, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Mrs. George Eyre Smith, acting president of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild says: "Our Church Bazaar is a project for the whole parish. One in which each member should have an active interest, it can't be well done without the help of each one. Whether your contribution is small or large it is needed and appreciated. You may have an attractive saleable article for one of the booths. Perhaps you have purchased sets for the card party and can't attend, then send them with a friend. Non-perishable articles will be welcomed at the Parish House any time until November 4. The women of the cake and candy tables will be happy to receive donations of homemade cakes and candy delivered at the Barclay before noon on November 6.

"Come to the Bazaar, patronize it, do your Christmas shopping here.

"The proceeds are used for the women's missionary work, a worthy cause. Do YOUR part to make the 1958 Bazaar a successful one."

Mrs. Jack F. Bowling and Mrs. George Eyre Smith will be in the Parish House Sunday, November 2 from 10:30 A. M. until 1 P. M. to receive your packages. Thank you.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS TUESDAY EVENING, 6 P. M.

Mrs. Orrin F. Judd, member of the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Evening Auxiliary this Tuesday in the Centennial Room at six o'clock for dinner ($1.25). Reservations should reach the parish office before Saturday morning.

The Evening Auxiliary is a group of business and professional women and others who cannot attend a daytime meeting. It is open to all, no special invitation is necessary. You will find a warm welcome when you come.

NOW IT IS NOVEMBER, LOYALTY SUNDAY IS THE 23RD

PLAN NOW to be in church on Sunday, November 23, at 11 o'clock as an expression of your loyalty to the Church of the Holy Trinity and its work. If you plan ahead, then you can be there. Won't you do that? Mark your calendar NOW. Not only your pledge, but your presence will strengthen all we do. The Rector has asked 80 members of the parish to participate as workers on Loyalty Sunday.

THE MEN'S CLUB meets Tuesday evening, November 11, with Mr. C. Edwin Max, Manager of the Traffic Engineering and Safety Bureau, the Automobile Club of Philadelphia, as the speaker. Dinner is $1.50. Send in your reservations promptly.

SOMEONE has written: "Many people are like blotters. They soak up everything but get it all backwards." Sometimes, the preacher wonders if it isn't so.

CLASSES are meeting and they are your opportunity: The Confirmation Class (open to anyone wishing to attend is on Sunday afternoons at 2:30; the Bible Classes (identical classes) are on Monday evenings at 7:45, and Tuesday mornings at 10:45; a Class in Christian thought and writing, on Wednesday evenings at 7:45.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Awake, put on thy strength, O Zion! put on thy beautiful garments. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem. For the Lord hath comforted His people, He hath redeemed Jerusalem. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem, praise thy God O Zion. For He hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; He hath blessed thy children within thee. Trust in the Lord, trust ye forever; for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength. Blessed art Thou, O Lord God of our fathers, and greatly to be praised and glorified and highly forever. Blessing and honour, glory and power be unto Him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb forever and ever. Amen.

MEN'S CLUB MEETS TUESDAY NIGHT

Beginning with dinner at 6:30 next Tuesday evening, November 11, in the Centennial Room, the Men's Club will meet with Mr. C. Edwin Max, Manager of the Traffic Engineering and Safety Bureau of the Automobile Club of Philadelphia, as the speaker.

Although many of the men of the parish live near the church, also many others are widely scattered areas. For instance there is a family in Devon, and in Collingswood, N. J.; in Lansdowne and in Kensington; in Keswick and also Germantown. All are active in the life of the parish but seldom see each other at other times. The Men's Club brings the men of the parish together in a social fellowship which, as we are, we greatly need. All men of the parish are invited. No special invitation is necessary. The dinner is at 6:30. Call the parish office (LO 7-1267) at once and make a reservation.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, GUILD, MEETS NEXT THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Mrs. James G. Ludwig, Chairman of Christian Education for this Province, will be speaker at the Thursday, November 13 meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. "One Family in Christ" is the general theme of this year's program and Mrs. Ludwig's talk is entitled "The Church Family in the United States." She will give a report on the Triennial Convention in Miami. This subject is one in which church members are interested and Mrs. Ludwig is particularly well fitted to report on it.

The meeting begins with the service of Holy Communion in the church at the 11:15 noon service, followed by luncheon at one o'clock in the Parish House. All women of the parish are invited. No special invitation is necessary.

Please make reservations for lunch ($1.00) early. It is important that they reach the parish office, 1904 Walnut Street, by MONDAY, November 10, to allow sufficient time for adequate preparation. Telephone LO 7-1267 or mail a card in plenty of time.

DISCUSSION ON CRIME AND PUNISHMENT MONDAY, NOVEMBER 17

In the Centennial Room, beginning with dinner at 6:30 ($2.00) Monday evening, November 17, Professor Caleb Foote, University of Pennsylvania Law School, will lead a discussion, under the auspices of the Department of Christian Social Relations, on "Crime and Punishment." Anyone is welcome. Reservations should be made through Mrs. Harry Angstadt (SU 9-9086) or call the parish office (LO 7-1267).

LOYALTY SUNDAY TEAM PLANS FOR NOVEMBER 23

As this Bulletin goes to press, the following have accepted positions on the Loyalty Sunday Team: Chairman, F. R. Goehring; Captains, Charles W. H. Bancroft, Admiral Jack F. Bowling, Merrill A. Kercher, Dr. Barook J. Masuda, Harvey E. Schock, Jr., and Scott Stewart. Members of the Team: Kenneth S. Baird, May Belle Baird, Mrs. Charles H. Bancroft, Mrs. Helen W. Barber, Ann Becker, Neale C. Bringham, Carolyn A. Hanna, Mrs. Hilda Chaddick, Mrs. Evelyn G. Clark, Charlotte E. Coffman, Sophia Ewell, Mrs. Howard A. Foster, Austin J. Gaugler, Mrs. F. R. Goehring, David Greenwood, Mary Harper, Robert S. Heitz, Margaret Holloway, Lydia Jenks, Mrs. Priscilla S. Kitchel, William E. Krall, Mr. and Mrs. Humbert Lanzi, Ada Layman, Donald S. Leas, Julia Lighton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Leyshon, Florence Loos, John P. Lutz, Marjorie E. Penn, Penn MacGrann, Mary Maguire, Eleanor Meagher, Britten Murdoch, Mary C. Nelson, Arthur Parkinson, Mrs. Clyde Pinney, Robert B. Platt, Charles L. Rapp, Salome Riegner, Edith T. Roll, Douglas A. Schoerke, Murray R. Smith, Allison V. Smith, Walter R. Storey, Alma Tomlin, Emma Tomlin, Marjorie Turner, Jane W. Tyas, William Van Doren, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walton, Elizabeth Webster, Rodman P. Bright, Mrs. Ruth R. Taxdal, and Margaret W. Warner.

Everyone's part in Loyalty Sunday is his or her attendance at church at 11 o'clock on November 23. Plan now to give priority to this engagement on that day. We are workers together with God.

EXTRA OPPORTUNITIES

SUNDAY, 2:30—The Adult Confirmation Class, although too late for new confirmation candidates, is always open to anyone wishing to attend. This Sunday's Class is about "The Church's Sacraments."

MONDAY, 7:45 P. M. Bible Class on the Psalms (repeated Tuesday at 10:45 A. M.)
WEDNESDAY, 7:45 P. M., Class on the works of Thomas a' Kempis (Leader, Mr. Harper).

CLOTHING IS STILL NEEDED

In many areas of the world, clothing the naked is still a paramount problem. You can help through Church World Service by bringing clothing this Sunday and leaving it in the cartons provided in the church porch. Anything in reasonably good condition is acceptable.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Thy Kingdom is an everlasting kingdom and Thy dominion endureth through all generations. One generation shall praise Thy works to another, and shall declare Thy mighty acts. The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; the Lord is good to all, and His tender mercies are over all His works. All Thy works shall praise Thee, O Lord, and Thy saints shall bless Thee; they shall speak of the glory of Thy Kingdom, and tell of Thy power; to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of His kingdom. The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that are bowed down. The eyes of all wait on Thee; Thou openest Thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him in truth. Amen.

HONOR THE LORD WITH THY SUBSTANCE LOYALTY SUNDAY IS A DAY OF WORSHIP

Sunday, November 23, is Loyalty Sunday at Holy Trinity when all our members are asked to attend church and, in a great act of faith and witness, to make either a financial pledge or a personal pledge of loyalty to the work of this Christian fellowship in the coming year.

The Rector has asked 79 members of the parish to help in making Loyalty Sunday what it should be. The Rector's Warden is the Honorary Chairman of the Loyalty Sunday Team, R. F. Goehring is the Executive Chairman. His Captains are: Charles W. Bancroft, Jack F. Bowling, Merrill A. Kercher, Barook J. Masuda, Harvey E. Schock, and S. Scott Stewart. Other members of the team are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Roman, Kenneth S. Baird, May B. Baird, Mrs. Charles W. H. Bancroft, Mrs. Helen W. Ber, Ann Becker, Barbara Blair, Neale C. Bringhurst, Rodman P. Bright, Carolyn A. Gna, Mrs. Hilda Chaddick, Mrs. Evelyn G. Clark, Charlotte E. Coffman, Margaret Glesch, Carola Collings, Donald Danenhower, Sophia Ewell, Mrs. Howard A. Foster, Martin J. Gausel, Mrs. F. R. Goehring, David Greenwood, Mary K. Harper, Robert S. H. Margaret Holloway, Lydia Jenks, Mrs. Priscilla S. Kitchel, William E. Walton, Margaret W.aner, Elizabeth Webster, Betty Wilson, James Wiley, and Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager.

The Loyalty Sunday Team will meet for dinner this week on Thursday evening, November 20, promptly at six o'clock, and for lunch on Sunday, November 23, immediately after the Loyalty Service.

During this coming week, all will receive a letter from the Wardens of the parish, and a phone call, perhaps a personal call, from one of the Loyalty Team members not regard to your pledge, but only to urge your attendance at church next Sunday. Those who cannot be at church will be called on Sunday afternoon or during the following week; but your Rector greatly hopes that, rain or shine, you will be in church.

FROM THE BAZAAR CHAIRMAN

To the many persons who contributed to the Bazaar on November 6. This message comes through the parish leaflet because only in this way can the Bazaar Committee reach and thank all those who, by their good wishes and interest, their active help and by their donations, made this year's Missionary Bazaar a successful one. The Bazaar Committee is most grateful for and appreciative of your help. A financial statement is not available at this time. It will appear later on.

TWO DIOCESAN EVENTS THIS WEEK

Monday night in the Centennial Room with dinner at 6:30 o'clock, there is a meeting sponsored by the Diocesan Department of Christian Social Relations to hear Professor Caleb Foote of the University of Pennsylvania Law School, speak on "Crime and Punishment." A discussion will follow. A reservation for this dinner may be made by sending a remittance ($2 for each one) to Mrs. Harry Angstadt, 906 Shadeland Ave., Boxel Hill, (SU 9-9086).

Wednesday night in the church at eight o'clock, the Diocesan United Thank Offering presentation will be made at a special service. The service will be preceded by a dinner in the Centennial Room at 6:30. Tickets to the dinner are $1.50. Reservations must be made through the Women's Auxiliary Office, 202 W. Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia. (LO 7-6650).

A PRAYER

I would be true, for there are those who trust me; I would be pure, for there are those who care; I would be strong, for there is much to suffer; I would be brave, for there is much to dare; I would be friends of all, the foe, the friendless; I would be giving, and forget the gift; I would be humble, for I know my weakness; I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift; How can this be, for well I know my hours; Unless there comes grace, strength, and love from Thee, O King of Love, my Father and my Saviour; Grant these I pray. To serve Thee, set me free.

HOURS OF SERVICE ON THANKSGIVING DAY

9 A. M., Holy Communion; 11 A. M., Morning Prayer; 12:15 Noon, Holy Communion

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed, because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge, others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time. May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in, or ill, or prevented by conditions of work, and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

$44,007.06 PLEDGED LAST SUNDAY

A loyal congregation led by General Chairman F. R. Goehring, aided by Captains Charles W. H. Bancroft, Jack F. Bowling, Merrill A. Kercher, Barook J. Masuda, Harvey Schock, Jr., and S. Scott Stewart, and assisted by 80 team members, pledged $2,000 more than last year and exceeded all previous Sunday totals last Sunday with pledges totaling $44,007.06.

Of course, there are many persons, ill or out of town, who are still to be heard from before a final total can be given. If we are to carry on our present work, a sum of more than $50,000 in pledges is needed.

Next week's Bulletin will carry a further analysis by teams with a word of thanks for all, every team member and captain.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY AT 6 P. M.

The Rector will talk about his European trip and show his slides at the Evening Auxiliary meeting this coming Tuesday, December 2, beginning with dinner in the Centennial Room at six o'clock.

The Evening Auxiliary is especially for women of the parish who cannot attend a daytime meeting. All are welcome and no special invitation is needed to attend.

The dinner is $1.25 and reservations may be made by calling the parish office (7-1267). All reservations should be made by Saturday, November 29. For further information, see the back cover of this Bulletin.

QUIET DAY FOR WOMEN NEXT WEDNESDAY

Next Wednesday, December 3, from 10:30 A. M. to 12:30 (noon), sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, a "quiet morning" of meditation and prayer will be held at Saint Mark's 1625 Locust St. The leader is the Rev. Arthur C. Kelsey, Chaplain, General Theological Seminary, whose meditation subject is "Silence." All women may attend.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE CHOIR sings "Rejoice, Beloved Christians" by Buxtehude at the 11 o'clock service this Sunday morning.

SPECIAL MUSIC, SUNDAY NIGHT, at the 8 o'clock service will be heard when a group of woodwinds and brasses from the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music will play during the offertory.

THE MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION is set for Sunday, December 7, at the 8 o'clock service. The new Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School will be the speaker at the breakfast following the service.

THE RECTOR has been invited to offer a prayer at the reception honoring the new pastor of the First Baptist Church of Philadelphia, the Rev. Doctor Owen M. Weatherly, next Friday evening.

NEW FORWARDS, beginning this Sunday, are available at ten cents in the Church. Each. If you are not using these daily meditations, we suggest that you take a look. Almost 200 of our members are now using them.

DECEMBER 14 is Confirmation Sunday.

THE POST OFFICE asks us to mail early, add zone numbers, separate local and out of town mail.

DEAN LUCAS SPEAKS THIS SUNDAY AT COMMUNION BREAKFAST

The acting Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School, the Very Reverend Albert H. Lucas, will be the speaker at the breakfast following the Men's Advent Corporate Communion this Sunday morning at eight o'clock. All men of the parish are urged to attend service and to hear Dean Lucas afterward.

THIS SUNDAY NIGHT'S TRINITY CLUB PROGRAM, 6 P. M.

"Martin Buber" is the topic for Trinity Club's supper meeting at six o'clock Sunday evening. The speaker will be Maurice Friedman, Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy of Religion, Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, New York, and author of "Martin Buber."

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD MEETS THIS COMING THURSDAY

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, day group, will meet on Thursday, December 11, following with Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service, followed by a luncheon in the parish house at one o'clock.

The Rev. Brewster Y. Beach, Director of Christian Education for the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will be the speaker. Continuing this year's program theme—"One Family in Christ," Mr. Beach's talk will be specifically about "The Church of South India," a new communion in the Church formed of several existing communions including the Anglican. This is an intensely interesting subject because it is a possible pattern for reunited Protestantism everywhere in the world. All women of the parish are cordially welcome, no special invitation is needed.

Please make reservations for lunch ($1.00) early. It is important that they reach the parish house, 1904 Walnut St., by Monday, December 8. Telephone LO 7-1267, or write for a card in plenty of time.

Received By Transfer From Other Episcopal Parishes During 1958

MRS. S. TAYLOR CREIGHTON, MRS. HENRY E. EHLERS, MISS EVELYN FOERING, ELIZABETH BALLOCH FOX, MISS LYDIA K. HARMER, MISS GRACE, G. HAUPT, MARY G. LEE, MRS. VIRGINIA ZANE LINGENFELDER, MRS. ALEXANDER OF, GILBERT L. PARKER, JR., MISS MAE PETERMAN, MISS JANET BREMNER
S. WAYNE SOUTHARD ROWELL, MISS ELSIE A. STAUFFER, MRS. GEORGE R.
MRS. WILLIAM G. SWIGERT, MISS LIZ VOSBERG, MISS CLELLA WHITMAN, S. LEWIS G. WILSON, and MISS LORRAINE P. WINDSOR.

Note: The Church Canon regarding transfers from parish to parish reads as follows:
A communicant or baptized member in good standing, removing from one parish to another, shall be entitled to receive and shall procure a letter of transfer." Bishop Hart comments on this as follows: "If a person moves from one locality to another and still desires to go back to the parish in which he was confirmed and be active in that parish, the Church encourages him to do so. If a person moves to a new locality and is not going to remain active in his own parish, the Rector of the former parish should encourage him to ask for a letter of transfer."

WE WELCOME BISHOP ROBERTS

It is our great privilege to have Bishop Roberts, assistant to Bishop Hart, as the crucifier and preacher at the Confirmation service today. Bishop Roberts is a Virginian by birth, graduated from Yale University in 1909, and the Episcopal Theological School in 1914. His ministry before coming to Philadelphia was spent in China and he became Bishop of Shanghai in 1937. The Bishop and the Roberts family have long been known to your Rector from associations with them at Nantucket since the early 1900's.
Bishop Roberts' saintly mother was a second mother to many of us who "grew up" in the summer at 'Sconset in Nantucket. She is a vivid memory and one of your Rector's private saints.

DICKENS FELLOWSHIP INVITES US TO HEAR JOHN GREAVES

Next Thursday, December 18, at 8:15 P. M. in the Centennial Room the Dickens Fellowship, Philadelphia Branch, will have as its speakers, Mr. W. Neville Oglesby and Mr. John Greaves. Mr. Greaves is Secretary of the headquarters of the Dickens Fellowship in London. He has been a winner in the $64,000 contest in England and one of the world's best-known authorities on Charles Dickens. Members of Holy Trinity are invited to hear these speakers. There is no admission charge.

The Christmas Services

TUESDAY—Decoration of the church at 7:15 P. M. Come one, come all.

WEDNESDAY—The Midnight Service begins at 11 P. M.

THURSDAY—Christmas Day, Holy Communion at 8 and 11 A. M.

The Feast of Christmas is followed by two days of particular significance. On the following Christmas, there is the commemoration of the first Christian to give his life for his faith—Saint Stephen. It was he who was stoned after a courageous sermon and youthful enthusiasm in which he denounced his fellow Jews for their rejection of Jesus.

Two days after Christmas, we keep Saint John, the Evangelist's day. He is depicted in the Gospel as the Apostle who was closest to Jesus, "The disciple whom Jesus loved."

The services on these two days, Friday and Saturday of this coming week, are at 8 A. M. and 12:15 (noon).

HELP DECORATE THE CHURCH FOR CHRISTMAS

Join our "happy throng" again this year on Tuesday night, December 23, in the church at 7:15 and help decorate the church for Christmas. Wear your old clothes. Sing carols together, enjoy some refreshments at the close of the evening. This is an invitation to each and all of you. Come one, come all.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING

In the Christmas programs which should reach you this Monday, there is an offering envelope for your Christmas gift to the Church. The Christmas offering is a parish offering and one in which the parish, as a whole, participates with joy each year.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE RECTOR has always made it a practice to send no Christmas cards in particular to members of the parish. It would be an impersonal gesture at best. But all members of the parish are indeed in his thoughts and prayers at this holy season. He wishes for everyone the experience of the deep joy and faith which comes to those who find their Saviour in the blessed Child of Bethlehem.

TRANSFERRED to Holy Trinity during the past year, and omitted in error from mention last week is Julia Leighton. Miss Leighton was commended to the pastoral care of this parish by the Vicar of Wilton, Taunton, Somerset, England. Formal "letters of transfer" are not part of the English system but we now happily consider Miss Leighton very much a part of our parish and its life.

EXCERPT FROM A SERMON BY DR. SHOEMAKER

Samuel M. Shoemaker, Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, recently said, "Creation itself is both a spiritual and a material thing. God is the Source and Creator of it, but God is not out of nothing because it was His will that a material nature should increasingly show forth His glory. True religion is intense in its spiritual conviction, but it is concerned with the redemption of the body and of all nature. It is for us, not so much to despise material things, as to seek to make them glorify God by right use. Atomic energy can turn the world into a grave-yard, but it can also help turn it into a garden, if the men who control it use it for the right ends."

The Midnight Service of Holy Communion

WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT 11 O'CLOCK

Tonight's service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing "O Come, All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphal ending when the "Gloria in Excelsis," followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" and finally at the very end, "The Hallelujah Chorus," is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion, if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during the time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

Choral Prelude: Christmas Antiphon	Hymnal, Chant
The Processional Hymn: 12	"O Come, All Ye Faithful"
The Introit: "I Know a Rose-Tree Springing"	Practon
The Call to Prayer (the congregation kneels)

The Lord's Prayer
The Prayer of Humility
Hymn 21
The Holy Communion	"O Little Town of Bethlehem"

During this period, Christmas carols will be sung softly. The congregation is urged to join in the singing with the choir. The words will be found on the opposite page of this folder.

Prayer of Thanksgiving	Prayer Book, page 8
Hymn of Thanksgiving "Gloria, in Excelsis, Deo"	Noble
The Benediction

Be Joyful, sing the Hymns and Carols with the Choir
Especially during the time of Communion, while all who wish to receive Holy Communion are coming to the Altar, the congregation is invited to sing carols with the choir.

Shepherds watched their flocks by night
Seated on the ground,
An angel of the Lord came down,
His glory shone around.
He said, said he, for mighty dread
He seized their troubled mind
His tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind
You in David's town this day
Born of David's line
His Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From heav'n's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heav'nly music floats
O'er all the weary world;

All my heart this night rejoices
As I hear, far and near,
Sweetest angel voices.
"Christ is born," their choirs are singing
Till the air everywhere
Now with joy is ringing.

3. Come, then, let us hasten yonder!
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder!
Love him who with love is yearning!
Hail the star that from far
Bright with hope is burning! Hymn 32

Angels from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye, who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:

Refrain:
Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn King.

Also Hymns 43, 31

The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.
Thus spake the seraph and forthwith,
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
All glory be to God on high
And on the earth be peace
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease. —Hymn 13

Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hov'ring wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The tidings which they bring;
O hush the noise ye men of strife
And hear the angels sing! Hymn 19

2. Hark! a voice from yonder manger,
Soft and sweet, doth entreat:
"Flee from woe and danger!
Brethren, come! from all doth grieve
you,
You are freed; all you need
I will surely give you."

2. Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing
Yonder shines the infant Light:
3. Saints before the Altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His Temple shall appear. Hymn 28

Holy Communion, 7:30, 12:15 Noon

BACKWARDS AND FORWARDS

Looking back on 1958, it was the year of "the big Sunday snowstorm" when many churches were closed, but we had over a hundred in church, received 1500 letters and more than $2000 from radio listeners. In February, William H. DuBarry, Rector's Warden, and long-time servant of the parish passed from this life. The Rector asked Francis Chesterman to succeed him. The Reverend Ralph Harper became Associate Rector
March 1. William G. Pollard, Priest-Physicist, Director of Nuclear Studies at Oak Brook, was the Bohlen lecturer. Martin Niemoeller, famed German pastor, spoke at Trinity. Others who preached at Holy Trinity during the year included the Reverend Roy D. Deasy, of London; the Reverend Terence J. Finlay, the Right Reverend William H. Marmion, the Reverend Joseph N. Wittkofski, the Right Reverend Nelson M.
Houghs, the Reverend Tom Edwards, the Reverend Michael D. Townroe, and the Very Reverend W. P. Shannon. Thirty-seven people became members of the parish, either by letter or confirmation. Of course, many other significant things happened—probably the most significant were unsung consolations and inspiration, regenerations that occurred in many lives. The parish had a healthy, normal year.

Now ahead, we are about to repaint the interior of the church, we are studying plans and means in relation to a new or rebuilt chancel organ, we are looking forward to such Lenten preachers as Bishop Tom Jones, of Australia; the Very Reverend Chester Emerson, of Ohio; the Very Reverend William S. Lea, of Denver; the Reverend Percy Rex, of Delaware; the Reverend Laman H. Bruner, Jr., of Albany; and the Reverend Frederick W. Kates, of Baltimore. The Bohlen Lecturer is the Reverend Massey Shepherd, one of the outstanding scholars of the Anglican Communion. There is a possibility of a visit by the Archbishop, of York, in the fall of this year.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY, JANUARY 6

With the Reverend John V. Butler, S.T.D., Rector of Trinity Church, Princeton, New Jersey, as the special speaker, the Evening Auxiliary meets for dinner this coming Tuesday in the Centennial Room at six o'clock. The Evening Auxiliary welcomes all business and professional women and also all who cannot attend a day time meeting. No special invitation is necessary. Please make reservations for the dinner ($1.25) by Saturday, January 3 (LO 7-1267).

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD ALSO MEETS THIS COMING WEEK

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will meet on Thursday, January 8, beginning with the Service of Holy Communion in the church at 12:15 noon, followed by luncheon in the parish house at one o'clock.

The subject for this meeting, the first in the new year, is the "Community Family," the fourth in the series of this season's program, "One Family in Christ." Three members of our parish who give of their time, serving the community in various ways, will speak briefly of the particular service they render.

All women of the church are invited to come, no special invitation is necessary.
It is important that reservations for lunch be made EARLY, not later than Monday, January 5, to allow sufficient time for adequate preparation. Telephone the parish office
LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

JANUARY SERIES OF LECTURES

The Associate Rector will give a series of four lectures on "The Poetry of Meditation" on the four Wednesday evenings of January, at 7:45 in the Centennial Room. The dates and poets are as follows: January 7, John Donne; January 14, George Herbert; January 21, Gerald Manley Hopkins; January 28, T. S. Eliot.

DIOCESAN CHURCH NEWS SEEKS SUBSCRIBERS

In the pews on Sunday, envelopes will be found into which you may place a dollar and so become a subscriber to the Diocesan Church News. Sample copies of the Church News may be seen on tables in the church porch. Someone has said that the Diocesan paper is one way to save a parish from ingrown parochialism. It helps us to be part of the greater Diocesan family.

MEN'S CLUB MEETS ON JANUARY 13

The next meeting of the Men's Club is on Tuesday, January 13, beginning with dinner at 6:30 in the Centennial Room. The committee for this meeting is Neale C.
Ingthurst, John W. Gilmore, Robert S. Kitchel, Robert Leak, Horace Y. Rogers, and
Harvey E. Schock, Jr. An announcement of the meeting will come to you in the mail.
Please return the reservation card promptly.

MEN'S CLUB MEETS THIS TUESDAY, 6:30 P. M.

The Radio Corporation of America is providing the Men's Club Dinner program for coming Tuesday, January 13, at 6:30 P. M. An illustrated talk on the increasingly interesting subject of “Automation in the Business Office” will be given. It will be about machines that think and what makes them tick with comments on present research and what lies ahead. Bring your friends. The price of the dinner is $1.50. Send your reservation (or call the Parish Office, LO 7-1267) immediately.

The Men's Club Committee for this meeting is Neale C. Bringhurst, John Wilson, more, Robert S. Kitchel, Robert Leak, Horace Y. Rogers, and Harvey E. Schock, Jr.

PRINCE OF PEACE CHAPEL GIVEN SINK OR SWIM ADVICE

After founding and aiding in the support for many years of a chapel known as the Prince of Peace Chapel at 22nd and Morris Streets, the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity has advised the chapel membership that further support will be withdrawn three years in 1962. By then, it is hoped that the Prince of Peace Church will have become a self-supporting parish; and that, at that time, the property, now owned by the Church of the Holy Trinity, can be turned over to them and further support withdrawn. During 1958, the Church of the Holy Trinity gave $4,276.19 toward the support of the Prince of Peace Chapel.

CHURCH INTERIOR REPAINTING STARTS ON MONDAY

The interior walls of the church will be repainted during the coming week under the direction of Robert J. Walton, contractor, who is also one of our own members.

NEW DOORS GIVEN IN MEMORY OF HARRY HUNT STEWART

Friends of Harry Hunt Stewart who passed from this life on December 6, 1958, instead of sending flowers at the time of his funeral, have sent money for a memorial fund and have asked that the present shabby doors at the back of the nave be replaced by new ones in his memory. This will be done and the new doors should be in place within a month.

Mr. Stewart's daughter, Elizabeth Rahn Stewart, is a member of Holy Trinity. Her father had retired after being an executive officer with the Bethlehem Steel Company and was living with her in Philadelphia.

THE REVEREND RALPH HARPER ACCEPTS PARISH IN MARYLAND

After less than a year's residence in Philadelphia, the Reverend Ralph Harper has agreed to accept the rectorship of Saint James' Parish, Monkton, Maryland. He will enter upon his new duties on February 1.

LENT IS ONLY A MONTH AWAY

February 11 is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of an early Lent which will see Easter coming on March 29. The earliest possible date for Easter is March 22. Between 1900 and 2013, the earliest date was in 1913 when it fell on March 23 and will again fall on that date in 2008.

Most of us need not worry about the latter date, but this year's February 11 and March 29 concerns us now. During Lent, our noon-day speakers will include Bishop Samuel Jones, of Australia; the Very Reverend Chester B. Emerson, the Very Reverend William S. Lea, the Reverend Percy F. Rex, the Reverend Laman H. Bruner, Jr., and the Reverend Frederick W. Kates.

During Dean Lea's visit, the week of February 23 through February 27, there will be a School of Prayer every evening. The members of the parish are earnestly urged to set this week aside now that this opportunity may come first.

A PRAYER FOR THE PRESENCE OF CHRIST

“O living Christ, make us conscious now of Thy Healing nearness. Touch our eyes that we may see Thee; Open our ears that we may hear Thy Voice; Enter our hearts that we may know Thy love. Overshadow our souls and bodies with Thy Presence, that we may partake of Thy Strength, Thy Love, and Thy Healing Life.”

Members of the Altar Guild for January are: Elizabeth Laws, Mary E. Maguire, and Mary G. Sharpe.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

"Who knocks tonight so late?" the weary porter said. Three Kings stood at the gate, each with a crown on head. The serving man bowed down; the inn was full, he knew. Said he, "In all this town is no fit place for you." A light the manger lit; there lay the Mother meek. Said they, "This place is fit. Here is the rest we seek!" They loosed their latchet strings, so stood they all unshod. Come in, come in, ye Kings and Kiss the feet of God.
—Laurence Housman.

6:00 P. M.—Trinity Club Supper

(Centennial Room)

Supper Speaker: Leonard D. Savitz, Instructor in Sociology, Temple University.
Topic: "A Sociologist Looks at Capital Punishment."

8:00 P. M.—Evening Prayer

Crucifer: John Byrne

The students and faculty of Combs College of Music will present excerpts from Mendelssohn's "Elijah." This year marks the 150th anniversary of the birth of Mendelssohn.

SCHOOL OF PRAYER WITH DOCTOR LEA FEBRUARY 23-27

Many will remember with gratitude the Mission two years ago conducted by the Rev. William S. Lea, the editor of the Episcopal Church News, and now Dean of St. John's Cathedral, Denver, one of the great Episcopal Churches today with over 100 communicant members. Doctor Lea is to be our noon-day Lenten preacher for the week of Monday, February 23 through Friday, February 27. He has not only conducted but in his gracious and earnest way offered to conduct a School of Prayer on the evenings of that week.
You are urged now to save the dates of February 23 through February 27 for what will be a fascinating experience under Doctor Lea's leadership.

RECENT TRANSFERS TO AND FROM HOLY TRINITY

We welcome into our fellowship as transferred members the following people who have been received since December 15: Mr. and Mrs. Allee Burpee, 1830 Rittenhouse Square, from the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr; Jeanne Warren Mohrman, 2216 Rittenhouse Square, from the Church of the Redeemer, New York.

The following have transferred from Holy Trinity: Mrs. Helen Paul Cleaver to Saint Mary's, Stone Harbor, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, to Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, Mich.; John Cooke Hirst, III, to Saint Martin's Radnor; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hirst, to Trinity, Oxford; Mrs. Ellen Fisher Howard to All Saints', Rhawnhurst; Robert Longley, to Saint Peter's, Malvern; Mrs. Jean Williams Lunney, to Saint Thomas', Westchester; Mr. and Mrs. John Rightor to Ascension, Pittsburgh; and Douglas A. Schoerke, Jr., to Saint Mary's, Wayne.

THE BISHOP WHITE PARISH LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

The Bishop White Parish Library Association makes grants for theological books to members of the Episcopal Church. The importance of books to our clergy in their study and the preparation of sermons cannot be overemphasized. Because of a lack of funds the grants, which previously were $50 each, have been reduced to $25 (nor does this grant go as far as it once did) and many requests have been rejected. Contributions, large or small, will be gratefully received and may be sent to Mrs. Walter Bartholomew, Jr., 2401 Pine Street, Philadelphia 3, Pa. Phone LO 7-7369.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4:30 P. M.

THE REVEREND JOHN E. SKINNER has consented to assist at certain services and meetings during the interim between Mr. Harper's going and the securing of a successor. Dr. Skinner is on the faculty of the Philadelphia Divinity School teaching Historical Theology and Ecclesiastical History.

EVERY THURSDAY at 12:15, there is a service of Holy Communion. Although the Rector includes many in his daily prayers, at this service in particular we remember their Christian names the sick and troubled of the parish at the Altar of Holy Communion. Requests for prayers for people or for other special intercessions should be addressed to the Rector at the Parish Office.

EDITORIAL

Almost constantly, the Rector is asked to present some contribution seeking proposal to the parish—all of them for good and worthy causes. For instances, there will have been presented during this one month the plea for subscriptions by the Diocesan Church News, the plea in the paragraph above about the Bishop White Library Association, and, next Sunday is the annual Theological Education Offering Sunday. Other causes such as the March of Dimes have asked that we mention them. And so goes.

Some causes we mention, some we don't. What we hope is that no one will feel under any obligation to contribute. Our annual giving, which we designate on Loyalty Sunday, is in the nature of an obligation laid on each member although even it is not a compulsory one. All the other "special offerings" which are mentioned are wholly within each person's discretion to give or not to give. Some may be particularly interested in such a project as books for clergy on small salaries, others especially in theological education, and so forth, but the mention of such things, each should understand, has no sense of "you ought to give." It is merely a calling of such things to attention.

HORACE Y. ROGERS ELECTED TO VESTRY FRANCIS F. MILNE CHOSE AS VESTRYMAN EMERITUS

At its meeting last Monday, the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity honored Francis F. Milne, a Vestryman for 38 years, by choosing him as the first Vestryman Emeritus of the parish. Mr. Milne, who has been ill for several years, was formerly Singing Warden. He was elected to the Vestry in 1921.

In Mr. Milne's place, the Vestry elected Horace Y. Rogers. Mr. Rogers is a Supervisor Auditor in the United States General Accounting Department.

Responsibility for plans in relation to "the organ situation" was placed in the hands of the Music Committee of the Vestry composed of Charles W. H. Bancroft, Chairman; Admiral Jack F. Bowling, and Merrill A. Kercher.

Other standing Vestry committees are: Finance, F. J. Chesterman, chairman; Francis F. Milne, C. C. Morris, and Holstein Fox; Property, F. R. Goehring, chairman; Admiral James L. Kauffman, Frank B. Murdoch, and S. Scott Stewart; on the Prince of Peace
Cape, Admiral James L. Kauffman, chairman; William M. West, F. J. Chesterman,
C. C. Morris; Holiday House, Merrill A. Kercher, chairman, and Frank B. Murdoch.

NOON-DAY SERIES AND SCHOOL OF PRAYER DURING LENT

The group of noon-day preachers during Lent is one of the most interesting we have ever had. The services begin on Ash Wednesday with a Bishop from Australia, the Right Reverend Tom Jones, who is famous in Australia for his work in the "outback" desert areas, including work with the primitive Aborigines—said to be the least civilized of any peoples on earth. Bishop Jones' Diocese is Willochra.

Following him, comes a man well-known to Philadelphians, the Very Reverend Father B. Emerson, formerly Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland. He is, of course, an outstanding preacher.

All in the parish are rejoicing, also, in the return for the week of February 23 to William S. Lea, former editor of the Episcopal Church News and now Dean of the fifth largest parish in the nation, Saint John's Cathedral, Denver. During his week of service, Doctor Lea will conduct a School of Prayer every evening as well as preaching the noon-day services.

Following Doctor Lea comes a new neighbor, the Reverend Percy F. Rex, Rector of Trinity, Wilmington. Doctor Rex was formerly Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland, succeeding Dean Emerson there.

During the week of March 9 to 13, another Holy Trinity "favorite preacher" will be here—the Reverend Laman H. Bruner, Rector of Saint Peter's, Albany. The preacher during Passion Week is the Reverend Frederick W. Kates, Rector of Saint Paul's, Baltimore. During Holy Week, as has been our custom, the preacher is a Philadelphia comer—this time, the new Rector of Saint Peter's, the Reverend Joseph Koci, Jr.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE REVEREND RALPH HARPER preaches his last sermon at Holy Trinity this day before leaving to become Rector of Saint James, Monkton, Md.

MONDAY, SAINT PAUL'S DAY, Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 (noon).

NEW DOORS of solid walnut will soon be placed at the rear of the church at each entrance to the nave. Admiral Bowling has advised the contractor about their design. The doors are being given in memory of Harry Hunt Stewart, by his daughter and her friends.

THE CHURCH NEWS of the Diocese can be mailed to your home, subscription $1.00, through the Church Office.

FLASH—Mr. Humphries, after 17 years as Verger, has resigned to take effect in a month. More next week.

THE CHURCH IS CONTEMPORARY

One of the most significant things which has happened in any area in the last years, has been in church architecture which has gone "contemporary" from the oldest churches to such great ones as the new Cathedral in Coventry, England. It is an evidence of the vitality of the present day church. But this trend has not only been in building. Other fields within the Church have known it, too. For instance, a part of the Anglican Church, in England, the Reverend Geoffrey Beaumont, Vicar of St. George's, Camberwell, has recently written music for the service of Holy Communion which he calls a "Twentieth Century Folk Mass." Actually, it is set in a jazz idiom. The Kyrie and Agnus Dei employ a beguine rhythm, there is a waltz in the Gloria, and jazzy syncopations abound throughout. The whole service is in a record for the title of "Twentieth Century Folk Mass." Shall we use it at Holy Trinity on Sunday?

Speaker tonight: Bishop Bayne

8:00 P. M.—Evening Prayer

Crucifer: John Byrne

Installation of Trinity Club Officers by the Reverend Edward B. Pollanick.

EVENING AUXILIARY TO HEAR CHRISTIAN ARAB

George I. Haddad, Middle East Christian, will speak to the Evening Auxiliary next Tuesday evening, February 3, at the six o'clock dinner in the Centennial Room. Mr. Haddad's subject is "Christian Concerns in the Middle East." His address will include colored slides. The Middle East is, today, a land of tensions between Arab and Jew, between West and East. Generally, our information is confusing. Mr. Haddad, himself a Middle Easterner, will speak with the authority of personal experience.

MR. POLLANICK TO INSTALL NEW TRINITY CLUB OFFICERS

This Sunday evening at the eight o'clock service, the Reverend Edward B. Pollanick, founder of Trinity Club, will return to Holy Trinity to install the new club officers. After the service, there will be a reception for the new officers. Mrs. James L. Pollanick, the wife of Admiral Kauffman, Trinity Club representative on the Vestry, will pour. She will be assisted by Mrs. Harry Longley, the Rector's wife.

The new club officers are: President, Charles Rogers; Vice President, Unada Gliewe; Secretary, Jean Huber; Treasurer, A. Richard Bird; Coffee Hour Chairman, Joan Miller; Assistant, Edward Lonergan; Hospitality Chairman, Rod Hohl, Assistant, Grace Zahn; Membership Chairman, Jane Fisher, Assistant, Lorraine Windsor; Publicity Chairman, Charles Wernitz, Assistant, Virginia Sheard; Social Chairman, Dorothy Nyholm, Assistant, Oscar Hariu; Social Service Chairman, Lee Ciorletti, Assistant, Thomas Goings; Supper Chairman, William Wilkins, Assistant, John Sader; Members-at-Large: Helen Abramchuk, Nancy Hess, Mary Lee, Nels Nelson, and Susan Trembly.

BISHOP BAYNE, TRINITY CLUB SPEAKER

After the six o'clock supper this Sunday night, at seven o'clock, Trinity Club members and their friends will have the rare privilege of hearing the Right Reverend Stephen F. Bayne, Jr., D. D., ST.D., Bishop of Olympia in the State of Washington. Beyond a doubt, Bishop Bayne is one of the great leaders in the Church today. His part in the Lambeth Conference last summer was generally recognized as the outstanding contribution made at the Conference.

NEW TRANSFERS TO HOLY TRINITY

We welcome as transferred members to Holy Trinity during the last two weeks, Mrs. Arthur U. Crosby, 1830 Rittenhouse Square; Frank L. Dittman, 6546 N. Ubert Street; John Edmond Smith became a member of Holy Trinity by Confirmation on January 5, 1959.

MEN'S CLUB TO HAVE TRAVELOGUE PROGRAM, FEBRUARY 10

One week from this coming Tuesday, February 10, is the date for the next dinner meeting of the Men's Club of Holy Trinity. The program of the evening is a series of travelogue films in color. Dinner is at six-thirty, the cost is $1.50. Get your reservations in early. Get acquainted with fellow Trinitarians at the Men's Club.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

MONDAY is the Feast of the Purification. Holy Communion is at 7:30; 12:15.

LENT BEGINS on February 11. Ash Wednesday services are at 7:30, 11:15, 12:25, 3:00.

NOON-DAY PREACHING begins on Ash Wednesday at the 12:25 service with Bishop John Jones, Bishop of Willochra, Australia, Member of the Order of the British Empire, and of Liverpool, as the preacher.

EDWIN HUMPHRIES RESIGNS AND WILL RETIRE

Edwin L. Humphries, for 17 years our Verger here at Holy Trinity, has resigned, to take effect in two months. Last Sunday, Mr. Humphries celebrated his seventieth birthday and although he could pass easily for a man 30 years younger, he has decided that discretion is the better part of valor. He will be greatly missed at Holy Trinity where his devotion to the church and his work has endeared him to all.

6:00 P. M.—Trinity Club Supper

Young adults, students, 20's and 30's cordially invited

"A Preview of Spring Fashions"—Mrs. Eleanor Hagstrom, Fashion Coordinator, Ladies Home Journal.

8:00 P. M.

The Evening Service will be a service of music by the choir of the Church of the Holy Trinity under the direction of Robert Knox Chapman, choirmaster and organist with Edith Wilson, soprano, and Katherine Chapman, contralto. The first half of the program will be unaccompanied and will include works of Vittoria, Lotti, and two Russian composers. The latter half will include numbers by Brahms and two modern composers.

The crucifer at the evening service will be Thomas Homeyard.

LENT BEGINS ON WEDNESDAY

The Church's annual six weeks' season of Revival begins this coming Wednesday. We say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves." If we say that we have no sin of Lent, we are self-deceived. All of us need its added worship, its added study, its added impetus to a greater fulfillment of God's will and purposes for Man through His lives. "Lord, help us to make our best try." Lent is one of God's answers to our prayer.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES

7:30 A.M.—The Holy Communion
11:15 A.M.—The Penitential Office
11:30 A.M.—The Holy Communion
12:25 Noon—The Noon-Day Preaching Service
5:30 P.M.—Evening Prayer and Meditation

THE DAILY SERVICES, EVERY DAY EXCEPT SATURDAY

12:25 to 12:55—Noon-Day Preaching
5:30 P.M.—Evening Prayer and Meditation
Thursday, 11:30 A.M., Holy Communion

WHY DON'T YOU DO THE EXTRA THING?

Why don't you tell your friends about the Noon-Day Preachers and bring them to the Noon-Day Service?

Why don't you plan to attend the 5:30 P. M. service of Evening Prayer just as often as you can? There is a very brief meditation at each service. It can be a blessing to you.

THE FIRST NOON-DAY PREACHER, BISHOP JONES

Bishop Jones, born in Liverpool, now the Bishop of Willochra, Australia, Pastor to Australia's "outback" people is the interesting man who is our first Lenten Noon-Day speaker beginning on Ash Wednesday and continuing on Thursday and Friday. The noon-day services are from 12:25 to 12:55.

MEN'S CLUB, TUESDAY NIGHT, DINNER AT 6:30

This coming Tuesday night, the Men's Club goes traveling by sound movies to India, Persia, and the Bahamas. The latter picture shows skin-divers in Caribbean waters and is an intensely interesting undersea picture.

All men of the parish and their friends are welcome at Men's Club. No other invitation is necessary. Dinner is $1.50. Get your reservation in early to LO 7-1267. The members of the committee for this meeting are: Austin J. Gaugel, Robert S. Heitz, Brook J. Masuda, Harry H. Matthews, Penn G. MacGrann, and James D. Wiley.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD, DAY GROUP, ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12

The Reverend Paul Washington, Vicar of Saint Cyprian's Mission, Philadelphia, and Chaplain at Eastern Penitentiary, is the speaker at the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild Luncheon next Thursday, February 12.

The meeting opens with the service of Holy Communion in the church. As this is the Lenten season, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 11:30 A. M. The Lenten Noon-Day service which will be at 12:25 will be concluded at 12:55.

Luncheon will be served in the parish house at one o'clock. All women of the parish are welcome, no special invitation is necessary but reservations for lunch ($1.00) must be made early. It is important that they reach the parish office, 1904 Walnut Street, by Monday, February 9, to allow sufficient time for adequate preparation. Telephone the parish office, LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

PLAN NOW FOR THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER, WEEK OF FEBRUARY 23

At 7:45 o'clock, Monday through Thursday night, February 23 through the 26th, there will be a School of Prayer led by the Very Reverend William S. Lea, Dean of Saint John's Cathedral, Denver. This is a rare opportunity to study Prayer. Dean Lea's leadership guarantees that it will be more than worthwhile. Set aside the week now and plan to attend.

READ RELIGIOUSLY DURING LENT

Visit the Bunting and Harris Bookstore down the street at 2022 Walnut, and pick up some religious Lenten reading. You will find there such books as Bishop Bayne's "In the Sight of the Lord" ($2.00); Thomas Kelly's classic "A Testament of Devotion" ($1.00); Martin Buber's "I and Thou" ($1.75) and many others.

The First Sunday In Lent

FEBRUARY 15, 1959

8:00 A. M.—Holy Communion

Server: Earl Thomas

10:50 A. M.—The Church School

11:00 A. M.—The Litany

Crucifer: Robert Heitz; Flag Bearer: Walter Storey.

Ushers: Neale C. Bringham, John J. Byrne, John W. Gilmore, James L. Kercher, Bar J. Masuda, Douglas A. Schoerke, and Robert J. Walton.

The Processional Hymn: 55....."Forty Days and Forty Nights"
Between stanzas three and four, the procession will pause while the new doors to the Nave on the side aisles and the center aisles are dedicated to the glory of God and in memory of Harry Hunt Stewart and Helena Rahn Stewart. The doors are the gift of their many friends and their daughter.

Introit (Hymn 466)—"God be in My Head".....Nichols

The Litany Hymn: 332 (1st stanza) ..... "Saviour When in Dust to Thine"
The Litany ..... Prayer Book, page

The Announcements

The Hymn before the Sermon: 550 ..... "Am I a Soldier of the Cross"
The Sermon: Preacher, the Rector.

This is the first sermon of five during Lent on "The Epistle to the Romans."

This is the nineteenth centenary of the writing of the Epistle by Saint Paul.

The Offertory: "Hear My Prayer" ..... Mendelssohn
The Offertory this morning is a Motet which takes about 11 minutes in performance: "Hear my prayer, O God incline Thine ear. Thyself from my petition do not hide. Take heed to me, hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee. Without Thee, all is dark, I have no guide. The enemy shouteth, the Godless come fast. Iniquity, hatred, upon me they cast. The wicked oppress me, ah, where shall I fly? Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry. My heart is sorely pained within my breast, my soul with deathly terror is oppressed, trembling and fearfulness upon me fall. With horror overwhelmed, Lord, hear my call. O for the wings of a dove. Far away would I roam. In the wilderness, build me a nest and remain there forever at rest."

The Doxology

The Closing Prayers and Benediction

The Recessional Hymn: 59 ..... "Lord, Who Throughout These Forty Days"

EDWARD LEWIS LEE ACCEPTS CALL TO HOLY TRINITY

Edward Lewis Lee, Jr., senior student at the General Theological Seminary has accepted our call to Holy Trinity and will begin his work as Curate in June. Mr. Lee graduates from the seminary on May 28. He will be ordained Deacon at Saint Thomas', a parish, his home parish, on Saturday, May 9.

Mr. Lee graduated from Brown University, cum laude with honors, in 1956. He is a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity, was editor of the Brown yearbook. At the seminary, Mr. Lee is Sacristan, President of the Seminary Theatre Guild which recently produced Wilder's "Skin of our Teeth," and is chairman of the program committee of the Missionary Society.

Mr. Lee was born in 1934, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis Lee, of Fort Washington.

CHESTER B. EMERSON, NOON-DAY PREACHER

The Very Reverend Chester B. Emerson, former Dean for 18 years of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland, needs no introduction to Philadelphia. For several years, he was a noon-day Lenten preacher at Saint Stephen's and is known to many as the summer pastor of Saint Anne's Church, Kennebunkport, Maine. He will preach at Holy Trinity every day this coming week from 12:25 to 12:55.

THE OPPORTUNITIES OF LENT

Every weekday (except Saturday), there is a preaching service at 12:25 and Evening Prayer at 5:30. On Thursday mornings, there is Holy Communion at 11:30. Of course, there is also Holy Communion every Sunday morning at eight o'clock.

At the service of Evening Prayer, there is a brief meditation each day. This service is promptly at six o'clock.

The impact of Lent is cumulative. It will be helpful to those who set up for themselves a program of attendance and reading and then discipline themselves in holding the program for the six weeks of Lent. Lent is a time of spiritual revival which can be helpful to you if you will use it. Opportunities are available. Their use is up to you.

THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER, FEBRUARY 23 THROUGH FEBRUARY 26

Dean Lea will conduct a School of Prayer each evening Monday through Thursday, February 23-26 at 7:45 in the church. Your Rector cannot stress too much the tremendous opportunity which is ours in having Dean Lea at Holy Trinity for this week. All who attended his Mission here two years ago know how helpful he can be. You will be missing one of the most worthwhile things you ever did if you miss these four evenings. Don't miss the School of Prayer.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE VESTRY meets Monday afternoon at 4:30 P. M.

ADMIRAL KAUFFMAN is the speaker at the annual Brotherhood of Saint Andrew Communion Breakfast on Saturday, February 21, after the service held each year on the Saturday nearest George Washington's birthday. Admiral Kauffman speaks at the Cathedral and his talk is broadcast to ten other centers in the Diocese where services and breakfasts are held. Holy Trinity should attend the service and breakfast at Saint Stephen's Church, Tenth Street, above Chestnut.

NEW FORWARDS are available in the Church Porch.

NEW PAMPHLETS are available at the rear of the church.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Bow down Thine ear, O Lord, and hear me, for I am poor and in misery. Preserve Thou my soul, for I am holy, my God, save Thy servant that putteth his trust in Thee. Be merciful unto me O Lord, for I will call daily upon Thee. Comfort the soul of Thy servant, for unto Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my voice. For Thou, Lord, art good and gracious and of great mercy unto all them that call upon Thee.

6:00 P. M.—TRINITY CLUB SUPPER

Trinity Club welcomes all young adults from 19 to 39 years old to a program of discussion, worship, and fellowship every Sunday evening. The meetings take place in the Centennial Room, entrance at 1902 Walnut Street, and all young adults are invited. Come and join with a hundred or more young adults this Sunday evening at Trinity Club.

The topic for this Sunday evening is "The Classics Meet Modern Jazz" by James De Preist, Director of Instrumental Music, University of Pennsylvania.

8:00 P. M.—EVENING PRAYER

Crucifer: Thomas Homeyard

THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER, MONDAY THROUGH THURSDAY, 7:45 P. M.

Unquestionably, this week's School of Prayer is a significant opportunity for every member of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Dean Lea, our Missioner of two years ago, and a friend of us all, is the leader. Your attendance on the four evenings of the school would be one of the great experiences of your life.

The School of Prayer will be in the church each evening at 7:45, Monday through Thursday, this coming week, February 23 through February 27.

WHAT CAN A SCHOOL OF PRAYER DO?

It can lead you into a closer relationship with God. It can help you to understand what to expect and to receive His love and help. It can reveal to you the tremendous possibilities in your prayers for others. It can deepen immeasurably your understanding of spiritual things.

THE NOON-DAY PREACHER: DEAN LEA

Everyday, except Saturday, from 12:25 to 12:55 there is noon-day preaching. This week, the Very Reverend William S. Lea, formerly Editor of the Episcopal Church News, now Dean of Saint John's Cathedral, Denver, is the preacher. Dean Lea, so well-known to us because of the Mission two years ago, needs no introduction. To have him again in our midst, to have his spiritual force, his persuasive preaching and teaching, and his winsome personal presence is a great privilege. Be sure to hear him.

THE DAILY SERVICE OF EVENING PRAYER: 5:30 TO 6 O'CLOCK

"Lent's special blessing" is what one person has called the daily service of Evening Prayer. This service lasts just 30 minutes, 10 minutes of which are given to a Meditation. Come and see for yourself.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

A DAWN PATROL BREAKFAST will follow the 7:30 A. M. service on Saint Matthias' Day, next Tuesday. This group of 30 to 40 people grew out of Dean Lea's Mission and Dean Lea will be the guest of honor at the breakfast.

ON SAINT MATTHIAS' DAY, the only service of Holy Communion will be at 7:30. Other services are the noon-day preaching at 12:25 and Evening Prayer at 5:30 with the School of Prayer at 7:45.

THIS SATURDAY (February 21), our own Admiral Kauffman speaks by radio to 12 breakfasts in the Philadelphia area following the annual George Washington service of Holy Communion. Holy Trinity men will attend the service and breakfast at Saint Stephen's Church. Make a reservation at our Parish Office LO 7-1267. Charles W. H. Hancock is in charge of our arrangements.

COME TO COFFEE HOUR after church in the parish house with the many others who come. Come especially if you are a visitor or a newcomer with us this morning. Many friendships have begun at Coffee Hour—even some romances that later blossomed into marriage!

SOME OLD LETTERS were received last week from Mrs. Flora W. Allred. They have to do with the activities of Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, the "Happiest Millionaire," when he conducted Bible Classes at Holy Trinity many years ago. They will be on display in the Parish House this Sunday.

SAVE APRIL 10 for the annual Evening Auxiliary Party. Cards, games, a bake sale, and fun in general await you at this post-Lenten affair. Put down Friday, April 10, at 8 P. M. in your date book.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS TUESDAY—6:00 P. M.

The Reverend Percy F. Rex, this week's noon-day preacher, will speak at the Evening Auxiliary meeting this Tuesday night at the six o'clock dinner. His talk will have to do with the world-wide Anglican Communion of which we are a part as Episcopalians. The Evening Auxiliary welcomes all business and professional women and all persons who cannot conveniently attend a daytime meeting. No special invitation is necessary. Please call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) and make a reservation for dinner. Reservations close Saturday, February 28.

NOON-DAY PREACHER, WILMINGTON RECTOR

The Reverend Percy F. Rex, the noon-day preacher, Monday, March 2 through Friday, March 6, is Rector of Trinity Church, Wilmington. Mr. Rex has been rector of parishes in Connecticut and Massachusetts and, before coming to Wilmington, was Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland. He was born in Norristown.

EVENING MEDITATIONS BY THE REVEREND JOHN E. SKINNER

Every day at 5:30, Evening Prayer is read in the Church and there is a ten minute meditation. The service lasts 30 minutes, is over at six o'clock. During this week, the meditations will be by the Reverend John E. Skinner, Professor of Historical Theology and Ecclesiastical History at the Philadelphia Divinity School. Let this service bless your day.

NEW GROUP FOR MEN AND WOMEN BEING FORMED

A new group for men and women of all ages and of all churches or none which will meet in the parish house on a weekday night is being formed under the auspices of the Church of the Holy Trinity. The first meeting of the group is planned for Monday night, March 9, at eight o'clock, in the parish house with the Reverend Laman Bruner speaking on "What Do You Want As A Person?" The present steering committee for the group is composed of Mary Lou Marsh, president; John J. Byrne, Jr. and Thomas Thompson, program committee; Marjery A. Brette, membership committee; Betty Wilson, hospitality committee; Ann C. Jones and Donald Clinton, coffee committee; and Rowena Brown, secretary and publicity committee.

NEWS AND COMMENTS

ADMIRAL BOWLING with an exhibit of hand-wrought silver, including our Centennial Chalice and Paten, won the first award at the Convention of the Church Architectural Guild of America, held in Los Angeles, February 17, 18, and 19. Begun as a hobby, Admiral Bowling is now taking commissions for work in silver and allied media.

THE RECTOR was surprised last Sunday at Coffee Hour when he was presented with a birthday cake. He was so surprised that he took the whole cake home instead of cutting it and passing it out then and there. Besides that, on the way home, he caught of a very nice speech which he should have made at the time. Anyway, it was all very nice.

THE MEN'S CLUB'S next meeting is on Tuesday, March 11, with dinner at 6:30. If you are a Holy Trinity man, plan to come. Bring a friend. The speaker is Dr. Joseph F. Noonan speaking on "Cooperative Housing."

A COMMENT BY THE RECTOR

I have been reading a book called "The Cost of Discipleship" by Dietrich Bonhoeffer. This man was one of those Christians in Germany who stood out against Hitler, organized the resistance of the church against Nazism (and let it be remembered that by the church did stand against it) and was ultimately killed because of his heroic resistance. He is one of the many twentieth century Christian martyrs.

His life and death remain a living symbol that it is still true in our world, as it always will be, that the spiritual has the primacy over the material. His story is another link in the chain of the continuing victory of the spirit of the loving men over the evil which, in the face of this spirit, cannot break the strongholds of spiritual freedom.

Before his death, Bonhoeffer had written certain lines which, I think, are worth pondering, "The life of the spirit is not that which shuns death and keeps clear of destruction: rather it endureth death and in death it is sustained. It only achieves its truth in the midst of utter destruction."

"1904 CLUB," NEW HOLY TRINITY GROUP, MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

A week day group for men and women will hold its first meeting this Monday night, March 9, at 7:30 o'clock in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. The Reverend Laman H. Bruner, this week's noon-day preacher will speak on "What Do You Want to Be a Person?" The sponsoring committee for the group is President, Mary Lou Marsh; Program Committee, John J. Byrne, Jr. and Thomas Thompson; Membership Committee, Margery A. Brettie; Hospitality Committee, Betty Wilson; Coffee Committee, Ann Jones and Donald Clinton; Secretary and Publicity Committee, Rowena Brown.

MEN'S CLUB TO TALK ABOUT CO-OPERATIVE HOUSING TUESDAY NIGHT

The men of Holy Trinity and their friends will meet for dinner at 6:30 Tuesday night, March 10, in the Centennial Room. Dr. Joseph F. Noonan will speak on "Cooperative Housing in Philadelphia." One of the things which history will record as most characteristic of the post-war years in all nations is new trends in housing. Castles and honor houses, southern mansions and New England homes have had their day. This is the era of the small split-level house and a floor in an apartment. Come and hear Dr. Noonan discuss it on Tuesday night.

THE REVEREND LAMAN H. BRUNER, NOON-DAY PREACHER, 12:25 EACH DAY

An old friend, the Reverend Laman H. Bruner, who was one of our preachers in 1957, is returning to Holy Trinity as the preacher for this coming week, Monday through Friday, from 12:25 to 12:55 each day. He is the Rector of Saint Peter's Church, Albany, New York.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS THURSDAY, MARCH 12

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild's day next Thursday, March 12, begins with Holy Communion at 11:30, includes the noon-day service, and continues with luncheon at one o'clock in the Parish House. The Reverend Laman H. Bruner will speak on "The Church Family at Home."

All women of the parish are invited to the Woman's Auxiliary luncheon and meeting. No special invitation is necessary. You will find a warm welcome and friends at the meeting. If you are attending the luncheon ($1.00), be sure to let the Parish Office know before Monday, March 9 (LO 7-1267).

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE ARCHBISHOP of Canterbury is featured in the issue of Look magazine for March 17 currently on the newsstands.

OLD CHRIST CHURCH invites us to a service at four o'clock this Sunday afternoon in commemoration of the one hundred and seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Bishop Armstrong will be the preacher, Saint Peter's Choir will sing. The Diocese will celebrate this anniversary on Monday, May 4, at a great service in the Academy of Music.

ATTEND EVENING PRAYER AT 5:30 EACH DAY

To all and, in particular, to the dwellers in Rittenhouse Square and thereabouts, the Rector makes a special plea that, if only as an experiment for a week, you attend Evening Prayer each day at 5:30. Twenty to 30 people do come each day all through Lent and everyone of them will tell you that the service is a true blessing. Your Rector, I want all of you to find out for yourselves how much this 30 minutes of worship and meditation can mean to you. Come this week.

8:00 P. M.—Evening Prayer

Crucifer: John Byrne

Holy Trinity choir will sing the cantata "God's Time is the Best" by J. S. Bach at this service, March 15. The cantata suitable for Lent was written as a memorial to a beloved uncle.

TWO WEEKS TO GROW IN SPIRITUAL STRENGTH

Two weeks of Lent remain. Sooner than we think, all of us, anyone of us, may find strength deeper than anything material can give. The nation faces a critical period in the coming months. There is greater concern in high places than most of us realize. In discerning, the signs of danger are evident. Each of us as an individual person knows full well how ever present are the changes and chances of this mortal life. There is need to be related to power greater than our own, to strength which can hold us when everything else around us is falling to pieces. May we be ready. Let us use the last two weeks of Lent to gain in spiritual strength.

Hear the Gospel each day at noon from 12:25 to 12:55. Pray and meditate each day at Evening Prayer from 5:30 to 6:00. Receive Holy Communion on Thursdays at 7:30. Read religiously at home. Lengthen the times of prayer. For two weeks, in action and in thought, know God through Christ more clearly, love Him more dearly, follow Him more nearly. And as you grow in faith, so will you grow in Grace and have the blessing of God in everything.

THE NOON-DAY PREACHER, THE REVEREND FREDERICK W. KATES

This coming week's noon-day preacher, the Reverend Frederick W. Kates, is one of the most active men in the ministry of the Church. He is the author of many books, a frequent contributor to the magazines, was Dean of the Cathedral of Saint John the Evangelist, Spokane, Wash., and is now Rector of the Mother of Churches in Baltimore, Saint Paul's. In 1949 he wrote the Presiding Bishop's Book for Lent. He attended Harvard University and the Virginia Theological School.

NEW 1904 CLUB TO HAVE WEEKLY MONDAY NIGHT MEETINGS

The new week-night club for men and women held its initial meeting last Monday night, with 50 people present. The club will meet every Monday night at eight o'clock, listen to a speaker, have discussion, have refreshments, enjoy conversation, play games—in short, enjoy a profitable and pleasurable evening. Come and look it over. You will be welcome.

This week's speaker is James Reeves, newscaster, editor and correspondent, WPEN and his topic will be "Speech, the Little Used Faculty."

The Officers and Committees of "1904" are: President, Mary Lou Marsh; Vice President, Howard H. Brown; Secretary, Rowena Brown; Treasurer, Sylvia Ellis; Membership Committee, Margery Brettell and Herbert Wing; Program Committee, John J. Byrne, Tom Thompson; Publicity Committee, Thomas Homeyard; Hospitality Committee, Elizabeth Wilson; Social Committee, Ann Jones and Kathryn Kreider; Coffee Hour, Donald Clinton; Entertainment Committee, Basil B. Varian.

TRINITY CLUB QUIET DAY, SATURDAY, MARCH 21

Trinity Club is sponsoring a Lenten Quiet Day at the Radnor Conference Center on Saturday, March 21. The day will begin at 11:30 and close between three and four o'clock. The Reverend William H. Jefferys, Jr. is the leader for the day. If you plan to attend, send your reservation immediately to Ann C. Jones, 1811 Pine Street, Philadelphia, and advise her if you need a ride. The total cost is $1.50.

PASSIONTIDE — THE SEASON OF ATONEMENT THROUGH LOVE

The final two weeks of Lent are known as Passiontide. The Epistle which will be read at the eight o'clock service of Holy Communion, in an almost complete statement of the meaning of our Lord's atoning death, speaks of our Lord's passion (His suffering and death) as God's supreme act of sacrificial love whereby man is, by the desire of God, forever related to God. It is not that man has loved God, but that God has loved man, related Himself to man, endured the willful man's separation of himself from God, and yet has loved man without question or limit. In this act of God is man's assurance of his own meaning, that his life has purpose, that being usefully worthy has eternal significance.

The services for the current week are noted in the second paragraph on this page. During Holy Week, March 21 to 26, there will be Holy Communion each day at 7:30 (Monday through Friday); Noon-day preaching, 12:25-12:55; Evening Prayer at 5:30. On Maundy Thursday, the services are at 7:30, 11:30, 12:25, 5:30, and 8 o'clock; on Good Friday, from 12 noon to 3 P. M. and Evening Prayer at 5:30; on Easter Eve, Baptisms at four o'clock.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

O hark! the Cry, a thousand voices shouting, they greet a King. For Him will welcome sing, His majesty. They sing beyond all doubting and loud the people cry "Hosannah!" O Zion see your King comes nigh! Look! See Him come with gentle mien and lowly, is this the King? To Him loud welcome sing? While from His home the angels hear the cry: Hosannah! O Zion, see your King comes nigh! Today they cry but will they cry tomorrow and hail Him King? He goes to die in lonely sorrow and few will hear His sigh. O Christ, Thy day will come again at Easter; to Thee as King in triumph shall we sing and homage pay, and once again, O Master, in love shall raise the cry: Hosannah! (Based on a French Lenten carol).

Holy Week

MONDAY THROUGH WEDNESDAY

Each Morning at 7:30, The Holy Communion

Each Noon at 12:25, The Preaching Service

Noon-day Preacher: The Reverend Joseph Koci, Jr., Rector
Saint Peter's Church, Philadelphia

Each Day at 5:30, Evening Prayer

Each morning at the Holy Communion and each afternoon at Evening Prayer, the Gospel for the day will be read. Thus, the entire story of the Passion as we find it in the New Testament will be read during the week.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

12:25 Noon—The Preaching Service

5:30 P. M.—Evening Prayer

8:00 P. M.—The Lord's Supper

Beginning at sundown on Maundy Thursday and continuing through Good Friday, Christians keep the ancient Jewish "day." It is begun as Jesus began it with the ancient Passover supper as He transformed it into the pledge of the New Covenant. It is carried on next day as we watch beside the cross. It is ended with the service of Evening Prayer on Good Friday as sundown approaches. Begin it, therefore, solemnly at the table of the Last Supper with Our Lord and continue it in thought and action during the next 24 hours.

GOOD FRIDAY

12 to 3 o'clock, The Watch by the Cross

THE EASTER OFFERING

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we rely on it to fulfill both our missionary and parochial budget needs. Your generosity is enabling this church to carry forward an effective ministry in central Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church.
 The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in thanking God for His blessings to us.

Important Parish Events After Easter*THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, MONDAY, APRIL 6

Every active parishioner should plan to be present at the Annual Parish Meeting which will follow the testimonial dinner in Honor of Edwin Humphries, Verger at Holy Trinity for the past 17 years, who is retiring on Easter Sunday. The dinner begins at 7:00 P. M. promptly, and the meeting will follow it at approximately 7:45 P. M. All are invited to the dinner ($2.00 a plate) which will be at the Y.W.C.A., 2027 Chestnut Street. The meeting will follow at the same location.

EVENING AUXILIARY PARTY—FRIDAY, APRIL 10

Don't miss the Evening Auxiliary's Spring Card Party and Bake Sale, Friday evening, April 10, beginning at eight o'clock in the Parish House. Tickets at $1.00 each can be purchased from members of the Auxiliary or at the door. This is one of the events of the season. Come and enjoy an evening of good fellowship together.

PHILLIPS BROOKS CLUB TO BE AT PARISH RECTORY, APRIL 3

The Rector and Mrs. Longley are entertaining the Phillips Brooks Club at the rectory in Ardmore, 116 Bleddyn Road, on Friday evening, April 3, at eight o'clock. The Phillips Brooks Club is made up of young married couples who have been members of the Trinity Club or are members of the parish. If you fall into one or both of these categories, you are invited to the rectory whether you have attended a Phillips Brooks Club meeting before or not. The club meets, usually, at the home of a member, about every five weeks.

1904 CLUB MEETINGS, MARCH 30, APRIL 6

The 1904 Club for men and women meets every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. You are invited to attend. There is a talk by a noted speaker, discussions, games, coffee and cake, and good fellowship.

On this Monday night, the speaker is William Eberhardt who will speak on "Restoration of Objets D'Art and China."

On Monday night, April 6, the speaker is Thomas Wood, Jr., and his topic is "Is the Communist Communism Based Upon Christian Principles?"

THIS WEEK AT HOLY TRINITY

DAY: 8:00 A. M.—Diocesan Women's Auxiliary Corporate Communion, followed by breakfast in the Centennial Room. Dr. Longley is the speaker.
12:15 (noon)—Parish Holy Communion (Feast of the Annunciation).
6:30 P. M.—Dinner at the YWCA, 2027 Chestnut Street, honoring Edwin Humphries who is retiring after 17 years as Verger.

8:00 P. M.—The Annual Parish Meeting (immediately after the dinner at the YWCA.)

8:00 P. M.—1904 Club at the Parish House with Thomas Wood, Jr. speaking on "Is Theoretical Communism Based Upon Christian Principles?"

WEDNESDAY: 6:00 P. M.—Evening Auxiliary regular monthly dinner meeting with Miss Mary Agnes Rendleman speaking on "The Family in Africa."
All women unable to attend a daytime meeting are invited.

THURSDAY: 12:15 (noon)—Holy Communion.
1:00 P. M.—Woman's Auxiliary and Guild Luncheon (see below).

FRIDAY: 8:00 P. M.—Evening Auxiliary Spring Party (see below).

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD MEETING—THURSDAY, APRIL 9

"The Family in Missions," topic of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, day group Thursday, April 9, follows the general theme of this season's program, "One Family in Christ."

The meeting begins with celebration of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 service. Luncheon in the Parish House is at one o'clock. A moving picture "Heart of Haiti" will show not only pictures of this lovely island in the Caribbean, but very fine work carried on there. Schools and institutions are supported by the Episcopal Church and directed by our missionaries. This should be very interesting and informative.

All women of the parish are invited, no special invitation is necessary, but reservations for lunch ($1.00) must be made early. It is important that reservations reach parish office, 1904 Walnut Street, by Monday, April 6, to allow sufficient time for preparations. Telephone LO 7-1267 or mail a card in plenty of time.

EASTER EVE BAPTISMS

On Easter Eve, the following children received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism: Martin Victoria Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haines Brown, III; William Frank Harland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Firman William Harland; Stephen Stanley Heitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley Heitz; and Susan Ann Wix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blaine Wix.

COMING EVENTS

The Men's Club Spring Corporate Communion will be on Sunday, April 12, at eight o'clock followed by breakfast afterwards in the Parish House. The speaker will be Dr. Albert C. Jacobs, president of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

The Bohlen Lectures will be given at Holy Trinity on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, April 26, 27, and 28 at eight o'clock in the evening by the Reverend Massey H. Shepherd, Jr. on "The Liturgical Movement in the Episcopal Church." On Sunday night, he will speak on "Ritualism;" Monday night on "Prayer Book Revision," and Tuesday night on "Prospects Today and Tomorrow."

EDWIN L. HUMPHRIES

I believe that it is the sober truth when I say that no one in any way related to the Church of the Holy Trinity has had the welfare of the church, its life and property, more at heart than Mr. Humphries. His has been a working schedule that knew no hours. He has been on duty almost literally 24 hours a day. Being of old-fashioned integrity as a workman, he never complained about it. His humor, as dry as any Englishman's, his ready willingness to help, his tact have endeared him to all. It is too true that he will be missed here at the corner of Nineteenth and Walnut. May the coming years be filled with peace and contentment for him.

He will be honored by the whole parish this Monday night at a dinner to begin at 6:30 at the YWCA.

The Second Sunday After Easter

THIS IS NATIONAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE DAY

The status of education is very much in the mind of every thinking person today. The contribution of the Christian Church to education is the concern of many. Today, devote a Sunday to thinking about these things. To guide our thinking, it is our privilege to have the President of Trinity College, Doctor Albert C. Jacobs, speak at the 11 o'clock service.

Dr. Jacobs, Rhodes Scholar, Fellow and Lecturer at Oriel College, was for 22 years Professor of Law at Columbia; and, during President Eisenhower's administration, Provost of the University. He is a director of the Connecticut Great Life Insurance Company, of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston, of the Institute for Living of the Thomas Foundation at Valley Forge, and other institutions. He is a member of the National Division of Layman's Work of the National Council of the Episcopal Church. He is a Captain, USNR, and a recipient of the Legion of Merit.

ALUMNI OF TRINITY, HOBART, AND KENYON TO BE IN PROCESSION SUNDAY

Representatives of three Episcopal Church Colleges will be present and march in Processional Sunday morning. Trinity College will be represented by Walter T. Strong, Jr., of Berwyn; David O. Bellis, Secane; William H. Fritz, III, Wayne; Ronald Kinney, Sr., Philadelphia; James M. Perry, Philadelphia; and Charles I. Tenney, Philadelphia.

Hobart College will be represented by James W. Bampton of Wayne; Horace F. Media; Roderick H. Ross, Devon; Orvis D. Dantzer, Drexel Hill; D. Gilbert Thomas, and; John T. Farrell, Jr., Philadelphia; and Edgar S. Read, Gladwyne.

Kenyon College will be represented by Richard W. King of Havertown; Renkert J. Nez, Philadelphia; Roger M. Whiteman, Springfield; Raymond L. Woodall, Jr., Newwood; and David G. Jensen, Philadelphia.

DOCTOR JACOBS WILL SPEAK AT MEN'S BREAKFAST

At eight o'clock Sunday morning, there will be a Corporate Communion of the men of the parish which will be followed by a breakfast at which President Jacobs of Trinity College, will be the speaker. All who plan to attend should notify the parish office (LO 7-1267) before Friday noon at the latest.

PLAN TO ATTEND THE BOHLEN LECTURES, APRIL 26, 27, 28

Doctor Massey Shepherd who will deliver the Bohlen Lectures, Spring Series, is recognized as the authority on Worship in the Anglican Communion. He will speak on Sunday, April 26, at 8 P. M. on “Ritualism;” his topic on Monday, April 27, at 8 P. M. “Prayer Book Revision;” and, on Tuesday, “Prospects Today and Tomorrow.” It will be eminently worth your while to hear him. Plan to do so.

1904 CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT, 7:30

The newest parochial group is the 1904 Club which meets every Monday evening 7:30 in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street. It is open to men and women of all ages, of all churches, or none.

You are invited to attend the meeting this Monday when the speaker will be the Reverend Francis V. Cromley, who is the superintendent of the Sunday Breakfast Association which has done considerable work in the Sixth and Vine Streets area. The subject of his talk is “Human Fragments, Discards or Trophies?”

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE YOUNG MARRIED GROUP met at the Rectory in Ardmore last week for an evening together with Dr. and Mrs. Longley.

NEXT SUNDAY the churches of Philadelphia will entertain servicemen from camps in this area. Captain Parker, of the Philadelphia Naval Station, will preach at Holy Trinity.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

To the Master of music and loveliness; to the Lord of the Word of Creation; to the Maker of movement, color and light; to the Builder, Designer, Creator; to the Theme of all song, inspiration of Love; to the Artist of Life; to the Greatest and Least be praise, power, dominion for ever. For He is the greatest upon His high throne and He is the least as the child of a maiden. Praise then, to Jesus whose Mother was Mary, and praise now to Christ, who is God in the midst of us. Lord of all beauty, adoring we come to Thee. Give us Thyself both in Time and Eternity, Lord of all beauty, adoring we come to Thee, offering all that we have or can hope to be. Praise, power, dominion for ever. (Aidan Clarke)

CHURCH PAPER COMMENTS ON CITY CHURCH

The Witness, a Church weekly, had this to say recently about the city church, "The suburban rectors are running to keep pace with their churches, in the cities are a lot of running to stay in the same place. New members must be won from different, agnostic, and unchurched, or from other faiths."

So far as center city churches go, with the exception of New York City which is class by itself, much that the Witness says is true of churches in such cities as Baltimore, Buffalo and Pittsburgh, Washington and Philadelphia, and many cities. For instance, were it not for endowments provided by people of the most of the churches in downtown Philadelphia could not afford to maintain expensive plants and operate fruitfully, usefully.

But there could be strong center city urban churches if there were three things in terms of all the churches. One of the three things is adventuresome imagination on the part of their leaders—clergy and laymen. Evidences of such imagination at Holy Trinity can be seen in our work with young adults, in our broadcasting on Sunday mornings, in our outreach into the community. But actually we are only scratching the surface of what might be possible here in terms of Christian usefulness and witness. With added staff, more meeting space, and more available money, we could do much greater things in terms of people, children, the maladjusted, and the artists, writers, musicians who live in this area.

Another thing that center city churches need is concentration. In center city Philadelphia, among Episcopal churches, there are three mergers needed which would lead to strong churches where now there is both partial and almost total weakness.

The third thing needed in center city churches is lay participation beyond the call of duty. People who attend center city churches are apt to be people who work all day or retired people who either are frequently away because they travel a good deal or they are past doing anything "on schedule." Much is left to center city clergy to do without the help of others in the parish. As a result, much is left undone and done inefficiently which might be shared by many instead of being left to one person or a few.

Declining usefulness is not inevitable in center city churches if their pastors and people have imagination, their leaders would be willing to merge here and there, and their people would give added devotion to their greater possibilities.

It is because the people of Holy Trinity have used imagination and have had this added devotion that we, here, are more than holding our own in witness, outreach, and usefulness.

FROM A LETTER TO TRINITY CLUB

Miss Lee Ciorletti is chairman of a group in Trinity Club which has for its purpose giving aid to social service agencies. Recently, a group of Trinity Club members gave a Saturday to cleaning the offices of the Multiple Sclerosis Society. The executive director of the society writes: "The Multiple Sclerosis Society is indebted to Trinity Club of Holy Trinity Church—as a group—but particularly to the 'fellows and a girl' who gave up a sunny Saturday to do a service job. Some painted and some scrubbed and rearranged storage closets. What they accomplished is a real help. I honestly don't know how we would have gotten it done any other way. The volunteers who came were terrific and it was fun to be with them and get to know them. Charlene Coons was alone representative of the distaff side and Tom Goings, Rod Hohl, Jim Hadly, and Ed Benze completed the crew."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE VESTRY meets Monday at 4:30 in the parish house.

TRINITY CLUB members are spending this weekend at the Radnor Conference planning the program for next year. Major discussion topics are "What Topics Should Trinity Club Consider for Next Year's Sunday Speaker Program?" "How Can Trinity Club's Spiritual Values Be Better Emphasized?" "What's in Trinity Club for Me?"

FINAL FIGURES of the gift for Mr. Humphries are over $800.

1904 CLUB MEETS MONDAY, 7:30 P. M.

Men and women of all ages, all churches, or none, are welcome at 1904 Club on Mondays at 7:30 in the parish house. This week's speaker is Warner F. Haldeman, President of the Center City Residents Association who will speak on "What's Ahead for Center City." There is opportunity for questions and a coffee hour follows the meeting. Come and get acquainted.

MR. AND MRS. ROSS GORSUCH TO LIVE IN FLORIDA

We are saying goodbye with regret to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Gorsuch who are leaving this week to make their permanent home in Florida. They have been regular church members, loyal supporters of the parish, and in past years participants in parish activities. They are two delightful Christian people who will be greatly missed at Holy Trinity. We wish them Godspeed and every happiness in the years ahead.

VESTRY OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

At the Vestry meeting held last Monday, Francis J. Chesterman was again asked to serve as Rector's Warden. The Vestry elected William Morton West as Accounting Warden, and Charles W. H. Bancroft as Secretary of the Vestry. The standing committees were appointed: Finance, Mr. Chesterman, chairman, William Morton West, Holstein DeHaven Fox, C. C. Morris; Property, S. Scott Steadman, and Francis R. Goehring, James L. Kauffman, Frank B. Murdoch; Music, W. H. Bancroft, chairman, and Jack F. Bowling, Merrill A. Kercher. Other committees are for Holiday House, Mr. Kercher and Mr. Murdoch; and Chief Usher, Horace Rogers.

At the Annual Parish Meeting, Holstein DeHaven Fox, Francis R. Goehring, and S. Stewart were elected to serve as Vestrymen from 1959 to 1963. Other Vestrymen from 1958-1962 Frank B. Murdoch, Horace Y. Rogers, and William M. West; from 1961, Charles W. H. Bancroft, James L. Kauffman, and Merrill A. Kercher; from 1960, Jack F. Bowling, Francis J. Chesterman, and C. C. Morris.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES: THIS SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY AT 8 P. M.

Massey H. Shepherd, the Bohlen Lecturer for the Spring Series this coming Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday evenings at 8 P. M. in the church, is the recognized authority in the field of worship or liturgics. He is one of the truly great scholars in the Church today. This Sunday night, he will talk about "Ritualism." His topic on Monday night is "Prayer Book Revision;" and on Tuesday night, "Prospects Today and Tomorrow."

The Bohlen Lectures are open to all. There is no fee or offering. They will be eminently worthwhile.

In the Fall, October 27, 28, and 29, the Bohlen Lecturer will be the Archbishop of York.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

MANY THANKS to the members of the Evening Auxiliary, the Men's Club, and the Club who helped with the luncheon for service personnel on Religious Emphasis Day in Philadelphia.

TWENTY-FIVE TICKETS to the Academy of Music for the celebrating of the One Hundred and Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania on Monday evening, May 4, have been allotted to Holy Trinity Parish with the suggestion that tickets to the Annual Convention and Vestrymen and their wives be given preference. If you wish a ticket, call the parish office. If there are any left out of the 25, you may have one. The Presiding Bishop, the Right Reverend Arthur C. Lichtenberger will speak.

LOOK Magazine is featuring "The Episcopalians" in its current issue.

THE CONVOCATION of South Philadelphia meets on Tuesday at 5:15 with dinner following at Saint Simon, the Cyrenian Church, 22nd and Reed Streets.

EDWARD L. LEE, who will come to Holy Trinity as our Curate on June 1, will be assigned to the Diaconate on Saturday, May 9, at Saint Thomas', Whitmarsh (on Lehigh Pike) at 10 A. M.

COMING SERMONS

God willing, the Rector will be preaching on each of the next seven Sundays. His sermon topics for these Sundays are as follows: April 26 (this Sunday), "On Being Able to Discriminate" based on I Corinthians 12:31; May 3, "On Being Able to Keep Simple," based on Saint Matthew 5:8; May 10 (first Sunday after Ascension Day) "Being Able to Live in the Ascendant," based on Colossians 3:1; May 17 (Pentecost) "Being Able to Live Under Spiritual Guidance," based on Saint John 14:26; May 24 (Trinity Sunday) "Here and There, Now and Then, God Is," based on Revelation, chapter 21; May 31, "For What Did They Die?" based on Hebrews 11:33; and June 7 "Fear and Love" based on the Collect for this Sunday.

1904 CLUB, MONDAY NIGHT, MUSIC PROGRAM

"The Trinity Singers," a quartet composed of members of the club, will present a program of un-accompanied vocal music, on Monday, April 27, at 8 P. M. in the Church House. Featured will be several motets from the 16th century, plus three modern compositions. Members of the quartet are Rowena Brown, soprano; Sylvia Ellis, contralto; David Bird, tenor; Basil Varian, bass. People of all ages are invited to the 1904 Club Monday nights.

THIS MORNING'S ANTHEM

Christ to Thee be glory. Thou hast suffered death on the cross so shameful. On the cross so shameful for us was Thy last breath. Thou reignest with the Father in glory. Hear the supplication which we raise to Thee. Kyrie Eleison, Christe Eleison, Kyrie Eleison.

Bowden, who will talk on "Investing in America Today." The members of the committee for this meeting (the final meeting until September, by the way) are C. C. Bringham, Robert S. Kitchel, Robert Leak, John Wilson Gilmore, Harvey E. Leak, Jr., and Horace Y. Rogers.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS AT GLORIA DEI ON THURSDAY

It has become a custom for the members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild to hold their final meeting of the year at some interesting spot in the Diocese outside the parish itself. This year, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will meet at historic Gloria Dei Church, Water Street south of Christian Street, on Thursday, May 14, for Communion at 12:15 followed by luncheon there at one o'clock. There will be an opportunity to learn about the parish history and to see something of the old graveyard and parish treasures from the past. All women of the parish are invited. Call 7-1267 for reservations. Cars will leave Holy Trinity Church at 11:30 A. M.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING INGATHERING TODAY

Representatives of the women's organizations, including Mrs. John P. Lutz, United Thank Offering custodian for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and Mrs. Henry R. Lutz, United Thank Offering custodian for the Evening Auxiliary, will receive the offering at the service this morning. All money placed in the blue envelopes will go toward this offering. Last year at the Spring and Fall ingatherings this parish gave a total of $1,807.76 to the United Thank Offering, $1,419.23 from the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and $388.53 from the Evening Auxiliary. The triennial total from the whole Diocese, presented at the General Convention in Miami last fall was $3,869,985.38. The United Thank Offering is used for missionary work in the Church.

1904 CLUB MEETING, MONDAY, MAY 11

At the meeting of the 1904 Club on Monday evening at 7:30 in the parish house, the speaker will be the Reverend Edward B. Pollanick, former Associate Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity. His subject will be "The Predicament of Modern Man."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE PICTURE of the wedding in last week's Inquirer's "TODAY" section was not taken during the service but was posed two weeks previously.

A HANDEL Festival which Robert Knox Chapman, Choir Master at Holy Trinity, is calling a "Little Handel Festival" will take place at the final fall and winter service of Evening Prayer on Sunday evening, May 17, at eight o'clock, when the choir of Holy Trinity will sing the music of Handel in observance of the 200th anniversary of his death. There will be more about this next week. Plan to come.

THIS COMING TUESDAY, the Rector will spend the day with the Police Department of Philadelphia observing methods, apparatus, and meeting the heads of various divisions.

THIS SATURDAY (May 9), Edward Lee, new Curate at Holy Trinity, will be ordained to the Diaconate at Saint Thomas' Whitmarsh, at a service at ten o'clock in the morning.

PENTECOST (Whitsunday) is Sunday, May 17. Both the eight and eleven o'clock services on that festival day will be the Holy Communion.

SOME INTERESTING STATISTICS

Recently published statistics on Church growth in the United States in the 50 years from 1906 to 1956 are interesting. While the rate of total population increase was 99.5 percent, the rate of Church membership was 204 percent. In 1906, Roman Catholics represented 14 percent of the population, in 1956, 20 percent. Non-Romans in 1906 were 86 percent of the population and in 1956, 40 percent. The growth rate of the Roman Catholic Church was 177.9 percent and of the non-Romans, 195.4 percent.

The fastest growing group of Church people in the United States have been the Eastern Orthodox with over 1,000 percent which, of course, is accounted for by the immense influx of millions of middle Europe Russians, and Greek people into this country in the last 50 years. Among the bodies long settled in this country, the Lutherans have the highest rate of growth with 244.4 percent. The Baptists with 238.4 are next, and the Episcopal Church with 210.9 percent is third in growth. Roman Catholics 177.9 percent, Presbyterians 110.7 and Methodists 104.8. It is interesting that the "Church" minded and liturgical Lutherans and Episcopalians have increased so much. Unitarian membership increased by 43.9 percent and the Quakers by 7.1 percent.

PENTECOST, FEAST OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The oldest "great days" of the Christian Church are Easter and Pentecost. In the Church, the date of Christmas was uncertain. It is interesting to note that Clement of Alexandria considered it to be between April 20 and May 20. At any rate, it was generally celebrated at first. But Easter was celebrated from the beginning. In the Book of Acts (Acts 20:16) we read of Saint Paul's anxiety to keep Pentecost in Jerusalem. The day was inferior only to Easter. The day marks the coming of the Holy Spirit to the group of Apostles and Disciples who, on that day, became the Christian Church. So it is often called "The Birth of the Church." More importantly, perhaps, it is dedicated to the worship of the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity. It is a day on which we appreciate ever more clearly His office and place in the life of the Christian man. Pentecost is sometimes called Whitsunday—just why, nobody knows for sure. The day is believed to have come from the practice of having Baptisms on this day, for the candidates wore white robes. It has also been suggested that it is colloquial for the German Pfingsten or Pentecosten.

"LITTLE HANDEL FESTIVAL," SUNDAY AT 8 P. M.

This year marks the Two Hundredth Anniversary of George Frederic Handel's death. Everywhere, choirs are singing Handel's music in commemoration. This Sunday night at eight o'clock, our own Trinity Choir, under the direction of Robert Knox Chapman, Choir Master, will sing three of the "Coronation Anthems" which were first heard at the Coronation of King George II in 1727. The prelude, the offertory, both hymns, and the postlude will also be by Handel. Members of the solo quartet are: Edith Wilson, soprano; Katherine Chapman, contralto; Rod McWherter, tenor; and Samuel Brick, bass.

ALTAR GUILD MEMBERS GUEST OF RECTOR TUESDAY NIGHT

The members of the Altar Guild will be the guests of the Rector at dinner in the Rectorial Room this coming Tuesday, May 19, at 6:30 P. M. The members of the Altar Guild are Mrs. Frederick Bachman, Miss Ann Becker, Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Miss Nellie Perry, Mrs. Patricia Gane, Miss Lola Harris, Miss Margaret R. Kollock, Miss Elizabeth Laws, Mrs. Donald S. Leas, Miss Julia Leighton, Miss Grace D. MacAllister, Mrs. Irene Maertens, Miss Mary E. Maguire, Miss Emma McClintock, Miss Alice Ruf, Miss G. Sharpe, Miss Millicent Shell, Miss Margaret W. Warner, Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager, and Miss Marguerite Zulick.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED FOR EVENING AUXILIARY

Newly elected officers of the Evening Auxiliary were commissioned by the Rector at the last Auxiliary meeting. The new officers are: Mrs. Horace Y. Rogers, vice president; Miss Helen Shugars, recording secretary; Miss Sophia Ewell, corresponding secretary; Miss Margaret Colfesh, treasurer; and Miss Emma Tomlin, United Thank Offering Custodian.

The president of the Evening Auxiliary, elected last year, holds office for two years. She is Miss Eleanor Meagher.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE VESTRY meets this Monday at 4:30 P. M.

A THOUSAND people were present at the service in honor of nursing last Sunday night. The Reverend Arnold Purdie, Director of the Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, was the preacher. The service is a part of the annual program of Trinity Club and is sponsored by the club.

WCAU television will telecast this Sunday at 10 A. M. a program about Monasticism in the Anglican Church. It will include a film entitled "Poverty, Chastity, and Obedience." The Reverend Granville Williams, Superior of the Society of Saint John, the Evangelist, will speak.

A POEM FOR PENTECOST

It will take the shake of mighty breath
To stir decayed leaf hearts of clay clod man
And strip his mired soul of mouldering death
And penetrate his pall of earthy plan.
Alas, we shudder, cling, and sink our race
When through us God would send His loving grace.

—Jean Davis

THE WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Send forth Thy Spirit, O Lord, our God eternal and let the face of earth be renewed. Alleluia! Come, Thou, Spirit Heavenly, expand our hearts with faith in Thy Holy Name, and grant us Thy love and Thy mercy, O Lord, Thy peace everlasting. Alleluia!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Volunteers who are interested in singing with the choir during the summer months should talk with our Choir Master before the first of June. Rehearsals, during the summer, are held only on Sunday mornings.

The regular Sunday night meetings of Trinity Club have been discontinued for the summer and will resume on September 13. In the meantime, note the schedule of summer activities shown on the opposite page.

The Sunday evening service will resume on September 13.

Nine members of Robert Snyder's Church School Class are going to New York this afternoon to visit the Cathedral of Saint John, the Divine and attend Evensong.

ALTAR GUILD MEMBERS TO BE COMMISSIONED

The Rector has asked Mrs. Marlene Maertens to be Executive Chairman of the Altar Guild with Miss Emma McClintock as Coordinator. Other members of the Guild are: Mrs. Frederick Bachman, Miss Ann Becker, Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Nellie P. Ferry, Mrs. Patricia Gane, Miss Lola Harris, Miss Margaret R. Kollock, Elizabeth Laws, Mrs. Donald S. Leas, Miss Julia Leighton, Miss Grace D. MacFarlane, Miss Mary E. Maguire, Miss Alice Ruf, Miss Christiane Schneider, Miss Mary Millicent Shell, Miss Margaret W. Warner, Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager, and Marguerite Zulick.

At the eleven o'clock service this Sunday morning the Rector will commission persons and the congregation will ask God's blessing upon their work.

WHAT DOES THE ALTAR GUILD DO?

The members of the Altar Guild are the housekeepers of the house of the Lord. They clean, or polish or generally prepare for the services: the vessels of the Holy Communion, the linens, the vestments of the clergy, the altar and chancel hangings, ornaments such as the crosses and candlesticks. They place the books and find places in them, they dust the furniture. They place the vessels on the Altar and books in place for every service. They clean and put away vessels, vestments, and other materials after services. They see to the proper distribution of prayer books and hymnals in the pews. They keep the Sacristy neat and clean. Although carried on by one person, the care of the vestments of the choir are the Altar Guild's responsibility. Members of the Altar Guild, assigned for one month tours of duty, spend several hours at the church on Saturdays as well as being present at Sunday services.

HOLIDAY HOUSE, SELLERSVILLE, OPEN FOR VACATIONS

Merrill A. Kercher, Chairman of the Vestry Committee for Holiday House, the vacation spot of which the Vestrymen of Holy Trinity are trustees under the terms of a will writes as follows, "During most of the year the 15 acres of field and woods of Holiday House are used as a wildlife sanctuary. You hear, and sometimes see pheasants and other birds on all sides. Just now the pheasants are nesting. Recently, one pheasant hen flushed from her nest of 12 eggs and it seems certain there will be a good supply of the younger generation."

During July and August this pleasant spot is available for vacations. August 9-20 reserved for members of Holy Trinity parish. If you plan your vacation for that time and want a reservation at Holiday House, please leave your name at the parish office (LO 7-1267) or contact Merrill A. Kercher."

1904 CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

The Monday night program for the 1904 Club includes a discussion and movie on prevention and treatment of cancer. There have been so many articles written, almost daily new theories advanced regarding this most destructive disease, its causes and its cures, that all possible information is of interest. Come to 1904 Club, meet interesting people, enjoy this fellowship. You are welcome.

"I light the candle of my soul
From altar candles
Gleaming bright beside the Cross.

But then, alas, the cares of life
The constant pressure of the world's affairs
Crowd out the blessed consciousness of Christ;
The candle of my soul burns low, flickers, and goes out—
But still the altar lights are burning Bright beside the Cross.

Oh, blessed privilege
That I may kneel again
And light the candle of my soul."

EDWARD L. LEE ASSUMES DUTIES AFTER JUNE 1

The Reverend Edward L. Lee will begin his duties as Curate this coming week. Mr. Lee will be a Deacon until November. As such, he cannot celebrate the Holy Communion although he can assist in the administration of the bread and wine. He cannot pronounce words of absolution or pardon which the Prayer Book restricts to the Priest or Bishop if present.

The Book of Common Prayer reads, "It appertaineth to the Office of a Deacon, in the Church where he shall be appointed to serve, to assist the Priest in Divine Service, especially when he ministereth the Holy Communion, and to help him in the distribution thereof; and to read Holy Scriptures and Homilies in the Church; and to instruct the youth in the Catechism; in the absence of the Priest to baptize infants; and to preach, if he be admitted thereto by the Bishop. And furthermore, it is his Office, where provision is so made, to search for the sick, poor, and impotent people of the parish, that they may be relieved with the alms of the Parishioners, or others."

Mr. Lee will be the advisor of Trinity Club and of the 1904 Club and the minister to their members. He will be in charge of the Church School. He will minister especially to chronically ill and shut-in people and advise the Rector about the administration of Holy Communion to them. He will assist the Rector in counselling and parish visiting. He will assist at the parish services and from time to time will preach. Mr. Lee's address is 2220 Spruce Street, Apartment 4-G.

During the Rector's vacation in August, the Reverend C. Roger Butler, Rector of Saint Ann's, New Martinsville, West Virginia, will be the resident Priest in the parish.

GOING AWAY, PRE-PAY!

If you could see a chart showing the pattern of parochial giving during the year, it would resemble the letter U. Some large givers, although they contribute in the parochial fund Sunday by Sunday, pay their Church pledge all at once either at the time of the Every Member Canvass or near the first of the year. Others put in their envelopes as they attend Church and make up the missed Sundays early in October. The general result is that the period of lowest actual income is during June, July, and August when people are away from the city for weekends as well as vacations and Church attendance is irregular.

Help your Church in this lean period when the month by month expenses of the Church continue just the same by paying your pledge or turning in your envelopes before you go away. Many people do this every summer as a matter of course. Going away, pre-pay—it's a good idea.

RECENTLY TRANSFERRED TO HOLY TRINITY

Since the last announcement in the bulletin, the following Letters of Transfer to the Church of the Holy Trinity have been received: Mrs. William H. Albert, 2111 Pine Street; Porter Hurd, 2039 Moravian Street; Miss Helene R. Foard, 1421 Arch Street. We welcome them into the fellowship of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Francis J. Bowden, Jr. has transferred to Saint Martin's Radnor.

USUALLY, IT IS AN EPISCOPALIAN WHO COMPLAINS

Protestant ministers in general seem to have acquiesced in the ungrammatical title of "Reverend" and respond without wincing when addressed as "Reverend So and So" or just plain "Reverend." We always still wince. Now comes a paragraph from William S. Lasor, Professor at Fuller Theological Seminary—certainly a very Protestant place. He writes, "What really makes me grit my teeth is the use of 'Reverend' as a title. If you will take the trouble to look in your dictionary, you will discover that 'Reverend' is not a title (like 'Doctor'), but an adjective (like 'Honorable'). The use of 'Reverend' before the last name ('Reverend Ladd') is as rude as using the last name alone. You might as well say, 'Skinny Jones' or 'Sloppy Johnson' as 'Reverend Rasmussen.'" Several correct ways of using "Reverend" are possible; "the Reverend George Smith," "the Reverend Doctor Booth," "the Reverend Professor Harrison." It is just as correct to omit the word, and present the speaker as "Mister Jones," or Professor Longbeard." If you are introducing a clergyman as a speaker a good method is to give the full title when first introducing him, ("Our guest speaker this morning is the Reverend Professor I. M. Longwinded,") tell where he is from, and then present him in the simplest form ("Professor, or Doctor, Longwinded")."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

SUMMER FORWARDS are available in the Church Porch at ten cents. Why not get one and begin the practice of daily meditation this summer.

A NEW YEAR OF ACTIVITY BEGINS TODAY

To be associated with the Church of the Holy Trinity is to belong to an active Christian fellowship in which many opportunities are offered for the deepening of Christian understanding and living as well as expressing one's Christian love and God and other people.

For you and for all who may come, there is the opportunity of worship, the opportunity of ever greater understanding through the Bible and Confirmation Classes and Church School, the opportunity of Christian fellowship through the Guilds, the Club, Trinity Club, and the 1904 Club, and in the Coffee Hours. There is opportunity for asking questions and seeking answers through personal counselling with clergy of the parish. The doors are open and the invitation to come and drink of the waters of life is extended to all men. Come and see.

HERE ARE SOME DATES FOR YOUR CALENDAR

September

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 13: Services of worship at 8 A. M., 11 A. M., and 8 P. M. At the 11 A. M. service, the organist, Mr. Robert Knox Chapman, will play the organ and direct the choir for the last time. Mr. Chapman is leaving Holy Trinity to assume the position of organist at Christ Church Cathedral, Springfield, Massachusetts (Diocese of Western Massachusetts). The whole parish wishes good luck and Godspeed to Mr. Chapman and his family.

Trinity Club for young adults in the twenties and thirties begin its 1959-1960 meetings with John A. Brown, Assistant to the President, Temple University, as the keynote speaker. You will find more than a hundred interesting people at the meetings. The club sponsors other social events on week nights. The first dance of the season is on Friday night, September 25. On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 2, 3 and 4, there will be a weekend in the Poconos. Twenty and thirty? Come and join Trinity Club. Pick up a program in the church porch.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14: at 8 o'clock, the first fall meeting of the 1904 Club with the Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, Suffragan Bishop, Diocese of Pennsylvania, as the first speaker. "1904" welcomes all people, men and women. Looking for a pleasant place to go, to meet others, to find food for thought, drop in at 1904 Walnut Street on Monday nights.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 20: at 9:30 A. M., the opening of the Church School. Please notice the new starting time. All children AND THEIR PARENTS are to go to the Church School rooms on the second floor of the Parish House. Worship and classes will be held there. Mr. Lee is in charge of the Church School and he will be assisted by Mr. Robert Snyder, a junior at the Philadelphia Divinity School. Along with regular classes, there will be a class for the parents.

SAINT MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS, TUESDAY, SERVICES 7:30, 12:15 FREDERICK ROYE BECOMES OUR CHOIR MASTER

At the services today, we welcome Frederick Roye as the Choir Master and Organist at Holy Trinity. Mr. Roye is a member of the Episcopal Church, has studied with McKay Williams, formerly organist at Saint Bartholomew's, New York, and one of the Editors of our present hymnal. He has also studied with Robert Elmore and Alexander McCurdy. Mr. Roye comes to us from the Bala-Cynwyd Methodist Church where he was choir master. In addition to his work with us, he will continue to be director of "The Great Valley Singers," a chorus on the Main Line, as well as being organist at the Keneseth Israel Synagogue.

THIS MONDAY NIGHT—AND EVERY MONDAY NIGHT

Holy Trinity's newest adult group for men and women of all ages, the 1904 Club, meets at 7:30 P. M. in the Centennial Room. The speaker this week is W. Thacher Longstreth on "Lost Responsibility and How It Should Be Regained."

A Coffee Hour follows, and with it the chance to meet new people, make new friends, and join in other activities.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES BEGIN TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY

Eight weekly classes in Bible study begin this Tuesday at 10:45 A. M. and an identical class (for your convenience) on Wednesday evening at 7:45. Both classes are in the Centennial Room. The classes will continue each week through November 18. On Wednesday evening, October 28, the class will be led by the Archbishop of York.

The Bible study will be about the earliest Christian writing, Saint Paul's letter to the Galatians. Your Rector hopes that many will join him in these classes because he feels that, especially in these times, we cannot study our Faith too much.

LOOKING AHEAD TO COMING EVENTS IN OCTOBER

Thursday, October 1: 11 A. M. to 2 P. M.—Smith Home Party (see notice in church porch).

Tuesday, October 6: Evening Auxiliary meets at 6:00 P. M.

RECENT LETTERS OF TRANSFER

We welcome as Communicant members of the Church of the Holy Trinity the following who have recently transferred to this parish: John S. Fair, Jr., 1830 Rittenhouse Square; Mrs. Robert M. Green, 250 S. 18th Street; The Reverend Edward L. Lee, Jr., 220 Spruce Street; Mrs. Elizabeth M. Lewis, 345 S. 18th Street; Virginia B. Stanton, 1717 Chestnut Street; and Mrs. Samuel G. Stem, The Barclay.

With regret, we announce the transfer of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Aro to Saint Peter's, Albany, Oregon.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER

During the past summer, the parish has suffered several losses in the deaths of Arletta S. Hansford, Grace Heurtley, Robert B. Platt, Lucy T. Rockwell, and Blanche Wood. They were active and regular Church attendants. The Burial Service was also read for Louise B. Mallon, Emma N. Mayer, Jeannette K. Smith, Frederic A. van Dyke, and Emma F. Wenger, who were not immediate residents or members of the Parish. May they all forever grow in love and service.

YOU WILL RECEIVE AN IMPORTANT LETTER

Your Rector urges the members of the Parish to consider earnestly the letter coming to you in the mail this week. He hopes for your enthusiastic response.

TRINITY CLUB'S FIRST DANCE

This Friday, September 25, Trinity Club will sponsor a "Union Hall Dance" in the Centennial Room. Music begins at 8:30 P. M.

tions for lunch ($1.00) should be made early, not later than Monday, October 5.

7:30 P. M.—Senior Choir Rehearsal in the parish house.

THE RECTOR ANNOUNCES THE SERMONS FOR OCTOBER

The Rector's sermons during October will be based on the text from Psalm eight, verses four and five, "What is man that thou art mindful of him. Thou madest him lower than the Angels to crown him with glory and worship." Not in a long time has there been so much coming from the publishers presses about man's beginnings, his meaning, his ethic as today. To ask "What is Man?" is to ask "What are you, what are you?" This is what Joseph Wood Krutch is talking about in his new book "Human Nature and the Human Condition." This is the subject also of another new book "The Indian Ethic." We, too, shall look at Man in the October sermons.

HAVE YOU ANSWERED THE LETTER ABOUT LENT?

One hundred reservations for the Lenten dinners are needed if we are to go ahead with Lenten plans. Have you sent yours in? Why not do it now.

HOUSE OF REST DONATION DAY

The House of Rest, our only Diocesan Home for the aged, located at 5919 Wayne Avenue, Germantown, extends a cordial invitation to attend its Open House and Tea on Wednesday, October 14, from two until five o'clock. Further information can be obtained from Miss Grace Haupt (LO 4-2226) who is a member, from our Parish, of the Board of Women Managers.

HOLY TRINITY'S ANNUAL BAZAAR IS NOVEMBER FIFTH

The annual bazaar given annually by the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity again be held at the Barclay, 18th and Rittenhouse Square, on Thursday, November 5. Mrs. Eugene M. Callis and Mrs. Lever F. Stewart are co-chairmen of the event. Help now to make this year's Bazaar a success by donating one or more articles. The various tables that they may be attractively and well stocked. Do it now—before the fifth of November will be here before you know it. The Fancy and Useful tables and the Novelties booth will welcome your gifts. The Elephant Booth will be glad to receive saleable objects including jewelry. The Table and Candy Table will be most appreciative of homemade cakes, cookies and candy.

Our Church Bazaar is a project for the whole Parish, one in which each member should have an active interest. Whether your contribution is small or large it will be fully appreciated.

Donations of non-perishable articles may be sent to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street until November 3, marked "Bazaar." Cakes and candies are to be sent to the bazaar before noon on November 5 marked "Holy Trinity Bazaar." Thank you.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS STARTS SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18

Bishop Armstrong will visit the parish to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation on Sunday, December 20. Eight classes in preparation will begin for adults on Sunday, October 18 at 2:30 P. M. in the church and continue for the next eight Sundays. Attendance at the classes does not obligate any inquirer to be confirmed, but all who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend the classes. Anyone may attend, whether already confirmed or not.

MAYOR DILWORTH TO SPEAK TO THE 1904 CLUB

This coming Monday, at 7:30 in the Centennial Room, the Honorable Richardson Dilworth, Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, and Democratic candidate for re-election in the coming election, will address the 1904 Club. On Monday night, October 19, the Honorable Harold Stassen, Republican candidate, will be the speaker. Adults of all ages are invited this Monday and every Monday. After Mayor Dilworth's address, there will be a coffee hour, a discussion group, bridge, and plenty of time to meet new people and make friends.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

Tuesday mornings at 10:45 and Wednesday evenings at 7:45, the Rector's Bible Classes meet in the Centennial Room. You are invited to attend.

MEN OF THE PARISH MEET NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

The men of the Parish will meet for dinner in the Centennial Room next Tuesday evening at 6:30. All interested men are urged to attend.

WORKS BY RALPH KINDER AND ROBERT ELMORE TO BE SUNG SUNDAY

After the first lesson this Sunday morning, the choir will sing a Benedictus Es written by Ralph Kinder. Mr. Kinder was choirmaster and organist at Holy Trinity for 18 years, from 1889 to 1937. During that time, he gave 152 organ recitals on Saturday afternoons. The average attendance was around 1,000. An article about these recitals in the Inquirer notes that no one was admitted except between numbers and a "rule of strict silence, no talking, was enforced at all times." The article also said "His skill as an organist was always subservient to the thought that the music of his recitals was to draw people together in quiet meditation."

The offertory anthem is by Robert Elmore who was also choirmaster at Holy Trinity for 17 years, from 1938 to 1955. We shall feel his presence in his music this morning.

EPISCOPAL MAGAZINE FEATURES ADMIRAL BOWLING'S WORK

The current issue of the magazine "Episcopal Church Illustrated" has a feature article about the making of our Centennial Chalice by Admiral Bowling. The magazine is for sale on the pamphlet rack at the rear of the church.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGIN THIS SUNDAY, 2:30

In the church at 2:30 this Sunday afternoon, a series of eight Confirmation Classes for adults will begin under the leadership of the Rector. The classes have for their purpose an understanding of the Episcopal Church.

Anyone desiring to understand the Church better may attend, whether already confirmed or not. Anyone may attend as an "inquirer." Attendance at the classes does not commit anyone to being confirmed at their close. All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend the classes.

The Confirmation will take place at 11 A. M. on Sunday, December 20.

1904 CLUB TO HEAR STASSEN

This Monday, after having had Mayor Dilworth last week presenting the Democratic side in the coming election, the Honorable Harold Stassen, Republican nominee Mayor of Philadelphia, will address the 1904 Club at 7:30 P. M. in the Centennial Hall. All adults of all ages are invited. Come and find fun, fellowship, and friends.

ARCHBISHOP OF YORK HERE OCTOBER 27, 28, 29

The Most Reverend and Right Honorable Arthur Michael Ramsey, Archbishop of York, will deliver the Bohlen Lectures at Holy Trinity at eight o'clock on the evenings of Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, October 27, 28, and 29. He will speak on "The Church Today." Come early for a good seat.

LENTEN PLAN APPROVED

One hundred people have signified their support of the Wednesday evening Lenten Plan. Of the first 100, 30 expressed a preference for a special speaker on Christian History, 22 on the Bible, 14 on the Prayer Book, and six on Theology. Twenty-eight expressed no preference. The Rector is now seeking a "top" man in the field of Christian History. Some 30 other people replied saying that for various reasons they would be unable to attend. The Rector appreciates the interest of all who replied.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

PRESENTATION of the United Thank Offering of the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be made at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday, October 25.

THE RECTOR'S mother suffered a broken hip last week and is a patient at Bryn Mawr Hospital. She will be 91 years old on Tuesday, October 27. Mr. Lee's mother underwent surgery last Tuesday and is a patient in Pennsylvania Hospital.

MR. LEE will be ordained to the Priesthood on Saturday, November 14, at 10 A. M. at the Church of the Holy Trinity. All are urged to keep that date and participate in the service.

ATTEND THE BIBLE CLASSES

TUESDAYS, 10:45 A. M. — WEDNESDAYS, 7:45 P. M.

Any one class will be profitable. Attend them all.

So God-possessed and so Spirit-filled
Make us, O Lord, that we shall live our faith,
Lives that arrest and challenge grant,
That shall elicit once again the world's Awe and commendation: "See, see how they love Each other!" Lives of radiant victory give
And hope unconquerable, lives that speak with
The Christ tongue, which the world will read,
And understand; and, understanding, seek
The God who gives such faith, and hope, and life.

THE RADIO MINISTRY

On the last two Sundays, the Rector has asked radio listeners to write in to the church to tell us that they were listening. Actually in eight days time we received letters or cards from 686 individuals. Just what this means in terms of total listeners is not clear. Some estimate that one person in 500 will answer an appeal for "write-in." Others say that only one in 100 will write.

Actually, we do know that our Nielsen rating in the Philadelphia area last May was 7.8 indicating that we were reaching into 113,000 homes with 1.9 listeners in each home. Presumably this is higher in winter months when the weather is not as pleasant in May. At any rate, wherever your Rector goes, from almost every stranger he meets in a restaurant or in a bus, he has word that there is a listener in the family. The mother of one of the senior Mrs. Longley's nurses, for instance, is an every Sunday listener. Whatever the ultimate figure, the Sunday morning service must reach thousands of people. May we, preacher, choir, congregation, all of us, ever be mindful of this vast unseen congregation and feel our fellowship with all its members. Often someone will write that with Prayer Book and Hymnal in hand, they sing and pray and with us.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

At the eleven o'clock service this Sunday, the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will present the fall ingathering of their United Thank Offering. For the taking of the offering today, women will replace the usual ushers. As is well known certainly, the United Thank Offering from the whole Church is presented each three years at the Church's General Convention. Last year, it amounted to over three million dollars. It is used to carry on Missionary work, Churches schools, hospitals, all over the world. For instance, Bishop Gordon's airplane with which he travels all over Alaska, the fiftieth state, is made possible by the United Thank Offering.

THE USE OF THE PARISH ROOMS

Nine months of the year, the buildings of Holy Trinity are in constant use. The other day, we totalled approximately the number of people at various meetings other than the Church services during the week of October 11 to 17. Here's how it came out: Trinity Club (155); 1904 Club (70); three Bible Classes (90); two Alcoholics Anonymous groups (70); Men's Club (27); Newcomers Party (100); two board meetings of parish groups (40); Choir rehearsal (20);—a total of 572 people using the buildings. And this was a fairly quiet week.

MR. LEE'S ORDINATION, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 10 A. M.

Of interest to the entire parish will be the ordination of Mr. Lee, our Curate, to the Order of Priesthood on Saturday, November 14, at 10 A. M. Not only will your attendance at the service do honor to Mr. Lee, and give him assurance of your esteem; participation in the service which the Book of Common Prayer calls "The Form and Manner of Ordering Priests" is an experience which every Episcopalian should have because it is so full of teaching about the nature of the Church. Bishop Armstrong will be the ordaining Bishop. Another deacon, the Reverend Noble Smith, will also be ordained to the Priesthood at this service. He will be presented to the Bishop by the Reverend Albert M. Holloway. Doctor Longley will present Mr. Lee. The sermon will be preached by the Reverend O. Sydney Barr, Ph.D., who is Assistant Professor of New Testament, the General Theological Seminary, New York City. Other participants in the service are the Reverend Charles R. Fisher, Rector, Christ Church, Hackensack, New Jersey; the Reverend Edward Platts, and the Reverend J. R. West, D.D. The choir of the Church of the Holy Trinity under the direction of Frederick Royce, Choirmaster, will sing.

Reservations should be made immediately through the parish office (LO 7-1267).

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS THIS COMING THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12 SIGNIFICANT PROGRAM ON AFRICA WITH MOVIES TO FEATURE MEETING

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild meets on Thursday, November 12, opening with the service of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service, followed by luncheon at one o'clock in the parish house. All women of the parish are welcome. No special invitation is necessary.

The topic for this meeting, and also this year's mission study theme, is Africa. No more current or vital area of the world is more challenging today—especially to Christian people. A film, in color, entitled "New Faces of Africa," which pictures parts of this magnificent country and the life of its people will be shown. This is a beautiful and informative film.

Please make reservations for lunch ($1.00) EARLY. It is important that they reach the parish office, 1904 Walnut Street, by MONDAY, November 9, to allow time for adequate preparation. Telephone LO 7-1267 or mail a card in plenty of time.

Each one now to be in church on Loyalty Sunday, November 22, at 11 A. M. to indicate an act of worship your partnership in all that we are doing as a fellowship dedicated to the mission of our Lord.

FINAL BIBLE CLASSES THIS WEEK

The eighth and final Bible Classes in the current series on "Galatians" will take place this week on Tuesday at 10:45 A. M., in the Centennial Room, and on Wednesday evening at 7:45 P. M. in the Church House, 202 S. Rittenhouse Square (Please note). These classes will summarize the eight weeks study of the Epistle and should be interesting to anyone whether a member of the class or not. All are invited to attend.

1904 CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

Meeting every Monday evening at 7:30 in the Centennial Room, the 1904 Club invites men and women of all ages to a program consisting of a speaker, followed by a coffee hour and such group activities as bridge, canasta, an informal discussion and with it all the chance to meet new people and make new friends.

SOME THOUGHTS BEFORE LOYALTY SUNDAY

The Reverend Robert J. McCracken, D.D., Pastor of Riverside Church in New York City, recently said this: "Some money, given to good causes, is like corn, eaten up at once. Money given to your Church is more like seed corn; it multiplies itself from the seed of our living fellowship. Money, so used, is more than money. It is our own personal energy turned into portable form, endowed with feet that go where we cannot go and with hands to serve where we cannot reach. Raising our budget means more giving money; it means each of us extending his or her personal influence around the world on behalf of the most important cause on earth."

TITHING

It is a fact that among the people whose giving to this parish is largest in terms of actual money and among those who give much less in actual amounts, there are, nevertheless, in both cases tithers—people who are carefully giving away at least ten percent of their income for the benefit of others. Tithing among Christian people is on the increase. It is perhaps something which should arouse serious thought in your mind. Business investments are made for the purpose, and with the hope of enhancing the amount of money "risked." The safer the risk, proportionately smaller is the expected return. The investment made in the form of TITHING is just the reverse. It is the safest kind of investment with by far the greatest return. I have never known a conscientious TITHER (one who doesn't fudge), who, far from suffering because he tithed, was not blessed of God.

A SINCERE "THANK YOU"

The Missionary Bazaar Committee wishes to thank all those who by their active participation, good wishes and generous donations made the bazaar held on November 5 such a success. The Bazaar Committee is sending this message to you through the Parish Bulletin as it is our only means of extending our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to many people who helped. A financial statement is not available at this time. It will appear later on.

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed, because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge, others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time. May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in, or ill, or prevented by conditions of work, and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

SUNDAY'S CANVASS TOTAL TOPS ALL RECORDS

At the morning service last Sunday, $42,448 was pledged for our work in the coming year. Before the day was over, additional pledges on Sunday afternoon brought the total for the day to $44,561 toward the expected goal of $50,000 from the people of the parish. These most gratifying Sunday totals are the highest recorded in the nine years and serve to emphasize the loyalty of the people of Holy Trinity.

Many pledges, of course, are not yet in due to people's being away or ill. If you are among those not yet in, please send your pledge as soon as possible so that the special secretary may prepare her books for next year.

Note also that the envelopes for 1960 begin with the first Sunday in January and mailed on December 26.

A VERY SPECIAL EVENT, SUNDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 13

The whole parish should be interested in what promises to be a most exciting as well as a most worshipful event in the church on Sunday evening, December 13, at eight o'clock when our church choir, augmented by The Great Valley Singers, and the choir of Trinity Club plus instrumental accompaniment by members of the Philadelphia Orchestra will sing the Advent and Christmas portions of "The Messiah" under the direction of our choirmaster, Frederick Royce. Make your plans to attend.

1904 CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

Meeting every Monday evening at 7:30 in the Centennial Room, the 1904 Club welcomes men and women of all ages to a program consisting of a speaker, followed by a coffee hour and such group activities as bridge, canasta, an informal discussion group—and with it all the chance to meet new people and make new friends.

MEN'S CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

At its recent meeting, the Men's Club of the parish elected Harvey Schock as President; Ned Humphries, Vice-President; Humbert Lanzi, Secretary and Treasurer. Members of the Advisory Committee are Frederick Bachman, Austin J. Gaugel, John Wilson, and Dr. Barook J. Masuda, S. Scott Stewart, and James Wiley.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS TUESDAY AT 6 P. M.

The next dinner meeting of the Evening Auxiliary is this coming Tuesday, December 1, at 6 P. M. in the Centennial Room. The speaker is Mrs. Albert H. Lucas, wife of the Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School, who will talk on "The Divinity School," assisted by a seminarian who will show slides. The dinner is $1.25. Reservations should be made at once by calling LO 7-1267.

The Evening Auxiliary is composed of business and professional women and others who cannot attend a daytime meeting. The membership is open to all. No special invitation is necessary. Come and you will be welcomed.

TWO HOURS OF GUIDED MEDITATIONS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4

Under the auspices of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the Very Reverend John B. Coburn, Dean of the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Massachusetts, will direct a two hour period of meditation from 10:30 A. M. to 12:30 P. M. on Friday, December 4, at Saint Clement's Church, 20th and Cherry streets. You are invited to attend.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

NEW FORWARDS, which begin this Sunday, will be found in the Church Porch. They are ten cents each.

OTHER PAMPHLETS and Church magazines of interest to Church people are found on the rack at the rear of the church.

CANVASS TEAM TOTALS will be published in next week's Bulletin. Please get your card in.

THE PHILLIPS BROOKS CLUB

Holy Trinity's "young married" group, the Phillips Brooks Club, which meets regularly throughout the year, will gather at the home of Erika and Eman Francks, Churchville, Pa., Saturday, December 5 at 8:30 P. M. The program: slides and commentary on the Francks' 1958 fall trip through Europe. All young couples in the parish, and their married friends, are invited and urged to join in the fun and fellowship of this group. For details, get in touch with Mr. Lee, LO 7-1267 or LO 7-7428.

TRINITY CLUB PARTICIPATES IN WORLD REFUGEE YEAR

Of significant interest is Trinity Club's recent participation in World Refugee Year ough programs sponsored by Church World Service. As a Thanksgiving Offering, Clubbers contributed $147.09 to the Share Our Surplus Program. This program, ported entirely by the free-will offerings of American Churchgoers, sends desperately ed food, taken from America's vast overabundance, to millions of starving people.
In addition to this, members of Trinity Club also donated large quantities of used and clothes in support of the United Clothing Appeal, a program aimed at sending much ded clothing abroad for poorly clad refugees and victims of disaster and oppression.
Trinity Club is to be congratulated for its fine support of these worthy programs.

1904 CLUB MEETS EVERY MONDAY, 7:30 P. M.

This Monday, December 7, the 1904 Club, Holy Trinity's newest adult group for n and women of all ages, will sponsor a program of Japanese flower arranging with ditional comments on Japanese life and culture. It is hoped that many will come for this different and interesting program, and also join in the fun and fellowship the coffee hour which follows the evening's meeting and program.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY TO MEET

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of the Church of the Holy Trinity, at its Novemmeeting, voted to change the name of the organization to “The Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity,” a change in name only. Everything else remains the same.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, December 10, opening with the service Holy Communion at 12:15 noon followed by luncheon in the parish house at one o'clock. The topic for the meeting is “The Philadelphia Divinity School” and the speaker will be Mrs. Albert H. Lucas, wife of the Dean of the Divinity School. One of seminarians will show colored slides presenting views of the school and the day day life of the young men who are preparing to become clergymen of the Episcopal Church. Reservations for the luncheon must reach the parish house not later than Monday, December 7.

OFFERING FOR NUCLEAR REACTOR GIFT TO SAINT PAUL'S TOKYO

The Vestry has authorized a special offering this Sunday morning toward the gift of a nuclear reactor for Saint Paul's University, Tokyo, Japan, which was approved at the last General Convention of the Church. Envelopes for this purpose will be in the pews. This is the second offering we have taken for this gift. Our previous offering was less than twenty dollars. We should do better than that!

CLOTHING COLLECTION THIS SUNDAY AND NEXT

Church World Service sponsors the collecting of clothing for those many persons throughout the world who have not enough to cover them and asks the fortunate ones, of their abundance, that those who lack may be clothed. Wearing apparel and shoes for men, women and children, especially warm clothing, clean and in good condition, will be welcome. The donated articles will be packed in cartons, taken to one of the collection centers and sent by truck to New Windsor, Maryland for processing; from there they are sent to needy persons in countries overseas. There will be cartons in the church vestibule on Sunday, December 13th and 20th to receive your donations. Thank you.

COMING EVENTS

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 20—8 A. M.—Corporate Communion of the men of the Parish.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 20—11 A. M.—Confirmation, Bishop Armstrong Preaches.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 21—Saint Thomas' Day, Holy Communion at 7:30 and 12:15.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 21—8 P. M.—Altar Guild meeting with Mrs. Marlene Maerz presiding.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 23—7:15 P. M.—Decorating the church. All are invited to help.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24—11 P. M.—The Christmas Midnight Service of Holy Communion.

TRANSFERS TO AND FROM THE PARISH

We welcome as Communicant members of the Church of the Holy Trinity the following who have transferred to this parish: Mrs. J. Harold Austin, Thomas Wynne Apartments, Wynnewood; Miss Carrie Lindsay, 4828 Walnut Street; Mrs. Raymond Perkins and Philip Perkins, 107 Pennock Place, Media; Mrs. Alexander Scott, 1815 Deland Place; Walter Scott, 1933 Chestnut Street; Joseph Wickes, 1406 Spruce Street; Ira Williams, 254 S. Sixteenth Street; and Lewis M. Wood, 1520 Spruce Street.

With regret we announce the transfers of William J. Braun to Calvary, Germantown; Mr. and Mrs. Donald O. Hays to Epiphany, Washington; Robert C. Leak to Saint Mary's, Philadelphia; Miss Edith T. Roll to Saint Mary's Barnstable, Massachusetts; and Raymond B. Vaughn to Grace Church, Providence, Rhode Island.

It should be noted that a person leaving one parish for another should apply to the former rector for a Letter of Transfer to the new parish. Letters of Transfer are given except as requested personally by the Communicant. No one is enrolled as member of a parish except he be confirmed or received by Letter of Transfer from another parish of the Church.

1904 CLUB

A very interesting and provocative program has been arranged by the 1904 Club this coming Monday, December 14, at 7:30 in the Centennial Room. Mr. Norman Hildesley, a graphoanalyst, will talk on the subject of studying and understanding the human personality through a person's handwriting. Men and women of all ages are invited to attend this program, which is followed by a coffee and social hour.

Note: The Church Canon regarding transfers from parish to parish reads as follows:
communicant or baptized member in good standing, removing from one parish to another, shall be entitled to receive and shall procure a letter of transfer." Bishop Hart omments on this as follows: "If a person moves from one locality to another and still desires to go back to the parish in which he was confirmed and be active in that parish, the Church encourages him to do so. If a person moves to a new locality and not going to remain active in his own parish, the Rector of the former parish should encourage him to ask for a letter of transfer."

SOME RADIO LISTENER COMMENTS

From a listener in Narberth, "When not attending church, it is always nice to know that Holy Trinity is right there at a turn of the switch." (Is this good or bad?)

From a listener in Haddonfield, "It is not very often that your listeners have occasion to find fault with what you say; but on Loyalty Sunday you said that your sermon was not for radio listeners. I beg to differ. The financial support of Holy Trinity is our concern. Starting with Advent Sunday, I will contribute $2.00 each week." (No question here, this is good.)

At Thanksgiving time a Philadelphia listener says, "The broadcasting of your service is one of the many things I'm thankful for today."

From Morton comes a check from "The women of the Church of the Atonement in half of our shut-in parish members unable to make a contribution. The service means a lot to them and we thank you."

From Collingswood, "Listening to your service has caused us to decide to be confirmed and we are now taking instructions."

WORSHIP IN THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

SUNDAY: 8:00 A. M.—Men's Corporate Communion and Breakfast.

The Midnight Service of Holy Communion

THURSDAY NIGHT AT 11 O'CLOCK

Tonight's service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing "O Come, All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphant ending when the "Gloria Excelsis," followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" and finally at very end, "The Hallelujah Chorus," is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion, if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during this time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

Be Joyful, Sing the Hymns and Carols with the Choir

Especially during the time of Communion, while all who wish to receive Holy Communion are coming to the Altar, the congregation is invited to sing carols with the choir.

While Shepherds watched their flocks by ated on the ground,

 angel of the Lord came down, glory shone around.
 not, said he, for mighty dread seized their troubled mind tidings of great joy I bring to all mankind out in David's town this day in of David's line Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
 this shall be the sign:

The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.
Thus spake the seraph and forthwith,
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
All glory be to God on high
And on the earth be peace
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease. —Hymn 13

came upon the midnight clear,
and glorious song of old,
from angels bending near the earth
to touch their harps of gold:
Peace on the earth, good will to men,
from Heav'n's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
to hear the angels sing.
Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heav'nly music floats
O'er all the weary world;

Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hov'ring wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The tidings which they bring;
O hush the noise ye men of strife
And hear the angels sing! —Hymn 19

all my heart this night rejoices
as I hear, far and near,
sweetest angel voices.
"Christ is born," their choirs are singing
fill the air everywhere
now with joy is ringing.

2. Hark! a voice from yonder manger,
Soft and sweet, doth entreat:
"Flee from woe and danger!
Brethren, come! from all doth grieve
you,
You are freed; all you need
I will surely give you."

3. Come, then, let us hasten yonder!
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder!
Love him who with love is yearning!
Hail the star that from far
Bright with hope is burning! Hymn 32

Angels from the realms of glory.
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye, who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:

2. Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing
Yonder shines the infant Light:

3. Saints before the Altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His Temple shall appear. Hymn 28

Refrain:
Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn King.

RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS RESUMES THIS MONDAY, TUESDAY

The Rector's Bible Class resumes this Monday evening in the Parish House at 7:45 P. M. and Tuesday morning in the Centennial Room at 10:45 A. M. Note the change from Wednesday evening back to Monday evening and the place—the Parish House. The two classes are identical.

This is a seven week series on "The Gospel According to Saint Mark." All men and women, are invited, indeed urged, to attend the Bible Classes. Be an intelligent Christian! There is no fee. No registration is necessary. Come Monday evening at 7:45 and Tuesday morning at 10:45.

1904 CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

Meeting every Monday evening at 7:30 in the Centennial Room, the 1904 Club welcomes men and women of all ages to a program consisting of a speaker, followed by coffee hour and such group activities as bridge, canasta, an informal discussion group and with it all the chance to meet new people and make new friends.

MEN'S CLUB MEETS TUESDAY AT 6:30

This Tuesday evening, January 12 at 6:30 in the Centennial Room, the men of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hold their regular monthly meeting with Mr. Julian C. Berg, Esq., Counsel, the American Civil Liberties Union, speaking on "The Gray Matter Mind." It has been suggested that there will be room for lively argument with speaker. So, men, come prepared for an interesting evening. Be sure to notify the parish office (LO 7-1267) immediately so that a reservation may be made for you. The fee is $1.50.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH MEET THURSDAY

The January 14 meeting of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be honored by the presence of the Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Bishop Hart will be the luncheon guest and will speak to the meeting on "The Significance of the Recent Appointment of Bishop Bayne as Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion throughout the World."

The meeting opens with the service of Holy Communion in the Church at 12:15 P. M., followed by luncheon in the parish house at one o'clock. All women of the parish and their friends are welcome, no special invitation is necessary but reservations for lunch ($1.00) must be made early. It is important that they reach the parish house, 11 Walnut Street, by Monday, January 11. Telephone the parish office (LO 7-1267) to mail a card in plenty of time.

THE EPIPHANY SEASON AND THE MISSIONARY EMPHASIS

The outreach of the Church into every area of man's life has long been an emphasis during the Epiphany season. The Church of Jesus Christ acknowledges no boundaries in this world or indeed space which it may not cross with the Gospel of the Incarnate Saviour and Lord. Methods change but the outreach remains. Because the Church lives, His light shines and is the life of men.

Jesus, seeing the faith of a Gentile who came to Him, said "I say unto you that thy shall come from the East and the West and shall sit down in the Kingdom of heaven." Paul was doubtless impelled to his restless missionary activity by this very conviction. So he believed that there was now no distinction between Jew and Gentile, that one universal salvation, equally valid for all men, given of God through Jesus Christ, and known finally in no other way.

"I am the light of the world." All who believe this and love the good Lord must be missionaries.

BEGIN THE NEW YEAR AT HOLY COMMUNION

am body and soul; not body alone, not soul alone; but body and soul. We say Holy Communion that "here we offer and present unto Thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies." And, as the sacred elements are administered, we hear the words "Receive thy body and soul." I participate in this because when I truly appreciate and realize the meaning of my existence on this earth, I know that there is that which is more than my body alone. There is infinite spirit. My perishing life of this world is not all of life. I am made in the image of God. I am spiritual. This part of me is the basic "I" does not perish.

Therefore, I relate myself to the eternal God in worship, in study, in prayer and meditation. And, most of all, I meet God in Holy Communion. And in these actions of my life I sense the presence of God and I realize God's help in everything. I come to know in Him I live and move and have my being. So I live without fear. So I live striving for the fulfillment of my meaning and purpose. So life for me, come what may in this world, becomes a glorious adventure, a great creative activity.

Humbly surrendered in faith and hope and love, kneel at Holy Communion, and you will know these things. Begin the New Year with a resolution to give yourself more frequently at His Altar for as more and more of you do this in sincerity and faith, more and more will there be peace and good will among men and joy in the meaning and usefulness of your life.

THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

This Christian observance with a Greek name meaning "manifestation," associated with the wise men of Christmas, commemorates the worship of the "Gentiles" from the East at the Bethlehem cradle. In a sense, the event of our Lord's birth is the Christmas meaning while at Epiphany on January 6, we see the whole world, Jew and Gentile, recognizing Him and worshipping Him. So this day has been a great day of worship through the centuries. In the West, it has come to be obscured by Christmas and no great special services are usually held; but in the East, it is the greater so far as worship is concerned.

At Holy Trinity, next Wednesday, the Feast of the Epiphany, there will be two services—at 7:30 A. M. and at 12:15 noon. O Come, let us adore Him. The day will be shared in with hymns and music at Evening Prayer on Tuesday at five o'clock.

1904 CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

Meeting every Monday evening at 7:30 in the Centennial Room, the 1904 Club welcomes men and women of all ages to a program consisting of a speaker, followed by a free hour and such group activities as bridge, canasta, an informal discussion group and with it all the chance to meet new people and make new friends.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS TUESDAY AT 6 P. M. DINNER

The next dinner meeting of the Evening Auxiliary is this coming Tuesday, January 5 at 6 P. M. in the Centennial Room. The speaker is Doctor William H. Whiteley, Assistant Professor of Neuro-Surgery, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, whose subject is "Light in the Medical World." The dinner is $1.25. Reservations should be made in advance by calling LO 7-1267.

The Evening Auxiliary is composed of business and professional women and others who cannot attend a daytime meeting. The membership is open to all. No special invitation is necessary. Come and you will be welcomed.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE MEN'S CLUB meets on Tuesday, January 12, at 6:15 for supper.
THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH meet on Thursday, January 14, beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15 and luncheon at 1 P. M. The speaker is the Right Reverend J. Hart, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

ENVELOPES for your 1960 offerings should now be in your hands. If you asked for them and you have not received them, call the parish office at once (LO 7-1267) and they will be mailed to you.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER

Elizabeth Paul Brown departed this life on Thursday, December 24. The Burial Service was read on Monday, December 28. May she forever grow in love and service. Julia Leighton and Merrill A. Kercher were joined together in Holy Matrimony by the Right Reverend, the Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese, on Saturday, December 26. God shower His Grace upon them.

Meeting every Monday evening at 7:30 in the Centennial Room, the 1904 Club welcomes men and women of all ages to a program consisting of a speaker, followed by coffee hour and such group activities as bridge, canasta, an informal discussion group and with it all the chance to meet new people and make new friends.

MEN'S CLUB MEETS TUESDAY AT 6:30

This Tuesday evening, January 12 at 6:30 in the Centennial Room, the men of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hold their regular monthly meeting with Mr. Julian Berg, Esq., Counsel, the American Civil Liberties Union, speaking on "The Gray Matter Mind." It has been suggested that there will be room for lively argument with speaker. So, men, come prepared for an interesting evening. Be sure to notify the parish office (LO 7-1267) immediately so that a reservation may be made for you. The fee is $1.50.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH MEET THURSDAY

The January 14 meeting of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be honored by the presence of the Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Bishop Hart will be the luncheon guest and will speak to the meeting on "The Significance of the Recent Appointment of Bishop Bayne as Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion throughout the World."

The meeting opens with the service of Holy Communion in the Church at 12:15 P. M., followed by luncheon in the parish house at one o'clock. All women of the parish and their friends are welcome, no special invitation is necessary but reservations for lunch ($1.00) must be made early. It is important that they reach the parish house, 11 Walnut Street, by Monday, January 11. Telephone the parish office (LO 7-1267) to mail a card in plenty of time.

THE EPIPHANY SEASON AND THE MISSIONARY EMPHASIS

The outreach of the Church into every area of man's life has long been an emphasis during the Epiphany season. The Church of Jesus Christ acknowledges no boundaries in this world or indeed space which it may not cross with the Gospel of its reigning Saviour and Lord. Methods change but the outreach remains. Because the Church lives, His light shines and is the life of men.

Jesus, seeing the faith of a Gentile who came to Him, said "I say unto you that thy shall come from the East and the West and shall sit down in the Kingdom of heaven." Paul was doubtless impelled to his restless missionary activity by this very conviction. So he believed that there was now no distinction between Jew and Gentile, that one universal salvation, equally valid for all men, given of God through Jesus Christ, and known finally in no other way.

"I am the light of the world." All who believe this and love the good Lord must be missionaries.

HERE IS A REPORT FROM A PARISH COMMITTEE

Miss Margaret R. Kollock Vice-President in charge of the Community and Social Committee of the Churchwomen of the Church of the Holy Trinity, recently gave the following report of this committee's activities in recent weeks. The Rector believes it is worth being seen by all our members. Sometimes we little know how much of this sort of thing goes on. Both the Evening Auxiliary and Trinity are also participants in like activities.

Miss Kollock's report: "The Community and Social Service Committee of the Church of the Holy Trinity' has had many interesting projects. Twelve members visited the Home of the Merciful Saviour and saw how beautifully the children suffering from cerebral palsy are cared for. Through the generosity of one of our members a much needed wheel chair was given to the home.

The Chinese Christian Center was visited. Here it was seen how boys and girls are attracted to the clubs and classes conducted by the staff and by volunteer workers.

St. Martha's Home and the Seamen's Church Institute were also visited. In each of these places instead of taking toys and presents, a gift was made to the officers. If a needed article could be purchased. For the House of Rest, identical presents were sent to the 42 "girls" who live at the home. Our parish is represented by three members on the board.

The Committee sent fruit or flowers to our "shut-ins" and food orders to needy families.

At the visit to the Philadelphia General Hospital, six "Teeter-tots" were given. These are sturdy wooden toys in which the children sit for exercise and play. Plastic toys made by the parish sewing group, were given to the tubercular children. Two checker games were donated for the men in the rehabilitation ward.

There are many more activities such as the Easter work for the parish and the children, the care of the Tomkin's Memorial, the ice water fountain, the visits and the work at the Holiday House, the interest in the Church Farm School and visits to our "shut-ins."

If you are interested in helping with this work, get in touch with Miss Margaret R. Kollock. She can be reached through the parish house or by telephone at MO 4-5145.

1904 CLUB TO SEE FILMS ON RUSSIA

This Monday evening, the 1904 Club, Holy Trinity's newest adult group for men and women of all ages, will sponsor a program entitled, "An Intimate View of Russia." Films and commentary will be supplied by Stan Summers, who also will present a selection of folk songs. The evening's activities will begin at 7:30 P. M. in the Centennial Room. Following the program there will be a coffee hour and the chance to meet new people and make friends. Everyone is invited to come.

THIS SORT OF THING HAPPENS, TELL OTHERS

Last summer, 250 Episcopal young people formed work groups to aid mission stations in various places in the United States and, indeed, all over the world.

One group of 15 worked in Arctic Village, Alaska. Here is how one of them described it near the end of their tour of duty. "We have learned many things in the past weeks. We can now insulate ceilings and lay floors. We can swing axes and sew beads. We can sing Takudh hymns and cook farina cereal in 15 different ways. We have learned to live in a community of 15 people, and we have learned to appreciate the totally different way of life of the village. To sum it up, this month has been for us a rare privilege as we have come to know more about the real meaning of Christian living. This experience is not one which will end abruptly as we fly over the mountains of Fairbanks and home, for we have grown in our understanding of the Christian faith during these weeks, and Arctic Village and this workcamp will have a special meaning for us the rest of our lives. Perhaps we should say that our journey back home is a learning, not an end."

Young? Interested? Talk to Mr. Lee, the Curate, or refer your friends to him. If you are here, summer's just around the corner.

TODAY'S OFFERING FOR THE CHURCH'S SEMINARIES

One, I believe, will dispute the fact that we are farther ahead today in science and economics "know how" than we are in spiritual understanding. Our age has the ablest minds, and the most fully equipped, and the most spiritually dedicated men it can find to lead it in spiritual development. Never before has theological education and its thorough support by the whole Church been more urgent. Let us support our seminaries. With one exception, they are all private institutions unsupported by the Church at large. They depend on endowments, alumni support, and such offerings as are asked today.

Please note that half of today's loose offering will go to the Philadelphia Divinity School and one-quarter to the Rector's Seminary, Seabury Western, and one-quarter to the Curate's Seminary, the General Seminary. You may however enclose your offering in an envelope or note on a check designating all your offering for one seminary.

TRINITY CLUB: A BOOMING YEAR FOR YOUNG ADULTS

Philadelphia's largest young adult group, Holy Trinity's Trinity Club, is in the midst of an extremely successful year. Now in its ninth year, this Christian fellowship has been cited by many objective observers as being one of the very few in this country reaching and speaking to the needs of the young, single, and career people who dwell in our major metropolitan areas. Open to young men and women, between the ages of 19 and 39, of any religious affiliation or none, Trinity Club in 18 meetings this year has attracted around 240 young people for the first time. And well over half this number has returned to join in the life and fellowship of the club. The regular membership now numbers 354, and add to this a large group of casual visitors, as well as newcomers, and it can be estimated that Trinity Club will reach some 600 young people during the course of this year. But success is not a statistic. For most members, Trinity Club is a weekly way of life. Monthly dances, the Trinity Club Choir, Mr. Lee's study-discussion class, social service work at Magee Memorial Hospital for Contraceptives, bridge, bowling, jazz appreciation sessions, weekends spent in the mountains or at the shore, a Quiet Day and a planning weekend at the Radnor Conference Center—all of these at some time command the time, talent and interest of Trinity Club members. With all of this, Sunday night is still the most important night of the week. An average of 135 people gather for supper, a speaker, Evening Prayer, and coffee hour each week. Social, spiritual and intellectual are the needs of young adults, and this Trinity Club is supplying. With the election of a new Board this Sunday, Trinity Club looks forward to another year of extending its Christian fellowship to the young people of the Delaware Valley area.

1904 CLUB TO HOLD ELECTIONS

This Monday, January 25 at 7:30 in the Centennial Room at its regular weekly meeting, the 1904 Club will hold an election of officers for the coming year. This is the first full year of organization, and in that short time its membership has grown substantially and it has sponsored some very fine programs including Mayor Dilworth, and Stassen, "The Philadelphia Lawyer," music critic Charles O'Connell, and last year's hobby show. Open to men and women of all ages, but essentially appealing to those in their thirties and forties, the 1904 Club has had good leadership under its president, Miss Mary Lou Marsh. A constitution is now being drawn up, and the club looks forward to a new year of continually good programs and an organization which will strengthen itself as it tries to speak to the needs of those who find it worthwhile to attend.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER

Sophie Cardwell passed from this life on January 8. Madeleine Werle died on January 11. May they forever grow in love and service.

THE LENTEN "PARISH FAMILY" DINNERS

hundred and nineteen of us agreed last fall to enter into a "Parish Family" during this coming Lent. This week there will go to these people a brief letter asking their six dinner tickets and a request that they mail their money or checks to the Parish Office. If you did not return a card last fall, you may apply for tickets to the Parish Office. The cost for six dinners and the lectures is ten dollars. "Parish Family Nights" will be on Thursdays in Lent, beginning with March program consists of Evening Prayer with hymns, music, and a brief meditation to be followed by dinner in the Centennial Room with a lecture and discussion on Christian Faith and the life of today with the Reverend Daniel B. Stevick, S.T.M., Director in Religious Education, Homiletics, and Director of Field Work. Lent will emphasize our parish family and fellowship. We will strive to become a people knowing each other and ever more and more aware of our privileges, opportunities, and responsibilities as Christians gathered together in Christ in communion and fellowship."

THE EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY AT SIX P. M.

The next dinner meeting of the Evening Auxiliary is this coming Tuesday, February 2, at 6 P. M. in the Centennial Room. The speaker is the Reverend David B. Reed, Assistant to the Director, Overseas Department, the National Council, whose subject is "Caribbean Missions." The dinner is $1.25. Reservations should be made at once by calling LO 7-1267. The Evening Auxiliary is composed of business and professional women and others who cannot attend a daytime meeting. The membership is open to all. No special contribution is necessary. Come and you will be welcomed.

TRINITY CLUB BOARD TO BE INSTALLED

At Evening Prayer this Sunday night, the new Board of Trinity Club will be installed into office by Mr. Lee. At this time the preacher will be the Reverend Edward Pollanick, Rector of All Saints' Church, Rhawnhurst, Philadelphia, and founder of Trinity Club when he was Associate Rector of Holy Trinity from 1951 to 1957. A reception in honor of the new Board will follow the service in the Centennial Room. The officers and committee chairmen and assistant chairmen are as follows: President, Charles Werntz; Vice President, Arnold Schneider; Secretary, Helen Abramchuk; Treasurer, Jean Humber; Coffee Hour, Thomas Goings and Susan Trembly; Hospitality, Jane Scher and Christine Schneider; Membership, Martin Herold and Rosemarie Perri; Publisher, Grace Zahn and Thomas Holt; Social Service, Peter Camp and Jane Collins; Social, Paul Noyes and Sally Twigg; Suppers, Dorothy Nyholm and Barton Hebble; Members-at-Large, Lee Ciorletti, Dorothy Hirst, Richard Lawrence, Merry Read, and Charles Rogers.

1904 CLUB TO HEAR TALK ON OVERWEIGHT

"Be Fit—Not Fat" is the title of the talk to be given this Monday night at the 1904 Club meeting in the Centennial Room. The speaker will be Dr. Richard P. Shapiro who is on the staff of the Obesity Clinic of Woman's Hospital, the Nutrition Clinic of G. H., and the Medical Clinic of Graduate Hospital. If you have a problem with overweight, caused by overeating, then perhaps this program will be of interest to you. A film and slides will be shown. The meeting starts at 7:30, and a coffee hour will follow.

MR. LEE'S BIBLE STUDY-DISCUSSION CLASS

After a very stimulating Bible Study-Discussion Class, which ran throughout the fall and winter for the young adults of Trinity Club, 1904 Club, and the parish, Mr. Lee will launch and lead another class beginning this Wednesday, February 3, at 7:45 P. M. in the second floor lounge of the Parish House. The Book to be studied is Saint Paul's Epistle to the Colossians. This class is not a lecture. The emphasis is on student participation. Individual preparation and meditation is expected. It is hoped that many young adults will avail themselves of this opportunity to really get into the Bible.

The Rector's Bible Class meets every Monday night at 7:45 in the Parish House and every Tuesday morning at 10:45 in the Centennial Room. This class is studying "The Gospel According to Saint Mark."

SERMON SERIES ON "THE PARABLES"

This Sunday, also on February 7, and on February 21, and 28, the Rector, staying close to Holy Scripture, will preach four sermons on certain parables of our Lord. This Sunday's sermon is on "The Good Pharisee and the Evil Publican." The sermon on February 7 is "The Generous Employer and the Complaining Employees." On February 21, the sermon will be about "The Pathetic Parable;" and, on February 28, "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

MEN'S CLUB MEETS THIS TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 6:30 P. M.

Royal H. Plenty, Financial Editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer, will be the speaker at a meeting of the Men's Club this Tuesday evening in the Centennial Room at 6:30 P. M. All men of the parish are invited to the meeting. No special invitation necessary. Please call the parish office (LO 7-1267) for a dinner reservation ($1.75).

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH MEET THIS COMING THURSDAY

Beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15, followed by luncheon at one o'clock, women of the Church of the Holy Trinity meet this coming Thursday, February 11, in the Parish House. The topic for the day is the "Episcopal Community Services" known many years as the Episcopal City Mission. Mrs. Drury Hinton, Secretary of this social organization for our Diocese, will speak on the varied and many types of service rendered and will show colored slides to illustrate her subject. All women of the Church are welcome, no special invitation is needed but reservations for lunch ($1.00) should be made early. It is important that they reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, by Monday, February 8. Telephone the parish office (LO 7-1267) or mail a card in plenty of time.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE OFFERING for the seminaries of the Church totalled $282.70.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES meet Monday evening at 7:45; Tuesday morning at 10:45. If you have not already attended, why not begin this week?

THE CURATE'S YOUNG ADULT BIBLE DISCUSSION CLASS meets Wednesday evening (Parish House upstairs) at 7:45.

SAVE FEBRUARY 26 for the Evening Auxiliary's bake sale and card party in the parish house at 8 P. M., on that Friday evening. Everybody come!

THE LENTEN PARISH FAMILY DINNERS

Beginning on March 3 and every Thursday during Lent, there will be Evening Family Dinners, with a prone by the Rector, at 5:30, dinner at 6:15, a lecture and discussion following the dinner, all to be over at 8:15.

Elton Trueblood has written these significant words about what we plan to do as parish family on Thursday nights during this coming Lent. "There is that sacred institution, the church supper. We smile, sometimes, at the church supper, but we are not when we do so. It is the oldest Christian ritual. It is one spontaneous way of expressing the reality of fellowship and brotherhood. In hundreds of parishes it is really a more valuable experience than is the Sunday morning hour of worship unless, of course, it be the Holy Communion. If we were truly wise we should build on this and base rather than despise it, for the church supper can become the love feast. For a week it is possible to stand in the tradition of the church at Jerusalem and continuing steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in breaking bread, and in prayers, have all things in common. It should include all ages and all races, because we are all children of a common Father."

If you have not yet mailed your ten dollars for the six dinners and an honorarium to the Reverend Daniel B. Stevick, our discussion leader, won't you please do so once?

In the deaths of Margaret Collins Maule and Agnes Bancroft Reifsnnyder on Friday, January 29, the Church of the Holy Trinity lost two of its long-time members, both of whom contributed much to the life and worth of the parish. Because of illness, Miss Reifsnnyder had not been active for several years; but, at the time of her death, Miss Maule was Treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary and had been for the past thirteen years. Both Miss Reifsnnyder and Miss Maule were regular Church attendants and continually interested in the welfare of the parish in every aspect of its life. May they ever grow in love and service. They will be greatly missed.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The members of the parish are asked to make a special effort to be in church this day morning to listen to an announcement of unusual importance to be made by Rector at the eleven o'clock service.

RUMORS ARE INTERESTING, ANYWAY

Have you heard the rumor about the office building to be erected on this corner, 19th and Walnut, where Holy Trinity, the Parish House, and the Diocesan Church House stand. The building would include, under a perpetual lease forever, Holy Trinity on the ground floor, parish rooms, kitchen, and an auditorium, as well as the offices on other floors. Much monies would also be paid for the "air rights" the property. Fantastic, isn't it? Or is it? Rumors are interesting, anyway.

MUSIC IS A MAJOR PART OF COMMON WORSHIP

The Choir of Holy Trinity now has 24 members who work very hard and serve to make the music of our worship devotional and glorious. The soloists are Soprano; Audrey Keast, Alto; Rod McWherter, Tenor; and Phillip Steinhoff, Bass. The choir meets with Mr. Royce the Choirmaster each Thursday night at 6:30 P. M. Rehearsal is necessary that the music may come freely from the heart to the worshipper all the glorious sounds of music for praise and prayer. On Sunday at 5 P. M., Mr. Royce meets with another choir, the Trinity Club Choir, to prepare for the service of Evening Prayer each Sunday at eight. These are people from various choirs in the city who are also active in Trinity Club. Both choirs welcome interested and able people to serve.

The Church Choir has a very heavy schedule for the coming Lenten and Easter season. New and beautiful anthems are being prepared including a Bach Cantata and parts of the Brahms Requiem. On Palm Sunday night, April 10, the choir will present The Passion According to Saint John by J. S. Bach. For that service we will have, as solo voices, the Great Valley Singers, and 12 members of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Gene Roan will be at the organ with Mr. Royce conducting. This is a great and glorious work. Make a note of it now and plan to attend. A glorious service is being prepared for Easter. The choir will be augmented by a brass quartette.

CHURCHWOMEN PAY TRIBUTE TO MISS MAULE'S MEMORY

Mrs. George Eyre Smith, President of the Churchwomen of the Church of the Holy Trinity, on behalf of the women of the Church, has written as follows: "Margaret Colmaule, a member of the Church of the Holy Trinity for many years, departed this world on January 29th, 1960. Miss Maule has been, for the past thirteen years, devoted and most efficient in her capacity as Treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Holy Trinity. Her death is deeply regretted by her friends and associates. A former President of the Social Service Exchange, Miss Maule had been active in the Philadelphia Housing Association, Octavia Hill Association and the Young Women's Christian Association. She had a deep interest in the Girls' Friendly Society and had been Diocesan President from 1920 to 1931 and a member of the National Board of the Girls' Friendly Society of the United States. For sixty years Miss Maule has been president and advisor of the 'Old Saint Paul's Branch' of the Girls' Friendly Society of this Diocese.
The women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, desiring to pay tribute to Miss Maule's memory, will have her name inscribed in the Book of Remembrance of the Diocese. Contributions towards this memorial will be gratefully received. The gifts will be through the Book of Remembrance, to the Old Saint Paul's Branch of the Girls' Friendly Society—which work was very close to Miss Maule's heart. Checks should be sent to the order of "The Book of Remembrance," in memory of Margaret C. Maule present to the Church of the Holy Trinity, 19th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia."

EVENING AUXILIARY PARTY AND SALE, FRIDAY, THE 26TH

annual Evening Auxiliary Card Party and Bake Sale takes place in the Parish Friday evening, February 26, at eight o'clock. Come one, come all—aid the cause of missions, enjoy an evening of good fun and fellowship in the best of company. By this is not a "hen party,"—the men are more than welcome. Admission tickets $1.00. Pay at the door if you wish or buy earlier. Here are the names of the planning for the party: Decorations, Laura Abrams; Cake Table, Ann Becker; Nuts and Candy, Florence Loos; Publicity, Clella Whitman; Punch and Cookies, John Flick; Card Table Arrangement, Virginia Bitter; Door Prizes, Julia Kercher; Prizes, Margaret Colflesh; Surprise Packages, Minnetta Bentz; Tickets, Sally Chairman, Gwen Bancroft.

RECTOR SUGGESTS ANNUAL PLEDGE AS BASIS FOR GIVING

In his sermon last Sunday, referring to pledges for the new organs, the Rector suggested each person's annual pledge as a basis for giving. For instance, if one's annual pledge to the support of the parish is five hundred dollars, then one might pledge the same amount to the Organ Fund. It might be paid all in one sum or spread over two years at two hundred and fifty dollars each year; or it might be paid over three years.

The recreated Roosevelt organ in the gallery and the new Chancel organ will cost sixty-two thousand five hundred dollars. If the parish as a whole will follow the Rector's suggestion, the pledges of the parish and certain special gifts will cover this amount. Please mail in your pledge as soon as possible.

PARISH FAMILY NIGHTS DURING LENT

Over one hundred people have bought and paid for tickets for the six Parish Family Nights during Lent beginning on Thursday, March 3. The program begins at five-thirty with Evening Prayer, with the choir present. Dinner in the Centennial Room follows. The dinner, the Reverend Daniel B. Stevick, of the Philadelphia Divinity School, will talk on the topic chosen by the majority last fall—Christian Ethics. His general title is "Christian Faith and This World."

Note: You may still buy six dinner tickets for ten dollars. This includes your share in the speaker's honorarium. You may also buy individual tickets at the door for two dollars each evening.

The lecture and discussion will end at eight fifteen. This will be a happy time. Join us, meet others, enjoy your parish brothers and sisters in the Parish Family. Come.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE WORLD DAY OF PRAYER is the first Friday in Lent, March 4. Save the time for special services at the First Baptist Church, 17th and Sansom Streets, 9:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.

THIS SATURDAY, February 21, Men's Annual George Washington Corporate Communion at 8:00 A. M. at Saint Stephen's, Tenth Street between Market and Chestnut, breakfast to follow. Join us at Saint Stephen's.

ASH WEDNESDAY services will be at 7:30, 11, 12:10 and 5:30.

1904 CLUB TO HEAR QUARTET

This Monday, at its regular weekly meeting, the 1904 Club is going to hear the Trinity Quartet sing a varied program of Renaissance, Baroque, Romantic, and contemporary music. Included will be works by Palestrina, Tallis, Brahms, and Scarlatti. The Trinity Quartet is made up of members of the Club and the Holy Trinity Choir. The usual coffee and social hour will follow the evening's program.

Of special importance to the 1904 Club was the recent election of officers. They are: President, James Philapy; Vice President, Richard Bird; Secretary, Helen Burkey; Treasurer, Elizabeth Wilson. A new Board is now being chosen which will assist the new officers in leading the 1904 Club through its second year of organization and activity. With a regular membership of around sixty-five people, the Club looks forward to a successful year of increased interest and appeal among men and women of all ages.

LENT BEGINS ON WEDNESDAY

Lent is a time of spiritual revival through increased worship, study, and self-discipline in the Christian Life. It is not a time for "giving up things" unless something is put in their place. We avoid "cocktail hours" that we may come to Evening Prayer. We avoid luncheons that we may receive Holy Communion. We give up a measure of freedom that we may be present at the Parish Family dinners. We avoid idleness in our reading that we may do some definite religious reading. We change our lives for awhile that we may be intensely spiritual.

Ash Wednesday is the gateway to Lent. On this day, before God, we acknowledge our sinfulness and we pledge ourselves to do something definite about our sinfulness. We acknowledge our shortcomings and confessing them. We dedicate ourselves in humility to a new way of living. We seek, wanting, and desiring a closer, truer relationship with God. The experience of Ash Wednesday can be a cleansing one. The hours of worship in the Church are: Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M.; The Penitential Office, followed by Holy Communion at 11 A. M.; The Holy Communion at 12:10; and Evening Prayer and the Penitential Office at 5:30.

THE PARISH FAMILY DINNERS BEGIN ON THURSDAY

On the day after Ash Wednesday, on Thursday, March 3 the Parish Family begins to meet together for the Lenten period. The evening begins with Evening Prayer at 7:30, which the Rector will give a brief prone (instruction). Then all go to the Centennial Room for dinner together and this is followed by a lecture and discussion on "Christian Faith in the Life of Today" led by the Reverend Daniel B. Stevick. The dinner concludes at 8:15.

If you have not already subscribed to the dinners, you may come to the dinners at a cost of $2.00 each of the six evenings or you may buy a ten dollar ticket for the six evenings at the first dinner.

The Lenten Parish evenings are something we need here at Holy Trinity. They are a chance to worship as a parish, to grow in parish character, to know each other better. Do everything you can to come.

EVERY DAY, EXCEPT SATURDAY, DURING LENT

Communion at 12:10 (note the hour); Evening Prayer and Meditation, 5:30 P. M. are those who worship daily in Lent. Why don't you join them?

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS NEXT TUESDAY, MARCH 1

The Reverend Arnold Purdie, Executive Director of the Episcopal Community Service, will speak at the monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary in the Centennial Room this Tuesday evening at six o'clock. His topic is "The Work and Services of the Episcopal City Mission." The Evening Auxiliary welcomes business and professional men and all who cannot attend a daytime meeting. Reservations for dinner ($1.25) may be had by phoning the parish office (LO 7-1267) or mailing the return card which will be received.

1904 CLUB TO HEAR TALK ON INVESTMENTS

Investing the M.I.P. Way" is the title of the talk to be given by Miss Elizabeth Wilson of this parish before the 1904 Club this Monday, February 29, at 7:30 in the Centennial Room. Miss Wilson is an investment broker associated with Montgomery, Ward and Co. A color and sound movie will be shown in conjunction with the talk. A social and coffee hour will follow the evening's program and business meeting. Men and women of all ages are urged to attend these friendly and informal weekly meetings.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE WORLD DAY OF PRAYER observance on Friday, March 4, is at the First Church, 17th and Sansom Streets, from 12:30 to 1:30 P. M. Doctor Norman Paul will speak.

MR. LEE HAS A REQUEST

In the nine months I have been the Curate at Holy Trinity, I have come to know many of the parishioners. However, there are still many I do not know by name, even though I see their familiar faces Sunday after Sunday at the church doors and at the coffee hours. Part of the difficulty can be attributed to my faulty memory, and still part to the fact that I simply have not known the parishioners' names at any time. To remedy this it is my desire to have all parishioners make it a point to tell me who they are. So, after church, at the coffee hours, at the parish dinners in Lent, if I do not know your name, forgive me if I have forgotten or do not know, but tell me anyway. I want to recognize you when I see you.

—Edward L. Lee.

THIS FRIDAY, MARCH 4, WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, 17TH AND SANSOM STS., 12:30 TO 1:30 P. M.

SPEAKER: REVEREND NORMAN W. PAULLIN

EVERY DAY IN LENT AT HOLY TRINITY

Except Saturdays, there is a service of Holy Communion everyday at 12:10 (noon) and Evening Prayer with Meditation everyday at 5:30 P. M.

On Thursdays, members of the choir will sing at Evening Prayer. The service is followed by the Parish Family Dinner in the Centennial Room at which the Reverend Mr. B. Stevick is speaking and leading in a discussion on "The Christian Faith and the World." If you do not already have tickets, you may purchase a single ticket at the door for $2.00.

CHURCHWOMEN MEET NEXT THURSDAY, MARCH 10

Mrs. James P. Sands, Diocesan Custodian of the United Thank Offering, will be the speaker at the March 10 meeting of the Women of Holy Trinity. Mrs. Sands will speak of the out reach of the thank offering as it is shared with others in the near and far corners of the world.

The meeting opens with the service of Holy Communion in the church at 12:10 (noon), followed by luncheon ($1.00) in the parish house at one o'clock. Members are asked to bring their donations for the Cooperative Shop at this time.

All women of the parish are welcome, no special invitation is needed, but reservation for lunch must reach the parish office by Monday, March 7, telephone LO 7-1267. Bring a card in plenty of time.

1904 CLUB, MEN AND WOMEN, ALL AGES, MEETS MONDAY NIGHTS

Want to meet others? Lonesome, perhaps? A warm welcome and good friends await you on Monday nights in the Centennial Room (stairs on Walnut Street) at 7:30 P. M. You don't need an invitation. All you have to do is come.

This Monday's program has Charles E. Lewis as the speaker, telling the fascinating story of Bible distribution by the Gideon organization.

TRINITY CLUB TO SPONSOR FOLK OPERA ON MARCH 26

The Philadelphia premiere of Benjamin Britten's folk opera, "Noah's Flood" will be presented in Holy Trinity Church on Saturday, March 26, at 8:30 P. M. Its first American performance was at Union Theological Seminary last year. Based on the familiar Testament story Mr. Britten has written the opera to be staged and performed in nave and chancel of a church.

Trinity Club is presenting the performance, underwriting and sponsoring it.

YOU SHOULD READ RELIGIOUSLY DURING LENT

Here are some suggestions for Lenten reading: "The Manner of the Resurrection" by Leslie Weatherhead, $1.00; "His Worthy Praise," the Canadian Lenten Book, $1.25; "A Golden String," the Archbishop of York's Lenten Book, $1.50; "Days of Our Lent" by Wheeler, $2.70; "Receiving the Word of God" by Terwilliger, the Bishop of New York's Lenten Book, $2.75.

Other Lenten reading may be found in pamphlets on the tables in the Church. All these books may be purchased at the Bunting and Harris Book Store, 2020 Walnut Street.

Dr. Longley's sermon about the new organs is available for possible distribution to interested friends. Call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) for additional copies.

MONDAY NIGHT, MARTIN LUTHER FILM

The 1904 Club is proud to announce the showing of the award winning film "Martin Luther" at its weekly meeting this Monday, March 14, at 8 P. M. If anyone has not seen this excellent picture on the life and events of the great reformer, they should make it a point to do so. There is no admission charge, so come and see a great cinema, and join in the life and fellowship of 1904 Club. A coffee and social hour will follow the picture.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT MORNING SERVICE

At the eleven o'clock service on Sunday, after the Litany and the Sermon, the choir will sing J. S. Bach's Cantata Seventy Eight, "Jesu, der du meine Steele." The choir will be accompanied by six instrumentalists: Violins, Mihran Kodjian and William Haroutunian; Viola, Rachel Smith; Cello, Adelia Cubbon; Flute, Douglas Royal; Oboe, J. Gerome. The soloists are Rod McWherter, Tenor, and Phillip Steinhoff, Bass.

FAMILY NIGHT SPEAKER TOP FLIGHT

Over seventy people braved the blizzard of March 3 to attend the Parish Family service and dinner and were rewarded with topflight teaching by the Reverend B. Stevick of the Philadelphia Divinity School. He is talking on "The Christian in the World Today." This week, March 10, he speaks on "Making Terms with the World Today." March 17, "Christian Realism and Social Problems;" March 24, "Liturgy and the Christian;" March 31, "Aspects of the Urban Problem;" April 7, "Lessons from This World."

The Parish Family Night, every Thursday in Lent, begins with Evening Prayer at 7:30, followed by a brief instruction by the Rector; dinner in the Centennial Room afterward in the capable direction of Mrs. Mary Dunhour, outstanding cateress, who works for the love of our Lord and charges us only what the food actually costs; followed by the Rector Stevick's lecture and discussion.

THREE LENTEN SERMONS ON "ANOTHER LOOK"

The Rector believes that there are some things which we need to review constantly since we can never think or talk enough about them. One of these things has to do with what we think about the meaning of life—what are we here for, what are the duties of living, what is the truth about God and Man? On March 13, let's take "Another Look at What Life's All About." Then, on March 20, let's take "Another Look at How Life May Be Lived." And on March 27, let's take "Another Look at How We Are Related to Others, God and Man."

OTHER LENTEN SERVICES EACH DAY (EXCEPT SATURDAY)

12:10 Holy Communion; 5:30 Evening Prayer and Meditation

BILL GRAHAM IN AFRICA EMPHASIZES MISSIONS

Public interest in the evangelist Billy Graham's visit to Africa where more than a hundred thousand people attended his meetings in Liberia, Ghana, and Nigeria for one thing, served to light up the fact that whether Africa is to be a Christian or Mohammedan continent is still undecided. Christian missions have done remarkable work. In Nigeria alone, hundreds of primary schools, many hospitals and clinics, and its outstanding eye hospital are results of missionary work. Anglicans are the largest group in Nigeria. Together with the Sudan Interior Mission, which has five hundred and ninety workers in Nigeria alone, they are largely responsible for the Nigerian Challenge Press which publishes a mass circulation magazine and for a radio station which covers all of Africa. Also, in Nigeria, there is a Church union movement the one in South India involving Anglicans, Methodists, and Presbyterians.

However, the premier of this region is Moslem. And Moslems control the government. White Christian missionaries are often denied visas at the present time. Mohammedanism, too, is sympathetic with polygamy.

TWO HOLY TRINITY-ITES HONORED

Mrs. John P. Lutz has been nominated to be the Diocesan United Thank Offering Steward. She will be in office for three years, will be attending the General Convention in Detroit in 1961, and will be visiting all the parishes and missions in the Diocese. Congratulations, Mrs. Lutz and congratulations Holy Trinity for being able to supply a person. Another reason for congratulations is the appointment of Austin J. Gaugel to the Parish Committee on Layman's Work. This, too, will give the parish a closer tie to the work of the whole Diocese.

LENTEN OBSERVANCE

Holy Communion each day at 12:10 (except Saturday)

Evening Prayer with Meditation each day at 5:30 (except Saturday)

Parish Family Night on Thursday beginning with Evening Prayer at 5:30 followed by dinner in the Centennial Room with a lecture by the Reverend Daniel Stevick of the Philadelphia Divinity School.

A LITTLE MORE ON THE ORGAN

The fund for the new organs now totals close to thirty-five thousand dollars with more than half of the contributors to the parish as pledgers. Those who have contributed have generally followed the Rector's suggestion that they pledge the same as their annual pledge but payable over two or three years as desired. There have been pledges to the radio congregation—one for a thousand dollars. If you have not sent in your pledge, won't you do so as soon as possible. Together we can do this. Let's get it done.

PHILADELPHIA PREMIERE OF "NOAH'S FLOOD"

On Saturday night, March 26 at 8:30 P. M. the Philadelphia premiere of Benjamin Britten's new folk opera, "Noah's Flood," will be performed here at Holy Trinity. Sponsored by the Trinity Club and put on by the Church of the Holy Trinity, West Chester, this musical adaptation of the familiar Old Testament story is based on the text of a 14th century English morality play. A professionally trained and directed cast of one hundred including an orchestra of fifty members will perform this opera according to the composer's original intentions: in the nave and chancel of a church. The American premiere of this opera received high critical acclaim last year in New York, and so it is to be a musical "must" for theatre and music lovers in Philadelphia. Tickets for "Noah's Flood" are on a one dollar donation basis, and can be purchased or reserved at the parish office. Proceeds will be used for Trinity Club's social service program activities.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE RECTOR made his annual pilgrimage to his old West Virginia parish the first days of last week. It has been his privilege to preach there every Lent since 1941.

ON MARCH 25, the Feast of the Annunciation, the women of the Diocese will hold a separate Communion here at 8 A. M. with breakfast afterward.

ONE HUNDRED and thirty people were present at the Parish Family Night dinner on Thursday.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY made over five hundred dollars at their party and sale.

THAT WORD "PRONE"

Just before Lent, the Church Bulletin said that there would be a Prone by the Rector at Evening Prayer on Thursday nights. This sent the Editor of the Diocesan News into a dither as well as several others. What in the world is a "Prone?" The Rector had just had it as a word he knew and used. But when he started to look in the dictionaries he couldn't find it. At last, however, Miss Salome Riegner has found the Merriam-Webster New International Dictionary, second edition, unabridged, and its original meaning was "a choir screen." And because an instructor came and stood before the choir screen to give his lecture to the congregation, the lecture, or action itself, came to be called a "prone." The Merriam-Webster Dictionary there says "Prone, ecclesiastical, a homily (now maybe we're in trouble again); a short sermon; instruction as distinguished from a formal set sermon."

And that's just what happens at Evening Prayer on Thursdays at 5:30. The Rector doesn't preach. He doesn't meditate. He delivers a Prone.

THREE WEEKS OF LENT REMAIN

the season of Lent bringing you into a closer relationship with God, the source of the power of your being? There are five opportunities during the week to participate in Holy Communion which is celebrated each day, Monday through Friday, at Holy Trinity. There are five opportunities to participate in worship and to meditate (noon). There are five opportunities to participate in worship and to meditate (noon) at 5:30. There is opportunity to hear an outstanding teacher speaking on Human Ethics on Thursday evenings. There is opportunity half a block away from the Church, between 20th and 21st Streets, at Bunting and Harris, to find religious reading. If you have not let Lent make a difference in your life, begin now to take advantage of the opportunities. Help us to build a spiritual force here at Holy Trinity. Be a partner in the witness for Christ. Be a participating member of our Christian fellowship.

DOCTOR STEVICK HAS TWO MORE LECTURES

Holy Trinity has been exceedingly fortunate in its Thursday evening lecturer, the Reverend Daniel B. Stevick, S.T.M. He has two more lectures with us. This coming week the title of his talk is "Aspects of the Urban Problem." Next week he speaks on "Lessons from This World."

If you have not yet attended one of the Parish Family dinners after Evening Prayer on Thursday nights, come this week and next. You will find it a valuable experience. Dr. Stevick is very worthwhile indeed.

RECTOR TO SHOW EUROPEAN SLIDES TO 1904 CLUB

On Monday, at the weekly meeting of the 1904 Club, Doctor Longley will show the slides of his European travels, which he and Mrs. Longley took two summers ago. The program will be preceded by dinner, a new feature in the 1904 Club's Monday activities. If anyone wishes to have dinner, they must make a reservation in advance. Wednesday of the preceding week is the deadline for dinner reservations, and can be made by phoning Miss Elizabeth Wilson, MI 9-2904. Dinner at 6:30 and program at 8, followed by an informal coffee hour makes for a very pleasant and enjoyable evening for men and women of all ages.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THIS SATURDAY NIGHT (March 26) at 8:30 in the Church, Trinity Club presents "The Flood," a new folk opera by Benjamin Britten written to be produced in a church. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $1.00. The proceeds, after expenses, are for young adult work.

PALM SUNDAY NIGHT (April 10), the choir sings "The Passion of Our Lord According to Saint John." The Great Valley Singers will also participate and the two choirs will be augmented by thirteen players from the Philadelphia Orchestra.

NOTE

It is easy to be enthusiastic when all is going well, when success greets our efforts, when difficulties come, and the tedium of humdrum days sets in, then it is required that we remain steadfast. The ability to keep everlastingly at the task, "knowing that labor is not in vain in the Lord," is an admirable quality. Peter, in many ways, was an unusually gifted apostle. He was courageous, forthright, and deeply devoted to Christ. However, in the face of ridicule and danger, at the last, he was not able to persevere, and fell away. Let us follow through to the end. Our loyalty must be completely to Christ. There can be no compromise, no warming our hands at the secular world's fires. We can't seek the approval of the crowd and still be with Christ in His lonely hour. But before we are unduly loyal of Peter for his denial, let us face the fact that we deny Him, too. We do it openly, we do it subtly. We love creature comforts too much, we are not eager to offer an ardent devotion, we serve ourselves first. We are unkind, thoughtless, and proud. We stand as a "Rock" (Peter's name) when we remember all that Christ can mean to us. We can stand not in our own strength, but in His. God's truth is unchanging. His faithfulness is from generation to generation. He can be completely depended upon. He is our wonderful Lord. We have been abundantly blessed.

PASSIONTIDE: THE LAST TWO WEEKS OF LENT

Passiontide seems hardly begun when suddenly we realize that Easter is two weeks away. Perhaps you who are reading this planned to use this Lent for growth, greater understanding, deeper participation in this fellowship of Christians. But you never really got started. And now here you are with Lent almost and opportunity nearly over.

Don't you now determine to use intensely the spiritual opportunities of the final two weeks by being at Holy Communion at noontime (12:10 each day), worship at Evening Prayer (5:30 each day) and seeking help from the Rector's brief sermon at this service, attending both Evening Prayer and the last Parish Family service on Thursday night when Dr. Stevick concludes his series with a lecture on "Lessons of This World."

In Holy Week, there will be Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M., Monday through Friday, in addition to the other services mentioned above. On Maundy Thursday night at 6 o'clock, there will be Holy Communion, and on Good Friday from 12 to 3 there will be the three-hour service.

Enlarge your spiritual strength. Enlarge your perspective on life. Someday, if not now, you will need these strengths and understanding. All of us do. Enjoy relationship with God. Be ready when this life fails. Live in love with God and your fellow man always.
This is the eternal right. Your parish Church plans its program to be helpful to you.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS NEXT THURSDAY, NOT TUESDAY

This month only, the Evening Auxiliary is joining its regular meeting with the Parish on Thursday night dinner and so will meet on Thursday evening, April 7, instead of Tuesday.
The meeting will follow as usual after Dr. Stevick's lecture. Members who have not attended the Thursday night dinners regularly should make reservations through the parish office (LO 7-1267).

TWO IMPORTANT EVENTS IN HOLY WEEK

I am sure that the whole congregation will agree with me that the singing of the Passion of Our Lord from Saint John's Gospel by J. S. Bach here at Holy Trinity on Palm Sunday evening at eight o'clock will be a significant musical and spiritual event. All of us are justly proud of our choir and what it is doing under the directorship of Frederick Royce. We can say with assurance that what the choir will be well done. The Great Valley Singers, also directed by Mr. Royce, will be in the choir for this occasion. The accompaniment will be furnished by thirteen instrumentalists from the Philadelphia Orchestra. Eugene Roan will be at the organ. There will be a program containing the words to be sung for the benefit of the listeners. Plan now to attend.

On Monday in Holy Week at 5:30 in the afternoon, Martin Niemoller, one of the great religious leaders of our time, will speak in the Church of the Holy Trinity.
He has sometimes carelessly said that the influence of the Christian Church in the world is not significant. When someone says that, it is well to remember the part played by the German Confessional Church against the depravities of Hitlerism.
And we can never forget that Niemoller went to prison because of the firmness of his stand against Nazism. In East Germany today, a like struggle is going on as the Church resists the Communist dictatorship. Martin Niemoller's Christian witness comes to us out of the fires of resistance and adversity. It would be well if all of us could plan to see and hear him on Monday, April 4 at 5:30. It is a rare, spiritual privilege that we have.

—H. L.

DIVINITY SCHOOLS APPRECIATE OUR OFFERING

Between three and four hundred dollars were sent to the Philadelphia Divinity School, General Seminary, and Seabury-Western Seminary as a result of our Theological Education Sunday offering. All of the Deans have written in appreciation.

MARTIN NIEMOELLER SPEAKS MONDAY AT 5:30

pastor Niemoeller of Wiesbaden, Germany, called by one of his several biographers "One of the most controversial men of our times, a great Christian leader, a man of vision and ideals, to be compared to Albert Schweitzer or Mahatma Gandhi. Over and over again, one hears him described as 'the prophet of our century.'" will speak in the Church of the Holy Trinity on Monday afternoon at the five-thirty service. It is planned that the service will end at six-fifteen. To hear this man will be a rich spiritual experience for all who come.

Holy Week

Each morning at 7:30, The Holy Communion

Each noon at 12:10, The Holy Communion

Each day at 5:30, Evening Prayer and Meditation

Each day at the Holy Communion and as the second lesson at Evening Prayer, the story of the day will be read. Thus, the entire story of the Passion as we find it in the New Testament will be read during the week.

Maundy Thursday

12:10 Noon, The Holy Communion

5:30 P. M., Evening Prayer

8:00 P. M., The Lord's Supper

Beginning at sundown on Maundy Thursday and continuing through Good Friday, Christians keep the ancient Jewish "day." It is begun as Jesus began it with the ancient Jews over supper as He transformed it into the pledge of the New Covenant. It is carried over the next day as we watch beside the cross. It is ended with the service of Evening Prayer on Good Friday as sundown approaches. Begin it, therefore, solemnly at the table of the Lord's Supper with our Lord and continue it in thought and action during the next 24 hours.

THE EASTER OFFERING

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our Missionary and parochial budget needs. We are grateful to God that here at Holy Trinity the generosity of its people is enabling this church to carry forward an effective ministry in center-city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in thanksgiving to God for His blessings.

Important Parish Events after Easter

BISHOP BARTON, SPECIAL PREACHER, MAY 1

The Right Reverend Lane Barton, Bishop of Eastern Oregon, will be the preacher at Church of the Holy Trinity on Sunday morning, May 1. Bishop Barton is coming to Philadelphia in connection with a missionary emphasis and exhibit to be observed at the Philadelphia Divinity School that Sunday afternoon. Other speakers at the Divinity School are the Reverend Richard Young at four-thirty and the Right Reverend A. Ervine (Puerto Rico) at seven-thirty. Exhibits from missions in The Overseas Mission Society, Holy Cross Liberian Missions, Puerto Rico, and other places will be on display.

Bishop Barton, a native of Ohio, was formerly Rector of Grace Church, Orange, New York.

ANNUAL PARISH DINNER AND MEETING, WEDNESDAY, MAY 4

Every active parishioner should plan to be present at the Annual Parish Dinner and Meeting at 6:30 P. M. in the Centennial Room on Wednesday, May 4, when Vestrymen and elected officers of parish organizations will be introduced, reports will be presented. A notice of the meeting is posted in the church porch. Reservations should be received promptly to the parish office.

SUNDAY, MAY 8: SERVICE DEDICATED TO NURSING

A special service dedicated to nursing will be held at Holy Trinity, Sunday, May 8 at 8 P. M. In recent years this has been an annual service here, and once again it will inaugurate Hospital and Nursing Week which is sponsored by the Careers in Nursing Committee of the Southeastern Pennsylvania League for Nursing. The preacher will be the Reverend Edwin G. Bennett, Director of College Work, in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. This impressive service will include a long procession of uniformed nurses representing the many hospitals in the Delaware Valley area, and anthems will be sung by the student nurses choir from the University of Pennsylvania Hospital.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE RECTOR will be away from the parish for two weeks after Easter. Mr. Lea will be in residence and is ready and anxious to take Holy Communion to all ill and shut-in people who cannot be at Church during Easter. He depends however on your calling the parish office, LO 7-1267, requesting the service and arranging the time. Please do not hesitate to ask.

BISHOP HART recently received a former Roman Catholic Priest into the Anglican communion. He had been a member of the faculty of Saint Anselm's Priory School in Washington. He is serving now with the staff at Saint Clement's.

THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION meets at Holy Trinity on May 2 and 3. The opening service on Monday, May 2, at eight o'clock, is open to all and well worth attending.

TRINITY CLUB'S RADNOR WEEKEND

This weekend, from Friday evening through Sunday afternoon, Trinity Club will be at the Episcopal Conference Center in Radnor for its annual planning conference. This weekend is the highlight of the Trinity Club year, Radnor Weekend is it.

Over eighty young men and women, one of the largest gatherings ever, will be present at next year's Sunday night speakers program, to discuss how Trinity Club can in the future be more effective in the lives of the young adults who come to the Club from the Delaware Valley area, and to consider the meaning and importance of the Trinity Club as a Christian fellowship in the lives of its members. Trinity Club's success lies in its ability to scrutinize and examine itself—its methods and purposes in the present and past—with the hope of improving the Club in the future. And this scrutiny and self-examination and planning takes place at Radnor.

But all is not serious work, because Radnor also means lots of fun for all who attend. Plans are planned: a Square Dance on Friday night, and the big "Bali Dance" on Saturday night, which will have as its theme a south sea island setting. And after morning hard work, the Club members will have the afternoons free to indulge in their favorite sports: softball, volleyball, croquet, badminton, bridge—and other indoor sports. In the morning there will be two worship services.

It's quite a time for everyone, and there is not a Trinity Club member alive, past or present, who does not have some fond memory of previous Radnor Weekends. Tired but refreshed, thought-out but renewed, Trinity Clubbers will return from Radnor ready to launch another year of young adult fellowship in Philadelphia. Holy Trinity should be proud to know that it sponsors such a remarkable group.

1904 CLUB TO HEAR TALK ON PATENTS

"Patents" will be the topic of the 1904 Club's program this Monday, April 25 at 8:30 p.m. in the Centennial Room. The program will include a movie and slides and will be presented by Shaw Stevenson, a member of the Club. Dinner will precede the meeting and program at 6:30. Reservations for dinner must be made with the Club's treasurer, Elizabeth Wilson, by Thursday of the week preceding the dinner night. Men and women of all ages are invited and encouraged to attend these friendly and informal dinner-meetings on Monday nights.

ITEMS AND DATES

THE PREACHER next Sunday morning, May 1, will be the RIGHT REVEREND LANE BARTON, Bishop of Eastern Oregon. Bishop Barton will be one of the principal speakers at a Missionary Rally to be held at the Philadelphia Divinity School that same Sunday afternoon.

While Doctory Longley is away on a brief but well deserved vacation, Mr. Lee will be priest-in-charge and available for any parish emergency or situation. Saturday, April 24, there will be no priest at the parish house since Mr. Lee will be with Trinity Club at Radnor. In case of emergency call LA 5-8232.

SET ASIDE the evening of WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, for the ANNUAL PARISH MEETING.

Every communicant of Holy Trinity has an obligation to be there. Dinner reservation cards will be sent out and should be returned as soon as possible.

ST. MARK THE EVANGELIST: Prayer Book Holy Day, Monday, April 25. Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. and 12:15 noon.

REMEMBER, TURN YOUR CLOCKS AHEAD!

Beginning this Sunday, April 24, you are reminded to turn your clocks ahead one hour as Philadelphia goes on Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

ST. PHILIP AND ST. JAMES, APOSTLES

May 1, this Sunday, the Prayer Book sets aside as the Feast of St. Philip and St. James, Apostles. While the New Testament does not link these two Apostles together, nevertheless from the earliest of western Christian tradition their lives and ministries have been remembered on the same day. St. John's Gospel tells us about Philip. He was one of Jesus' first disciples, and he in turn brought Nathanael to our Lord. He is associated with Andrew at the feeding of the five thousand, and in the Gospel for this day is described as one who deeply desired knowledge of God, even though he probably had difficulty in fully comprehending Christ's teachings about God's revelation in and through Himself.

The Gospels identify James as the son of Alphaeus, and he is not to be confused with the son of Zebedee, whose own day the Prayer Book remembers on July 25. James was one of the original twelve disciples. Also the Epistle for this day clearly identifies him (even though it is uncertain) with the James of the Acts of the Apostles, meaning, therefore, that he was one of the pillars of the early Church, who as Bishop of Jerusalem presided at the first Apostolic Council and held out to St. Paul the right hand of fellowship. Tradition has it that he was martyred.

The Prayer Book saints days are all Biblical in origin, and while in instances little is known about some of them, still they should be known and remembered as those men from every walk of life bore witness with word, deed and life to the fact of Christ Jesus, and Him crucified and risen.

GUEST PREACHER: THE RIGHT REVEREND LANE W. BARTON, THE BISHOP OF EASTERN OREGON

It is Holy Trinity's honor and privilege to have as its guest preacher this Sunday the Right Reverend Lane W. Barton, the Missionary Bishop of Eastern Oregon. Bishop Barton is a native of Ohio and was formerly rector of Grace Church, Orange, New Jersey. He is in Philadelphia as one of the principal speakers at a Missionary Rally to be held Sunday afternoon at the Philadelphia Divinity School, 42nd and Spruce Streets. The Rally will begin at 2:30 with Bishop Barton's address. At 4:30 and 7:30 there will be two addresses by the Reverend Richard Young, director of Bishop Anderson House at Chicago Medical Center and pioneer in the Church's work in medical schools, and the Reverend A. Ervine Swift, Missionary Bishop of Puerto Rico. All three of these men are excellent spokesmen and interpreters of the Church's mid-20th Century mission both home and overseas. At the Rally there will also be missionary exhibits sponsored by the Overseas Mission Society, the Liberian Mission of the Order of the Holy Cross, the Diocese of Puerto Rico, and others.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4: ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

All parishioners of Holy Trinity are reminded of the annual Parish Meeting to be held this coming Wednesday, May 4, beginning with dinner at 6:30 P. M. in the Centennial Room. By now you have received your dinner reservation card, so if you are planning to attend, your reservation must be in by Saturday, April 30.

MAY 3: FINAL EVENING AUXILIARY MEETING

This coming Tuesday, May 3, the Evening Auxiliary will meet for the last time this year. At this meeting there will be an evaluation of this year's monthly programs and an election of officers for next year. Dinner will be served at 6 P. M. in the Centennial Room.

ITEMS

The annual CONVENTION of the DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA will again be held at Holy Trinity this coming week, Monday and Tuesday, May 2 and 3. The opening service of the convention will be on Monday night at 8 P. M. and is open to all and well worth attending.

ON SUNDAY, MAY 8, at 8 P. M. there will be a special service dedicated to nursing, honoring Hospital and Nursing Week which begins that day. The preacher on this occasion will be the Reverend Edwin G. Bennett, Director of College Work in the Diocese. An impressive service will include a procession of uniformed nurses from many hospitals in the Delaware Valley area, and anthems will be sung by the student nurses choir from the University of Pennsylvania Hospital.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

The last meeting of this season of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be at the Philadelphia Divinity School, 43rd and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia, on May 12, at twelve noon. Luncheon ($1.00) will be followed by a guided tour of the Divinity School, a business meeting, election of officers and an evaluation of the program. All women of the parish are welcome, no special invitation is necessary. Monday, May 9, is the FINAL date for luncheon reservations. Telephone the office, LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time. Take Route 42 bus from center of Walnut Street, to 43rd and Spruce Streets.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

The Spring Ingathering of the United Thank Offering will take place at the eleven o'clock service this Sunday. Women of the parish will receive the offering on Sunday and their offerings in the United Thank Offering envelopes will be added to the women's offerings. When the Rector was in Haiti recently, he had the opportunity of visiting our Cathedral in Port au Prince and also seeing Holy Trinity School. The people of Haiti are unbelievably backward and poor. Our mission property, well kept and in good condition, is situated amidst slums of the worst sort. Part of the United Thank Offering goes to support our missions in Haiti.

EVENING AUXILIARY GIVES NEW PALL TO THE PARISH

At the eleven o'clock service this Sunday, the Rector will receive and dedicate a new pall which is being given as a memorial by the members of the Evening Auxiliary. The pall is used to cover the casket at funerals. The flowers on the Altar this Sunday are also in memory of former Evening Auxiliary members who have departed this life.

SPECIAL SERVICE HONORING HOSPITAL AND NURSING WEEK

This Sunday at eight P. M. there will be a special worship service dedicated to nursing and honoring and beginning Hospital and Nursing Week in Philadelphia. The preacher for this occasion, which in recent years has been an annual event at Holy Trinity, will be the Reverend Edwin G. Bennett, Director of College Work in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Offertory anthems will be sung by the Glee Club of the School of Nursing, Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. An impressive procession will include uniformed nurses from schools of nursing in Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley area. The service is sponsored by the Careers in Nursing Committee of the Southeastern Pennsylvania League for Nursing.

MRS. BANCROFT RELINQUISHES COFFEE HOUR DUTIES

Mrs. Charles Bancroft has asked to be relieved of her duties as Coffee Hour Chairman. She has served quietly and efficiently Sunday after Sunday for over two years and her work is deeply appreciated. Within a few years, the "Coffee Hour" has become an established institution in every part of the Church and provides a fellowship which nothing gives in quite the same way. It is especially needed in a center city Church such as ours.

A PRAYER FOR CHILDREN

"O Jesus Christ, our Lord most dear
As Thou wast once an infant here
So give this child of Thine we pray
Thy grace and blessing day by day
O Holy Jesus, Lord Divine
We pray Thee guard this child of Thine."

IN PARTNERSHIP, LET'S COMPLETE THE ORGAN FUND

We, of this parish, can purchase the needed new organs. We of this generation can contribute to the life and history of the Church of the Holy Trinity in Philadelphia. The parish has been a great Christian fellowship in the past. It is still a potent force in the Diocese and Center City Philadelphia. It is still and will continue to be a great parish. Be now a partner in it. Do your part in what is needed now.

Over two hundred annual contributors to the parish, partners in our work, have not yet in their pledge for the purchase of the organ. Those who have pledged have done so magnificently. The present total as of May 16 is $38,828.00. Let's finish the task. Be a partner. Send in your contribution. We can do this.

WOMEN OF THE CHURCH ELECT NEW OFFICERS

At their meeting last week, the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity chose Mrs. M. Callis to be their new President. Other officers are: Vice-Presidents—Communications, Margaret R. Kollock; Missions, Mrs. George Eyre Smith; Parish House, Mrs. S. May; Program, Miss Grace Haupt; Treasurer, Mrs. Harry S. Longley; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Helene C. Reinhardt; Recording Secretary, Miss Lydia K. Harmer; Thank Offering Custodian, Mrs. Lever F. Stewart.

HOLIDAY HOUSE, 1960

Mr. M. A. Kercher is the chairman of the committee of the Vestry charged with the responsibility for Holiday House. The committee has done splendid work and the house is in good repair, ready to serve vacationers in 1960 who cannot afford the rates of the other hostleries.

Mr. Kercher has given your editor the following notice. With some misgiving, we are putting it here exactly as given (and not without a chuckle or two). Mr. Kercher writes: "Wild life at Holiday House should appeal to those planning a pleasant (and inexpensive) vacation. In addition to squirrels, pheasant, and other birds, we had six coons find their way into the house this past winter. All six were trapped and no longer enjoy our hospitality. There will be four eleven day vacation periods starting July 3, July 17, July 31 and August 14. Those interested should leave their names at the parish office or call the Reverend J. Aubrey Cragg at Prince of Peace Chapel, DE 4-1761."

This weekend at Holiday House, members of our 1904 Club are holding a planning conference for their 1960-61 season. Picknickers are always welcome on the grounds.

SUMMER CONFERENCES

Have you ever attended a summer Church conference? It is an exciting and stimulating experience. The closest one to us in Philadelphia is the Hood Conference held at Hood in Frederick, Maryland, from June 12 to June 18. Its theme this year is "The Parables Alive." You can attend with room and board for $39. Registration may be made through Robert D. Owen, Box 571, Frederick, Maryland. Call the parish office (LO 7-1267) for further details. You can still register.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE RECTOR has accepted the chairmanship of the Department of Communications of the Diocese for one year during the leave of absence of the present chairman who is in the Department of Communications publishes the Church News and relates the work of the Diocese to other channels of communication—the newspapers, radio, and television. It is planned to change the format of the Church News into tabloid newspaper style and it will be mailed to every home in the Diocese.

BISHOP REMINGTON, attending his fiftieth class reunion at the University of Pennsylvania will preach here on Sunday, June 19. He was once an assistant minister at Holy Trinity. The Rector has invited all the still living assistant ministers since 1900 to attend service and march in the procession.

Trinity Clubbers will meet this Sunday at two o'clock at the church to go horseback riding and on a picnic; June 17, 18, and 19 will be the Holiday House Weekend; and June 26 there will be a picnic and swimming in the afternoon.

CHANNEL 10, WCAU-TV, 6:30 TO 7:00 A. M.

Every morning, 6:30 to 7 o'clock, a course of study called “An introduction to the Old Testament” is available to you on TV, Channel 10, WCAU. The instructor is Doctor Edward Bauman, Chaplain of the American University in Washington, D. C.

The course will be on the air Monday through Friday, from now until August 12. Here is a great opportunity to know the Old Testament. The cost? A bit of early rising.

BISHOP REMINGTON HERE, SUNDAY, JUNE 19

Fifty-five years ago in 1905, here at Holy Trinity, Bishop Remington was ordained a priest in the Church of God. On Sunday, June 19, he returns to Holy Trinity to keep that anniversary. He has been asked to preach at the eleven o'clock service. Bishop Remington began his ministry as an assistant at Holy Trinity. Other former assistants have been asked to participate in the service on the nineteenth. The Reverend Franklin J. Clark, Reverend T. Gordon Ott, The Reverend Percy R. Stockman, and The Reverend Peter Van der Hiel will be present. Bishop Remington has asked that men who went into ministry from this parish be invited back for the occasion. Their names are: The Reverend William H. Cumpston, The Reverend Walter W. Gale, The Reverend Henry S. Paynton, The Reverend B. Jannet Rudderow, The Reverend S. Henry White, The Reverend William M. Sharp, and The Reverend John M. Weber. As the bulletin goes to press, Reverend Henry S. Paynter expects to be present.

Bishop Remington went on from being an assistant in this parish to become Vicar of the Chapel of the Holy Communion, Philadelphia; Rector of Saint Paul's Minneapolis; Suffragan Bishop of South Dakota; Missionary Bishop of Eastern Oregon. In 1945, he returned to Philadelphia to become Suffragan Bishop of this Diocese for six years. Now retired, he lives in California.

GOING AWAY, PAY YOUR PLEDGE IN ADVANCE

Many Center-City dwellers have already left on the usual summer vacation. The George Taylors have gone to Europe, the Donald Leas leave this week for Maine, Mrs.
George Eyre Smith is off to England. Others are on the way. Before you go, if you will pay your pledge in advance up to the time of your return, it will enable your Church to go through the lean summer months paying the bills which continue in the summer and in winter.

HOLIDAY HOUSE NEEDS AN ORGAN, TOO

The Holiday House Chapel at Sellersville needs an organ—not, we hasten to add a twenty thousand dollar one as here at Holy Trinity, but perhaps an old but fully workable, foot pumped, parlor variety instrument. There must be one or two still around. Let the parish office know—just so it works.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

SUMMER FORWARDS, the devotional day by day manual for use from June 12 through October 1, are available in the church porch. The summer manuals are ten cents each.

MR. LEE is on vacation. This month he is traveling in Germany, France, and England.
He returns for the second Sunday in July.

SPECIAL SUMMER PREACHERS at Holy Trinity: On July 10, Canon Roy McKay of London, in charge of religious broadcasting on the B.B.C.; on August 14, the Reverend George Appleton, Vicar of Saint Paul's, London E.L., England.

THE SACRAMENT OF Holy Matrimony will take place this Sunday afternoon at four o'clock when Arnold Schneider, Jr. and Dorothy Hirst will be married.

A QUOTATION FROM “THE CHURCH REVIEW”

The Church Review is a publication of the Church Society for College Work. In its current issue, The Reverend Michael Hamilton, Chaplain to graduate students and faculty of the University of Southern California writes, “A second major problem I have found among Episcopalians is that they look on Christianity primarily as trying to be well behaved. ‘I don't believe Jesus was any more divine than Buddha or Mohammed,’ is a typical theological expression of the negative reaction to this moralism among students. ‘One man's opinion about religion is as good as another, and they all add up to the Golden Rule anyway’ is another common attempt to pour oil on these intellectually confused waters. How far this burdensome concept of obeying selected moral teachings is from the uberant joy of the Apostles shouting forth the news of the Resurrection of their Lord, and to be recognized as the Saviour of Mankind! The fact of the matter is that many Christians have reduced our faith to a reform movement within Judaism.”

The Altar Guild for 1960-61 will be installed by the Rector at the eleven o'clock service on September 18.

The members of the Altar Guild for September are Miss Millicent Shell and Mrs. Ruth Yeager, and Thursday, Mrs. Robert McCay Green.

COME TO COFFEE HOUR AFTER CHURCH

In a city parish especially, we all need the opportunity of association with each other which the Coffee Hour affords. Come to the parish house after the service and be with friends. If you are a newcomer or a visitor, you are invited in particular. Miss Lydia K. Harmer is the parish chairman for our Coffee Hour. This Sunday, her assistants are: Miss Carolyn A. Cessna and Miss Sophia Ewell.

THE ALTAR GUILD

This Sunday morning, in a brief ceremony, the members of the Altar Guild for 1960 will be commissioned by the Rector of the parish. The Directress of the Guild and Chairman is Mrs. Marlene Maertens. The Coordinator of activities and materials is Miss McClintock. Members of the Guild are: Mrs. Frederick C. Bachman, Ann Becker, Alice Burpee, Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Miriam Cone, Nellie P. Ferry, Kathryn Fligg, Patricia Gane, Mrs. Robert McCay Green, Mrs. John D. M. Hamilton, Grace Haupt, Hess, Dr. Margaret R. Kollock, Elizabeth Laws, Mrs. Donald S. Leas, Grace D. Macfarlane, Emma McClintock, Mary Maguire, Mrs. Marlene Maertens, Christiane Schneider, Mary G. Sharpe, Millicent Shell, Margaret W. Warner, Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager, and Marjorie Zulick.

The Altar Guild has the sacred responsibility of "housekeeping" in the house of God and in particular in the Sanctuary where the Sacraments are administered, in the place where the teaching and preaching of the Word takes place, and in the Sacristy where the preparations are made. The members dust, sweep, vacuum, polish the brasses, trim the candles, change the hangings, see that the flowers are prepared and placed, and many other details. They prepare the Altar, place the vessels on it, and bring bread and wine on the Credence Shelf at Holy Communion. They prepare the place for baptism. They prepare for all the services, marking the places for the Bibles and Bible. They care for the linens, the vestments of the clergy, and other matters pertaining to the conduct of the worship of the parish. They cleanse the vessels and the Font after services and put all things away in their proper place.

The ministry of the members of the Altar Guild lies close to the things of God and is of itself a worshipful experience. Mrs. Maertens who can be reached at LO 3-15 is always glad to talk with people interested in guild membership.

"1904" CLUB BEGINS NEW SEASON, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

Holy Trinity's newest adult group, the "1904" Club, begins its second full year Monday, September 19. For the occasion, Dr. Longley will be the keynote speaker. The club's activities begin with dinner at 6:30. Reservations should be made with Miss Elizabeth Wilson (MI 9-2904). Dr. Longley's address will follow dinner and the evening will end with a social hour. Men and women of all ages and all denominations, or none, are welcome to this adult fellowship.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER FOR JULY AND AUGUST

During the summer months, the Burial Service has been read for Ann Pohli who passed this life on July 14; George Gross, July 16; Miriam Allen, July 12; Pauline Danen, August 4; William Edsall, August 5; Henrietta Colvin, August 6; Myrtle Bradley, August 11; Anna Fry, August 17; Helen Daniel Hammer, August 20; and Blanche Kennedy, August 22.

DEAN BARTLETT'S VISIT ON SUNDAY, THE 25TH

The Very Reverend C. Julian Bartlett, D.D., Dean of Grace Cathedral, San Francisco, will be a guest preacher at Holy Trinity one week from this Sunday, September 25, at eleven o'clock service. It will be a rare privilege to have him here and to be able to hear him. This past summer, he was the special preacher at Holy Trinity in Paris.

WE PREACH CHRIST

As we begin our "year of activities" may we ever remember that the primary function and activity of a church is religion. It is not the acquiring and holding of land, the owning of buildings, the raising of budgets, the multiplication of organizations, the raising of money. It is not any of these; BUT THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOSPEL. Its demonstration in the life of the men, women and children in the parish family. Its strength and vitality of any parish or organization which makes the proclamation of Good News its primary aim will be seen not in statistics but in the quality of its relationships. The central activity of such a group will be prayer and an intense, insatiable hunger to know God as He has revealed Himself in Jesus Christ. Nor will the members of such a group be content till every person they can reach, be drawn into this fellowship in Christ. To be truly Christian is to be a missionary. The gift is not truly received unless it is shared.

DEAN BARTLETT PREACHES THIS SUNDAY

The Very Reverend C. Julian Bartlett, Dean of Grace Cathedral, San Francisco, will be preacher at Holy Trinity this Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Dean Bartlett is of New Orleans. He is a graduate of Tulane University. Before going to San Francisco, he was Rector of Saint Paul's Rock Creek, Washington, D. C.

Dean Bartlett is in Philadelphia to attend a meeting of clergy from all over the United States who are studying together the role of the Urban Church in the midst of rapid population changes, a new trend toward city apartment house living, industrial developments both in the city and its suburbs and all the unprecedented factors which are changing the face of cities. It is the belief of this group of clergy that today's missionary field is within the city and that the suburban church, indeed the church as a whole, must recognize this, plan in terms of it, and give it missionary support.

PARISH CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL OPENS THIS SUNDAY

The Holy Trinity Church School will begin classes this Sunday at 9:30 in the Church school rooms on the second floor of the Parish House. There will be a full service of worship. Parents are urged to attend with their children. There will also be a parents class.
Mr. Lee will be in charge and he will be assisted by Mr. Rudolph Moore, a seminarian at the Philadelphia Divinity School, who will be assisting the clergy at Holy Trinity this year.

Our Church School is a very small one. There are few children in the parish itself, but the school is a good one and is ready and prepared to give adequate instruction to all who come whether members of the parish or not.

On arrival in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, attendants should take the stairs to the second floor and go to the Chapel in the front of the building.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE EVENING AUXILIARY'S first meeting of the 1960-61 year is one week from next Sunday on October 4. The first speaker of the year is The Reverend Eugene D. E. Botelho, Juan Mission, Farmington, New Mexico, speaking on "Our Church and the Indian Americans."

SAINT MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS day (Michaelmas) is on Thursday of this coming week. There will be services of Holy Communion at 7:30 and 12:15. Saint Michael is described in the Old Testament in the tenth chapter of Daniel as the guardian angel of the Jewish people. In the New Testament (in Revelation 12:7), he is the great defender of the Church fighting for God against the power of the devil. The Bible is of course full of the mention of angels from beginning to end. I presume most of us will wish to use this day to thank God for our particular guardian angel which He has assigned to us.

AN ENGLISH PRAYER BOOK, printed in Saint Paul's Churchyard, in 1774, is owned by Miss Mary Napier at 28 W. Morris Avenue, Atlantic City, New Jersey. Anyone interested in possibly purchasing the book from her should write her at the above address.
THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES resume on October 10th and 11th—Monday night at the Parish House at 7:45 and Tuesday morning in the Centennial Room at 10:45.

1904 CLUB TO HEAR TALK ON MARRIAGE

This Monday, at its regular weekly meeting for men and women of all ages, the 1904 Club will hear Mr. Richard Hey speak on the topic, "Stumbling Blocks to Marriage."
Mr. Hey is Administrative Assistant, Marriage Council of Philadelphia, and Assistant in Family Study and Psychiatry, University of Pennsylvania. The meeting will begin at 7:30 and will be followed by a coffee hour. Monday night dinners will be served beginning on the first Monday in October.

THE COOPERATIVE SHOP

At 1735 Sansom Street, there is a shop which sells everything and anything it receives including, china, silver, lamps, costume jewelry, what not) for the benefit of eight Philadelphia agencies including among them the Episcopal Founders' Committee (Diocesan Agencies) and the Seamen's Church Institute. The shop is open Monday through Friday, from 9 to 4:30, for all to come and buy. It welcomes donations of saleable articles. All things sent to it should be marked plainly with the name of the beneficiary. When donor's name and address are added, a post card of thanks and acknowledgment is sent promptly. Mrs. Molly B. Koons of our parish is active in the work of the shop and solicits the support, interest, and donations of us all.

ALL THE WORLD, ONE COMMUNION AND FELLOWSHIP

It is a thrilling thing to realize that all over the world on this Sunday people of all Christian Churches, Anglican, Orthodox, Roman, Protestant will participate in the Lord's Supper. Our Lord broke the bread and offered the wine of the ancient Passover supper saying "This is my body given for you, this is my blood shed for you, take and eat, drink all, do this in remembrance of me." This Sunday, this great remembrance of Him, is thanksgiving for the love of God in Jesus, will be shared in Holy Communion by all Christian people. This Sunday, be yourself a part of this vast throng of Christian people.

ALL ARE WELCOME AT THE LORD'S TABLE

People frequently ask the Rector, "Can I receive Holy Communion in your church?" The reply is that our Altar is the Lord's Table, not an Episcopalian Table. It is the place where every Christian man or woman may come. No one who comes is ever refused. Within the Episcopal Church, we say to our own children that they must understand what they are doing before they participate. So important do we regard this that not only must the Rector be satisfied that they are prepared but the Bishop must confirm their readiness. We ask people of all ages who wish to be of our faith and fellowship in communion with the Episcopal Church to study with us for a time and then also be confirmed by the Bishop. Others, however, visitors, are always welcome. It is hoped, indeed presumed, that they approach the Holy Table as Christians with sincere Christian faith and desire, with understanding of how God in Christ acts here, entering our lives to strengthen us. Again we say it—this is not an Episcopalian Table—this is the Lord's Table. If you are His, you belong here.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES

The Rector's Bible Classes begin on Monday, October 10, at 7:45 P. M. in the Parish House and on Tuesday, October 11 at 10:45 A. M. in the Centennial Room. The evening and morning classes are identical. They will continue for eight sessions through November 28 and 29. Believing that all of us live right now, in the autumn of the year 1960, in a time of crisis more momentous, more determinative, than any other for hundreds of years, it is your Rector's purpose to explore in these classes the place of New Testament Christianity as the Way, the Truth, the Life for this day. What is the relevance of Christianity to our time? What meaning has it for our day? What does it say to us now? You are invited to participate in the classes. All are welcome.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS TUESDAY, DINNER AT 6 P. M.

The Reverend Eugene D. E. Botelho of San Juan Mission, Farmington, New Mexico, is the speaker at the Evening Auxiliary dinner on this coming Tuesday at 6 P. M. in the Centennial Room. All women who cannot attend a day time meeting are welcome, especially business and professional women. You will find the fellowship stimulating, the program interesting, and will be aiding this parish in its Christian responsibilities. You are invited to attend. No special invitation is necessary. Call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) and reserve a place at dinner.

NEW ORGANS PROMISED FOR CHRISTMAS

The two new organs, one in the gallery, the other in the chancel, will be played publicly for the first time at the Christmas Eve Midnight Service. Both organs are really fine, playable from the console in the chancel. Pledges sufficient to provide the total cost have not yet been received although the parish has done well. All gifts will, of course, be welcomed. Upwards of $20,000 more are needed. It is thought pledges payable in 1960 will be paid before the organ is first played. The installation starts on Monday, November 21.

PRAYER WORKSHOP

A "Prayer Workshop" will be held at the Church House, 202 W. Rittenhouse Square, on Wednesday, October 5, at 7:30 P. M. This is an opportunity for Holy Trinity women to learn how to lead and organize prayer groups, and to deepen their own prayer life. You are urged to attend. There will be a supper preceding the meeting in the Church House at 6:30 ($1.50). Call Miss Lucille Holladay (LO 7-6650) for reservations.

1904 CLUB

THIS MONDAY: 6:30—Dinner (call Miss Elizabeth Wilson, MI 9-2904, for reservations). 7:45—Speaker: Mr. Damon Childs, City Planning Commission, "Urban Problems and City Planning."

FRANCIS FORBES MILNE

A devoted member of Holy Trinity, former accounting warden, and when in health regular Sunday attendant, passed from this life on September 19. He will be remembered with true affection by all who knew him in the life of the parish. May he forever now in love and service.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES

This Monday 7:45 P. M. in the Parish House

This Tuesday 10:45 A. M. in the Centennial Room

The evening and morning classes are identical. If you cannot come to one, come to the other. No registration is necessary. There will be eight classes ending on the last Sunday and Tuesday in November.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGIN OCTOBER 30

Adult Confirmation Classes, looking forward to the Bishop's visitation in January, will begin on Sunday afternoon, October 30, at 2:30 o'clock in the church. There will be eight classes in all before January 1. Classes will be omitted on the Sunday after Thanksgiving and on Christmas and New Year's which occur on Sundays.

Members of Holy Trinity, now is the time to acquaint your friends and all who may be interested in Episcopal Church membership about the coming classes. Why should not all of us be seeking to bring others into our fellowship? Are there not many whom you know whom the Church could help?

1904 CLUB—THIS MONDAY, OCTOBER 10

6:30—Dinner (reservation necessary; call Miss Mary Lou Marsh, LO 7-7173); 7:45—Speaker: W. Wallace Weaver, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Sociology. Topic: "Single Adults Role in a Married Society."

CHURCHWOMEN MEET NEXT THURSDAY

Beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15, followed by luncheon at one o'clock, the churchwomen of the Church of the Holy Trinity start their 1960-61 season on Thursday, October 13. The Rector will speak on "What Can One Woman Do?" The luncheon is $1.00 and reservations should be in by Monday, October 10. All women are welcome. No special visitation is necessary. You will always find a welcome when you come. A list of the givers can be found in the back cover of this bulletin.

SEMINARIAN ASSISTS CLERGY AT HOLY TRINITY

Mr. Rudolph Moore, a member of the Middle Class at the Philadelphia Divinity School, is the seminarian assistant at Holy Trinity this year. He will assist Mr. Lee in the Church School, and after the 11 o'clock services on Sunday you will find him greeting people at one of the side aisle entrances of the church. Mr. Moore's primary purpose in being at Holy Trinity is to gain an introduction and some experience in the pastoral and parochial ministry. Mr. Moore is a native Philadelphian, a candidate for Holy Orders from Saint James, Kingsessing, and a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. It is hoped that the parish will make it a point to welcome and get to know Mr. Moore. We all have responsibility in the training and support of men who are studying for the priesthood.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

ALTAR FLOWERS, Sunday by Sunday, commemorate loved ones who have departed this life. Their names are always mentioned in this Bulletin and they are in our prayers. At the present time, there are several Sundays for which no flowers are provided. If you wish to take a Sunday, please call or notify Mrs. Bitter in the parish office (Phone LO 1267).

OPERATION LAMPLIGHT is the name of a course of study for Church people which is being given in various parts of the Diocese from October 19 through December 14. In this area, the course is at Saint Peter's Church, Third and Pine Streets, on Wednesdays, 10:00 P. M. to 10:00 P. M. Further information is posted in the Church porch. Also this Sunday morning Mr. William VanDoren and Mr. Austin Gaugel will be at the church doors to supply further information.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY meets at the 8 o'clock service this Sunday morning to receive Holy Communion together.

LENTEN PARISH FAMILY NIGHT reservations are coming in well. If you have not turned yours, please do so. We need one hundred reservations in order to plan ahead.

DONATION DAY AT THE HOUSE OF REST

Wednesday, October 12 is open house at our Diocesan Home for women, located at 19 Wayne Avenue, Germantown. Tea will be served from two until five o'clock and visitors are cordially welcome. Contributions towards the maintenance of the House of Rest may be sent to Mrs. Thomas A. Carroll, 42 East Abington Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.

BISHOP BAYNE WRITES IN "THE EPISCOPALIAN"

I had dinner this evening between Cape Town and Johannesburg in South Africa. Tomorrow afternoon I have appointments in my office in London. Tonight we will cover a whole of vast Africa in our racing jet flight—the high veldt, the endless brown plains, the green gloom of the jungle, the Nile valley, the desert—all this in a few disdainful hours. We will stop in Nairobi and Khartoum, but only long enough for the Comet to gulp us. All of this exploding Africa in a night's swift flight. This speed of travel, dramatic as it is to men of my age who can remember when—this speed is not nearly as important as another speed. That other speed, which is often referred to as "rapid social change," is enough to make your hair curl. A good while after my father was born, the Great Powers met solemnly in Berlin to decide how Africa should be carved up to give everybody an imperial slice; this year the Africans met to decide how much longer to wait for the Great Powers before they get evacuated. In 1954, the first discussion was held about the possible future independence of Tanganyika. This year plans are now completed for self-government.

Then Bishop Bayne goes on, "It is a fair question whether any of the new nations are 'ready' for independence, but it's a bit like asking when anybody is 'ready' for conformation or 'adequately prepared' for marriage. The answer probably is 'never.' And certainly, in the far more complex problems of national life, the answer is not any surer. The point is an academic one. In the torrent of new nationalism in our world, nobody is going to wait until somebody else decides he is ready to run his own affairs. A bad government of his own is infinitely preferable to the best government by somebody else. And the overpowering drive toward national selfhood proceeds at incredible and relentless speed."

To this observation of Bishop Bayne, the Rector adds, "As this is true of the greater world, so is it true of our lesser world. None of us can rightly stick his head in the sand and ignore the pressures which are building up around us and will inevitably come to a boiling point. What are we going to do about racial integration, about the high cost of medical service, about the growing number of aging people who need care but have none to care for them, about universal education? Most of us don't want to turn such things over to a dictator. We don't want some form of socialism. We do want to work these increasing problems out freely among ourselves. But we shall not do this uncoerced and unregimented unless every single one of us is concerned to study, to work, to give solutions to our common problems. We must be willing to listen and to act. They won't wait. We must meet them. And the time is now!"

A RADIO LETTER

Many interesting letters come in to the office from Sunday morning radio listeners. There is one that the Rector would like to share with the whole parish. It reads, "I am a widow and live on social security and can't go to church often but listen to your services on Sunday morning and thought I would send a donation toward the work of the Church. Yours respectfully." The donation was far more than a widow's mite.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS begins on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 on October 17. It will continue for eight successive weeks omitting the Sunday after Thanksgiving and Christmas and New Year's.

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES are now meeting every Monday at 7:45 P. M. in the Parish House, every Tuesday at 10:45 A. M. in the Centennial Room. The two classes are identical. You are invited to come either in the evening or morning. The classes strike a blow against spiritual illiteracy. They ask "Do you know why you are a Christian?"

SAINT LUKE'S DAY is next Tuesday, October 18. We shall remember him at services on that day at 7:30 and 12:15. Saint Luke was a physician and on his day in our prayers we remember especially the physicians and nurses serving the sick. Perhaps you will want to join our thankful prayers.

1904 CLUB, a social gathering place within the Church for people of all ages, meets in the Centennial Room every Monday night. There is dinner at 6:30 (call Mary Lou Marsh, PE 5-0326 for reservations) followed by a program at 7:30. This Monday's speaker is Mrs. Esther Polen whose topic is "Fair, Fowl, or Funny" (the problem of obscenity).

WOMEN'S UNITED THANK OFFERING ON OCTOBER 23

The Fall Ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be presented at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday, October 23. This is an extra and spontaneous offering from the women in gratitude for their blessings. The emphasis is not on the size of the gift but that it comes from a thankful heart. "I thank my God on every remembrance." The familiar Blue Envelopes will be in the pews if you wish to use them. Blue Boxes will be on a table in the church vestibule, please take one and use it towards the Spring Offering. The Offerings from all the women of the Church go to help women missionaries, mission schools, hospitals, and Churches all over the world.

SPECIAL PREACHER

Recognizing our responsibility to share in the problems facing all sections of the Church, your Rector has invited a man from Virginia where the problem of integration is acute and often bitter one to speak to us this Sunday at the eleven o'clock service. The Reverend John H. Teeter, the Priest in charge of the Good Shepherd Church in Lynchburg. It is right that we should invite him to share with us some of his thinking in the area of racial understanding we may have fellowship with him in his problems and learn better how to handle our own. In Mr. Teeter's work of bringing to pass racial integration where it is extremely difficult, it can mean much to him to know that there is a fellowship of sympathy and prayer on our part giving him refreshment on his way.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGIN OCTOBER 30

Communicant members of the Episcopal Church are those who have received the sacrament of Confirmation from a Bishop of the Church. Confirmation is primarily a sacrament of strengthening through the power of the Holy Spirit. It is that which the Church offers to those who, having been baptized are taking on new Christian responsibilities. Initially, it is reception into the Apostolic heritage and family in which each member becomes one with all who have gone before him. It is the Church, through its Bishop and representative, enfolding you in its arms of comfort and grace.

Adult Confirmation Classes preparing for the Bishop's visitation on January 15 will begin on Sunday afternoon, October 30, at 2:30 in the church. There will be eight classes in preparation. There will be no class on the Sunday after Thanksgiving or on Christmas Eve.

All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend all the classes. Anyone, whether confirmed or not, may attend. No one who attends is in any way obligated to be confirmed. The classes are about the Episcopal Church and offer an opportunity to any who wish to receive and review their knowledge of the Church.

No previous registration is necessary but it should be noted that attendance at the class is important.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

Twice each year, the women of the Church gather in the offerings which they have been collecting at home in moments of special thankfulness. The idea of the United Thank Offering came out of the imaginations of two women named Miss Julia Chester and Mrs. Richard H. Soule. They thought why shouldn't every Church woman have a little box somewhere in her house where she can show her thankfulness for God's goodness by placing in it a coin with a prayer. Once or twice a year she can empty the box and give its contents to the Church. That's the way it started and now thousands of women everywhere are doing just this very thing. Little blue boxes are available for women to take home and use. Approximately 275 of the women giving a Thank Offering are in this parish. This Sunday, we are presenting their offerings at our Altar. The money goes for missionary purposes all over the world. It is interesting to realize that, each year, women all over the Church are giving over a million dollars in these thank offerings.

THIS SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT OLD CHRIST CHURCH

This Sunday, the Episcopal Community Services of our Diocese celebrates its 90th anniversary at a special service at 3 P. M. in old Christ Church, Second Street above the city hall. It is also the 265th year of the founding of Christ Church. The preacher will be the Right Reverend Jonathan Goodhue Sherman, S.T.D., Suffragan Bishop of Long Island. The choir of the Episcopal Academy will sing. After the service, tea will be served at old Saint Paul's 225 S. Third Street. All are invited.

ADVANCE NOTICE OF THE BAZAAR, NOVEMBER 10

There will be more about the Bazaar at the Barclay, Thursday, November 10, in next week's Bulletin. But now is the time to help prepare for it. Fancy and useful articles are greatly needed. The White Elephant booth will welcome donations of saleable objects including jewelry, modern and old. Novelties for the "Christmas Corner" will be most welcome. The chairman of the Cake and Candy Tables will be very appreciative of home-made cakes, cookies, and candy. A contribution of money is equally appreciated, whether small or large. Donations of non-perishable articles may be sent to the Parish House, 100 Walnut Street, marked "Bazaar" until November 8. Cakes and candies should be brought to the Barclay before 11 A. M. on November 10, marked "Holy Trinity Bazaar."

1904 CLUB

1904 Club, a social gathering place within the Church for people of all ages, meets in the Centennial Room every Monday night. There is dinner at 6:30 (for reservations call Lou Marsh, PE 5-0326) followed by a program at 7:30. This Monday's speaker is Edward G. Horn, III, Pastor, Trinity Lutheran Church, whose topic is "Aspects of Christian Marriage."

ABOUT THE ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES, SUNDAYS, 2:30 P. M.

All people, anyone, you perhaps, are invited to the Adult Confirmation Classes. They are about the Episcopal Church. Many a member might well review his or her knowledge of the Church.

Inquirers, not now Episcopalians, are invited. No one is committed to being confirmed because he attends the class. All are welcome.

Those who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend as a matter of preparation between now and January 15 when Bishop Hart visits the parish. There will be eight classes Sunday afternoons at 2:30 in the church. The class will be omitted on the Sunday after Thanksgiving and on Christmas and New Year's which are Sundays.

FOR SALE

WHAT? Books—Brand New Books!
WHAT KIND? Fiction, Non-fiction, Adults, Children's, Religious, Travel, Biography, book—you name it.
WHAT PRICE? Exactly the same as the book stores.
WHAT PLACE? Holy Trinity Bazaar—The Barclay—November 10.
WHAT FOR? To make your Christmas giving perfectly pleasant, but not perfunctory; and to swell the proceeds of the Bazaar, all of which go to the missionary work of the church.

In addition to books at the Barclay, any book may be ordered by calling Mrs. Harry Angley, MI 2-6511.

THE ANNUAL BAZAAR IS NEXT THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10 AT THE BARCLAY, 18TH AND RITTENHOUSE SQUARE

Each year, at about this time, there is a special bustle and excitement as we make final preparations for the Bazaar and Card Party given by the Women of the Church of Holy Trinity on November 10. The Barclay ballroom will be a gay and busy place.

There still is time to send your donations of non-perishable articles. They will be welcome any time until November 8. Donations of homemade cakes, candy and cookies will be gratefully received and should be delivered to the Barclay marked "Holy Trinity Bazaar" by 11 A. M. on November 10.

This is a project for the whole parish to join. Support it, publicize it, patronize it. The proceeds are used for the women's missionary work, at home and overseas—a Christian imperative. Do YOUR share to make the 1960 Bazaar a success.

Perhaps you have tickets for the card party and cannot attend. Give them to a friend to use. There are door prizes. This is your opportunity to do your Christmas shopping early, pleasantly and profitably, at the Christmas corner, the fancy and useful booths, mystery packages, and the ever fascinating white elephants. At the Book Table will be found all the newest books at regular prices. Take home a package of homemade cake and some candy.

Mrs. Eugene M. Callis and Mrs. George Eyre Smith will be in the Parish House Sunday, November 6, from 10:30 to 11 A. M. and from 12:15 until 1 o'clock to receive your packages. Thank you.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

This Presentation Service is always a moving one and the message of Mr. Craighill will be of interest to all members of the parish. Everyone is invited to be present.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASS is meeting every Monday evening at 7:45, Tuesdays 10:45 A. M.

THE CURATES BIBLE CLASS meets Wednesdays at 7:45 P. M. upstairs in the Parish House.

1904 CLUB meets in the Centennial Room for dinner at 6:30 (call PE 5-0326 for reservations) on Monday evening followed by a program at 7:30. This Monday's speaker is Marjorie Marrow, from S. Kind & Son, whose topic is "The Art of Entertaining."

THREE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-EIGHT RADIO LETTERS IN TWO WEEKS

During the last two weeks of October, we heard from 388 radio listeners. What this program means to thousands is expressed vividly in many of the letters. Here are some of them. One man writes: "I listen to your service every Sunday morning. I do hope this broadcast will always be on the air." Another says: "It is difficult to adequately describe what the services from the Holy Trinity Church have meant. They have given me new strength and courage to go on despite misfortunes. Undoubtedly many, many others have received the same benefits from your Sunday broadcasts." A listener as far away as Binghamton, New York, writes: "It is a great pleasure for us to share your Sunday morning radio services when we are unable to attend our own. This privilege means much to us." One that particularly pleased us said: "I hope Holy Trinity will never cease broadcasting."

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

All ye servants of the Lord, Praise the Lord. Ye that dwell in the house of the Lord, and in the courts of the house of our God. Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, And praise, and praise the Lord. Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like as the dew of Hermon, which fell upon the hill of Sion, for there the Lord that made heaven and earth, promised His blessing, and life for evermore.

Membership

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF
THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed, because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge, others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time. May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in, or ill, or prevented by conditions of work, and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

At Church, through the canvassers, and by mail, $45,529.20 was pledged on Sunday to support the work of this parish in 1961. During the past year, an additional $46,208.00 was pledged for the new organs. An amount of $36,041.50 of the organ pledges has already been paid. This is the splendid record of the people of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

There are still many regular supporters of the parish whose pledges for 1961 have not been received. You are urged to send in your card as soon as possible. Horace H. H. is the Chairman of this year's canvass.

MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION THIS SUNDAY

Throughout the nation, the men of the Church will meet for Holy Communion on Sunday as a new Church year begins. Here at Holy Trinity there will be a Men's Corporate Communion at the eight o'clock service and this will be followed by a breakfast in the Centennial Room. After breakfast, a thirty minute movie will be shown having to do with how the Episcopal Church is meeting the rising tide of African nationalism and resurgence.

ADVENT QUIET MORNING FOR WOMEN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2

At Trinity Memorial Church, 22nd and Spruce, on Friday, December 2, from 10:30 to 12:30, there will be a Quiet Morning for women to be led by Canon Heber W. Becker of Saint Stephen's Cathedral, Harrisburg.

CHANGE IN PROGRAM—EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN, EVENING GROUP

Due to the fact that our scheduled speaker for Tuesday evening, December 6, Mr. Michaelson Czup, will be unavoidably detained on the west coast until the middle of December, Miss Carolyn Pitts has graciously consented to advance her program to Friday, and she will speak to us on the subject, "Great Religious Art of the Middle Ages and the Cult of the Virgin."

We have arranged for Mr. Czup to present his lecture in the month of February.

Further notice of the December 6 meeting will be in next week's Bulletin.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

PARKING is available Sunday mornings for twenty-five cents (until 1 P. M.) at the garage, 1813 Walnut Street.

POST OFFICE employees are human beings, too. Help them as Christmas approaches by using zone numbers; separating the local from out-of-town mail; and mailing early.

ORGAN INSTALLATION has begun. There will be certain inconveniences for the next few weeks. It is confidently expected that the work will be completed in time for the Christmas Eve Midnight service.

THE CHOIR will be accompanied this Sunday by instruments from the Curtis Institute with William Haroutounian, solo violin, as they sing "Wachet Auf, Ruft Uns Sie Heil'ge Nacht" by J. S. Bach. The soloists will be Marjorie Camp, soprano; Rodney Stenborg, baritone; and Harry VanFossen, tenor.

THE ORGAN replacement is a Baldwin electronic supplied by the Thoma Piano Company, 1721 Chestnut Street, in this city.

THANK YOU

To all those who by their active participation and their donations helped to make the 1960 Bazaar a success, the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity Day Group wish to express appreciation. It is only through the medium of the Bulletin that everyone can know how grateful we are to them.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY, 6 P. M.

business and professional women and all other women who cannot attend a meeting are potential members of the Evening Auxiliary of the Church of the Trinity and are urged to attend the monthly dinners and meetings every first Tuesday, 6 P. M. in the Centennial Room. No special invitation is necessary. You will find us welcome when you come.

The program at this coming week's meeting includes Miss Carolyn Pitts as the speaker who will talk about "Great Religious Art of the Middle Ages and the Cult of the Virgin Mary." Reservations for the dinner ($1.50) should be made by Thursday, December 1. Write the parish office LO 7-1267. The officers of the Evening Auxiliary are listed on the back page of this bulletin.

THE DAY GROUP, HOLY TRINITY CHURCHWOMEN, MEETS THURSDAY

beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15, followed by luncheon at one o'clock, the members of the Church meet this coming Thursday, December 8, in the Parish House. All members of the Church and their friends are welcome at the monthly meetings. This month's speaker is Mrs. James G. Ludwig. She will speak about the little known but very interesting work of "The Church Periodical Club." Luncheon is $1.00. Please make your reservations by Monday.

TRANSFERS FROM AND TO OUR PARISH SINCE SEPTEMBER 1

It is interesting to note that transfers from a parish may have little current meaning in terms of present membership. Often, requests are received for someone's letter from a parish who have been gone from the parish 15 or 20 years. We find their names in non-current files of past years which are kept available. For instance, Janet Mary Workman was transferred to Saint Paul's, Levittown, although she was not presently an active member.

Our current interest are the transfers of Mrs. Allen L. Fowler to Saint Clement's, Philadelphia; Walter G. Freeman, to Saint Alban's, Philadelphia; Walter Storey to Saint Mark's, Philadelphia; and David H. Williams to Immanuel, Wilmington.

Transfers of new people into our parish are always of great interest to all of us. Since September 1, we have received transfers for Roberta Henry, 2120 Walnut Street, from Saint Nicholas Parish Church, Dundalk, Ireland; Eleanor H. Johnson, The Chatham, from Saint Church, Merchantville, New Jersey; Ann Jones, 1811 Pine Street, from Saint Mary's, Philadelphia; George H. Keller, Jr., Girard College, from Calvary, Front Royal, Pa.; Gail M. Smith, 1504 Pine Street, from Saint John the Evangelist, Chews Landing, New Jersey; Frederick Royce, 1904 Walnut Street, from Saint Mary's, Hamilton Village; and Allison Smith, 2031 Locust Street, from Saint Thomas', Mamaroneck, New York; also, Miss Gertrude Torbitt, the Drake, from St. Peters, Germantown; and Mrs. Joseph Trotman, 6685 Locust Lane, Upper Darby, from St. Giles, Upper Darby.

The Church directive about transfers reads as follows: "A communicant or baptized member in good standing, removing from one Parish or Congregation to another, shall be entitled to receive and shall procure from the Rector or Minister of the Parish or Congregation of his or her last enrollment or, a certificate addressed to the Rector or Minister of the Parish or Congregation to which removal is desired, stating that he or she is duly received or enrolled as a communicant or baptized member in the Parish or Congregation from which he or she desires to be transferred, and the Rector or Minister or Warden of the Parish or Congregation to which such communicant or baptized member may move shall enroll him or her as a communicant or baptized member when such certificate is presented."

When moving from one parish to another, it is a good thing to have one's letter in the Church where one is worshipping. The present rector at Holy Trinity always seeks to have people transfer if they move away from Philadelphia.

LENTEN PARISH FAMILY NIGHT PLANS COMPLETED

The Rector will open the Parish Family Nights during Lent beginning on Thursday, January 16. A series of three addresses by D. Campbell Wyckoff, Professor of Christian Education at Princeton Theological Seminary will follow on February 23; March 2, and 9. The closing two addresses on March 16 and 23 will be given by Henry Dolan, a Philadelphia lawyer, whose book about the Church's faith will be published simultaneously with the lectures at Holy Trinity.

More than 100 people have "signed up" for the lecture series. If you have not done so we would like to have your assurance. Notice of payment for the course will be sent in January.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE ORGAN INSTALLATION is in full swing. Drop in and see what is going on.

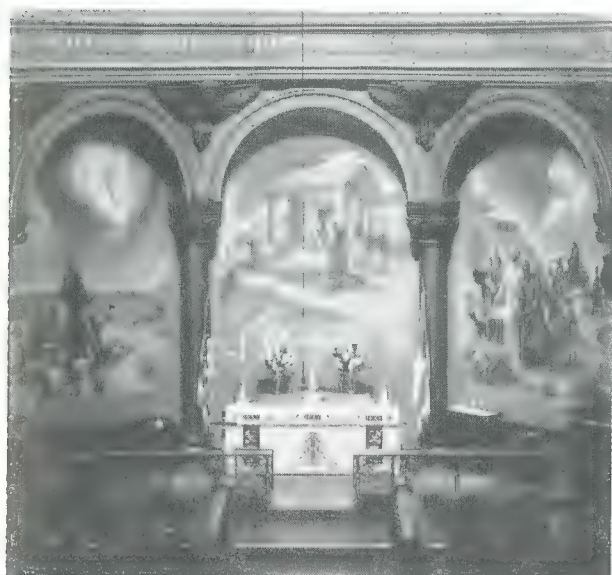

THE RECTOR'S BIBLE CLASSES, current series, have been completed.

TODAY'S CONFIRMATION CLASS in the Church at 2:30, is about the Prayer Book. Visitors are welcome.

BISHOP'S CHAIR INSTALLED IN SANCTUARY

Almost every Episcopal Church has a seat for the Bishop in its chancel or sanctuary. In recent years, Holy Trinity has been without one. However, the Vestry, at its meeting in September, gave approval for the placing of a chair; and, this past week, a new chair was put in place in our sanctuary. It is made of hand rubbed walnut and a mitre is placed in the back of the chair signifying its function as the seat for the Bishop.

The chair is the gift of Mrs. Milton Jacob Waas as a memorial to her late husband, Doctor Milton Jacob Waas. It will be dedicated on the occasion of Bishop Hart's visit to our parish on Sunday, January 15. Doctor Waas was confirmed at Holy Trinity on December 4, 1955. He passed from this life on June 9 of this year. It had been his desire to have a Bishop's chair for some time, but his plan never came to fruition during his life. Mrs. Waas has now realized his desire.

EVENING GUILD INVITES ALL TO WRAPPING PARTY

For several years, the Evening Auxiliary has sent gifts to the Philadelphia General Hospital at Christmas time and plans to do so again this year.

It invites not only its own members, but everyone to come to its gift wrapping party on Friday, December 16, at 7 P. M. Come one, come all for a happy evening together. Bring a package or two of cigarettes to go with the gifts.

There will be refreshments and carol singing.

EVER SEE AN ORGAN PUT TOGETHER

Now is your chance to see what an organ in the making looks like. There are some tremendous pipes in the gallery organ. There are interesting pieces of wood and scaffolding being erected. At this point, one wonders how it will ever produce music. In the meantime, the church as a place of worship is in eclipse. The happy whistling and conversation of the workmen, the hammering and pounding of their tools cause the church to be anything but quiet. But, on Christmas Eve, how great will be the result of all this activity.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT'S HAPPENING?

How many of you know that a group of Holy Trinity women meet together once a week to sew for both local and Church mission hospitals and schools? Well, it's true. Such a group is meeting every Thursday (except the second Thursday in the month—Guild Day). Right now, they are working on a project for Episcopal Hospital—children's pajamas. Last year among their accomplishments were outfits for girls in a school in Liberia.

The group invites you to join them. If you can turn a hem, baste, operate an electric sewing machine (they have three) or do hand sewing, you're just the person who ought to come.

The sewing group meets Thursdays in the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, at 10:30 P. M.—has lunch at one (bring your own sandwiches—all the rest is provided) and works until about three o'clock. You are invited to appear and be put to work. You'll have a happy time.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER SINCE OCTOBER

Four members of Holy Trinity have passed from this life since October 1. The burial service was read for Porter Hurd on October 1; for Emma Small Murta on November 22; Margaret Bodine on November 28, and for Clara Homan on December 7. The Rector will read the burial office for Edwin Kuehnle, the husband of one of our members, on November 15. May they all forever grow in love and service.

DOCTOR BLAKE'S SUGGESTION OF UNION

At first glance, it appears that Doctor Blake, chief executive officer for the United Presbyterian Church, in his proposal last Monday of the union of four large churches in the United States has in mind a plan similar to that of South India and the later North India plan. Such a proposal would be highly acceptable to Episcopalians. There are certain essentials of faith, ministry, and liturgy which the Episcopal Church would find necessary in any scheme of union and which has been worked out satisfactorily in the Anglican Churches. These are unessentials in terms of forms of worship, administrative actions, and even titles over which some "die hards" will argue; but this can be overcome. The proposal merits every consideration. It should be a matter for the most serious discussion. It is full of hope.

libraries, and churches all over the world. It will be in full color.

OVERSEAS MISSION SOCIETY MEETING HERE IN JANUARY

Holy Trinity people and all others in the Philadelphia area who believe deeply in the strategic importance of preaching the gospel of Jesus everywhere in today's world will have a rare opportunity to understand the world picture during a meeting of the Overseas Mission Society to be held here on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, January 20, 21 and 22, at Holy Trinity. Close to 300 people are expected to attend from the Eastern part of the United States.

On Friday night, there will be a mass meeting in Holy Trinity at which Bishop Bayne, executive officer of the Anglican Communion with offices in London, will be the speaker.
Bishop Bayne has spent the past year in travel all over the world visiting every Diocese of the Anglican Communion in every section of the globe. Save Friday night, January 20, to hear Bishop Bayne. You owe it to your Church and to yourself to know today's challenges to the Church's Mission.

LOYALTY SUNDAY RESULTS CONTINUE TO INCREASE

Each year, for the past ten years, the giving of the people of Holy Trinity in pledged support of the Church's yearly program has been higher than the year before. In 1950, pledges from pledges totaled $13,915.24. In 1951, the pledges for 1952 were $32,033.35. In the canvass just completed, for 1961, the total is now $54,031.65.

Great credit is due to Horace Rogers, chairman of the Canvass, and to his five loyal assistants: Jack F. Bowling, Merrill A. Kercher, Barook J. Masuda, Harvey Schock, Jr., and Scott Stewart.

Thanks and praise are also due to the loyal Canvass workers: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bachman, Kenneth Baird, May B. Baird, Mrs. Charles W. H. Bancroft, Mrs. Helen W.
Barber, Ann Becker, Barbara Blair, Rodman P. Bright, Neale C. Bringham, Mrs. Evelyn Clark, Charlotte E. Coffman, Margaret Colflesh, Carolyn A. Cessna, H. Howard Dahlke, Yeager.

THE COMING DAYS AND THE COMING MONTH

Christmas at Holy Trinity this year will be joyful in particular because it will mark the first playing of the new organs which will be heard for the first time at the Midnight Service on Saturday night, December 24, at 10:30 when Frederick Royce plays a half hour recital before the beginning of the Midnight Service at 11 P. M.

On Christmas Day, the services are at 8 and 11 A. M. Special programs will reach the next week.

During January, all of its five Sundays will mark a special event at the 11 o'clock service. The first Sunday will be New Year's Day. On Sunday, January 8, Dean Albert as will be the preacher on Christian Education, January 15 is Confirmation Sunday.
Bishop Hart will be the preacher. January 22 will be a special service for the Overseas Mission Society and there will be a special preacher, probably Dean Bartlett, of San Francisco. And on January 29, the new organs will be dedicated. There will be more news of this later.

WHO SAID THIS?

"What is the meaning of human life? To find a satisfactory answer to the question man is to be religious. You ask: 'But why need we pose the question?' I answer, 'the man who regards his own life and that of his fellow creatures as meaningless is not truly unhappy but hardly fit for life.'"

THREE GREAT MONTHS AT HOLY TRINITY

Between now and Easter, greater opportunity for spiritual enrichment, understanding and witness will be offered at the Church of the Holy Trinity than perhaps ever before in a three month period. Here is a partial calendar of coming events:

SUNDAY, JANUARY 8—Dean Lucas, Philadelphia Divinity School is the special preacher.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12—Episcopal Churchwomen meet for Holy Communion at 12:15; luncheon at 1 P. M. with the Reverend John P. Bartholomew, Curate, Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, speaking on "Mexico." All Churchwomen and their friends are welcome at this meeting. Be sure to make a reservation. The parish office number is LO 7-1267.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 15—Bishop Hart is the preacher at a Confirmation Service.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 20—8 P. M. Bishop Bayne, Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion, preaches at a Missionary Mass Meeting. This will be an address of major significance to all who are interested in the Church's witness today. That, surely, means all of us.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 22—11 A. M. Dean Bartlett of San Francisco is the special preacher.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 29—11 A. M. Dedication of the new organ with special music. 8 P. M. Dedication recital by Frederick Royce.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1—8:30 P. M. Second Dedication recital by Carl Weinrich, of Princeton University.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7—Evening Auxiliary, 6 P. M. dinner with Mr. Frederick Royce, our own Organist and Choirmaster, speaking on "The Organ and Its Use in the Worship Service." No special invitation is necessary to attend these meetings. You are invited. Call the parish office (LO 7-1267) for a reservation.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8—8:30 P. M. Third Dedication recital by Alex Wyton, of the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine, New York.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9—Episcopal Churchwomen meet for Holy Communion at 12:15; luncheon at 1 P. M. with the Reverend Arnold Purdie, Executive Director of Episcopal Community Services, speaking on "Diocesan Ministry to the Aging." All Churchwomen and their friends are welcome at this meeting. Be sure to make a reservation. The parish office number is LO 7-1267.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15—Ash Wednesday—Services at 7:30 A. M., 11 A. M., 12:10 (noon). 8:30 P. M., the Choir sings "Forsaken of Man"—Leo Sowerby.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16—First Parish Family Night beginning with Evening Prayer at 5:30; dinner at 6:15; with address and discussion at 7:15. The Rector is the first speaker.

EACH WEDNESDAY IN LENT—8:30 P. M., special music; February 22, "Requiem"—Gabriel Faure; "Alto Rhapsody"—Johannes Brahms (in German); March 1, Organ Recital, all Bach program, by Frederick Royce; March 8, "Mass in G Minor"—Ralph Vaughan Williams—(double chorus).

EACH THURSDAY IN LENT—Parish Family Nights with D. Campbell Wyckoff of the Princeton Theological Seminary on February 23, March 2, and March 9; and Henry Dolan, Philadelphia lawyer, on March 16 and 23. Mr. Dolan will speak about his new book on the Christian Faith.

EACH DAY IN LENT—Holy Communion at 12:10; Evening Prayer and Meditation at 5:30 P. M. (except Saturday).

The Christmas Services - 1960

CHRISTMAS EVE, AT 11 O'CLOCK ..... MORNING) AT 8 AND 11 O'CLOCK
ON CHRISTMAS MORNING AT 11, THE MUSIC IS THE SAME AS AT 11, SATURDAY NIGHT

The new gallery and chancel organs will be played for the first time at the midnight service on Christmas Eve. They will be dedicated at special services on the last Sunday in January, the twenty-ninth. Beginning at ten-thirty, an organ recital by Frederick Roye will precede the Midnight Service on Christmas Eve. He will play the following numbers:

CHRISTMAS EVE AT 10:30 P.M.

Benedictus: "Blessed Is He That Cometh" ..... ALEC ROWLEY
Von Himmel Hoch "From Heaven Above to Earth I Come". PACHABELLE
Noel sûr les flûtes ..... D'AQUIN
Prelude and Fugue in C minor ..... J. S. BACH
La Nativité ..... JEAN LANGLAIS

In a humble manger, one mild night, Mary and Joseph await the birth of Christ the Lord. When the child was born, the heavenly choir, in a gracious appearance communicates to the shepherds the happening at Bethlehem. The shepherds having come to the manager, offer to the Infant Jesus as a sign of adoration, their rendered melodies. Then the Holy Family finds calm in the peace of the Lord.

The Dedication of the Organs will take place on Sunday, January 29th, at the eleven o'clock service. That same evening, Mr. Roye will give a Recital at 8:00 P.M.

On Wednesday, February 1st, at 8:30 P.M., Carl Weinrich, organist at Princeton University, will play a recital. One week later, on Wednesday, February 8th, Alex Wyton, organist of the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine, New York, will be a recital guest.

THE HOLY COMMUNION ON CHRISTMAS

This service, from the beginning when the choir and congregation sing the "O Come All Ye Faithful" to its glorious and triumphal ending, when the "Gloria in Excelsis," followed by the traditional "Silent Night, Holy Night" is sung, is a service of inspiring and beautiful worship.

During the period when the people come to the altar to receive the Holy Communion, if you do not wish to receive Holy Communion at this service, remain quietly in your place and sing with the choir the carols which will be sung quietly during this time. This period of communion can be intensely devotional. Make it so for yourself tonight.

Choral Prelude: Antiphon ..... Hymnal, Chant 611
The Processional Hymn: 12 ..... "O Come, All Ye Faithful"
The Introit: Hymn 25 ..... "Break Forth"
The Call to Prayer (the congregation kneels)
The Summary of the Law, the Kyrie Eleison
(The Mass of Saint Nicholas) ..... RICHARD PURVIS

The Gradual: Verses one and two of Hymn 20
The Gloria Tibi, and Laus Tibi, Christi ..... Chant
The Nicene Creed ..... PURVIS
There is no sermon at the Christmas Eve Service
The Offertory: "GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST" ..... RON NELSON
The Doxology
The Prayer for the Church
The Penitential Portion
The Comfortable Words
The Christmas Preface to the Sanctus } ..... Prayer Book, pages 74-77
The Sanctus ..... PURVIS
The Prayer of Consecration
The Lord's Prayer } ..... Prayer Book, pages 80-82
The Prayer of Humility
Agnus Dei ..... PURVIS
Hymn 21 ..... "O Little Town of Bethlehem"
The Holy Communion

During this period, Christmas carols will be sung softly. The congregation is urged to join in the singing with the choir. The words will be found on the inserted page of this folder.

Prayer of Thanksgiving ..... Prayer Book, page 83
Hymn of Thanksgiving: "Gloria, in Excelsis, Deo" ..... PURVIS
The Benediction
The Benediction Carol: "Silent Night, Holy Night"
Nunc Dimittis ..... WILLIAMS
The Recessional Hymn: 27 ..... "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing"

FREDERICK ROYE, Choirmaster

The decorations at Christmas time are in Loving Memory of Charles Albert and Emma Stokes Daniel, A. Wiese and Helen Daniel Hammer and Ernst Louis Metzger, 2nd, and are placed in the church by Mrs. Sarah Daniel Metzger.

THE BISHOP'S VISITATION

The Bishop's visit to the Church of the Holy Trinity today is his official visitation to parish in accordance with Canon 43, Sec. 2(a) of the Church which reads:

Every Bishop shall visit the Congregations within his Diocese or Missionary District at least once in three years, for the purposes of examining their condition, inspecting behavior of the Clergy, administering Confirmation, preaching the Word, and at his option celebrating the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. At every visitation it shall be the duty of the Bishop to examine the records required by Canon 45, Section 3." Canon Section 3 refers to the Parish register containing the record of "all Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, Burials, and the names of all Communicants within the Parish."

THE OVERSEAS MISSION SOCIETY MEETING

MASS MEETING, FRIDAY EVENING, 8 P. M.

PREACHER: BISHOP BAYNE

Next Friday (January 20), Saturday, and Sunday, the Church of the Holy Trinity will have the place of meeting of a group within the Church known as "The Overseas Mission Society." This is a group of people interested in the most effective kind of Christian Missionary work in all parts of the world.

The people of the whole Diocese of Pennsylvania and of the Church of the Holy Trinity in particular are invited to participate in the meetings. Of great interest to all in the area will be the appearance of Bishop Bayne who has recently completed a survey of the whole Church in every part of the world. Every Episcopalian who is vitally interested in the Church's witness in the world today should plan to hear him on Friday night, January 20, here at Holy Trinity at 8 P. M. The preacher on Sunday morning will be an old friend who preached at Holy Trinity last September, the Very Reverend Julian Bartlett, Dean of Grace Cathedral, San Francisco. People of Holy Trinity, your Rector urges you not to lose the opportunity these meetings will afford.

The program for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, January 20, 21, and 22 is as follows:
Friday, 8 P. M. in the church, Bishop Bayne; Saturday 9 A. M. (place to be announced) Bro. Sherrill speaks on "Anglicanism and Roman Catholicism in Latin America;" Saturday at 2:30 P. M., Professor Kitagawa of the University of Chicago, speaks on "The History of Mission." Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, the Reverend Charles Long, Jr. (son of the Diocesan Secretary) speaks on "The Ecumenical Church."

Note: The Sunday morning services on January 22 will be the Holy Communion. Since there will be many visitors from the Church as a whole, the administration of Holy Communion will not be by intinction as is the custom of the parish. The elements of the Communion will be administered both from the paten and the chalice.

THE LENTEN "PARISH FAMILY" DINNERS

Near one hundred of us have signed up for the "Parish Family Nights" during this Lent. This coming week there will go to these people a brief letter containing six dinner tickets and a request that they mail their money or checks to the parish office. If you did not return a card last fall, you may apply for tickets at the parish office. The cost for six dinners and the lectures is ten dollars.

The "Parish Family Nights" will be on Thursdays in Lent, beginning with February the program consists of Evening Prayer with hymns, music, and a brief meditation at to be followed by dinner in the Centennial Room with a lecture and discussion. The next will lead the first session on February 16. Professor D. Campbell Wyckoff of the Reverend Theological Seminary will lead the meetings on February 23, March 2, and March 9. Henry Dolan, Philadelphia lawyer and author of the new book "The Divine Dimension" will be the leader on March 16 and 23.

Our Lent will emphasize our parish family and fellowship. We will strive to become a family of people knowing each other and ever more and more aware of our privileges, opportunities, and responsibilities as Christians gathered together in Christ in "one communion and fellowship."

NOTE: All the meetings listed above are in Holy Trinity Church and are open to everyone. Don't miss this significant opportunity to be an understanding partner in the worldwide work of your Church.

ORGAN DEDICATION SET FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 29

The new organ will be dedicated January 29, one week from this Sunday, at the 10 o'clock service. A Te Deum by Rhea will be sung as well as H. Alexander Matthews' Motet, "Lord, I Have Loved the Habitation of Thy House." The Rector will preach. In the evening at eight o'clock, Frederick Royce will play the first of three dedicatory recitals. The second recital will be on Wednesday evening (February 1) with Carl Weinman, Princeton University. One week later, February 8, Alex Wyton of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York, will play the third dedicatory recital. A special program will be mailed to the parish next week. Tell your friends.

ORGAN FUND APPROACHES NEEDED GOAL

The amount of money in pledges and gifts now available for the organ is $55,528. The needed amount is $62,500.00. Last week, an already generous contributor informed the Rector that he was willing to give an additional gift of $2,000 if and when others would also give an additional $5,000. In short, if the gap between the present amount and sixty thousand, five hundred dollars can be closed, the organ will be paid for at the time of the dedication next Sunday.

EVENING AUXILIARY ANNOUNCES ANNUAL PARTY, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11

Save Saturday afternoon, February 11, to attend the annual Card Party and Bake Sale of the Evening Auxiliary in the Parish House at two o'clock. There are two purposes to the party—good fellowship and a gift to the Church's missionary work. You are invited to bring a man or woman. Admission tickets are one dollar and a quarter. You may buy early (it's a good idea) or at the door.

Here are the names of the people planning the party (consult them for further information): Surprise Packages, Helen Lanzi; Bake Table, Priscilla Kitchel; Card Tables, Lucia Bentley; Decorations, Laura Abrams; Door Prizes, Marjorie Turner; Table Candies, Anna Ewell; Punch and Cookies, Hilda Chaddick; Table Prizes, Ada Louise Layman; Tickets, Mary Maguire; Publicity, Marjorie Lyons; and Frances E. Tansley, General Chairman.

SEMINARY OFFERING

We are pleased to report that the offering from this parish for Theological Education reached a total of $830. One half of this amount will be given to the Philadelphia Divinity School. The other half will be divided between the Rector's Seminary (Seabury Seminary at Evanston, Illinois) and the Curate's Seminary (the General Seminary, New York City).

Wednesday, January 25, is Saint Paul's Day

CHOIR PROCESSIONAL

OFFICE FOR THE DEDICATION OF AN ORGAN

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

R. Amen.

Our help is in the Name of the Lord:

R. Who made heaven and earth.

Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in His sanctuary; praise Him in the firmament of His power.

R. Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet: praise Him with the psaltery and harp.

R. Praise Him with the timbrel and dance: praise Him with stringed instruments and organ.

Praise Him upon the loud cymbals: praise Him upon the high sounding cymbals.

R. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord:

R. And to sing praises unto Thy name, O Most High.

The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

A LITANY OF DEDICATION (the congregation kneels)

O God, wellspring of beauty, who dost entrust to mankind the skill to transpose discord into harmony.

We beseech Thee to hear us

O Lord Jesus, who alone canst transform man's clashing anguish and fierce destruction into channels of harmony and rhythms of peace,

We beseech Thee to hear us

O Holy Spirit, who dost impart melody through inspiration of human hands and voices,

We beseech Thee to hear us

Reveal to us the power of sound unseen, the purity of tone untouched, the sensitivity of vibration unimpaired,

We beseech Thee to hear us

Attune our hearts to the voice of this noble instrument, that it may speak of heavenly visions, of goals undistorted, of possessions in perspective, of character enriched, and evil overcome,

We beseech Thee to hear us

That it may lift us above sham and hypocrisy, anxiety and tribulation, to vibrant aliveness and readiness to undertake tasks which seem too great,

We beseech Thee to hear us

That it may weld congregation and choir into unity of worship, transmitting many voices unto one,

We beseech Thee to hear us

That those who play it and those who sing with it may offer their finest as if in Thy presence alone, disregarding the applause of men,

We beseech Thee to hear us

Accept, O Lord, this instrument of music in Thy Holy Temple.

Let joy and gladness bow from it into the hearts of Thy people, summoning them to serve Thee with thanksgiving; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Praise Him in the sound of the trumpets;

Praise Him upon the lute and pipe.

THE PRAYERS OF DEDICATION

O God, Who by Thy servant Moses, didst command that trumpets should be made and blown at the making of sacrifices to Thy Name and Who didst desire the praise of Thy Name to be chanted by the children of Israel with trumpets and cymbals: Bless, we beseech Thee, this Organ, which we dedicate to Thy worship; and grant that Thy faithful ones joyfully praising Thee in spiritual songs here on earth may at length enter into the eternal joys in heaven; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

O God, to Whom the Cherubim and Seraphim adoringly sing, HOLY, HOLY, HOLY: Grant that as our voices are uplifted to Thy praise, so we may continually sing and make melody in our hearts unto Thee, Who livest and reignest, One God, world without end. Amen.

Minister: O Come, let us sing unto the Lord.

Response: Let us make a joyful noise unto the Rock of our salvation.

H. ALEXANDER MATTHEWS

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the Living God.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle;

Yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me and set me up upon a rock of stone.

Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness:

I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.

Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness; make thy way plain before my face.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require; even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; hearken, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God our defender, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

For one day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be always acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

Therefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of music: unto thee will I sing, O thou holy one of Israel.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house; They will be alway praising thee. Alleluia!

Symphonic Chorale "Ach bleib mit deiner Gnade"

SIGFRID KARG-ELERT

"Abide among us, dearest Jesus, with Thy grace . . . word . . . light . . . blessing, protection and faithfulness." This beloved German hymn, with the melody by Melchior Vulpius and poem by Joshua Stegmann, has been given a noble treatment.

London Suite

JOHN STANLEY

This is a collection of short pieces written at the time of Handel, and is characteristic of this period. Four numbers are used at this time.

Toccata Adagio and Fugue in C

J. S. BACH

In the three movement Toccata, Adagio, and Fugue, we have a Bach work unusually rich in contrast. An exuberant Toccata with its many effective pauses, is followed by a quietly reflective Adagio, and this in turn is succeeded by a Fugue in four parts on a gay, dance-like theme.

Chorale in b minor

CESAR FRANCK

Franck's last works were the Three Chorales for Organ composed in 1890 while he was organist at Ste. Clotilde in Paris. The b minor Chorale reveals a richness and majesty of sound.

The Rhythmic Trumpet

SETH BINGHAM

One of America's prominent composers for the organ has written a Suite "Baroque," from which this sprightly work is taken.

La Nativité

JEAN LANGLAIS

Jean Langlais, present organist of Ste. Clotilde, is one of the leaders in the contemporary French organ realm, both as composer and performer.

In Moonlight

RALPH KINDER

For thirty-seven years Mr. Kinder was organist of Holy Trinity, drawing large audiences to his Saturday afternoon recitals. With the help of Mrs. Kinder, this piece was chosen as one of the most popular.

Carillon de Westminster

LOUIS VIERNE

Using this four-note theme with its variants familiar to all, Vierne has given us a brilliant and magnificent work. Louis Vierne, a pupil of Franck's, was organist of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, until his death in 1933.

THE ORGAN

The organ is in truth the grandest, the most daring, the most magnificent of all instruments invented by human genius. It is a whole orchestra in itself. It can express anything in response to a skilled touch. Surely it is, in some sort, a pedestal on which the soul poises for a flight forth into space, essaying on her course to draw picture after picture in an endless series, to paint human life, to cross the Infinite that separates Heaven from Earth! And the longer a dreamer listens to those giant harmonies, the better he realizes that nothing save this hundred-voiced choir on earth can fill all the space between kneeling men and a God hidden by the blinding light of sanctuary. Out of the dim daylight, out of the dim silence broken by the chanting of a choir in response to the thunder of the organ, a veil is woven for God, and the brightness of His attributes shines through it.

—HONORE de BALZAC

ORGAN RECITAL

Wednesday, February 1—8:30 P.M.

CARL WEINRICH

Fantasy in f minor

WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART

Allegro—Andante—Allegro

The Fantasy in f minor, written for a small mechanical organ, is one of Mozart's most beautiful works, unique in the field of organ music.

Variations on "The Woods So Wild"

WILLIAM BYRD

"The Woods So Wild" was written for the virginal, the domestic keyboard instrument of the period, but it sounds equally well on the organ.

Passacaglia and Fugue in c minor

J. S. BACH

The Passacaglia of Bach is a series of twenty variations over an eight-measure theme. This theme is announced in the bass part at the beginning, and is repeated there throughout the variations, except during variations eleven through fifteen, where it is found, somewhat hidden, among the upper parts. The Fugue, based on the first four measures of the Passacaglia theme, comes as a kind of final, or twenty-first, variation, and provides an overwhelming climax to the whole.

Concerto in G Major

J. S. BACH

Allegro—Largo—Allegro

Bach's interest in his contemporaries is shown by the fact that he made a number of organ arrangements, such as the one in G Major, of orchestral concertos by Vivaldi.

First Sonata in e flat minor

PAUL HINDEMITH

I Moderately fast—Lively

II Very slow—Fantasy, free—With quiet motion

A number of leading contemporary composers are writing for the organ. Paul Hindemith's three Sonatas for organ are an important contribution to its literature. These works have much rhythmic and harmonic interest, and, because of their general lightness and clearness of texture, sound very attractive on the organ.

Fantasy in Echo Style

JAN PIETERS SWEELINCK

To the Dutch composer, Sweelinck, belongs much of the credit for the high level of keyboard music written during the seventeenth century. Among his many compositions were several making a charming use of echoes.

Cortege and Litany

MARCEL DUPRE

Marcel Dupre is the best known of the French organists, who has composed extensively for the organ. The chant-like Litany, which follows the Cortege, builds up to a climax, at which point the themes of the two sections are combined.

ORGAN RECITAL

Wednesday, February 8 — 8:30 P.M.

ALEC WYTON

Dithyramb (1959)

ALEC WYTON

The Dithyramb was a Greek choral lyric originating in the song and dance with which, from early times, the Greeks celebrated important occasions.

Concerto No. 13 in F ("The Cuckoo and the Nightingale")

G. F. HANDEL

Larghetto-Allegro

The "Schübler" Chorales:

J. S. BACH

"Sleepers, wake! a voice is calling"

"Whither shall I fly?"

"He who suffers God to guide him"

"My soul doth magnify the Lord"

"Bide with us, Lord Jesus Christ"

"Comest thou now, Jesus, from Heaven to earth beneath?"

These are arrangements by Bach himself from movements in his Church Cantatas. They were published in his lifetime and take their name from the name of the publisher.

Fantasia in C

CESAR FRANCK

One of the most neglected works of Franck, this Fantasia is in three complete sections, all of a restrained nature. The harmonic style is quite diatonic in contrast with most of Franck's music.

Scherzoso (Sonata No. 8 in e minor)

JOSEF RHEINBERGER

Josef Rheinberger (1839-1901) was prolific in his music for the organ. Much of his output is little more than academic but isolated movements, such as this "Beethovenian" Scherzoso, are well worth performance.

Fugue in a flat minor

JOHANNES BRAHMS

This was written when the composer was 24 years old after which he left the organ alone until the 11 Chorale Preludes which were written just before his death.

Prelude on the "Pange Lingua"

ZOLTAN KODALY

The distinguished Hungarian contemporary has written much fine Church Music of which the Prelude to the "Pange Lingua" is complete and represents his only organ work.

"Christ in the Wilderness" (Partita on "Heinlein") (1957)

ALEC WYTON

The theme and four variations correspond to the verses of Hymn 55 in the Episcopal Hymnal.

Allegro Giocoso (Sonata in E flat)

EDWARD BAIRSTOW

Sir Edward Bairstow succeeded Dr. T. Tertius Noble as organist of York Minster when the latter was appointed to St. Thomas', New York in 1913. He died in 1946.

To those persons who know the history of the organs in Holy Trinity Church, the old West Gallery Roosevelt instrument was a landmark. Should time and the elements not have taken their toll, it would have been tonally still superb in design and workmanship.

It has been my pleasure, as part of the Möller Company to have to do with the replacement instrument. It has been a particular concern in that I knew the former instrument over thirty years ago; and such was its character that I well remember its majestic effects.

With a completely new action, some new and some of the old pipes, we have endeavored to produce a comparable instrument—not a replica, for the size and content of the new had to vary somewhat from the old.

In the chancel there is a two manual and pedal organ for the accompaniment of the choir, in tone a miniature of the Gallery organ. The West Gallery organ is based upon the Classic Great, a prototype of the fine European instruments.

The commanding position and the good church acoustics are the fine setting for the many voices singing from the original case work.

TRINITY CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS FOR 1961

Every Sunday night, an average of 125 young adults gather in the Centennial Room for supper, a speaker, Evensong in the church, and a coffee hour. This is Trinity Club. In a year, more than 600 individuals attend one or more of its meetings. Its programs attract people from every part of the Philadelphia area. This Sunday night, at the eight o'clock service, the 1961 officers of Trinity Club will be installed by the club's advisor, Mr. Lee. The Rector will be the preacher. The new officers and board members are: President, Peter Camp; Vice President, Sally Twigg; Secretary, Barbara Weston; Treasurer, Malin Van Antwerp; Coffee Hour, Richard Lawr; and Mary Anderson; Hospitality, Thomas Goings and Jean Harvey; Membership, Baird and Ellen Rhine; Publicity, Hilda Yost and Unada Gliewe; Social, H. Barton; and Grace Troutman; Social Service, Elinor Fisher and Linda Bartlow; Suppers, Read and John Donovan; Members-at-Large, Bert Boursault, Peggy Buterbaugh, Fred Croly, Doris Kirk, and Charles Wernitz.

EVENING AUXILIARY PRE-LENT PARTY, SATURDAY, THE 11TH

Here's a good way to spend a Saturday afternoon among friends. Attend the Evening Auxiliary Annual Card Party and Bake Sale on Saturday, February 11, at two o'clock, in the Parish House. You will not only have a wonderful time; you will be aiding the church's missionary work at the same time. Admission tickets are $1.25. You may buy at the door or, better yet, contact an Evening Auxiliary member now. Here are the names of the people planning the party (consult them for further information): Surprise Packages, Helen Lanzi; Bake Table, Priscilla Kitchel; Card Tables, Petia Bentley; Decorations, Laura Abrams; Door Prizes, Marjorie Turner; Table Cans, Sophia Ewell; Punch and Cookies, Hilda Chaddick; Table Prizes, Ada Louise Layman; etc., Mary Maguire; Publicity, Marjorie Lyons; and Frances E. Tansley, General Chairman. Gifts for the Surprise Packages (worth at least $1.00) can be given to Mrs. Humbert or left at the Parish House. Homemade baked goods (candies, cakes and cookies, etc.) can be left at the Parish House on Saturday morning, February 11, or with Priscilla Kitchel.

TWO CHURCHWOMEN'S GROUPS MEET THIS COMING WEEK

Tuesday evening at six o'clock, the Evening Auxiliary meets for dinner ($1.50) in the Centennial Room with Mr. Frederick Roye, Organist and Choirmaster, Church of the Trinity, speaking on "The Organ and Its Use in the Worship Service" as the after-dinner speaker. The Evening Auxiliary is a group of both business and professional women and others who cannot attend a daytime meeting. Its membership is open to you. You will be made welcome if you come. Phone your dinner reservations before February 3, to the parish office (LO 7-1267).

Thursday, beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15, followed by luncheon at one o'clock in the parish house, the day group of the Churchwomen of the Church of the Trinity hold their monthly meeting. This month's speaker is the Reverend Arnold Die, Executive Director of Episcopal Community Services, who will talk about "Diosan Ministry to the Aging." All are welcome at the women's meeting. Luncheon is $1.00. Reservations should be made by Monday, February 6.

THE COMING WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT 8:30

Each Wednesday evening at 8:30 from now until Easter, there will be special music in the church. This coming Wednesday, the organist from the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine, Alec Wyton, will give a recital. The program for the following Wednesdays includes: Ash Wednesday, February 16, the Choir sings Sowerby's "Forsaken of Man;" February 22, "Requiem" by Gabriel Faure, and Alto Rhapsody (in German) by Brahms; March 1, All Bach Organ Program by Frederick Roye; March 8, Mass in G Minor by Williams; March 15, Bach Cantata Program with Orchestra; and March 22, "The Crucifixion" by John Stainer.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

BRILLIANT was the word for Frederick Roye's dedicatory recital last Sunday night. Possibilities of great music available in the new organ were illustrated in a variety of ways.

LENTEN PROGRAMS will be in the mail soon. There will be Holy Communion each at 12:10 with Evening Prayer and a meditation at 5:30. The Parish Family Nights Thursdays, beginning with Evening Prayer at 5:30, will feature on February 16, the Rector; February 23, March 2, and March 9, Professor D. Campbell Wyckoff, Princeton Theological School; and March 16 and March 23, Henry Thomas Dolan, author of "The New Dimension." If you have not mailed your check for the six evenings, please do so. THE RECTOR speaks this Sunday morning at the weekly YMCA breakfast at 9:30.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES

7:30 A. M.—Holy Communion

11:00 A. M.—Penitential Office and Holy Communion

12:10 Noon—Holy Communion

5:30 P. M.—Evening Prayer, Meditation

8:30 P. M.—The Choir Sings “Forsaken of Man” by Sowerby

The program for Lent is enclosed with this bulletin. Lent, with its daily services, the meditations at Evening Prayer, the Parish Family Night speakers, the special music, time of opportunity. It can give strength to a person's spiritual being. It is up to one of us to make the most of it.

THURSDAY, THE 16TH, FIRST PARISH FAMILY NIGHT

The first of the Lenten Parish Family nights is on the day following Ash Wednesday, Thursday, February 16, beginning with Evening Prayer at 5:30, dinner at 6:15, with a discussion at 7:15. The first night's leader is the Rector. On the next three Thursdays the leader will be Professor D. Campbell Wyckoff. On the last two, Henry Dolan, author of “The Divine Dimension” will be the leader.

Patrons, so to speak, of the Parish Family Nights who have made them possible by giving ten dollars in advance have been sent their tickets. It is still possible to buy tickets for the six evenings at the price of ten dollars, thus saving two dollars. Others may attend by paying two dollars each evening. If you are not a regular, we would appreciate your calling the Parish Office and making a reservation.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17

For seventy-five years, the Friday following Ash Wednesday has been observed by Christian women throughout the world as a particular day of prayer. Its observance brings together in various places women of all churches. The emphasis of the united prayer is on the missionary endeavor of the Churches everywhere.

The center city location for the day's observance is the First Baptist Church, 17th and Sansom Streets, where there will be an all day vigil from nine to five-thirty P. M.
There will be a formal service from 12:30 to 1:30 P. M. at which Mrs. Roy S. Clements and Wyn Mawr will be the leader and speaker.

WHY IS OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL SO SMALL?

Throughout the past ten years here at Holy Trinity, we have maintained a Sunday School every Sunday except during the summer months. But its highest enrollment has never been over thirty-five children. Today, there are only fifteen children on our rolls.

A most interesting commentary on why this is so comes from a recent survey made by the Center City Community Council. In the area from the Delaware to the Schuylkill, from Vine to Lombard Streets, there are approximately fourteen hundred children. Forty percent of these are pre-school children. Thirty-one percent attend public school, slightly more than twelve percent attend private school. Sixteen percent attend parochial schools. The number who are Protestant, Roman Catholic, or Jewish was not given. It is interesting to note, however, that there are more than twenty-five churches or synagogues in this area. Center city is not a place for children and, compared to the total population (600,000), there are not many here.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THIS SATURDAY (February 11) 2:00 P. M., Evening Auxiliary Card Party, Bake Sale, Fish House.

NANCY K. FORD, Holy Trinity member and senior editor of Curtis' “Jack and Jill” is the author of a new children's book published by Lippincott, “Baba Yaga and the Witch.” Publication date is March first. Congratulations, Nancy, on a thrilling and worthy children's story.

A DIOCESAN MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION will take place on Saturday, February 18, at an 8:00 A. M. service at Saint Stephen's Church, Tenth Street between Market and Chestnut Streets, to be followed by a breakfast and a broadcast address by Police Commissioner Brown. Plan to attend one week from this Sunday.

A FAMOUS DISPLAY of oil paintings “The Prophets of the Old Testament” by Jacques
Rosin will be on exhibition in the Centennial Room from February 14 through February Watch for newspaper announcements.

Hymn before the Sermon: 291 ..... "Lord of All Being"

The Sermon: "How the Christian Thinks about God." Preacher, The Rector.
The first in a series of four Lenten Sermons.

The Offertory: The Choir sings the first part of the Cantata "Forsaken of Man" by Sowerby. PROLOGUE: On a cross between two thieves they have nailed a man: The Son of man, and yet forsaken of mankind. For all have failed him and come short of the glory of God. EVANGELIST: And his disciples came unto him, and he taught them saying: JESUS: Ye are the salt of the earth. CHORUS: But they cannot understand the Kingdom of the Spirit. JESUS: I must go unto Jerusalem and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. CHORUS: Be it far from thee, Lord, this shall not be unto thee. JESUS: If any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross, and follow me. EVANGELIST: And as they were going to Capernaum, contention rose among them. CHORUS: Master, decide, who shall be greatest of all among us? EVANGELIST: And he saith unto them. JESUS: If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all. EVANGELIST: And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them. JESUS: Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me.

NEWS AND NOTES

MRS. BASIL VARIAN is our new carillonneur. You will hear her playing the chimes on Sunday mornings and at other times. She is a member of our parish and the wife of one of our choir members.

THE REVEREND JOHN MAGUIRE, formerly a Priest of the Roman Catholic Church, has recently received into the Episcopal Priesthood by Bishop Hart. Mr. Maguire's mother, Mrs. Walter Maguire and his sister, Miss Mary Maguire, are members of Holy Trinity. The Rector has presented Mr. Maguire with a white stole as a gift from the parish.

THE CHURCH NEWS, official newspaper of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, now has a circulation of fifty thousand, the second largest such paper in the Episcopal Church. It is published by the Department of Communications of the Diocese of which your Rector is the chairman.

THE RECTOR is preaching in his old parish in Charleston, West Virginia, this coming Tuesday. It has been his great privilege to return to Saint John's Charleston, every year since coming to Philadelphia in 1951. On Wednesday night, he gives the invocation at the Music Teachers' Convention banquet at the Sheraton. Last Saturday night, he gave the invocation at the Alcoholics Anonymous Anniversary Dinner.

DEAN LUCAS, and the Deans of the General Seminary and Seabury-Western, have written appreciative letters thanking us for the Theological Education offerings sent them. The Philadelphia Divinity School received $425.26 from Holy Trinity and the other two, slightly over two hundred dollars each as a result of the offering last January.

WHAT THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH BELIEVES

1. We believe that Jesus Christ is the Incarnate Son of God, through whom God revealed Himself fully to the world. His teaching, therefore, constitutes the moral principle of living for all times and all people.

2. We believe the Church is the extension in time of the life and work of Jesus Christ. And the Holy Spirit, working through the Church, gives us the power essential for the spiritual enrichment of our lives, and through us, of Society.

3. We believe the Sacraments of the Church are means by which God comes to us for the vitalizing and strengthening of our souls.

4. We believe the Bible is the inspired word of God containing all things necessary for salvation. The teachings of the Episcopal Church are based upon Holy Scripture interpreted by the Church Catholic.

5. We believe the Episcopal Church is part of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, and we subscribe to the Creeds which summarize the Faith once for all delivered to the saints.

6. We believe that an intelligent workable religion based on the authority of God's revelation and the teaching of the Church is essential for everyone.

7. We believe that health is a harmony of body, mind, and spirit; and that, as we must develop our bodies and minds, we must nurture our souls through the regular practice of our religion.

8. We believe that our faith gives to individuals and society a true sense of values and that a proper use of our knowledge and power.

9. We believe that religion, if it is to be of any value to us, must involve a recognition of authority, a disciplining of our lives, and sacrificial effort, all of which are only possible through the grace of God.

10. We believe that it is the inescapable duty of adults, particularly in these days, to identify themselves with the Church and that they are responsible for the Christian education of their children. To fail to meet this obligation is unfair, un-Christian, and unintelligent.

11. We believe that religion should be objective, positive, and joyful.

THE SERVICES OF LENT THIS COMING WEEK

Everyday at 12:10 (noon), the Holy Communion (except Saturday).
Everyday at 5:30 P. M., Evening Prayer and Meditation (except Saturday).
Wednesday at 8:30 P. M., The Mass in G minor—Williams.
Thursday, 5:30 P. M., Parish Family Night with D. Campbell Wyckoff, speaker.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH MEET THIS COMING THURSDAY

Beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15 followed by luncheon at one o'clock, the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity meet this coming Thursday, March 9, in the Parish House. Our own Mr. Edward L. Lee, Jr. will be the speaker on the subject "Prayer and Worship—Apostles' Creed."

All women of the parish are welcome, no special invitation is needed but reservations for lunch ($1.00) must be made by March 6. Telephone the parish office (LO 1267) or mail a card in plenty of time.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS NEXT THURSDAY, NOT TUESDAY

This month only, the Evening Auxiliary is joining its regular meeting with the Parish Family night dinner and so will meet on Thursday evening, March 9, instead of Tuesday. The meeting will follow as usual after Professor Wyckoff's lecture. Members who have not attended the Thursday night dinners regularly should make reservations through the parish office (LO 7-1267).

OUR BROADCAST AND ITS MINISTRY

This is a paragraph from a grateful woman in Northfield, New Jersey, whose mother passed away on November 21: "On November 20, although in a semi-conscious state, she recognized the processional hymn 'The Church's One Foundation.' We can only say that others, devoted Churchmen like Mother, are able to turn it in and get the twice they love so much.

LENT: ITS DEMAND AND DISCIPLINE

The season of Lent is for the Christian a special time of study and learning, serious devotion, attention to the prayer life, of fasting, self-examination, contrition and penitence. One can rightfully ask whether these spiritual demands are not always present for the Christian and the answer must always be in the affirmative. However, man, being the creature he is, can only do so much in any given amount of time. Therefore, it is imperative that while the Christian SHOULD be seriously studying, praying, examining and repenting ALL the time, he better be sure he is doing these things at SOME time. This is one reason for Lent.

This does not mean that Lent should be a once-a-year spiritual catharsis, a seven week devotional binge, an annual expiation of accumulated sinfulness which in no way conditions and changes our lives for the rest of the year. It does mean that for a given period or time God's act of love in and through the Cross is so sharply in focus, and our lives in clear contrast to it, that we can steadily and sensitively be reminded of the fact that God must be FIRST in our lives.

Another thing which Lent, and its demand and discipline reminds us of is the fact that the Christian life is work. Worship has been defined as the OPUS DEI, the work of God, and this is true. It takes time, effort and preparation; it requires thought, prayer and discipline; it demands contrition, repentance and amendment of life. None of these things come naturally, and certainly not to sinful men. Nor are they absorbed in religious settings. They might be desired, but nothing will happen unless we are willing to plunge into the work of God.

Man's salvation and eternal redemption was achieved only through the blood, sweat and tears of His Son, Jesus Christ. It was—and is—a sacrifice which is perfect, and it demanded the Cross and death. As Saint Paul says nothing less than death into our old selves is demanded of us. This is a Christian's work and Lent should certainly remind us of it.

THE SERVICES OF LENT

Everyday at 12:10 (noon), the Holy Communion (except Saturday).
Everyday at 5:30 P. M., Evening Prayer and Meditation (except Saturday).
Wednesday at 8:30 P. M., Bach Cantata Program with orchestra.
Thursday, 5:30 P. M., Parish Family Night with Henry Thomas Dolan, author of "The Divine Dimension" as the speaker.

NOTE: Your particular attention is called to the service of music next Wednesday evening when the choir sings Bach Cantatas 78, 82, and 131 accompanied by a string orchestra from the Curtis Institute.

This will be a truly worthwhile evening and it is hoped that many will realize its worth and take advantage of it.

THE EPISCOPALIAN, NATIONAL MAGAZINE

Episcopalians subscribe to many magazines which have to do with many things—religion, clothes, news, the theatre, the arts, the state of the nation, and almost everything that touches their lives. But how many subscribe to the magazine which has to do with the Church to which they belong. One of the best magazines in any area of religion today is the Episcopalian, brilliantly edited, attractive in format, beautifully printed. The subscription price is three dollars a year. A post card to 281 Park Avenue, New York City, will enter your subscription. They will bill you later. Partnership in the life of your Church beyond the limited area of the parish alone makes the Episcopalian a necessity for you. Why not go and write that card now?

HERE IS A QUOTE FROM THE LATEST ISSUE OF THE EPISCOPALIAN

Who would guess that he is the Bishop of Mexico as Jose Guadalupe Saucedo steps down from an old-style railroad coach and mounts a waiting horse for the trip to the mountains? By Mexican law he is forbidden to wear a clerical collar in public. His youthful appearance and self-effacing manner easily allow him to pass unnoticed in a crowd. But in spite of his appearance, those who greet him know and recognize this man as their leader.

What does the Episcopal Bishop of Mexico do in a typical week? It is a hectic one. In addition to the usual meetings and appointments, there are the unusual demands imposed on the leader of a small minority group in an indifferent or even hostile society. How do we educate our children? How do we safeguard church property? How can we inspire small scattered groups of Episcopalians to fulfill their promised role in this society? These are but a few of the hard questions with which the 60-year-old Bishop Saucedo must contend.

It is in the rural people that the strength and stability of the Mexican Episcopal Church is impressive to the norteamericano who is accustomed to seeing friends and relatives switch from church to church. The degree to which the Mexican Episcopalian is willing to sacrifice for the Church from what little he has is humbling to those who live in a society of over-abundance. With crumbling adobe church buildings, seldom any parish hall, these people show that the Church is people and not buildings. God's people whose lives are bound together by the Holy Spirit through the sacraments and the word of God.

HENRY T. DOLAN, PARISH NIGHT LEADER

On the remaining two parish nights, the leader will be Henry Thomas Dolan, a Philadelphia lawyer, a member of Saint Alban's Church, Newtown Square, whose new book "The Divine Dimension" has just been published. Mr. Dolan believes that the Christian should practice his Christianity in every place in life where he lives. He ought to speak out in terms of his convictions. Mr. Dolan does this himself and his two evenings with us are bound to be stimulating.
Plan to hear him next Thursday at the Parish Night Program.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE RECTOR is preaching at Atlanta the latter part of next week.
LENT is half over. The last three weeks of Lent begin this Sunday. What has the season meant to your spiritual growth and understanding? Your clergy, through sermon, teaching, meditation, and the sacraments are making opportunities available.
They are for you to use. Don't miss the privileges of Lent. Use the opportunities offered during the last three weeks of their fullest extent.

THE FINAL TWO WEEKS OF LENT, PASSIONTIDE

The Passion of Jesus means the suffering of Jesus. Jesus was both God and Man.
a man, He must surely have known simple human frustration and disappointment.
must have thought how little was the impression He made on peoples lives. He st have suffered deep anguish when the people around Him not only seemed unable understand the love He preached but seemed rather to suspect it as treachery against their way of life. As He neared the cross, opposition to Him as well as indifference to Him mounted rapidly. In Man's terms, it was not easy to take. He could assess His mission as a dismal failure.

As God, with divine sensitivity, the heart of Jesus must have been heavy indeed
He saw men refusing His love. And yet, He does not turn away. He must love to the of the Mission. He must endure the ignominy and the Cross. This is His very being.
He is unfailing love and Man must know this beyond all question of a doubt. God must suffer as a man for Man's sake.

During these final two weeks of Lent, as you watch the human Jesus and God in must suffer because of the sins of Man, ask yourself in searching of heart whether you, too, are indifferent to what your life might mean in purpose and usefulness if you were less selfish, less hateful, less of this world and more of God's world. How much, now, is your life contributing today to healing God's heart? Use these two weeks to seek in humility the grace of God that you may more surely be in Him and He in you—Christ's man until you can say "for me to live is Christ." Let the Church and its ministers help you to be the person God has forever intended you to be.

OPPORTUNITIES TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION

Sundays at 8:00 A. M.

Everyday at noon (12:10 P. M.)

Saturday, March 25 (The Annunciation) 7:30, 12:10

OTHER OPPORTUNITIES TO WORSHIP

Sundays at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.

Everyday at 5:30 P. M.

At 8:30 on Wednesday evening this week, the choir will sing one of the great classic Lenten Cantatas, "The Crucifixion" with music written by Sir John Stainer. To hear this work can be a deep spiritual experience.

On Thursday evening, the last Parish Family Night, with Henry Dolan as the speaker and discussion leader. Evening Prayer at 5:30, supper at 6:15, speaker at 7.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING IN APRIL

The final date of the Annual Parish Meeting has not been set. However, in compliance with the articles of incorporation, the Vestry has nominated three men to be elected to the Vestry for the following three years. They are: Charles W. H. Bancroft, Admiral James L. Kauffman and Kenneth A. Syfrit.

FAN MAIL!

Many letters from radio listeners come to the parish office each week and testify the great good which is done through the broadcasting of the eleven o'clock service.
Here is a quote from one which came recently. "I attend my own church regularly every Sunday at 8 A. M. and Wednesday at 7 A. M. But I find the sermons from Holy Trinity most helpful. Moreover, I am one of those people, who, if I attempted to sing in public, would set anyone near me off pitch. But, alone at home, I can sing along with your choir and no one is annoyed. I find that 'fun.' May God continue to bless you in your radio ministry!" Another write, "It affords me pleasure to have this opportunity to express my gratitude for this service; I am no longer able to attend my former church because of advancing years and poor health; but I find your radio service a sufficient compensation—as do others residing here at this home for the aging."

Holy Week

Each morning at 7:30, The Holy Communion

Each noon at 12:10, The Holy Communion

Each day at 5:30, Evening Prayer and Meditation

Each day at the Holy Communion and as the second lesson at Evening Prayer. The Gospel for the day will be read. Thus, the entire story of the Passion as we find it in the New Testament will be read during the week.

Maundy Thursday

7:30 A. M., The Holy Communion

12:10 Noon, The Holy Communion

5:30 P. M., Evening Prayer, Meditation

8:00 P. M., The Lord's Supper

Beginning at sundown on Maundy Thursday and continuing through Good Friday, Christians keep the ancient Jewish "day." It is begun as Jesus began it with the ancient Passover supper as He transformed it into the pledge of the New Covenant. It is continued on next day as we watch beside the cross. It is ended with the service of Evening Prayer on Good Friday as sundown approaches. Begin it, therefore, solemnly at the beginning of the Last Supper with our Lord and continue it in thought and action during the next 24 hours.

Good Friday

12 to 3 o'clock, The Watch by the Cross

5:30 P. M., Evening Prayer

The meditations at the service from 12 to 3 on Good Friday will be most meaningful to those who spend the entire three hours in the church. If you possibly can, be present to do this. It will be a rewarding spiritual experience.

Easter Day

8:00 A. M., The Holy Communion

11:00 A. M., The Holy Communion

8:00 P. M., Evening Prayer

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS TUESDAY, APRIL 4TH

Mr. Ivan Michaelson Czap, Philadelphia Lawyer, Specialist in Byzantine Art and Architecture, Editor of the Russian Orthodox Journal, will speak at the monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary in the Centennial Room, on Tuesday, April 4, at six o'clock. The topic is "Mount Athos, Treasure House of Orthodoxy." The Evening Auxiliary welcomes all business and professional women and all who cannot attend a daytime meeting. Reservations for dinner ($1.50) can be had by phoning the parish office (LO 7-1267) and filling the return card which you receive. All are welcome.

THE EASTER OFFERING

It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our Missionary and parochial budget needs. We are grateful to God that here at Holy Trinity the generosity of its people is enabling this church to carry forward an effective ministry in center-city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in thanksgiving to God for His blessings to us.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, MONDAY, APRIL 17

Every active parishioner should plan to be present at the Annual Parish Meeting and Dinner at 6:30 P. M., in the Centennial Room on Monday, April 17, when vestrymen will be elected, officers of parish organizations will be introduced, and reports presented. Please return your dinner reservations promptly.

The By-Laws of the parish read as follows, "At least one month prior to Easter Monday (or the postponed date) in every year, the Vestry shall by a majority vote choose present at a meeting, nominate candidates to be voted for at the election. Nominal nominations may be made in writing by any three persons entitled to vote at the election, provided such written nominations are delivered to the Secretary of the Vestry at least fifteen days prior to Easter Monday (or the postponed date). The nominations shall be printed in the leaflet and posted at the rear of the Church."

The Vestry has nominated Charles W. H. Bancroft and James L. Kauffman to succeed themselves and also Kenneth A. Syfrit. Other subsequent nominations will be made in next week's Bulletin. Each vestryman's term is for four years and not three as erroneously stated in last week's Bulletin.

CHURCHWOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY MEET THURSDAY, APRIL 13

Beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15 followed by luncheon at one o'clock, women of the Church of the Holy Trinity meet Thursday, April 13, in the parish house. "Into all the World Together" (Interdenominational Theme) is the topic of Edward J. Parnum, President of United Church Women.

All women of the parish are welcome, no special invitation is needed but reservations for lunch ($1.00) must be made by either a telephone call to the parish office (10 7-1267) or returning your card promptly.

WOMEN OF THE CHURCH WILL REMEMBER ELIZABETH ARNETT

The women of the Church of the Holy Trinity are requesting that Mrs. Arnett's name be inscribed in the Diocesan Book of Remembrance. Throughout the many years of her connection with Holy Trinity, Mrs. Arnett was always active in the Foreign and Domestic Missions of the Church. As organizer and president of the Community and Social Service Committee she was interested in the work of the University of Pennsylvania Hospital. The Treasurer of the Book of Remembrance will send the University of Pennsylvania Hospital the money we give as a memorial to Mrs. Arnett. If you would like to join in the memorial will you send your check drawn in the order of "The Treasurer, Book of Remembrance" to Miss Margaret R. Kollock, Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

OUR MAGNIFICENT CHOIR

Tribute is due to the choir of the Church of the Holy Trinity for its reverent and together beautiful leadership in the worship of the parish. Under the direction of Merick Royce, the choir is truly a magnificent organization. Since the first of this the choir has not only sung at fourteen regular services on Sundays, but at teen other services. The choir has presented five programs during the Lenten season. Mr. Royce also directs a young adult choir which sings on Sunday evenings.
The members of the choir are: Sopranos, Marjorie Camp, Lee Ciorletti, Elinor
Camp, Jean Gilmore, Dorothy Kurtz, and Margaret Murr; Altos, Anne Walnut, Sylvia Patricia Kelby, Janet Kirkus, Jane Tyas, and Joyce White; Tenors, Harry Van Allen, John Anderson, William Bain, A. Richard Bird, Eugene Grier, and William Camp; Basses, Rodney Stenborg, Samuel Brick, Howard Brown Christiaan Lievestro, and S. Martin, Philip B. Perkins, Basil Varian, and John West.

THE PAISH ALTAR GUILD

Another parish group which participates in unseen ways to prepare the church worship so that all things may be done decently and in order is the Altar Guild.
The members care for the altar linens, vessels, silver, and other appointments. They polish and iron and cleanse and repair. They see that the vestments of the clergy are pressed and repaired. They care also for the altar and chancel books used in worship, see to it that they are prepared and placed for use. They also care for the chancel books and hymnals in the pews, seeing to it that they are clean and well distributed. They arrange flowers, care for candles, do last minute sweeping and dusting.
They should be proud of this group and grateful for its quiet work which means so much in terms of the cleanliness of the sanctuary and chancel and the adequacy of our worship. It is interesting to realize that in the last three months, they have participated at 130 services of worship. All honor to them. The group is under the direction of Mrs. Marlene Maertens with Miss Emma McClintock as coordinator. Members of the group are: Mrs. Frederick C. Bachman, Ann Becker, Mrs. W. Atlee Burpee, Mrs.
Eugene M. Callis, Miss Miriam Cone, Nellie Ferry, Kathryn Fligg, Mrs. Patricia Gane, Robert McCay Green, Grace Haupt, Nancy Hess, Dr. Margaret Kollock, Elizabeth
Camp, Mrs. Donald S. Leas, Grace D. MacAllister, Mary Maguire, Mrs. B. Mercer Reese, Anne Rueb, Christiane Schneider, Millicent Shell, Grace Troutman, Margaret Camp, Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager, and Marguerite Zulick.

THE LENTEN SEASON

Probably over 200 people of the parish participated with directed regularity in the week-day program of worship during the Lenten season at Holy Trinity. Each day, except Saturdays, an average of 60 people were present at the two daily services.
Over 100 attended each of the six Thursday parish night dinners. On the first five Sundays of Lent, an average of 443 people attended the three Sunday services. The Sunday attendance was 662. On Easter 775 attended church at Holy Trinity.
Over a hundred and seventy-nine received Holy Communion. The prayers and devotion of these worshippers go forth into the life of the community as a leaven to keep of us as a people and a nation close to God, to strengthen greater than our own, righteousness beyond that of any one of us.

Also, during Lent, on Tuesday nights, Mr. Lee led a seminar of picked young adults, all members of this parish, in a survey of what membership in the church for a parish should mean. On Wednesday nights, he conducted a Bible Class for young adults. On Monday nights, the 1904 Club held regular meetings.

THE PARISH MEETING, MONDAY, APRIL 17

Monday, April 17, at 6:30 P. M., the annual parish meeting will be held in the Centennial Room for the purpose of electing vestrymen, hearing reports of parish organizations, greeting the officers of the parish, and transacting such other business that may come before the meeting.

Every parishioner interested in the welfare and mission of this fellowship in Christ ought to plan to attend unless prevented by some conflicting necessity. Please make your reservation with the parish office by return card or telephone.

CHURCHWOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY MEET THURSDAY, APRIL 13

Beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15 followed by luncheon at one o'clock, the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity meet Thursday, April 13, in the parish hall. "Into all the World Together" (interdenominational Theme) is the topic of the evening. Edward J. Parnum, President of the United Church Women.

THE PARISH MEETING IS THIS MONDAY NIGHT

This Monday, April 17, at 6:30 P. M., the Annual Parish Meeting will open with dinner in the Centennial Room. Not too long ago, the annual meeting consisted of a meeting on Easter Monday attended usually by the two wardens and perhaps another vestryman who cast ballots for vestrymen, adjourned, and went home. This is a common practice everywhere. But now in almost every parish, the annual meeting has become an occasion for all the members to meet together, enjoy each other's company at a social gathering, honor those who have been officers and workers in the life of the parish, hear reports and elect vestrymen, and transact whatever business seems necessary. This way, certainly, is an improvement over the former Easter Monday formality. Come to the Parish Meeting Monday evening.

TURN THIS PAGE OVER—LOOK AT THE BACK COVER

On the back cover of the Bulletin, you will find the list of the organizations and the names of the officers of the parish. You should know their names and honor them for their service. Each one of them gives much time and work to the welfare of the parish and the life of the parish as a whole.

For some reason unknown to the writer, the very important members of the parish who usher at church services are not mentioned. Horace Y. Rogers is the Chief usher and his faithful staff members are: Frederick Bachman, Kenneth Baird, Charles McCroft, Admiral Jack F. Bowling, Rodman P. Bright, Neale Bringham, F. J. Chesterton, Donald Danenhowe, Holstein DeHaven Fox, Henry Fuernissen, Austin Gangel, John W. Gilmore, F. R. Goehring, David Greenwood, Samuel D. Hawley, Edwin Humphries, Admiral James L. Kauffman, Dr. Barook J. Masuda, Harry H. Matthews, William Maurer, C. C. Morris, Frank B. Murdoch, Arthur Parkinson, Murray R. Smith, James T. Stewart, Kenneth A. Syfrit, Robert J. Walton, and William M. West.

The young adult officers are not listed due to lack of space and a preference for describing their activities instead of listing names. The names of these officers are listed in their own Trinity Club booklet.

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY IS AN INCORPORATED BODY

It is interesting to read some of the wording in the articles of incorporation of the Church of the Holy Trinity. The Charter begins as follows: "Whereas, the following named persons, citizens of this Commonwealth, viz.: John Bohlen, Thomas Allibone, John D. Taylor, Thomas Balch, John Welsh, Thomas H. Powers, William Gillespie, John Mitchell, William Welsh, Ephraim Clark, Jr., D. B. Taylor, J. Cheston Morris, John L. Montgomery Bond, John M. Hale, Samuel Leonard, R. W. D. Truitt, William Cresson, Joseph Harrison, Jr., Caleb Jones, Asa Whitney, Francis Wharton, Alexander Wry, Lemuel Coffin, have together with other citizens, associated for the purpose of worshipping Almighty God, according to the faith and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America, and have for that purpose formed a congregation in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, and are now desirous to be incorporated, agreeably to the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act to confer on certain Associations of the citizens of this Commonwealth the powers and immunities of Corporations or bodies politic in law." They therefore declare the following to be the objects, articles and conditions of their said Association, agreeably to which they desire to be incorporated."

After this, there followed twelve articles. The one which is of immediate interest at the time of the Annual Meeting is the tenth article. It reads: "The members of the Corporation who shall be qualified to vote at any election for Vestrymen and on all questions which may come before any meeting of the Corporation shall be all lay, confirmed members of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of the age of at least 21 years who shall have been worshippers in this Church as their usual place of public worship for at least three years and who shall appear in the books of the Corporation to have been contributors of record during each of the three successive years immediately preceding such election or meeting or shall be members as shall appear by the Vestry books to have paid two successive years immediately preceding the time of such election, for a pew or sitting in the said Church."

Section 4 of the by-laws reads: "Every member eligible to vote shall be entitled to one vote which may be cast either in person at the meeting or by Proxy submitted in advance of such meeting to the Secretary of the Vestry either by handing the same personally to him or by mailing the same to him in time to reach him prior to the opening of the meeting of members. All votes not cast by such written Proxies submitted in advance of the meeting shall be cast in person by ballot at the meeting. The persons attending the meeting shall by resolution duly adopted by a majority thereof waive the necessity of voting by ballot. Each member having a right to vote in elections may cast the whole number of his votes for one candidate or distribute them between two or more candidates. Upon request of a member, the records of membership shall be produced at any general or special meeting."

PARISH MEETING ELECTS VESTRYMEN

Members of the parish, at the Annual Parish Meeting last Monday night, elected the following men to serve as Vestrymen of the Church of the Holy Trinity for the next four years: Charles W. H. Bancroft, James L. Kauffman and Kenneth A. Syfrit. Reports of the parish groups were distributed and the officers of the various organizations were introduced. Mrs. George Eyre Smith was honored as "The Woman of the Parish." Her unique devotion over many years to the welfare of the parish, especially not only to the activities of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, has been both unique and constant.

CAPETOWN ARCHBISHOP TO BE BOHLEN LECTURER

On Sunday, May 21; Monday, May 22, and Tuesday, May 23, at eight o'clock in the evening here at the Church of the Holy Trinity, the Most Reverend Joost deBlank, Archbishop of Capetown, South Africa, will deliver the Bohlen Lectures for 1961. His general subject is "The Gospel of Reconciliation." The subjects for the three lectures are: Sunday, "The Gospel of Reconciliation in the Church," Monday, "The Gospel of Reconciliation in the World;" Tuesday, "The Gospel of Reconciliation in Our Time."

A more timely choice as lecturer and a more pertinent choice of topic could hardly have been made in the light of both African and world problems. Note the dates and plan to be present. Tell your friends.

DELEGATES ELECTED TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION

The Secretary of the Vestry announces that the present officers on the Vestry—Francis J. Chesterman, William M. West, and Charles W. H. Bancroft have been chosen as delegates to the Diocesan Convention which will meet at Holy Trinity on Monday and Tuesday, May 1 and 2. Alternates are F. R. Goehring and Frank B. Murdoch.

The coming convention promises to be an interesting one with such topics on the agenda as the continuation of the Diocesan Capital Funds Campaign, a new drive to build a hospital for the aging and chronically ill, the Blake proposals for Church unity, and consideration of the largest budget ever to come before the Convention.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE SOUTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION meets at Prince of Peace Chapel on Monday, April 24. The Women's Aid to the South Philadelphia Convocation will meet at three o'clock at the Prince of Peace Parish House. Evening Prayer for everyone is at 5:15 P. M. followed by dinner and the business session. The Right Reverend J. Gilpin Armstrong will be the preacher.

PAMPHLETS of interest to Church people are available in the pamphlet rack at the rear of the church. We suggest that you sample them. Prices are marked on each one. There is much of interest and help in them.

PRINCE OF PEACE CHAPEL, for many, many years a Chapel of the Church of the Holy Trinity in South Philadelphia will apply for independent parish status at the coming Diocesan Convention and a service marking this accomplishment will be held on Sunday, June 4, at 4 P. M. There will be more about this later in the Parish Bulletin.

DON'T COME TO CHURCH ONE HOUR LATE

Like all churches, we have some members of the congregation who on nine Sundays out of ten come to church late. It's a habit with them. Of course, our motto is "better late than never" but even so it is annoying sometimes—annoying to the preacher as well as to the worshipper. But once a year nowadays there are those who come, if at all, an hour late. This happens on the Sunday when daylight saving time begins. On this Sunday, the congregation is usually smaller than usual simply because people have neglected to do one simple thing—set their clocks one hour ahead before they go to bed. If eleven o'clock is your bed time, remember next Saturday night to set the clock ahead at ten o'clock and go to bed. Or, if you must stay up until eleven, then remember that it's twelve o'clock for you. In poetry, very frank, it reads:

"Set your clock ahead, Before you go to bed."

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

Each spring and fall, the women of the Church present their thank offerings at the church's altar. This is not an offering that is "raised." Its whole purpose is defeated if it becomes a solicitation, a one check affair, an obligation. It is a completely voluntary offering given as a token of thankfulness and is accumulated from time to time by individual women who keep a blue box bank handy at home into which coins are dropped at times of thanksgiving. Twice a year, the banks are emptied, envelopes are provided (there are some in the pews this morning) for bringing or sending the offering to church.

The United Thank Offerings of the women of the Church are presented every five years at the Church's General Convention. Amazingly enough, the offering amounts to several million dollars and is used to further the Church's missionary work over the world.

Today, the offerings of the congregation will be received by the women of the church. The custodians for the offering are Mrs. Lever F. Stewart (the day group) and Miss Emma F. Tomlin (the Evening Auxiliary).

DIOCESAN CONVENTION MEETS HERE MONDAY, TUESDAY

The Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania begins its annual meeting at the Church of the Holy Trinity this Monday at 4 P. M. There is a Mass Meeting for the whole Diocese at eight o'clock when both Bishop Hart and Bishop Armstrong will speak. The choir of Saint Luke and the Epiphany will lead the music of the service. The Convention continues in session all day Tuesday. Visitors are always welcome on the balcony. Come in and watch it for awhile.

BOHLEN LECTURES PUBLISHED IN NEW BOOK

The Bohlen Lectures delivered here at Holy Trinity by the Reverend Massey Shepherd, Jr. in 1959 are now available in book form under the title "The Reform of Liturgical Worship." Everywhere in the Church today, both in Roman Catholicism, Protestantism, and in the Anglican Church, there is renewed interest in the "forms" of worship. In the Roman Church, there is a movement to put more of the Mass into the vernacular and to introduce greater participation by the congregation. Methodist, Presbyterian, and other Protestant Churches are building chancels with altars and are thinking about more formal services. Hymn singing is being revived in Roman churches. Dr. Shepherd's book is, therefore, a very timely one. It is written with great simplicity and yet contains abundant and accurate information.

Dr. Shepherd was gracious enough to say in his preface "To the many friends who made my three-day springtime visit to Philadelphia for these lectures so happy an occasion of reunion, I can only say that the memories of their hospitality will always be cherished. My especial gratitude is due to the Bishop of Pennsylvania, the Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, and to the Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, the Reverend Harry S. Longley. They are worthy bearers indeed of a great tradition, both in a diocese and in a parish, that have enriched our common life in Church and nation with uncommon gifts of leadership.

SERVICE FOR NURSING THIS SUNDAY EVENING

One of the most inspiring services of the year takes place this Sunday evening when nurses from most of the Philadelphia hospitals attend Evening Prayer at Holy Trinity. You are invited to attend. The speaker will be Fred B. Rogers, M.D., Professor of Preventive Medicine, Temple University School of Medicine.

WOMEN OF THE CHURCH TO VISIT DIOCESAN CATHEDRAL

The annual meeting of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be on Thursday, May 11, Ascension Day, at the Diocesan Cathedral, 8630 Ridge Avenue, Roxborough. A chartered bus will leave the church at eleven o'clock (fare $1.00). There will be a luncheon ($1.25) at the Cathedral. There will be a guided tour of the Cathedral and grounds after lunch followed by a short business meeting, election of officers, and an evaluation of the past year's programs. The bus will then bring all who attend back to the church at Nineteenth and Walnut Streets. It should be a very interesting and rewarding day. All women of the congregation and their friends are welcome, so make your reservations early (call LO 7-1267).

RECTOR WILL ENTERTAIN ALTAR GUILD TUESDAY EVENING

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Mrs. Marlene Maertens, Sacristan and Director, will be entertained by the Rector at dinner in the Parish House on this coming Tuesday, May 9, at 6:30 P. M. Plans for the summer and the coming year will be made. Mr. Jerry Kemper will show some interesting pictures of his recent travels in Central America.

The members of the Altar Guild are: Mrs. Frederick C. Bachman, Ann Becker, Mrs. W. Atlee Burpee, Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Miriam Cone, Nellie Ferry, Kathryn Hagg, Mrs. Patricia Gane, Mrs. Robert McCay Green, Grace Haupt, Nancy Hess, Dr. Margaret Kollock, Elizabeth Laws, Mrs. Donald S. Leas, Grace D. ## BILLY GRAHAM CRUSADE HERE IN AUGUST

Billy Graham, the Evangelist, will hold a month long "Crusade For Christ" in Philadelphia from August 20 to September 17. There are opportunities for members of the Church of the Holy Trinity to assist in this series of meetings as ushers and counsellors and choir members. The best way to volunteer is to go directly to the Greater Philadelphia Crusade headquarters at 1503 Walnut Street.

Reserved seats at both Convention Hall and the Philadelphia Stadium (Sunday meetings) may also be reserved by parish groups and individuals by writing to 1503 Walnut Street.

EXTRA SERVICE ON ASCENSION DAY

For the benefit of the women who are going on the Cathedral excursion next Thursday, there will be an extra service of Holy Communion at 10:30 A. M. on Ascension Day. There will also be the usual services at 7:30 and 12:15 noon.

Ascension Day is established in the Prayer Book as one of the great festivals of the Christian year. It marks the end of our Lord's earthly ministry and falls into place with the events of Christmas and Easter in our Lord's life. It is marked in the Prayer Book by a special preface before the Sanctus. The day celebrates the everlasting kingliness of Jesus and His work as an intercessor for us in eternity. It is a day of devotion and praise with thanksgiving in the name of Jesus, the Christ.

EVER ATTEND A SUMMER CONFERENCE?

Some, but not many, of our Holy Trinity people have attended a "summer church conference." It is a refreshing and revealing experience. The nearest conference to us is known as the Hood Conference and takes place this year at Hood College, Frederick, Maryland, from June 11 to June 17. A program of the conference is posted in the church porch. It gives information about where to write to enroll. We suggest that you give it some thought.

I have been asked by the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity to announce publicly my resignation as Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Last January, I wrote the Rector's Warden stating that I intended to present my resignation publicly on Sunday, September 10, this year, at the completion of my tenth year as Rector—the resignation to take effect on January 1, 1962. My purpose in writing to the Rector's Warden thus early in this year was to suggest the possibility of his beginning quietly and discreetly at this time, with the help of one or two other vestrymen, to look for my successor so that if possible there should be no lapse of time between Rectorships lest this should work to the detriment of the parish. Thus I had hoped to have no public knowledge of my intention to resign until next fall. It did not, however, work out that way and it has been generally known that I have resigned. In the meantime, at the request of the Rector's Warden, I have sent to him a formal letter of resignation as of January 1. I have been asked to relinquish my duties earlier than this date if a successor is secured. This is quite satisfactory to me.

I am resigning because, after deep thought and concern, I am convinced that my usefulness here is over, that the parish needs new and vigorous leadership, and that it now procures this it can go forward to an ever-increasing witness in our Lord's name. There is a time when such a change should happen—a floodtide so to speak. I am convinced that for Holy Trinity that time is now.

—Harry Longley

SOUTH AFRICA ARCHBISHOP HERE MAY 21, 22, 23

The Most Reverend Joost deBlank, Archbishop of Capetown, South Africa, is this year's Bohlen lecturer and will be at the Church of the Holy Trinity one week from this Sunday night on Sunday, May 21 at eight in the evening to begin a series of lectures with the general title “The Gospel of Reconciliation.” On Sunday night, May 21, he speaks on “The Gospel of Reconciliation in the Church;” Monday night, “The Gospel of Reconciliation in the World;” Tuesday, “The Gospel of Reconciliation in our Time.”

Archbishop deBlank, together with Bishop Reeves, of Johannesburg, is South Africa's great foe of apartheid, the South African Government's policy of segregation. Recently, this government separated itself from the British Commonwealth of Nations because of its segregationist policies. Bishop Reeves has been exiled from South Africa. It has been said that it is only a question of time before Archbishop deBlank may suffer the same fate. His topic for the Bohlen Lectures is both significant and pertinent in relation to the whole African question at the present time.

GIFTS TO THE PARISH HOUSE

Mrs. Howard A. Foster, a member of our congregation, has recently given some very lovely articles of furniture for use in the Parish House. They include a table, a chair, a buffet, and another smaller encyclopedia table. They are now installed in the rooms of the first floor. Thank you, Mrs. Foster.

The floors of the parish house are to be recovered with linoleum and work on this is expected to start very soon.

VISITS TO SICK AND SHUT-INS

Some of our ladies in the parish have been visiting sick and shut-in people recently. It means much to many of our own Holy Trinity people who are in such places as Inglis Home, All Saints Hospital, and in their own homes when others of the parish drop in to assure them that they are in our thoughts and prayers. A list of such people is available in the parish office.

NEWS AND COMMENTS

CHURCHWOMEN will present the United Thank Offerings of the parishes at a Diocesan Service in the Chapel of Valley Forge Military Academy this coming Tuesday, May 16 at 10:30 A. M. Holy Trinity's Spring Ingathering Offering now totals $29.00.

LAST SUNDAY'S SERVICE for Nurses was a stirring occasion with 250 uniformed nurses in procession. Our own choir sang the canticles after the lessons and the nurses' choir from Bryn Mawr Hospital also sang three numbers during the offertory. The speaker was Fred B. Rogers, M.D., Professor of Preventive Medicine, Temple University.

8:00 P. M., Second Bohlen Lecture
Tuesday: 7:30 A. M., Holy Communion
8:00 P. M., Third Bohlen Lecture

ARCHBISHOP OF CAPETOWN, BOHLEN LECTURER

This Sunday night, at eight o'clock, the first 1961 Bohlen Lecture will be delivered by the Most Reverend Joost deBlank, Archbishop of Capetown, South Africa. He will also speak at eight o'clock on Monday and Tuesday evenings. His general topic is "The Gospel of Reconciliation." This Sunday night, the Archbishop speaks on "The Gospel of Reconciliation in the Church;" Monday night, the Gospel of Reconciliation in the World;" and Tuesday night "The Gospel of Reconciliation in Our Time."

Archbishop deBlank has been a leading figure in the opposition to the South Africa Government's policy of "Apartheid" which recently caused the separation of South Africa from the British Commonwealth of Nations. In relation to the place of Africa in world affairs, the Archbishop's lectures will be of tremendous significance.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST

Together with Easter, Pentecost has been a great day in the Church's life from the very beginning of the Church's existence. In the Book of Acts, Chapter 20, Verse 16, we see Saint Paul's anxiety to keep the Feast of Pentecost at Jerusalem. Pentecost marks the anniversary of the coming of the Holy Spirit to the infant Church ten days after our Lord's Ascension. For this reason, it is sometimes called "The birthday of the Church." At least, it was on the first Pentecost that the group of Christians realized their entity as the continuing Body of Christ. We keep the day in recognition of the third person of the Trinity, God, the Holy Spirit.

The popular term "Whitsunday" is often applied to this day. It apparently derives from the fact that it was a time in particular for Baptisms and the candidates wore white robes when they came to receive the sacrament.

There will be additional celebrations of the Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. on Monday and Tuesday in Whitsun week.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE EPISCOPALIAN — LO 8-2600

It is hoped that many in the parish will call LO 8-2600 this Monday and enter their subscription to the Episcopalian, the National Church Magazine. Be sure to designate your parish. If there are 24 or more subscribers from Holy Trinity, the yearly price is $2.50. Otherwise, it is three dollars. Remember—the Diocesan Church News is now mailed to all members of the parish at no extra cost. Supplement this local paper by subscribing to the national one.

Remember the number LO 8-2600. All you have to do is call. You will be mailed later.

TWO PARISHIONERS WHO RECENTLY DIED

Two faithful church attendants at Holy Trinity for many years passed from this life last week. Mrs. Nancy Ford died last Tuesday. She was the editor of the Curtis publication for children, "Jack and Jill." Only recently, her latest book was published. It was called "Baba Yaga and the Prince."

On Friday, Doctor Joseph Seiberling, for over fifty years a member of Holy Trinity, passed from this life. He was a resident of Haddonfield and for many years used to ride the Delaware River ferry from New Jersey to Philadelphia and walk from the river to Holy Trinity. He had his usual place in the south aisle of the church. He was a beloved physician and maintained his office and practice until his last illness.

May they forever grow in love and service.

MURALIST DIES

Hildreth Meiere who did the chancel murals some fifteen years ago, died in New York two weeks ago. The New York papers referred to her work in many places in the world including the National Cathedral in Washington and several European churches.

A PRAYER

O Lord Jesus Christ, who biddest thy Church to bring all men to thyself and to make all mankind one family in thee, make clear to each one of us his part in the task. Fire our minds with a vision of a more perfect society here on earth in which justice and right, peace and brotherhood shall reign according to thy will; and help us, each one, O Lord, to do our part, that thy will may be done on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

TRINITY SUNDAY

In the year 1260, a Church council at Arles in France formally dedicated the Octave of Pentecost as a day dedicated to the Holy Trinity. In England, however, the day had been so celebrated for at least two hundred years before this date and the remaining Sundays were noted as Sundays after Trinity. However, in the west of the western Church, now the Roman Church, the Sundays were noted as Sundays after Pentecost. The Anglican Communion still retains the former use. In the eastern Orthodox Church, this Sunday is called "The Feast of All the Martyrs" and, of course, does not always occur on the same Sunday in the calendar year due to the difference in the date of Easter.

The Collect for the day is even older than the formal observances and dates from the seventh century. The Gospel for the day also dates from earliest times and with its sentence about "being born of the spirit" is a reflection of the time when the day was noted only as the Octave of Pentecost.

TRINITY CLUB AND 1904 CLUB BEGIN SUMMER PROGRAMS

Starting this weekend, Holy Trinity's two weekly adult groups, Trinity Club for young adults (19-39) and the 1904 Club (all ages), will begin their summer programs of weekly and weekend social activities.

After church on Sundays, Trinity Club has scheduled a variety of enjoyable events for its members—picnics, horseback riding, swimming, summer theatre party—all geared to sustain the fellowship of the Club throughout the summer months. Also included on the schedule are three weekend excursions. The first is in June at Holy Trinity's own Holiday House in Sellersville. The other two are in July and August at Avalon, N. J. This Sunday, May 28, the Club gets things going with a picnic at Valley Forge Park. Those who want to go should be at the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street by 2 P. M. A schedule of all of these events is posted in the porch of the church, and free copies are also available there.

The 1904 Club will soon launch its summer program of events similar to those of Trinity Club. This schedule will also be posted in the porch.

This past week, both clubs concluded their regular weekly programs for the year. Both groups enjoyed very successful years. Trinity Club reached some six hundred young adults, the majority of which are active contributors to the fellowship of that group. And the 1904 Club has been growing in strength of numbers and vitality. Recently, close to sixty people have been attending the Monday meetings, a splendid average for a group which is only concluding its second full year. Holy Trinity should be proud of its unique ministry to the adult community of Philadelphia.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE ACOLYTES, cross and flagbearers, who serve so faithfully deserve our heartfelt thanks. They are Peter Camp, Paul Combs, Thomas Goings, Robert Heitz, Gilbert Parker, Robert Snyder, Earl Thomas, Peter Thoran, and Joseph Wickes.

THIS WEEK is a quiet one in the life of the parish with no scheduled parish meetings. Trinity Club and 1904 Club have ended their regular weekly meetings. Deaconess Anonymous continues their Wednesday and Saturday sessions. There is the usual Thursday noon service of Holy Communion at 12:15.

LAST SUNDAY night five hundred people were present to hear the Archbishop of Capetown deliver the first of the Bohlen Lecturers. Among those in the congregation was Katherine Bohlen, granddaughter of John Bohlen, the founder of the lectureship.

JUNE FOURTH (see next week's Parish Bulletin) will mark the separation of Prince of Peace Chapel from Holy Trinity, its mother parish. There will be special services at four P. M. at Prince of Peace Church, 22nd and Morris Streets, when the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hand over the keys and deeds of the property to the new parish. Holy Trinity people are particularly invited to attend.

THE RECTOR will spend Thursday, June 1, at the Radnor Conference Center attending a meeting of the heads of departments of the Diocese.

THE NEW RUG, a very beautiful addition to the parish house furnishings is the gift of Mrs. Howard A. Foster. She is also the donor of the new pieces of furniture mentioned in last week's Bulletin. We are grateful.

SPEAKING OF SPECIAL OCCASIONS, it is interesting to note that in addition to the regular Sunday evening service of Evensong there have been several other noteworthy occasions on Sunday evenings during this past year. The visit of the Moravian Choir when seven hundred were present; the Service for Nurses with five hundred in attendance. The usual Sunday night attendance averages one hundred. On this coming June 25, the State Convention of the Order of the Eastern Star will hold its opening service on Sunday evening at Holy Trinity.

The member of the Altar Guild for June is Mrs. Marlene Maertens and Thursday, Mrs. Porter Hurd.

Everybody knows that Fritz Kreisler was a great violinist. Too few people know that Kreisler gave away all the proceeds from his concerts except what he needed for very modest subsistence. His reason was that God had given him his musical talent, and no gift of God should be hoarded or turned to selfish profit. The gifts of God are given to us only to be shared with others. He had freely received; therefore, he would freely give. We may not have the kind of gift which was Kreisler's, but who among us is so poor and ill-endowed that he has nothing to share with others? A beggar once accosted Tolstoi and asked alms. Tolstoi searched his pockets and answered: "I'm sorry, my brother, I have nothing to give you." The beggar's face was bright as he replied, "Ah! but you called me Brother. That is a great gift."

INVITATION TO A WEDDING

Our Curate, the Reverend Edward Lee has asked the Editor of the Parish Bulletin to say that all the people of the parish are invited to be present when he and Miss Kathryn Fligg are married here at the Church of the Holy Trinity at 10:30 A. M. on Saturday, June 17. All are invited also to the reception in the Centennial Room after the service.

PRINCE OF PEACE BECOMES A PARISH

This Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, the Church of the Holy Trinity will turn over the keys and property of the Prince of Peace Chapel to the new Prince of Peace Vestry at a service at Prince of Peace Church, 22nd and Morris Streets. The Chapel became a parish by action of the Diocesan Convention on May 2 and Sunday will complete the new step.

Charles W. H. Bancroft, Secretary of the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity, writes as follows about Prince of Peace Chapel: "The first service of the mission was held in a small rented house at the southeast corner of twenty-third and Tasker Streets, on November 12, 1893. The Rector of the Parish, the Reverend William N. McVickar, D.D., was present. The mission was then called the Mission of Saint Faith. In a few weeks the mission was transferred to a larger house at the northwest corner of Point Breeze Avenue and Fernon Street.

The present lot on Morris Street, between twenty-second Street and Point Breeze Avenue was purchased in June 1895. The parish building was occupied the first Sunday in November 1896.

All four buildings had to be further enlarged. The addition was completed and the new parish house opened April 25, 1901.

Ground was broken for the Chapel on March 7, 1906. The cornerstone was laid June 30 of the same year by the Reverend Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D., the Rector of the Parish.

The first service in the new Chapel was on Wednesday evening, March 20, 1907, when the Right Reverend Alexander Mackay-Smith, D.D., confirmed a large class.

The Chapel was consecrated by the Right Reverend William Neilson McVickar, D.D., December 29, 1907.

THE RECTOR SHARES A CONFIDENCE

The Rector hopes he is not being presumptuous in sharing with the congregation something of his satisfaction and thanksgiving because on last Sunday he completed thirty-eight years during which he has never had to miss because of illness or otherwise a single Sunday service where he was expected to be in the line of duty. Actually, on duty or on vacation, he has never missed a Sunday worshipping with other Christians on Sunday during the thirty-eight years. Sometimes, the services were on shipboard, once in a French Protestant Church in Tours, once in a Norwegian Lutheran Church at Balestrand, once in a Roman Catholic Church in Pisa, more than once in a Boy Scout Camp—but never a miss. He thanks God for the health which has made this possible. He knows that without the privilege of regular worship, his life would have been poor indeed.

MERRILL A. KERCHER

Merrill A. Kercher passed from this life on Wednesday, May twenty-fourth. News of his unexpected death came as a shock to all who knew him. Until his retirement early this year, he had been a member of the Pennsylvania Bell Telephone Company, a Vestryman of the Church of the Holy Trinity, and a participant in many community good works. As a Vestryman, his particular responsibility was the Holiday House at Sellersville and the present good condition of the house and grounds is a tribute to his care. We are grateful, too, for his constant interest in the affairs of the parish. With his wife, the former Julia Leighton, he had gone in January to live on his farm near Goshen, Indiana. His son, James, is a member of Holy Trinity. He is now in the larger area of life. Here he will go from strength to strength. Here the Master will say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

HOLY TRINITY'S ADULT CLUBS BEGIN NEW SEASONS

Both of Holy Trinity's adult groups, Trinity Club for young adults (19-39) and the 1904 Club for men and women of all ages begin their respective new seasons this coming week:

TRINITY CLUB

Trinity Club starts off its eleventh year this Sunday with its usual program of dinner at 5:45 P. M. in the Centennial Room followed by the 1961-62 Keynote speaker. At eight o'clock there is Evensong in the church and this is followed by a coffee hour back in the Centennial Room. This year's Keynote is Philadelphia's police commissioner, Albert N. Brown. He will talk on the problems of law enforcement in this city. An interesting fact is that Commissioner Brown is an active Episcopal layman and his parish is All Saints', Rhawnhurst. The Reverend Edward B. Pollanick, founder of Trinity Club, is his rector.

Trinity Club program booklets, which describes the life and activities of the Club and which list the weekly speakers for the coming season, are available on the porch of the church. Take and give out as many as you want.

THE 1904 CLUB

The 1904 Club begins its third season on Monday evening, September 18. The starting time for the evening's program of a speaker followed by a social hour is 7:30 P. M. in the Centennial Room. To find out who the speakers will be for the coming year and when the regular Monday night dinners will begin, check the Club bulletin board in the porch of the church.

Both of these adult groups are a part of Holy Trinity's outreach into this urban community. They have brought Christian fellowship to literally thousands of men and women and they deserve your support, your prayers and your steady interest to tell others about them.

PRAY FOR THE CHURCH'S GENERAL CONVENTION

The Triennial General Convention of the Episcopal Church begins its meetings in Detroit with a great mass meeting in Detroit's huge Cobo Hall and will continue in session for twelve days through September 29. It will vote on the Church's Budget for the next three years, on whether to enter into discussions looking toward unity as suggested by Dr. Blake of the Presbyterian Church, on whether to decrease the present size of the convention (195 Bishops and 670 clerical and lay deputies), and whether to meet every one or two years instead of once every three years. An interesting feature of the convention will be the probable vote to complete full communion with the two million members of the Philippine Independent Church as well as two other small churches in Spain and Portugal all of whom have left the Roman Catholic Church. Approval of the new North India Church called The Church of Lanka will come before the convention. This is a body organized similarly to the South India Church. In many ways, the matter of unity in many aspects will be the chief topic before the convention. It is probable that a statement about the nature of "The Church" may well come out of the meeting. Pray for the convention that it may have the wisdom of God and understanding beyond its own. A prayer for conventions of the Church is found in the Prayer Book on page thirty-six.

FIRST SERVICE WITH THE NEW RECTOR TO BE ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 22

The Reverend Doctor Cuthbert Pratt will take the services on Sunday, October 22 for the first time. Doctor Pratt was born in Banbury, England on May 1, 1916. He is a graduate of Lafayette College and the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Massachusetts. He holds a D.D. degree from Seabury-Western Seminary and an S.T.D. from Hobart College. He was deacon-in-charge of Saint John's, Laurence, Massachusetts, for two years, curate at Saint Ann's, Brooklyn, New York, for two years, rector of Saint John's, Fall River, Massachusetts, for three years, and was curate and rector of Saint Chrysostom's Chicago, for thirteen years. He has been rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, New York City, for the past three years.

FIVE-THIRTY P. M. HOLY COMMUNION—EVE OF ALL SAINTS DAY

One of the most meaningful of all the days within the Christian year is All Saints Day. An opportunity to remember that we are all 'called to be saints' and that the fulfillment of this calling is a matter of great importance. The day has also become an opportunity wherein we recollect those nearest and dearest to us who have departed this life. We make especially real our affirmation that we believe in the 'communion of the saints.' To this end and in the hope that it will be of help to many of our people, and especially those who go to business or who live within the Inner City, there will be at five-thirty (p.m.) on Tuesday, October 31 (the eve of All Saint's Day) a service of the Holy Communion. This service is in addition to those at seven-thirty a.m. and twelve-fifteen (noon) on November 1, Wednesday.—C.P.

DON'T FORGET THE BAZAAR! This is held by the Women of the Church on Thursday, November 2 from eleven a.m. to four p.m. There will also be a Card Party with door prizes starting at one p.m. The Barclay ballroom, where this event is being held, will be a gay and busy place. Your donations of homemade cakes, candy and cookies will be gratefully received and should be delivered to the Barclay marked "Holy Trinity Bazaar" by eleven a.m. on November 2. Other donations may be brought to the parish house prior to the day of the bazaar. There is no admission charge to the Bazaar. However, if you are planning to attend the Card Party, a ticket must be purchased. COME and SUPPORT this worthy event.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING—At the eleven o'clock service this Sunday, the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will present the fall ingathering of their United Thank Offering. For the taking of the offering today, women will replace the usual ushers. The United Thank Offering is not a "collection" but an accumulation of small offerings continually made, dropped into a "blue box" or bank, by a thankful person. If you are a member of the Evening Auxiliary, please mark your envelope accordingly. The Diocesan Ingathering will be held on Wednesday, November 29, at eight o'clock in the Church of the Holy Trinity. There will be a dinner preceding the service in the Centennial Room at 6:30. Tickets at $1.50 may be procured through the Women's Office at the Church House (LO 7-6650). The speaker for this service will be Bishop Malcolm Peabody, formerly Bishop of Central New York.

THIS IS THE SUNDAY which will be affected by the change from daylight saving time to standard time.

Saturday, November 11 (Armistice Day), the Service of Holy Communion at 11 o'clock

THE EVENING AUXILIARY meets Tuesday, November 7 at six o'clock in the Centennial Room. Dinner will be followed by the speaker, Doctor Alfred W. Price, Rector of Saint Stephen's Church. His subject is "Christian Healing." The Evening Auxiliary is open to all business and professional women and others who cannot attend a day time meeting. No special invitation is necessary. If you come as a newcomer or a visitor, you can be assured of a warm welcome. The cost of the dinner is one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50). A reservation can be made by calling the parish office, LO 7-1267.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY meet on Thursday, November 9, opening with the service of Holy Communion in the church at 12:15 noon, followed by luncheon at one o'clock in the parish house. All women of the parish are welcome. No special invitation is necessary. There will be a film shown at this meeting entitled "The Life of Albert Schweitzer" which depicts the Christian work being done in Africa by this noble man. To Christian people especially, Africa is a vital and challenging area.

Please make reservations for lunch ($1.00) early. It is important that they reach the parish office by Monday, November 6, to allow time for adequate preparation. Telephone LO 7-1267 or mail a card in plenty of time.

THIS SUNDAY MORNING at the 8 a.m. service of the Holy Communion, there will be a Corporate Communion for the members of the Altar Guild. Breakfast follows immediately afterward in the Parish House.

WHY were the saints, saints? Because they were cheerful when it was difficult to be cheerful, patient when it was difficult to be patient; and because they pushed on when they wanted to stand still, and kept silent when they wanted to talk, and were agreeable when they wanted to be disagreeable. That was all. It was quite simple and always will be. (from a source unknown) C. P.

ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON of this week, at 4:30 P. M. in the church, three of Mr. Roye's students from the Philadelphia Conservatory will play in an informal recital. The congregation is cordially invited to attend.

THE REVEREND CANON ERNEST W. SOUTHCOTT of Halton Parish, Leeds, England, a dynamic, inspiring Christian leader, author of "The Parish Comes Alive" and outstanding Anglican speaker, will be at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Thursday, November 16, 1961, at 8 p.m. This will be the opening observance of Laymen's Week sponsored by the Department of Laymen's Work of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. All the laity—men and women—are invited.

ON SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 19, at New Delhi, India, about one thousand Christian leaders, lay and clergy, men and women, young and old, from all continents, will gather for the opening worship service of the third assembly of the World Council of Churches. This service will take place in a huge tent or "shamiana" built for the occasion.

The 175 member churches—Protestant, Anglican, and Eastern Orthodox—have sent their delegates to the capital of India to seek together the way to Christian unity. Despite their differences of dress, language, and culture, they share one thing—a common loyalty to the Lord Jesus Christ. Unity, witness, and service are the concerns of the assembly. Much prayer is needed. Therefore, the Presiding Bishop, the Right Reverend Arthur Lichtenberger, asks that Sunday, November 12, be observed throughout our Church as a day of prayer for the peace of the world.

A PRAYER FOR THE THIRD ASSEMBLY OF THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES—Eternal God, the Father from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, who art gathering out of every nation one people in Christ, we remember before Thee those from many lands and races who this day meet at the Assembly of the World Council of Churches in New Delhi. As now they meet with one accord in one place may the grace and power of Thy Holy Spirit be with them. May He who is the true light be the light of their worship and their decisions, to the end that in their witness and service and unity Thy people may glorify Thy name in the whole world. We remember before Thee all the churches represented at New Delhi, our own communion and our partners in obedience. As we are drawn together in prayer for those who represent us there, so may we be drawn by Christ into greater unity with one another, and by His grace become more faithful witnesses to that light which is for the healing of the nations and the redemption of the world.

With Thy holy Church throughout the world, and with the whole company of Thy saints, we offer Thee the worship and service of this congregation. Keep us constant in the fellowship of Thy family, and faithful in our calling as ambassadors of Christ, until all the ends of the earth shall see Thy salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with Thee and with the Holy Spirit be all glory and praise, now and for ever. AMEN.

Members Partnership

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their Church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed; because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge, others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time. May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in, or ill, or prevented by conditions of work, and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

THANK YOU!

The Bazaar Committee wishes to extend a very hearty thank you to all those who by their interest, active help and donations contributed to the success of the 1961 Bazaar. A financial report of the proceeds will be available at a later date. Again, many thanks!

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL CHAPLAINCY SERVICE

The 1961 Thanksgiving Offering for Episcopal Hospital will be devoted to the Chaplaincy Service. Bishop Hart has stated that the Chaplain and his assistant are maintaining a sacramental and pastoral ministry to church people in Episcopal Hospital, as well as reaching out in a broad pastoral ministry to all others in His Name. The Chaplain is the Reverend Jerry E. Carpenter and his assistant is the Reverend Robert C. S. Deacon, both clergymen of this Diocese.

DIOCESAN UNITED THANK OFFERING SERVICE—WEDNESDAY, NOV. 29

The Fall Presentation Service of the United Thank Offering of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held in the Church of the Holy Trinity on Wednesday, November 29, at 8 P. M. The Right Reverend Malcolm E. Peabody, D.D., former Bishop of the Diocese of Central New York and former Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, will be the guest speaker.

Bishop Peabody is a member of the Overseas Mission Society. He has a deep interest in missionary work having spent two years on the Philippine Islands at the Baguio School for American Boys. His last three years of the ten he has served with the National Council have been as chairman of the Overseas Department.

A volunteer choir, under the direction of Mrs. Vernon Matthews, will sing at the service. If anyone would like to join the choir, please notify Mrs. John L. Fox at the Church House.

QUIET MORNING FOR ALL THE WOMEN OF THE DIOCESE — FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1

There will be an Advent Quiet Morning for the Women of the Diocese on Friday, December 1, from 10:30 A. M. to 12:30 P. M., at Trinity Memorial Church, 22nd and Spruce Streets. The theme of this Advent Meditation will be "He Came; He Comes; He Is Coming."

The meditations will be lead by Mrs. Dora P. Chaplain, S.T.D., Associate Professor of Pastoral Theology at the General Theological Seminary in New York. Dr. Chaplain was born and educated in England where she became prominent in the field of Christian Education. After World War II, she came to America where she became the Associate Secretary in the National Council's Department of Leadership Training. She has been a lecturer at the College of Preachers at the Washington Cathedral. Dr. Chaplain's life of prayer and meditation and her own bright devotion to God enable her to bring all those who go to hear her nearer to Him also. Do plan to attend.

THE ADVENT CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR MEN AND BOYS will be held on Sunday, December 3 at 8 a.m. More than half a million men and boys will gather at altars in Episcopal churches all over the country on this occasion. Please consider this your invitation to join with your fellow-churchmen throughout the world in this act of corporate worship as the new Christian Year begins. There will be a breakfast following the service.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES preparing for the Bishop's visitation of February 25 will begin on Sunday afternoon, December 3, at 2:30 in the church. All who plan to be confirmed are asked to attend this class. Anyone, confirmed or not, may attend as an inquirer or for the purpose of reviewing their knowledge of the Church. All are welcome.

EVENING AUXILIARY MEETS THIS TUESDAY, 6 p.m.: All business and professional women and all other women who cannot attend a daytime meeting are potential members of the Evening Auxiliary of the Church of the Holy Trinity and are urged to attend the monthly dinners and meetings every first Tuesday at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room.

The program at this coming week's meeting includes Mr. John Halco of the National Council of Churches in Philadelphia whose topic is "Relocation of Churches in the Metropolitan Area with Emphasis on the Episcopal Church." Reservations for the dinner ($1.50) must be made by Friday, December 1. No reservations can be accepted after that date.

CANVASS ANALYSIS—NOVEMBER 27, 1961: On this date, the total amount pledged by the people of the Church of the Holy Trinity totals $50,201.55. Last year, the final total was $54,031.65. We still have time to equal, if not surpass, last year's figure. If there are those who have not yet sent in their pledges, we urge you to do so. We need the support of every member that our work may go forward. There will be complete and final figures in a later bulletin.

All honor to the canvass team workers, the captains, and the chairman, Horace Rogers, for doing such a great piece of work. All thanks to the people of Holy Trinity who stand behind their Church.

ON SUNDAY NIGHT, DECEMBER 10 at 8 p.m., there will be a presentation in the Church of the Holy Trinity of The Messiah by Handel. This performance will cover the three parts of the work, rather than just the Advent and Christmas portions, which means we will hear of the coming and the birth of Christ, the crucifixion and the glorious ascension, concluding with the inspiring "Worthy is the Lamb" and the "Amen." In this performance, we are using the orchestration which was designated by Handel rather than the more popular orchestration made later by Mozart, to make the work a much more pompous sound, but actually, this is not basically characteristic of the work. Handel scored it for strings, timpani and trumpets. As in the pattern of the Concerto Grosso, Handel left the voice of the soloist supported only by solo violin, cello, and harpsichord, giving it that intimacy of chamber music. For this performance we have members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, with David Madison, solo violin and Lorne Monroe, solo cellist and Temple Painter at the harpsichord. The orchestra, soloists, Vivian Wagner, soprano; Anne Walnut, alto; William Ingle, tenor; Rodney Stenborg, baritone; and our excellent choir, will be conducted by Frederick Royce.

PRAYER CARDS WILL BE AVAILABLE at the close of the service. Those who are interested should see Miss Margaret Holloway at the north door.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY meet on Thursday, December 14, opening with the service of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service, followed by luncheon at one o'clock in the parish house. All women of the parish are welcome. PLEASE MAKE A RESERVATION FOR LUNCH BY MONDAY, DECEMBER 11, either by returning your card or calling the parish office (LO 7-1267).

A very interesting and informative report on the General Convention and Triennial Meeting held at Detroit in September will be given by Mrs. James G. Ludwig, III, Diocesan Speaker.

TO ACQUAINT YOU WITH THE SAINT FRANCIS BOYS' HOMES (Episcopal) at Ellsworth and Salina, Kansas—These homes were founded by the Right Reverend Robert H. Mize, Jr., presently the Bishop of Damaraland, Province of South Africa. Through Christian fellowship and love, miracles of rehabilitation are accomplished for boys who once were lost and includes boys on probation or parole, boys from all parts of the nation, and boys of all races and of all creeds.

At Saint Francis there is a veteran staff working over-time to increase a sense of "familyness" in the lives of these boys who come to them hostile and bewildered. Each boy has the opportunity to live a new life, to belong to a Christian family. Careful guidance and discipline, good public schools with normal teen-age relationships, Church and community activities have replaced old, unsavory environments and shabby yesterdays. Even Uncle Sam is now placing boys on Federal parole in their care. This is the Saint Francis story.

The directors of these homes are looking ahead: foster homes are now found for the boys who have learned to benefit from family life away from Saint Francis, which necessitates another staff worker; at Ellsworth a new chapel, new staff quarters and residence hall additions will be built as friends provide.

The Director of these homes is the Reverend William E. Craig, Ph.D. He is asking all of us to look ahead, too. There is a great need to carry on this work. The shared work brings real gratification to those actively engaged in it. It can bring real gratification to those who help with their gifts. God has led the boy offenders to Saint Francis and He expects all of us to help in their restoration.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY invites not only its own members, but everyone to come to its gift wrapping party on Thursday, December 14, at 7 P. M. in the Centennial Room. This year, packages will be wrapped for the people at the Harrison Home of the Episcopal Hospital. This is a home for chronically ill men and women. The Auxiliary will provide them with useful articles—toothpaste, soap, and other needs.

Come and join the auxiliary for an evening of Christian fellowship. After the gifts are wrapped, there will be refreshments and carol singing.

TWO QUIET DAYS IN DECEMBER: There will be an Advent Quiet Day for Women on Tuesday, December 12, from 8:30 A. M. to 3:15 P. M., at Saint Margaret's House. The Reverend Edward L. Lee, Jr., will conduct the day. A Saturday Quiet Day for Women, in preparation for Christmas, will be on December 16 from 4:30 to 9 P. M. The Reverend Richard J. Herschel will conduct this group. Registrations may be made with the Sister in charge at VI 4-4612.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE RECTOR'S CONFIRMATION CLASS will be held in the Rector's study on Saturday, December 9 at 10:30 A. M.

CHURCH PARKING at the garage (1813 Walnut Street) may be had for 25 cents.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21, SAINT THOMAS' DAY

Holy Communion: 7:30, 12:15

$56,279.85 IS THE TOTAL amount pledged for the work of the Church of the Holy Trinity in 1962. Many thanks to all of you for this indication of your loyalty to your Church.

THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE announce the net profit realized on the 1961 Bazaar—$1,500.00. Again, many thanks for the cooperation and help that made this project a success.

COPIES OF THE BOOKLET printed in observance of the 350th anniversary of the King James Version of the Holy Bible concerning which the Rector spoke last Sunday may be obtained—as long as the supply lasts—by writing for them to the Parish Office; or should it be convenient stop in and ask for one.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20: Altar Guild Dinner Meeting at 6 p.m. After dinner the women of the Guild will work together in the Church.

CHURCH DECORATING FOR CHRISTMAS need not be a chore. As a matter of fact it is not going to be. What is needed is not just a goodly supply of strong hands and backs—but rather those who enjoy to the full the beauty of simplicity; who might like to sing some of the famous carols as the work is done and who would enjoy coffee and doughnuts; with fellowship thereafter. Remember the date and time—FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 7 p.m.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM IN RITTENHOUSE SQUARE, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20: This program will begin at ten minutes before five when our own organist, Frederick Royce, plays the chimes of the Church of the Holy Trinity. At 5:15 p.m. the 55-voice choir of the Fidelity-Philadelphia Bank will lead the carol singing; and Mayor Richardson Dilworth will light the tree. Plan to attend this program.

IN ADDITION TO THE WORK which is being done in Salina, Kansas, under the auspices of the Church—The Saint Francis Home for Boys—it may be that many who read the Bulletin are not aware of the wonderful service which is being given by Dr. Paul Rusch at KEEP (the Kiyosato Educational Experimentation Project) in Japan. This dedicated layman of our Church, who has given more than a quarter of a century of his life to the people of Japan, has at Kiyosato, combined the witness of the Protestant Episcopal Church, with that of the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew, the 4 H program and the "New England Town Meeting." This amazing combination has worked most effectively. Under his able direction, the Christian witness has moved forward on all fronts.

Within the membership of the Church of the Holy Trinity are those who are in need. Possessed of limited resources they live—in my judgment—truly heroic lives on slender means. It is our privilege and our joy to do whatever our people make it possible for us to do at this Christmas Season—and also at other times in the course of the year. These are not additional appeals for money. They are designed to be presentations of opportunity to which a financial response is a possibility!
—C. P.

 Give ear unto the Word of the Lord, His Word is grace and redemption. Proclaim abroad His salvation, even unto the uttermost corners of the earth. And let the isles be glad, though they be very far away, and say to all the world: Thy Saviour and Redeemer draweth nigh unto thee. For there shall come a star out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel. Behold, I have prepared a lamp, a lamp for mine Anointed, his throne forever shall flourish, but upon his enemies will I pour out confusion. Upon Him shall rest my benediction; I will sanctify and will bless him. Remember, Lord, David, thy servant, and the sure mercies of Thy covenant with him. O be joyful, ye heavens, and let the earth resound with gladness; Ye angelic hosts that serve the Lord, cherubim and seraphim, bow down and adore him. Upon this blessed morn our Lord Himself hath made manifest, come ye people, join the glad exultant chorus, sing praise to the Son. SUNDAY, JANUARY 7 AT 3 P. M. in the Church, we will have the privilege of listening to the Hand Bell Ringers of Saint Hilda's and Saint Hugh's School, New York City. Their special selections will be "Bell Carol," English; "Ecce Novum Gaudium," Latin Hymn; "In Dulci Jubilo," 14th Century Melody; "Lo How a Rose e'er Blooming," Praetorius; "Cradle Song of the Infant Jesus," French Melody; "A Christmas Hymn," 17th Century; "Bell Song," English Melody; "Never Was a Child So Lovely," John Jacob Niles; "Vesper Hymn," Russian; "O Come Little Children," German Carol; "The Holy Child," Basque Melody; "Ukrainian Carol of the Bells," Mykola Leontovich; "Saw You Never in the Twilight," Epiphany Hymn. Plan to attend this excellent presentation.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY meet this coming Thursday, January 11, beginning with Holy Communion at 12:15 followed by luncheon at one o'clock in the Parish House. The Rector, the Reverend Doctor Cuthbert Pratt, will be the speaker. The title of Doctor Pratt's discussion will be "Whither Women?" All women of the parish are welcome, no special invitation is needed but reservations for lunch ($1.00) must be made by January 8. Telephone the parish office (LO 7-1267), or mail your card in plenty of time.

THE RECTOR'S CONFIRMATION CLASS: Saturday, January 13, 10:30 A. M. in the second floor study of the Parish House.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 13 AT 4 P. M. there will be an Organ Recital by Frederick Royce, and selections by John West, bass, graduate student of Curtis Institute.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24 is somewhat distant, but your attention is called to the Annual Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion and Breakfast sponsored by the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew of our Diocese. The guest speaker will be the Right Reverend Henry I. Louttit, Bishop of the Diocese of South Florida. Keep the date in mind and you will be receiving more timely information concerning this Christian fellowship endeavor for men and boys.

MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION AND BREAKFAST ON JANUARY 14; the service of Holy Communion will be at 8 A. M. followed by breakfast in the Centennial Room. A most interesting speaker has been secured—The Reverend Canon Francis W. Tyndall, Canon Missioner of the Diocese of Chicago who is going to talk about the Spanish Reformed Episcopal Church explaining the difficulties facing the Spanish Church. Slides illustrating Spanish life and the Spanish cities will follow.

The Offertory Anthem: "The Three Kings"
"Who knocks so late?" the weary porter said. Three kings stood at the gate, each with a crown on head. The serving man bowed down; the inn was full, he knew. Said he, 'In all this town is no fit place for you.' A light the manger lit. There stood the mother meek. Said they, 'This place is fit; here is the rest we seek.' They loosed their latchstrings so stood they all unshod. Come in, come in ye kings, and kiss the feet of God."
—Poem by Laurence Housman.

Please complete and return to the Rector.

PROTESTANT CHURCHES across the nation have launched a drive to collect a million pounds of blankets for refugees and disaster victims in twenty-five countries. The drive is being conducted by Church World Service, relief arm of the National Council of Churches.

The special collection date is January 22. Why not look in the recesses of all your closets or at the very bottom of a chest, box or similar container and maybe you will find a blanket that has been stored away but is of no use to you. Blankets may be brought to the parish house.

THE RECTOR'S CONFIRMATION CLASS: Saturday, January 20, 10:30 a.m. in the second floor study of the Parish House.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 20 AT 4 P. M. there will be an Organ Recital by Frederick Royce, augmented by Patricia Kelby, mezzo soprano, from the Academy of Vocal Arts. Plan to attend this fine program.

SINCERE APPRECIATION is expressed to those Ladies of the Parish who were so helpful in preparing the collation served to the members of the Saint Hilda's and Saint Hugh's School Hand Bell Choir and to the members of the congregation who came with them. Generous service—highly valued!

COMING EVENTS: Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m. on January 27 another Organ Recital by Frederick Royce with a string quartette from Curtis Institute and a brass ensemble from the Philadelphia Conservatory.
Sunday, January 28, Theological Education Sunday. The preacher at Holy Trinity will be the Very Reverend Edward G. Harris, D.D., Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School.

The Bohlen Lectures—February 12, 13 and 14 (Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday) with the Right Reverend Stephen F. Bayne, ST.D., Jr., as the lecturer. Bishop Bayne is the former American Bishop of Olympia and now serves as an executive officer of the Anglican Communion in Africa and Asia, Pakistan and Simmangang.

Saturday, February 24, Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion and Breakfast, Brotherhood of Saint Andrew.

THURSDAY, THE 25TH, CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL

Holy Communion, 7:30 and 12:15 (noon)

SUNDAY MORNINGS AT 9:30 A. M.: Please note the series of five presentations to be given by Doctor Pratt on "Some Important Chapters in the History and Development of the Ecumenical Movement," the first one being on the 21st. Even if you have not sent in your registration, do COME at 9:30 to the Centennial Room.

THE RECTOR'S CONFIRMATION CLASS: Saturday, January 27, 10:30 a.m. in the second floor study of the Parish House.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 27 AT 4 P. M. will be the final Organ Recital in this series by Frederick Roye. A String Quartet from Curtis Institute and a Brass Ensemble from the Philadelphia Conservatory will augment Mr. Roye's program.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 28, has been set aside as Day to Aid Theological Education. The Church of the Holy Trinity is fortunate to have as the preacher, the Very Reverend Edward G. Harris, D.D., Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Mr. Harris was made Dean of the School last July. He is a native of Boston, a graduate of the Boston Latin School and received his B.A. degree from Harvard University in 1938; his B.D. from the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass. in 1941, and his S.T.M. from the Union Theological Seminary, New York, in 1942. He spent an additional year doing graduate study work with Paul Tillich, Reinhold Niebuhr and Pitt Van Dusen. He was an assistant at the Church of the Ascension, New York, rector of Saint Mark's, Southborough, Mass., Chaplain and Boardman Lecturer in Christian Ethics at the University of Pennsylvania. Dean Harris has said that he is impressed with the tremendous opportunity which is now at hand for the school in terms of raising the academic standards, improving the calibre of the spiritual life and the relating of the seminary to the community, and that his goal at the Divinity School is to achieve topnotch excellence in all areas of the seminary life.

Theological Education Sunday has become a cooperative venture embracing all thirteen seminaries of the Episcopal Church and is set forth officially each year by the Presiding Bishop. What is a seminary? It is a graduate school to which men come after they have received their college degree or its equivalent to receive intensive training in the difficult art of being a priest in the Church. All of our seminaries are operating under pressures of financial need and it is, therefore, important that the lay people of the Church realize this need. One outstanding factor to remember is that the Church cannot go forward without trained leaders.

"THE CASE OF HUMANITY VERSUS PONTIUS PILATE"—This play will be presented by the Parish Players of the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli, Pa., on Sunday, January 21 at 4 p.m. at the Church of the Saviour, 38th at Ludlow Street and 3723 Chestnut. The idea of the play is humanity's trying Pilate for his crime against Christianity in his ordering the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. The setting is a modern courtroom and the costume is modern dress. This play depends upon audience participation and cooperation. When you attend a performance, you will be given a number. You may be called as a jury member. After the trial, which the presentation actually is, the jury will retire to deliberate before rendering a verdict. The verdict will no doubt vary in the several presentations of the play. But do come and see!

WOMEN'S AID, CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA: The mid-year meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 30 at 1:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the women's building of the Church House. It begins with a prayer service followed by the business meeting and a tour of the women's building and Church House. The hostesses, the women of the Church of Saint Luke and the Epiphany, will serve refreshments after the tour.

THE ELIZABETH PRICE MARTIN LEAGUE FOR SERVICE, EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL UNIT No. 2 will hold a Card Party and Tea on Monday, FEBRUARY 5, 1962, at 1:30 at the Hotel Barclay, Rittenhouse Square. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Lewis C. Dick, 128 Haws Lane, Philadelphia 18, Pa.

RADIO STATION WIP advises us that they have been having technical difficulties on their FM transmitter lines. If you have been unable to make FM contact with the service at Holy Trinity at eleven o'clock on Sunday mornings, that is the reason. They are making repairs and hope to have service restored soon.

The Service of Holy Communion, 7:30, 12:15 (noon)

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY: In welcoming the Very Reverend Edward G. Harris, D.D., to our Parish this morning, the Church of the Holy Trinity intends further to indicate the concern which we have long had for the cause of Theological Education. As the annual appeal is made for the maintenance and furtherance of this work, we recall the interest which prompted the establishment of the Chair which bears our name at the Philadelphia Divinity School and the splendid relations which have long bound us together. Today some eighteen Theological Schools and Seminaries serve the Church: Berkeley Divinity School, New Haven, Conn.; Bexley Hall, Gambier, Ohio; Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, California; The Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Philadelphia; Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass.; The Episcopal Theological Seminary in Kentucky, Lexington; The Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest, Austin, Texas; The General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, New York City; Nashotah House, Nashotah, Wisconsin; The Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary in Virginia, Alexandria; School of Theology of the Diocese of Long Island, Garden City, New York; School of Theology of the University of the South, Seawane, Tenn.; Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, Evanston, Illinois; (Overseas) Cuttington College and Divinity School, Liberia, West Africa; Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Caribbean, Puerto Rico; Saint Andrew's Theological Seminary, Philippines; Theological Seminary, Haiti; and Theological Seminary Brazil, and it is to them we look for the training of our Clergy. Since this is the case, they all ought to receive the interest and support of our people. Our particular obligations in this Diocese are to the Philadelphia Divinity School—and within this Parish to the Schools in which the Clergy of the Parish were trained. The offering will be divided therefore between Philadelphia Divinity School, the General Theological Seminary in New York City, of which Mr. Lee is a graduate, and the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts and the Seabury-Western Theological Seminary in Evanston, Illinois, from which institutions the Rector holds degrees.

Respond as you are able. A vital ministry is essential to the Church.—C. P.

"QUESTION 7"—A MOVIE TO BE SEEN! "Question 7" heralded by many as the best movie of 1961, is a full-length, dramatically acted, feature film about Christian people living under Communism in East Germany. It especially dramatizes the conflict between the Christian conscience and a totalitarian state. It is all true. It is based on thousands of interviews with refugees who have recently fled that terror and with many who still live beneath it. The movie provides a more than vicarious opportunity to know life under Communism. "Question 7" will have its Philadelphia premier during the week of February 7 to 13 at four local theatres: Ardmore, Orpheum, Logan, 69th Street. Discount coupons entitling individuals to reduced price admission are available. See the clergy or phone the parish office.

THE RIGHT REVEREND STEPHEN F. BAYNE, JR., S.T.D. will be the Bohlen Lecturer at the Church of the Holy Trinity on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings, February 12, 13 and 14, at 8 p.m. Bishop Bayne is presently an Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion in Africa and Asia and many other places where Christ is and where He is waiting.

The general topic for the Bohlen Lectures "The Missionary Imperatives" is therefore both significant and pertinent in relationship to the work that Bishop Bayne is doing. On Monday, the title of the lecture will be "Apostolate and Obedience;" on Tuesday, "The Theology of the Follower;" and on Wednesday, "Responsible Brotherhood."

Mark these important dates on your calendar so that you will be free to attend!

CONFIRMATION CLASS: Saturday morning at 10:30 in the second floor study.
LENTEN THURSDAY EVENING DINNER MEETINGS: Information concerning these Thursday evening Parish dinner meetings will be sent out very soon. In the meantime, set aside Thursday evenings March 15, 22, 29 and April 5 and 12. These are the dates!

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, the Evening Auxiliary will meet for dinner at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room, followed by a speaker and the business meeting. The Reverend James F. McElroy, Superintendent of the Seamen's Institute, will be the speaker whose subject is "What the Seaman Faces in an Atomic Age." All women of the Parish are welcome.

BOHLEN LECTURES—at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, February 12, 13 and 14, at 8 p.m. The general topic is "The Missionary Imperative." The lecturer, the Right Reverend Stephen F. Bayne, Jr., S.T.D., has sub-divided this topic into three parts: "Apostolate and Obedience," "The Theology of the Follower," and "Responsible Brotherhood." Plan to come and bring your friends. There is no admission charge and no reserved seats.

"A HUNDRED YEARS IN HIS HOUSE" is the title of the book written by Miss Marguerite Aspinwall and decorated by Admiral Jack F. Bowling (both parishioners of Holy Trinity) for the Centennial of the Church in 1957. New-comers to the fellowship of the parish, and others, might wish to purchase a copy of this book containing historical facts of the Church of the Holy Trinity from 1857 to 1957. The cost is one dollar.

PLEASE NOTE: There will be no presentation of the study of the Ecumenical Movement on February 4. The next class will be held at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, February 11 in the Rector's Study, 2nd floor.

"RESPECTFULLY WISHING YOU PROGRESS IN THE NEW YEAR AND GREAT BLESSINGS FROM HEAVEN." This is a new year greeting from the Chinese Christian Church and Center located at 225 North Tenth Street, Philadelphia. The Chinese New Year falls on February 5 this year and to commemorate this, the Board of Directors and the Church Council of the Chinese Christian Church and Center invite us to come and share in worship and fellowship at an Interdenominational Worship Service and Chinese New Year Tea. Two similar services will be held on two consecutive Sunday afternoons: February 4 and February 11. The time is three o'clock and both will be followed by a Chinese New Year Tea, with art exhibit by Miss Carolyn Moy. There will also be a speaker at each meeting and special music.

EVENING AUXILIARY CARD PARTY AND BAKE SALE: The date for this annual affair given by the evening group of the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity is set for Saturday, March 3 at 2 p.m. in the Parish House. If you have articles for the surprise packages that you might wish to donate and bring to the Parish House, Millicent Shell will be most grateful. Miriam Cone, Chairman of the Food Table, suggests that donations of cakes, candies, cookies, jellies, salted nuts should be delivered the day of the Card Party to the Parish House. Clella Whitman is the Chairman of the Ticket Committee and would appreciate it if you will notify her how many tickets you desire so that arrangements can be made for a sufficient number of card tables. Her address is 714 Walnut Street. The donation is $1.25 per ticket. Plan to attend this party and bring your friends. Salome Riegner is the Chairman of this event.

This is the opportunity for you to contribute your fellowship and support for the continued work of the Parish.

COMING EVENTS TO REMEMBER: Confirmation Service at the Church of the Holy Trinity on Sunday February 25 at the 11 o'clock Service.

Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion Breakfast sponsored by the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew for all men and boys of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The Right Reverend Henry I. Louttit, Bishop of South Florida, speaker. (18 host Churches).

THE OPPORTUNITY to respond to the Theological Education Offering continues and gifts may be sent to the Rector.

Saturday, February 24, Saint Matthias

Holy Communion, 12:15 Noon

CONFIRMATION CLASS: Regular meeting will be held on the 24th at 10:30 a.m. The make-up class will be on Sunday the 18th from 2:30 until 4 p.m. with the period from four until five p.m. available for conferences and individual questions.

NEXT SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25 the Right Reverend Andrew Y. Y. Tsu, D.D., Ph.D., retired Bishop of the Anglican Church in China, and now Guest Bishop in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will visit the Church of the Holy Trinity at the 11 a.m. Service to administer the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation and to preach the sermon. In 1940 Bishop Tsu organized the new Diocese of West China through which ran the Burma Road. When the Communists over-ran mainland China in 1948, Bishop Tsu was listed among the first Christian leaders to be denounced as "enemies of the people."

THE EPISCOPAL SERIES: Sunday, February 18. "Father and Creator" is the title of the Reverend John Stott's Episcopal Series sermon to be broadcast on February 18. This is the second of ten sermons on The Apostles' Creed. Recognized as a strong preacher, the Reverend John Stott has led preaching missions in the United States, Canada, Australia and South Africa as well as in his native England. The Episcopal Series is produced, promoted and distributed annually by the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation. All program expenses are met from contributions to the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation. Free copies of Episcopal Series sermons are available from the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation or from the radio station. Titled "Sing My Soul" portion of Episcopal Series music by the Washington Cathedral Choir is available on RCA long playing records in stereo at $4.48 and monaural Hi-Fi at $3.48 postpaid from the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation, 2744 Peachtree Road, Atlanta 5, Georgia. Tune in WFIL at 9 a.m.

SATURDAY, MARCH 3 AT 2:00 P. M.: Have you marked this date off on your calendar? This is the day that the Evening Auxiliary of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hold the Annual Card Party and Bake Sale in the Parish House. Contributions of prizes or food will be most appreciated. Miss Millicent Shell, KI 6-4036, is the Chairman of the Surprise Packages; Miss Miriam Cone, LO 7-2627, is the Chairman of the Food Table. There will also be a table containing hand-made items. If you desire tickets, please contact Miss Clella Whitman, WA 2-7381. It is hoped that YOU will come and bring your friends to spend an enjoyable afternoon. Thus, you will be contributing your support and encouragement to this endeavor of the Evening Auxiliary. Miss Salome Riegner is the General Chairman.

DEDICATION AND OPENING OF KEARSLEY HOUSE OF CHRIST CHURCH HOSPITAL (The new infirmary wing) will be held on the afternoon of Tuesday, February 20 at 3:30 o'clock. Dedication by The Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, and Address by Dr. Edward L. Bortz—"The Grandeur of Age." All are invited. Tea will be served. The address is 49th Street and Monument Avenue.

MANY REPLIES have been received this past week to the card sent out to all announcing the Parish Family Night Lenten program on Thursdays, March 15, 22, 29 and April 5 and 12. If you have not signed your card, please do so as soon as possible so that proper arrangements may be made. This program is presented so that during Lent we may gather together as a Parish family and fellowship to worship, to learn and to ask.

The speakers for these Thursday programs are as follows: March 15: Professor Frederick C. Grant—Honorary Canon of the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine—The Influence of Biblical Translation in Relation to the Scope and Development of the Ecumenical Movement; March 22: The Reverend Alfred Vail, Administrative Assistant to the Bishop, Diocese of Pennsylvania—The Role of the Administrative Office in the Diocesan Picture; March 29: The Reverend James W. Kennedy, D.D., Rector, Church of the Ascension, New York—Secretary to the Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations—Meeting in New Delhi; April 5: The Right Reverend J. Brooke Mosley, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of the Delaware—Report on the New Delhi Conference and his visitation to Pope John XXIII; April 12: The Right Reverend J. Stuart Wetmore, D.D., Suffragan Bishop of New York—The Issues Confronting the Urban Church in the Matter of Christian Education.

Retired Bishop of the Anglican Church in China.
The Offertory Anthem: "Let this Mind be in You" Beate

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God. But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. And being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefor God hath highly exalted Him, and given Him a name which is above every name. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

A LENTEN SEMINAR ON PROBLEMS OF CHRISTIAN LIVING: Lent is a time for serious thought and self-examination. It is an opportunity for study and discipline. It is an occasion for personal re-evaluation and re-direction. For some people these are best accomplished outside the daily routines of life. But too often the realities of these daily routines conflict with the most sincere intentions, often resulting in a sense of futility in the practice of Christian living. We ask this question: Can the problems and demands of daily life be the very means of Christian living? If so, how? This will be the focus of a Young Adult Lenten Seminar which will seek to examine and explore a Christian approach to the problems of adult living. Using chapters from the book Christian Living, by Stephen F. Bayne, this Seminar, which will meet on seven Wednesday evenings beginning Ash Wednesday, will deal with the following specific problems: March 7, Human Choice and Christian Freedom; March 14, Personal Religious Life: Prayer; March 21, Personal Religious Life: Fasting and Almsgiving; March 28, Sex and Marriage; April 4, Money and Stewardship; April 11, Work and Its Problems; and April 18, Death and Easter. In addition to the Seminar, it is hoped that this time can also be an opportunity for worship and fellowship, both of which can be important parts of a person's Lenten discipline. Thus, all of those who can gather for worship at 5:30 p.m., Holy Communion, and supper at 6:15 in the Parish House (1st floor), are encouraged to do so. Perhaps some can only make the Seminar at 7:45 p.m. in the Parish House (2nd floor). This is understandable and fine with us.

Reservation: mail or give to the Reverend Edward L. Lee, Jr.

7:00 p.m. — Address and Discussion

THE REVEREND ALFRED VAIL, Administrative Assistant to the Bishop, Diocese of Pennsylvania, will be the speaker at the Thursday evening Lenten program. He will talk about the role of the Administrative Office in the Diocesan Picture.

If you have not signed up for these dinners, you may come to the dinner.
If you desire to do this, please call the Parish Office a couple of days before Thursday for a reservation (LO 7-1267). A single reservation will cost two dollars.

In the event you are unable to attend the dinner, it is possible to come and hear the speaker at seven o'clock. The dinners and programs are held in the Centennial Room.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY will be held on Monday, April 23rd. More details of this event will be given later but in the meantime do mark off the date on your calendar and plan to attend YOUR parish meeting.

The By-Laws of the parish read as follows, “At least one month prior to Easter Monday in every year, the Vestry shall by a majority vote of those present at a meeting, nominate candidates to be voted for at the election. Additional nominations may be made in writing by any three persons entitled to vote at the election, provided such written nominations are delivered to the Secretary of the Vestry at least fifteen days prior to Easter Monday. The Nominations shall be printed in the leaflet and posted at the rear of the Church.”

The Vestry has nominated Frank B. Murdoch, Horace Y. Rogers and William M. West, present incumbents, to succeed themselves. Other subsequent nominations will be noted in a later bulletin. Each vestryman's term is for four years.

QUIET DAY-EVENING AT ST. MARGARET'S: The Reverend George W. Davison, Rector of the Church of the Advocate, will conduct a Lenten Quiet Day for Women at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Ave., on Tuesday, April 3, beginning with Holy Communion at 8:30 a.m. and closing at 3:15 p.m. Also at St. Margaret's House will be a Saturday Quiet Evening for Women on April 7, from 4:30 to 9:00 p.m. The Reverend Walter E. Frieman, Th.D., vicar of St. Ambrose's Mission, will conduct the service.
Registrations for either of these services may be made with the sister-in-charge at VI 4-4612.

THE REVEREND JAMES W. KENNEDY, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Ascension, New York City, Secretary to the Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations, will address the group on Thursday evening. He will present some of his findings of the meeting in New Delhi.
If you have not indicated your desire to attend the entire series on Thursday evenings and wish to make a reservation for any one of these meetings, please call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) a couple of days before Thursday for a reservation ($2.00).

ENCLOSED with your mailed copy of the Parish Bulletin this morning you will find an attractive digest of the latest biography of Bishop Brooks—"Focus on Infinity"—it seems proper to send this to you during the 100th anniversary year of his having become Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square.

MR. ARTHUR H. PEACOCK—our 'Missionary by Adoption'—is a gentleman well known to me. A native of Canada he was a valued member of my Parish in Chicago from which he went, via the Overseas Department, to his present duties in Brazil. He has for sometime now been the missionary treasurer of the three dioceses there. A fully qualified C.P.A.
he serves the Church as a layman and has the distinction of being a Canadian national serving with the American Church in the country of Brazil. Since his address is published after his name in this bulletin, it would be of help were you to write him a word of welcome as an "adopted son".—C.P.

(On Wednesday, April 4, the Rector will be speaking at the 12:30 noon and 8 p.m. services at the Arch Street Methodist Church, Broad at Arch Streets — this is their Centennial Year.)

The Right Reverend J. Brooke Mosley, D D , S T D , Bishop of the Diocese of Delaware will be the fourth guest speaker in the Lenten Series. He will speak of his visit to Pope John XXIII and of the World Council of Churches Meeting in New Delhi, India last year. This address will be given on Thursday evening following the Parish Family Dinner.

If you desire to attend the Thursday night dinner and have not previously done so, please call the Parish Office to make a reservation a couple of days before Thursday ($2.00 for single reservation). The address by Bishop Mosley will begin at approximately 7:00 p.m. and all are welcome to come and hear him.

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 3 — THE EVENING BRANCH OF THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, will meet for dinner at 6:00 p.m. in the Centennial Room. The Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will speak on the topic
"To Whom Are We Sent?"

Please make your reservations early either by returning your postal card or telephoning the Parish Office (LO 7-1267). Cancellations may be made until 9 a.m. Monday morning. All reservations must be paid for unless cancelled by this time.

DR MARTIN NIEMOELLER, a member of the central Committee of the World Council of Churches, President of the Evangelical Church in Hesse-Nassau, and one of the best known German Churchmen outside of Germany, will be on the University of Pennsylvania campus to lecture on "Theism and Atheism in the Conflict of Nations," in Houston Hall Auditorium at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, April 4. This is a free lecture and the public is cordially invited to attend.

ON PALM SUNDAY NIGHT at 8 p. m., April 15, there will be a program of sacred music in the Church. This music will be of a meditative nature to direct our thoughts and attention to the events of Holy Week. The choir will sing Ralph Vaughan Williams' Mass in G minor, unaccompanied from the gallery, and then come into the chancel to sing the Faure Requiem with harp, strings and organ accompaniment.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING: Pertinent to this project, there will be two showings of the film "Hunger" on WFIL-TV Channel 6 — Sunday, March 25th at 9:15 a.m. and Saturday, March 31st at 8:00 a.m. This is

This Week's Lenten Services At The Church Of The Holy Trinity

TUESDAY

12:15 Noon—Holy Communion

5:30 p.m.—Evening Prayer, Meditation

WEDNESDAY

12:15 Noon—Holy Communion

5:30 p.m.—Holy Communion, Meditation

THURSDAY

12:15 Noon—Holy Communion

5:30 p.m.—Evening Prayer, Meditation

6:15 p.m.—The Parish Family Dinner

7:00 p.m.—Address and Discussion

The Right Reverend J. Stuart Wetmore D.D., Suffragan Bishop of New York, will be the fifth and last speaker in the Lenten Series. He will speak to us concerning the issues confronting the Urban Church in the matter of Christian education. His address follows the Parish Family Dinner on Thursday evening.

You may make a reservation for this dinner by calling the Parish Office a couple of days before Thursday ($2.00 for a single reservation).

We wish to extend the greatest of thanks and appreciation for the support and response given to the Thursday Lenten presentations. In terms of Worship, Fellowship, Learning and Asking it was indeed a worthwhile Lenten opportunity which, it is hoped, those who attended enjoyed to the full.

THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY—Day Group—meet on Thursday, April 12th, opening with the Service of Holy Communion in the Church at 12:15 noon; followed by luncheon in the Parish House at 1 o'clock. A film entitled "Story of Episcopal Church Work in Brazil" will be shown. This presentation should be of especial interest in the light of our recent adoption of Mr. Arthur Peacock.

Every woman in the Parish is a member of the Women of Holy Trinity and is welcome at the meetings—no special invitation is necessary. Reservations for lunch ($1.00) must reach the Parish Office by Monday, April 9th. Mail your card, or telephone the office, (LO 7-1267), in plenty of time.

PALM SUNDAY NIGHT—April 15—At 8 p.m. there will be a program of sacred music in the Church. The choir will sing Ralph Vaughan Williams' Mass in G minor, unaccompanied from the gallery, and then come into the chancel to sing the Faure Requiem with harp, strings and organ accompaniment. The soloists will be: Vivian Wagner—soprano; Anne Walnut—alto; William Ingle—tenor; and Rodney Stenborg—baritone. This endeavor merits your attendance. Plan to come.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be held on Monday, April 23rd in the Centennial Room beginning with dinner at 6 p.m. Parishioners have received a reservation card and, as noted, it will be greatly appreciated if you make your reservation by Thursday, April 19th by mailing your card, dropping it off in the Parish Office, or placing it in the collection plate when attending a Church service. This is the annual meeting of YOUR Church—do plan to attend.

THREE MORE SUNDAYS FOR EPISCOPAL SERIES: The ten-week series of Episcopal radio broadcasts is drawing to a close. The series which has been broadcast in this area at 9 o'clock each Sunday morning offers two more presentations by the Reverend John R. W. Scott, Rector of All Souls' Church, London, England—April 8, "The Forgiveness of Sins" and April 15, "The Resurrection and the Life Everlasting."

BE SURE TO LOOK at the various pamphlets and books which are on hand at the rear of the Church. You may find material not only beneficial and helpful to yourself but also some that might be handed to a friend or to a person about whom you are concerned.

THE WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

And it came to pass when the time was come that He should be received up, He steadfastly set His face to Jerusalem, and a very great multitude spread their garments in the way. Others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitude that went before and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come he beheld the city and wept over it saying, if thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Who watched while Majesty rode on to die, crying hosanna in a joyous song. Could'st thou not heed the distant warning cry of Heaven's apprehensive, waiting throng? Hosanna to men's King! Thine acclamations ring, While God the Father veils his face, And God the Son his griefs embrace, Sing thine own griefs, Jerusalem! Jesus saith, Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour, Father, glorify thy Name. Then came there a voice from Heaven saying, I have both glorified it and will glorify it again. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

EASTER COMMUNION: The clergy are ready and indeed anxious to take Holy Communion during the week after Easter to all ill and shut-in people who cannot be at Church. We depend on your calling the parish office, LO 7-1267, and requesting that one of the clergy may come to you. When you call, a time will be arranged for the service. Please do not hesitate to ask.

THE EASTER OFFERING: It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our missionary and parochial budget needs. We are grateful to God that here at Holy Trinity the generosity of its people is enabling this Church to carry forward an effective ministry in center city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in a special thanksgiving to God for His blessings to us.

EASTER MONDAY: The Annual Parish Meeting of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be held in the Centennial Room starting with dinner at 6 p.m. This is your Parish and it is hoped that many of the parishioners will be present—you will be apprised of the progress of the Parish and will enjoy an evening of fellowship with other members. Three Vestrymen will be elected.

THE PARISH INGATHERING OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING FOR SPRING will take place at the eleven o'clock service on April 29th. This is the time for all of the women to present the offerings which have been given in thankfulness to God for the many blessings bestowed upon them. If you are unable to attend, please see that one of the custodians receives your gift. Mrs. Lever F. Stewart is the custodian for the Day Group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity and Mrs. Lucretia Bentley is the custodian for the Evening Group.

THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION meets at Holy Trinity on April 30 and May 1. The following delegates will represent Holy Trinity: Charles W. H. Bancroft, F. J. Chesterman and William M. West. The alternates are F. R. Goehring and Frank B. Murdoch.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM: "O Sons and Daughters"

ALLELUIA! O sons and daughters, let us sing!
 The king of heaven, The glorious King,
 O'er death today rose triumphing. Alleluia!
 That Easter morn, at the break of day,
 The faithful women went their way to Seek the tomb where Jesus lay. Alleluia!
 An angel clad in white they see,
 Who sat and spake unto the three,
 "Your Lord doth go to Galilee." Alleluia!
 That night the apostles met in fear;
 Amidst them came their Lord most dear,
 And said, "My peace be on all here." Alleluia!
 How blest are they that hath not seen,
 And yet whose faith hath constant been,
 For they eternal life shall win. Alleluia!
 On this holy day of days, to God your hearts
 And voices raise in laud and jubilee, and praise.
 Alleluia!

8:00 p.m. — Diocesan Mass Meeting

Tuesday morning, May 1, 1962

9:00 a.m. — Holy Communion Service

THIS SUNDAY IS THE SPRING INGATHERING OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING for this Parish. Representatives of the women's organizations will receive the offering at the morning service. Women of the Episcopal Church everywhere participate in this thank offering. The United Thank Offering dollars are spent around the world in support of co-operative missionary projects, and so the joyful thankfulness of many women is shared with others.

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST has designated Sunday, April 29, 1962, as National Christian College Day. For many years Hobart, Trinity, and Kenyon Colleges have sponsored joint services in various cities in the United States on the occasion of National Christian College Sunday (these three are related to the Episcopal Church). The motivating forces for this observance are to focus attention upon the role that Christianity must play in our modern education.

TUESDAY, MAY 1st, will be the last meeting of the season for the Evening Group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Supper will be served in the Parish House at 6 p.m. followed by the meeting which will include the election of a new President and evaluation of the program. After this, our own Mrs. Walter R. Pyle will entertain the group with a piano recital. Mrs. Pyle is a teacher at Combs College of Music and has written an anthem which the choir has sung.

Mail your reservation card promptly or call the parish office LO 7-1267 to make a reservation for the dinner. All cancellations after 9 a.m. on Monday morning the 30th, are to be paid for to the treasurer.

LAST MONDAY EVENING at the Annual Parish Meeting the following were elected as Vestrymen to serve for four years: Frank B. Murdoch, Horace Y. Rogers and William M. West. Our honored guest of the evening was Emma McClintock. Miss McClintock was confirmed in the Church of the Holy Trinity in 1906. She taught Sunday School for many years and assisted the choir mother in taking care of the choir robes, and later became the "choir mother." She also is a member of the Altar Guild. Emma McClintock has served this Parish faithfully for many years.

ON SUNDAY EVENING MAY 6TH at eight p.m. one of the most inspiring services of the year takes place when nurses from most of the Philadelphia hospitals attend Evening Prayer at the Church of the Holy Trinity. This is a special worship service dedicated to nursing and honoring the beginning of Hospital and Nursing Week in Philadelphia. The preacher for this occasion will be the Reverend Walter R. Strickland, Director, Institutional Chaplaincy Service of the Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Offertory anthems will be sung by the Jefferson Medical College Hospital School of Nursing Glee Club. An impressive procession will include uniformed nurses from thirty schools of nursing in Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley Area. The service is sponsored by the Careers in nursing Committee of the Southeastern Pennsylvania League for Nursing. You are urged to attend.

THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY—DAY GROUP — will hold their final meeting of the season at Old Christ Church, 2nd Street above Market, Philadelphia, on May 10th at 11 a.m.

Old Christ Church can be reached by #17 bus on Market Street, or #42 bus on Chestnut Street. A guided tour of this historic and beautiful Church will begin at 11 a.m.; at 12 noon there will be a short prayer service in the Church conducted by one of the clergy to be followed by lunch in their Parish House. A short business meeting will conclude the session.

Every woman in the Parish is a member of the Women of Holy Trinity and is welcome at the meetings — no special invitation is needed. It is necessary that reservations for lunch ($1.25) reach the Parish Office no later than Wednesday, May 2nd. Mail your card, or telephone the office (LO 7-1267) in plenty of time.

SATURDAY NIGHT—APRIL 28 — at midnight daylight saving time begins. Turn your clocks ahead one hour.

TODAY, MR. RODNEY STENBORG ends his service as baritone soloist at the Church of the Holy Trinity having graduated from Curtis Institute on Friday and also having received a Fullbright Scholarship for study in Germany. It is with sorrow and regret that we say goodbye to Rodney, but we wish for him success and highest achievements in his future activities in the musical world.

ARMED FORCES WEEK will be observed in the Philadelphia area from May 13 to 19. This thirteenth annual celebration is primarily an “open house” program wherein the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and Reserve Forces throw open their gates to the public. However, the observance is a public event and the Armed Forces Week Committee of the City of Philadelphia has deemed it fitting that we set aside these days to honor the men and women of our Armed Forces and to recognize the loyalty and patriotism they symbolize.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 14 the 1904 Club will meet in the Parish House at 7:45 p.m. and Part II of “Brainwashing: The Ultimate Weapon” will constitute the topic for the evening. The significant comments heard on the long-playing record presenting the talk of an Army psychiatrist, who interviewed brainwashed American prisoners of the Korean War, will be further reviewed and discussed.

AT THE FINAL MEETING of the Evening Group, Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, held on Tuesday May 1, Marguerite Sibley was elected to serve as President for a term of two years. She succeeds May Baird who did an outstanding job and has certainly been an inspiring president to the group. The Evening Group is looking forward to the beginning of another season of service and activity in the fall. Any woman of the Church who desires to join with this group is welcome. You will find an announcement of the first fall meeting in the weekly bulletin.

ONLY ONCE IN YOUR LIFETIME! A challenge and an opportunity for us all. Our new Episcopal Church Center is already under construction, and the time has come when we, as Episcopalians, can no longer delay in sharing in this great new Christian missionary enterprise.

Why do we need a National Church Headquarters? The basic reason is that we in this country are not an unorganized group of individual places of worship, but rather, we are all a part of a great missionary enterprise dedicated to the bringing of our Lord's message to all people, both at home and abroad.

In terms of knowledge, staff, financial resources, and many other factors, it obviously would not be possible for any individual parish to conduct its own overseas missionary policy, to be able to assume enough responsibility for the care of our elder citizens, the underfed, underclothed, and under-educated in countries less fortunate than our own and indeed in our own country.

For this reason the resources of all our parishes and missions have been combined into a National Headquarters which for sixty-eight years has been known as “281” because of its location at this address on Park Avenue South in New York City. It is there and has been conducted by a board of directors known as the National Council, consisting of bishops and other clergy, laymen and laywomen, democratically elected by us all. The work that has been accomplished together as a Christian Church could never have been done by any one diocese, parish or mission.

The present National Headquarters, built sixty-eight years ago is now completely inadequate to carry on the dedicated work—departments have had to be separate over a wide area from Greenwich, Connecticut, to far as Chicago. Even in New York City there are separations.

The time has now come for us to establish a new Episcopal Church Center large enough to re-combine all the work done together beyond diocesan limits. A location has been purchased at 43rd Street and Second Avenue in New York City readily accessible to Grand Central Station, to the Air Lines Terminal, and to most of the areas. The modest twelve-story building which will be erected on this location will serve the needs of the Church for at least the next fifty years.

This is, therefore, a great opportunity for us all to share in the building of an adequate central headquarters through which we can do together the things that no one of us can do alone.

Preacher: the Rev. Mr. Lee, Curate

ON THE 19TH OF MAY, 1662, an issue of Prayer Book was authorized for use which meant a great deal to our colonial forbears from that time up until the American Revolution. This date and year mark the 300th Anniversary of that book.

It is the foundation of almost every Prayer Book in the entire Anglican Communion and its worth and value cannot be overstated. We purpose to observe this 300th Anniversary. The British Consul, Mr. Tull, will be with us for the service at eleven o'clock that day and will read the lesson and I hope that many of you having cherished copies of Prayer Books, either of that issue or of significance within your family, might bring them with you on that day and exhibit them at the coffee hour following the service.

A THANK YOU to the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity for their tremendous response to the United Thank Offering—an offering of thankfulness for the manifold blessings received which in turn, is used to further the blessings of those less fortunate. The total amount collected was $1,389.69. The Custodian for the Day Group of the Women the Church of the Holy Trinity is Mrs. Lever Stewart and for the Evening Group, Mrs. Lucretia Bentley.

PLEASE NOTE that the program listed on the other page for Trinity Club represents the last meeting of the club until fall. This is also true of the eight o'clock service.

1904 CLUB will hold their last regular meeting on Monday evening, May 21, at 7:45 p.m. The topic will be "Emerging Africa" to be presented by a speaker obtained through the African Cultural Alliance. The 1904 Club meetings will be resumed in fall.

SAINT CHRISTOPHER'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH located in Oxford, Pennsylvania, is a new mission church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The first service in this Church was held on Palm Sunday. The members of this Mission wish to thank all those who assisted in the building of the church in any way and in particular, they wish to thank the parishes for their contributions to the Capital Funds Campaign of the Diocese which enabled this edifice to be constructed.

An Open House for all the churches of the Diocese will be held on Sunday, May 27 from two in the afternoon to nine in the evening. The congregation of the Church of the Holy Trinity is cordially invited to attend. The Vicar of Saint Christopher's is the Reverend Richard Walton Hess.

ANYONE HAVING in his possession any Year Book of the Church of the Holy Trinity is asked if it might be possible to bring them to the Church. Mr. Bancroft, Secretary of the Vestry, is endeavoring to gather a complete set of Year Books to be kept in the files of the Church.

5:45 p.m. Trinity Club Supper and Speaker

Keynote speaker for the 1962-63 Season — The Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, D.D., S.T.D., Bishop Coadjutor, Diocese of Pennsylvania.

8:00 p.m. Evensong (Evening Prayer)

Crucifer: Thomas Goings

Preacher: The Rev. Mr. Lee, Curate

A NEW SEASON OF WORSHIP AND WORK: A summer of relaxation and reflection is over and Holy Trinity Parish is now ready to begin a new year of worship and work in the name of Jesus Christ. The Parish Staff is now back in full force. Your Rector and the Curate both enjoyed trips to England. Doctor Pratt's trip, in addition to being a vacation, was also an occasion for preaching and lecturing in parishes and a theological college of the Church of England. Mr. Roye attended a conference in Buffalo for Episcopal Church Organists and Choirmasters led by Doctor Leo Sowerby. During July and August, Mr. Lee led a six weeks seminar on "Christian Approaches to Communism". Over forty people attended these sessions regularly which included lectures, films, reading and group discussion. A total of over sixty people attended the seminars at one time or another. The interest was high and in all likelihood this seminar will be repeated in the fall.

Throughout the year there will be many opportunities for the parishioners of Holy Trinity to participate in educational study groups. In addition, there will be interesting and informed guest speakers and preachers from time to time who should be heard by all. Also, the various organizations of the Parish are ready to begin their work for the coming year and they need the steady support and participation of all of us.

TRINITY CLUB BEGINS THIS SUNDAY: Trinity Club for young adults begins its twelfth season this Sunday, September 9th at 5:45 p.m. in the Centennial Room. Once again, this interdenominational Christian fellowship for young men and women in their 20s and 30s, who are essentially single, working, career people, extends an enthusiastic invitation to other young adults to join them. The keynote speaker for 1962-63, the Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, D.D., S.T.D., Bishop Coadjutor, Diocese of Pennsylvania, will address the group around 6:45 p.m. after supper. Evensong follows at 8 p.m. in the Church and the evening is wrapped up with a social hour back in the Centennial Room.

An exceptional list of speakers has been scheduled by the Club for the coming year. These are listed in the program booklet which can be found on the tables in the porch of the Church. Take as many of these as you want and give them to your friends and acquaintances. Once again, the Trinity Club welcome mat is out for the young adults of Philadelphia!

IMPORTANT FUTURE DATES: THE BOHLEN LECTURES — "The Church and the Reality of Christ" — Sunday evening, October 14 and Monday afternoon and evening, October 15. These lectures will be given by the Reverend Professor John Knox of Union Seminary, New York City.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21 - 8 p.m. DRAMA IN THE CHURCH: C. S. Lewis', "The Great Divorce" presented by the Bishop's Company of California, sponsored by Trinity Club. Save the date.

THE ANNUAL PARISH BAZAAR at the Barclay — Thursday, November 8, 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Please note — Christmas cards and note paper will be sold!

FRIDAY—SEPTEMBER 21—SAINT MATTHEW'S DAY

Holy Communion—12:15 (noon)

A most meaningful Service in the course of each and every week is the 12:15 (noon) Service of the Holy Communion. Over the years it has come to be a valued encounter to many of the members and friends of the Parish. Much of this is due to the very simple fact that it is provided regularly. By contrast, whenever on one of the Prayer Book Holy Days we have a service at 7:30 a.m. the attendance is small. The days come at irregular intervals and even the time itself does not seem to be 'serviceable.' With these considerations in mind all are asked to note the following arrangements:—

Every Wednesday—Holy Communion at 7 a.m.—followed by a light 'break-fast'—juice, coffee cake and coffee (25 cents); and an at the table discussion of the Collect, Epistle or Gospel. A great possibility this!

Every Thursday—12:15 (noon) Holy Communion—soon to be preceded by a 'Prayer Group Meeting' in behalf of persons and causes wherewith we ought to be concerned.

Every Prayer Book Holy Day—12:15 (noon) Holy Communion—maximum opportunity at the best time!

When on August 25th, Miss Helene C. Reinhardt entered into the Larger Life, the Church of the Holy Trinity was at one with the members of her family in knowing a very real sense of loss. Helene had made of herself a vital ministry of service as a Parish Almoner. She knew those to whom she ministered in a most personal way and whatever—in the name of the Church—she brought to them was always designed to meet their individual needs. Her reports of what was being done were always filled with concern and the many letters which she received and shared indicated how very much such service meant. We give thanks to God for her life and service and remember her in His Presence.

THE FIRST MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION and breakfast for fall will be held on Sunday, September 30th at 8 a.m. The Reverend J. Seymour Flinn, who is on the staff of the Anglican Theological School in Mbale, Uganda, Africa, will give an illustrated presentation of his work. All of the men of the Church of the Holy Trinity will receive a reservation coupon and we ask that you please return this as soon as possible. Plan to attend and your friends are welcome, too.

SUNDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 14 (8 p.m.) AND MONDAY AFTERNOON (3 p.m.) AND EVENING (8 p.m.) OCTOBER 15: These are the dates for the forthcoming BOHLEN LECTURES which will be conducted by Dr. John Knox, distinguished lecturer and Baldwin Professor of Sacred Literature at Union Theological Seminary, New York. Dr. Knox has selected the general topic "The Church and the Reality of Christ" and then has divided this into three subtitles: "The Church and the Resurrection," "The Church and the Incarnation" and "The Church and the Atonement."

CATHERINE CROZIER, international concert organist, to be heard in recital Wednesday, October 17th at 8:30 p.m. in the Church of the Holy Trinity.

Merle Harbach, Director and Actor, The Bishop's Company, of Santa Barbara, California, brings his group to the Chancel of the Church of the Holy Trinity on October 21st at 8 p.m. in "The Great Divorce" by C. S. Lewis. This program is sponsored by Trinity Club.

A discussion series co-sponsored by Family Service of Philadelphia and The Free Library of Philadelphia will be held seven Wednesday afternoons from 2-3:30 p.m. at the Philadelphia City Institute, 19th and Locust Streets, beginning September 19th. The subject for this series is "Adventures in Retirement" and attention is focused on problems which come to people when they retire.

SATURDAY—SEPTEMBER 29—SAINT MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS

Holy Communion—12:15 (noon)

YOUR ATTENTION is called to the program of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity for the 1962-63 season. The day group meets at 1 p.m. for luncheon in the Parish House followed by the speaker and then the business meeting; the evening group meets at 6 p.m. for dinner in the Centennial Room which is followed by the speaker and the business meeting. If you are not already a member of one, or both, of these groups, why not attend either an afternoon meeting or an evening meeting, whichever is most convenient for you—or attend both—and then, depending on your choice, avail yourself of the privilege and opportunity of active participation and fellowship in one of the groups, or both if you so desire. Every woman in the Parish is welcome in both groups and perhaps you have a friend that you wish to bring with you. But do make every effort to support the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity!

FOUR SEMINARS ON PRAYER—October 7, 14, 21 and 28 . . .

With the beginning of the revival of Prayer Group interest within the Parish, it may not be amiss to offer a series of four seminars on the topic of PRAYER. These will therefore be held on each Sunday in October at 9:30 a.m. and will last for one hour each. Ample time will be allowed for questions and discussion and the full participation of all who are interested is most earnestly invited. The basic text will be our own Book of Common Prayer plus some supplementary reading.—C. P.

AN OBSERVANCE of the 20th Anniversary of Bishop Hart's Consecration as Bishop will be held on Tuesday, October 16. At 10:30 a.m. there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion in Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square. Bishop Hart will celebrate. Bishop Noble C. Powell of Maryland will preach. The Choir of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill, will lead the singing. At 6:30 that evening there will be a reception at the Sheraton Hotel preceding the Anniversary Dinner at 7:00. The Presiding Bishop will be the speaker of the evening and Bishop Powell will bring greetings from the Pension Fund. Application for dinner tickets at $5.50 should be made through the Reverend Alfred Vail at Church House, 202 W. Rittenhouse Square, with check enclosed to the order of Diocese of Pennsylvania and marked "tickets." A return address must be included for the tickets.

It has been suggested that, in conjunction with this significant Anniversary, the clergy and members of their parishes might wish to contribute to a gift in affectionate recognition of Bishop Hart's outstanding service to the Diocese. Checks may be drawn to the order of the "Gift Fund," Diocese of Pennsylvania, and sent into the Parish Office of Holy Trinity at 1904 Walnut Street.

DATES TO REMEMBER:

Sunday, September 30: The first Men's Corporate Communion and breakfast will be held. Holy Communion at 8 a.m. followed by breakfast and the speaker, the Reverend J. Seymour Flinn, who will give an illustrated presentation of his work as a staff member of the Anglican Theological School in Mbale, Uganda, Africa.

Sunday evening, October 14 at 8 p.m. and Monday afternoon at 3 p.m. and evening at 8 p.m., The Bohlen Lectures conducted by Professor John Knox of the Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

Wednesday, October 17: Catherine Crozier, international concert organist will be heard in a recital at the Church of the Holy Trinity, 8:30 p.m.

Sunday evening, October 21 a drama "The Great Divorce" by C. S. Lewis, presented by the Bishop's Company and sponsored by Trinity Club.

Thursday, November 8 beginning at 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., The Annual Parish Bazaar at The Barclay.

AT THE BEGINNING OF THE MONTH OF OCTOBER the Church Growth Committee will once again proceed with its work. Members will be on duty at the doors of the Church. Let us together use this tested opportunity to the full.—C. P.

Preacher: The Reverend Mr. Lee

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN THE MONTH OF OCTOBER is observed and known as World-Wide Communion Sunday. In the course of this day, around the globe, Christians will come 'together' to observe the Lord's Supper—separately! "I believe in the universal church" said a cynic recently, "and I regret that it does not exist." Whatever truth there may be in that statement requires the focus of our attention within the context of World Wide Communion Sunday.

MRS. EUGENE M. CALLIS has most graciously accepted the Rector's appointment to serve as President of the Parish Altar Guild. Deeply appreciative of faithful service already given we bespeak full support for her in this new capacity.—C. P.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11: The Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hold their first meeting of the season beginning with lunch at 1 P. M. followed by the speaker and the business meeting. The speaker will be the Rector, Dr. Cuthbert Pratt. The cost of the luncheon is one dollar and reservations may be made by mailing in the card received or by calling the Parish Office (LO 7-1267). All women of the Parish are welcome.

ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14—8 P. M. and MONDAY, OCTOBER 15 at 3 P. M. and also at 8 P. M. Professor John Knox of the Union Theological Seminary, New York, will present the Bohlen Lectures. Sunday he will lecture on "The Church and the Resurrection" Monday afternoon, "The Church and the Incarnation" and Monday evening, "The Church and the Atonement." Professor Knox is a speaker and teacher of outstanding ability. We therefore hope that members and friends of the congregation have planned to attend these presentations.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17 at 8:30 P. M.: Catharine Crozier, organ virtuoso, will give a concert at the Church of the Holy Trinity. Miss Crozier is heralded as a leading American organist and is helping to lift the status of concert organ performance to the quality of our foremost artists in other musical fields. We are glad to be able to present this opportunity to you to hear her. It will be a richly rewarding experience to attend this recital given by one of the greatest organists of our day—Catharine Crozier.

AT THE 11 O'CLOCK SERVICE on Sunday, October 21, the preacher will be Bishop William P. Remington. Bishop Remington (retired) was assistant here at Holy Trinity from 1905-07 when Dr. Tomkins was Rector, and then later became the Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Before serving in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, he served as Suffragan Bishop of the Missionary District of South Dakota and then Bishop of the Missionary District of Eastern Oregon. Therefore, to him the United Thank Offerings of the Women of the Church have meant much in relationship to his work in these Missionary Districts and it is certainly fitting that he is the preacher on the day of the Parish Ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21 at 8 P. M. Trinity Club presents the Bishop's Company in C. S. Lewis' "THE GREAT DIVORCE" at Holy Trinity. This play provides an evening of brilliant wit, biting satire, and high contest, making personal some of life's most soul-searching questions. The play concerns the permanent divorce between Good and Evil, using the fantasy of a busload of people from Hell who take an excursion into Heaven. The audience will discover that inevitably there can be no marriage between Heaven and Hell, only "the great divorce."

Advance offering certificates at $1.50 may be secured by writing to Trinity Club, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. Naturally, advance certificates are not required.

There will be four seminars on PRAYER during the month of October led by the Rector, on the Sundays of the 7th, 14th, 21st and 28th from 9:30 to 10:30 A. M. in the Centennial Room.

BOHLEN LECTURES OF 1962

Professor John Knox

Union Theological Seminary, New York

8:00 P. M.—Sunday, October 14: "The Church and the Resurrection"

3:00 P. M.—Monday, October 15: "The Church and the Incarnation"

8:00 P. M.—Monday, October 15: "The Church and the Atonement"

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18—Saint Luke's Day—Holy Communion at 12:15 (noon).
MEMO FROM THE CHOIRMASTER: It is my sincere hope that members of the congregation will take advantage of the great opportunity they will have on October 17 at 8:30 p.m. of hearing one of the finest musicians in the country today. Catharine Crozier is not only an organ virtuoso, but a sound musician.
"When one hears a Crozier recital, he hears music as expressed by the composer and not as projected upon the listener by a performer, and this is the true mark of greatness."—F. R.

THE FALL INGATHERING OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will take place at the eleven o'clock service, Sunday, October 21. Bishop William P. Remington will be the preacher.

SUNDAY EVENING, 8 P. M., October 21, Trinity Club sponsors the Bishop's Company in C. S. Lewis' "The Great Divorce." Plan to support this program.
You will not be disappointed.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16: An observance of the 20th Anniversary of Bishop Hart's Consecration will be held beginning with a celebration of the Holy Communion in Holy Trinity Church at 10:30 a.m. Bishop Hart will Celebrate.
Bishop Noble C. Powell of Maryland will preach and the Choir of the Episcopal Academy will lead the singing.

"PRAYER" is the subject of four seminars conducted by Dr. Pratt in the Centennial Room at 9:30 a.m. on Sundays—7, 14, 21 and 28 during the month of October. There will be a lecture each week followed by questions and discussion.

THE PARISH PRAYER GROUP will meet each Thursday at 11:30 a.m. in the Church. Everyone is welcome.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8 from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. the Annual Parish Bazaar will be held at the Barclay. This program is given by the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity and the proceeds are used for missionary work both at home and overseas—a Christian imperative. The women on the various committees have been busy for many months making the necessary preparations for a successful venture—but this alone will not insure success.
It is a project for the entire Parish to support. Donations are necessary—whether they be money, articles for the various tables or minutes to hours of your time! Tell your friends and neighbors so that they too may attend.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10: Tour of Longwood Garden and Winterthur Museum with lunch at Powder Mill Inn. Sponsored by the Women of the Church of Holy Trinity, Evening Group. $7.00 all inclusive fee. Send reservations with check to Cornelia Cree to the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 3, not later than Thursday, November 1. (Makes checks payable to Holy Trinity Church, Evening Group).

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28: At the eleven o'clock service we will salute the Children's Fund of the United Nations (UNICEF) and commend their project: Trick or Treat for UNICEF—on the Eve of All Hallow's Day. The infusion of constructive purpose transforms a night of mischief and sometimes destruction into a time of service, fun, and joy worthy of God.

THE CALENDAR which bears the title "This America—1963" pays tribute in the month of December, 1963, to Phillips Brooks, commemorating his writing of the Christmas Hymn "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and having a picture of the Chancel of the Church. These calendars may be purchased for $1.50 and are enclosed in an envelope suitable for mailing anywhere in the U.S.A. for 12c postage. Please see Dr. Pratt if you wish to make a purchase.

RECEPTION FOR DR. AND MRS. PRATT

At the conclusion of the eleven o'clock morning service on Sunday, October the 21st, a reception will be held in the Centennial Room in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Pratt. Dr. Pratt will complete his first anniversary with us at this service. It is felt that the congregation will want to express their personal thanks to him for the splendid work he has accomplished during his first year as our Rector.
The Wardens and the Vestry.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28: At the eleven o'clock service we will salute the Children's Fund of the United Nations (UNICEF) and commend their project.

WHAT IS UNICEF? UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, is the member of the United Nations family which helps shape tomorrow's world through today's children. The child is the greatest of man's natural resources, but often the least developed. UNICEF assists more than 100 countries to improve the health, vigor, and understanding of their children because they are the valid promise of a brighter future. Each year UNICEF helps protect millions of children against hunger and disease. More important, it teaches the science and value of self-protection and self-development, not to dozens or thousands, but to scores of millions. The world of UNICEF is the world of children, three-fourths of them in dire, urgent need; immediately responsive to help. Fortified or not by UNICEF, from them will emerge the citizens, the technicians, the teachers, the leaders of tomorrow. UNICEF makes it possible for countries and people to realize, through children, the promise of a better future.

The service next week at the Church of the Holy Trinity will honor the world's children.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8 from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.—this is the day of the Annual Parish Bazaar which is held at the Barclay. It is hoped that this project sponsored by the day group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be supported by the entire congregation and friends.

A REMINDER of the tour of Longwood Garden and Winterthur Museum on Saturday, November 10. This is sponsored by the evening group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity. The fee of $7.00 includes bus fare, lunch at the Powder Mill Inn and admission to the Museum. Checks should be drawn to Holy Trinity Church, Evening Group, and sent along with your reservation to Cornelia Cree, Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 3, Pa.

All are welcome to the PARISH PRAYER GROUP which meets each Thursday at 11:30 a.m. in the Church.

"This America—1963" the calendar with a picture of the chancel of Holy Trinity Church for the month of December, 1963, is on sale at $1.50. This picture commemorates Phillips Brooks' writing of "O Little Town of Bethlehem." A call to Dr. Pratt will reserve a calendar.

The Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, D.D., S.T.D., The Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will make a Visitation to the Church of the Holy Trinity on Sunday, April 21, 1963, at eleven o'clock, for the Service of Confirmation.

ALL SAINTS' EVE

Wednesday, October 31—5:30 p.m.—Holy Communion

ALL SAINTS' DAY

Thursday, November 1—12:15 (noon)—Holy Communion

THE ALL SAINTS' DAY REMEMBRANCE

On All Saints' Day, as is our usual custom, we remember by name at the Altar all those of this parish and others buried from this parish who have passed from this life since last All Saints' Day. We pray that they may forever grow in love and service. Their names are:

Susan May Jones	Charles F. Brown	Mary Hall Ruff
Henry E. Ehlers	Katherine Ethel Kugler	Ann Paschall
Francis Carey Lea	Emily L. Hollingshead	Helene Reinhardt
Mabel N. MacNabb	T. Henry Walnut	Frank Peterson Simmons
Donald Fithian Lippincott	Marion E. Ford	Bertha Ehlers
Evelyn H. Van Tine	Sophia Kopp Roesle	Minnie Atlee
Annie Burch	Sarah J. Platt	Arthur J. Amor
Helen P. Haines	Katherine V. Allen	Louis C. N. Drexel
Ernest John Lanigan	James J. Lang	Carrie O. Cessna
Mary Drysdale Derby	Marion M. Bodine	Charles H. Kollock

FIVE-THIRTY P. M. HOLY COMMUNION—EVE OF ALL SAINTS' DAY

One of the most meaningful of all the days within the Christian year is All Saints' Day. An opportunity to remember that we are ‘called to be saints’ and that the fulfillment of this calling is a matter of great importance. The day has also become an opportunity wherein we recollect those nearest and dearest to us who have departed this life. We make especially real our affirmation that we believe in the ‘communion of the saints.’ To this end and in the hope that it will be of help to many of our people, and especially those who go to business or who live within the inner city, there will be at five-thirty p.m. on Wednesday, October 31 (the eve of All Saints' Day) a service of the Holy Communion. This service is in addition to the one at twelve-fifteen noon on Thursday, November 1.

ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1 following Holy Communion at 12:15, the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, day group, will meet beginning with luncheon at 1 p.m. in the Parish House. The speaker is Mrs. Henry J. Gideon, of the Episcopal Community Services, and her topic will be “Church Work among the Blind.” All women of the Church are welcome. If you did not receive a card, you may phone the office for a reservation for the luncheon ($1.00).

IN COMMEMORATION OF ALL SAINTS' DAY, the choir will sing Requiem by Maurice Durufle in the church on Sunday, November 4, at 8 p.m. Anne Walnut and John Wiseman will be the soloists, with Jay Humeston, Cellist and Raymond Hemmingway, Organist. Frederick Royce will conduct. The work was written in 1948 by one of today's most prominent French musicians, who is organist at Sainte-Etienne-du-Mont in Paris. This is a most beautiful work for the Church, which utilizes Gregorian Plain Chant for an atmosphere of deeply-felt religious music.

JUST A REMINDER that the Church Bazaar is to be held on Thursday, November 8, at the Barclay and contributions are urgently needed for the following tables (they may be left at the Parish House, marked for the intended table): Useful, Mrs. Ernest Von Starck; Christmas, Mrs. Harry Angstadt; Cake, Miss Lydia Harmer; Gourmet, Mrs. George E. Smith; White Elephant, Mrs. George Laws; Surprise, Mrs. Robert Trueman; Hats, Mrs. John Fair; Boutique, Mrs. Clyde Pinney; Flowers and Plants, Mrs. William Flick; and Fancy Table, Mrs. Horace Y. Rogers. Door Prizes: Mrs. John Fair, 1830 Rittenhouse Square, KI 5-1825. Please notify Mrs. Fair whom you contact for door prizes so efforts will not be duplicated.

THE PARISH BULLETIN — THE NEWSPAPERS — THE MAILS

A few words about the above in the light of recent comments made concerning them. When the copy for the Parish Weekly Bulletin leaves the Parish Office, it is correct. When the caption “Holy Communion” appears over the service of Morning Prayer” or when 66 chapters are attributed to Micah—which is 59 more than he is entitled to, then give credit where credit is due—those are printer's errors.

The same thing is true in terms of the Saturday newspaper ads—our copy is correct. The press makes the errors in printing just as they sometimes make the errors in matters of fact.

The Weekly Bulletin is taken each Wednesday by noon to the 30th Street Post Office, ample time for your copy to be in your hands prior to Sunday. If

ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, the base of the Altar Cross was dedicated to the Glory of God and to the memory of Merrill A. Kercher, long-time member of the Church of the Holy Trinity and Vestryman. This memorial is given by his wife, Julia.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6: The evening group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be held at six p.m. in the Centennial Room. Supper is served at that time ($1.50) followed by the speaker and the business session. "On the Other Side of Darkness a Light Within" is the title of the talk by Mrs. Henry J. Gideon, Secretary of Church Work among the Blind at the Episcopal Community Services. If you have made a reservation for this dinner and find it necessary to cancel same, it must be in the parish office by 9 a.m. on Monday, November 5.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8—ANNUAL PARISH BAZAAR: Your loyalty and support to this project is earnestly solicited—11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at The Barclay. Plan to attend and bring your friends and neighbors with you.

REMINDER: This is your last chance to make a reservation for the trip to Longwood Gardens and Winterthur on November 10. Make your check, for $7.00, payable to Holy Trinity Church, Evening Group, and send it to Cornelia Cree, Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 3. Reservations must be received by November 7.

COMING EVENTS:

Sunday, November 11—Veterans' Day—The eleven o'clock service will be in honor and tribute to all Veterans.

Sunday, November 18—Stewardship—Loyalty Sunday—Jesus taught that human beings are God's stewards, and must answer to Him for the way they use whatever time, talents and money they may be given to work with. Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday is our opportunity to indicate this stewardship.

Sunday, November 25—The Fortieth Anniversary of the continuous broadcasting over Radio Station WIP of the eleven o'clock service at the Church of the Holy Trinity.

THANK YOU: The Wardens and Vestry wish to express their appreciation to all those who contributed their services so willingly in assisting to make Dr. Pratt's First Anniversary with us so successful. Thanks are due to Mrs. F. J. Chesterman for her kindness in providing the flowers and also to Mrs. Dunhour and her staff for the excellent refreshments so efficiently served.
—C. B.

RADIO STATION WRCV, Philadelphia, (1060 kc.) will present a series of broadcasts entitled, "Religious Shrines of Philadelphia" beginning November 4, at 10:35 p.m. depicting historical religious shrines of the city. DEPARTMENT OF LAYMEN'S WORK: Many Dioceses, including our own, have established a Department of Laymen's Work, so that Laymen might be organized and made aware of their full Christian responsibilities. In planning their Fall program, the Pennsylvania Assembly and Brotherhood of Saint Andrew in cooperation with the Diocesan Department of Laymen's Work felt that a large contribution could be made by them to the Rectors and Parishes of the Diocese by the promotion of the education, training and deepening of the spiritual life of the Laymen. With this in mind, a Laymen's Conference will be held at the Radnor Conference Center on Friday and Saturday, November 30 and December 1. This Conference will be devoted to the Ministry of the Laity and an attempt will be made to define and interpret this Ministry in relation to the Laymen's activities inside and outside of the Parish. If any layman in this Parish is interested, please call the office for further details as to registration, cost, etc.

STEWARDSHIP—LOYALTY SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18—On this day every member of the Parish is asked to make in an act of solemn worship, his pledge of support for the coming year. Members of the Parish under the leadership of Horace Y. Rogers will endeavor to reach every other member of the Parish to remind him or her of Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday. Your cooperation and support are solicited.

THE PICTURE OF THE CHURCH on the front of our Sunday leaflet was circulated through England and Northern Ireland in the monthly Church of England publication "HOME WORDS" this past summer. A short synopsis on the story of our carol "O Little Town of Bethlehem" appeared with the picture. Copies of the magazines were received from individual parishes where our own members have relatives and friends, and from one lady whose son was baptized by Dr. Tomkins, and now lives in England. More people will learn about Holy Trinity and its importance as the Church where our own American Carol was written through this picture and the photograph of our chancel in "THIS AMERICA for 1963." We hope you will order one of these calendars—they make excellent gifts and can be purchased at the Parish House.

THE SUNDAY AFTER THANKSGIVING DAY will mark the Fortieth Anniversary of the continuous broadcasting of the eleven o'clock service at the Church of the Holy Trinity over Radio Station WIP. In 1922 WIP was only a few months old and the entire venture in the field of broadcasting was new; but Doctor Tomkins, fully aware of the possibilities, urged the association between WIP and the Church of the Holy Trinity—an association which continues today. This has been a most meaningful relationship. The scope of our radio coverage is good and the interest of our radio congregation is very real indeed.

NEWSAGRAM: The Christmas Seal with the red double-barred cross is, today, as familiar a part of the holiday season as Santa Claus himself. Cherished in the hearts of many, it comes to homes all over the nation bearing the message of hope and good cheer. Each year, thousands of Philadelphians support the Christmas Seal Campaign for they know that Christmas Seal dollars are the most potent weapon in the fight against tuberculosis. You can join the crusade against TB by answering your Christmas Seal letter when it reaches you, and if possible, by calling PE 5-2200 to offer your volunteer assistance.

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF
THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their Church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed, because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge, others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time. May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in, or ill, or prevented by conditions of work, and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

MEN'S ADVENT CORPORATE COMMUNION: Sunday, December 2 at 8 a.m. followed by breakfast in the Centennial Room. The speaker at this time will be the Reverend Howard Clarke who was formerly in Harrisburg and is now the Director for Development at the Philadelphia Divinity School. It is interesting to know that Dr. Clark was the Seminarian Assistant when Dr. Salmon was here at Holy Trinity.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY (Day Division) will meet for luncheon at 1 p.m. in the Centennial Room on Thursday, December 13. The speaker for that day will be our own Mrs. John P. Lutz who is Diocesan Chairman of the United Thank Offering and she will present two films: "Korean Witness" and "Joyous Thanksgiving." All women of the Church are invited and welcome to attend this meeting.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY (Evening Division) are attempting to obtain much-needed card tables for their group by collection of trading stamps (particularly Top Value Trading Stamps). Donations of any type trading stamps, however, will be gratefully received and acknowledged. Donor's names will be indicated on backs of tables. Stamps may be mailed to Mrs. Virginia Bitter, Secretary, Church of the Holy Trinity or to Mrs. Ruth K. Yeager, 1828 Spruce Street, Philadelphia 3, Pa. Two and one-fifth books of Top Value Stamps will purchase one table). —R. Y.

HOLY COMMUNION—EVERY WEDNESDAY, 7 A. M.—Are you aware of the fact that every Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock there is a celebration of the Holy Communion followed by a light breakfast (25c) and Bible Study? Since August, this service has replaced the former 7:30 a.m. celebration on Saints and Holy Days. Here is a regular and excellent opportunity for worship and study, especially during Advent. Holy Communion—Breakfast—Bible Study: Wednesdays, 7 A. M. —E. L. L.

"THE UNIVERSE AND YOU" FILM SERIES: the second presentation in this series of unique and highly acclaimed science films will be shown this coming Monday evening at 8, in the Parish House. "God of Creation" is the title of this week's film. It covers a wide range of subjects. With the telescope the immensity of space is explored, and with the microscope the teeming world of tiny creatures in a single drop of water is examined. Through the power and beauty of growing things the evidence of God's infinite care in all His creation is revealed. Here is a unique film opportunity for you. —E. L. L.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 16—8 P. M.: The Messiah—Choir and soloists of the Church of the Holy Trinity: Vivian Wagner, Soprano; Anne Walnut, Contralto; William Rogers, Tenor; John West, Guest Bass; members of the Philadelphia Orchestra; Temple Painter, Harpsichordist; John Thrower, Organist; Frederick Royce, Conductor.

This performance will include portions from all three parts, and the orchestration will be the original scoring by Handel. Strings, trumpet and tympani.

JUST A REMINDER! If you have not already looked at the calendar "This America—1963" ask Charles Bancroft to show you a copy. It makes a lovely gift and you will no doubt want one for yourself. The cost is $1.50.

SAINT FRANCIS BOYS' HOMES:—at Ellsworth and Salina, Kansas. This is the Episcopal counterpart of Fr. Flanagan's Home and is indeed worthy of our consideration. A veteran staff, truly dedicated, create and foster Christian fellowship and love to work miracles of rehabilitation for boys who once were lost, including boys on probation or parole, boys from all parts of the nation, and boys of all races and of all creeds. Each boy is given the opportunity to live a new life. There is a great need to carry on this work. God has led the boy offenders to Saint Francis and He expects all of us to help in their restoration.

The Offertory Anthem: "Springs in the Desert"—Arthur Jennings

Say to them that are of a fearful heart, be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come and save you. The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams flow in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water. A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the way of holiness; the redeemed shall walk there: And the ransomed of the Lord shall return with songs and everlasting joy: and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Isaiah XXXV.

"UNIVERSE AND YOU" FILM SERIES: the third presentation in this remarkable and interesting series of science films will again be shown this coming Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Parish House. "Dust or Destiny" is the title of this week's color film. It reveals a variety of nature's fascinating phenomena: fish that lay eggs on dry land, birds that migrate for thousands of miles without map or compass, bats that fly through total darkness without the slightest chance of collision. These and many other startling revelations depict the infinite wonder and care and wisdom of God. It's not too late to attend this film series. Refreshments are served afterwards. —E. L. L.

ADVENT WORSHIP AND STUDY OPPORTUNITY: Holy Communion every Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, followed by a light breakfast (25c) and Bible study. Stay as long as you can, then leave for work. Here is a good opportunity for worship and study early in the day, before the rush—Christmas and otherwise!

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 16—8 P. M.: The Messiah—Choir and soloists of the Church of the Holy Trinity: Vivian Wagner, Soprano; Anne Walnut, Contralto; William Rogers, Tenor; John West, Guest Bass; members of the Philadelphia Orchestra; Temple Painter, Harpsichordist; John Thrower, Organist; Frederick Royce, Conductor.

—F. R.

ON SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 10 a.m., The Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, D.D., S.T.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will ordain to the Priesthood, Robert Stanley Snyder at All Saints Church, Rhawnhurst. Your prayers and presence are requested.

Robert Snyder came to the Church of the Holy Trinity in 1956. He was ordained Deacon last June and is the Curate at All Saints Church, Rhawnhurst, serving with Mr. Pollanick, the Rector. Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Robert Snyder from this Parish.

ADVENT QUIET DAY—for Trinity Club and 1904 Club. Friday, December 14, 6 p.m., to Saturday, December 15, 6 p.m., at the beautiful and spacious Episcopal Conference Center in Radnor. Here is the time and place to be alone, in silence, in the contemplation of God. In addition, there are opportunities for worship and reading and listening to three meditations given by Mr. Lee. Reservations should be in to Mr. Lee by Thursday, December 13. —E. L. L.

LEST WE FORGET as the Christmas Season opens those who by circumstance are less fortunate than we are, the Social Service Committee of the Women's Group, Day Division, of the Church of the Holy Trinity, have for many years had a definite program to add cheer to those in our Parish and Diocese who are lonely, aged or sick. Each year they deliver Christmas checks to Saint Martha's House and The Home of the Merciful Saviour, give Christmas presents to the guests at the House of Rest and as a gift to the Children's Ward at Philadelphia General Hospital, which is also remembered at Halloween and Easter, this year there will be high chairs for the wee ones. This group, in cooperation with the Church, also sees that all shut-ins of the Parish have candy or flowers. It is in the spirit of giving to those who otherwise might not be remembered that all of us will find the true meaning of the Season.
—M. C.

THE CHURCH ON WRCV—On Christmas Eve, Monday, December 24 at 8:55 p.m., we are to be the featured church on the "Religious Shrines of Philadelphia" broadcast. This program has been used twice before and is deemed to be a helpful and effective presentation at the end of the Advent Season. The Reverend O. H. Bertram of the Redeemer Lutheran Church together with Mr. R. Benson of the Station are responsible for the material and mode of program. Our thanks.

OUR MUSICAL VOCABULARY—Twenty-two years ago the Church produced a new hymnal. Though two decades have passed, no congregation—to my knowledge—would claim to know, to be able to sing, or even to enjoy all of the hymns in that collection. The large Hymnal of 1940 has on pages 804-806 what is known as a Liturgical Index. It provides a very helpful guide for the use and selection of hymns as the Lectionary (pages vii-xiv in the Book of Common Prayer) does for the selection of Psalms and Lessons. These guides are designed to offer to the regular worshipper over each Christian Year the Churches' message in word and music. Every once in a while someone seems to miss a favorite hymn—drop me a postal card—let's see if it might be "properly fitted in."

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER—page 308—"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." May we count on your cooperation?
—C. P.

WEDNESDAY REMINDER!—Holy Communion at 7 a.m. every Wednesday, followed by a light breakfast (25c) and Bible study. Have you considered this opportunity for worship and study?
—E. L. L.

"UNIVERSE AND YOU" FILM SERIES: the fourth and final film in this unique series of science films, sponsored by the 1904 Club, will be shown this coming Monday at 8 p.m. in the Parish House. The title of the film: "Time and Eternity." Here is a film in the fourth dimension . . . TIME! It explains the meaning of time and space. The "time microscope" magnifies a split second. The "time compressor" squeezes days and weeks into minutes. The film is both beautiful and terrifying. The reality of eternity is presented as scientific fact. Even if you haven't seen any of the other films, come and see this one.
—E. L. L.

CHRISTMAS COMMUNIONS: any parishioners, unable to get to church at all and desiring to make their Christmas Communion should contact the Parish Office and set a date with one of the clergy for private Communion. During the days immediately after Christmas, Dr. Pratt and Mr. Lee are especially available, and would welcome the opportunity to bring the Sacrament to the shut-ins and infirm.

MOST SINCERE THANKS are extended to those members of the Parish who rallied on the evening of Saint Thomas' Day to decorate the Church for Christmas. The Clergy families were assisted by those who though few in number were able and willing to do all that had to be done. Our special thanks to Mrs. Esther Callis and the members of the Parish Altar Guild who not only prepared for the Christmas Services but also moved into the new Sacristry (which by the way is well worth a look) and with real thanks we appreciate Mrs. Merrill Kercher who came in from Media on the day before the Festival to arrange all the flowers.

REMEMBER during January we are to have with us on the 8th—the Churchwomens Club for their Epiphany Service.

on the 20th—Canon Frederick Arterton, Warden from the College of Preachers in Washington, D. C., to preach for Theological Education Sunday.

on the 27th—Bishop Zulu from South Africa.

on the last three Saturdays of the month—Special Organ Recitals by Mr. Royce.

MAN IN SEARCH OF MEANING"—This is the theme of a new seven week study seminar which will begin this coming Wednesday, January 9 and continue until February 20. Seminar sessions will begin at 8 p.m. in the Parish House and will be led by Mr. Lee. The aim of the seminar will be to look at the doubts and uncertainties of 20th Century man as expressed in two novels by Arthur Koestler and Albert Camus. These will be compared and contrasted to the Christian understanding about the purpose and destiny of man as presented in the book "The Meaning of Persons" by Paul Tournier, the famous Swiss physician and psychiatrist. Koestler's "The Age of Longing" and Camus' "The Stranger" are the novels to be read and studied. A flyer, with registration form, giving more information about this seminar is available in the porch of the church and on the literature tables in the Centennial Room and the Parish House. Fill out the registration form and mail or give it to Mr. Lee.
—E. L. L.

1904 CLUB: "English Cathedrals, Old and New" will be the topic of the first 1904 Club program for the new year, Monday, January 7, at 8 p.m. in the Parish House. Mr. Lee will show a filmstrip and slides of two famous cathedrals, the ancient Wells Cathedral and the modern Coventry Cathedral, both of which he visited this past summer. Refreshments will be served following the presentation.
—E. L. L.

JANUARY 20th is the Sunday that has been set aside in the Church of the Holy Trinity as the Day to Aid Theological Education. We will be most fortunate in having with us as the preacher Canon Frederick Arterton, Warden from the College of Preachers in Washington, D. C. Theological Education Sunday has become a cooperative venture embracing all thirteen seminaries of the Episcopal Church and is set forth officially each year by the Presiding Bishop. What is a seminary? It is a graduate school to which men come after they have received their college degree or its equivalent to receive training in the difficult art of being a priest in the Church. All of our seminaries are operating under pressures of financial need and it is, therefore, important that the lay people of the Church realize this need. One outstanding factor to remember is that the Church cannot go forward without trained leaders.

PLEASE NOTE: For reasons beyond control, it has been necessary to cancel the various Saturday afternoon programs of music which were to be offered on January 12, 19 and 26. We bespeak your support for those which are to be offered later in the season.
—C. P.

1904 CLUB: "What Do You Know about Monasteries?"—Monday, January 14 at 8 p.m. in the Parish House. Drawing upon his summer travels in Great Britain, Mr. Lee will discuss and present, with the aid of some remarkable films, the life and purpose of the medieval monastery. Perhaps you have read recently about the growth of monastic-like communities in Anglican and Protestant Christianity in Europe and America. Are they out of date for the 20th Century, or are they relevant to our problems and times? (This, and all of the 1904 Club programs are open to the Parish, the community, and friends of all.)

TODAY—SUNDAY THE 20TH—has been set aside as Theological Education Sunday. Please remember—the CHURCH cannot go forward and operate with maximum effectiveness without an adequate number of trained leaders.

OUR GUEST AND PREACHER OF THE MORNING, CANON ARTERTON, as the Warden of the College of Preachers is the director of what is best understood as a "Staff College of the Church." It has the great objective of advancing the preaching ministry of the Church and the effective presentation of the Gospel in and to the modern world. The Rector has been privileged to take work at this college.

Also at this service, the crucifer and lector will be John S. Mason, Seminarian Assistant at Holy Trinity and a senior at the Philadelphia Divinity School. Mr. Mason will also preach the sermon at Evening Prayer.

On this Theological Education Sunday we bespeak the full support of all members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity for this cause. The offerings will go to the Philadelphia Divinity School—the Seminaries of which the Rector and Curate of the Parish are graduates and to any of the other Seminaries of the Church which donors may desire to designate.

The Seminaries of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S.A. are as follows: General Theological Seminary, New York City; Berkeley Divinity School, New Haven, Conn.; Bexley Hall, Gambier, Ohio; Bloy House, Los Angeles; Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, Calif.; Philadelphia Divinity School; Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass.; Episcopal Theological Seminary in Kentucky; Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest, Texas; Nashtotah House, Wisconsin; Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary in Virginia; School of Theology of the Diocese of Long Island; School of Theology of the South, Tenn.; Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, Illinois.

PLEASE NOTE: The Rector's Seminar will not meet January 27 nor February 3, but will be continued on February 10.

THE SEMINAR FOR NEW TESTAMENT STUDY is designed to be of general interest to members and friends of the congregation and also to be a matter of especial concern for members of the Confirmation Class. Major problems and positions will be carefully examined. Lectures and question periods will be supplemented by selected reading lists. Adequate study in this field is—or ought to be—a basic discipline in the lives of our Church people.

OUR GUEST, SPEAKER AT THE MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION AND PREACHER OF THE MORNING—The Right Reverend Alphaeus H. Zulu, Bishop Suffragan of the Diocese of Saint John's in the Province of South Africa. His Diocese covers 18,000 square miles, with 900 churches, 98 priests and 100,000 communicants. Bishop Zulu is engaged in the training of 1500 catechists and lay preachers to supplement the work of the ordained clergy. We invite you to come to hear Bishop Zulu's message at the eleven o'clock service—bring your friends.

1904 CLUB: This Monday, January 28 at 8 p.m. in the Parish House—Part II of program entitled, "East Germany: World Hot Spot." The feature of this presentation will be a film called "East Germany: The Land Beyond the Wall." Filmed entirely beyond the Iron Curtain, this report of life in an East German town shows the persuasive influence of the Communist Party in every facet of daily existence. It includes interviews with university students, a businessman, a pastor, a university official, and Walter Ulbricht, chairman of East German's Council of State.

Some parishioners have been asking: "Can we come?" The answer is a most emphatic YES! Don't be mis-led by the word "Club." The programs are intended for everyone—parish, community, friends. You don't join anything, you just come!

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God. But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, He humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. Wherefore, God also hath highly exalted Him, and given Him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow; of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the Glory of God the Father.

The Prayer for the Whole State of Christ's Church.... Prayer Book, page 74

MR. FRANCIS J. CHESTERMAN — RECTOR'S WARDEN

When on the evening of Monday, January 21st, Mr. Francis J. Chesterman, the Rector's Warden of this Parish, entered into the larger life and the nearer presence of God, there were many who felt to the full a sense of personal loss at his passing. In the course of the fifteen months that we have worked together at the Church of the Holy Trinity it has been a rare and truly significant experience to know a continual disclosure of good works. In an age and at a time when there are so many signs of organized selfishness his was a continual act of self offering. To his Church and to the Philadelphia Divinity School, the Diocese of Pennsylvania; the schools of which he was an alumnus, hospitals and the Boy Scouts of America he was a never failing source of strength. Long committed to the principle that he would never ask of others that which he was not prepared to do himself, he inspired in those who knew him the offering of the best they had. We honor and appreciate the faithful witness of a truly dedicated life. We express to those of his family who sorrow at this time the full measure of our sympathy and in the presence of Almighty God we give thanks with joy for him.

—C. P.

THE RECTOR is away today having officiated at a wedding in Chicago on Saturday and then accepted an invitation to preach on Sunday in that city.

TRINITY CLUB INSTALLATION: This Sunday evening at Evening Prayer the newly-elected Board of Officers and Committee Chairmen of Trinity Club will be installed into office for the year 1963-64. Twenty-three men and women have been chosen by the Club membership to guide and direct the Club's extensive activities for the coming year. Week by week, from September through May, Trinity Club continues to exercise in this urban community one of the most important efforts of missionary outreach. Because Trinity Club is an integral part of our parish, Holy Trinity should be proud of the splendid work which this interdenominational fellowship performs. It is hoped that parishioners will make it a point to attend the Installation Service and offer their prayers and best wishes for the new Board.

FEBRUARY 17, AT 8 P. M.: A special program of contemporary Church music—selections for the small Church Choir; two new English Anthems; representative selections from the works of Leo Sowerby; a facet of cooperation—new hymns by organist and clergy—an anniversary hymn, Holy Trinity, New York City, and an Easter hymn, Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square.

"SIGNIFICANT PEOPLE OF THE 20TH CENTURY": This is the theme for a new series of programs to be sponsored by the 1904 Club on Monday evenings in February, 8 p.m., in the Parish House. Phillips Brooks once described preaching as "truth through personality." If we see people's lives as sermons of praise to God and service to men, then once again we shall have seen truth through personality. With the aid of films the lives of the following people and their contributions to history and mankind will be presented: this coming Monday, February 4, Winston Churchill; February 11, Woodrow Wilson and Gandhi; February 18, Albert Schweitzer; February 25, Helen Keller and Booker T. Washington. These programs are open to all. Come, and bring a friend.

Conductor: Frederick Royce

PROGRESS REPORT. Dr. Pratt is slowly responding to treatment. It is still requested by his family that all messages and inquiries should be addressed to and made at the Parish House.

LENTEN REMINDERS: In recent mailings, all parishioners have received flyers announcing two important opportunities for worship and study during Lent. The first is the series of five Parish Dinners and Speakers to be held on consecutive Thursday evenings beginning March 7. The general topic of this series will be "The Urban Role" and five excellent speakers have been scheduled who will help us see more clearly the nature of our mission in the city.

The second opportunity will be a seminar entitled, "Our Lives in Need of Devotion," which will run seven Wednesday evenings beginning Ash Wednesday, February 27. Using William Law's "A Serious Call to a Devout and Holy Life" as a basic text, the focus of this seminar will be to see the nature of true devotion and its place in our daily lives.

Plan now to attend one or both of these series. Reservation and registration forms accompanied the announcement of each. Send or phone them in now.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY CORPORATE COMMUNION and Breakfast for men and boys will feature the Reverend C. Kilmer Myers speaking on "The Ministry of the Laity" over a closed radio circuit on Saturday, February 23. This annual event will be held at various parishes throughout the Diocese, with Father Myers' address originating from the Cathedral Church of Christ in Roxborough. The host church for the men of Holy Trinity will be the Prince of Peace Church, 22nd and Morris Streets. Cost: $1.25, and reservations should be sent to Charles T. Cragg, 2132 Shunk Street. (FU 9-3835). The service will begin at 8 a.m., followed by the breakfast and the address. If anyone would like to go with Mr. Lee, who will be driving, please contact him at the Parish House.

"SIGNIFICANT PEOPLE OF THE 20th CENTURY": Third program in this series will be presented this Monday, February 18, 8 p.m., Parish House. The program will be "Albert Schweitzer," a feature-length film biography of the Nobel Peace Prize winner who has achieved world renown as a philosopher, theologian, missionary, physician, organist, and above all as a man who has devoted his life to serving his fellow man selflessly. The latter half of this film shows Schweitzer working in his famous hospital in Lambarene.

CONCERT OF CONTEMPORARY SACRED MUSIC: This Sunday, February 17 at 8 p.m. Frederick Royce and the Holy Trinity Choir will present a concert featuring contemporary church music. Among the selections to be presented will be canticles and anthems by three English composers; two new hymns with verses written by Dr. Pratt and the music of one composed by Mr. Royce; and representative selections by the famous American composer Leo Sowerby. Dr. Sowerby will be in Philadelphia this weekend and at 5:30 p.m. this same afternoon he will conduct his new work called "The Covenant" at Saint Mark's Church, 16th and Locust Streets. He also expects to be in attendance at the Holy Trinity concert in the evening. It is hoped and encouraged that parishioners will attend these significant musical events.

ASH WEDNESDAY, February 27, marks the beginning of the Season of Lent. This forty-day penitential period is a time for spiritual refreshment and re-dedication. Yearly, the Christian is called to return to basic training and commitment in prayer, in worship, in self-discipline, in stewardship, in study and in service. Lent is a season of penitence and preparation in order that we may understand and embrace more fully the meaning of Christ's Cross, Passion and Resurrection, the heart and core of the Gospel events of human salvation.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES:

7 a.m.—Holy Communion, followed by a light breakfast (25c) and Bible study
11 a.m.—Penitential Office and Holy Communion

THIS SUNDAY'S PREACHER: DR. PAUL RUSCH, Executive Director, Kiyosato Educational Experimental Project (KEEP), Koyosato Village, Yamanashi Prefecture, Japan. The words of the Reverend A. Theodore Eastman, Executive Secretary of the Overseas Mission Society, in his recent booklet, entitled "Letters from the Rim of East Asia," give us an excellent picture of Dr. Rusch: KEEP "cannot be introduced or understood apart from its founder and director, Dr. Paul Rusch. It was his dream. It became reality through his determination. It is propelled into the future by his deft planning and relentless drive. . . . While serving as an intelligence officer in postwar Tokyo, he became convinced that the future of Japan depended on its ability to replenish through democratic processes its depleted reservoirs of faith, food, good health, and hope for youth. Looking to his own heritage as a Christian and an American, he believed he saw a practical solution. He left the army in 1949 to see if it would work. His utterly simple plan (is) based, he says, on "the Master's action program: He fed them; He healed them; He taught them the abundant life; and He loved and forgave them." All of these essentials would have to be included, but in a down-to-earth way. "If Christianity has got what it takes, it must be realistic in meeting present day problems." The vehicle he chose to carry his dream forward was the practical system employed in frontier New England where the meeting house was the center of community life. Here is where information was exchanged, decisions made, minds and spirits nourished—all in a democratic manner. This then, (is) the core of his idea: to build a pragmatic, popular Christian community, and to make it the best that money could provide."

ON THE EVE OF LENT 1963

On the discipline of fasting—"I often think the doctrines of fasting in Lent and having meatless days are old fashioned. As a discipline and reminder of Christ's sufferings, both are right in principles, but I think we need to find more modern forms of self discipline. For instance, instead of giving up meat once a week it might be better to give up television. That would be a more meaningful self-denial in this day and age."—from "The 100th Archbishop of Canterbury—Arthur Michael Ramsay" by James B. Simpson.

With these thoughtful words by way of preface, I write from my hospital bed to make a special plea for your support to the Thursday Evening Lenten Programs. We need to know all that we can about—The Urban Role of the Church—

The splendid speakers, whose names you already have, are fully qualified to give us the best insights to the issues.

If you have not already signed up for the program, please do so as soon as possible.

Let this be your special Lenten dedication week by week this year.

God bless you for the support I know you will give.

Ever most faithfully,

Cuthbert Pratt.

8:00 p.m. Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Walter Cavanaugh

Preacher: The Rev. Mr. Lee

The following resolution was inscribed on the minutes of the Vestry at our meeting on February the eighteenth:

"It is with deep sorrow the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity records the death of Francis J. Chesterman, Rector's Warden, on Monday, January the 21st, shortly following the Vestry meeting of that date. The Secretary of the Vestry has been asked to convey to Mrs. Chesterman and the other immediate members of the family the heartfelt sympathy of the Vestry as a body. Mr. Chesterman had been, not only a very active member of our Parish life, but also in all matters pertaining to the Diocese. He was a member of the Standing Committee and a Trustee of the Divinity School. He had a sincere and spiritual interest in the welfare and in the future of our Church in the urban role we face in Center City. He had those qualities which our Church membership loved and respected and share with the Vestry in his passing. His high courage and Christian leadership in many important civic affairs will stand as a lasting memorial to his memory."

Respectfully,
Charles W. H. Bancroft,
Secretary to the Vestry

"WHO ARE YOU?"—A series of programs on the human personality. Monday evenings, 8 P. M., in the Centennial Room. This Monday, March 11, the second program in this series will feature the first of three presentations by the Reverend Robert G. Foulkes, S.T.D., Chaplain, Presbyterian Hospital. Chaplain Foulkes' topic: "How Come I'm Me?"—a discussion of the formative factors of personality development. As a trained and experienced pastoral counselor, Chaplain Foulkes' talks will reflect new insights about the human personality as gained through religion and psychiatry.

DAY DIVISION, WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY: Monthly meeting Thursday, March 14, beginning with luncheon at 1 P. M. The Reverend William J. Shepherd, Vicar of Saint Barnabas, will speak on "The Church and Life in Puerto Rico."

SECOND LENTEN PARISH DINNER ANND SPEAKER, Thursday, March 14, following Evening Prayer at 5:30 P. M. Our second speaker on the topic, "The Urban Role," will be the Reverend G. Paul Musselman, Associate Rector, Saint Paul's Church, Westfield, New Jersey, who in recent years has worked at the national level of the Episcopal Church in deepening and shaping our understanding of the Church's mission in and to the great urban centers of this country. Here is a knowledgeable and qualified man whom we all should hear. You can still make reservations for the dinner, and if you only have time for the address, then make it a point to come.

PERMIT ME to express most sincere thanks to all members and friends of the Parish and of the Radio Congregation for the many kindnesses which have been extended during my recent indisposition. I was allowed to leave the hospital on March 5th—since then all seems to be going well. Firm medical directives govern much of what I may do; but it is a treat to be out and with sincere appreciation to remember all of your many kindnesses.—C. P.

ON TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 19 the Church of the Holy Trinity will be host to the Reverend Dr. Martin Niemoller at a Service of Evening Prayer to begin at 8 p.m. Dr. Niemoller—no stranger to the members and friends of this congregation, will preach at that Service—his topic "I Am the Light of the World." We bespeak a warm welcome and loyal support for this outstanding Christian of the 20th Century. Save the time and date—plan to be present.
—C. P.

WITHIN THE CHURCH PORCH OF ALL HALLOWS, Tower Hill, London, a large notice board bears this inscription, "Take good care of your valuables—not all who enter these doors are converted!" It now becomes necessary—in the light of a recent exchange of correspondence between this Parish and our insurance company—to proffer the same admonition. Care and personal attention can do much to eliminate that which the company lists as "small claims." By making this a matter of personal attention you will be helping both yourself and the Church—most significantly.
—C. P.

FOLLOWING THE THIRD LENTEN PARISH DINNER on Thursday, March 21, we will have the privilege of having the Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, to address us. We do hope there will be a good congregation of people—members and friends—present to hear Bishop Hart. As you may know, Bishop Hart will retire in July and this gives us the opportunity of being both the recipients of his wisdom and being able to express personal appreciation to him for an Episcopate of twenty years.

If you want to come to the dinner, and have not previously signed up for it, please make your reservation at least two days before the 21st; otherwise, come to the Centennial Room at 6:45 p.m.

"WHO ARE YOU?" The second of three presentations by the Reverend Robert G. Foulkes, S.T.D., Chaplain, Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, especially prepared for this Monday night Lenten series on the human personality, will be given this Monday, March 18, at 8 p.m., in the Centennial Room. Chaplain Foulkes' topic will be: "HOW COME I'M ME?"—a discussion of the formative factors of personality development.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING FOR WORLD RELIEF: Each parish and mission in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is asked to set aside the Sunday of March 24th to take part in the "One Great Hour of Sharing" held for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. Prayers should be offered and gifts brought forward to support world relief work of the Church. The presiding Bishop has appealed to all bishops and priests for support and prayers. Locally, checks may be directed to the PB's Fund for World Relief, through Miss Florence Davies, Church House, 202 W. Rittenhouse Square.

YOUR LOYAL SUPPORT to Theological Education Sunday enabled the Church of the Holy Trinity to send gifts to Philadelphia Divinity School, $481.35; General Theological Seminary, $328.20; Episcopal Theological School, $94.10; Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, $94.10; Nashotah House, $15.00; and the College of Preachers, $75.00, making a total of $1,087.75.

"THE MOVEMENT TOWARD REUNION" is the title of a talk to be made to Trinity Club this Sunday evening, March 24, by the Reverend Eugene Carson Blake, D.D., Stated Clerk of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Dr. Blake has received national attention for his proposal for unity among several Protestant Churches and the Episcopal Church. He is an important person in the ecumenical movement, and he has made significant contributions of thought and effort to bring Christian Churches together in spirit and in dialogue. The Parish is encouraged to hear Dr. Blake. His talk will begin at 6:45 P. M. in the Centennial Room. —E.L.L.

"WHO ARE YOU?" This series of programs on the human personality on Monday nights in Lent has received enthusiastic support from those in attendance. This Monday, March 25, at 8 p.m. Chaplain Robert Foulkes of Presbyterian Hospital will give the third of his three talks in this series. His topic: "What Can I Do About It?"—a discussion of the religious and psychological processes of change. It is not too late to come to these programs, which are held in the Centennial Room, and which are followed by refreshments. —E.L.L.

OUR GUEST ON THURSDAY AT THE FOURTH LENTEN PARISH DINNER, the Reverend Frederick Rapp, Rector of St. Stephen's, Port Washington, New York, brings to us the rare experience of working in an area which is rapidly moving from a suburban to a semi-urban situation. Since this situation will increase more and more, his contribution will be of great help to us in terms of understanding. —C.P.

THE EPISCOPAL SERIES ON RADIO: Sunday, March 31, the eighteenth annual Episcopal Series, produced by The Parish of the Air of the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation, goes on the air on 450 nationwide radio stations. The preacher for this twelve week series will be the Right Reverend Henry I. Louttit, Bishop of South Florida. Music is by the famous Choir of Saint Bartholomew's Church, New York City. The Parish of the Air was set up within the framework of the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation to provide a means for interested Episcopalians to participate in the mission of the Church via radio and television. Tune in WFIL at 9 a.m.

"WHO ARE YOU?" The fourth session of this Monday night Lenten series on the human personality will feature a presentation by Edward J. Humphreys, M.D., Director, Institute for Alcoholism and Narcotic Addiction, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The title of Dr. Humphreys' talk will be: "What Makes Them Do It?"—a discussion on compulsive behavior of all sorts and degrees: alcoholism, addictions, sex, eating, etc., and how compulsive behavior affects all of us. Dr. Humphreys is a well known authority in this field and he will bring to us sound knowledge and experience and insights pertaining to the problems of compulsive behavior. Centennial Room—8:00 P. M. —E. L. L.

THE EVENING DIVISION OF THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY will meet on Tuesday, April 2 at 6:00 p.m. in the Centennial Room for dinner. They are privileged to have as the guest speaker, The Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Bishop Hart will retire in July after an Episcopate of twenty years so this will be an opportunity for this group to honor him for his work in this Diocese.

THIS THURSDAY, WHICH IS THE FIFTH (AND LAST) LENTEN PARISH DINNER, we will be privileged to have as our speaker, The Reverend Canon Edward N. West, D.D., Canon Sacrist of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. His ministry within the Cathedral Close is an outstanding one. A prolific author and recognized authority, he is one of the most widely consulted men in our Church at the present time, frequently desired as a speaker throughout the country. His war-time ministry to various groups in the metropolitan area gained for him recognition by various governments. We welcome him as the concluding speaker in this Lenten series. —C. P.

FRIDAY NIGHT, April the 5th at 8:30 p.m., there will be an Organ Recital in the church played by Mr. John Thrower, artist pupil of Mr. Royce. The congregation is invited to hear this extremely talented young man.

"FORSAKEN OF MAN" by Leo Sowerby—This is the annual presentation of this great and moving work telling the story of the Crucifixion in a twentieth century setting. Guest soloist will be Mr. Robert Bennett, a tenor, as the evangelist and Philip Steinhoff, baritone, as the Lord. Frederick Royce will conduct from the organ.

THE WORDS OF THE ANTHEM: And it came to pass when the time was come that He should be received up, He steadfastly set His face to Jerusalem, and a very great multitude spread their garments in the way. Others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitude that went before and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come he beheld the city and wept over it saying, if thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Who watched while Majesty rode on to die, crying Hosanna in a joyous song. Could'st thou not heed the distant warning cry of Heaven's apprehensive, waiting throng? Hosanna to men's King! Thine acclamations ring, While God the Father veils his face, And God the Son his griefs embrace. Sing thine own griefs, Jerusalem! Jesus saith, Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour, Father, glorify thy Name. Then came there a voice from Heaven saying, I have both glorified it and will glorify it again. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

"WHO ARE YOU?"—The final presentation in this Monday night Lenten series on the human personality will be made by George Christian Anderson, Director, Academy of Religion and Mental Health, New York City. Mr. Anderson's topic: "What's in the Future?"—a discussion of mental health and the roles and responsibilities of religion and medicine. This talk will bring to a close what has been acclaimed as one of the most interesting and informative series of programs sponsored by the 1904 Club this year. Have you attended any of them yet?
 —E. L. L.

WEDNESDAY, 7 a.m. Holy Communion, Breakfast, Bible Study.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, Day Division, will meet for luncheon at one o'clock, following Holy Communion at 12:15 p.m., in the Centennial Room. "A Lenten Meditation" will be given by Mrs. Minturn Wright, Vice Chairman, Dept., Prayer and Worship of the Diocese.

HOW MISSION-MINDED ARE YOU? To help you answer this question we call your attention to copies of a new monthly publication called COMPASS which is available free of charge on the literature table in the Parish House. Put out by the Overseas Mission Society of the Episcopal Church, COMPASS is a journal dedicated to reporting the overseas mission of the Church in the Anglican communion. Here is a new, intelligent and incisive look at the mission of the Church in the 20th Century. You should read it. There are ten free copies available each month.
 —E. L. L.

EASTER COMMUNION: The clergy are ready and indeed anxious to take Holy Communion during the week after Easter to all ill and shut-in people who cannot be at Church. We depend on your calling the parish office, LO 7-1267, and requesting that one of the clergy may come to you. When you call, a time will be arranged for the service. Please do not hesitate to ask.

THE EASTER OFFERING: It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our missionary and parochial budget needs. We are grateful to God that here at Holy Trinity the generosity of its people is enabling this Church to carry forward an effective ministry in center city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in a special thanksgiving to God for His blessings to us.

SATURDAY, APRIL 20 at 2 P. M. is the date when the Evening Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hold their Annual Card Party and Bake Sale. This is the one project of the year held by this group and so your support and attendance are earnestly solicited.

Articles for the Fancy Table will be greatly appreciated and they should be marked for Mrs. Hilda Chaddick or Miss Evelyn Foering; surprise packages can be left in the Parish Office in care of Miss Millicent Shell; and cakes, candies, cookies, jellies, salted nuts should be delivered the day of the card party and marked for the attention of Miss Miriam Cone. Your contributions will be most helpful.

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER, APRIL 21, Bishop Hart will be with us to preach and to administer Confirmation. Since this will be his last official visitation prior to his retirement, I am sure that the members and friends of the congregation will wish to make a special effort to be present at that time. Following the Service, the Fellowship Hour will provide opportunity to greet the Bishop and to welcome the members of the Confirmation Class of 1963.

—C. P.

THE PARISH INGATHERING OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING FOR SPRING will take place at the eleven o'clock service on April 28th. This is the time for all of the women to present the offerings which have been given in thankfulness to God for the many blessings they have received. If you are unable to attend, please see that one of the custodians receives your gift, Mrs. Lever F. Stewart is the custodian for the Day Division of the Woman of the Church of the Holy Trinity and Mrs. Lucretia Bentley is the custodian for the Evening Division.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING which will be held on Monday, April 29th, at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room provides an opportunity for all members to meet together, enjoy each others company at a social gathering, honor those who have been officers and workers in the life of the parish, hear reports and elect vestrymen, and transact whatever business seems necessary. Next week you will receive a reservation card to fill out and return to the Parish Office, but in the meantime—mark APRIL 29 on your calendar—the date of the Parish Meeting!

Pages 296-299 in the Book of Common Prayer

The Sermon Hymn: 153 (verses 1 and 3) ..... "Christ, whose glory fills the skies"

The Sermon: Preacher, The Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, S.T.D., D.C.L.

Bishop, The Diocese of Pennsylvania

The Offertory Anthem: This is the Day ..... Harold W. Friedell

(The offering to be received at this service is by designation for the Bishop's Fund).

Alleluia. This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. All hail to God's immortal Son, Who broke the chains of mortal time and space; Who hath from death eternal triumph won, And freed from lasting night God's errant race. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a sepulchre wherein was never man yet laid. There laid they Jesus therefore. Let me not sleep, the while my Saviour sleeps alone; Attend my soul, That I may make his grief my own. Hold to my lips the cup which my Saviour drank, I am athirst for sorrow's bitter wine; Place on my brow his diadem of pain, I would be crowned with Godhead's sigh. Thus may I fold within Divinity. Thus may I hold within my life Infinity. Why seek ye the living among the dead? Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified. He is not here, but is risen. Now unto the living Christ be glory, Sing unto the Lord of life and death. Sing O heavens, sing O earth; Hosanna to the most High. Angels and hierarchies and powers, souls of the righteous, Sing to God! Communion of saints in earth and heaven. All ye blessed of God, Sing Alleluia to his Name for ever! Alleluia.

The Collects and the Blessing

The Recessional Hymn: 96—

"The day of resurrection! Earth tell it out abroad"

The flowers on the Altar today are in loving memory of George Eyre Smith.

SAINT PHILIP AND SAINT JAMES

7 a.m.—Holy Communion

(Breakfast (25c), Bible Study)

12:15 p.m.—Holy Communion

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING TODAY: The Spring Ingathering of the United Thank Offering will take place at the eleven o'clock service this Sunday. Representatives of the women's organizations, Mrs. Lever F. Stewart, Day Division, and Mrs. Lucretia A. Bentley, Evening Division, will receive the offering. All money placed in the blue envelopes will go toward this thank offering and is used for missionary work in the Church.

MONDAY, APRIL 29th: Annual Meeting of the Parish at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room. Vestrymen will be elected, necessary business will be transacted and reports will be available from the various organizations.

TODAY IS NATIONAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE DAY: Marking another milestone in Episcopal Church-college relations, for the first time, all eight of our Episcopal Church-related colleges will take part in services today. These institutions of higher education joined last fall to form a Foundation for Episcopal Colleges, Inc., the purpose being to promote Christian higher education in the tradition of the Episcopal Church. The presidents of these eight colleges will preach in churches in eight cities in the East and Midwest.

A SERVICE OF WORSHIP DEDICATED TO NURSING will be held at The Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, Sunday Evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock. The Preacher will be the Reverend Robert C. Mathewson, Executive Secretary, Center City Christian Council; anthems by the Glee Club of the School of Nursing Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. This is an Inter-Hospital Service Honoring Hospital and Nursing Week, May 5-11. Students, graduate nurses and friends of nursing are invited to attend.

MORE THAN 800 CLERGY AND LAY DELEGATES will meet for the 179th Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania at the Church of the Holy Trinity, West Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, on Monday and Tuesday, May 6 and 7. This year's convention is significant in that the Bishop of the Diocese, the Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, will announce his retirement on the completion of 20 years. At the Monday night public mass meeting at 8 o'clock, Bishop Hart's successor, the present Bishop Coadjutor, the Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong, will deliver the principal address on the State of the Diocese. There are many items of important business to be brought before this Convention—the reconvening of the convention for the election of a bishop coadjutor; adoption of a near-million budget for 1964; rebuilding program for all Saints' Hospital; election of delegates to the 1964 General Convention; a medical expense plan to replace Blue Cross; missionary extension within the Diocese; plans for a new Church House; consideration of the employment of a full-time executive-administrator for the Department of Missions; disposition of the program for college work; possible change of date for the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

CONGRATULATIONS! Last Sunday the following persons were confirmed or received into the Episcopal Church by Bishop Hart: Mrs. Christine S. Morrison, Miss Mary Ann Parent, Mrs. Mabel Purdum and Mr. David R. Willour. We welcome these people into our midst and rejoice with them as they take their place in this parish family of God. The promise they affirmed at their confirmation or reception—"Do ye promise to follow Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour? (Prayer Book, page 297)—is one we have all made and would do well to remember and meditate upon. It is this affirmation which makes us all members of the Body of Christ here at Holy Trinity. It is always a joyful occasion to welcome those who will now know the fullness of Christ in His Church.

REMEMBER! Before you retire on Saturday evening, the 27th, set your clocks ahead one hour! Daylight Saving Time begins at 2 a.m. on the 28th.

8:00 p.m. A Service of Worship Dedicated to Nursing

Crucifer: Thomas Goings Preacher: The Reverend Robert C. Mathewson

The preacher for this service is the Executive Secretary, Center City, Christian Council; Anthem by the Glee Club of the School of Nursing Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. This is an Inter-hospital Service honoring Hospital and Nursing Week, May 5-11. Students, graduate nurses and all friends of nursing are invited to attend.

THE 179TH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA will hold a public mass meeting at 8 p.m. in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Monday, May 6.

Many, many thanks for the support and patronage given to the Annual Card Party and Bake Sale held by the Evening Division of the Church of the Holy Trinity. This affair was a very rewarding success. Again, thank you!

TUESDAY, MAY 7: The Annual Meeting of the Evening Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be held in the Centennial Room beginning with dinner at 6 p.m. There will be an evaluation of the program, election of officers and installation of the officers by Dr. Pratt.

THE DAY DIVISION OF THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY will hold their Annual Meeting on Thursday, May 9, and will be a "Go See Trip" to Saint James' Church, Kingessing. Officers will be elected and there will be an evaluation of the program.

CONGRATULATIONS are extended to Mr. Peter Camp who recently became a postulant for Holy Orders and who will begin his training and preparation for the Ministry of the Church next September when he enters the Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria, Virginia. Mr. Camp is a former president of Trinity Club, who became a member of this parish while serving so well in that capacity. As an acolyte he also serves regularly at the services of worship. He is a graduate of Williams College and the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Camp is married and he and his wife, Sylvia, recently became parents of a baby girl, Joanna, who was baptized here. Consistently in recent years, Holy Trinity has sponsored and supported men on their way to becoming Priests of the Church. Significantly, some of these men have come into our parish through Trinity Club, a fact which should remind us of the important work and witness that this group performs year after year. Holy Trinity's support of theological education is also to be commended. The strength and vitality of theological education in the long run will determine the strength and vitality of the Episcopal Church. Men and money are needed and the Holy Spirit is truly at work when parishes such as Holy Trinity are raising up both to the glory of God and His Church. Again, congratulations to Peter Camp! The congregation should make it a point to get to know this man who is offering himself to the Ministry of the Church.

PHILADELPHIA BACH FESTIVAL: 8:30 p.m. May 18 and 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. May 19. This program will be held in; but it is not sponsored by, the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square. The following program will be presented:—Saturday, May 18, 8:30 p.m.—Organ Recital; Robert Baker, Union Seminary, New York City. Motets for choir and orchestra; "Be not afraid" and "Praise to God." May 19, Sunday at 3 p.m. Recital by Temple Painter, harpichordist and John Perras, flutist.

May 19, Sunday at 8 p.m. Cantatas for Chorus and Orchestra numbers 76, 8, 11. "Die Himmel erzählen die Ehre Gottes," "Liebster Gott, wann werd ich sterben?" "Lobet Gott in seinen Reichen." Soloists, Vivian Wagner, Diana Curry, Robert Bennett, Malcolm Smith; Orchestra and Chorus Director
Frederick Royce. RESERVE SECTION SEATING FOR ALL THREE PRO-GRAMS BY $5.00 ADVANCE OFFERING TO: PHILADELPHIA BACH FES-TIVAL, 1904 WALNUT STREET.

The Parish Vestry at its meeting on April 30, welcomed those elected at the Annual Meeting on the 29th of April, Messrs. F. R. Goehring, S. Scott Stewart and Holstein DeHaven Fox as members for the class of 1963-1967 and Mr. John S. Fair, Jr. for the class of 1960-1964. The Rector having appointed William M. West, Esq. as Rector's Warden, the Vestry elected Horace Y.
Rogers, Esq. as Accounting Warden and Charles W. H. Bancroft, Esq. as Clerk of the Vestry.

On Sunday, May 19 at the eleven o'clock service the opportunity will be given to make an offering to the Presiding Bishop's Fund—a worthy cause which gives our presiding officer an opportunity to meet in the name of the whole Church such desperate needs as may from time to time come to his attention. Your response is asked for this appeal as Christian people in a land which beyond all question has been highly favored of God at a time when many are in great need and on the Sunday when we ask His Blessing for seedtime and harvest.

At eight o'clock on Sunday, May 19, there will be a corporate communion breakfast for the men of the Parish. Our guest speaker of the morning will be Robert C. Flanders, Esq., of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. In the light of the Rector's suggestion at the Parish Meeting that the men of the Parish move as soon as possible to become as active as the Women of the Church we bespeak the hearty response of our men to this opportunity. The work of the Brotherhood is well known throughout the Church and the plan on which it operates merits the careful consideration which a tested venture requires. Plan to be present.

MAY 13 in the Centennial Room: a program sponsored by the 1904 Club. To commemorate the year 1963 as a Centennial Year of the Civil War; and especially Abraham Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, a series will begin that will feature films and discussion about this great occasion of human freedom. To start there will be two films on Lincoln: "The Face of Lincoln" and "Meet Mr. Lincoln." All are welcome to come and learn.

Wednesday: 7:00 a.m.—Holy Communion, Breakfast (25c), Bible Study.

Thursday: 11:30 a.m.—Parish Prayer Group; 12:15 p.m.—Holy Communion.
7:00 p.m.—Choir Rehearsal.

ASCENSION DAY

Thursday, May 23rd

12:15 p.m.—Holy Communion

MONDAY, MAY 20: Program sponsored by the 1904 Club to which all are welcome. It begins at 8 p.m. in the (air-conditioned) Centennial Room. "Carl Sandburg at Gettysburg" is the title of this two-part program which continues our commemoration of the Centennial Year of the Emancipation Proclamation. In the first part, Sandburg, poet and authority on Lincoln, presents "Facts about the Civil War;" and in part two he describes "Lincoln the Man."

On May 27, which is the last of the programs which have been sponsored by 1904 Club, a special "End of the Season" dinner has been planned. This will be at 6:30 p.m. in the Centennial Room, cost $2.00. Reservations may be sent to the Parish Office marked to the attention of "1904 Club," or call Mr. Lee—and they should be received by Thursday, May 23. The concluding film in the series on Emancipation Proclamation Centennial commemoration will be "True Story of the Civil War;" plus evaluation of the past year and plans for next.

REMINDERS: Sunday, May 19 the opportunity to make an offering to the Presiding Bishop's Fund. Participation in this opportunity enables the Presiding Bishop to make his opportunity in the name of the whole Church a Christian Witness.

TRINITY SUNDAY, June 9: The flowers on the Altar that day will be a memorial to many people—those known to you, who having loved this House of God, are affectionately remembered. Small gifts from many will do much. The names of those thus recalled will be placed in a special book on the Altar that day.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

A NEW SEASON OF WORSHIP AND WORK: A summer of relaxation and reflection is over and for Holy Trinity Parish, it is the beginning of a new working year—it is a time to realize again our deepest purpose and dedicate ourselves anew to the work and Witness of this Parish.

Throughout the year there will be many opportunities for the parishioners, as well as their friends, to participate in educational study groups. From time to time interesting and informed guest speakers and preachers will come to the Parish for all to hear. The various organizations are ready to begin their work for the coming year and anticipate the loyalty and support of each and every person to insure a successful year.

LET US NOT FORGET the opportunities (other than the regular Sunday Services) for worship on weekdays: every Wednesday, Holy Communion at 7 a.m., followed by a light breakfast (25c) and Bible Study. Every Thursday and Prayer Book Holy Day, a Service of Holy Communion at 12:15 (noon).

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY: The newly elected officers of the Day Group are as follows: President, Mrs. George Eyre Smith; Vice Presidents: Mrs. Harry F. Angstadt, Program; Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Community; Miss Eliza Hall, Missions; Mrs. Harry S. May, Parish House;
Miss Grace Haupt, Treasurer; Miss Ethel R. Frank, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Miriam M. Heite, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Francis Murphy, Jr., United Thank Offering Custodian, and Mrs. Kenneth A. Syfrit, Publicity.

THE OFFICERS OF THE EVENING DIVISION, the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, are: President, Miss Marguerite Sibley; Vice President, Miss Salome P. Riegner; Treasurer, Miss Margaret Colflesh; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Sophia Ewell; Recording Secretary, Mrs. William Maurer; and the United Thank Offering Custodian, Mrs. Lucretia Bentley.

ALL WOMEN OF THE PARISH are invited to attend the meetings of the two groups—the Day Division meets the second Thursday of each month at 1 p.m. and the Evening Group meets at 6 p.m. every first Tuesday of the month. Announcements of the speakers for the opening October meetings will be made in a later bulletin. No special invitation necessary—just come and bring your friends!

TRINITY CLUB BEGINS THIRTEENTH YEAR: This Sunday evening, September 8th, Trinity Club young adults will begin its thirteenth year of interdenominational life and fellowship in the Delaware Valley area. This remarkable young adult group, the largest church sponsored young adult group in Philadelphia, has another outstanding schedule of Sunday night, weekday and monthly activities programs ready for the young men and women between the ages of 19 and 39 who live in the city or the neighboring suburbs.

To start the new season off, Trinity Club is both proud and honored to announce that its Keynote Speaker on Sunday, September 8 will be Dr.
George W. Taylor, Professor of Industry, Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania. Last spring Dr. Taylor was the recipient of the 40th annual Philadelphia Award established by the late Edward W. Bok to recognize one "who shall have contributed a service calculated to advance the best and largest interests of the community of which Philadelphia is the center." Dr. Taylor's efforts and achievements in the realm of settling labor and management disputes are famous, and it is he who has perfected collective bargaining as an effective instrument of settlement. Dr. Taylor's topic with Trinity Club will be: "Strikes and Their Effect on the Nation."

Trinity Club program booklets are available in the porch of the church as well as on the literature table in the Parish House. They are free and should be given as wide a distribution as possible. It promises to be a great year for Trinity Club!

OUR GUEST PREACHER at the eleven o'clock service this morning is the Right Reverend Stanley Eley, the Bishop of Gibraltar—one of the most interesting and important dioceses in the Anglican Communion. The Bishop is on his way home having been present at the Anglican Congress in Toronto and we are most happy to have him with us as our guest this morning.

THE ANGLICAN CONGRESS—WHAT IT WAS AND WHAT IT DID—A RECORD AND HOPES

Beginning this Sunday, September 15th at 9 a.m., the Rector will make a series of presentations on the Anglican Congress which from August 13-23, 1963 met in Toronto, Canada. This is one of the most important events in the life of our Church. Plan to be present. You will wish to be informed.

A REMINDER—at 9 a.m. in the Centennial Room, Dr. Pratt will present—"The Anglican Congress—What it was and what it did—A record and hopes." You will want to be informed about this event. Plan to be present. At 8:50 a.m.
coffee and doughnuts will be served.

CONFIRMATION CLASS: This year there will be two Confirmation Classes, one in the fall and the other in the spring, even though the Bishop's annual visitation is not until Rogation Sunday, 1964. The fall class will begin Saturday, October 12 with classes being held in the Parish House starting at 10:30 and ending at noon. All together there will be 10 sessions. Dr. Pratt and Mr. Lee will lead the class. As with past Confirmation Classes, this will also be an opportunity for those who simply want to inquire about the life and faith of the Episcopal Church but who do not want to commit themselves at this time. It is also an opportunity for Holy Trinity communicants to review their own life and belief as it pertains to the Christian faith. If you know someone who might be interested in this class be sure to tell them about it.

THE MEMBERS OF THIS PARISH are cordially invited to attend an Open House at Episcopal Community Services, 225 S. Third Street, Philadelphia, in honor of the Founder of the organization, The Rt. Rev. William Bacon Stevens and the Charter Associate members. Bishop Armstrong will dedicate a portrait to Bishop Stevens' memory. Tours have been arranged of both headquarters and the new building across the street. Refreshments will be served. The Open House is on September 29th from 3-5 P. M. Free parking, Brown's parking lot, 229-53 S. Fourth Street. Program promptly at 4 P. M.

HELP WANTED! The United Cerebral Palsy Association of Philadelphia has asked Holy Trinity for help in locating temporary residence for a period of eight weeks for young people, usually between the ages of 17 and 25 and afflicted with cerebral palsy, who have come to Philadelphia to receive vocational evaluation and training. Quite often these people are able to stay with relatives or friends, but every now and then one of them does not have such a contact and therefore needs a temporary residence. These young people are completely ambulatory and able to manage for themselves, and this opportunity for evaluation and training is an important step for them.
The Association would rather place these persons in a home rather than put them up in a hotel. There is a small financial remuneration. Any help in this matter would be greatly appreciated, and if any parishioner is interested, please contact Mr. Lee.

Crucifer: Walter Cavanaugh Preacher: The Curate

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

BOTH DR. PRATT AND MR. LEE will be attending a Clergy Conference on Thursday and Friday, October 3 and 4, therefore, the 12:15 noon Service of Holy Communion will be celebrated on Wednesday this week instead of Thursday.

THE CONFLICT AND TRAGEDY OF BROKEN COMMUNITY": This is the title and theme of the Fall Seminar which Mr. Lee will lead on eight consecutive Wednesday evenings beginning October 2, at 8 p.m. in the seminar room on the second floor of the Parish House.

The community of mankind has always been a broken community—a community where men are separated, alienated, divided. It is a cleavage which sets brother against brother, race against race, nation against nation, religion against religion. While the broken community is as old as mankind, it is always new with each generation and the 20th Century is no exception. Why is this so? Is it conceivable, much less possible that it will end?
And the Christian Gospel—is it relevant to this condition, or only another cause for further alienation? These questions will be considered in connection with the reading of three novels: "Cry, The Beloved Country," Alan Paton's classic novel set in the midst of racial tensions in South Africa;
"Bread and Wine" by Ignazio Silone in which the power of conflicting ideologies in pre-World War II Italy is explored; "The Enemy Camp" by Jerome Weidman in which the way religious conflict divides friends and families is exposed.

The Seminar is limited to 25 participants. Those who attend are expected to do the reading, enter fully into the group discussions, and attend all of the sessions if possible. Previous seminar experience is not necessary, nor previous knowledge on the subject. If interested, please inform Mr. Lee.

1904 FORUM BEGINS NEW SEASON: Forum? What happened to the 1904 Club?
Well, there has been some recent name changing, and the 1904 Club is now the 1904 FORUM. This change is in keeping with the change in programming which took place last year and is believed to be a more accurate description of what takes place on Monday nights at Holy Trinity from October through May. The emphasis of the 1904 FORUM is on the presentation of relevant and pertinent topics and a proper understanding and discussion of the issues involved. This will usually be done in the course of a series of programs on one topic. This allows for full exploration which is not always possible in a one evening program.

The 1963-64 FORUM begins Monday, October 7, with a big opening dinner at 6:30 P. M. in the Centennial Room. The cost is $2.00 and a reservation is necessary. Send in a postcard or phone the Parish Office. The program for the evening will begin at 7:45, and it will be the first of a series on the problem of race in the nation and the world. Plan now to attend the 1904 FORUM this year—and bring a friend!

ON TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 1, the Evening Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hold their first meeting of the season beginning with dinner at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room. The speaker of the evening will be Dr. Warren R. Lang, Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Jefferson Medical College, whose topic will be "EXPERIENCES IN SAIGON, VIETNAM" accompanied with Kodachrome slides. Dr. Lang's topic covers an area about which everyone is concerned with at the present time and for that reason the members of the Evening Group extend a special invitation to all members of the parish and their friends to come and hear Dr. Lang—his talk will begin at 7 p.m. All are welcome!

CONFIRMATION CLASS FOR FALL BEGINS SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12 at 10:30 a.m. and ends at noon. There will be ten sessions and once again they are offered to all persons interested in the Episcopal Church. For members it is a refresher course; for others, it will serve to prepare them for confirmation and membership if they so desire; for inquirers it will supply them with information. All are welcome! Dr. Pratt and Mr. Lee will lead the class.

NEXT SUNDAY—OCTOBER 13TH at the 11 o'clock service is the Parish Ingath-ering of the United Thank Offering of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity. The blue box which is in the home of practically every member of the Episcopal Church, if there are any grown women in it, stands for the religion of the 'thankful heart.' A woman slips a coin in the blue box and breathes a short prayer of thanksgiving. Twice a year the contents of these boxes are brought to the church and presented at a special service; then at the Triennial Meeting of the women of the Church, the offerings from all over the world are presented at a great service of thanksgiving and dedication and the funds thus gathered are spent in support of co-operative projects in need of financial aid.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24TH has been designated as Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday in the Church of the Holy Trinity.

First: Mark this date on your calendar and plan to be in Church on that Sunday.

Secondly: Start thinking about your own Stewardship. How do we begin?
We begin with ourselves individually; we start putting God first in our lives and in our pocketbooks—100% Stewardship to God of our TIME, TALENTS and TREASURE.

THE RECTOR'S SEMINARS ON THE ANGLICAN CONGRESS OF TORONTO have now reached the half-way mark. Interest and attendance have been good. On Sunday, October 27th there will be an opportunity to see the official photographs of the meeting, showing the leading personalities thereof.
Because this may be of special interest to many more than those who have come regularly, notice of it is given at this time. —C. P.

THE 1904 FORUM—MONDAY EVENING AT 7:45 P. M. EVERYONE is welcome—Holy Trinity Parishioners, people in the community, Trinity Club—Everyone! No age limits—and interdenominational, of course.. A film entitled "Face of the South" will be shown—study and discussion afterward. Light refreshments.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FALL CONFIRMATION CLASS will be held on Saturday at 10:30 a.m. ending at noon—inquirers, people wanting a review, are most welcome along with the regular candidates.

ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20TH at three o'clock there will be a Harvest Festival Service in the Church of the Holy Trinity. In the 'mother church' of our communion this has always been an observance of particular importance—to give thanks to God for the fruits of the Harvests can be as meaningful for city dwellers as for country folks. Come and welcome—a light tea will be served in the Parish House following the Service. —C. P.

IN ANY URBAN PARISH communication can become—from time to time—something of a problem. At some levels it is not of very great importance but at one level it is a matter of paramount concern. The Book of Common Prayer makes it clear—"WHEN ANY PERSON IS SICK, NOTICE SHALL BE GIVEN THEREOF TO THE MINISTER OF THE PARISH. . . ." Only as this is done can the ministry of healing and compassion be extended as it ought to be. For information at this level we depend on you. Do be sure to provide it. —C. P.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27TH, the women of the Evening Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will join together in the fellowship of a Corporate Communion at the 8 a.m. service. There will be coffee and doughnuts for those who wish to remain. At 9 a.m. there will be opportunity to attend the Rector's Seminar.

AT 8:00 P. M.—OCTOBER 27TH the Trinity Club will sponsor a dramatic adaptation of "Cry, the Beloved Country," by Alan Paton, to be presented by the Bishop's Company, a unique repertory company in its tenth year of touring coast to coast. Advance offering certificates at $1.50 may be secured by writing to Trinity Club, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania, for this production which is to be held in the church.

IMPORTANT EVENTS IN NOVEMBER!

NOVEMBER 14 at the Barclay—The Annual Christmas Bazaar and Card Party. The success of this project depends on the contributions, participation and support of the entire parish.

NOVEMBER 24 IS STEWARDSHIP-LOYALTY SUNDAY in the Church of the Holy Trinity. When we are thinking about our stewardship—may we remember that the Christian steward gives cheerfully—not reluctantly—in response to God's love for him and what He has done for him. Time, talents and treasure—give cheerfully.

Mrs. Earl Thomas.

The Serving Hostesses at the Post Service Fellowship in the Parish House are Mrs. J. S. Patterson and Linda Snow.

Three o'clock in the afternoon - Harvest Festival Service

(Separate leaflet) to be followed by tea in the Parish House

Five forty-five p.m. - Trinity Club Supper and Speaker

"The Plight of the Cuban Refugee"—The Reverend E. Pinkney Wroth, Dean of Holy Trinity Cathedral, Havana, Cuba.

Eight o'clock in the Evening - The Service of Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Thomas Goings

The Preacher, the Curate.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

THIS AFTERNOON AT 3 O'CLOCK there will be a "Harvest Festival Service" in the Church of the Holy Trinity. We will gather together to give thanks to God for the fruits of the harvests. We do hope you will attend this meaningful service and also come to the Parish House after the service where a light tea will be served.

THE 1904 FORUM—MONDAY EVENING AT 8 P. M. in the Parish House, a film entitled "The Racial Crisis in South Africa" will be shown. This is a documentary presentation of the background and development of the problems of apartheid in South Africa. This program will also provide good background for the performance of an adaptation of Alan Paton's "Cry the Beloved Country" by the Bishop's Company on Sunday, October 27th in the Church of the Holy Trinity.

THE FALL MEETING OF THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA will be held Tuesday, October 22nd, at Saint Elisabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets. This meeting is for men and women. The Woman's Aid to Convocation meets at 3 p.m. and the speaker at this time will be the Reverend William J. Shepherd, recently returned from Puerto Rico. Evening Prayer is at 5:15, dinner at 6 p.m. served by the women of Saint Elisabeth's at a cost of $1.25.
Reservations should be sent to the Reverend Edward McCoy, 1604 Mifflin Street. The men's meeting follows the dinner.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27TH at the 8 a.m. service, there will be a corporate communion for the members of the Evening Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, followed by coffee and donuts served in the Centennial Room. At nine o'clock, Dr. Pratt will show official photographs of the Anglican Congress in Toronto—all are welcome, even if you have not been attending the Anglican Congress Seminar regularly, as these pictures will no doubt be of interest to many.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 27TH at 8 p.m. offers an opportunity for attending the presentation by the Bishop's Company in the Church of the Holy Trinity Alan Paton's "Cry, the Beloved Country." This is sponsored by Trinity Club.
A look at the front page of any newspaper will indicate the pertinence of such a presentation to life in the world today. Do not miss this opportunity —send to Trinity Club, 1904 Walnut St., Philadelphia 3, Pa., for the number of advance offering certificates that you need at a price of $1.50 for each certificate.

CHRISTMAS CARDS. What could be more appropriate than a reproduction of the original manuscript of "O Little Town of Bethlehem" . . . with a specially designed cover? Cards are being sold by the Evening Group, priced at 2 for 25c or $12.50 a hundred. Any quantity of cards and envelopes may be ordered for prompt delivery. Send checks and orders to Miss Laura Abrams, Treasurer, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 3.

NOVEMBER 14 AT THE BARCLAY—The Annual Christmas Bazaar and Card Party given by the women of the Day Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Plan to participate—by contributions—by helping in any way that you are able—and by attending.

NOVEMBER 24—STEWARDSHIP-LOYALTY SUNDAY: This week when we are thinking about our stewardship, may we think in terms of GIVING as good stewards rather than simply underwriting the budget of the Church. Giving is a part of the Christian experience and we need to give as good stewards of that which God has entrusted to us.

The Altar Guild members for October are Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Mabel Corps, Elizabeth Laws, Frances Lindsay, Grace MacAllister, Emaa McClintock and Mrs. Earl Thomas.

The Serving Hostesses at the Post Service Fellowship in the Parish House are Lucretia Bentley and Elizabeth Pinchback.

Five forty-five p.m. - Trinity Club Supper and Speaker

"The Problem of Race in South Africa"—William B. Schwab, Ph.D., Professor, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Temple University.

Eight o'clock in the Evening -

The play, "Cry, The Beloved Country" based on the novel by Alan Paton. will be presented by The Bishop's Company in the chancel of the church.

ALL SAINTS' DAY—FRIDAY, November 1—Holy Communion 12:15 and 5:30 p.m.
An evening service of the Holy Communion is provided on All Saints' Day as an especial aid to those of this and other Parishes who work in Center City.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME ENDS—Sunday, October 27. Set your clocks.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 28th—ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE—Holy Communion, 12:15 Noon.

ON TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 29TH at 7 p.m. the members and friends of the congregation may hear a broadcast over Radio Station WFLN-FM which will feature the work of Mr. Frederick Royce at the Organ of the Church of the Holy Trinity. This tape was made last summer and promises to be most worthwhile.

PLEASE DON'T FORGET—THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH—The date of the Annual Christmas Bazaar and Card Party—to be held at the Barclay Hotel 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Merchandise, workers, and contributions are still needed.
For further information please contact Mrs. George E. Smith, LO 7-7225.

Following the Corporate Communion of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Evening Division at the eight o'clock service this morning, there will be an opportunity—following a light breakfast in the Centennial Room to see the 'official set of slides' of the Anglican Congress taken last August in Toronto, Canada. This presentation may be of interest to many of our people who have not been in regular attendance at the Seminars.
All should feel most welcome.

Reserve, as we are sure you already have, the hour of eleven and the date of November 24th—for Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday and for your personal response at that time. All who have been asked to serve in any capacity in connection with this program should indicate their personal willingness so to do as soon as possible. This information is urgently needed for the completion of the pre-program plans now under way.

1904 FORUM: Remember that the meetings of the 1904 Forum which are being held each Monday evening at 8 p.m. are open to you and your participation is desired. Plan to be among those present for a very vital series of presentations which are proving to be most helpful in the furtherance of better understanding of the complexity of issues in the areas of racial tension both here and abroad. This Monday, October 28, the Forum will examine the rise and purposes of the "protest movement," the protest that is made by such practices as sit-ins, wade-ins, kneel-ins, stand-ins, etc. With the help of a Chet Huntley TV film called "Sit-In," we will get a first hand glimpse of non-violent, direct action protest on the part of people wanting their civil rights. Refreshments served.

TONIGHT AT 8 P. M.—CRY, THE BELOVED COUNTRY—A dramatic adaptation of this classic novel by Alan Paton will be presented in the church by the Bishop's Company. The Bishop's Company has earned and gained great renown for their drama-in-the-church presentations. Last year they presented an adaptation of C. S. Lewis' "The Great Divorce" here at Holy Trinity, and this year Trinity Club is again sponsoring their presentation of "Cry, The Beloved Country." Set in the midst of the racial tension of South Africa, this play exposes the great human tragedy that is involved when men are divided by race contrary to the will of God and the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
Everyone is urged to attend this play and to bring their friends with them.
Early arrival is suggested in order to get the better seats in the church, especially the galleries and the center aisle nave. There will be an offering and a $1.50 donation is requested.

ALL SAINT'S DAY can be one of the most meaningful days within the Christian Year. Here is an opportunity to call to mind the fact that we are all—"called to be saints"—and that the fulfillment of this calling is a matter of paramount importance. The day also affords an occasion wherein we recollect those nearest and dearest to us who have departed this life. We affirm with renewed insight that we believe in the "communion of the saints." These considerations loom large as we offer the services above for this great act of remembrance.

C. P.

DON'T FORGET!—It is as important that the Parish Office be kept informed not only when you go to the hospital, if that is necessary, but also when you leave. Joy that you have been able to return home in improved health is somewhat diluted—when after the Clergy of the Parish have made a long trip to the hospital to call on you they are informed—often in a rather round about way—that you have been discharged! Full information, please, that our Ministry to the Sick might be as effective as it ought to be.

1904 FORUM—The fifth program in the series of "Crises in Race Relations" will feature a presentation and discussion of the film "Broken Mask." The theme of this film is that of mutual responsibilities in racial matters, responsibilities that must come from all participants in the crisis, negro as well as white.
The Forum will meet at its usual hour, 8:00 P. M., in the Parish House.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

LAST CALL for loyal supporters of the Annual Christmas Bazaar and Card Party to be held at The Barclay, Thursday, November 14! Don't forget the DATE!
Be sure to come and bring your friends! Table reservations may still be made through Mrs. Bitter in the Parish House. Last minute tickets may be purchased at the door. Packages for the Bazaar must be brought to the Parish House no later than Monday, November 11. Please bring all donations of perishable merchandise to The Barclay, on the morning of November 14.

IF YOU haven't seen the Christmas Cards that are being sold by the Evening Group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, there is a sample in the Parish House. It is a reproduction of the original manuscript of "O Little Town of Bethlehem." The cover was especially designed by one of our own parishioners—Laura Abrams. The price is 2 for 25c, or $12.50 a hundred, and any quantity of cards and envelopes may be ordered. You will be helping the Evening Group if you order. Send checks and orders to Miss Laura Abrams, Treasurer, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24—Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday—Have you ever heard a statement which goes something like this?—"If you give liberally things will start turning out better for you." Personal gain should not be the motive for giving—we give so that we may receive. We have already received and that is why we give! We return to God of what we have already received.

FALL INGATHERING for the United Thank Offering of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held on Wednesday, November 20 at 8 p.m., at St. Mark's Church, 1625 Locust Street. The speaker will be Miss Averill E. Greet, staff member of the India Christian Mission Children's Home, Ceylon. In view of the great interest in the United Church of South India and the recent grants which the U.T.O. has made in that area, a speaker from the Interdenominational Mission which Miss Greet represents is most timely.

A UNITED SERVICE ON THANKSGIVING EVE of the Convocation of South
Philadelphia will be held in the Church of the Holy Trinity on Wednesday, November 27, at 8 p.m. This is an effort on the part of the convocation to do something TOGETHER in a united Witness. In order for it to succeed, the support of the entire membership is needed. The Reverend Arthur L.
Kinsolving, D.D., Rector of Saint James, New York City, will be the guest speaker. Mark the date on your calendar and plan to attend.

BISHOP ARMSTRONG has appealed to the parishes for a Thanksgiving Offering this year to cover the cost of Chapel maintenance and the Chaplaincy Service at Episcopal Hospital. Last year's costs were $25,233 and the parish offerings, $16,398. The Chaplaincy Service provides bedside ministrations and services in the Chapel for patients, as well as counseling for student nurses and employees, guidance for the Student Christian Association, clinical training for divinity students and special services for older patients in Harrison House.

AT A SPECIAL LUNCHEON held at the Bellevue Stratford Hotel on Wednesday, October 23, the Rector received in the name of The Church of the Holy Trinity the First Award for Public Service in the Field of Radio Broadcasting to be made by Radio Station WIP. The plaque with this citation is now placed in the Parish House. On the last Sunday in November we shall observe 41 years of association with WIP during which time they have broadcast from the Church our eleven o'clock service. To the best of my knowledge this is the oldest service which is broadcast and which has been continually so offered in North America.

304 FORUM: Sixth and final program in series "Crisis in Race Relations," Monday, November 11, 8 p.m. Integrated housing and communities is a crucial testing ground for the ultimate success of race relations. A filmstrip entitled "The Good Neighbor," produced in co-operation with the Philadelphia Commission on Human Relations, will show what can be done to avoid panic and make integration an orderly, democratic process.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

ANGLICAN CONGRESS reports are to be concluded today with a review of the material in the "Message" sent by the Congress to the member Churches of the Anglican Communion. Since this is the only official communication from this gathering, an understanding of it is a matter of no little importance. An examination of this communique will conclude the current Sunday morning Seminar which has been held at nine o'clock. Next Sunday we shall be busy with our plans for the Stewardship-Loyalty Program and on the first Sunday in December (Advent I) the men of the Parish are to see the slides of the installation of Dr. Arthur Michael Ramsey as the 100th Archbishop of Canterbury. We shall then be busy with our Advent preparations for Christmas and the Sunday morning seminars will be resumed early in the new year.

ONE WEEK from today at the eleven o'clock service we shall observe STEWARD-SHIP-LOYALTY SUNDAY. I have found this on the two past occasions when I have shared it here to be a very meaningful service. It becomes so as—and only as we have the full support of the whole Parish. When you are asked to be present, if you possibly can, plan to be in Church at that hour on that day. It is true that we need and must have your full financial support but it is a matter of great encouragement when you come and bring your gift to God yourself. Knowing you will understand and respond to this request in the manner in which it is made, I look forward to seeing you—especially next Sunday.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Holy Communion — 9 a.m.

Morning Prayer and Sermon — 11 a.m.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 1 at 8 a.m.—MEN'S ADVENT CORPORATE COMMUNION for all men of the Parish.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY (Evening Division) are again collecting postage stamps—commemorative issues only, to aid scholarship funds of the Church Divinity School of the Pacific. Also used spectacles and magnifying lens are still needed. Any of these may be left or sent to the Church Secretary marked for the Evening Group.

TELEVISION STATION WRCV (Channel 3) is dramatizing the story of the Seamen's Church Institute on Sunday evening, November 17, from 6:30 to 7 p.m. This provides an opportunity for all Episcopalians to get a first hand picture of a Missionary Endeavor which is being carried on with their assistance. The title of the picture is "Home from the Sea."

A special note for Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday. On May 29, 1863 a report given to the Parish Association indicated that the Parish of the Church of the Holy Trinity extended only from 18th and Market to 18th and South Streets and west to the Schuylkill River. From this area came Sunday School and Bible Classes numbering 723 scholars and 46 teachers—called by Phillips Brooks, "The Nursery of the Church."

Holy Communion—9 A. M.

Morning Prayer and Sermon—11 A. M.

We are Counting on Your Being Present at Church on Sunday at Eleven
FOR CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH
Membership Is Partnership

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF
THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their Church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed, because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge, others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward (unless this is physically impossible) together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two Wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time.
May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in, or ill, or prevented by conditions of work, and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon. Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

No Trinity Club meeting: no evening service—all will attend the opening session of the 1963 General Assembly of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in Convention Hall.

THE MESSIAH, by G. F. Handel

8 p.m. — Sunday, December 8

SPECIAL BAZAAR FOR EVENING GROUP: From four until six on December 3rd, Bazaar articles will be on sale in the Centennial Room. This is for the convenience of those who were unable to attend on November 14th. Come one, come all.

The members of the Evening Division will have dinner at six in the Centennial Room on the 3rd of December after which they will go to the Philadelphia Divinity School for a tour of the school and to hear a speaker on Saint Luke in their Chapel.

ON A 'FIRST COME FIRST SERVED BASIS' some tickets are available at the Parish Office and may be had for the asking—they are for admission to the meeting of the National Council of Churches on the evening of Tuesday, December 3rd at Convention Hall.

THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY, DAY GROUP, will meet on Thursday, December 5th (please note change of date), preceded by the 12:15 noon, service of the Holy Communion in the Church. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock in the Centennial Room. After lunch the Rev. Dr. John Craig Roak, Rector of Gloria Dei (Old Swedes) Church will describe a beautiful Scandinavian custom—the St. Lucia Fest—observed at the Christmas Season and presented every year at Gloria Dei Church. Reservations for lunch—$1.00—must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, December 2nd. Mail a card or telephone LO 7-1267 in plenty of time.

THE RECTOR, WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN of the Church of the Holy Trinity at their meeting on Monday, November 18th—elected Mr. Neale C. Bringhurst to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Admiral James L. Kauffman (U.S.N. Retd.). Mr. Bringhurst is well known to the members and friends of the Parish and we welcome him to this new field of service in the Church.

MOST SINCERE THANKS are extended to all who in their several capacities made possible the presentation of the Annual Parish Bazaar and Card Party. To those who made for, worked at and came to this event in the life of Holy Trinity our deep appreciation. It would seem that we have come a long way from the first such event in February 1921 which secured $163.00.

MR. GOEHRING, Chairman of the Stewardship-Loyalty Campaign for 1963 wishes to thank the following people for their diligent efforts which made this project so successful:

Co-Ordinator, Horace Rogers; Team No. 1, Captain Charles W. H. Bancroft; Canvassers, Mrs. Howard A. Foster, Mrs. F. R. Goehring, Elizabeth Pinchback, Kenneth A. Syfrit and William M. Dedication of a Lectern Bible—In the Revised Standard Version—Given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Robert Berwyn Platt (Taken from The Book of Offices commended by General Convention 1960).

Let us proceed with a grateful sense of God's mercies.

Reverend Sir, I present to you this Bible to be set apart with Thanksgiving for the service of Christ's Holy Church.

All things come of Thee, O Lord

Answer—And of thine own have we given Thee

Prosper thou the work of our hand upon us;

Answer—O prosper thou our handiwork

Show thy servants thy work

Answer—And their children thy glory

Let us bless the Lord

Answer—It is meet and right so to do

Let us Pray

Thanksgiving and honor and glory be unto Thee, Almighty God, that from ancient times thou hast put it into the hearts of men to make offerings for thy service, and hast been pleased at all times to receive them at their hands. Mercifully accept this Bible which we devoutly offer and set apart to thy glory and in memory of Robert Berwyn Platt.
And grant that this gift may be found worthy through thy blessing to magnify thy name, to benefit thy Church and to minister grace and joy to those who rightfully use it; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the Holy Spirit, be all praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

O Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son taught the disciples in all the scriptures the things concerning himself; we thank thee for the revelation of thy ways contained within this book, and we pray that thou wilt grant us so diligently to search thy Holy Word, that we may be wise unto salvation and furnished unto every good work, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE 1904 FORUM: The third and last presentation in a series of "The Advent Season and Its Themes" will be made in the Parish House on Monday evening beginning at 8 p.m. The subject of the presentation and discussion will be "The Ministry of the Church" and as a basis for this there will be shown a highly acclaimed film entitled "Minister." The film will document the opportunities, problems and duties of the Christian ministry in the 20th Century. As always, refreshments will follow the program.

HAVE YOU SENT IN YOUR RESERVATION for the Breakfast which follows the Service of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. on Saint Thomas' Day, Saturday, December 21st? After the breakfast we go up into the Church and decorate for Christmas. There is much to be done and it is hoped as many people as possible will come and unite in a time of fun and fellowship. So—send in your reservation for the breakfast or call the Parish Office LO 7-1267.

THE BAZAAR—To those who contributed time and effort, to those who donated articles for various booths, to those who lent interest and support—to all those many individuals, the Women of Holy Trinity Church wish to express deep appreciation. Without such cooperation the Annual Christmas Bazaar would not have been possible.

PRIZE-WINNING SERIES OF FILMS on Church's Mission on WFIL-TV: A prize-winning series of 13 films is being shown on WFIL-TV each Sunday morning at 7:10 a.m. Under the title of "Adventurous Mission," the films were made throughout the world, and describe the church's missionary work.

LOOKING AHEAD!—Keep in mind that at 9 a.m. beginning on Sunday, January 12th, Dr. Pratt will begin a series of seminars. The first one, via film strip is "A Look at the Vatican Council"—Session No. 1.
A light breakfast for those attending will be served. Fill out your name and address and mail it to the office, or put it on the alms basin on Sunday morning—this will let us know you are coming.

I plan to attend the new series of Seminars presented by Dr. Pratt beginning on Sunday, January 12th.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

MR. LEE TO LEAVE HOLY TRINITY APRIL 1ST: Holy Trinity's Curate, The Reverend Edward L. Lee, Jr., has accepted the call of the Commission for College Work of the Diocese of Pennsylvania to become the first, full-time Episcopal Chaplain at Temple University in Philadelphia. Mr. Lee will start his new work on April 1st of this year, and will remain in his present position at Holy Trinity until that time. At Temple, an academic community often referred to as a "commuter college" because so many of its students are non-resident, Mr. Lee will minister to Episcopalians at all levels of the University—student, faculty and administration. He will also minister to all people from other branches of the Anglican Communion who are at Temple.
He will share in the ecumenical ministry at Temple through his participation and presence on the Protestant Advisory Board, the main emphasis of which is the recently established Church and World Institute, a place and program on the Temple campus which is striving to help Temple students answer the question: What does it mean to be a Christian student at Temple University? As Chaplain at Temple, Mr. Lee will be associated with the Church of the Annunciation, 12th and Diamond Streets, where, while having no parochial responsibilities, he will share in the conduct of worship and preaching. Mr. Lee came to Holy Trinity in June 1959, upon his graduation from the General Theological Seminary, New York City. He has been here for almost five years.

ON JANUARY 19th at 9 a.m.—The Rector's Sunday morning breakfast seminar.
The topic to be considered will be "The Celtic People and the Celtic Church."
A light breakfast will be made available. Plan to attend.

LOCAL ECUMENICITY: The Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches serves 24 denominations. The absence of communication between churches is pathetic—local ecumenicity is vital. The Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches, which covers the same area as the Diocese of Pennsylvania, is the local instrument for bringing churches together on a common meeting ground, and for stimulating interchurch action. Under the Council's roof, officials of 24 denominations plan together for wiser placement of churches, make surveys, and make suggestions which save money and effort. Leaders responsible for different phases of church work, such as youth, relief, publicity, social welfare, etc., discuss their mutual problems and gain new ideas.

Over 500 Protestant Churches are members, and as they gradually come to know each other, are beginning to realize how much they hold in common. Fresh understanding and appreciations grow.

THE RIGHT REVEREND ROBERT L. DeWITT, Suffragan, Bishop of Michigan, was elected Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania at the re-convening of the convention on Thursday, December 12. As coadjutor, Bishop DeWitt will be in line to succeed the Right Reverend J. Gillespie Armstrong as the diocesan bishop. Bishop DeWitt is presently the Suffragan Bishop of Michigan. He is Bishop No. 573 of the Episcopal Church (House of Bishops, 193).

EPIPHANY AND PRE-LENT: January 6th marked the beginning of the third season of the Christian Year—Epiphany. January 26 is the start of Pre-Lent.

Epiphany celebrates the recognition of Jesus Christ as the universal—not an exclusively Judaistic—Saviour. Symbolic of this recognition are the Three Kings who worshiped the infant Christ with precious gifts.

Pre-Lent prepares for Lent, which remembers His 40-day fast in the wilderness and His passion and death.

Holy Communion, 12:15 noon)

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY—January 26, 1964—Before a man can "put his collar on backward" an enormous investment has to be made. It takes three years of time, thousands of dollars, an uncountable output of energy, prayer, study and personal sacrifice. Once a year, on the Sunday nearest January 25, the whole Episcopal Church has the chance to share in this investment. This year, on January 26, support education for Holy Orders with your attention, your prayers, and your special offering for the seminaries of the Church.

As the Lenten Season approaches beginning with Ash Wednesday, February 12th, there are certain events which we would like to call to your attention in advance so that you may mark the dates on your calendars as each one merits your attendance.

First, the Parish Lenten Program in the Church of the Holy Trinity will be held this year every Thursday for five Thursdays beginning February 20th and ending March 19th. Complete details of this program will be sent to you very shortly.

This year three Center City Churches will hold a series of three united Church services, to be held on Wednesday evenings, March 11, 18 and 25—
First Baptist Church, The First Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia and the Church of the Holy Trinity.

For the women, the World Day of Prayer will be held on Friday, February 14th. What is the World Day of Prayer? The World Day of Prayer, observed each year on the first Friday in Lent, is sponsored by women of the major Protestant and Orthodox communions. It has a meaningful history of more than 75 years. Prayer and giving for the world-wide mission of the Church have been its primary purpose. It has traditionally brought people together across denominational, racial, national, and cultural boundaries to pray for the needs of the world and to make an offering for carrying out the Church's mission around the world.

Now, for the men:—Can you imagine the tremendous spiritual impact that would result if 1,500 of our laymen gathered together in ONE place for Corporate Communion and Fellowship? Not only would such an event provide an inspiring witness to the men and boys attending, but strong repercussions would also extend to others in the Greater Philadelphia area. For this reason, the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew has consolidated the February 15th Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion into one location.
It will be held at 9:00 a.m. (one week prior to Washington's Birthday) at the Valley Forge Military Academy Chapel in Wayne, Pennsylvania. The speaker will be the newly elected Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese, Bishop Armstrong has asked each parish to make this an outstanding service of worship. Timely information concerning all details will be furnished later but in the meantime plan to attend.

The splendid response to the new Sunday morning breakfast seminar series is most encouraging—feel free to come and join with the group if you have not already done so—there is still plenty of time. The volume of material provided and the general interest shown for the first session was such that we are to extend the Vatican Council presentation—with film—for a second week, and proceed to the study of the Celtic Peoples, and the Celtic Church on January 26.

HOW WELCOME CAN YOU GET?

If after kirk ye bide a wee—there's someone here wad speak to ye
If after kirk ye rise and flee—we may seem cold and strange to thee
The one that's in the pew with ye—is maybe just as strange as ye.

With all our joys and all our cares
Add thou thy soul unto our prayers
And be our angel unawares.

Greet and be greeted—shake hands with those within reach—sign a pew card—come into the parish house for the Post Service Fellowship
—a cup of bouillon, tea or coffee and a bite to eat. —C. P.

BAZAAR REPORT—On January 9th, 1964, Mrs. S. Winslow Densmore, Treasurer of the Church of the Holy Trinity Bazaar, held November 14th, 1963, at the Barclay Hotel, delivered the financial report of the Bazaar to Mrs. George Eyre Smith, Bazaar Committee Chairman, who is happy to report the sum of $1,800.00 net proceeds realized from this annual affair. To the many friends whose gifts and assistance made this splendid result possible, the Bazaar Committee extends their sincere thanks.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON DURING LENT:—Each Tuesday afternoon in the course of the Lenten Season, there will be an opportunity to meet for a cup of coffee and a program of Bible Study which will begin at four o'clock. The program will last until Evening Prayer at five p.m. This will be a Lenten opportunity for those who do not like to, or cannot come out in the evenings, and the service at five will then make it possible for all to be on the way home by about half past five. Bible study is a matter of great importance as well as an issue of personal interest. Here is a Lenten opportunity to which a response is solicited.

THE LAST SUNDAY IN THE MONTH OF JANUARY—The beginning of the Pre-Lenten Season has been set by the Presiding Bishop as Theological Education Sunday—Septuagesima Sunday, January 26th. This observance, though less than thirty years old, has in the course of that time, become so important as a source of revenue to the theological schools of our Church that they have come to depend upon it to a very large degree as a fund from which to meet current expenses. If this is all that it has become then it is far less than satisfactory. It should also be a sign of lay interest in the adequate and proper training of our men to serve in the ranks of the ordained ministry.
Here, as elsewhere, gift and giver should move hand in hand. Become informed concerning these needs that your support may be intelligent and well advised.

AN INSPIRING WITNESS: Washington's Birthday Annual Corporate Communion for all men and boys of the Episcopal Church. Holy Communion at 9:00 a.m.
Saturday, February 15th. The Celebrant, The Right Reverend J. Gillespie
Armstrong, S.T.D. The Speaker at breakfast—The Right Reverend Robert L. DeWitt, newly elected Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.
Choir—"The Choristers," Male Chorus of Philadelphia, directed by George H. Sudlow. An anticipated attendance of 1500 men and boys worshipping together. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew invites you to share in this outstanding Christian fellowship. It is being held at Valley Forge Military Academy; tickets cost $2.00 for men and $1.50 for boys. Checks made payable to Joel Hughes, 5440 Harbison Ave., Phila., Pa. 19124, will take care of your reservation.

THE PURIFICATION

Holy Communion — 12:15 Noon

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY—EVENING GROUP, will meet on Tuesday, February 4th at 6 p.m. for dinner in the Centennial Room. The speaker for the evening will be Miss Miriam Cone, a Parishioner and a member of the group, whose subject will be "The Art of Silverwork."
Miss Cone is experienced in this field and her talk should prove most interesting and informative.

THE PHILADELPHIA DIVINITY SCHOOL offers The Alumni Lectureship—
"MINISTRY IN TODAY'S WORLD" which includes two lectures by The Reverend Gibson Winter, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Ethics and Society,
The Divinity School of the University of Chicago. The first one "From Piety to Servanthood" is on Monday, February 17, at 4:00 p.m.; and the second,
"The Church as Prophetic Fellowship" is also on February 17 at 7:30 p.m.
A period for questions and discussion will follow each lecture (held in the Reading Room of the Library). Reservations may be made for dinner in the Refectory no later than February 13th by calling EV 6-7478.

PREPARATION FOR LENT: The Season of Epiphany is over and we enter those weeks of preparation which lead to Ash Wednesday and Lent. What does Lent mean to you? Naturally, if answers to this question were forthcoming there would be several answers. The Christian faith sprang from a historic life of humiliation, stern self-discipline, and sacrifice. Its emblems are a cattle trough, a carpenter's bench, a crown of thorns, a cross with blood on it. These emblems remind us that our religion is not to coddle us nor to flatter us, but to give us strength to walk with our Blessed Lord. That is why Lent is important, why it is so solemn a season, why our services are more frequent and more penitential. Lent deals with man's preparation for God's judgment. And Lent can remind us—and help us—in that eternal task. May yours be a very helpful Lent.

WE BRING TO YOUR ATTENTION opportunities provided to encourage a meaningful Lent:

During Lent, Dr. Pratt will continue to hold his Sunday morning breakfast seminar in the Centennial Room beginning at 9 a.m.

Tuesdays there will be a service of Holy Communion at 12:15 noon; then there will be an opportunity to meet for a cup of coffee and a program of Bible Study which will begin at 4 p.m. lasting until Evening Prayer at 5.

Wednesdays there is an early service of Holy Communion at 7 a.m. followed by light breakfast and Bible Study; a service of Holy Communion at 5:30 p.m. and a Seminar (supper is served to those registered for the Seminar).

Thursdays; Holy Communion at 12:15 noon; at 5 p.m. Evening Prayer and Meditation; and the Parish Family Night Lenten Program for five Thursdays beginning February 20.

The Washington's Birthday Annual Corporate Communion for men and boys will be an outstanding service of Christian fellowship and Witness.

The World's Day of Prayer for all women on Friday, February 14th is a world-wide service uniting all women in worship.

In March there will be three outstanding services (Wednesday evenings, 11, 18 and 25) for united worship to be held at the First Baptist Church, The First Presbyterian Church, and the Church of the Holy Trinity.

PARTICIPATION in these services whenever possible will help YOU!

THE ETERNAL WORD IN THE MODERN WORLD—Easton and Robbins.
The growth of a penitential preparation for Easter from a single day in the second century to nine full weeks (including Pre-Lent) in the eighth is revelatory of the change of the ethos of Christian worship from joy in redemption to fear of perdition. But since the Reformation a counterchange, in practice if not in liturgy, has taken place in the Roman Catholic Church by a radical relaxation in the Lenten rules; nowadays only the more devout among the laity make much attempt at Lenten observance. And in the contemporary Anglican (Episcopal) Communion there is a similar mitigation of the strict Lenten practices that came in with the 19th century liturgical revival; the Anglican Church thus agreeing with the Roman Catholic that the mediaeval rigour was a mistake."

OURS IS A DIFFICULT WORLD in which to be silent. We are constantly encompassed by noise! Be it our resolve to use the time we spend in assembling ourselves together in quietness and in meditation—let there be no unnecessary noise or conversation. Be thoughtful, be silent, be reverent: for this is the House of God. Before the service speak to the Lord; during the service let the Lord speak to you; after the service speak to one another. This time sequence is important and proves to be most helpful.

IF IT SHOULD BE that for any reason you come late for the service, be guided by the ushers and let them seat you at the portions of the service indicated by the (*) printed on this order of service.

ONE OF THE GREAT PHENOMENA of the modern age is the manner in which many of the faiths of the Middle and Far East—long thought to be either dormant or dead—are today showing forth amazing vitality. The birth of new nations and the resurgence of the ancient understandings often seem to go hand in hand. All of this is of paramount importance to the Church as she reappraises her sense of mission in the world. That we might the better understand the nature of this revival of other religions and what it may and does mean for us, the Rector's Sunday morning Lenten breakfast seminars will deal with this area of interest. What is the significance of the revival of Buddhism—of Islam—of Hinduism—what relation do they have to the secular state? These are questions to be pondered at this hour in the course of Lent 1964.

SERVICES THIS WEEK: On Tuesday—Holy Communion at 12:15 noon—plan to meet for a cup of coffee and a program of Bible Study which begins at 4 p.m. lasting until Evening Prayer at 5; Wednesday—Early Communion Service at 7 a.m. followed by light breakfast and Bible Study; 5:30 p.m., Holy Communion and at 7:30 p.m., Mr. Lee's Lenten Seminar; Thursday—There will be a service of Holy Communion at 12:15 noon and at 5:30 p.m. Evening Prayer and Meditation followed by dinner in the Centennial Room and a speaker. This week we will be privileged to hear The Reverend John McG.
Krumm, Chaplain of Columbia University. And, if you have not sent in a reservation for the entire series of these Lenten programs on Thursday evening, you may still do so, or you may make reservation for a single dinner by calling the Parish Office—LO 7-1267.

THE WOMEN OF THE EVENING GROUP wish to thank all who, by their generous support, helped to make such a success of the Christmas Card project.
Thanks to all of you, nearly 4,000 cards were sold.

ON THE EVENING OF FRIDAY, MARCH 6TH, in the church, Trinity Club will sponsor a Lenten play—"Antigone"—to be given by the seminarians of the Lutheran Theological Seminary of Mount Airy.

UNDER THE TRIADIC LEADERSHIP of Laura Abrams, Lucille Carswell and Frances Tansley, the Evening Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, is making plans for the Annual Card Party and Bake Sale to be held this year on Saturday, April 11th in the Parish House. Again, this group earnestly solicits your support and cooperation. Make a beginning by reserving the date on your calendar so that you will be free to attend, also, tell your friends so that they can come with you.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

MONDAY, THE 24TH, ST. MATTHIAS' DAY

12:15 (noon)—Holy Communion

We are off to a good start—more than 300 were in attendance at the various services on Ash Wednesday and the opening seminar, under Mr. Lee's direction, promises to be splendid. Let's maintain this good beginning!

A WELCOME is extended to the Rectory Club which will meet in the Centennial Room of the Church of the Holy Trinity on February 24th at 1 p.m. for luncheon, following attendance at the Service of Holy Communion at 12:15 p.m.

ON THURSDAY EVENING at the Family Lenten Dinner, 6:15 p.m. in the Centennial Room, the speaker will be the Reverend Arnold Purdie, D.D., Executive Director of the Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. If you wish to make a reservation for this dinner, please call the Parish House, LO 7-1267, no later than Tuesday afternoon.

THERE ARE two seminars and two Bible Study classes offered during the Lenten Season. At 4 p.m. every Tuesday, plan to meet for a cup of coffee and a program of Bible Study led by Dr. Pratt. After the 7 a.m. Service of Holy Communion each Wednesday, Mr. Lee conducts a Bible Study session. A seminar titled "The Changing City—Christian Issues in an Urban Culture" is held at 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday evening. The Rector's Sunday morning Breakfast Seminar at 9 a.m. will deal with the effect and relation on the Church of other religions, long thought dormant or dead, which are reviving!
ALL are welcome to attend these Lenten opportunities.

TWO ITEMS have been given recently to the Church of the Holy Trinity, an Altar Service Book by Mrs. Marlene Maertens and a Litany Book given anonymously. For these gifts, we are most grateful.

ONE OF the supposed attractions of watching television is that the two senses of seeing and hearing unite to provide maximum information, entertainment, etc. Be that as it may, a similar opportunity exists in all the services of the Church. Follow the service with an open Prayer Book, bring your Bibles, follow the reading of the lessons. The television screen and the movie house and the theatre are not the only places wherein the joys of eye and ear may be united.

DID YOU ENJOY—"O Ye Jigs and Julips?" If so, why not have a look at "Don't Upset the Choir" by Reginald Faray, the story of an Englishman who deemed his vacations to be incomplete until he locked up the Vicar of the local Parish and sang with the choir. A delightful story. Or, perhaps you'd enjoy "Staying with the Aunts" by Ida Gandy who in recalling the years spent with those aunts who were hers' has this to say concerning the manner in which they joined in the services of the Church. "To the prayers they responded with a chorus of long drawn amens . . . Aunt Louisa, least emotional where religion was concerned, used a short, sharp tone. Aunt Selina followed with a deep authoritative emphasis. Slow to assert authority in daily life, she seemed in Church to adopt a commanding tone. Aunt Caroline and Aunt Mary bound together by a particular bond of tenderness, nearly synchronized."

Eight o'clock - The Service of the Holy Communion, with Meditation

Server: Earl Thomas

The Collect, Epistle and Gospel are to be found on pages
128-130 of the Book of Common Prayer.

Nine o'clock - The Rector's Breakfast Seminar in the Centennial Room - Buddhism - Section No. 1

In place of the Gloria in Excelsis: Hymn 209 ..... "O saving victim"

The Benediction

Nunc Dimittis ..... Hymnal, Chant 671

Recessional Hymn: 343—"Praise to the holiest in the height"

The flowers at the Altar today are given to the Glory of God in memory of Mrs. Marguerite Otto Rogers.

The Altar Guild members for March are Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, Mabel Corps, Frances Lindsay, Emma McClintock, Mrs. Earl Thomas, Margaret Warner and Marguerite Zulick.

To reach the Parish House, enter through the red doors at the west end of the south aisle.

Five forty-five p.m. - Trinity Club Supper and Speaker

"Oceanography" will be the topic presented by Mr. Edward Shenton, staff oceanographer for Bell Aerospace Corp. in Annapolis, Md.

Eight o'clock in the Evening - The Service of Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Walter Cavanaugh

Preacher: Mr. Lee

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

THERE IS PLENTY OF ROOM at the sessions of the Tuesday afternoon Bible Class being held in the Centennial Room at four o'clock. Coffee and tea are available and the Service of Evening Prayer follows at five. COME, you know you would be welcome. And you can be on your way home before the traffic gets too bad or the hour is too late.

THURSDAY, MARCH 5 after Evening Prayer and Meditation which begins at 5:30 p.m., dinner will be served in the Centennial Room at 6:15. It will be a privilege to welcome as the speaker the Right Reverend C. Alfred Voegeli, Missionary Bishop of Haiti, who will have a real message for us. If you have not made a reservation for the entire series, it is possible to make one for this program. To do so, just call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) no later than Tuesday.

ANTIGONE: Jean Anouilh's play based on the classic Greek drama will be performed in the chancel of Holy Trinity; Friday, March 6, 1964, at 8:30 p.m. It is being presented by the Mount Airy Players of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, and is being sponsored by Trinity Club. This play was recently performed at the Lutheran Theological Seminary and at that time received high critical acclaim.

"Antigone" poses a timeless ethical dilemma: what should a person do when the moral law conflicts with the civil law? or in Biblical language, when must we obey God rather than man? In an age which finds Eichmanns, Khrushchevs and Wallaces on one hand and Bonhoeffers, Pasternaks and Kings on the other, this question is intensely and immensely relevant.

No tickets will be sold for this performance. However, an offering will be received.

THE LATEST FLAG to be placed within the Church is the flag of the City of Philadelphia. It stands directly behind the lectern. It is to be hoped that those who see and note this juxtaposition will be aware of the concern which the Church must always have for the city—through the word of God—and this relationship will long continue in our witness.

THE RECTOR is to be the guest preacher in the Lenten series now being held at the Arch Street Methodist Church on Thursday and Friday (5th and 6th) between the hours of 12:30 p.m. and 12:55. This opportunity for corporate and ecumenical witness is highly valued in the life of the Church. The various Lenten bulletins of other parishes as they have been mailed are designed to inform you concerning those opportunities which may be near to your place of business and in which you may wish to have a part.

THE TOTAL OFFERING for the seminaries of Church which came to us on Theological Education Sunday amounts to $2,819.05. It is to be distributed in some cases as specified by the donors and the remainder equally among the others. Sincere appreciation to all who have responded.

NEW LOOK IN THE CENTENNIAL ROOM: Trinity Club is putting the finishing touches to the painting project it began in the Centennial Room late last Fall. There is a very new handsome change in the color scheme and all who have seen it agree that this heavily used room looks much brighter and fresher. If you haven't seen it, make a point to do so. Trinity Club members cleaned, scraped and painted and their efforts deserve the thanks of the entire Parish.

Eight o'clock in the Evening - The Service of Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Walter Cavanaugh

Preacher: Mr. Lee

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM: Lord Jesus, think on me, and purge away my sin; from earthborn passions set me free, and make me pure within. Lord Jesus, think on me, with care and woe oppressed. Let me thy loving servant be and taste thy promised rest. Nor let me go astray; through darkness and perplexity point thou the heavenly way. Lord Jesus, think on me, that when the flood is past, I may the eternal brightness see and share they joy at last.

THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY—DAY GROUP will meet on Thursday, March 12th. Opening with the Service of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon celebration, luncheon, at one o'clock, follows in the Centennial Room. After lunch there will be the usual business session with reports and announcements.

For the Lenten Meditation, Dr. Pratt, the speaker of the day, has asked that the women leave the Centennial Room and come into the church—the most appropriate place for this mid-Lenten meditation.

Reservations for the luncheon ($1) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, March 9th. Mail your card promptly, or telephone the Parish House (LI 7-1267) in plenty of time.

ON THURSDAY EVENING, March 12th, after the Service of Evening Prayer at 5:30, the speaker at the Lenten Dinner held in the Centennial Room, will be the Reverend William Blewett, Ph.D., Director of the Commission for College Work, Diocese of Pennsylvania. An insight into this phase of Diocesan work should be most interesting especially since this is the department under which Mr. Lee will be working. If you wish to make a reservation for this dinner—please call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) no later than Tuesday afternoon.

THE CHAIRMEN AND WORKING COMMITTEES for the Annual Card Party and Bake Sale to be given by the Evening Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity on Saturday, April 11th, are: Triadic Chairmen: Laura Abrams, Lucille Carswell and Frances Tansley; Door Prizes: Ethel Conard; Bake Table, Miriam Cone and Priscilla Kitchel; Table Prizes: Sophia Ewell; Publicity: Virginia Bitter; Refreshments: Alberta Nazarov and Margaret Colflesh; Surprise Packages: Frances Lamb and Pat Gane; Tickets: Clella Whitman; Handcraft Table: Ruth Yeager and Millicent Shell; and Flowers for Decoration: Elizabeth Pinchback.

Frances Lamb and Pat Gane are in need of articles for the "Surprise Packages." Perhaps you have articles that you would be willing to donate for this purpose. If so, you may bring them to the Parish Office at anytime. Thank you.

ONCE AGAIN, we are getting complaints concerning the time when members and friends get this material—the Parish Leaflet! Let me repeat what has been said before and what should by this time be known to all. Your copy is in the 30th Street Post Office in Philadelphia before noon each Wednesday. This should be ample time. When you fail to get your copy by Saturday at the latest, make your personal protest to that branch of the post office from which the delivery is made. Concerted action gets results—make your protest now!

TO KEEP A TRUE LENT

Robert Herrick, priest, 1647

Is this a fast, to keep

The larder lean,

And clean

From fat of veals and sheep?

Is it to quit the dish

Of flesh, yet still

To fill

The platter high with fish?

Is it to fast an hour,

Or ragged to go

Or show

A downcast look, and sour?

No; 'tis a fast to dole

Thy sheaf of wheat

And meat

Unto the hungry soul.

It is to fast from strife,

From old debate

And hate;

To circumcise thy life;

To show a heart grief-rent;

To starve thy sin.

Not bin.

And that's to keep thy Lent.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM: What wondrous love is this, oh my soul, oh my soul. What wondrous love is this, that caused the Lord of bliss to bear the dreadful curse for my soul. When I was sinking down beneath God's righteous frown, Christ laid aside His crown for my soul. To God and to the Lamb I will sing, while millions join the theme I will sing. And when from death I'm free I'll sing on, I'll sing and joyful be, and thro' eternity I'll sing on.

THE WORDS OF THE ANTHEM: And it came to pass when the time was come that He should be received up, He steadfastly set His face to Jerusalem, and a very great multitude spread their garments in the way. Others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitude that went before and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come he beheld the city and wept over it saying, if thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Who watched while Majesty rode on to die, crying Hosanna in a joyous song. Could'st thou not heed the distant warning cry of Heaven's apprehensive, waiting throng? Hosanna to men's King! Thine acclamations ring! While God the Father veils his face, And God the Son his griefs embrace, Sing thine own griefs, Jerusalem! Jesus saith, Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour, Father, glorify thy Name. Then came there a voice from Heaven saying, I have both glorified it and will glorify it again. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

AGAIN, YOU ARE REMINDED that all who will wish to have the Holy Communion brought to them privately are asked to inform the Rector of this desire as soon as possible and the Sacrament will be brought to you following Easter Sunday. We depend on your calling us (LO 7-1267)—please do not hesitate to ask.

SATURDAY, APRIL 11 at 2 P. M. is the date when the Evening Division of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hold their Annual Card Party and Bake Sale. This is the one project of the year held by this group and your support and attendance are earnestly solicited.

Articles for the Handcraft Table will be greatly appreciated and they should be marked for the attention of Millicent Shell or Mrs. Ruth Yeager; surprise packages can be left in the Parish Office marked for Pat Gane or Frances Lamb; and home-made food such as cakes, cookies, pies, jellies, etc., should be delivered the day of the card party and marked for the attention of Miriam Cone and Priscilla Kitchel.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, which by the charter of the Parish must be on Easter Monday, unless adjourned to a later date, will be adjourned to Monday evening, April 27th. More details later—but mark the date on your calendar now! Plan to attend.

COMING!

On April 19th the Spring Ingathering of the United Thank Offering in the Parish.

May 3rd (Rogation Sunday)—the Bishop-Coadjutor, the Right Reverend Robert L. DeWitt will be with us at the eleven o'clock service for the rite of Confirmation.

*Processional Hymn: 87 ..... "Welcome, happy morning!"

*Introit: "Christ Our Passover" ..... McFarlane
(Page 162 of the Prayer Book)

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast,

Not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

For in that he died, he died unto sin once; but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Christ is risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

EASTER COMMUNION: To all ill and shut-in people who cannot be at Church—if you call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) requesting that Holy Communion be brought to you, a time will be arranged for the service. Please do not hesitate to ask.

THE EASTER OFFERING: It is traditional in the parish to receive an extra offering at Easter and we depend on it to fulfill both our missionary and parochial budget needs. We are grateful to God that here at Holy Trinity the generosity of its people is enabling this Church to carry forward an effective ministry in center city Philadelphia and to take its share in the whole program of the Church. The Easter offering is an opportunity to add extra strength to our work in a special thanksgiving to God for His blessings to us.

YOUR ATTENTION is called to An Evangelical Conference on Church Unity sponsored by the Evangelical Education Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church to be held at Christ Church in Philadelphia on Wednesday, April 8.
The conference begins at 10 a.m. and adjourns after an evening meeting.
Speakers and leaders include Dr. Theodore P. Ferris, Rector, Trinity Church in Boston, Arthur A. Atha, Esq., New York City, The Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop of Delaware, Dr. Charles W. F. Smith, Professor of New Testament, and the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, Clerk of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church. For details as to reservations, cost, etc., call the Parish Office. ($7.00 will defray the cost of meals).

SATURDAY, APRIL 11, IN THE PARISH HOUSE

1904 Walnut Street

TWO O'CLOCK IN THE AFTERNOON

NATIONAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE DAY in 1964 falls on Sunday, April 12th.
There are eight member colleges of the Foundation for Episcopal Colleges of which Dr. Albert C. Jacobs, President of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., is Chairman. The Church of the Holy Trinity is especially privileged to have as the preacher at the eleven o'clock service, Dr. Jacobs. Trinity College will be represented by alumni at the service and has also very graciously extended an invitation to the congregation of Holy Trinity to be the guests of the college at the coffee hour following the service. It is certainly hoped that we will have a large congregation to welcome Dr. Jacobs and the alumni of Trinity College both at the service and at the coffee hour following.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, MONDAY, APRIL 27: Every active parishioner should plan to be present at the Annual Parish Meeting and Dinner at 6:15 p.m. (promptly) in the Centennial Room on Monday, April 27th, when vestrymen will be elected, officers of parish organizations introduced and reports presented. And—LAST but not LEAST it will be a time for the parish to honor Mr. Lee. Although his resignation as assistant minister here becomes effective April 1st, he has promised that he and Mrs. Lee will come to the Annual Meeting. Plan to come to this festive occasion. Please send in your dinner reservations promptly.

According to the By-Laws of the Church of the Holy Trinity, the Annual Meeting is scheduled to be held on the Monday after Easter unless adjourned to a later date which has been done.

SUNDAY, APRIL 19th at the eleven o'clock service, the Spring Parish Ingathering of the United Thank Offering will be held. All women of the Church are asked to put offerings of thankfulness in their Blue Boxes throughout for the many, many blessings which are enjoyed by them. Twice a year —spring and fall—there is a Parish Ingathering then a Diocesan Ingathering. Eventually, the contents of these Blue Boxes go far and wide to aid those who are not so blessed.

THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY DAY GROUP meet on Thursday, April 9th, opening with the noon-day (12:15) Service of Holy Communion in the church, followed by luncheon at one o'clock in the Centennial Room. The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Drury Hinton, will present the story of the Episcopal Community Services and will illustrate her talk with colored slides of the work which is carried on in various parts of the city and which is of service, not only to Episcopalians but to persons of any creed. Reservations for lunch ($1.00) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, April 6th. Mail a card early or telephone (LO 7-1267) in plenty of time.

TODAY OUR GUEST PREACHER IS DR. ALBERT C. JACOBS, President of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., and Chairman of the Foundation for Episcopal Colleges.

The mission of the Foundation is to strengthen and enrich American higher education in the tradition of the Episcopal Church. The Foundation does this by finding resources to help the member colleges continue to develop their academic programs in an atmosphere calculated to help students acquire a clear and worthy view of life.

We welcome Dr. Jacobs and alumni representatives. It is hoped that many of the congregation will attend the coffee hour following the service to meet these visitors. Trinity College has very graciously extended an invitation to members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity to be the guests of the college at this post-service fellowship.

A VERY EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY will be offered to the members of the Church of the Holy Trinity and their friends on Thursday evening, April 16th. The evening will begin with dinner at 6:15 p.m. in the Centennial Room (cost $1.50—see coupon below).

The Reverend Alfred B. Starratt, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Baltimore, Maryland, is one of four participating clergymen who embarked on a venture which they have entitled "The Metropolitan Mission"— a cooperative venture of four inner city parishes in Baltimore. It is not considered a "merger," but it has enriched the lives of all four parishes and given each parish opportunities that were not previously possible.

This is a program which holds many potential visions for inner city parishes and we are most fortunate in having Dr. Starratt with us on the 16th to give us some of these considerations as one who has participated in the project.

Please cut out the reservation coupon below and place it on the alms basin on the 12th; mail or bring it to the Parish Office; or call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) as soon as possible—and certainly no later than April 14th.

I will attend the Parish Dinner on Thursday, April 16th, at 6:15 p.m., in the Centennial Room ($1.50).

Please make ..... reservations for me.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING TODAY: The Spring Ingathering of the United Thank Offering will take place at the eleven o'clock service this Sunday.
Representatives of the women's organizations, Mrs. Francis Murphy, Jr., Day Division, and Mrs. Lucretia Bentley, Evening Division, will receive the offering. All money placed in the blue envelopes will go towards this thank offering and is used for Missionary work in the Church. The women of the CHURCH united in their thankfulness to God make this offering for the many blessings received—thousands of women everywhere concerned with helping others.

SATURDAY, APRIL 25TH—SAINT MARK'S DAY

8 a.m.—The Holy Communion

There will be a breakfast following the service (if you wish to come call the Parish Office); then a work planning meeting of the Altar Guild.

The President and Board of Directors of St. John's Settlement House are sponsoring an organ recital for the benefit of St. John's Settlement House to be given at the Church of the Holy Trinity on Sunday, April 26, 1964 at 4 p.m.
by William Leonard King, Organist of Saint Martin's Church, New York City.
Mr. King was born and educated in Philadelphia. His musical achievements are numerous,—he was the accompanist of the great contralto Marian Anderson for twenty years, later becoming her manager. He has also served as accompanist to some of the world's greatest singers touring Europe and the United States; he was organist and choirmaster at the Church of the Crucifixion in Philadelphia; he has been at Saint Martin's for the past fourteen years; and has also appeared at the White House.

No tickets will be sold, nor any solicitation made, at the door. People who have been asked to support this particular program by the officials of St.
John's Settlement House, have, in the majority of cases, subscribed to the extent of two dollars.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, MONDAY, APRIL 27: It is hoped that you are planning to attend this meeting and if you are and have not done so, please send in your reservation card. It will begin with dinner in the Centennial Room at 6:15 p.m. promptly, followed by a business session—vestrymen will be elected, officers of parish organizations introduced and reports presented.
Also, it will be a time for the parish to honor Mr. Lee. This is YOUR parish —plan to come!

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION:—Tuesday, April 28th—WOMEN'S AID
—The women will meet at Saint Paul's Church, 15th and Porter Sts. at 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 28th. The speaker will be Mrs. Elbert K. St. Claire of Kennett Square, who will bring to the women an interesting book review.
Evening Prayer will be at 5:15, followed by the dinner and the men's meeting to which all are cordially invited. Dinner reservations may be made to the Rev. James Blackburn before April 23rd at the usual fee of $1.25.

MEN OF THE CONVOCATION—For the Clergy and Lay Delegates the evening will begin with Evening Prayer at 5:15 followed by dinner and the meeting which will be about 7:00 p.m. The speaker at this meeting is William O. Gilbert, Head Social Worker at St. John's Settlement House. Reservations should be sent to Mr. Blackburn before April 23rd ($1.25).

TO THE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY: —Because of your support, patronage and cooperation, the Evening Division of the Church of the Holy Trinity realized a very successful Card Party and Bake Sale on April 11th. Many, many thanks and sincere appreciation!

(No. 2 of the "Honest To God" Debate)

THIS AFTERNOON at 4 o'clock an organ recital sponsored by the Board of Directors of Saint John's Settlement House will be held in the Church of the Holy Trinity. It will be the privilege of those who attend to hear Mr.
William Leonard King, a prominent organist. No tickets will be sold nor any solicitations made, at the door. People who attend and support this presentation will be helping the work of Saint John's Settlement House.

Daylight Saving Time Begins This Sunday—Don't Forget!

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 27th—The Annual Parish Meeting beginning with dinner at 6:15 p.m. promptly in the Centennial Room. If you have not made a reservation for the dinner and wish to attend the meeting—all are welcome. The meeting should begin about 7:15 p.m. At a business session Vestrymen will be elected, officers of parish organizations introduced and reports presented. Mr. Lee, who left Holy Trinity to become the Episcopal Chaplain at Temple University, will be the guest of honor and with him, his wife Kathryn.

LAW DAY—MAY 1 USA is becoming an established and worthy tradition, this year being the seventh annual celebration. Law Day is sponsored primarily by attorneys and they ask that on a Sabbath Day near to Law Day (observed on the first day of May) a part of one of the services be devoted to the acknowledgment of Law Day and to the obligation which it places on all of us to observe the tenets of our faith and join with all citizens of the United States in the recognition of May 1 as a special day of liberty under law.

Holy Trinity will observe Law Day at the 8 a.m. Service of Holy Communion on Sunday, May 3rd.

AT THE ELEVEN O'CLOCK SERVICE ON SUNDAY, MAY 3RD, the Right Reverend Robert L. DeWitt, the newly elected Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will visit the Church of the Holy Trinity to administer the Rite of Holy Confirmation and to preach the sermon. Although, it is usual for Holy Trinity to have the Service of Holy Communion on the first Sunday in the month at the eleven o'clock service, because of the Bishop's visit, Holy Communion will be celebrated on Whitsunday, May 17th.

A reception and fellowship period will follow the service for Bishop DeWitt and the confirmands in the Centennial Room. It is hoped that as many members and friends of the congregation as possible will attend the service and the reception.

THE 180TH ANNUAL DIOCESAN CONVENTION will be held at the Valley Forge Military Academy on Monday and Tuesday, May 4th and 5th. The following delegates will represent Holy Trinity: Adm. Jack F. Bowling, Holstein De Haven Fox and William M. West; Alternates: Charles W. H. Bancroft, F. R.
Goehring and Horace Y. Rogers.

Unlatched and lit, if Thou should'st care to enter or to tarry there.
With parted lips and outstretched hands and listening ears Thy servant stands Call Thou early, call Thou late. To Thy great service dedicate. My soul, keep white, and whole. —C. H. Sorley.

FRIDAY—MAY 1—ST. PHILIP AND ST. JAMES

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

ASCENSION DAY—THURSDAY, MAY 7

7 a.m.—The Service of Holy Communion

Breakfast and Bible Study

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

ON MAY 5TH The Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity (Evening Group) will meet at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room for dinner, followed by a meeting which will include the Election of Officers and the Evaluation of Programs.
This is the last meeting until October.

A SERVICE OF WORSHIP DEDICATED TO NURSING will be held at The Church of the Holy Trinity, next Sunday evening, May 10, at 8 o'clock. The Preacher will be the Reverend William E. Blewett, Ph.D., Director of the Commission for College Work, Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania. Anthems will be sung by the Glee Club of the School of Nursing Lankenau Hospital. This is an Inter-Hospital Service honoring Hospitals and Nursing Week, May 10-16.
Last year 251 nurses in the colorful uniforms of their various Schools of Nursing were in the procession, while several hundred more were in attendance. This year we anticipate many more nurses will be in uniform and a large group in the choir will sing two anthems: "Blessing, Glory and Honor" and "Beautiful Savior." If you have never attended this annual service, it is an occasion which you should not miss. It is one of the most impressive and inspirational services of the entire year and we sincerely hope many parishioners will put this date on the calendar. While it is dedicated to nursing, and while many hundreds of nurses are in attendance, the inspiration is FOR ALL.

180TH CONVENTION OF DIOCESE MEETS at Valley Forge Academy, May 4-5:
More than 800 clergy and lay delegates representing the 196 churches and various affiliated organizations of the Diocese will participate in the Diocesan Convention.

The Convention gives a view of the Diocese at work and visitors are invited to any phase of the Diocesan Convention from 4 p.m. on Monday, May 4 at the Chapel of Valley Forge Military Academy, through the post-dinner talk of Bishop Armstrong and band concert at Thomas Hall, and all-day meeting on the 5th in Price Hall.

Particular attention is called to displays and exhibits of departments and organizations that will be in the Combative Gym, located between Thomas Hall and Price Hall. This is an opportunity to see how the Diocese operates.

REMEMBER THIS DATE—MARK YOUR CALENDAR:—Why? United Thank Offering Presentation of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. When? Wednesday, May 13, 10:30 A. M. Where? Valley Forge Military Academy Chapel. The Speaker: The Right Reverend Thomas Henry Wright, Bishop of East Carolina, Chairman of the Overseas Department, National Council.

On that day—May 14th—a chartered PTC bus will be in front of Holy Trinity Church and will leave at 10:30 a.m., proceeding via the Baltimore Pike to St. John's Church, reaching there at about 11:30 a.m. The Service of Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Church by the Rector, the Reverend Edward Battin. After service, there will be a talk by Mr. Battin on the history and background of the Church, founded in 1702. Lunch will be served, followed by a business meeting and program evaluation. The bus will leave for Philadelphia and arrive at Holy Trinity Church about 3:30 p.m. Guests will be welcome. Transportation will be $1. each and lunch $1.25, payable on the bus. Reservations must reach Holy Trinity Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, by May 7th. Mail a card early or telephone, LO 7-1267 in plenty of time.

FROM the Reverend Kenneth O. Grannum, Rector of Saint Philip's Episcopal Church, 1925 Lombard Street:

TO: The Rector, Vestrymen and Congregation of the Church of the Holy Trinity: "We are commemorating our 50th Anniversary as a Congregation, and 10th Anniversary as a Parish, at St. Philip's during May 1964.

"This is a time of special rejoicing for us, and one which in duty bound, we would gladly share with the Parish of Holy Trinity. Looking back over the years now, we are gratefully conscious of all that Holy Trinity, under God, has done for us. And now the opportunity is here for us to invite you all to be present at St. Philip's for a Service of Thanksgiving, on Whitsunday, May 17, 1964 at 4:00 P. M. Your good Rector, Dr. Pratt, has consented to preach the sermon on this occasion.

"Looking forward to seeing members of the Vestry and Congregation of Holy Trinity on May 17, at 4:00 P. M., I am, Yours Sincerely, Kenneth O. Grannum, Rector."

It is hoped that many of the people of the congregation will plan to share in this service with the people of St. Philip's.

TODAY AT 4 P. M. Dr. Pratt will preach at Saint Philip's Episcopal Church (memorial to Phillips Brooks), 1925 Lombard Street. It is the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of this Parish as a congregation and the 10th Anniversary as a Parish. Before Saint Philip's attained parish status, it was under the guidance of Holy Trinity and therefore the congregation feels very close to Holy Trinity. All members and friends of Holy Trinity are invited to this service.

ON TUESDAY, May 5th, at the meeting of the Evening group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Miss Elizabeth Vosberg was elected President. Congratulations and best wishes to you, Elizabeth, as you begin the duties of this office.

At the 8 a.m. Service on May 24th, the Evening Group will have a Corporate Communion and at that time there will be a Service of Installation of the newly elected President.

TRINITY SUNDAY—MAY 24—Many people will be able to participate in a special memorial tribute—to persons known to them and affectionately remembered as people who loved this House of God. There will be an especially beautiful display of flowers on the Altar that day in memory of the people whose names you send to us,—small gifts from many will do much. The names of those thus recalled will be added to those already entered last year in the special book.

AT THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA on Tuesday, May 5, four men from the Church of the Holy Trinity were elected to various committees; namely: Charles W. H. Bancroft to the Executive Council; Neale C. Bringham, Board of Control of the Diocesan Library; C. C. Morris and William M. West, Commission on Rectors Salaries and Pensions.

On Wednesday, the 6th, at the Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Church-women of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Mrs. John P. Lutz, a member of Holy Trinity, was elected Vice-President of the Diocesan Department of Missions (Overseas Division).

Congratulations to all of these people from Holy Trinity.

ONCE AGAIN—If you have not done so, the Committee, which is responsible for the completion of the information to the Diocese of Pennsylvania relative to the Census forms, ask that you fill in your form and return it to the Parish Office. This will be most helpful to them.

EVERY THURSDAY MORNING at 7 a.m. there is a Service of Holy Communion followed by a light breakfast and Bible Study. People who work in center-city find that they have ample time to attend the service and the Bible Study and arrive at their place of business on time. Also—at 12:15 noon every Thursday, the Service of Holy Communion.

THE REV. CANON BRYAN GREEN of Birmingham, England, known throughout the world as one of the great preachers of our time, is speaker on the 12-week Episcopal Series of the Protestant Hour, starting Trinity Sunday, May 24, heard locally over WFIL and WEEZ. This series will be broadcast on 475 nationwide radio stations, plus the worldwide Armed Forces Network.
During this period the Episcopal Series will take Canon Green's sermons and the liturgy and music of the Episcopal Church to more people than there are Episcopalians—more people than there are in the entire 40 million Anglican Communion. The series is produced and presented by The Parish of The Air of the Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation, Atlanta.

REMINDER: Names of those you might wish to be remembered on this coming Trinity Sunday, May 24th, may still be mailed or phoned in to the Parish Office so that they are received by Friday noon.

ONCE AGAIN—Permit us to remind you to send in your completed Diocesan Census form—if you have not already done so. Thank you.

TO THE COMMITTEE FOR THE BACH FESTIVAL:

THANK YOU VERY MUCH for your letter of April 28th and for your kindness in offering me the honorary chairmanship of the Philadelphia Bach Festival.
I accept it with great pleasure.

My very best wishes for your Festival, and for the enthusiasm and dedication to the great music of Bach.

Thank you again for the honor you have given me.

Sincerely yours,

PABLO CASALS

PHILADELPHIA BACH FESTIVAL

PABLO CASALS, Honorary Chairman

Frederick Roye, Musical Director

20 June, 21 June 1964

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

"IF BACH ADORNED all his scores with his S.D.G. (to God alone the Glory), it is because of an essentially religious idea of music. It was his godliness that kept and sustained his laborious existence—and mysticism was the life-spring of his godliness."

—ALBERT SCHWEITZER

"BACH'S WORK IS TODAY what it was through two centuries: a pillar of our culture, and its profound beauty and greatness always prove a source of strength and happiness to the human soul."

—BRUNO WALTER

"THE MIRACLE OF BACH has not appeared in any other art. To strip human nature until its divine attributes are made clear, to inform ordinary activities with spiritual fervour, to give wings of eternity to that which is most ephemeral; to make divine things human and human things divine; such is Bach, the greatest and purest moment in music of all times."

—PABLO CASALS

ONE THIRD OF THE SIX WEEK SESSION now being offered at nine o'clock by the Rector in the Centennial Room has passed. Should you be interested, you may come at any time. No reservations are necessary and a light breakfast is provided. The room is cool and the topics are matters of common concern. Come.

COMBINED WITH THE SECOND BACH FESTIVAL this year will be the Annual Convention of the American Guild of Organists. This twin opportunity to hear excellent music may be of interest to many. If so, plan to be on hand.

"This year's festival committee is being greatly expanded and already includes such community leaders as Mrs. Alexander Biddle, Mrs. Herbert Morris, Mrs.
John Wintersteen, Dr. William Fineshriber, Monsignor John G. McFadden, Director of the Catholic Information Service, Signora Gian Piro Nuti, wife of the Consul General of Italy, Mrs. Robert Thomas, and many others who realize the value of the festival and the fact that it is a music festival presented in Holy Trinity but not a church function."

SATURDAY, MAY 30TH is Memorial Day—many will be out of town. Plan to attend the Communion services on Thursday the 28th. There is always room and it would be nice to see you.

WE BID A VERY SINCERE WELCOME to the Reverend Dr. Judson S. Leeman as he begins his ministry as the Associate Rector of this Church. His wide range of talents and experiences promise much for us all. Be sure to greet him personally and help him to feel at home in our midst. He will occupy the apartment in the Parish House at 1904 Walnut Street.

MRS. GEORGE EYRE SMITH, President of the Women of the Holy Trinity, Day Group, has announced the appointment of Mrs. Robert D. Franklin as Treasurer of this organization to fill the unexpired term of Miss Grace Haupt whose resignation from this office has been accepted with regret.
Mrs. Franklin has recently returned to Philadelphia and to Holy Trinity after having resided in Michigan. A warm welcome to you Mrs. Franklin and congratulations and best wishes as you begin the duties of this office.

AND A WORD OF VERY SINCERE THANKS to those members and friends of the Parish who on the afternoon of Sunday, May 17th, were on hand to receive the "Peace—Marchers" as they came and then went to Saint Philip's Church on Lombard Street to share in the program of their being 50 years a gathered congregation and 10 years an independent parish.

REMEMBER, IF YOU PLEASE, THAT COMMUNICATION IS OF THE ESSENCE
... When you have occasion to go to the hospital—call the Church! When you get ready to come home from the hospital—call the Church! To help us keep in touch with you—please—keep in touch with us.

PLEASE BEAR in mind the fact that should circumstances over which you have no control make attendance at the Sunday morning Services impossible, the Service of Evening Prayer is held at eight o'clock. THIS IS NOT JUST

FOR THE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF TRINITY CLUB! Give to this service the loyal support it merits.

KEEP THEM COMING—Used postage stamps and cards of all kinds are still most welcome and can be used to good advantage—every little bit helps.

CHRISTMAS IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER!

For those of you who are looking for a beautiful Christmas card, The Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Evening Group, are offering a colorful adaptation of the Nativity Window, in the south aisle of the church. These will be on sale about the first of October. Price—15 cents each or two for 25 cents. We will be happy to take your orders for any quantity. Checks should be made payable and orders sent to the chairman, Laura Abrams, 2708 Pine Valley Lane, Ardmore, Pa. 19003.
NO TELEPHONE CALLS PLEASE.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

SAINT MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

SUNDAYS AT NINE O'CLOCK—Beginning today, September 27th, the first film strip to be used will be "The Anglican Way" a product of the National Society for Religious Education of the Church of England. This is helpful in aiding us to understand matters which we have in common as do all the churches of the Anglican Communion and also points which are unique to the various member churches as they—like our own—have become national churches. Come to secure a more complete understanding of both our heritage and our future.

THE DAY GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY will hold their first meeting of the season on October 8. Opening with the Service of Holy Communion in the church at 12:15 noon, luncheon at 1 o'clock follows in the Centennial Room. The Reverend Henry Okullu, of the Church of Uganda and Ruanda—Urundi, will be the speaker. This is a splendid opportunity of hearing at first hand of the growth and vitality of Christian missions in the new nations of Africa.

All women of the Parish are welcome. Reservations for lunch ($1.00) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street NOT LATER than Monday, October 5. Telephone LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

PLAN NOW to make your contribution and to take your part in the annual Parish Bazaar which is to be held on November 5 at the Hotel Barclay. Fill out the information sheet which you have already received and return it promptly.

"MORE THINGS ARE WROUGHT BY PRAYER, THAN THIS WORLD DREAMS OF."—This was a conviction of the poet and it is also the personal experience of countless Christian people throughout the world. The Parish Prayer Fellowship of this congregation meets at 11:30 a.m. each Thursday morning. The known needs of many are offered in prayer to God. Do not forget this most worthwhile opportunity is for YOU.

A MONDAY AFTERNOON DISCUSSION SERIES held in cooperation with Family Service of Philadelphia—entitled "You and the Years Ahead." The leader of this discussion series on retirement is Mrs. Gertrude K. Pollak, Director of Family Life Education, Family Service of Philadelphia. All are invited. It will be held at the Philadelphia City Institute, 19th and Locust Streets on Monday afternoons—September 28, October 5, 12, 19 and 26 from 2-3:30 p.m.

THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA is planning a service of installation for Bishop DeWitt on Saturday, October 31 at 10:00 a.m. in the Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Streets, Philadelphia. An equal allotment of tickets for the service will be sent to each parish and mission. All unfilled seats at 9:45 a.m. will be open to the public on a "first come" basis until the church is filled. The preacher will be the Right Reverend Paul Moore, S.T.D., Suffragan Bishop of Washington, D. C.

Christine M. Mahl, illustrated with Kodachrome slides, will be the program feature at the first fall dinner meeting of the Women of Holy Trinity, Evening Group, Tuesday, October 6 at 6:00 p.m. in the Centennial Room.
Other dates on the Evening Group calendar include a Corporate Communion at 8:00 a.m. October 18, when Dr. Pratt will dedicate a new private Communion Service, a gift of the Evening Group to the parish.

IN CONNECTION with one of the phases of the Parish/Diocesan survey, we are to be visited by a representative of the main office at 815 Second Avenue,
New York City on the evening of Friday, November 20th, 1964, at 8 p.m.
All organizational officers please plan to be present in person at that time in order that the 'Profile of the Parish' in terms of the various groups meeting and working here may be properly seen, heard and understood.
This meeting will be held in the Parish House and will last about an hour and a half. Plan to come in via the Walnut Street entrance. Coffee will be served.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM—"SHOUT ON, PRAY ON"

Early American Hymn, arr. Malin

1. I know that my Redeemer lives,
What comfort this sweet sentence gives Shout on, pray on, we're gaining ground,
Glory, hallelujah!

2. He lives to bless you with His love
He lives to plead my cause above,
Shout on, pray on, we're gaining ground,
Glory, hallelujah!

3. He lives, all glory to His name!
He lives, my Jesus, still the same,
Shout on, pray on, we're gaining ground,
Glory, hallelujah!

ON OCTOBER 16, 1789, the General Convention, meeting here in Philadelphia, revised and set forth a Book of Common Prayer for the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. It is fitting that the 175th Anniversary of this event be observed.

Bishop DeWitt will officially open a Prayer Book Exhibit in the Free Library of Philadelphia on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway at Logan Circle, on Monday, October 5th at 11 a.m.

The Exhibit will continue until October 23rd, and will show not only the 1789 Prayer Book, but also earlier first editions of English Prayer Books.
Plan to visit the Library and see this outstanding Exhibit of rare Prayer Books.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE AMERICAN PRAYER BOOK
OF 1789

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who didst lead thy servants in the early days of this nation to set forth a Book of Common Prayer for the use of this Church, make us ever grateful for this our heritage of worship. And grant that we may worthily show forth our praise and thanksgiving in the spirit of reverence and devotion to the honor of Thy Holy Name, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE CHRISTMAS CARD OF THE YEAR?

Be sure you don't miss it!

It is a colorful rendering of the memorial window to Benjamin Granger Godfrey—the Nativity window on the south aisle, designed by Henry Holiday of London.

There is a sample card displayed and an order form in the Parish House.
We would like to see your name on this order form.

Orders, accompanied by check, may also be sent to the Fund Raising Chairman of the Evening Group: Miss Laura Abrams, 2708 Pine Valley Lane, Ardmore, Pa. 19003.

THE PRICE IS THE SAME AS LAST YEAR! — 15c each or 2 for 25c.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

THIS AFTERNOON, the 18th, at three o'clock there will be a Harvest Festival Service in the Church of the Holy Trinity. In the 'mother church' of our communion this has always been an observance of particular importance, a time to give thanks to God for the fruits of the Harvests which can be as meaningful for "city folks" as for "country folks." Come and welcome—a light tea will be served in the Parish House following the service. —C.P.

SUNDAYS at 9 o'clock will be resumed next week—October 25th, at which time consideration will be given to a film strip entitled "Hour by Hour, A Day in a Parish Church." Many will wish to see this and to be present for coffee and doughnuts which are to be served in the Centennial Room directly after the eight o'clock Communion Service.

No reservations necessary—just come!

MEMBERS OF THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE are busy as bees, working and planning towards that very important date of Thursday, November 5th, when the Barclay is again the scene of our Annual Fair and Card Party.

Have you offered your services? Your gifts for surprise packages, hand-made articles, boutique, useful, gourmet, cake, hats, white elephant and Christmas tables will be appreciated.

The card party is a gala occasion with attractive table and door prizes. You may like to make up one or two tables and play cards with your friends.

This is our Bazaar—not just one in which SOME of the women participate. The proceeds are used to swell the funds for Missions, that most vital need. Your OFFERS of door prizes, donations and assistance will be much appreciated and may be sent to Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, 2030 Waverly Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19146.

UNDER THE LEADERSHIP of Mr. F. R. Goehring, assisted by Mr. Austin J. Gaugel and Mr. Horace Y. Rogers, this year's Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday will be on Sunday, November 15th.

On the Sunday designated each member and supporter of the work of the Church of the Holy Trinity is asked to come to Church at eleven o'clock and join with all the other members in an act of worship dedicating himself and his substance to the carrying forward of Christ's Mission through this Church.

Your support and loyalty are earnestly solicited.

COMING:—

The Episcopal Prayer Book Exhibit at the Free Library of Philadelphia, Commemorating the 175th Anniversary of the adoption of the American Prayer Book of 1789—continuing until October 23rd. See the many rare and unusual Prayer Books including the first edition copy of the 1789 Prayer Book.

Bishop DeWitt's installation on Saturday, October 31st, at the Church of the Advocate at 10 a.m. An equal allotment of tickets will be sent to each parish and mission. At 9:45 a.m. all unfilled seats will be open to the public on a "first come" basis until the church is filled.

WEDNESDAY, THE 28TH

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

IMPORTANT EVENTS IN NOVEMBER:

NOVEMBER 5TH (Thursday) at the Barclay—The Annual Christmas Bazaar and Card Party. The success of this project depends on the contributions, participation and support of the entire parish.

NOVEMBER 8TH (Sunday) At the 11 o'clock service on this day the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will have the Fall Ingathering of the United Thank Offering—the coins dropped into the UTO Blue Boxes by the women expressing their thankfulness for God's many blessings. The contents of these boxes eventually find their way to provide help to those less fortunate both at home and abroad.

The Fall Diocesan United Thank Offering Ingathering will be held on November 18th at Christ Church, Second Street above Market. Dinner will be served at 6:30, for which tickets may be obtained at the Women's Office at the Church House before November 13th, ($1.75). The speaker at the service following at 8 p.m. will be the Right Reverend Cedric Earl Mills, Missionary Bishop of the Virgin Islands.

NOVEMBER 15th is STEWARDSHIP-LOYALTY SUNDAY in the Church of the Holy Trinity. When we are thinking about our stewardship—may we remember that the Christian steward gives cheerfully, not reluctantly, in response to God's love for him and what He has done for him. Time, talents, and treasure—make your pledge prayerfully and cheerfully.

TIME IS FLEETING — CHRISTMAS IS COMING —

its time to buy your Christmas cards from the Women of the Evening Group.

The card is a colorful drawing of one of our loveliest stained glass windows — The Nativity — on the south aisle. There is a timely and appropriate greeting on the inside.

It isn't often one has the opportunity to buy exclusively designed cards and support an active organization within the parish at the same time.

There is a sample card and an order list in the Parish House or you may give your order to any member of the Evening Group. Cards may be picked up in the Parish House, preferably at Coffee Hour.

ALL SAINTS' DAY can be one of the most meaningful days within the Christian year. Here is an opportunity to call to mind the fact that we are all—"called to be saints"—and that the fulfillment of this calling is a matter of paramount importance. The day also affords an occasion wherein we recollect those nearest and dearest to us who have departed this life. We affirm with renewed insight that we believe in the "Communion of the saints." These considerations loom large as we offer the services this Sunday for this great act of remembrance.
—C.P.

in plenty of time.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15TH has been designated as Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday in the Church of the Holy Trinity. Mark this date on your calendar and plan to be in Church on that Sunday.

Start thinking about your own Stewardship. How to begin? Ask yourself—
"Am I doing what I can and what I should do as the Lord's steward?"
We'll see you on November 15th.

A NEW "open-end" radio broadcast titled "Ask The Clergy," is being broadcast over WIP (610) on Sundays 7:30 to 8 p.m. This program is a dynamic concept in the programming of religion for radio and is a 'live' program, giving listeners a chance to call the station with on-the-air questions for religious leaders.

WIP's Public Service Supervisor, Allan Michaels, will moderate a panel of three clergymen who will consider important theological and moral topics suggested on the telephone by listeners in 24 Delaware Valley counties.

Two representatives of each major faith have agreed to alternate on the "Ask The Clergy" panel. Expressing the Roman Catholic viewpoint will be the Reverend John Lynch, Assistant Rector of St. John the Evangelist Church, and the Reverend Francis Keul, Assistant Editor of the Catholic Standard and Times. The Jewish faith will be represented by Rabbi David H. Wice of Congregation Rodeph Shalom, and Rabbi Theodore H. Gordon of Main Line Beth Elohim, Wynnewood. Protestant spokesmen will be the Reverend Donald L. Farrow, formerly Rector of St. Andrew's-in-the-Field Episcopal Church, Somerton, and the Reverend Thomas A. Buttmer, Pastor of the Broad Street Memorial Methodist Church, Drexel Hill.

Listeners will be advised of WIP's special "Ask The Clergy" telephone number through on-the-air promotion.

TRINITY SERIES—The "Trinity" series, produced by our National Council, will be broadcast from 6 to 6:30 a.m. each Sunday over WIP—AM-FM (610).

A UNITED ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Sunday morning, all the members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be asked to join in an action of witness to their Church loyalty.

You will be asked to make a pledge of financial support. In the sermon, the Rector will explain why this is necessary.

BUT NOTE CAREFULLY: You may be unable to make a financial pledge or you may not wish to make it at this service. What then? You need not feel embarrassed, because the pledge card is so worded that you can sign the card as a pledge of personal loyalty without making any financial commitment. In other words, you do not have to commit yourself financially in order to sign a card. In many instances, one member of the family will sign the financial pledge, others only the personal loyalty pledge.

When all who desire have signed, the entire congregation will be asked to come forward (unless this is physically impossible) together, not individually, while hymns are being sung by the congregation and lay their pledges of financial support and/or personal loyalty on the alms basins which will be held by the two Wardens standing at the chancel steps. When this is over, all the cards will be presented at the altar during the singing of the doxology.

Our Pledging Is An Act Of Worship

It cannot be stressed too much that this service of pledging our loyalty to the Church is an act of worship. It is something we do before God as members of the Body of Christ with redemptive purpose. We do it to enable the saving mission of our Lord to go forward in our time.
May we do it prayerfully in all sincerity as we are able.

THOSE UNABLE TO COME WILL RECEIVE A CALL

Let us remember that some are shut-in, or ill, or prevented by conditions of work, and cannot be present. If no card at all from your family is turned in at church, you will be called on during the afternoon.
Save the canvass team this trip by being at church if you possibly can.

A UNITED SERVICE FOR THE SOUTHERN CONVOCATION

THANKSGIVING DAY AT HOLY TRINITY

9 a.m. — Holy Communion

11 a.m. — Morning Prayer and Sermon

THE ANNUAL PERFORMANCE of MESSIAH by G. F. Handel will be presented in the church on Sunday, December 13 at 8 p.m. The original orchestration will be played by members of the Curtis Institute, organ and harpsichord. The soloists are: Vivian Wagner, Soprano; Diane Curry, Alto; Larry Amos, Tenor; William Murphy, Baritone.

"Messiah was composed, with perhaps more than unusual haste, between August 22 and September 14, 1741. The original score comprises some 250 pages of manuscript; which means that Handel wrote on the average, a little over ten pages a day. The autograph is evidence of very rapid performance, and it should be remembered Handel had the advantage of having some of his material previously to hand. 'And He shall purify,' 'For unto us,' 'His yoke is easy,' 'All we like sheep' and 'Hallelujah' are remodeled Italian duets; 'And with His stripes' is a conventional fugue on an already familiar subject. 'The Lord gave the word' carries the busy hum of 'L Allegro' a stage further. The Pastoral Symphony is in easy imitation of Corelli; other sections were only awaiting transcription. In case credulity still assigns to Handel what was added to him by Mozart and others, it should be made clear that his orchestral score was slight and that many of the arias carried above the bass line and the solo part only a single violin line."

This original scoring will be used for the performance here at the church as it has in past years.

A UNITED SERVICE FOR THE SOUTHERN CONVOCATION—will be held this year at Gloria Dei (Old Swedes') Church at 8 p.m., Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, November 25th. The preacher, the Reverend Benjamin Axelroad, is the recently appointed Chaplain to the Episcopal Hospital. Plan to attend this united service of thanksgiving.

A bus has been chartered to transport people to and from the church for this service, leaving Holy Trinity at 7:15 and returning after the service. The round trip fare is sixty cents—do send in your reservation.

SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 29 (The First Sunday in Advent), following Corporate Communion at 8 a.m. for all the men of the Church, there will be a breakfast and speaker in the Centennial Room. Mr. A. Wallace Owen, 3rd, of the British Overseas Airways Corporation will present the topic, "Africa—A New Look At An Old Continent."

If you have not mailed your reservation card, please do so, or call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267).

MOTET — Johannes Brahms

O Saviour throw the heavens wide;
Come down with speed unto our side.
Unbar the gates and let us in;
Unbar what once was lock and pin.

As gentle dew from heaven fall;
Descend O Lord, and cover all.
Ye rain clouds break, and torrents bring;
Let Israel receive his king.

O Earth, in flow'r be seen!
Let hill and dale be ever green.
O Earth, bring forth one blossom rare,
A Savior, from the meadow fair.

Here suffer we a heavy doom:
Before us yawns the cheerless tomb.
Ah, come, lead us with steady hand
From exile to our native land.

So let us all be thanking Thee.
For Thou hast ever set us free.
So let us praise Thee o'er and o'er.
From this time on and for evermore.

Amen, Amen.

SAINT ANDREW'S

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

THE EVENING GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH will meet on Tuesday, December 1st, in the Centennial Room at 6 p.m. for dinner, to be followed by a speaker and a business session.

The Reverend Charles H. Long, Jr., Rector of Saint Peter's, Glenside, will be the speaker on the topic of “A Report on the General Convention.”

THE ANNUAL PERFORMANCE OF MESSIAH by G. F. Handel will be presented in the Church on Sunday, December 13 at 8 p.m. The original orchestration will be played by members of the Curtis Institute, organ and harpsichord. The soloists are: Vivian Wagner, Soprano; Diane Curry, Alto; Larry Amos, Tenor; William Murphy, Baritone.

Another interesting feature is that Handel in his own writing still gives us the names of the people who sang various solos. He changes arias to accommodate the soloists he had at hand. For example: the familiar alto aria ‘He was despised’ also had been sung by a soprano or tenor. The chorus at no time was very large. Today we're accustomed to hearing choruses of 300 or more singing this work. In small ensemble the clarity of lines is far more easily defined.

Please accept my thanks for your splendid and fruitful help in the Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday.
—F. R. Goehring, Chairman.

ON DECEMBER 10TH, the Day Group of the Women of Holy Trinity will meet at 12:15 noon in the Church for the Service of Holy Communion. Luncheon will follow in the Centennial Room. After a short business meeting, there will be shown a sound and color movie of the Cathedral in Coventry, England, depicting first, the ruins of the medieval church, wrecked by incendiary bombs in 1940 and then, the magnificent new cathedral; completed and consecrated May, 1962. This fine moving picture comes to us from our own National Cathedral in Washington, D. C.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25), must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, December 7th. Telephone early to LO 7-1267 or mail a card in plenty of time.

THE ANNUAL PERFORMANCE OF MESSIAH by G. F. Handel will be presented in the church on Sunday, December 13, at 8 p.m. The original orchestration will be played by members of the Curtis Institute, organ and harpsichord.
The soloists are: Vivian Wagner, Soprano; Diane Curry, Alto; Larry Amos, Tenor; William Murphy, Baritone.

The performance of Messiah here at Holy Trinity includes most of the entire work. We do not just present the Christmas portion, but also include the major portion of Part II, which is the Passion and Death, and Part III, the Resurrection, and the final glorious Amen, lifting the soul heavenward.
A comment from the notable Charles Lamb, who was a Handel addict, says in part: "We have a tender recollection of the homey Christmas carols that used to be sung at school; nor can we hear without particular emotion at this season, that divine composition of Handel's, with the recitative full of singleness of purpose and a truly pastoral simplicity, "There were shepherds abiding in the field."

AGAIN may we please call your attention to communions for sick and shut-in people. Many confined to their homes will wish to have their communions between Sunday, December 20 (Advent IV and Christmas Eve (December 24). Should you be among them, please call the church office and every effort will be made to come to you during that time. Should you wish to be seen during the twelve days of Christmas, i.e., between December 25th and January 6th—that too can be arranged.

AT HOLY TRINITY we are mindful of the fact that a great hymn "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was written and composed by the Rector and Organist of this church. It might be interesting to look at another famous hymn and see what its origin was,—"While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks." Nahum Tate was the poet laureate and historiographer to Queen Anne. Despite his pensions and odd jobs he died in a debtor's prison. He had collaborated with Nicholas Brady to produce a "New Version" of the Psalms, but by himself he wrote the famous hymn, "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks." This hymn tells a story about the first Christmas. It begins by stating that while shepherds watched their flocks by night all seated on the ground, the angel of the Lord came down and glory shone around. The angel told the shepherds not to fear because they were to receive glad tidings of great joy to all mankind. Stanza 2 tells what the message was, that in David's town, born of David's line was the Saviour, Christ the Lord and that this heavenly Babe could be found wrapped in swathing bands in a manger. Then the hymn tells that this was followed by the appearance of a shining throng of angels praising God—"All glory be to God on high and on the earth be peace; Good will henceforth from heav'n to men begin and never cease."

The obvious source of this hymn is the Gospel according to St. Luke which contains the story of the first Christmas and the message which the angel declared to the shepherds on the first Christmas Eve. Nahum Tate wrote this hymn in 1700.

FOR THE MONTH OF DECEMBER, 1964, the Music Department of The Free Library of Philadelphia, Logan Square, has prepared an exhibit entitled "The Philadelphia Carol," which contains facsimiles, photographs, and prints of the author and composer of "O Little Town of Bethlehem." This exhibit may be seen any time during the regular hours of the Central Library, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday; 9 to 5 Saturday; and 2 to 6 Sunday afternoon.

EVERY SUNDAY until the 21st of February, under the auspices of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches, Dr. Harry S. Longley will be broadcasting over WFIL-AM (560) at 9:22 a.m.

UTO NEARS $35,000—The United Thank Offering contributed by the women of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, as of Friday, November 20, was $34,308.72. It is expected to go over $35,000 when all returns are in.

PRESIDING BISHOP TO BE installed on January 27—The Right Reverend John E. Hines will be installed as Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church in ceremonies on Wednesday, January 27, at the national Episcopal cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul, Washington, D. C. Bishop Hines has submitted his resignation as Bishop of Texas. His resignation, accepted by the House of Bishops, becomes effective on January 1.

FIRST OF ALL—a few words of most sincere thanks to all who were of such great help in the course of the preparations for Christmas. The Altar Guild support was splendid—we had a good response for the 'hanging of the greens' (and all agreed "in re our friend arsonist") that it was wise to hang fewer than we have before. Those 30 poinsettias looked just splendid and in a year when good plants were hard to come by, they were fine. Thanks also to those who while working hard anyway throughout the year, always seem able to turn on just a little more steam for the Christmas Season.

DEEP APPRECIATION to all who sent such delightful cards and kindly greetings in the course of this season—they were indeed splendid.

PLEASE NOTE the new Sunday morning Seminar series at 9 a.m. in the Centennial Room begins this Sunday, January 10th. Coffee and sweet rolls are provided—you would be most welcome. This has become a valued means of considering together matters of common interest and concern for the life of the Church.

ON SUNDAY, JANUARY 17TH, we are to have as our guest preacher the Reverend Dr. Harold E. Ditzler, St. John's United Church of Christ, Lansdale. This is designed to be our response as a Parish to the concern of the "Ecumenical Sunday" program of the Church, endorsed by our Bishop.

THE DAY GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY will meet on January 14th opening with the celebration of Holy Communion in the Church at the 12:15 service. Lunch will be served in the Centennial Room at one o'clock. After a brief business meeting, the Associate Rector, Dr. Leeman, will speak to the group; his topic—"The Ministry of the Church." A good beginning to the New Year, his talk will deepen our understanding of the Clergy and Lay responsibility in the Church. All women of the Parish are cordially invited to attend.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, January 11th. Telephone early to LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

PLEASE DO NOT forget that aid continues to be needed when it comes to mailing the Parish Leaflet on Wednesday of each week. If you have an hour or so to give on that morning, be assured it would be appreciated.

SETS OF OFFERING ENVELOPES for those who have made pledges for 1965 and who wish to use envelopes were at the back of the church on Sundays, December 20 and 27. If you did not take yours at that time, a set has been mailed to you via first class mail. If you have not received the set which bears your name, please call the Parish Office.

ONCE AGAIN—when you are ill, or go to the hospital, or are confined to your home and wish the clergy of the parish to call upon you, please contact the Parish Office. Otherwise, how are we to know? It also helps a great deal if, as you return to your home, you let us know. Just a phone call, or a postal card, will convey the information.

ON SUNDAY, JANUARY 24TH, we are to observe THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY. Our guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service will be Mr. Peter Camp of this Parish, now in his Middler Year of theological studies at the Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria. Plan to be present and to greet Peter personally during the post service fellowship.

At 9 a.m. on January 24th in the Centennial Room, Peter Camp will show the Virginia Theological School film.

Breakfast by reservation $1.00. Sign your name and send in this portion to make a reservation.

CHURCHES IN PULPIT EXCHANGE — JANUARY 17TH: — Some thirty-five Episcopal Churches and their clergy will participate in an inter-communal exchange of ministries on Sunday, January 17th. The exchange of pulpits was initiated by six church bodies meeting at Princeton last April.
The Reverend Dr. Harold E. Ditzler from St. John's United Church of Christ, Lansdale, Pa., will be the guest preacher in the pulpit at Holy Trinity today.
Dr. Ditzler's ministry has covered a vast territory. He studied not only in this country but also in Vienna and Oxford. His pastorates include Edinburgh, Scotland, Los Angeles and Lansdale; he has served on many committees on the west coast and was a NBC radio preacher for the Church Federation of Los Angeles; he has been guest preacher in most of the prominent churches of Great Britain, including England, Ireland and Scotland; guest preacher in the American Church in Paris in 1954 and at the British Embassy in Moscow in 1964. He is presently Chairman of the Commission on Church and Ministry for the Pennsylvania Southeast Conference of the United Church of Christ; President of the Board of Directors for Wyncote Home for the Aged and Director of the Pennsylvania Bible Society.
We welcome him to Holy Trinity.

PRAYER WEEK FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY IS SET FOR JANUARY 18-25: Millions of Christians of all confessions on all continents will again join in prayer during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. The annual observance is sponsored by the Commission on Faith and Order of the World Council of Churches and the Roman Catholic Association for Christian Unity in Lyon. The Faith and Order office of the National Council of Churches co-sponsors the North American observance. The six Churches participating in this observance are: The United Presbyterian Church, the Protestant Episcopal Church, U.S.A., the Methodist Church, the United Church of Christ, the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the Disciples of Christ.

JANUARY 24 — THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY: Providing the Church with an educated and sensitive ministry is the role of our seminaries. Preparing clergy for a witnessing role in the spiritual dynamics of their ministry is the privilege of our theological schools. Training them to be articulate, developing their sensitivities to man's needs, and fostering a courageous projection of God's will into an alien society is the responsibility of theological education. Seminaries mindful of this responsibility providing able ministers for Christian leadership, contribute to a witnessing Church.
And a witnessing Church is one counter-force against the sordid and evil nature of today's world.

The Episcopal Church is only now realizing the crucial role of its seminaries. Attention is being focused on recruitment of our finest young men, on curriculum development, on the responsibility of financing theological education and on a continuing education of the clergy during their ministry.
The concern of every member of the Church is being solicited.

HERE AT HOLY TRINITY on Theological Education Sunday we will be privileged and honored to have as our guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service, Mr. Peter Camp of this Parish, sometime President of Trinity Club, now a 'Middler' at the Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria. Plan to be present and to greet Peter personally during the post service fellowship.
There will be another opportunity to meet Peter Camp and also to join together in parish fellowship. At 9 a.m., on the 24th, in the Centennial Room. Peter will show a film on his seminary—the Virginia Theological Seminary. There will be a Parish Breakfast and if you desire to participate, please send in your reservation. The cost will be $1.00.

CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL

(Monday, the 25th)

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

TODAY IS THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY

Your hand makes it possible for a young minister to complete his seminary work.

Gifts from you are the lifeblood of the seminaries. Unlike some denominations, they receive no General Convention grant. Instead, they count on you. So does the young man who may one day be your rector.

And seminary costs have soared. It costs as much as $3,500 a year to have a man in seminary. He pays, in most cases, less than one third of the cost!
The difference must come from the offerings made by you. This is the special day for these donations—Theological Education Sunday. Make a meaningful gift to any one of the seminaries.

The various seminaries are listed and if you have a preference, just indicate your choice on your offering envelope; otherwise, the entire amount collected is divided:—Berkeley Divinity School, New Haven, Conn.; Bexley Hall, Gambier, Ohio; Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, Calif.;
Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Philadelphia, Pa.; Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass.; Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest, Austin, Texas; General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, New York, New York; Nashotah House, Nashotah, Wis.; Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary in Virginia, Alexandria, Va.; School of Theology of the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn.; and Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, Evanston, Ill. Checks should be made out to the Church of the Holy Trinity and if for a specific school, as mentioned above, indicated on the envelope and can be noted on the check.

TIME FOR THE JANUARY meeting of the Convocation of the Episcopal Church-women in South Philadelphia.

This will be an important meeting as the revised by-laws will be presented.
Trinity Memorial Church, 22nd and Spruce Streets, is where the meeting will be held on January 26 at 1:30 p.m. The speaker will be Miss Mary Louise Wood, Superintendent of St. Martha's House. She will talk on her wonderful trip to the Holy Land and will show her fine slides.

Dues and offerings for the Educational Program will be taken at this meeting.

FEBRUARY 2 (Tuesday evening) is the regular monthly supper meeting of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity Evening Group. The program planned for this meeting is one that has been acclaimed by all who have seen the film—"The Resurrection of Coventry Cathedral." It is a sound and color motion picture sent out by the National Cathedral Association. Dinner is served at 6 p.m. ($1.75)—reservations are necessary; the film and a business meeting complete the evening.

THE PURIFICATION

(Tuesday, February 2, 1965)

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

A REMINDER that all are welcome at the Rector's Seminars which are held in the Centennial Room at 9 a.m. A light breakfast is served (no reservation necessary). Beginning today (the 31st of January) a study will be made of Religious Orders in the Church.

TUESDAY EVENING, February 2nd, the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity Evening Group will meet at 6 p.m. for dinner, a film presentation and a business meeting. The film to be presented (sound and color) is an especially fine one and many might wish to come and see it—"The Resurrection of Coventry Cathedral." So—even if you do not attend the dinner, plan to come and see the film which will be shown at about seven o'clock.
All are welcome.

THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT has a new regulation that all mail to apartment dwellers must include the addressee's apartment number or be returned to the sender. Each copy of the leaflet that is returned costs eight-cents, so your cooperation will be appreciated in giving this information to the parish office.

TO THE MEN: Although February 27th is some weeks away, you might want to mark the date on your calendar. It will be the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion for all men and boys in the Diocese, to be held at Valley Forge Military Academy at 9 a.m. The speaker will be The Right Reverend Frederick J. Warnecke, Bishop of the Diocese of Bethlehem. Further information regarding reservations will be available later.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR CHURCH ATTENDANTS

(From an Old English Church)

1. Thou shalt not come to service late, Nor for th' Amen refuse to wait.
2. Thy noisy tongue thou shalt restrain,
When speaks the organ its refrain.
3. But when the hymns are sounded out,
Thou shalt lift up thy voice and shout.
4. The endmost seat thou shalt leave free,
For more must share the pew with thee.
5. The offering-plate thou shalt not fear,
But give thine uttermost with cheer.
6. Thou shalt the bulletin peruse,
And look there for the Church's news.
7. Thou shalt the minister give heed,
Nor blame him when thou'rt disagreed.
8. Unto thy neighbor thou shalt bend,
And if a stranger, make a friend.
9. Thou shalt in every way be kind,
Compassionate, of tender mind.
10. And so, by all thy spirit's grace,
Thou shalt show God within this place.

PREPARATION FOR LENT: The Season of Epiphany is over and we enter those weeks of preparation which lead to Ash Wednesday and Lent. What does Lent mean to you? If this question were answered, many answers would be given, such as the fact that some think it is an old-fashioned custom no longer of any value; others think of it as a time for self-discipline, but on a rather frivolous and facetious level; others think of it as a quiet time to rest after Mardi Gras! Actually, it is a season of solemn importance to Christian people. Lent stands as a reminder that life is not all frivolity, but that our soul's health is not a superficial bit of sentiment, that to practice this religion of ours we must work at it. It is the habit of human nature to forget the tragic past, to gloss over the ugly and the unpleasant, to laugh off any sense of guilt. It is the Church's duty to foster and further the religion of Jesus Christ. The Christian faith sprang from a historic life of humiliation, stern self-discipline, and sacrifice. Its emblems are a cattle trough, a carpenter's bench, a crown of thorns, a cross with blood on it. These represent reality. They remind us that our religion is not to coddle us nor to flatter us, but to give us strength to walk with our Blessed Lord. That is why Lent is important, why it is so solemn a season, why we should avoid every self-indulgence. This is why our services are more frequent and more penitential. Christianity deals with man's preparation for God's judgment. And Lent can remind us—and help us—in that eternal task. May yours be a very helpful Lent.

REMINDER TO THE MEN OF THE PARISH:—February 20th is the deadline for reservations for the Washington's Birthday Annual Corporate Communion for all men and boys at Valley Forge Military Academy on Saturday, February 27, 1965. Time: 9:00 a.m., Corporate Communion; 10:30 a.m., Breakfast; to be followed by the speaker, The Right Reverend Frederick J. Warnecke, Bishop of Bethlehem.

If you want a reservation form, please call the Parish Office, LO 7-1267.

BISHOP DE WITT has designated Sunday, February 21 as Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches Sunday in the Diocese.

That Sunday will be used to inform people of the service rendered by the Council, and to present the needs of the council. The council is a working fellowship of churches from 26 denominations in the five-county metropolitan area (Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, Philadelphia). Working cooperatively together, these churches carry on Christian work which they or their communions could not do alone or which they could not do as economically or as effectively.

A church is a member of the council when its official body votes an annual membership contribution and names two delegates. Major financial support comes from individuals and church budgets. Other support comes from church bodies, women's organizations, Sunday School, and other church groups, as well as sources within the business community. Bishop DeWitt and the Diocese of Pennsylvania encourage and support the work of GPCC.

TO ALL VISITORS:—WELCOME! We welcome you to worship with us any Sunday morning, or at any scheduled service. In addition, the church is open during the week for prayer, rest, and meditation. Come whenever you feel the need for spiritual refreshment (to come during the week, enter at 1904 Walnut Street).

We try to be a friendly church. If you are a stranger, do not hesitate to join us in our worship of Almighty God. Please make yourself known, before or after the service, to the ushers, the clergy or the people at the doors after the service. There is also a Post Service Fellowship in the Parish House every Sunday except the first Sunday.

Eight o'clock in the Evening - The Service of Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Walter Cavanaugh

The Preacher, Dr. Leeman

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

LENTEN SEMINAR ON WEDNESDAYS: Starting with Ash Wednesday, Dr.
Leeman will conduct a Seminar on "The Worship of the Church." At 5:30 p.m.
there will be a service of Holy Communion with a short meditation and hymns.
This will be a regular parish service to which all are invited. At 6:30 there will be supper in the Centennial Room, limited to those who make reservations and attend the Seminar. At 7:30 the Seminar will convene, limited in enrollment to about 25 people. For information call Dr. Leeman at LO 7-1267.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER sponsored by the United Church Women will be held on March 5th, 12 to 1 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, 17th and Sansom Streets. The speaker will be Mrs. Donald Barnhouse.

THERE IS still opportunity to make a registration for the 4 o'clock seminars to be held Tuesdays during Lent. Evening Prayer follows after the Seminar at 5 o'clock. Because this seminar is a reading seminar of the latest book by the former Presiding Bishop, Dr. Lichtenberger, an adequate supply of books must be ordered by the opening date.

TUESDAY, MARCH 3rd, the Evening Group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will hold their regular meeting beginning with supper in the Centennial Room at 6 p.m. The speaker this month is Sister Dorothea Margaret who belongs to the Society of Saint Margaret's and does parish work at St. Mark's Church, 16th and Locust Sts. Her topics will be "Our Life as Religious" and "Understanding the Sacraments." After the speaker, there will be a business session.

ANOTHER LENTEN OPPORTUNITY: On Monday evening, March 22nd, beginning with a dinner in the Centennial Room, all who attend will be privileged to hear, under the auspices of the American Waldensian Aid Society, a Moderator of the Waldensian Church.

The Waldensian Church stems from a sect of dissenters from the system of the Roman Catholic Church, founded about 1179 by Petrus Waldus, or Peter Waldo, a merchant of Lyons, France. Waldo and his followers sought to revive primitive pureness of living. At this time there are Waldensian Churches in various parts of the world—Italy, South America, etc. The year of 1965 has been set aside for a deputation visit to the U.S.A. of The Reverend Dr. Ermanno Rostan, a Moderator of the Waldensian Church, and he will fill preaching and speaking engagements in many sections of the country, one of which will be at the Church of the Holy Trinity.

We are sure that the Moderator can effectively present the work of the Waldensian Church as a part of the World Christian Community. Moderator Rostan is a man of great Christian dedication, alert to conditions and the needs of his Church.

Reserve this date on your calendar now:—and if you wish to come, send in the following reservation coupon:

Please make ..... reservation(s) for the dinner at 6:15 p.m., on the evening of Monday, March 22nd, in the Centennial Room, to hear The Reverend Dr. Armano Mostan, Moderator of the Waldensian Church, at a cost of $1.50.

"THIS IS GOD'S WORLD"—The title of a film to be presented at the March 11 meeting of the Day Group of the Women of Holy Trinity. The movie depicts the experiences and reactions of six inner-city workers confronted with the problems of today.

The meeting opens with the celebration of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service. Luncheon in the Parish House follows at 1 o'clock.
All women of the Parish are most welcome.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, March 8. Mail a card early or telephone the Parish Office—LO 7-1267—in plenty of time.

MARK THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL DATES ON YOUR CALENDAR:—

TUESDAY, MARCH 9, the first session of the reading seminar, using Dr.
Lichtenberger's book, "The Day Is At Hand," at 4 p.m. followed by Evening
Prayer at 5 p.m.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, the first Thursday evening Lenten Parish Family Night. It begins with Evening Prayer at 5:30 p.m., followed by supper and the speaker in the Centennial Room. The speaker for this week is The Reverend John A. Bell, Rector, Church of the Incarnation, New York City.

It is not too late to make a reservation for all of the dinners on Thursday evenings at a price of $8.50; single reservations for any of the presentations are $2.00 and should be made by Tuesday before the date you wish to attend.
We are indeed grateful to Mrs. Dunhour, who has been ill, but has consented to cook the dinners for the Lenten Family Nights.

THE ENTIRE WEEK OF MARCH 15—A series of Dialogue Sermons from 5:15 p.m. to 6:15 p.m. involving Dr. Martin Niemoller and Dr. Eugene Carson Blake—"The Issues and Opportunities Facing the Church of Jesus Christ."

MONDAY, MARCH 22, beginning with dinner in the Centennial Room at 6:15 p.m. after which the Moderator of the Waldensian Church, Dr. Ermanno Rostan, will speak to us. Reservations for the dinner ($1.50) may be made by sending in a card, or placing one on the alms basin, or calling the parish office LO 7-1267.

QUESTIONS

The thought has been expressed that it might be helpful if the meditations at the 5:30 services on Thursday evenings during Lent were to be based upon certain questions raised by members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity. This is certainly possible and if such were to be made in writing at the earliest possible opportunity, they would be considered in the course of this Lenten Season.

Bear in mind the fact that all who come to speak to us on Thursday evenings in connection with the "Parish Family Nights" will be willing to entertain questions following their presentation. Three by five cards will be provided on which questions may be written at those times.

AN UNUSUAL MESSAGE AT AN UNUSUAL HOUR—

The Center City Churches in cooperation with the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches will hold a series of Dialogue Sermons at the Church of the Holy Trinity, 5:15 p.m. to 6:15 p.m., Monday through Friday—March 15 - 19. The participants will be Dr. Martin Niemoller and Dr. Eugene Carson Blake discussing "The Issues and Opportunities Facing the Church of Jesus Christ." The sub-titles for each day are as follows:

Monday: The Open Door.

Tuesday: Christ for the World.

Wednesday: Politics and Economics Under the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thursday: Many People and Races—Yet One Family.

Friday: Poverty and the New Jerusalem.

THE SECOND PARISH FAMILY NIGHT will be on Thursday, March 18. Supper will be in the Centennial Room immediately following the Dialogue Sermon involving Dr. Niemoller and Dr. Blake, and the speaker for the evening will be Dr. Martin Niemoller.

If you do not have a series reservation, you may make a single reservation for any of the Thursday evenings by calling the parish office (LO 7-1267) or sending a card the Tuesday before the meeting you desire to attend.

THE MODERATOR of the Waldensian Church, Dr. Ermanno Rostan will speak to us on the evening of Monday, March 22, at 6:15 p.m. Please send in your reservations as soon as possible for the dinner ($1.50).

THE GAYEST OF SPRING EVENTS AT HOLY TRINITY is the Annual Card Party and Bake Sale of the Evening Group of Women, set for the first Saturday after Easter, April 24. Mark the date now. Plan to bring friends for an afternoon of fun and fellowship; plan to make some of your own special goodies for the bake table; ransack the house for items to fill surprise packages; yes, and plan to buy some of the delectable items which will be on sale. A first this year: A PINK ELEPHANT TABLE! Best thing you can do for the Evening Group and its missions efforts is to BE THERE.
Best thing you can do for yourself is to pitch in and help, NOW. The Chairmen, Mrs. Vera Murphy, Mrs. Hilda Chaddick and Miss Lucille Carswell, will be delighted to hear from YOU.

"BE AN INQUIRER"—by the Rev. J. Frank Machen from "The Day"—

"Episcopalians are too timid by half about recruiting for their Church. There is a kind of seedy exclusiveness which is stultifying to both parishioner and parish. Avoid it. Ask people to come to church!

"Whatever your work, do it with your Blessed Lord in mind—invite the people with whom you come in contact to your Church. People like being invited, whether or not they can come. And many can and will! Many are timid.
Many are lonely. They want to be asked. No one ever lost a friend by asking them to come to church. Be an inquirer!"

THE ANNUNCIATION — THURSDAY, MARCH 25th

7 a.m. and 12:15—Holy Communion

5:30 p.m.—Evening Prayer

ON PASSION SUNDAY, APRIL 4TH, the guest preacher at the eleven o'clock service of the Holy Communion will be the Reverend Dr. E. Frank Salmon, the seventh Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Knowing that many who remember well his ministry among us will wish to be present, we offer this reminder.

ON THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER—the second of May—The Right Reverend Oliver J. Hart, the retired Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will be with us for the Service of Confirmation. Classes of instruction will begin on Saturday, March 27th at 10 a.m. and all who wish to review, or who are interested, or who wish to offer themselves as candidates for Confirmation, are asked to be present at that time.

THURSDAY, MARCH 25TH—The third Parish Family Lenten Dinner will be held in the Centennial Room at 6:15 p.m. after Evening Prayer. The speaker for this evening will be the Very Reverend Lloyd E. Gressle, D.D., Dean, Cathedral Church of Saint John, Wilmington, Delaware. If you do not have a reservation for the entire series and wish to hear Dean Gressle, please phone the parish office no later than Tuesday.

SUNDAY, MARCH 28, is the date this year for "One Great Hour of Sharing"— the united world relief appeal for non-Roman churches, in which our General Convention has asked that we take part by soliciting offerings for our Presiding Bishop's Fund.

This great offering is actually a share in a modern miracle of feeding the multitudes—which is the subject of the Gospel for this Sunday—the Fourth Sunday in Lent. It is amazing to learn what can be done when many share in the effort. For instance, last year EVERY DOLLAR sent more than 300 pounds of food overseas, equivalent to 4800 cups of milk or corresponding amounts of bread, cereal or other essential foods. The Philippines, Peru and India received emergency aid for thousands, and many, many countries received not only food for tens and hundreds of thousands (without which many of them would actually starve) but also help toward self-support—tools, training, credit, raw materials and supplies and community resources, such as structures to make fresh water from sea water where fresh water is very scarce. Share Our Substance is a direct line from your church to those in need overseas—St. Luke 12:48 says this—"For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required . . ." and if we pause to consider, we do have so much.

FAMOUS HYMNS: "The Glory of These Forty Days"—These are the opening words of one of the Lenten Hymns in the 1940 Hymnal (61). This Latin hymn was current after the tenth century, particularly as the hymn for use at Matins from the Third Sunday in Lent until Passion Sunday. It has sometimes been attributed to St. Gregory the Great, but without specific evidence. It refers to Christ who fasted and prayed during His forty days in the wilderness, then Moses and Elijah are mentioned—they also spent time apart from their people, then Daniel is mentioned, then John the Baptist, "the herald of Messiah's name" and the cousin of our Lord. A prayer is found in the fourth stanza which asks God to grant those who use the hymn to be like the ancient "full oft in fast and prayer with Thee; our spirits strengthen with thy grace and give us joy to see thy face." The Trinity is addressed in the last stanza.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Lord Jesus, think on me, and purge away my sin;
From earthborn passions set me free, and make me pure within.

Lord Jesus, think on me, with care and woe oppressed,
Let me thy loving servant be and taste thy promised rest.

Nor let me go astray;
Through darkness and perplexity point thou the heavenly way.

Lord Jesus, think on me, that when the flood is past,
I may the eternal brightness see and share thy joy at last.

PLAN TO ATTEND AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS!

THE FOURTH PARISH FAMILY LENTEN DINNER—THURSDAY, APRIL 1ST, beginning with Evening Prayer at 5:30 p.m. in the church and then at 6:15 p.m. the dinner and speaker in the Centennial Room. The Right Reverend Robert L. DeWitt, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be the speaker at this time.

If you wish to attend the dinner and do not have a reservation, please call the parish office no later than Wednesday.

NEXT SUNDAY, PASSION SUNDAY, April 4th, the Reverend Dr. E. Frank Salmon, the seventh Rector of the Parish will be the guest preacher at the eleven o'clock service. Many who remember Dr. Salmon's ministry will want to attend this service so if you know others who were in the congregation during that period tell them that Dr. Salmon will be the guest speaker at Holy Trinity on Sunday, April the 4th.

A BASIC PRINCIPLE of the Episcopal Church is that a congregation is made up of participants, not spectators. Members of the Episcopal Church attend services to worship God, not to be lectured or entertained. The Book of Common Prayer, used throughout the Anglican Communion, is a devotional manual by which the worshiper may, in concert with others, participate actively in the services of the church. It is a product and development of the service books used in the monasteries for many hundreds of years. It also contains elements from the Jewish services held in the Temple at the time of our Lord.

They will continue as long as seem indicated. If you are interested, please contact Dr. Leeman.

TUESDAY, APRIL 6 is the date of the meeting of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Evening Group. It begins at 6 p.m. with dinner in the Centennial Room, followed by the speaker and then a business meeting. The speaker this month is Mr. Arthur H. Peacock—"A Report from Our Roving Missionary in Brazil, Colombia and Ecuador." If you cannot attend the dinner, plan to come at seven o'clock to hear Mr. Peacock.

THE DAY GROUP of the Women of Holy Trinity will meet on April 8 in the Parish House. We are fortunate in having Mrs. Richard W. Thorington of the Prayer and Worship Committee of the Diocese to speak to us on "Understanding the Sacraments" a subject most suitable for this mid-Lenten Season. The meeting opens with the celebration of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service. Lunch follows in the Parish House at one o'clock. All women of the Parish are most welcome.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25), must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, April 5. Mail a card early or telephone the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) in plenty of time.

THURSDAY, APRIL 8 is the final Parish Family Lenten Dinner which begins with Evening Prayer at 5:30 p.m. Supper is served directly after the service in the Centennial Room and if you wish a reservation ($2.00)—call the Parish Office. This week's speaker is the Reverend Frederick Hill, Assistant, St. James' Church, New York City.

HAVE YOU NOTICED? Everybody who is anybody is suddenly toting shopping bags in and out of the parish house. In bulging. Out flat. These fashionable folk are helping the Evening Group of Women with preparations for their annual Card Party and Bake Sale on Saturday, April 24. What's in the bags? Door prize and surprise package donations, handmades and castoffs for the Pink Elephant Table, fancy gift wraps and ribbons. Still to come on the day of the party: delectable baked goods and prized specialties from many parish kitchens. Won't you join the fashion parade and help with the Evening Group's once-a-year effort on behalf of home and overseas missions? Any member of the group can tell you where to take donations and how to get your tickets for this gala affair.

THE WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

And it came to pass when the time was come that He should be received up. He steadfastly set His face to Jerusalem, and a very great multitude spread their garments in the way. Others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitude that went before and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come he beheld the city and wept over it saying, if thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Who watched while Majesty rode on to die, crying Hosanna in a joyous song. Could'st thou not heed the distant warning cry of Heaven's apprehensive, waiting throng? Hosanna to men's King! Thine acclamations ring! While God the Father veils his face. And God the Son his griefs embrace, Sing thine own griefs, Jerusalem! Jesus saith, Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour, Father, glorify thy Name. Then came there a voice from Heaven saying, I have both glorified it and will glorify it again.
 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

THE VESTRY OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY wishes to announce that effective Sunday, June 6, the church's broadcasts on WIP Radio will be heard at a new time—8 to 9 o'clock every Sunday morning. This means that our 11 o'clock services will be recorded and played back on WIP the following Sunday.

And because of new station policy, Holy Trinity programs which have been on a commercial basis for almost 43 years will now be broadcast on a sustaining basis.

The Vestry hopes that the many members of Holy Trinity's radio congregation will be able to adjust their Sunday morning schedules in order to hear the broadcasts at this new time.

AT A MEETING OF THE VESTRY ON Tuesday, April 27, Mr. William M. West was appointed Rector's Warden, and Mr. Austin J. Gaugel was appointed Captain of the Ushers. The following officers were elected for the present year: Mr. Horace Y. Rogers, Accounting Warden, and Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, Secretary to the Vestry.

The following committees were elected:

Finance and Trusts: Neale C. Bringham, Chairman; Horace Y. Rogers, William M. West, F. R. Goehring, John S. Fair, Jr., Christopher C.
Morris, and the Rector.

Property: S. Scott Stewart, Chairman; F. R. Goehring, Charles W. H.
Bancroft, and Donald Danenhower.

Holiday House: Donald H. Danenhower, Chairman; Christopher C. Morris, Frank B. Murdoch, and Jean A. Franklin.

THE MAY MEETING of the Day Group of the Women of Holy Trinity, will be a Go-see Trip, by chartered P.T.C. Bus, to Valley Forge, on May 13. The bus will leave from in front of Holy Trinity Church at 11 a.m., returning at 3:30 p.m. Members and friends of the parish will be most welcome. Please BRING A SANDWICH; beverage and cake will be provided. Bus trip—$1.25 each.

Reservations must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut St., not later than Monday, May 10. Telephone the Parish Office LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

NEXT SUNDAY, MAY 16, we will be privileged to have with us as our guest preacher at the 11 a.m. service, the Reverend William E. Craig, Ph.D., Director of the St. Francis' Boys' Homes. It is hoped that as many members of the congregation as possible will attend this service and bring their friends.
As you may know, these homes located in Ellsworth and Salina, Kansas, serve boys in trouble—all races—all creeds—from all parts of the nation.

THE WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Christ is risen from the dead,
Christ the Lord is risen today,
Sons of men and angels say:
Raise your joys and triumphs high,
Sing ye heavens, and earth reply.
Christ the Lord is risen today
Christ is risen from the dead,
Christ is risen and become the first fruits of them that slept.
The three sad days are quickly sped;
He rises glorious, He rises from the dead:
All glory, all glory to our risen Head.
Soar we now where Christ has led
Following our exalted head
Made like Him, like Him we rise,
Ours the Cross, the grave, the skies.
Praise the Lord, O my soul,
And forget not his benefits.

AT THREE O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON—in the Church of the Holy Trinity a service of tribute and commemoration to be offered for the Salvation Army, preceded by a band concert in Rittenhouse Square beginning at 2:30 by the 43-piece Salvation Army Band—one that has been chosen from all the bands in this country to represent the Army in England this summer.
Plan to be present and bring your friends with you.

NAME .....

ADDRESS .....

Not later than Thursday, June 3, if you please.

TRINITY SUNDAY—June 13—Many people will be able to participate in a special memorial tribute to persons known to them and affectionately remembered as people who loved this House of God. There will be an especially beautiful display of flowers at the Holy Table that day in memory of the people whose names are sent to us by you—small gifts from many will do much. The names of those thus recalled will be added to those already entered last year in the special book.

DR. LEEMAN will attend the 30th reunion of his class at General Theological Seminary in New York City on May 25th. Following this, he leaves on his vacation during which he plans to be in Minneapolis (where he graduated from Medical School 25 years ago), Wyoming, Oklahoma, and Connecticut, returning to Philadelphia just prior to July 1st.

"THE NEW SHAPE OF THE WORLD CHRISTIAN MISSION" is the theme of the 1965 Hood Conference at Hood College, Frederick, Md., June 13-15. Two world Christians will lead the exploration of the rethinking of the meaning of mission for an effective witness in a new day of opportunity—the Reverend Canon Douglas Webster, theologian-missioner of the Church Missionary Society of Great Britain will be the leader; the Reverend Wadi Z. Haddad; priest of the Episcopal Diocese of Jordan, Syria and Lebanon, will be the chaplain. Brochures are available in the Women's Offices, Church House, giving more information about this opportunity.

matter by filling out and returning to the Church Office the following?:

1. I should like to have a Clergy of the Parish call on me.....

2. I should prefer to have this call made in the (a) morning .....

(b) afternoon .....

(c) evening .....

if possible on ..... day [ ]

3. I should like to be phoned before the call is made .....

4. I should prefer to come to the church, making an appointment with the clergy to see them, there .....

ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS

Wednesday, September 29

12:15 (noon)—Holy Communion

THE SERVICE for the Burial of the Dead has, since June 23, 1965, been read for the following persons:

Walter G. Scott

David B. Arndt

Edith Marjorie Whiteway

Evelyn Foering

Morales Vendig

Joseph F. Noonan

Hilda M. Albert

John Frederick Lewis, Jr.

Frances Clarke

"Grant them continual growth in Thy love and service."

DO NOT FORGET the value of what is sometimes called junk! Used eyeglasses can be of real help to those in need and used postage stamps, when added to many others, help with a "Stamps for Scholarships" Fund at one of our theological schools. One of the clergy in the Diocese can also use good recent magazines, etc. So keep them coming and be assured that they are welcome.

AS WE DRAW NEAR to the time of the Parish Christmas Bazaar, do what you can to be of help. The total support of all our people would lighten a rather full load and do much to make the whole program most worthwhile. Besides —it can be real fun, too!

BRING SOMEONE in with you to the Post Service Fellowship in the Parish House on those Sundays (all except the first one in the month) when they are held. Do your part in helping us to continue to be the church in which friendship and fellowship mean much.

FUTURE DATES TO REMEMBER!

Saturday, October 2—8 a.m. Holy Communion followed by breakfast and meeting of the Altar Guild.

Sunday, October 3—World-Wide Communion Sunday.

RUMBLES, RIOTS, RACE, AND RENEWAL:

The Right Reverend Robert L. DeWitt, Bishop of Pennsylvania, will be the speaker at the first fall meeting of the Women of Holy Trinity, Evening Group.

Date: Tuesday, October 5.

Time: 6 p.m.

Place: The Centennial Room, 1902 Walnut Street.

Subject: "Rumbles, Riots, Race, and Renewal," at 7:00 p.m.

Because the Bishop will be speaking on a matter of great concern to all Church people, it is hoped to have a really good turnout.
All women of the parish are invited and urged to attend. Bring your friends!

The cost of the dinner is $1.50. Reservations should be in the Church Office, 1904 Walnut Street, (Phone LO 7-1267) no later than Thursday, September 30.

WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY DAY GROUP:

HOUSE OF REST DONATION DAY: What do you know about the House of Rest for the Aged? Have you heard, or read, that it was instituted by Bishop Whitaker in 1889? Mr. Henry Houston lent a spacious mansion in Germantown rent free "providing they would keep enough persons in it to make it worthwhile." Nine persons were to be in residence—we now have thirty-five. The property was purchased from the Houston Estate in 1925; since then gifts from interested individuals have resulted in the addition of several first floor wings for the care of the infirm. It now is an up-to-date, well equipped home with a fine infirmary, kitchens, laundry and in 1953 the "Chapel of the Guardian Angels."

You are cordially invited to visit the House of Rest for the Aged and see for yourself the attractive home created by an active Board of Trustees and a Women's Board of Managers (representatives from Churches in the Diocese) and interested friends of the home.

We hope you will come on October 13 to the Annual Donation Day and Open House, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. We need your interest and support. Come visit the ladies, see the home and enjoy the afternoon at 5919 Wayne Avenue, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa. 19144.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 17 at the 11 a.m. Service, the women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will gather the United Thank Offering. This is an offering of thankfulness for the manifold blessings received by all women which, in turn, is presented to the Diocese and is finally used by the Church to further the blessings of those less fortunate. The Custodian for the Day Group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity is Mrs. Francis Murphy and for the Evening Group, Ciella Whitman.

MEMBERS OF THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE ARE busy as bees working and planning towards that very important date of Thursday, November 4, when the Barclay is again the scene of our Annual Fair and Card Party.

Have you offered your services? Your gifts for surprise packages, hand-made articles, boutique, useful, gourmet, cake, hats, white elephant and Christmas tables will be appreciated.

The card party is a gala occasion with attractive table and door prizes. You may like to make up one or two tables and play cards with your friends. This is our Bazaar—not just one in which SOME of the women participate. The proceeds are used to swell the funds for Missions, that most vital need. Your OFFERS of door prizes, donations and assistance will be much appreciated and may be sent to Mrs. Eugene M. Callis, 2030 Waverly Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19146, or Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, 135 S. 19th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19103.

UNDER THE LEADERSHIP of Mr. Austin J. Gaugel this year's Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday will be on Sunday, November 14.

On the Sunday designated, each member and supporter of the work of the Church of the Holy Trinity is asked to come to Church at eleven o'clock and join with all the other members in an act of worship dedicating himself and his substance to the carrying forward of Christ's Mission through this Church.

Your support and loyalty are earnestly solicited.

MONDAY, ST. LUKE'S DAY

12:15 (noon) — HOLY COMMUNION

SERIOUS CONSIDERATION is being given to the whole matter of the mailing of the Parish Leaflet in terms of the delivery/lack of delivery thereof before the Sunday services in the homes of our people. Your personal observations concerning this would be welcome as would be reports of reactions from the local post office branch and letter carrier. To go to first class mail would mean a four-fold increase in cost and this is something not to be done without full and complete consideration of all the values involved. The Parish has not always had a mailed weekly leaflet. It does represent a weekly contact between Church and people, yet the mail service involved seems to decline while the need for communication increases. Given the fact that our broadcasts are now taped and replayed one week later, the order for the service may be of help to those who hear it at home a week later. But there again, the number who do is not known to us. There is some talk about the wisdom of a monthly mailing, etc., etc., as some radio stations and newspapers are wont to observe, let it be at this point:—

YOUR RESPONSIBLE REACTION IS INVITED

WHILE WE ARE on the topic of mail, let's not forget that we need your correct address from you; when it comes on returned mail via the post office we pay eight cents each time. Also, the addresses of those who are away at school, or who are in the Armed Forces,—to them, mail means a very great deal.

TAKE NOTE OF THE FACT now that Sunday, October 31, is the day when we readjust the clocks to Eastern Standard from Daylight Saving Time.

DON'T FORGET:

Your opportunity each Sunday at nine a.m. for the Sunday Breakfast Seminars in the Centennial Room.

Your personal response to the work of the STEWARD-SHIP-LOYALTY program set for November 14.

Your contributions of goods and gifts and services for the Annual Parish Christmas Bazaar. The funds secured aid missions. So don't let other people down.

Your own support to the All Saints' Hospital Fund Drive.

IN THE NAME OF THE PARISH—for one and for all—our very best wishes to Charles Wild (our Parish Sexton) and his wife—married on October 13.

THURSDAY, ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

TODAY IS OBSERVED in the Church as World Order Sunday and it is also United Nations Day. The Presiding Bishop commends the following prayers from "Prayers for all Occasions" for use today:

FOR THE UNITED NATIONS: Eternal God, we beseech thee for all who serve in the United Nations Organization. Grant thy blessing upon their endeavors to heal the wounds of the world through cooperation in education and other fields of human service; and may thy Holy Spirit so guide their deliberations in Council and Assembly, that all causes of strife may be removed, and peace and concord be secured among all the peoples of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

FOR A NEW WORLD ORDER: Almighty God, give to us, we beseech thee, the will to labor for goodwill and cooperation among the nations of the world. Put away from us all prejudice and all selfish ambition; and in our foreign policy help us to pursue only those ends and purposes that will promote unity and concord and further the coming of thy kingdom in the earth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE SOUTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION will meet on Tuesday, October 26 at Saint John's Church, Third and Reed Streets.

At 3 p.m., Mrs. John S. Lutz, Vice-President, Department of Missions of the Episcopal Church, will speak to the women about MUTUAL RESPONSIBILITY AND INTERDEPENDENCE.

The women of Saint John's will prepare one of their delicious dinners and reservations for same ($1.25) should be sent to the Reverend Henry E. Wright, 2409 S. Front St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19148, by October 22, or call DE 4-2896.
Evening Prayer will be at 5:15 p.m., followed by the supper at 6:00 p.m., and after this the men's meeting at which time the speaker will be Bishop DeWitt.

DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA RESEARCH AND PLANNING GROUP: On November 8, 9, 10, 11, 15 and 16, the General Division of Research and Field Study will make its report to the Diocese and to the parishes and missions of the Diocese on the results and recommendations of the Diocesan Survey.

The meeting which will include the report of the Church of the Holy Trinity will be made at the Church of Saint Andrew and Saint Monica, 3600 Baring Street, Philadelphia, on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1965.

The meeting will begin at 5:30 with a presentation by the Reverend Herbert Barsale, Executive Secretary, Unit of Statistics. Each parish will be given the printed report on its Self Study, and following dinner a period will be set aside for questions and discussion. Please note that the host parish will serve the dinner, but that those attending the meeting are asked to cover the cost.

The Bishop is asking all parish clergy, together with Senior and Junior Wardens, the head of the Women of the Church, or such other lay leaders as the rector or vicar may designate (not to exceed four from any one parish) to attend this most important meeting.

The cost of the dinner is $2.00 and reservations and payment are to be sent to Mrs. J. Flossie Reddick, parish office of St. Andrew's and St. Monica's, not later than November 1.

"Is Marriage Essential for Everyone?"—Panel Discussion. Leaders: A.
Dorothea Pohlman, M.D., and Martin Goldberg, M.D.

Eight o'clock in the Evening - The Service of Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Walter Cavanaugh. Preacher: The Associate Rector.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided).

SINCERE THANKS are expressed to all who by so much work, such loyal gifts of time and effort made possible on November 4, a very fine Christmas Bazaar. And to those who aided in making it possible for the third annual Bach Festival to be held at—but not under the auspices of the Church of the Holy Trinity—our very real appreciation. Good "public relations" to say the least!

AT THE EVENING SESSION of the meeting of the Convocation of South Philadelphia held at Saint John's, Southwark, October 26, Dean Cragg indicated the willingness and the desire of the Bishop of the Diocese, Dr. De Witt, to meet with all of the clergy and laity of the area for a 'Face to Face'—
"Question and Answer Period." Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to see the whole of the church filled for that meeting, after all, we CAN seat 1900 people; but realist that I am compelled to be, it would be splendid if we were able to jam pack the Centennial Room. In any case, plan to be present and to ask some of the questions and raise some of the points which have been put to me and which you have asked one of another.
I can think of no good reason why we should not have 100 per cent attendance at this meeting which will be held on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 29 at 8 p.m. in the Centennial Room. —C. P.

LOOKING AHEAD TO THANKSGIVING, and it is well we should, the following services will be held at the Church of the Holy Trinity: 5:30 P. M., Holy Communion on Wednesday Night (Thanksgiving Eve); and Services of the Holy Communion at 9 A. M. and Morning Prayer at 11 A. M. on Thanksgiving Day. On Thanksgiving Eve at 8 P. M. there will be a United Service for the South Philadelphia Convocation to be held at Saint Elisabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets, the third such annual service to be held. Make an expression of your faith a part of your Witness on Thanksgiving Day

ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, Armistice Day—Veterans Day—Remembrance Day—there will be in addition to the Services of the Holy Communion at 7 a.m. and 12:15 noon, a solemn service of remembrance for those who have given their lives in the Viet Nam conflict. This service will begin at 10:15 a.m.
Bishop Swift will represent the Bishop of Pennsylvania. Your presence is needed!

WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY—DAY GROUP: The speaker at the November 11 meeting of the Women of Holy Trinity, Day Group, will be Mrs. Paul Lingle, Chairman of the Church Periodical Club of this Diocese. The C.P.C., as it is affectionately known, is one of the finest of missionaries for it sends Bibles, other religious books and periodicals and school books to missionary outposts in this and many other countries of the world. Don't miss it.
Holy Communion will be celebrated in the church at the 12:15 noon service, luncheon in the Centennial Room follows at one o'clock. All women of the Church and their friends are cordially invited.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, by Monday, November 8. Telephone the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) or mail a card in plenty of time.

A UNITED SERVICE FOR THE SOUTHERN CONVOCATION

Thanksgiving Eve—Wednesday, November 24—8 p.m.

At Saint Elisabeth's Church

16th and Mifflin Streets

THE FOLLOWING MINUTE is a record of the action at the last meeting of the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestrymen relative to the matter of the mailing of the parish leaflet and the lack of receipt (on time) thereof:—

"Motion made, seconded and approved that the following notice be placed in the leaflet: Mailing of the leaflet will be discontinued except to those members of the congregation who request that it be sent to them. A postcard will be sent with the leaflet in which this notice is carried so that any member wishing to receive the leaflet may notify the Rector. In place of the leaflet, the Rector will send out a monthly news letter. A motion was made, seconded and approved that the Rector's monthly news letter be sent by first class mail."

A UNITED SERVICE FOR THE SOUTHERN CONVOCATION—will be held this year at Saint Elisabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets, at 8 p.m., Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, November 24. The preacher will be the Reverend Robert B. MacDonald, Rector of St. Simeon's Church, Philadelphia.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 29—8 p.m. at the Church of the Holy Trinity the entire Convocation of South Philadelphia is invited to come and meet with Bishop DeWitt for a 'face to face' "Question and Answer Period." Plan to be present and participate in this meeting. Surely you have questions to ask and points which need clarifying and it is the willingness and the desire of the Bishop to meet with the clergy and laity of the area to discuss and answer these concerns.

TUESDAY — NOVEMBER 30

SAINT ANDREW'S DAY

12:15 p.m. — Holy Communion

PLAN TO ATTEND the meeting to be held at Holy Trinity, Monday, November 29, at 8 p.m. which is for the entire Convocation of South Philadelphia. Meet with Bishop DeWitt for a 'face to face' "Question and Answer Period." Come —participate in the meeting—receive answers to your questions,—For all clergy and laity of the Convocation.

DECEMBER 1:—ADVENT QUIET MORNING. 10:00 a.m. at Saint Mark's, 1625 Locust St., Philadelphia. Leader: The Right Reverend A. Ervine Swift, Assistant to the Bishop of Pennsylvania. Following the Quiet Morning, Bishop Swift will be celebrant at the service of Holy Communion.

The Quiet Morning is not only for all the women of the Diocese, but also for our laymen who wish to attend. The Advent collect emphasizes the three dominant thoughts of the season which is the beginning of the Church year.
We look back into history with joy recalling the Birth of the Babe in the manger; we look forward with awe to the day of judgment; and the tremendous sequel of events of past and future are experienced with the observance of Advent as external present realities.

MARK THE DATE OF Sunday, December 12, at 8 p.m. on your calendar! At that time Mr. Royce will present a special setting of the Te Deum in C by F. J.
Hadyen and the Magnificat by J. S. Bach with Christmastide inserts. Come and bring your friends to this musical program.

IS YOUR PLEDGE CARD IN? There are still members of Holy Trinity who have NOT responded to the Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday appeal. We strongly urge those who have not responded to do so within the next day or two.
Won't you please co-operate with us in order that the work of Holy Trinity may not be hampered?

ASK THE CLERGY? A live program heard 7:05 to 8:00 p.m. Sundays, WIP/
Radio 610. Call LO 3-5455.

NOVEMBER 4—at the Barclay—the Bazaar given by the Women of Holy Trinity.
It was a perfect day and the shoppers were there in abundance. The booths in the ballroom and lobby were bright and well stocked. Unusual and attractive articles were for sale. Everyone was smiling and happy. As the chairmen said, when congratulated on the splendidly successful Bazaar and Card Party, "It was a wonderful day, not because of our efforts, or the efforts of a few, but due to the good fellowship and spirit of cooperation, radiated by each person who participated in any way in this affair." And so to everyone who planned and gave and worked and contributed; who assisted with their talents and their time, the Bazaar Committee extends a very sincere "Thank you." It couldn't have been done without your help.
The financial report is not quite ready, final results will be announced at our meeting on December 9.

MR. DONALD BARNHOUSE, News Analyst, WCAU-TV, will be the speaker, at the next meeting of the Evening Group, Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, on Tuesday, December 7.

Besides being a well-known news commentator, Mr. Barnhouse is also an ordained minister, and at one time served as a member of the Reverend Billy Graham's team. His subject on December 7 will be: "Your Walk with Christ; Brambles or Roses?"

Dinner will be at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room, and reservations ($1.50) should be in the Church office no later than Thursday, December 2. Because of Mr. Barnhouse's TV schedule, he will not be with us for dinner, but will speak at 7:45.

This is a rare opportunity to hear Donald Barnhouse "in person," and it is hoped we will have a good crowd. Spread the word, and bring your friends!

THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY, DAY GROUP, will meet on Thursday, December 9. The speaker will be Miss Elizabeth Beath who for several years was the United Thank Offering representative on the National Council of the Episcopal Church. Miss Beath will show her own pictures and tell of her travels and experiences with the U.T.O. in various parts of the world. This will be interesting and enlightening.

The meeting opens with the celebration of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service; followed by luncheon in the Centennial Room at 1 o'clock. All women of the Church and their friends are cordially invited.
Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut St., by Monday, December 6. Telephone the Parish Office (LO 7-1267), or mail a card in plenty of time.

KEEP NEXT SUNDAY (December 12) at 8 p.m. open on your calendar so that you can attend the special musical program here at Holy Trinity—Mr. Roye will present a special setting of the Te Deum in C by F. J. Haydn and the Magnificat by J. S. Bach with Christmastide inserts. Your friends are welcome, too.

Eight o'clock - The Service of the Holy Communion, with Meditation

Server: Earl R. Thomas.

The Collect, Epistle and Gospel are to be found on pages
93-94 of the Book of Common Prayer.

Cone, Mrs. Miriam Edwards, Frances Lindsay, Emma McClintock, Kathryn
Murray, and Mrs. Earl R. Thomas.

The Serving Hostesses at the Post Service Fellowship in the Parish House are Margaret Colflesh and Anne Walford.

Five forty-five p.m. - Trinity Club Supper and Speaker

A Club for Young Adults, Ages 19 to 39.

Annual Christmas Program for Stenton Child Center.

Eight o'clock in the Evening - A Special Program of Sacred Music

BE IT HOPED that there will be given to the splendid program of music, which Mr. Roye and the choir plan to offer on the evening of December 12 at 8 p.m., the support and interest which is so richly deserved. This is your Church program of special Advent—Christmas music—plan to be present!

YOUR ATTENTION is called to the meeting on Monday evening, December 13, at 8 p.m. when at a parish level we plan to provide the opportunity for you to ask questions and receive answers. It is hoped that this may be of mutual value so do plan to be present.

LOOKING AHEAD TO CHRISTMAS—we shall plan to use about the only day we can for the decoration of the Church. This will be on the evening of December 22 (Wednesday) at 7:30 p.m. Many hands make light work and it can be far more of a joy than a chore—IF—we have enough support.

AS OF THIS DATE, we are $6,998.70 short of the goal which we set for ourselves on Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday. Have you made your response and agreed to do all that you can?

INDICATE AS SOON AS YOU POSSIBLY CAN if you wish your communion in the home privately—if you are so confined—during the late Advent/Christmas Season. Please call the church office—LO 7-1267.

THE INCLUSION OF THIS ISSUE of the Parish Leaflet in the mail is with the 'News Letter.' It does not mean that we intend to resume the general mailing of the leaflet again. Have you responded to the question card which came to you relative to this matter?

BEFORE THE YEAR 1965 comes to an end, please do your best for the All Saints' Hospital Fund. The goal is in sight but only by our united efforts at the parish level can it be secured—read the excellent article in the Church News.

CHRISTMAS DAY THIS YEAR will come on a Saturday. In an effort to get in touch with many who may be alone on that day and that the spirit of the Holy Season might be the better shared, why not plan now to take part in the breakfast which we hope to serve at 9 a.m. that morning. Does this mean YOU? Is this an opportunity YOU would enjoy? Then—phone the parish office—LO 7-1267!

Eight o'clock in the Evening - The Service of Evening Prayer

Crucifer: Walter Cavanaugh. The Preacher: Associate Rector.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided).

WE EXTEND a very real welcome this morning to Archdeacon Ernest V. Lean, of Saint Mark's in the Diocese of Saint John's in South Africa, as he comes to make a presentation to us at the nine o'clock breakfast seminar and to be our guest preacher at the eleven o'clock service. Born and educated in England, Archdeacon Lean has since 1932 served in South Africa with the exception of three years in Grenada in the West Indies. Active in the work of the Red Cross and welfare programs, he is also a keen "ham" radio operator. He will be in the United States and Canada until the end of the month of March.

EXACTLY FIFTEEN PEOPLE were on hand to do all of the work it was necessary to have done when we proceeded to decorate the church for Christmas-tide. We were very much indebted to those gentlemen of Trinity Club who came and did much of the "high work and the climbing" around which in a building of our size is so necessary at such a time. A very real THANK YOU to each and every one.

ON THE SUNDAY which is nearest to the Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul, i.e., Sunday, January 23 this year, we are to have as our guest preacher in the cause of theological education, the Reverend Prof. Henry M. Shires of the Department of New Testament studies at the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Mass. We bespeak a real welcome for him and your personal support to the seminary of your choice.

WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY—DAY GROUP: "Travels for the United Thank Offering" is the title of Miss Elizabeth Beath's talk to the Day Group of the Women of Holy Trinity at their meeting on January 13, 1966. Miss Beath will also show films taken on her many trips, as representative of the National Council of the Episcopal Church, in countries where the U.T.O. provides much need help to churches and schools.

The meeting opens with the celebration of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service, followed by lunch at one o'clock in the Centennial Room. Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, January 10. Telephone the parish office (LO 7-1267), or mail a card in plenty of time.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided.)

OUR MOST SINCERE congratulations are extended to the Reverend Samuel Todd, Son of Col. and Mrs. Todd of this Parish, who on Saint John the Evangelist Day, December 28, was ordered Deacon by the Right Reverend Horace W. B. Donegan in the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine in New York City.

READ WITH CARE the current issue on the "Church News" and in particular the article on M.R.I. and the report of the 'self study' made by our Diocese of Pennsylvania. These articles will repay care and study.

NOTE THAT THE Convention of the Diocese this year will be held in the Benjamin Franklin Hotel on the late afternoon of Friday, January 21 and Saturday, January 22. There will be space for visitors. Be among those present.

DO BEAR IN MIND the fact that there is always room, and for that matter a light breakfast too, at the 9 a.m. seminar on Sunday mornings in the Centennial Room. After having seen the color slides and the film strip on Westminster Abbey (prepared in connection with the 900th Anniversary) we move on to a missionary emphasis for the Epiphany and the pre-Lenten Season. Come and see what is being done—and also what is not being done!
—in this vast area of concern.

MOST SINCERE thanks to all who by help for, and participation in, made possible a splendid Christmas breakfast rally on December 25 at nine o'clock.
Many who were alone did not have to be lonely on that great festive day!

NEXT WEEK, January 23, we welcome as our guest preacher for Theological Education Sunday, the Reverend Henry M. Shires, Th.D., D.D., from the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Mass.

The task of educating men to serve God and Man through the Church's ministry is a challenging one. To provide effective leadership for the Church, the men themselves must be of spiritual motivation, of high intellect, love people and must be willing to dedicate their lives for them. Then, they require an academic education, spiritual discipline of worship and a knowledge of techniques associated with the profession. We must be concerned to provide the very best theological education to further the great Witness and mission of the Church.

Come and hear what Dr. Shires has to say about this facet of our Church's life.

SERVICES FOR NEXT WEEK

TUESDAY, JANUARY 25,

CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL

12:15 (noon)—Holy Communion

THURSDAY, JANUARY 27

7:00 P. M.—Holy Communion
Breakfast, Bible Study

12:15 (noon)—Holy Communion

OUR SINCERE CONGRATULATIONS and very best wishes are extended to the Reverend John W. Roberts who in Saint David's Church, Toronto, Canada, was by the Assistant Bishop of Niagara, ordered Deacon on January 9. The Rector was there to preach the Ordination sermon. Also, we would remember the Reverend Robert Snyder who on January 1 became the new Rector of Saint Stephen's, Norwood, in this Diocese. Both of these gentlemen have served well in past years with Trinity Club.

BY AN OVERSIGHT—and for no other reason, the name of the General Theological Seminary was omitted from the schools listed on the envelope mailed throughout the Parish on January 5 for the Theological Education Sunday program.

THE PRESENTATION to be made by Dr. Shires of the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts, on Sunday, January 23 at 11 a.m. will be preceded by some consideration of what is being done in this field elsewhere and rather interesting comparisons will be made. Should these be of interest to you, attend the 9 a.m. seminar as well as the 11 o'clock service on that day.

PLAN TO LOOK at the progress report (posted on the church porch) of All Saints' Hospital Campaign—up to this date the congregation of the Church of the Holy Trinity has given $1,555.05 to this fund.

† When to the temple Mary Went
And brought the Holy Child,
Him did the aged Simeon see,
As it had been revealed.
He took up Jesus in his arms
And blessing God he said,
Now I depart, having seen my Saviour,
The light of men.
Help now thy servants gracious Lord,
That we may ever be as once the Faithful Simeon was Rejoicing but in Thee.
And when we must from earth departure take,
May gently fall asleep,
And with Thee wake, wake!

You are able to function as an usher or as a server.

MRS. RUSSELL T. HITT will be the speaker at the next dinner meeting of the Women's Evening Group on Tuesday, February 1, when her subject will be "Mary or Martha?"

Mrs. Hitt is an outstanding Presbyterian laywoman and an organizer and teacher of Bible classes in the suburban main line area. She is the wife of the editor of Eternity Magazine who is also a well-known evangelical author. She is an outstanding and inspiring speaker and we urge as many women as possible to come hear her.

Dinner will be at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room, 1902 Walnut Street, and reservations ($1.50) should be received in the Church office no later than Thursday, January 27. If it is not possible for you to come for dinner, do join us at 7 p.m. to hear Mrs. Hitt.

INQUIRERS' CLASS SLATED—Dr. Leeman plans to begin an Inquirers' Class on Monday evening, starting hopefully about mid-February. This is an opportunity either just to learn more about the Christian faith and its practice, or for some a more formal preparation for Confirmation in the Episcopal Church. Attendance does not obligate one to the latter commitment, however. Will anyone interested please contact Dr. Leeman so that arrangements can be made.

THE LENTEN SEASON begins on February 23 and the following are some dates to mark on your calendars:

Ash Wednesday, February 23: At 8 p.m. there will be a service at Holy Trinity under the auspices of the Southern Convocation of Philadelphia. The guest preacher will be the Reverend Dr. Kendig B. Cully, Dean of the Biblical Seminary in New York City, one of the first of our clergy ever to head an ecumenical theological school.

Tuesday, March 1: The first session of a reading seminary led by Dr. Pratt using Dr. Alfred B. Starrett's book "The Real God." The time is 4 o'clock. All are welcome—come and bring your friends.

Thursday, March 3: The first Thursday evening Lenten Parish Family program. It begins with Evening Prayer at 5:30 p.m., followed by supper and the speaker in the Centennial Room. The speaker for this evening is the Reverend T. Gordon Ott, Rector of the Church of the Resurrection, Philadelphia, known to many here because of the fact he served here when Dr.
Salmon was Rector. And—have you sent in your reservations for the Thursday evening programs?

THE TOTAL OFFERING for the seminaries of the Church which came to us for the recent Theological Education Offering appeal amounts to $2,587.85.
This is to be distributed in some cases as specified by the donors and the remainder equally among the others. Sincere appreciation to all who have responded.

to attend and bring your friends. Support this service.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Who doth stand there apart? In the brake he loseth his path; close behind the branches twine round about him, The grass springs up again the desert surrounds him.

Who will heal his affliction? For to him balm is poison, Naught but hate of men findeth he in the cup of love.

Once despised, now a despiser, Secretly he wastes all the good he hath in a vain self communing.

WE WELCOME as our guest preacher this morning the Reverend Edward B.
Pollanick, Rector of All Saints' Church, Rhawnhurst. He was Associate Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity under Dr. Longley's Rectorship from 1951 to 1957. Dr. Leeman is the guest preacher at All Saints' this morning as a part of their Lenten special schedule of preachers.

THE REVEREND EDWARD L. LEE, JR., our former Curate, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Women's Evening Group, on Tuesday, March 1.
Mr. Lee is Episcopal Chaplain at Temple University. His talk to us will be on "The Ministry in Higher Education." We know that as many as possible will want to hear Mr. Lee, and to welcome him and his wife, Kathryn, back to Holy Trinity.

Dinner will be at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room, 1902 Walnut Street, and reservations ($1.50) should be in the Church office no later than Thursday, February 24. If you can't be with us for dinner, do come to the meeting at 7 p.m. to hear our speaker.

THE TUESDAY AFTERNOON SEMINARS FOR THE LENTEN SEASON will begin at 4 p.m. on Tuesday, March 1. The study book will be "The Real God" by the Reverend Dr. Alfred B. Starrett, Rector of Emmanuel Church in Baltimore, Maryland. This careful and considered evaluation of many "Modern positions in the Christian understanding" is not only interesting reading but it represents a MUST for those who would be well informed at the present time. Plan to attend. The Rector will lead this series in the Centennial Room.

THE REVEREND DR. T. GORDON OTT, Rector of the Church of the Resurrection, is the speaker for the first Lenten Parish Family program this coming Thursday, March 3. Evening Prayer is at 5:30 p.m. followed by dinner and the speaker.

There is still time to send in your reservation for the five Lenten dinners, or if you wish, you may make a reservation for this coming Thursday only.
The cost of the series of five is $8.50 and single reservations are $2.00.

PLEASE SPEAK TO THE RECTOR IF:—

You are able to function as a server or as an usher—

You are interested in being considered as a candidate for Confirmation.

DR. LEEMAN has begun an Inquirers' Class which is an opportunity either just to learn more about the Christian faith and its practice, or for some a more formal preparation for Confirmation in the Episcopal Church. Attendance does not obligate one to the latter commitment, however. If you are interested, please contact Dr. Leeman so that arrangements can be made.

THE NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS OF OUR CHURCH produces a large amount of printed material which they hope will be circulated among and on being read will be understood by our people. Since we now have only a monthly mailing much of that material which used to come in the mail is now placed in the tract racks in the vestibule of the Church or on the table in the parish house. Examine it—take and read what you might study with profit—as opportunity exists respond to that which is set forth—but above all do not neglect these materials.

ON MARCH 10, the Reverend Jesse F. Anderson, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia, will speak to the Day Group of the Women of Holy Trinity; his topic—"Our Common Creeds"—will be an enlightening one and especially appropriate in this Lenten Season.

The meeting will open with the celebration of Holy Communion in the church at the 12:15 noon service. Luncheon follows in the Parish House at one o'clock. Members of the Parish and their friends will be very welcome.
Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, March 7. Telephone the Parish Office, LO 7-1267 or mail a card in plenty of time.

THURSDAY, MARCH 10 will be the second Lenten parish dinner program. We will begin at 5:30 with Evening Prayer followed by the dinner and the speaker. It is our pleasure and privilege to welcome as the speaker the Reverend Edward B. Pollanick, Rector of All Saints' Church, Rhawnhurst, who was the Associate Rector of Holy Trinity from 1951 to 1957. No doubt many of you will want to hear Mr. Pollanick.

If you have not made a reservation for the series of Thursday dinners, a single reservation may be made ($2.00) by calling the Parish Office.

THERE IS OPPORTUNITY during the course of the Lenten Season to attend two seminars led by Dr. Pratt. One will meet each Sunday morning at nine o'clock (coffee and sweet rolls available) and the other will be held on Tuesday afternoons at four o'clock.

The Sunday Seminars involve a careful consideration of "The Secular City" by Harvey Cox. This book is a challenge to self scrutiny and relevance, essential aspects of any Lenten program.

On Tuesday afternoons at four o'clock the study volume will be "The Real God" by Alfred B. Starrett. His book is a very constructive contribution towards the interpretation of modern theological moods both in this country and elsewhere. He has produced a fine aid to understanding. There is plenty of room in both of these programs. There is no limitations on enrollment.
Please feel more than welcome.

ON SUNDAY, MARCH 20 (Mothering Sunday)—our concern will be for The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, administered by the Presiding Bishop's Committee for World Relief and Inter-Church Aid, channels contributions from individuals, parishes, and other organizations connected with The Episcopal Church to people with urgent needs throughout the world. Wherever human beings are caught in disaster situations, the Fund moves in quickly and effectively to give immediate assistance and to develop long-range programs of rehabilitation. Many of the programs supported by the Fund are carried on jointly with other Christian groups. The Fund makes three major appeals for gifts each year: the Share Our Substance Appeal, the United Clothing Appeal, and One Great Hour of Sharing. Additional contributions to the Fund are always welcome.

THURSDAY, MARCH 17 the speaker at the third Lenten parish dinner will be the Reverend John Harper (brother of Ralph who served here with Dr.
Longley). Mr. Harper is Rector of St. John's Church, Washington, known as "the Church of the Presidents" and an outstanding person among our younger men.

Evening Prayer is at 5:30 followed by dinner and the speaker. Reservations for this dinner $2.00—call the Parish Office.

ON SUNDAY, MARCH 20 (Mothering Sunday)—our concern will be for The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, administered by the Presiding Bishop's Committee for World
Relief and Inter-Church Aid, channels contributions from individuals, par-

each year: the Share Our Substance Appeal, the United Clothing Appeal, and One Great Hour of Sharing. Additional contributions to the Fund are always welcome.

FOLLOWING THE 11 A. M. SERVICE next Sunday morning, we shall enjoy at the Post Service Fellowship portions of the traditional 'simnel cake,' the item long linked with the observance of "Mothering Sunday." While for most of us in our Parish life the pattern of going home to visit Mother and the Mother Church of the area is hardly possible, it is well to remember that long before Mothers' Day came to the fore, the Church had and observed Mothering Sunday.

The Post Service Fellowship in the Parish House is designed to be just that —a real fellowship—and that word fellowship far from being overworked is, if anything, underdone. How many of you noted the item in a recent issue of the Church News which recorded the following conviction:

"For fifteen years I have been preaching about love and forgiveness and community. I never knew what they were outside of textbook definitions.
It took a complete breakdown of my whole emotional system for me to learn that they were only words only concepts in my life. I have learned about love and forgiveness and community in a mental word. I did not learn them in the Church of God. An extreme reaction? In parish after parish, Sunday after Sunday, the people arrive alone, pray alone and leave alone."

Tragic—and true—and something which does not have to happen here!
Forward with Christian fellowship!

THE ANNUNCIATION

(Friday, the 25th)

12:15 (noon)—Holy Communion

THIS SUNDAY (the fourth Sunday in Lent) is known as "Mothering" or "Refreshment" Sunday. When we gather in the Parish House for the post-service fellowship, there will be served that which is traditional fare on this particular day—"simnel cake." In the mother Church of the Anglican Communion, it has long been customary to observe this day in the Lenten Season as the 'Mother's Day of the Church.' In the course of it, the 'missions' or 'chapels' in a parish came back to the mother Church for a united service. Children brought garlands of flowers and the special "simnel cake" for their mothers and the thoughts of the portions which had been heard in the Epistle and in the Gospel for the day in the service of the Holy Communion were brought together—Jerusalem—"The Mother of us all"—and the feeding of the multitude.

So—plan to gather in the Parish House for the post-service fellowship—enjoy a cup of tea or coffee and a portion of "simnel cake"—and most importantly—enjoy one another in this fellowship.

AT THE FOURTH LENTEN PARISH DINNER, Thursday, March 24, we will be privileged to have as our guest speaker the Reverend Peter C. Van der Hiel, the Rector of Nevil Memorial Church of St. George, Ardmere. From 1939 to 1941, Mr. Van der Hiel was the Assistant Rector at Holy Trinity under the Rectorship of Dr. Salmon.

Evening Prayer is at 5:30, followed by dinner and the speaker. Reservations may be had for this dinner by calling the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) and are $2.00.

IT IS NOT TOO EARLY to mark the date of April 16 on your calendar to remind you of the gayest of spring events at Holy Trinity. It is the Annual Card Party and Bake Sale of the Evening Group of Women. It will be an afternoon of fun and fellowship. It is also possible, and will indeed be helpful, if you are able to participate in this event beforehand. Special goodies for the bake table are always welcome, and you may have items that can be used for the surprise packages, and then, too, we need articles for the Pink Elephant Table! Your help is earnestly solicited—by coming and bringing your friends and by donations to the various tables. Your participation will aid the Evening Group in its missions efforts. The Chairmen, Eleanor Meagher, Sophia Ewell and Becky Sapp will be delighted to hear from YOU!

THE VESTRY has nominated the following men to serve on the Vestry for four year terms, 1966 to 1970, Frank B. Murdoch, Horace Y. Rogers and Col. Samuel R. Todd. These names will be placed before the Annual Meeting, April 25th for election.

ON THURSDAY, MARCH 31, we come to the fifth, and last, Lenten Parish program. At 5:30 p.m. in the church, a short musical program has been arranged by Mr. Frederick Royce, Holy Trinity's organist and choirmaster.
The Holy Trinity Choir will sing excerpts from Stainer's ever popular "Crucifixion." Members of the congregation will welcome these familiar melodies and words as a prelude to Holy Week and Easter.

Then, this program will be followed by dinner and the speaker in the Centennial Room. The guest speaker will be the Reverend Canon Kenneth A.
Cragg who serves as a Warden of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, and is now doing graduate work at Union Theological Seminary in New York City. Canon Cragg is one of the foremost authorities on Islam and was for sometime a Canon at St. George's Cathedral in Jerusalem.
Reservations may be made for the dinner ($2.00) by calling the Parish Office no later than Tuesday afternoon, March 29.

ON SUNDAY, APRIL 17 at the 11:00 Service, the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution will be at Holy Trinity for their 78th service.

THE REVEREND DR. RALPH L. KEIPER, editor of Eternity Magazine, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Women's Evening Group, on Tuesday, April 5. His topic will be "How to Conquer Inner Space." Dr. Keiper is well known as a conference speaker and Bible teacher, and is noted as a dynamic preacher. He has a message of vital personal importance for all women of the parish.

Dinner will be at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room, 1902 Walnut Street. Reservations ($1.50) should be in the Church Office no later than Thursday, March 31. If it is not possible to be with us for dinner, do plan to come at 7 p.m. to hear Dr. Keiper. And bring your friends!

WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED by Radio Station WIP (AM 610 and FM 93.3) that they will broadcast the eleven o'clock service "live" on Easter Day, April 10.

THE VESTRY has nominated the following men to serve on the Vestry for four year terms, 1966 to 1970, Frank B. Murdoch, Horace Y. Rogers and Col.
Samuel R. Todd. These names will be placed before the Annual Meeting, April 25, for election.

Monday, April 25 is the date set for the Annual Parish Meeting. Details of this event will be forthcoming later.

HONORABLE LADIES OF HOLY TRINITY EVENING GROUP, proprietors of enchanting Japanese Garden at Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, request presence of all honorable ladies of parish at most ancient and venerable Card Party and Bake Sale, Saturday, April 16 at two o'clock.

In setting of Oriental splendor, Evening Group of Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will entertain friends and guests at gala affair to raise funds for home and overseas missions of Episcopal Church. Amid delights of Japanese garden, you will entertain your table at bridge or scrabble, win handsome door prizes, indulge in mysterious "surprise package," shop for "pink elephants" and take home delectable treats from esteemed gourmet table. In addition to honorable presence, ladies respectfully request contributions of your gourmet foods, pink elephants and especially hats.

THE WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

And it came to pass when the time was come that He should be received up. He steadfastly set His face to Jerusalem, and a very great multitude spread their garments in the way. Others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitude that went before and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come he beheld the city and wept over it saying, if thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day the things which belong unto thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Who watched while Majesty rode on to die, crying Hosanna in a joyous song. Could'st thou not heed the distant warning cry of Heaven's apprehensive, waiting throng? Hosanna to men's King! Thine acclamations ring! While God the Father veils his face, And God the Son his griefs embrace, Sing thine own griefs, Jerusalem! Jesus saith, Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour, Father, glorify thy Name. Then came there a voice from Heaven saying, I have both glorified it and will glorify it again. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

EASTER COMMUNION: To all ill and shut-in people who cannot be at Church—If you call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) requesting that Holy Communion be brought to you, a time will be arranged for the service. Please do not hesitate to ask.

THE REVEREND WILLIAM E. BLEWETT, Director of Diocesan Student Volunteer Service, will be the speaker when the Day Group of the Women of Holy Trinity meet on April 14. Opening as usual with the 12:15 noon Service of Holy Communion in the church, lunch will be served at one o'clock in the Centennial Room. The Reverend Mr. Blewett's account of his recent travels in Tanzania, Tanganyika, will bring that portion of the African continent very close to us and is sure to be a most interesting recital.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, by Monday, April 11. Telephone the Parish Office, LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

THE SPRING INGATHERING of the United Thank Offering of the Women of Holy Trinity will be held at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday, April 24. Please mark the date on your calendar.

SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA CHAPTER AMERICAN RED CROSS—Local registered nurses are being sought by the Red Cross for volunteer duty on industrial and community bloodmobile visits. The local Red Cross Blood Program is dependent to a great extent on local volunteer nurses—they are needed to take donors' medical histories, check their blood pressures and give hemoglobin tests, and the only eligibility requirement is that the nurses be currently registered in some state. An orientation class for new volunteer nurses will be held on Wednesday, April 27 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Red Cross chapter headquarters, 235 S. 17th Street, Philadelphia. Interested nurses can call PE 5-9000, Ext. 202. The Red Cross Blood Program performs a vital function in our community, but to continue to do the job effectively more volunteer nurses are needed.

AN IMPORTANT DATE: April 16, at 2 p.m.—The Annual Card Party and Bake Sale sponsored by the Evening Group of the Women of Holy Trinity.

THE WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Christ is risen from the dead,
Christ the Lord is risen today,
Sons of men and angels say:
Raise your joys and triumphs high,
Sing ye heavens, and earth reply.
Christ the Lord is risen today,
Christ is risen from the dead,
Christ is risen and become the first fruits of them that slept.
The three sad days are quickly sped;
He rises glorious, He rises from the dead:
All glory, all glory to our risen Head.
Soar we now where Christ has led
Following our exalted head
Made like Him, like Him we rise,
Ours the Cross, the grave, the skies.
Praise the Lord, O my soul,
And forget not his benefits.

SAINT MARK'S DAY

(Monday, April 25)

12:15 (Noon) — Holy Communion

A MATTER OF INTEREST to those who are really concerned with M.R.I. is to be found in the March 25 issue of the CHURCH TIMES in which the present executive officer of the Anglican Communion, Bishop Ralph Dean of the Diocese of Cariboo in Canada, has this to say: "The total response at the moment is in the region of one-twelfth of the total required (15 million dollars) and the outlook does not seem promising. Almost all the directories in varying degree show the need of much more careful planning, foresight and a sense of priority and strategy and distressingly few seem to evince any realistic ecumenical outlook."

The opportunity to respond through this Parish for our project is still open.

WHEN AT THE ELEVEN O'CLOCK SERVICE ON PALM SUNDAY, a simple attempt was made to spread the dimensions of our friendship out of a congregation of 354, 83 members identified themselves—40 visitors—and only seven by providing both name and address made it possible for us to write to them.
C. P.

THE EVENING GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY wishes to express deep and sincere gratitude to all the people of the parish, and to all the merchants and good friends of the Philadelphia area who contributed so generously their time, talents and material goods to the Annual Card Party and Bake Sale on April 16. Without the loyal support of these many good friends, this one big fund-raising event of the year would not have been possible. So, HATS OFF! to all who helped to make this year's party the greatest yet!

—Eleanor Meagher, Becky Sapp and Sophia Ewell, Co-chairmen.

AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY held on Monday evening, April 25, the following were elected to the Vestry: Frank B. Murdoch, Horace Y. Rogers and Samuel R. Todd to serve for a term of four years. In accordance with the By-Laws of the Church of the Holy Trinity, a Vestry meeting was held on April 27. Next week's leaflet will contain the names of the officers and standing committees appointed at this meeting. The Rector announced the appointment of Mr. C. C. Morris as Rector's Warden.

The Parish Council of the Church of the Holy Trinity includes six (6) members-at-large who are elected at the Annual Parish Meeting. Last Monday the following persons were elected as members-at-large to serve on the Parish Council for one year: Laura Abrams, Mrs. Frederick C. Bachman, Kenneth S. Baird, Thomas H. Goings, D. Roger Mower, Jr. and Marjorie Turner.

ON TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 3, the members of the Evening Group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity will meet in the Centennial Room for dinner at 6 p.m. to be followed by the Annual Meeting and Election of Officers. This is the last meeting of this group for the season.

THE DAY GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY will have a "go-see" trip to the Conference Center at Radnor, Pennsylvania, on May 12. A P.T.C. chartered bus will leave from in front of Holy Trinity Church promptly at 11 a.m. arriving at the Conference Center in time to see and enjoy the beautiful grounds. Lunch will be served, followed by a short business meeting in one of the attractive rooms of the Conference Center. Guests are invited and will be very welcome. The round trip bus fare will be $1.00 each, lunch will be $1.50.

On the return trip, the bus should reach Holy Trinity Church by 3 o'clock.
Reservations must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street by May 5.
Telephone the Parish Office, LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

OUR NATIONAL CHURCH has begun a study of theological education in this country under the direction of Dr. Pusey, the President of Harvard University. The following answer to this study is offered by a member of the faculty of a seminary from which I hold a degree—"We are trying to produce a man in whom opposites meet. He must be the saintly type detached from the rat race, benevolent and gentle; but at the same time he must have been around and be fast on the uptake. He must spend part of each day on his knees. But he must also be with it, fully aware of the struggle for control in any social group and of the cruelty men are capable of. He must be like a riverboat gambler who has been saved. He must be a scholar who has mastered Merleau-Ponty by wrestling with him after midnight, and he must be able to talk sensibly about Teilhard De Chardin to a scientist.
But he must also know the number Paul Hornung wears and what a railroad means in a bowling set. He must know by experience the dark night of the soul, and he must know how to come out of the wet sand with a wedge.
He must be good natured, the amiable butt of the jokes at a Rotary luncheon, but at the same time be aloof and dignified, the kind of man you could come to when you had discovered infidelity, or been told you had cancer. He should be the busiest man in town, starting a Scout Troop, having the elms sprayed, preparing a study series, visiting the sick, cutting a sten-cil—but he must never be hurried, because he is the only man in town who has time to listen. He must stand up and be counted in Vietnam and on race; but he must not step on the Birchers' toes and lose their pledge cards. He must be a judicious mixture of Robert McNamara, John of the Cross and Sargent Shriver. That's what we have to do, Mr. Pusey. And that's why we have to fail."

The Preacher: The Rev. George C. Anderson, Honorary Pres., Academy of Religion and Mental Health.
(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided).

PLEASE NOTE that at the 8 a.m. Service today there will be Corporate Communion for the Evening Group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity and Installation of the newly elected President of that organization. This will be followed by a "Dutch" breakfast at Horn & Hardart's, Broad and Walnut Sts.

AN EXCITING NEW SHOW—The Episcopal Colleges have prepared a very excellent color-slide program interpreting their objectives. This presentation includes slides from all of the Episcopal campuses with an accompanying narration. Dr. Pratt will show these slides at the 9 a.m. seminar on Sunday morning. All are welcome.

SUNDAY, MAY 8, at Evensong there will be a special service honoring the Health Professions, as the start of Alliance for Health Week. The special preacher for the occasion will be the Reverend George Christian Anderson, Founder and Honorary President of the Academy of Religion and Mental Health. Special music will be provided by the Hahnemann Hospital Student Nurses Chorus under the direction of Philip J. Saunders, A.A.G.O. You are cordially invited to attend and help pay honor to these professional groups.

TO THOSE WHO COME TO VISIT WITH US:—We at the Church of the Holy Trinity are anxious to be of maximum service to all who come to join with us for the worship of Almighty God. To that end we invite you to identify yourself by signing the visitors' register in the back of this parish leaflet, or by using one of the visitors' cards in the pew rack where you may now be. This is our attempt to come to know you. Will you help us by responding in whatever manner you can so that we may be of service to you and that you in turn may join in service with us?

Following the eleven o'clock service each Sunday morning (except on the first Sunday of each month) is what we call the Post Service Fellowship—the Coffee Hour. It is our hope that it may be just that; an opportunity to come to know other people who have shared in this act of worship with you. You are invited to attend. If you cannot do that, respond to those who greet you at the doors of the Church as you take your leave—their concern is to greet you—to express the hope that you have enjoyed to the full the time that we have spent together in this House of God—that you will return to be with us again and that unless you have other obligations and loyalties, you may wish to join more fully with us. We deem this to be Christian action. . . .

—C. P.

IF YOU ARE IN A POSITION to offer your services as an usher or to be a server—or if you are interested in membership in this Church, please speak with and identify yourself to the Rector.

AT A MEETING OF THE VESTRY on Wednesday, April 27, Mr. Austin J. Gaugel was appointed Captain of the Ushers and the following officers were elected for the present year: Mr. Horace Y. Rogers, Accounting Warden and Mrs. Robert D. Franklin, Secretary to the Vestry.

(Thursday, May 19)

7 a.m.—Holy Communion

(Breakfast, Bible Study)

12:15 (Noon)—Holy Communion

THE EVENING GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY, at their annual meeting on Tuesday, May 3, elected Mrs. M. Rebecca Sapp as their president, to serve for a term of two years. The outgoing president is Elizabeth Vosberg. Other officers of the Evening Group, who are elected on alternate years, are Margaret Warner, Vice President and Program Chairman; Louise Campion, Recording Secretary; Ruth Taxdal, Corresponding Secretary;
Peggy Colflesh, Treasurer; and Clella Whitman, United Thank Offering Custodian. The new president was installed by Dr. Pratt at a Corporate Communion of the group at the 8:00 a.m. service on May 8, after which the women enjoyed a "Dutch breakfast" at Horn & Hardart at Broad and Walnut Streets.

IN THE COURSE OF THIS—as in each and every—Rogationtide our thoughts turn to those who by their labor provide our food—or who make the growth of it possible. The hand of the Lord and the hands of those who labor are and ought to be seen in all of this. Such considerations guide our prayers and thoughts and make clear the understanding of our "MUTUAL RESPONSIBILITY AND INTERDEPENDENCE" at this particular level also.

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE CONGREGATION who have heard this setting of the Te Deum Laudamus in E by Benjamin Britten as it has been offered elsewhere have spoken to me concerning it. It is offered as is all of the music of the Church to the greater glory of God and for the edifying of His people. May it aid and advance our worship here since it is by many acclaimed as one of the most moving compositions in the whole field of Church music to come from the pen of this composer.

THE NINE O'CLOCK SUNDAY MORNING SEMINARS continue to be enjoyed by many. There is always room for you and since the subjects change with reasonable regularity, it is possible to attend those of especial interest.
Come and feel welcome.

TODAY THERE WILL BE A POST SERVICE FELLOWSHIP (the Coffee Hour)
in the Parish House.

THE REVEREND ROY S. LEE—Lecturer—English Scholar: Under the terms of the John Bohlen Lectureship provision is made for a noted scholar to be in full time residence for a semester every third or fourth academic year.
Accordingly, Roy Stuart Lee, M.A., B. Litt., D. Phil. has been invited to this position beginning in September.

Dr. Lee was born in Australia and received degrees (B.A. and M.A.) from Sydney University. After a brief pastorate he went to Oxford, England, and received his B. Litt. for research in the field of psychology and religion.
Returning to Australia he was for ten years Vice-Warden of Saint John's (Theological) College, Morpeth, N.S.W.

Returning to England, Oxford University awarded his doctorate for his book "Freud and Christianity." In 1961 he became a fellow and chaplain of Saint Catherine's College, which caters extensively to scientific studies. On his last visit to the United States he taught at Union Theological Seminary, New York City. His course offerings during the seminary's Michaelmas Term will be Psychoanalysis and Religion—a description of the practice and theory of psychoanalysis and a discussion of the bearing on religion of the knowledge gained through psychoanalysis. A second course entitled "Pastoral Theology" deals with the structure and dynamics of the mind, the stages of development from birth to death, with special reference to the problems of personal relationship encountered in parish work.

We welcome Dr. Lee to the Church of the Holy Trinity. He will make a presentation at the 9 a.m. seminar and will be the preacher at the 11 o'clock service. Please note that on the Sundays of November 6 and December 4 Dr. Lee will again make presentations at the 9 a.m. seminars and preach at the 11 o'clock services.

THE FIRST MEETING OF THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, EVENING GROUP, will be held on Tuesday, October 4, in the Centennial Room, 1902 Walnut Street. Dinner will be at 6 p.m. The Rector will speak on the topic "Life Abundant."

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 30—UNITED THANK INGATHERING of the Parish at the 11 o'clock service. Your United Thank Offering goes into all the world—it helps to provide scholarships to enable women to train for work in Christian education, it brings joy to individuals and institutions through practical gifts ranging in size from chinaware and typewriters to furnaces and automobiles in the mission field, it gains momentum and strength as it pioneers in the realms of ideas or action, special forms of ministry, or new methods of communication, penetrating new places and affecting the lives of people wherever it goes. TO ALL WOMEN: this is your United Thank Offering!

MEMBERS OF THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE are busy as bees working and planning towards that very important date of Thursday, November 3, when the Barclay is again the scene of our Annual Fair and Card Party.

Offer your services—look in your drawers and cupboards for items for the surprise packages and gifts for the boutique, useful and Christmas tables.
Also—remember donations for the gourmet table—hats—and white elephant.
Donations of every kind will be welcomed.

PLEASE KEEP THE DATE OF NOVEMBER 20TH set aside so that YOU can come and, along with other faithful supporters of the work of the Church of the Holy Trinity, participate in STEWARDSHIP-LOYALTY SUNDAY.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13 will be the first meeting of the season for the Day Group of the Women of Holy Trinity. There will be a celebration of Holy Communion in the Church at the 12:15 noon service. The installation of officers to serve for the next three years and a Corporate Communion will take place at this service.

Luncheon will be served at one o'clock in the Centennial Room. We are very fortunate in having as speaker of the afternoon, the Reverend Clement A. Akinbola of the Diocese of Lagos in Nigeria. Mr. Akinbola, who is presently studying at the Philadelphia Divinity School, will bring to us through his pictures and maps the reality of his own land.

Guests will be very welcome. Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street by Monday, October 10. Telephone the Parish Office (LO 7-1267) or mail a card in plenty of time.

BAZAAR—November 3—The Bazaar—at the Barclay!

We all like surprises and it's doubly exciting when you buy an attractively wrapped parcel and GUESS. So remember, the Surprise Package Table needs many, many packages. Don't wrap them, just enough paper to protect them from harm until the Committee prepares them for sale.

It's a little early to make candy, cakes and cookies just now but plan ahead and the delicious goodies, brownies, cakes and fudge, brought early to the Barclay on the third will disappear in short order.

The White Elephant Booth is always a fascinating place for shoppers—perhaps already you have gone over your shelves and cupboards and have found several items that will be just the thing for that table. "Handmades" are not whipped up over night, but in the evenings watching television or listening to the "sounds around us" a great many stitches will grow fast into beauty and usefulness.

It is truly amazing what attractive articles are created out of "bits and pieces"—the Christmas and Novelty Table will welcome them and they sell in a hurry. And don't forget the "Useful" Table of the Bazaar, the things we always need—and they're so attractive.

Please when you send or bring in your gifts for the Bazaar will you so mark the package. Just put "Bazaar" on it. That's all for now but will be back soon.

SUNDAY—OCTOBER 30—UNITED THANK OFFERING INGATHERING of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Remember—the gifts of the women to the United Thank Offering have made and will continue to make many differences possible in many neighborhoods throughout our nation and our world!

STEWARDSHIP-LOYALTY SUNDAY—NOVEMBER 20—HONOR THE LORD WITH THY SUBSTANCE.

NEXT SUNDAY'S SEMINAR AT 9:00 a.m. (the 16th) in the Centennial Room will be a film strip presentation on the West Indies. Come and share the fellowship of these seminars. Breakfast is served. All are welcome!

SAINT LUKE'S DAY

(Tuesday, October 18, 1966)

12:15 (noon)—Holy Communion

THE HOUSE OF REST FOR THE AGED was instituted by Bishop Whitaker—then Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania—in 1889. Mr. Henry Houston lent a spacious mansion in Germantown rent free "providing they would keep enough persons in it to make it worthwhile"—at least nine persons were to be in residence—there now are 37 women. The property was purchased from the Houston Estate in 1925; since then gifts from interested individuals have resulted in the addition of several first floor wings for the care of the infirm. It is an up-to-date well equipped home, with a fine infirmary, kitchens and laundry and in 1953 the Chapel of the Guardian Angels was added.

You are cordially invited to visit the House of Rest and see for yourself the attractive home created by an active board of trustees and the women's board of managers—representatives from churches in the Diocese—and interested friends of the home.

We hope you will come on October 20 to the Annual Donation Day and Open House, from 1:30 to 4:30—we need your interest and support. Come—visit the ladies, see the home and enjoy the party at 5919 Wayne Avenue, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa. 19144.

THE BAZAAR AND CARD PARTY AT THE BARCLAY—November 3 (the time is drawing near). On the two Sunday mornings preceding the Bazaar, October 23 and 30, Mrs. Callis, Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. Smith will be in the Parish House from 10:30 until 10:50 and from 12 until 1 o'clock, to receive donations. Articles for all tables will be appreciated. Surprise packages are especially needed, Handmade and Boutique items, also articles for the Useful Table—all of them will be welcome. Hats—new or good as new—are very popular and additions to the present stock will be much appreciated.
Pickles, jellies and preserves for the Gourmet Booth will be welcome; the committee hopes that PERISHABLES such as candy, cakes, cookies, etc., can be brought to the Barclay early on the morning of the Bazaar. The Card Party held in the ballroom is always a gala affair with attractive door and table prizes. In the afternoon, tea with sandwiches and cakes will be served.

This is the one day of the year when all the Women of Holy Trinity meet and work and enjoy the day together. It is always a happy occasion and made more so by the knowledge that the receipts from this annual affair make possible the women's missionary offering. When you support the Bazaar—you are helping the work of the Church in far off lands as well as in our own country.

DON'T FORGET—

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

FALL MEETING of the Woman's Aid to the South Philadelphia Convocation will be held on Tuesday, October 25 at 3:00 p.m. at Gloria Dei (Old Swedes Church), 916 S. Swanson Street.

A short business meeting will be held, two interesting films will be shown, courtesy of the Bell Telephone Company, followed by Evening Prayer and then dinner served by the women of Gloria Dei ($1.25). The men's meeting will be held after dinner.

NEXT SUNDAY, OCTOBER 30 at the 11 o'clock service there will be the Parish Ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity. The 'blue box' in the home of all women of the Episcopal Church is a reminder that in many places people do not enjoy all of the blessings that come to us. A woman puts a coin in the blue box and offers a prayer of thanksgiving; twice a year all of the offerings from the women of the Diocese are presented at a great service of thanksgiving and dedication; then, these offerings together with those from women all over the world are gathered at the Triennial Meeting and from there the funds go to help many people in many places.

THE NEXT MEETING OF THE EVENING GROUP, WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, will be on Tuesday, November 1 (All Saints' Day) when our speaker will be the Reverend Dr. Roy S. Lee of Nuffield College, Oxford, England. His subject will be "Women in the Church."

There will be a Service of the Holy Communion at 5:20 p.m. for All Saints'
Day at which time the Evening Group will have Corporate Communion.
Dinner will be at 6 p.m. in the Centennial Room, 1902 Walnut Street, and reservations ($1.50) should be received no later than Thursday, October 27, by the President, Mrs. M. Rebecca Sapp. She may be reached at PE 5-2345, Extension 8521 during the day; or at home, FE 5-2162, in the evening.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15 is the date for the United Thank Offering Fall presentation of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, at Christ Church, Second Street above Market at 8 p.m. The speaker will be Miss Frances M. Young, Executive Director of the General Division of Women's Work.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20 has been designated as Stewardship-Loyalty Sunday in the Church of the Holy Trinity under the leadership of Austin J. Gangel and Col. Samuel R. Todd.

Start thinking about your Stewardship. Christians should be thankful and responsible to God and this is revealed by their lips and in their lives.
Giving comes from faith and that faith is strengthened by giving—we learn to love that for which we work and give. We have a responsibility to give as we have been given. Think about your Stewardship!

NEXT WEEK, FEBRUARY 19, we welcome as our guest preacher for Theological Education Sunday, the Very Reverend John B. Coburn, Dean of the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The task of educating men to serve God and Man through the Church's ministry is a challenging one. The school in Cambridge has completed a century of service, the task of preparing men for effective leadership in the Church. Come and hear Dean Coburn speak about this very important facet of our Church's life.

ALSO—ON FEBRUARY 19 in the afternoon at four o'clock another great event.
Holy Trinity is to be the host parish for an area Confirmation Service at

FRIDAY — FEBRUARY 24

SAINT MATTHIAS' DAY

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

TODAY (Theological Education Offering Sunday) we are happy to welcome the Very Reverend John B. Coburn from the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Massachusetts, as our guest preacher.

The observance of Theological Education Sunday is less than thirty years old, but it has, in the course of that time, become so important as a source of revenue to the theological schools of our Church that they have come to depend upon it to meet a large portion of their current expenses. The observation has also brought to the attention of the lay people of the Church the importance of adequate and proper training of men to serve in the ranks of the ordained ministry.

Plan to attend the eleven o'clock service so that you, too, may become informed concerning these needs and your support will be intelligent and well advised.

AT FOUR O'CLOCK TODAY (February 19) Holy Trinity will be the host parish for an area confirmation service. After the service there will be a light colation held in the Parish House offering opportunity to meet Bishop Sterling of Montana (the Confirming Bishop) and to greet each other.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23—The second in the 1967 series of Family Lenten programs beginning at 5:30 p.m. with the Service of Evening Prayer, then down to the Centennial Room for supper and the speaker, who will be The Reverend Clement W. Welsh, Ph. D., Director of Studies at the College of Preachers, Washington, D. C. Come and hear his message.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26—Bishop DeWitt will make his visitation to the Church of the Holy Trinity. He will be at the eight o'clock and the eleven o'clock services. A "press-type conference" will be held in the Centennial Room after the eleven o'clock service. Plan to attend either of these services and meet the Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

THE PARISH HOUSE will be filled with the atmosphere of Spring Flowers on Saturday afternoon, April 1, at 2 P. M., when the Evening Division of Women will hold their annual Bridge Party and Baked Goods Sale. The proceeds are used for the missions of our church. There will be "white elephants," baked goods, jams and jellies including the well-known yearly lemon butter, surprise packages, etc. Plan now to make up a table for yourself and your friends. Admission is $1.25 and refreshments will be served. If you can contribute your time, or items for sale, or for door prizes, contact Miss May Baird, Mrs. Hilda Chaddick, Miss Anne Walford or any member of the Women's Evening Division. Trading stamps are a welcome contribution, also. Remember, April 1 and come and refresh yourself in the aura of the beautiful flowers of Springtime and in the fun and fellowship always present at this affair.

Eight o'clock in the Evening - The Service of Evening Prayer

The Preacher: The Associate Rector.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided).

THE "VISITATION" which the Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is making with us today is one of his "official" acts as set forth in the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S.A.

In many cases, such a Visitation has been linked with the administration of the Rite of Confirmation to the point where the administration of that rite has taken almost the whole time and might to many appear to be the sole function.

By very graciously arranging to spend the time beginning with the eight o'clock service of the Holy Communion and concluding with the "Press-type Conference" reception after the eleven o'clock service today, our Bishop makes possible the opportunity for many to meet with him and for us all to come to that deeper knowledge one with another which is an essential part of the truly family of God.

—C.P.

The Preacher: The Associate Rector.

(For the Evening Service, a special leaflet is provided)

THIS COMING THURSDAY, MARCH 16, will be the last in a very fine series of Lenten programs. There will be a Service of Evening Prayer in the church at 5:30, then down to the Centennial Room for dinner and the speaker.
The speaker this week is the Venerable John D. McCarty, Archdeacon of the Diocese of Pennsylvania since 1965, whose position in the diocese is that of Program Development Coordinator. This position is considered to be an effective way of bringing the diocese into full operation to meet the steadily multiplying problems which it faces. Bishop DeWitt has said that the diocese was extremely fortunate to find the precise qualifications, professional attainments and character to fill the role right here in our own diocese.

From various positions which he has held, Archdeacon McCarty has attained thorough knowledge of the Church, both nationally and internationally, as well as an awareness of the challenges which confront the Church in every work area—work, health and social services, government and recreation, both in the city and the suburbs.

So—we here at Holy Trinity can consider it a privilege and a treat to have Archdeacon McCarty for our speaker on Thursday evening, March 16. If you have not already made a reservation for this evening, you may do so by phoning the parish office (LO 7-1267) no later than Wednesday morning, March 15 and a single reservation is $2.00.

PLEASE NOTE that there is opportunity every Sunday morning to attend Dr.
Pratt's Bible Studies and seminars at 9 a.m. (after the 8 a.m. Service) in the Centennial Room at which time a light breakfast is served. All are welcome. During Lent, Dr. Pratt has also had a Bible study group on Monday evenings at 7:45 o'clock and you and your friends are cordially invited to attend. There is also a seminar on Tuesday afternoons at 4 o'clock followed by Evening Prayer at 5.

IT'S ONLY THREE WEEKS until the Annual Bridge Party and Potpourri of the Women's Evening Division held in the Parish House each year. The date is April 1 and the time is 2 p.m. Plan now to make up a table of four for Scrabble or Bridge and take advantage of the opportunity to buy homemade goodies, a "white elephant" or something from the handiwork table.
Surprise Packages are always a delight and there will be plenty of these.
We are hoping to have a used book table, so if you have books to contribute, they will be much appreciated.

The theme this year is "Spring Flowers" and this will surely be a welcome atmosphere after such a wet winter. Talk with a member of the Women's Evening Division if you can contribute items for sale, or if you wish further information. This yearly affair is for the benefit of the missions of our Church.

WORDS OF THE ANTHEM

Glory and honor, and laud be to Thee, King Christ the Redeemer!
Children before whose steps, Raise their hosannas of praise.
Israel's Monarch art Thou, And the glorious offspring of David,
Thou that approachest a King Blest in the name of the Lord.
"Glory to Thee in the highest" The heavenly armies are singing:—
"Glory to Thee upon earth" Man and creation reply.
Met there with Palms in their hands That day the folk of the Hebrews;
We with our prayers and hymns Now to Thy presence approach.
They to Thee proffered their praise For to herald thy dolorous passion,
We to the King on His throne Utter the jubilant hymn.
They were then pleasing to Thee Unto Thee our devotion be pleasing Merciful King, kind King, Who in all goodness art pleased.

After the dinner, such business as may properly come before the Parish Meeting will be considered—vestrymen and parish Council members will be elected, officers of the parish organizations will be introduced and the reports of the work accomplished during 1966 by this Parish will be set forth in a book which will be distributed to each person.

The annual Parish Meeting is always a matter of great importance in the corporate life of the congregation. Plan to come!

SUNDAY, APRIL 24—THE INGATHERING OF THE UNITED THANK OFFER-ING OF THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY—Once again it is time to gather in the contents of the Blue Boxes into which many thankful women drop offerings as an indication to God of their appreciation of the many blessings bestowed upon them. In turn—this offering goes far and wide to help people not so fortunate. Thus we share spiritually and materially with others. Plan to participate in this wonderful experience of thankfulness and sharing.

The Diocesan Spring Ingathering will be held on Wednesday, May 17, 10:30 a.m., at Valley Forge Chapel. Luncheon will follow the service. The speaker will be the Reverend William C. Heffner, Associate Secretary in the Overseas Department of the Executive Council in New York.

ON APRIL 16 at the 11 a.m. Service we will welcome the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution for their Seventy-ninth Annual Service, in the Church of the Holy Trinity.

THE WOMEN'S EVENING DIVISION wishes to express its sincere gratitude to each and every person who helped make their Annual Bridge Party and Bazaar such a success. Your contributions, moral support and loyalty are a real inspiration to the ladies as you so faithfully assist in this good effort each year. The proceeds will be used for the missions and missionary endeavors of our church. Much work has been involved, but lots of good fun and fellowship were also to be had and it was a day very much enjoyed by all.

THE DAY GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY will meet on Thursday, April 13, opening with the Service of Holy Communion in the church at 12:15 noon. Luncheon will follow in the Centennial Room at one o'clock. After lunch and a short business meeting, a film, in color and sound, of the dedication of the "Gloria in Excelsis Tower" of the Washington Cathedral, will be shown. This is an historic occasion as the splendid tower is added to the dignity and beauty of our Cathedral in Washington, D. C.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, April 10. Telephone the Parish Office, LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, Monday, April 17: Dinner will be served in the Centennial Room at six o'clock promptly, to be followed by the business meeting. Officers of the various parish organizations will be introduced and a booklet containing the yearly reports will be distributed.

If you haven't made your reservation, please do so by Thursday, April 13.

NEXT WEEK—Sunday, April 16, at the 11 o'clock service, we welcome the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution for their Seventy-ninth Annual Service commemorating the 190th Anniversary of the Encampment of the Continental Army at Valley Forge in 1777.

The Versicles.

R. The Lord be with you.

P. And with thy spirit.

R. Let us pray.

Then shall the Rector offer the following Prayer:

Beloved in Christ, we are met together to celebrate the glorious resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead, and to hear again from Holy Scriptures how He could not be holden of death, but broke the prison bonds of man's mortality.

But first, let us pray for the unity of the Churches, for the sick, for the feeble, for those in sorrow, for captives, for faithful penitents, for those who make any journey, for young men and maidens, for old men and children, for all the married, and for all who deserve our prayers and supplication in the Lord Christ.

Let us pray for the mercy of the Lord, for the souls of those our dear ones at rest, that the Lord may vouchsafe to them a peaceful refreshment and in a place of quiet and consolation may allow them profit with all His saints through Jesus Christ our Lord; who taught us to say "The Lord's Prayer."

(Adapted from a Bidding Prayer of the Ninth Century and used with permission.)

The Congregation being seated, then shall be read the First Lesson.

The First Lesson: Saint Luke 24:1-10.

THE DAY GROUP, WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY, have arranged a "Go-See" trip to the Church Farm School, at Glenloch, Pennsylvania, for Thursday, May 11.
Established by the Reverend Charles Schreiner, 25 or more years ago, the school provides a splendid home atmosphere, school and Christian training for half orphaned boys.

A PTC chartered bus will be on 19th Street in front of Holy Trinity Church
at 10:30 a.m.

Bring a sandwich. Bus fare is $1.00. Reservations must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, by Monday, May 8. Friends are cordially welcome.
Telephone the Parish Office (LO 7-167), or mail a card in plenty of time.

STRANGE ARE THE CONTRIBUTIONS which form the communications of a week, or any part thereof. Last Sunday at the termination of the eleven o'clock service there was a wire asking for a copy of a previous service and later in the week, the following simple statement which is reprinted in toto:—"Prayerless pews produce powerless pulpits." Is this what is wrong with our land today? Is America just too busy to pray? If so, BUSY DOING WHAT? Someone has said if you are too busy to pray YOU ARE TOO BUSY!
Then follows this definition of a Christian: "A Christian is one with a mind through which Christ thinks; a heart through which Christ loves; with a voice through which Christ speaks and a pair of hands through which Christ helps others." Whatever comes is read and it is appreciated in the spirit in which it is sent.

IT IS WITH THE GREATEST OF PLEASURE that we welcome as our guest preacher this morning the Reverend Dr. J. Ernest Somerville, the distinguished minister of our neighbor congregation, the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia located at 21st and Walnut Streets. A native of Scotland and a graduate of the University of Glasgow and of the Theological School of that university, Dr. Somerville came to his present pastorate from Alabama. A good friend and distinguished neighbor of ours, he was one who cooperated with us in offering the famous Blake-Niemoller dialogue sermons held here during Lent of 1965, and he and the members of his congregation together with the members and friends of the First Baptist Church have joined with us in the past for a Lenten three point exchange among the center city churches. We bespeak by your support a very warm and hearty welcome for him.

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE CLOTHING APPEAL—The opportunity to respond to this need and concern will take place between Trinity Sunday, May 21 and Tuesday, May 23, of this year. The nature of the needs involved is well known to you—respond as you are able to this cause which it is an honor to commend.

NEXT WEEK — SUNDAY, MAY 21—Marks the beginning of National Salvation Army Week. During this week, Colonel Horace E. Weatherly, Divisional Commander, cordially invites you to visit local Army centers and learn more about their program of "Compassion in Action." When General Booth's son poured forth his concern for the ragged wretches sleeping under London's bridges in the bitter cold, the General replied, "Do Something!"

"Do something!" has been a key phrase in The Salvation Army ever since. The Salvation Army does something for the unwed mother, for the deprived child, for the disaster victim, for the derelict—for all the weak, lonely and lost.

Since 1865 The Salvation Army has been serving the needy in the name of Christ, and through its evangelical outreach winning people to Christ. Plan to visit one of the local Army centers and see for yourself what this great organization is DOING.

COMING ON SUNDAY, JUNE 18 AT 11 A. M.—The special service of tribute and thanksgiving for the 100th Anniversary of the Canadian Confederation. Plan to be present.

A NEW SYSTEM OF DEANERIES has been set up in the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Church of the Holy Trinity belongs to the Southwark Deanery, composed of 18 parishes, of which our own Rector is the Dean.
Feeling that an opportunity should be created for the people in this Deanery to come to know each other, a joint picnic has been proposed.

THE TIME: Saturday, June 10, from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. (in case of inclement weather, the picnic is to be cancelled).

THE PLACE: In the picnic grove on the grounds of the Cathedral, 8630 Ridge Avenue, Roxboro, (washrooms, etc., available). The PTC Bus
"A" going to Barren Hill goes right by the front of the property, also parking space for private cars.

EACH ONE ATTENDING responsible for his own provisions of food and beverage.

Plan to make a personal response to this program. Let us have the full support of the "people of Holy Trinity."

AT DR. PRATT'S SEMINAR, Sunday, June 18, at nine o'clock, the Reverend Dabney Carr, Executive Secretary of the Evangelical Education Society, will speak to this group concerning the Liturgy of the Service of Holy Communion, Prayer Book, Study 17.

Even though you are not in regular attendance at this seminar, you are welcome to come to this special program. It is held in the Centennial Room and a light breakfast is served.

AT THE LAST MEETING of the Evening Group, Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity, the following officers were elected:

Vice-President: Mrs. Hilda M. Chaddick.

Treasurer: Miss Margaret Colflesh.

Corresponding Secretary: Miss Sophia Ewell.

Recording Secretary: Mrs. Virginia Bitter.

U.T.O. Custodian: Miss Margaret Anne Rogers.

On Sunday morning, June 25, at the 8 a.m. Service of the Holy Communion, all the members of the Evening Group will participate in a Corporate Communion and there will be a Service of Institution for the newly elected officers, to be followed by a breakfast at Horn & Hardart.

AN OPPORTUNITY EXISTS to render significant help to our Chaplain at the Philadelphia Naval Hospital, by securing and supplying to him, for use in the recreation room, a steel guitar. Should any member, or friend, of the Parish have ideas or contacts relative to this opportunity, please speak to the Rector.

Last Saturday morning some 16 contributions of birthday cakes and cookies were taken to the hospital as a result of a recent appeal. Sincere thanks are expressed for these contributions. Bear in mind that the opportunity will continue for quite some time. If you are able to respond to this in any effective way, please contact Chaplain McCoy at the Philadelphia Naval Hospital.

JUST A REMINDER—It seems far away—but it is time to begin to plan for our Bazaar on November 2. We will need articles for all of our tables so if you're going to be on vacation in other places, remember us, or if you stay at home, we'll love to have any homemade items. For information, contact Mrs. John S. Fair or Mrs. S. Taylor Creighton.

MAY I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY to thank all who have faithfully attended the various seminars offered throughout the 1966-1967 season and to invite you and your friends to be on hand again when they resume on Sunday, September 17. . . . On Saturday, June 10—47 people representing seven parishes attended the Deanery picnic held on the Cathedral grounds. This means that seven parishes out of a total of 18 were represented (half of those who came were from Holy Trinity). . . . It is hoped that you will look at the repaired and refurbished stained glass windows near the northeast corner of the Church (main floor) which have just been reinstalled.
Protective glass has been placed on the outside of these windows to preserve them from the effects of weather and vandals. Take time after the morning services to note these windows and to enjoy their beauty in detail.

ON SUNDAY, JUNE 25 at 8 a.m., a Corporate Communion and Service of Institution for the newly elected officers of the Evening Group of the Women of the Church of the Holy Trinity. This will be followed by a fellowship breakfast.

CONCERN: A number of people—members and friends of the Parish—have asked concerning the sheets of plywood which are where three windows used to be near the northeast corner of the church on the main floor. The windows have been removed for repairs, just in time, too! We anticipate a very noticeable improvement when they are repaired, refinished and replaced.

Some who are our neighbors in the area of Rittenhouse Square have also expressed interest as we have begun this work and we thank them for this kindly concern. Persons seeing WINDOWS being properly repaired could to the same—and to a far greater degree—reflect our concern in one of the basic functions of the Church—i.e., the "repair and restoration" of HUMAN BEINGS. The Gospel has much to say about that. . . . —C. P.

THE NINE O'CLOCK SEMINARS ON SUNDAY MORNING resume on September 17. They will be preceded by a light breakfast of coffee and sweet rolls. The opening session will be given over to plans for the coming year and for the course of study in which we are to be engaged. If, however, and most especially on those Sundays when the weather proves to be inclement, you do not find it possible to stay for the seminar but would enjoy a cup of coffee, by all means feel free to join us in the Centennial Room directly after the eight o'clock service of the Holy Communion.

GIVE PARTICULAR ATTENTION, if you please, to the various programs which have been prepared and which are to be offered under the auspices of the Women of the Church, both the Day and the Evening Divisions. Many of the programs have been secured at considerable effort and they merit the response and the support of all the Women of the Church. Plan to be present yourself and observe the stated deadlines for meal reservations which are most important.

PRE-SERVICE PRAYERS are offered in the north-western corner of the Church on the main floor between 10:40 and 10:50 each Sunday morning. Those who gather for this (as well as the members of the Thursday morning Prayer Group) remember the needs of individuals, the on-going life of the Parish and those corporate concerns which affect us all. PARTICIPATE—and if from time to time you ask that "special prayers" be offered, come and join yours to those of other people.

NEW EYES FOR THE NEEDY—TRINITY CLUB asks the help of all members and friends of the Church of the Holy Trinity in supporting a very worthwhile cause.

Endorsed by Wills Eye Hospital, NEW EYES FOR THE NEEDY is a non-profit organization which helps pay for eye care of those who desperately need it, but can't afford the cost.

What Trinity Club would like are contributions of old eyeglasses—metal glasses frames in any condition, unbroken plastic frames with lenses, or sunglasses—hearing aids, precious metal scraps such as old watches, jewelry—real, costume, or outdated—dentures. The jewelry is melted down and sold by NEW EYES and all the resulting funds used for eye care.

PLEASE, NO MONEY, loose lenses or hard glass cases. Keith Martin will be glad to supply additional information at LO 7-0612.

THE ANNUAL BAZAAR—A gala affair presented by THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY, to be held at The Barclay on NOVEMBER 2, 1967!

In order that this Bazaar be successful, we are planning for it now and are asking for the interest, support and cooperation of the MEMBERS OF THE PARISH. The project is, of course, sponsored by the Women of Holy Trinity, but the proceeds are used for the World Mission of the Church and that is the responsibility of every Church member. Will YOU start thinking now what you can do to help?

We hope many of you will come to the Bazaar and to the Card Party. This is one of the occasions when we, of our Parish, meet not only to support the Church's work but to enjoy the day together.

ST. MICHAEL — ALL ANGELS

Friday — September 29

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion.

THE OPENING MEETING for this season of the Women's Evening Division will be held on Tuesday, October 3, with dinner at 6:00 p.m. followed by a speaker, our own Rector, Dean Cuthbert Pratt. Dr. Pratt will show slides of his "working vacation" in the Yukon during July and he will be telling us of his visit there. All are welcome.
Dinner reservations must be in the hands of Miss Sophia Ewell, 235 S. 21st Street, by Thursday, September 28. Dinner—$1.50. We'll be looking for you.

MEMBERS OF THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE are busy as busy can be working and planning towards that very important date of Thursday, November 2, when the Barclay will once again be the scene of the Annual Bazaar and Card Party.

You, too, can help even if you are not specifically on one of the committees.
First—search through drawers, cupboards, closets, the attic (if you have one) for items that could be used for surprise packages, or as gifts for the boutique, useful and Christmas tables. And—instead of a skeleton in the closet—see if it contains a white elephant or a hat for the hat table! Do you make a special cake, pie, cookie, etc.? If so, your donation to the food table will be most welcome. Then, start thinking what friends you will ask to accompany you to the card party, which is always a delightful affair.

November 2 will be here before we know it so start thinking about the Bazaar and Card Party NOW!

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING—This has long been a significant program for the Women of the Church. Now there is to be a new unity of the United Thank Offering. The Diocese of Pennsylvania, together with a number of other dioceses, feels that a truly UNITED Thank Offering including the participation of men and women—boys and girls—will be a meaningful corporate endeavor providing more adequately for ever continuing needs.
Sunday, October 22, at the 11 o'clock service, the fall UNITED Thank Offering will be gathered here at Holy Trinity.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN AN EVENING MEETING FOR THE STUDY OF THE BIBLE? If so, come to the Centennial Room on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. All are welcome. Perhaps you have friends that would be glad to share this opportunity—bring them with you.

TO THE YOUNG FAMILIES OF HOLY TRINITY—If you are in need of the facilities of a "child minding" program here at the Church during the eleven o'clock Service on Sunday mornings, please call the Church Office so that if the Service is warranted, we might make plans.

THE DAY GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY will hold their first meeting of the season on October 12, opening with the Service of Holy Communion in the Church at 12:15 noon, followed by lunch in the Centennial Room at one o'clock. After a short business meeting, Dr. Pratt—by way of the magic carpet—will waft us to the Yukon where he spent most of his summer. Guests will be very welcome.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, October 9. Telephone the Parish Office (LO
7-1267), or mail a card in plenty of time.

THE HOUSE OF REST FOR THE AGED is a Diocesan Home for elderly women.
It provides security, comfort and attractive surroundings for some 38 ladies.
The home was instituted in 1889 by Bishop Whitaker—then Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. It is a spacious mansion which, through the years, has been modernized without destroying its original charm. Gifts from interested and generous individuals have made possible several first floor wings for the care of the infirm. An up-to-date infirmary office, modern kitchens and laundry and, in 1953, the Memorial Chapel of the Guardian Angels was added. You are cordially invited to visit the House of Rest and see for yourself the attractive home created by an active Board of Trustees and the Women's Board of Management—representatives from Churches in the Diocese—and interested friends. We hope you will come on October 18, The Annual Donation Day and Open House, from 1:30 to 4:30. Come, visit the ladies, see the home and enjoy the party at 5919 Wayne Avenue, Germantown, Philadelphia 19144.

THE BAZAAR

The clarion call to ACTION—in the leaflet of September 24—should send each member and friend of Holy Trinity searching their cupboards and hideaways for appropriate items, for time does have a way of flitting and November will soon be with us.

The Chairmen of this year's Bazaar and Card Party are Mrs. S. Taylor Creighton and Mrs. John S. Fair. These ladies, and the Chairmen of the various booths, are bending every effort to have this year's affair equal, if not surpass, the bazaars of other years.

The intriguingly wrapped packages of the Surprise Table; the Boutiques, especially interesting this year (will have some articles from overseas); the Useful Table is not only THAT, but will have some unusual items that must be seen to be appreciated. Once again the novelties will live up to their name—decorative and purposeful creations. Perhaps you're furnishing a new house, or apartment, the White Elephant table will be sure to have just that special thing you need. Hats are always stimulating and the Bazaar's Hat Bar is no exception, surrounded by hats and mirrors, the ladies have a fine time.

The interest and help of each one of us is of great importance. When you send, or bring, your donations for the Bazaar will you mark the package with your name and address, also the table for which it is intended. This will be much appreciated.

The success of the Bazaar will enable us to give liberally to the Mission of the Church at home and abroad and also to help meet some of the needs of our own Diocese.

The Card Party, the Door Prizes, the Gourmet, Cakes and Candies, etc., will appear in the next edition. Look for it!

You may like to know that this exciting event will be held at the Barclay, East Rittenhouse Square, on Thursday, November 2. It will be open from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

12:15 (noon) — Holy Communion

READ VERY CAREFULLY the enclosed brochure which gives full information about the UNITED THANK OFFERING—past, present and future. You will be amazed to learn that the very first collection at the Triennial Meeting in 1886 was $82.71; the offering in 1964 was $4,790,921.51! The work that the UTO Offering has accomplished through the years is fantastic with women proving constantly their vital concern for the total work of the Church—giving thanks through continual giving.

Next Sunday, October 22, at the 11 o'clock service the Church of the Holy Trinity will participate in the second part of the tremendous UTO program —the Fall Ingathering. The first step is when each woman makes her offering to God in thankfulness for His many blessings.

After the parish ingatherings, the Fall Diocesan Ingathering is held—which will be in Christ Church, Philadelphia, on Tuesday, November 14 at 8 p.m.
Reservations for the dinner preceding the Service may be made through the Church House.

DEANERY MEETING: Date: Tuesday, October 24.
Time: 3:00—Women's Meeting.
5:30—Evening Prayer.
6:15—Supper.
7:30—Meeting.

Place: Trinity Memorial Church, 22nd and Spruce Sts.
Supper reservations ($1.50) may be sent to the Reverend Charles Penniman, Rector, by the 20th.

WEDNESDAY EVENING AT 7:15 P. M.—BIBLE STUDY—ALL ARE WELCOME!
IF YOU KNOW of an apartment for rent, or wish to share an apartment, please call the Parish Office (LO 7-1267)—we frequently have need for such information.

KEEP IN MIND the date of the annual BAZAAR AND CARD PARTY—at the Barclay on Thursday, November 2 from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.!

TO DATE: Holy Trinity has sent to The Presiding Bishop's Fund the sum of $500.02; and so far the sum of $2,000 has been received for the restoration of the stained glass windows in the Parish Church.

THE BAZAAR

This notice is intended to supplement Bazaar information which appeared in the leaflet of October 8. That article covered the Surprise Booth, the Hat Bar, Boutiques, the Useful, Novelties (really Christmas attractions) and the White Elephant table. Now, we shall consider the other and equally important attractions. Beginning with the Card Party (Chaired by Mrs. Eugene Callis, a lady well versed in Card Party procedure). Card tables will be set up in the ballroom. There will be attractive table prizes and an opportunity —if you are one of the lucky ones—to select from the Door Prizes located at a table nearby. Publicize the Card Party to your friends and neighbors, suggest that they make up a table, or two, and spend a pleasant afternoon in the attractive Barclay Ballroom. The White Elephant Booth will also be in the ballroom, with a variety of interesting wares for sale. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

The Gourmet Table will welcome donations of pickles, jellies, preserves, etc.
This Committee will also be happy to receive homemade candy, cakes, and cookies. The Bazaar Committee hopes that PERISHABLES—such as the above mentioned goodies—can be brought to the Barclay on the morning of the Bazaar. Your interest and assistance will be greatly appreciated.

On the two Sunday mornings preceding the Bazaar, October 22 and 29, members of the committee will be in the Parish House from 10:30 until 10:50 and from 12 until 1 o'clock, to receive donations. Articles for each and every table will be appreciated. Surprise packages are especially needed. Handmade and Boutique items—also articles for the Useful Table—all of these will be most welcome.

HATS—new, or good as new, are very popular and additions to the present stock will be gladly received.

This is the one day of the year when the Women of Holy Trinity meet and work and enjoy the day together. It's always a happy occasion and made more so by the knowledge that the receipts from the annual affair make possible the women's missionary offering. When you support the Card Party and Bazaar, you are helping the work of the Church, in far away lands and in our own country. Thank you. REMEMBER—NOVEMBER 2 IS THE DATE!

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE work at Holy Trinity—Since September 1966 the Parish has participated in two publicized CWS collections. For each collection we had around 200 pounds of excellent quality clothes and Mrs. Charles Perrin, the Parish Chairman, reports that it was a joy to pack our offering.
However—Holy Trinity did not contribute fully the 10c per pound necessary to transport gifts to ship-side, although many bringing clothes generously provided the transportation cost. Others, who hadn't clothing to give, shared in the project by sending money for transportation. Either gift, material or financial, is totally dependent upon the other in fulfilling its mission. No dime is too lowly to offer; it will carry a pound to ship-side.
More in next week's leaflet about this important project!

"GRANT THEM CONTINUAL GROWTH IN THY LOVE AND SERVICE"

THE DATE TO REMEMBER — THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2 — ANNUAL BAZAAR
AND CARD PARTY AT THE BARCLAY — 11 A. M. - 4 P. M.!

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE WORK (Continued)—There are two more CWS collections in the coming year, early in December and late May. Clothing may be left at the Church at any time, but for the December collection it must be here by November 27. There is a special appeal for blankets—which in some areas are used for clothing, bedding and rugs. They are desperately needed for Middle and Far East war victims. Clothing should be cleaned, but not necessarily pressed.

WHAT CAN PARISHIONERS AT HOLY TRINITY do to help? Mrs. Charles C. Perrin, the able chairman of this work in Holy Trinity, has selected three particular areas to consider: (1) spread the word that each pound needs its dime and that those who have no material offering to make might like to "tote" a few pounds to shipside. (2) publicize the need for blankets for the December collection. (3) emphasize the continuing special need for boys' and men's clothing.

Many thanks to Mrs. Charles C. Perrin, and to her friend Mrs. Clarence Edwards, who do such a fine job of packing and transporting the clothing to the collection center.

ON TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 7, the Women's Evening Division will hold their regular monthly meeting with dinner at 6:00 p.m. and speaker following at 7:00. Please make your dinner reservation with Miss Sophia Ewell (LO 8-5096) by Thursday, November 2.

A very special treat is in order for this meeting when the Archbishop of the Syrian Church in Antioch, Mar Athanasius Y. Samuel, will speak on his firsthand knowledge of the Dead Sea Scrolls. This is a rare opportunity to hear this outstanding presentation and all are most welcome to attend.

WE WELCOME all guests who worshipped with us today. We know you by the silver cross you wear.

After the service, join with us in the Parish House for a "get-acquainted time." You will enjoy meeting the members of Holy Trinity and they, in turn, will enjoy meeting you. To the members and friends of Holy Trinity—come to the Coffee Hour and meet other members and friends of Holy Trinity!

THE FALL DIOCESAN INGATHERING—when United Thank Offerings from all parishes in the Diocese are presented—will be held in Christ Church, Second and Market Streets, on Tuesday, November 14, at 8:00 p.m. All are welcome. The speaker will be Mrs. Robert C. Lea, Jr., whose topic will be "The Episcopal Community Services."

Reservations for the dinner, at $2.00 each, preceding the service may be procured through the Church House, Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, and must be made no later than Tuesday, November 7.

THE DAY GROUP OF THE WOMEN OF HOLY TRINITY will meet on November 9, opening with the Service of Holy Communion in the Church at 12:15 noon. Luncheon will follow at one o'clock in the Centennial Room. After a business meeting which will include a brief report on the Bazaar, held November 2, Mrs. Henry L. Hood, President of Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese, will report on the Triennial Convention held in Seattle in September. This is a fine opportunity to hear from Mrs. Hood a description of that historic meeting. Guests will be very welcome.

Reservations for lunch ($1.25) must reach the Parish House, 1904 Walnut Street, not later than Monday, November 6. Telephone the Parish Office, LO 7-1267, or mail a card in plenty of time.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 19—STEWARDSHIP-LOYALTY SUNDAY—11:00 A. M.—A time when the entire congregation of Holy Trinity is challenged to review its financial support of the MISSION OF THE CHURCH.
